words of Light and Life into a dark and chaotic world. Every situation we are in, our very presence (actually the presence of Christ in us) can bring a SEPARATION of darkness and light... and darkness CANNOT overpower Light. As Sons of Light we wield a far greater power than the 'rulers of darkness'(Eph. 6) of this world. As we respond to the darkness of men's hearts with condemnation, we only empower the 'rulers of darkness' to obscure the Light of Christ. As we respond with the Spirit of Christ in us, Light and Life and separation will occur. "For God who said, Let Light shine out of darkness has shone in our hearts so as to beam forth the light for the illumination of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. However, we possess this precious treasure, the divine Light of the Gospel in frail human vessels of earth that the grandeur and exceeding greatness of the power may be shown to be of God and not from ourselves...."(2 Cor.4:6-7). We have the treasure of Light and Life, the glory of Christ within us and THAT is what must beam forth into this dark world. We are like the trumpets and earthen vessels in Gideon's army (Judges 7:18-20); we must allow God to 'break' us so that His Light will shine forth as we proclaim like a trumpet words of Light and Life! We WILL see the separation of darkness and light, and darkness will flee just like the Midianite army did. It is important to note that God sent Gideon and his army IN the darkness of night TO the enemy's camp! Too many Christians are looking to get raptured OUT of this dark world when that is NOT the purpose of God. Rather, His purpose is to send us TO the darkness as Sons of Light to proclaim Light and Life that SEPARATION may occur and darkness flee!

God is calling forth Sons of Light THIS day to speak to this darkened 'tohu va bohu' (without form and void) world... will you respond?

SON OF MY RIGHT HAND

by Alan Mc Savage <broal1@greater-emmanuel.org>

Greater Emmanuel International

<http://www.greater-emmanuel.org/contents.html>

Last week the Lord was giving me the words "Son of My Right hand." I took note and prayed for His revealing of the word, because it was, and is a persistent word to my spirit.

Isaiah 59:16 amp says: And He saw that there was no man and wondered that there was no intercessor [no one to intervene on behalf of truth and right]; therefore His own arm brought Him victory, and His own righteousness [having the Spirit without measure] sustained Him.

Isa. 53:11; Col. 2:9; 1 John 2:1,2.

Isa. 53:11 He shall see the labor of His soul, and be satisfied. By His knowledge My righteous Servant shall justify many, for He shall bear their iniquities.

Col 2:9 For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily;

1 Jn 2:1-2 My little children, these things I write to you, so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. And He Himself is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the whole world.

Hallelujah!

The Lord is showing me that the Son of My Right Hand is not a single person but a company of people that have been called out to be a source of Truth, Light and Right Judgement to the Body of Christ.

A Priesthood dedicated to Righteous Judgement

John 7:24 "Do not judge according to appearance, but judge with righteous judgment."

II Th 1:3-5 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is fitting, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of every one of you all abounds toward each other, so that we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that you endure, which is manifest evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer;

John 20:20-23 Now when He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. So Jesus said to them again, "Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you." And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. "If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

This command is as much in effect today as it was two thousand years ago.

What the Lord is showing me is that our commission as priests of the Most High is to intercede for those we come in contact with and to remit their sins before the Lord, if we retain any ones sin the judgement will fall upon us in the form of un-forgiveness, guilt, and condemnation.

"For with what judgment you judge, you will be judged;"

Matt 7:1-5 Judge not, that you be not judged. "For with what judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you. "And why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but do not consider the plank in your own eye? "Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye'; and look, a plank is in your own eye? "Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck out of your brother's eye.

We have been given the ministry of Reconciliation not condemnation.

The accuser in a trial stood at the right hand of the accused, so Satan stood at Joshua's right hand Zech. 3:1; Psalm 109:31

Zech 3:1 Then he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the Angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to oppose him.

Ps 109:30-31 I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth; yes, I will praise Him among the multitude. For He shall stand at the right hand of the poor, to save him from those who condemn him.

The Advocate Messiah is at the believer's "right hand," to defend his cause effectively: Ps 16:8 I have set the LORD always before me; because He is at my right hand I shall not be moved.

Therefore Paul could say: Rom 8:31,33-34 What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? Who shall bring a charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, and furthermore is also risen, who is even at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us.

God's right hand" denotes His omnipotence. "The right hand," being more proficient than the left hand, is a place of honor.

Ps 110:1 The LORD said to my Lord, "Sit at My right hand, till I make Your enemies Your footstool."

Matt 25:33 "And He will set the sheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left.

Ps. 138:7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, You will revive me, you will stretch out Your hand against the wrath of my enemies, and Your right hand will save me.

Isa 41:10 Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, yes, I will help you, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.'

Matt 22:44 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at My right hand, till I make Your enemies Your footstool" '? Son of My Right Hand = Son's of Light and Mercy.

Light implies the continued existence of the Divine purpose.

What is the Divine Purpose?

Micah 6:8 He has shown you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?

Little Benjamin - The son of my right hand. Gen 35:18 And so it was, as her soul was departing (for she died), that she called his name Ben-Oni; but his father called him Benjamin.

Genesis 35:18 PP1 [She called his name Ben-oni] Ben-'Owniy (heb 1126) "the son of my sorrow or affliction, because of the hard labour she had in bringing him into the world; but his father called him Binyaamiyn (heb 1144), "the son of my right hand," i. e., the son peculiarly dear to me. "So man of the right hand," <Psa. 80:17>, signifies one much loved and regarded of God.

Benjamin speaks of the Sons of God, birthed by hard labor out of the Old and thrust into the new. Out of the Law and sin and death, and into Law of Life, Grace and mercy. From the very beginning Benjamin as a type of the sons of God who have been chosen for this task.

In anticipation of Benjamin's coming mission, Moses said: Deut. 33:12 Of Benjamin he said: "The beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by Him, who shelters him all the day long; and he shall dwell between His shoulders.'

A favored son is often carried on the shoulders of his loving father.

He shall dwell between His shoulders, (figuratively) The Great I AM said he would meet with him between the wings of the Cherubim. (Shoulders of the Ark of the Covenant.)

Ps 145:10 All Your works shall praise You, O LORD, and Your saints shall bless You.

2623 chaciyd (khaw-seed');

from 2616; properly, kind, i.e. (religiously) pious (a saint):

KJV-- godly (man), good, holy (one), merciful, saint, [un]godly.

Givers or doer's of Mercy, Saints of the Most High God.

Sons of Mercy "The Hebrew word translated 'mercy seat' is 'kapporet' It means; a 'covering.' Used only for the Mercy Seat, it distinguishes the Mercy Throne as a protective covering. The covering of the Ark of the Covenant was a place of the judgement-of-mercy for the forgiveness of sin. It was the judgement throne of the Invisible God. It was a throne of mercy.

That Mercy seat is a place of position in Christ, we are seated with Him in that throne of mercy in the heavenlies, far above all principality and power of the enemy, (this is a position in Christ, not a geographical location).
The Ark signifies the Christ in and among all of us the hope of glory. (Col. 1:27)
He is now seated within us on the mercy seat, and we are seated with Him.
To be seated means to be in a place of authority, as in a throne room, the only one seated was the King, and His bride.
Here is our mandate: "If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."
"Judge not, that you be not judged. "For with what judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you.
Matt 16:19 "And I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven." The Ark and the Mercy Seat within the Holy of Holies was the symbol of the coming Word-made-flesh, Jesus Christ.
The 'blood of sprinkling, was a symbol of the Lamb of God who bears away the world's sin. For everything here named there is one great descriptive term. MERCY.
The Forth Dimension
We are not only to enter in to the Feasts of Tabernacles, or the realm of the Holy of Holies, but we are to become what we see in that place! We are to become True Saints or Doers of Mercy by nature even as the Lamb of God is Himself the seat of mercy! 1 John 3 "...when He shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is."
We shall take on His true nature and He says of Himself He is merciful and His mercies endure forever! There is no end to His mercies!
Deut. 33:12 Of Benjamin he said: "The beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by Him, who shelters him all the day long; and he shall dwell between His shoulders."
Moffit says of Benjamin: He is the Eternal's darling, he lives ever in security; the Most High encircles him, he is seated upon his slopes.
Ferrar Fenton says: "The Beloved of the Eternal rests secure, relying on Him all the day. And bore safe in His arms.
So Benjamin, the coming bearer of light... was under special care... and performance of the assigned mission.
Benjamin was to bear a "light," in "Jeru - salem." What is this light?
Jesus in the sermon on the mount told His disciples that they were the LIGHT of the world." Matthew 5:14. Why "...so they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven (verse 16)
They were the light of good works, the works of God.
The work of the Gospel. Preaching and manifesting the Gospel of the kingdom of God.
Jesus said in John 9:4-5 "I must work the works of Him who sent Me while it is day; the night is coming when no MAN can work.
"As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world." Notice Jesus used Himself, and "Man" in doing the work. The disciples - (and us through their word) are to engage in Jesus' work, the work of God. We are not only light bearers, but we are the light, for the only reason, as Paul wrote: Gal 2:20 "I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me."
That's why, we are the "light of the world, because Christ Jesus, the "light of the world" is living inside of us.
Judgement
To the "doers of mercy, the saints and priests of the most High God."
On every hand we hear of judgments that are coming upon the earth.
The song of Moses from Rev. 15:2-4 contains much instruction about His judgments.
Rev 15:2-4 And I saw something like a sea of glass mingled with fire, and those who have the victory over the beast, over his image and over his mark and over the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having harps of God. They sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying: "Great and marvelous are Your works, lord God Almighty! Just and true are Your ways, O King of the saints!
Who shall not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy. For all nations shall come and worship before You, for Your judgments have been manifested."

The Lord reveals that "His judgments have been made manifested" are a people who manifest these judgments of God as being THE WAY of the Lord which is JUST and TRUE.

The people who are worthy to sing this song are they that have gotten the victory over the beast (carnal nature), and over his image (Adamic nature), and over his mark (carnal reasoning mind), and over the number of his name (which is man x man x man, his human nature )

He is talking about a victorious people, a transparent people who have won the victory over the realm of the natural man - his image, his mark, his name and his beast nature. And the inspired writer sees these people AS THE LORD'S JUDGMENTS MADE MANIFEST. (Manifest means: to make evident or certain by showing or displaying). They have learned His ways through His judgments. All of His ways are just and true. When the nations shall behold this people, then shall they come and worship before the Lord !

He is speaking of a people who through His judgments have learned to become Doers of Mercy and Bearers of His Light, Priests of the Most High God.

Listen again to Jesus' first words: John 20:21-23 So Jesus said to them again, "Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you." And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. "If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

Matt 18:18-22 "Assuredly, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

"Again I say to you that if two of you agree on earth concerning anything that they ask, it will be done for them by My Father in heaven. "For where two or three are gathered together in My name, I am there in the midst of them." Then Peter came to Him and said, "Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Up to seven times?" Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you, up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven.

We can choose to retain another's sins against us, and if we do, we find we are delivered over to the tormentors and neither party has any peace until forgiveness is freely granted. Jesus said:

Matt 18:24-35 "And when he had begun to settle accounts, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents...."Then his master, after he had called him, said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you begged me. 'Should you not also have had compassion on your fellow servant, just as I had pity on you?' "And his master was angry, and delivered him to the torturers until he should pay all that was due to him.

The torturers are, guilt, condemnation, un-forgiveness.

Sons Of Abraham

Steve Shultz

October 5, 2000

With all our praying for Israel, I believe the Lord has sent several people to me to caution me IN THE SPIRIT (Because I believe it's coming from God) to NOT make the mistake of calling all ARABS enemies of Israel and enemies of God. This is simply NOT the case at all.

Many, many, MANY of our Christian brothers and sisters are Arab. We need to pray for them.

So . . . as we pray for the Peace of Jerusalem, we need to understand that if Jerusalem is at peace, so will the Arab countries likely be at peace.

To pray for Israel, is in effect, a way to pray for ALL Nations.

This is even a veiled understanding when Jesus said that "MY HOUSE" is to be called a house of prayer FOR ALL NATIONS.

This is, I believe, a reminder from the Lord. Here is one of the emails that was sent to me.

I apologize humbly and publicly if I've inadvertently inferred that ANY Arab brother or sister is an enemy of God. After all, both Arab and Jew are sons of Abraham. They may be half brothers, but they are full sons.

Our fight is NOT against flesh and blood, after all.

That's what the GOOD BOOK says, anyway.

Blessings,

Steve Shultz

Here is a copy of one of the emails:

ARABS ARE NOT THE ENEMY
Nader Yassa

Dear Steve,

This is the 1st time for me to write to you but I'm an old subscriber.

I'm an Egyptian Christian, full time leader in a revival movement in Egypt.

I have some comments that have been on my spirit for a long time like a burden & I didn't feel to share them because they seem opposite to a certain flow that I feel the list is taking. Any way I can't take it anymore so I'm sharing. You can keep the sharing for your self & I'll understand that but if you want you can share it with the list.

What I feel is that there is a Christian American tendency to mark all Arabs under:

"Islam/Terrorist/Fundamentalists/Rich gulfy sheikhs"..etc & because of that subconscious understanding there is a kind of "Enemy State No. 1" attitude especially when it comes to "The State of Israel".

What I want to share is that there are lots of believers [members in the Body of the Bride] in all the Arab countries & believe me there are a lots of them.

So what I feel is that in a lot of the communications & prophetic words being sent to the list there is the attitude of "The Enemies" concerning the Arabs when it comes to Israel--Which by the way doesn't have as many Believers as Egypt-- for example. May the work of evangelism open in Israel as it is in Egypt. In Jesus Name.

I remember once reading to one of the famous American Christian teachers who wrote lots of wonderful teaching books & in his book he was mentioning about the 1973 war between Egypt & Israel & he said:

"God led us to pray that the enemies of Israel will fall under confusion & blindness so the bullets & rockets can kill them quickly".

WOW!!! God save us!

There where 3,000 Christian Egyptian Believers who died in this war. Was it an answered prayer? I don't know but one thing I know is that part of the body of Christ was praying for other parts of the body to be killed. [They just didn't realize it.]

Islam was spread by the force of the sword but this is not God's way to do things. It's very easy to mix politics with religion & start praying-- but remember politics is not as pure & clear as The Truth of Christ.

So not to make my comments too long-- let me say that:

- 1- there are no enemies in the new testament in flesh & blood but they are ONLY the principalities in the heavenlies.
- 2- There are lots of believers living & dying within the Arab/Israel conflict-- so when you pray. . . DON'T SHOOT THEM!

In Him

Nader Yassa

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Soon To Be Over

Becky McLendon

I stopped at the end of our driveway last Thursday with a keen sense of God's presence and tears flowing. (That seems to be an anointed place because God always speaks very clearly right there). I looked up at the clear blue Texas sky and the towering pine and oak trees blowing gently in the breeze. I heard Him say, "Look at one more time, because soon it will end." My spirit knows what He was referring to, but my flesh does not fully know, except a huge change is about to happen on this earth and in the lives of God's people. He is about to appear in power and glory.

I looked at the familiar setting and the tears streamed down my cheeks. Yes my spirit knows what He is saying, and my flesh is having to come to grips with it.

That which is familiar will change That which is very important to us will cease to matter. That which is near and dear to our hearts will be easily given up, That which we perceive to be true will be erased, and replaced with the sharp clarity of His truth. That which we call our agenda will cease immediately, So our "best laid plans" won't matter anymore. We will be void of the need to Clutch Strive Strain and Lust after our stuff. It just won't matter!

It is certain: "The grass withers and the flower fades, but the word of the Lord is forever." It is certain; "Heaven and earth will pass away, but My word will be forever." It is certain: "Thy throne, O Lord is forever."

It is also certain that we are coming to an almost numbness as our little empires crumble. We say:

Ok, Lord, let it fall! It just doesn't matter anymore. We rise up and return to You, saying: "All we want is You!"

At this, the Father rushes toward us, Bearing royal robes, A lavish banquet is laid.

He throws open his arms and Embraces us And falls on our neck, Kissing us, saying

"WELCOME HOME, SON!"

He stretches His Tallit over us and blesses us!

WOW! THANK YOU LORD. We can finally enter Your REST.

SHABBAT SHALOM.

Becky (Wayfarer)

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Spirit of the Sovereign Lord

Chad Taylor

(It seems a cord has been struck by the Holy Spirit in the hearts of God's people concerning harvest! I send this in one accord with the previous report of what God is doing on the streets of Anchorage and abroad. I believe it contains the same release of anointing for revival and harvest! I cannot shake what took place on Friday night, an neither do I desire to! So in that passion I submit this from the Father's heart as well! Blessings! Chad.)

The Spirit of the Sovereign Lord

The Spirit of the Sovereign Lord is upon you,
As the prophets have foretold, a time to reap and a time to sow,
I will show signs in the Heavens above and the earth below.
I am pouring out My Spirit on your sons and daughters,
Through you I will demonstrate My power, you the clay, I the Potter.
And the captives will rise from obscurity to find their destiny in this hour.

Your sons and daughters shall prophecy, your children will rise and shine!
Your fathers will find rest, as I pour out My Spirit on all flesh.
For your redemption draws nigh, I will come as a thief in the night, in the Heavens above and the earth beneath, even those who pierced Me will see...
In the faces of your weak, They will see a pure image of Me.

I have come with vengeance in My heart,
And to these little children I will impart, My great grace and mercy.
From your ghettos a remnant shall arise, With healing in their wings!
A new song from the heart of their Father they will sing!
The nations will rise from the ashes of defeat, torn and spoiled by war,
Children on the street corners will bravely implore,

"Come and dance with the King! Come and dance with the King!
Bring you fragrant offerings! Bring you fragrant offerings!
Lay them at the feet of the lamb, to Know the great I AM!
TO KNOW THE GREAT I AM! Lay your gifts at the feet of the lamb!"

The song from the children shall echo in the streets,
The widow and the orphan from the Father's table will eat,
A great table prepared for you in the presence of your enemies,
There the King will serve you and wash your feet. Preparation for the gospel of Peace.

Prepare yourself O Bride with your fragrant oils and wine,
Anointed with the Kings tears you will reap in joy. Every girl and boy.
Sing O barren ones! The time of harvest has arrived!
Stretch out your tent stakes, you will break out on your left and your right!
Sing O barren ones! The time of harvest has arrived!
For it is that appointed time prophesied,

"But I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine,
From now on until I drink it new with you -
In My Father's Kingdom!" (Matt. 26:29).

The Spirit of the Sovereign Lord is upon you,

To open prison doors, "to judge and make war...
"And on His thigh a name written, King of Kings and Lord of Lords" -
And the armies in Heaven clothed in white linen",
"Your old men shall dream dreams, and your children visions." (Rev.19:11-16).
For generations this has been written, now all these things shall come to fruition.

Prepare yourself My Bride! It is time for the warriors to rouse themselves and fight!
From the upperroom comes the Bridegroom to meet His Church in the streets!
"I will rise now, and go about the city, in the streets and the squares,
I will seek the one I love there!" (Song of Solomon 3:2).

A great and mighty army is stirring its ranks, they will not thrust, they will not break!
They will march into the nations, to call forth this chosen generation,
Every race and creed, will bow down at the Master's feet,
Shedding the chains of bondage, sitting at the Lord's table to feast.
Let the children of destiny now sing!

"Come and dance with the King! Come and dance with the King!
Bring you fragrant offerings! Bring you fragrant offerings!
Lay them at the feet of the lamb, to Know the great I AM!
TO KNOW THE GREAT I AM! Lay your gifts at the feet of the lamb!"
TO KNOW THE GREAT I AM! Lay your gifts at the feet of the lamb! -

This is the year of the vengeance of our Lord! The favor of our God!
We will not be quitted, we will not be stopped! We will shout it from the housetops!
"He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted, and proclaim liberty to the captives, To comfort all who mourn, and console those who mourn in Zion." (Is.61:1-3).
A remnant seed of Judah's Lion! And as a lion we will roar! As the eagle we will soar!
Children on the street corners will bravely implore,

"Prepare yourself O Bride with your fragrant oils and wine,
Anointed with the Kings tears you will reap in joy. Every girl and boy.
Sing O barren ones! The time of harvest has arrived!
Stretch out your tent stakes, you will break out on your left and your right!
Sing O barren ones! The time of harvest has arrived!"

Chad Taylor
Email: destiny@televar.com
Web: www.consumingfire.com
LAMENTATIONS 2:19

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

Series of Suddenlies

Mark Wattenford

The rain has begun to fall and changes and victories are all coming about in a "series of suddenlies..." that will catch even those who have been concerned by the lateness of the day by "surprise.... and make them gasp in awe!" This is NOT a small thing the Lord is doing, as He is showing that His coming abiding Presence and Power WILL deliver and free many from many things and with "dunamis" POWER! What He is bringing - "WILL BE the "real thing!" The Lord will move so quickly that many won't see it coming and won't know what hit them and they will openly wonder saying, "HOW can this be?" God's "series of suddenlies," will be far greater than anything that has come before and will usher in great signs and wonders, manifestations of the Spirit of God that will "stun" many by the impact they have on EVEN believers....

I was "caught up" recently before Christ in Heaven, and the impact of His Person, His Power, His Love and His Majesty, I feel totally inadequate to convey with words.

He was dressed as a King and Priest in gold and pure white. It was the FIRST time I have seen Him looking as the "Ancient of Days," as He was in the Father and the Father was in Him. I am not saying any of this to try to sound poetic or to mimic or parrot scripture, but His voice WAS "LIKE MANY THUNDERS." I knelt before Him as one would the "King of Kings." He placed His hand on my head and blessed me and said many things to me that ONLY the Holy Spirit can know or understand. The vision itself last for several hours and as it began to subside, the words He spoke over me, were somehow "sealed up" from my memory as well.

What I do remember is that the Lord spoke of releasing me of bondages I was not aware of and of healing a damage that I had sustained even before I was born, while in the womb.

GOD's L-O-V-E PERMEATED ME. IT WAS THE GREATEST POWER AND THE GREATEST LOVE I HAVE EVER KNOWN.

As His Fullness in me was receding, I was pleading with Him to remain and telling Him that ONLY by His Spirit could others be freed of their oppression and chains and be healed, knowing FULLY that there was NOTHING within me that could benefit mankind in any positive way.

It is impossible not to know that as HE sends HIS word out - which He is "about to do," that NOTHING of the schemes and plans of man will remain and it is clear He has now proclaimed my own liberty, freedom and healing - though it IS in terms of such depth and fullness in, by and through Him that there ARE no words to speak of it. It can and will only be understood as the fullness of that which was done - is manifested in the flesh.

As the Spirit of Christ "crushes" this serpent's head in this hour MANY things will change. The "spirit of conviction" will come in and then we will see how many will no longer be capable of performing those jobs they have - as they fully know and realize that it is displeasing to Him, OR they will stay and keep their position and remove the "previous evil" from it.

To be in His Presence as I was - and to think that we "love each other," is to deceive ourselves. By our continuing to hurt each other and "point fingers" at our brothers or sisters, we PROVE that we still walk in the "soulisn realm" of emotions of the flesh, and not at ALL in the L-O-V-E that is of GOD! I am ashamed of all that is me, because it is ALL WORTHLESS and there IS no "Holy" thing in me. ONLY in HIM does the power reside that "frees and restores!"

Dear Heavenly Father,

As you look down from Heaven and upon Your people, we want to WORSHIP, PRAISE YOU AND THANK YOU - who so freely gave of yourself to die for us and to save us from such a terribly deserved punishment. My Father, I have seen your power to deliver those who are held in chains and in darkness... please dear Father, hear my cry to deliver the oppressed. Jesus without YOU we are NOTHING!!...My Father grant us "peace and cause us to REST in YOUR ABIDING PRESENCE...." Forgive us Father when we are weak and doubt. be mindful that we are but dust.

Father, hear my cry for you to cover us in a mantle of your covering and bring us in your presence and pour out of Your Spirit for the freeing and deliverance of MANY... Do not hold Your Spirit from us. Bring a "fresh cool breeze" of Your Spirit upon us - that will renew our hearts and pour fresh water over us to revive our spirits. Lord God I cry out from the depths of my heart and soul that you bring us into restoration, healing, and revival like has NEVER been seen before. By Your Power and Your Grace Father reverse those things that have hindered us and held us back, bring us into the fullness of Your Spirit for Your Glory and with Your Authority and Your Power to preach YOUR NAME to the nations!

We stand before you as nothing, Most Sovereign Lord, and no one. Open the windows of Heaven Father in a flood of blessing and drive back the darkness from us and let us move in the liberty that YOU purchased for us; to "be about the FATHER's business, and not our own..." Bind our hearts and our spirits to Yours O Lord, and let NOT Your Spirit be taken from us. "For THINE is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory Forever....!"

In Jesus Name....AMEN

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Standing on the Threshold

Ros Henderson-Hobson

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, it is with great trepidation that I come to you with this message. First of all, it is my desire that you all growing and establishing yourselves in the Lord. It is of great importance that each one of us keeps our eyes solely fixed upon the Lord, and be ever ready for his return.

It is my solemn belief, that we are on the very threshold of many significant changes, that will soon take place upon this earth. I believe there is a divine command going out across the nations from the Lord for believers to repent and return to their first love ! The Lord Jesus Christ !

Repentance must begin and take root in the heart of every believer ! It is time to fast and weep before the Lord for our sins, and the sins of our nations. It is time to lay aside the works of man, and replace them with the solid foundation of the gospel of truth

It is time to put aside common disputes and issues that keep us away from the divine commission given to us from the Lord. It is time to build and restore the church in preparation for the coming days ahead.

Have no doubt about this fact, each one of us will at some point have to make a stand for the Lord, not just to other believers but to the world for the testimony we bare witness too ! Some of us may even face death for our faith in Jesus Christ.

We have entered into a time, when the love of the common body has waxed cold, because of the multiplied lawlessness and iniquity.

It has been said that revival is coming ! and Yes I believe this is true, but before the revival time, there shall be a time of refinement. This I know from the Lord to be true ! A time of great testing will soon be upon us ! A time of purging and cleansing !

Have no doubt about this for with a surety I know that as the sun rises and goes down faithfully each day, I know from the depth of my heart we draw ever closer towards perilous and troublesome times.

The Lord has sped up time, and the seasons are passing by faster than ever before. We will see many significant weather changes, for the times that we live in are forecasting the coming storms ahead.

The nations are beginning to stir and rise up, to face the battles that lay shortly ahead. Like storm driven waves, they will surge up upon each others lands.

The valley of Jehoshaphat will soon be upon us, many will be in the valley of decision ! To whom will you give your authority to ? There is a time coming when many will stumble and fall away from their faith in Jesus Christ ! It is of utmost importance that each one of you ground and entrench yourselves firmly in the word, so that when the storms and floods come, you shall not be swept away.

So let us prepare ahead while there is still time ! let us be united and bonded in the love of Christ, which is so freely bestowed upon us ! Let us remain united in faith and hope ! and rejoice in the precious gift of eternal salvation, and let us not forget, the great sacrifice and penalty Jesus paid for us when he went to the cross for our sins !

Let us be ever ready and faithful to defend the faith that is established and rooted in our hearts ! and let no man steel or plunder the word that has been sown and made alive in us !

And let the eyes of our understanding be opened to the truth of Gods word

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Spiritual Environments

Glenn H. Jackson

August 21, 2000:

Spiritual Environments - Glorious Connections - "True" Accountability

As I was out walking and praying a while back the Holy Spirit dropped in my spirit an outline of what the Father desires to speak to His handmaidens and bondservants about.

Basically it concerns the connection between "spiritual environments", "glorious connections", "true" accountability, and it also involves the truth and spiritual principles found in the story of Korah's rebellion (Numbers 16-20).

The importance of this last area is that as the revelation of the Father's will for His people begins to come forth from the Throne Room through the true apostles and prophets "many" IN THE CHURCH (those who still hold to any form of self-agenda) will suddenly become greatly offended at the precious and necessary wisdom of God being released.

This will cause "certain" children of God (there will be some shocking surprises in this area) to begin to slander and accuse those sent by God - but this will not last long because the judgement of the Father will be absolute on those rebellious and self-exaltive ones and they shall become a "sign and wonder" from God Himself not to interfere with His holy plan!

The overall impression that I received from the Holy Spirit was that there must be a strong warning and exhortation delivered to every handmaiden and bondservant to beware the potential attacks that they face as they step out in obedience in the coming days to minister the revelation that they have received in the "inner chamber".

One would think at this late date that "most" would be seeking the revealed Word of God with ALL of their heart, but such is not the case!

"True" Accountability And Covenant Relationships In The Ministry

In this area of "true" accountability and covenant relationships in the ministry, many are deceived into thinking that the basis of these kinds of relationships is some form of "accountability" to "flesh and blood" BEFORE the Father and His Word.

Outwardly they give the Father and His Word a form of "acknowledgment", but when it comes right down to it they crave after "emotional attachment" and dependency upon "flesh and blood".

This is a scheme of the Evil One to keep them in bondage and a position of "powerlessness". It is the very thing that will prevent one from entering into the Kingdom with "both feet" - and thus entering into the fullness of ministry in Christ.

Each and every one of us have a specific calling and like every other calling - it is unique. It is safe to say that there is only ONE WAY for each one of us - as children of God - to fulfill all that we were created for and therefore the best possible thing for each of us to do is to pursue the narrow path of perfect obedience with ALL of our heart.

It is a very fine line between the delegated authority "taking offense" and walking (and talking) in a spirit of "righteous indignation" - which is a spontaneous by-product of the love of God.

I understand that there is still much misunderstanding concerning the "delegated authorities", but it is truly time for the people of God to grow up and start carrying their own portion of the weight of the Kingdom business they are called to (EVERY member has a key part) or they are going to "miss the boat" in the coming days.

One thing for sure: any and all "self-agenda" and every element of "idolatry" is going to be exposed exactly for what it is: sin and rebellion against the Father and His Word!

Many seem to still "maintain" the desire to be "coddled" and have their "hand held" by the men and women that the Father is sending forth from the Throne Room - as if the Holy Spirit did not exist within THEM to "teach them all things" and lead them into all truth.

It is much easier to be "accountable" to "flesh and blood", but it is NEVER profitable as far as the Kingdom goes - and from here on in the Kingdom is all that truly matters!

Quite simply put: I have an "open contempt" for anything that hinders - in any way - the children of God coming into the "fullness of their inheritance in Christ.

For many, many centuries the church has walked in some degree of darkness - a darkness that for the most part has kept her powerless to remove the burdens of the captives and to destroy every yoke of bondage. This MUST and WILL end in this most critical and glorious hour!

JTL MINISTRIES

<http://www.easynet.ca/~jtlmin>

jtlmin@easynet.ca

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Spiritual Discernment

Doug Fortune

The sky is red, that signifies something. Does it mean the same thing in the morning as it does in the evening?... NO, because the time has changed. We must discern the times. My reference is Matt.16:2-3 and the issue is spiritual discernment. I declare to you today that the time has changed, we are in a new day!

We can read on in verse 6 where Jesus says "Be careful the leaven, ferment of the Pharisees and Saducees." Just what is this leaven or ferment He warned against?...was it hypocrisy or seeking a sign? NO, it was looking only to the natural realm, a literal interpretation of everything; a lack of SPIRITUAL discernment. Spiritual discernment is the underlying theme of this whole chapter; from the Pharisees lack of it (verse 3); the disciples lack, thinking Jesus was speaking about the leaven in bread (verse 8); then a shining example of discernment as Peter declares 'Thou art the Christ' (verse 17); then back to a lack as Jesus rebukes Peter for "...minding what partakes not of the nature and quality of God, but of men."(verse 23). May I suggest that the leaven of the Pharisees, this natural realm / literal view is fermenting all through modern Christianity and theology! May I also suggest that the church / person built upon this leaven will not prevail! Only the church / person that is built upon the ROCK of revelation / spiritual discernment will prevail. Why is that?... because within revelation / discernment are the KEYS of the Kingdom. Notice that these are keys OF the Kingdom, NOT keys TO the Kingdom... they do not unlock the Kingdom of heaven. Rather, the KEYS represent authority in binding and loosing on the earth. The word translated bind is deo in Greek, it means to bind, knit, tie, wind; it is closely related to dei which means it is necessary as binding, needful. Also, when it says whatsoever we bind on earth SHALL BE BOUND in heaven, the Greek is a perfect passive participle meaning that things are in a state of HAVING BEEN ALREADY in the heavenlies.

Lets put all this in the context of the chapter - spiritual discernment: We are to discern, not by the natural but by revelation, the PURPOSE and will of God which is ALREADY established in the heavenlies, and as we manifest Christ and declare that revealed purpose we are BINDING on earth that which IS already in the heavenlies. Thy Kingdom COME, Thy will BE DONE, on EARTH AS IT IS in heaven! Now then, we cannot declare one thing and LIVE something else! We are to BE the REVEALation of Jesus Christ in the earth... we do this BINDING not just by our words, but by WHO we manifest in our lives. "Forever O Lord, Thy WORD is settled in heaven"(Ps.119:89 )... and just as the Word became Flesh and dwelt among us in the body of Jesus Christ, so we also are to be the Word made flesh. (Am I saying that we somehow become God?... certainly NOT! When I say we are to become the Word made flesh, I am speaking of the Engrafted Word which has the power to bring us to FULL salvation.) This is the power of BINDING on earth; we bind to the earth who we ARE in the earth. The question is this: are we binding in the earth the man who is OF the earth - Adam?... or are we binding in the earth the Man Who is OF heaven - Christ? "Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, so shall we and so let us also bear the image of the Man of heaven."(I Cor. 15:49). If we interpret everything in the natural / literal sense, operating from the realm of our SOUL (mind, will, emotions) then we are feeding on the leaven of the Pharisees and the gates of hell WILL prevail. When I speak of 'spiritual discernment' I'm speaking of discerning the PURPOSE and PLAN of God and discerning the TIMES. Then we must STAND in that PURPOSE and plan - BINDING on earth the PURPOSE of heaven. Against THIS, the gates of hell will NOT prevail.

May I suggest also that our doctrine must be established in the spiritual discernment of God's PURPOSE and TIME? We have much teaching in Christianity that is filled with the leaven of a literal / natural realm interpretation of things that are spiritual in nature. Our interpretation and doctrine MUST be consistent with God's ultimate PURPOSE from Genesis to Revelation, which is to embody Himself in a people in His image and likeness, to fill the earth and have dominion, to bring MANY sons to the glory of manifesting Christ in the earth. We tend to have a rather superior view of the Jews of Jesus' time because they were looking for a literal King to establish a literal military Kingdom, and subsequently missed the visitation of their Messiah because they did not recognize Him. I believe that much of the end time doctrine of modern Christianity is infected with this same literal / natural realm leaven of the Pharisees, and our perception of where we are headed greatly impacts our current attitudes and actions. Are we perhaps missing His coming because we are looking at rain clouds in the sky?... are we perhaps missing the New Jerusalem because we are looking for a huge four-square city to fall from the sky?... are we perhaps missing the completion of the temple from which Christ will reign because there are no literal stones being laid upon the Temple Mount in Jerusalem?

I realize that I have just meddled with the theology of many Christians, but before you dismiss this as my error, I implore you to ask God to "...grant you a spirit of wisdom and REVELATION- of insight into mysteries and secrets - in the deep and intimate knowledge of Him, by having the eyes of your heart flooded with light, so that you can know and understand the hope to which He has called you and how rich is HIS glorious INHERITANCE IN THE SAINTS - His set apart ones..."(Eph. 1:17-18).

Let us beware the leaven of the Pharisees, for remember that "...we are setting these truths forth in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Holy Spirit, combining and interpreting SPIRITUAL truths with SPIRITUAL language... But we have the MIND of Christ, and do hold the thoughts, feelings and purposes of His heart."(I Cor. 2:13, 16). Let us NOT bind on earth that which is OF the earth, rather let us "...aim at and seek the rich eternal treasures that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God."(Col. 3:1). Let us SPIRITUALLY discern the PURPOSE and PLAN and SPIRITUALLY discern the TIMES! Yes, my friend, the sky is red... it is NOT evening though, it is the dawning of a NEW DAY!

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Spiritual Gifts Judgment Is Near

Harley Hickling

Awakening Spiritual Gifts Harley Hickling

October 2, 2000

Are there not many of you who have over the years received from My heart, or from the ministry of others, that you have been given certain Spiritual gifts. Yet in the course of time you have seen no evidence, or very little evidence at best, that these gifts do in fact reside with you and you have come to the point of discouragement believing that you have missed it, or that such a gift is not really meant for you. Today I will tell you that you are in for a dramatic change for the Most Holy Spirit is about to break out in Holy power among My children everywhere, quickening and bringing into reality His gifts that will demonstrate His great power and authority to His Glory!

Very soon great calamities shall strike your world and a great darkness of despair shall descend upon vast multitudes of those who are lost and seeing their lives and what they value crash all about them. But in you they shall see the possibility of redemption in Me for you shall be as a bright light seen upon a hill, a beacon alive with the gifts of the Holy Spirit flowing out from you abundantly, reaching out and touching the very core issues in these truly troubled and desperate people. A people who will be drawn inextricably to the power of the Most Holy Spirit flowing through you. For the gifts I Am awakening in you will be of great power, a power much greater even than that manifested with My original twelve. Healings will become common place, miracles shall abound and the dead shall rise anew in health. This is what you shall be bringing to your world! Many lives will be radically changed as you let loose unto others that which the Holy Spirit is packing into you. Let the rivers of living water flow forth from your bellies. Do not even attempt to put a stopper in the flow for the more you let flow, the more you will have to let loose. I Am talking here of a very definite Spiritual principle in operation. Give and it shall be given back unto you in multiplied quantities. The more you give the greater will be the flowing of My power through you. Never, never be stingy in this giving for if you are you will be in danger of being set aside as one who is not worthy of the high calling I have placed upon you.

My beloved, be a pathway to those who need to find Me! Show them the way and you shall be fulfilling the wondrous calling that I have placed upon you.

Please send any comments to hhickling@home.com

SOON!
Harley Hickling

Hello all!

Just a short note. Last evening, as I went to my garden bench for evening communion, I sat down and my first thoughts to Abba was something like "Wow, there is sure a lot of stuff in the prophetic floating around and it looks like something big is coming down". This thought was instantly followed by Abba singing (yes singing and still in the still small voice) but VERY clearly the first stanza to an Andrae Crouch song of the late 70"s the words very slightly modified. "Soon, and very soon, you are going to see the King" This was repeated 3 times just as in the song. This is a song it is safe to say I haven't thought of in 10 years. What does it mean, it seems self explanatory. What I can say about it, it was definitely Abba singing and it was LOUD AND CLEAR.

As you might guess my thoughts have been flooded with this stanza since up to the point I went to sleep last night and this morning as I was awakening it was still flowing along nicely.

Be blessed!
Harley

Judgment Is Near Harley Hickling

October 6, 2000

Isaiah 46: NIV

5. "To whom will you compare me or count me equal? To whom will you liken me that we may be compared?
6. Some pour out gold from their bags and weigh out silver on the scales; they hire a goldsmith to make it into a god, and they bow down and worship it.
7. They lift it to their shoulders and carry it; they set it up in its place, and there it stands. From that spot it cannot move. Though one cries out to it, it does not answer; it cannot save him from his troubles.
8. "Remember this, fix it in mind, take it to heart, you rebels.
9. Remember the former things, those of long ago; I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is none like me.
10. I make known the end from the beginning, from ancient times, what is still to come. I say: My purpose will stand, and I will do all that I please.
11. From the east I summon a bird of prey; from a far-off land, a man to fulfill my purpose. What I have said, that will I bring about; what I have planned, that will I do.
12. Listen to me, you stubborn-hearted, you who are far from righteousness.
13. I am bringing my righteousness near, it is not far away; and my salvation will not be delayed . . . .

As I was going through my morning scriptures, that which is noted above suddenly came to life for me and I knew with out any doubt that what Isaiah wrote to his nation during his time applies equally for us in this day. Then Abba began to speak to me:

Just as in Isaiah's day many who had wealth made idols out of their silver and gold and then fell down before that which they had made and worshipped it. This was stupid, yet even more stupid were those who had no wealth who would take a log and out of that log take a part of it to chop into fire wood that they might receive warmth and to bake bread to eat and from the remaining portion of the log carve out an idol, a god, and then fall down before it and worship it. Worshipping something they made with their own hands. An object that cannot breathe or can not smell or does not even have a glimmer of a thought within, an object that is utterly useless and can do nothing. What utter foolishness! Yet today people everywhere are collecting their idols and worshipping them just as did the people of ancient Israel. The idols of today may look different than they did in the days of Isaiah, but none-the-less they are idols and gods just the same whether it be expensive homes or automobiles or all of the many other trappings your affluent society is so eager to bestow upon any that can come up with the price. And as a nation you worship and serve your gods with even more intensity and fervor than did Israel of old. Did I not state back then that judgment would be coming upon them because of their whoring after other gods. I AM no different today than I was then, for surely I change not. I will not permit my children to continue in the worshipping of their idols and I will also not permit my children to have any other gods before Me. In this I remain constant. For I tell you and caution you that My purposes will stand and I will do what I please. And what pleases Me in this time is to remove and strip away your many false gods. When you see that which you bow before and worship turn to ashes you will know that what I have said, I will bring it about, what I have planned I will do. Repent of your rampant materialism! Return unto me for your salvation lies in me and in me alone! The time of visitation of both My judgment and salvation is upon you! Release your hold on your idols before they destroy you. Turn away from certain death and separation and enter into eternal life with Me. Remember the former things, those of long ago for they do speak clearly of that which is today. I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is none like me. I have made known the end from the beginning, even from ancient times I have revealed that which is soon to come. For I will destroy that which is about you that is keeping you from me, this I have foretold and this I will do. Judgment is near! Remember this, you rebels, and fix it in your mind.

Send any comments to hickling@home.com

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Spiritualizing Gender

Joseph Herrin

(6-27-2000)

Many prophetic words are going out in these days warning the saints against false doctrines and teachings that the enemy of our souls is loosing upon the Church in this hour. Satan's intent is to disrupt the work of God to sanctify, purify, and refine the Church in preparation for our Lord's return. Satan is pouring forth a flood of words in an attempt to drown and cover the truth, but we are told in God's word, "When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him" (Isaiah 59:19) (KJV).

This article is being offered as a standard of the Lord raised up against a teaching that is spreading like wildfire. The teaching I am referring to is that of spiritualizing gender references in the Bible. Many are teaching that references to male and female in scripture actually refer to spirit and soul, and in doing so they are tearing down the natural order established by God in which men and women are to relate to one another.

As Satan usually does, he mixes truth with error to pollute and corrupt that which God has designed to be pure and holy. This is true in this case as well. There is truth in making a correlation between spirit and soul, male and female, but the error comes in when those who perceive this truth go on to nullify and make invalid the order that God has set in the natural realm.

God is speaking much in this hour of the necessity of subjecting the soul to the authority of the spirit within each man and woman. It is a ploy of Satan to twist what God is bringing forth and to cause grievous error and confusion to result and to pollute the working of the Holy Spirit in our midst.

Satan's chief weapon is deception and deception always works best when it has an element of appeal to it. This is how Satan deceived Eve in the garden. The fruit that Satan invited Eve to partake of was appealing and Satan's lies made it even more attractive. Genesis 3:6 When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable to make one wise, she took from its fruit and ate... (NAS)

In the same way, there is much in the current false doctrine being espoused that makes it attractive, both to the women and the men who would eat of this forbidden fruit. In fact, the very things that made the fruit of the tree in the Garden of Eden attractive, also makes this false teaching attractive.

To begin, let me define what is being taught. Many today are taking passages of scriptures relating to male and female relationships, teachings that deal with authority and submission, and they are teaching that the natural application of these words are invalid. Instead, they are teaching that these words must be interpreted and applied from a strictly spiritual perspective. They are teaching that references to male gender refer to the spirit of man and references to female gender refer to the soul of man.

In doing this they then draw some of the following conclusions: A natural male or female can actually be a spiritual male if they are walking in the realm of the spirit. Also, a natural male or female can be a spiritual female if they are walking in the soulish realm of their being. One is told that believers must discern who the spiritual males and females are so that order can be established. It would be possible for a natural female to be a spiritual male and for a natural male to be a spiritual female. When believers such as those just described encounter one another in the domain of the Church congregation the natural male would have to submit to the natural female because in the spiritual their genders are actually reversed.

Quite simply, this is confusion. Jesus condemned the Pharisees for making the commands of God of no effect through their traditions. Their traditions were interpretations of scripture that were of man, not of God. In the same way, those who are teaching this false doctrine are nullifying the commands of God and bringing confusion into the body of Christ.

Interestingly enough, the scripture that states "for God is not the author of confusion" is found in the very passage that many are basing their false teaching on. I Corinthians 14:33-34 33 for God is not a God of confusion but of peace, as in all the churches of the saints. 34 Let the women keep silent in the churches; for they are not permitted to speak, but let them subject themselves, just as the Law also says. (NAS)

To make it clear what is being espoused by those who are teaching this spiritualizing of genders and the abdicating of the natural order of God, I will render a passage of scripture just as it has been rendered and repeated by many others whose writings I have recently come across. In this rendering the word MAN is understood to mean Jesus Christ, the Head of the Church; EVERY MAN represents every believer who walks according to the Spirit; THE WOMAN is taken to mean the Church; and finally, EVERY WOMAN is interpreted as the soulish or carnal believer. Also, because MAN is interpreted to mean Christ, the word CHRIST has to be interpreted in another manner, so some have cleverly interpreted CHRIST as The Anointing, or The Holy Spirit in one occurrence, and as the Church in another occurrence.

(I Corinthians 11:3-10)

3 "But I would have you know, that the head of every man (spiritual believer) is Christ (The Anointing, The Holy Spirit); and the head of the woman (the Church) is the Man (Christ Jesus); and the head of Christ (The Many-Membered Body, the Church) is God.

4 Every man (spiritual believer) praying or prophesying, having his head (Christ) covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But every woman (soulish believer) that prayeth or prophesieth with her head (spirit man) uncovered dishonoureth her head (spirit man): for that is even all one as if she were shaven.

6 For if the woman (the Church) be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman (soul) to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man (spiritual believer) indeed ought not to cover his head (Christ), forasmuch as he (spirit man) is the image and glory of God: but the woman (the Church) is the glory (image) of the man (Christ Jesus).

8 For the man (Christ Jesus) is not of the woman (the Church); but the woman (the Church) of the man (Christ Jesus).

9 Neither was the man (Christ Jesus) created for the woman (the Church); but the woman (the Church) for the man (Christ Jesus).

10 For this cause ought the woman (the Church) to have power on her head (Christ Jesus) because of the angels.

Besides being extremely confusing, this correlation does not hold up under the scrutiny of scripture. However, because of the attraction of receiving an interpretation in this vein, many are adopting it and teaching others to do so as well.

What is the attraction in spiritualizing the gender roles? For one, it looses the natural woman from her place of submission to man. This is an awesome attraction. It is evident in our western culture that the natural order of men and women as established by God is viewed with contempt. For generations now women have been fighting to attain an equal footing with men, choosing not to remain in submission to them. The concept of a wife honoring and submitting to her husband is viewed as archaic and unsophisticated. The woman who chooses to conform to God's divinely established order is considered to be a doormat under the feet of her husband.

There is tremendous fear that must be overcome for a woman to subject herself to her husband, father, or other male authority figure in her life. This is why Peter said,

I Peter 3:6 Thus Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, and you have become her children if you do what is right without being frightened by any fear. (NAS)

A woman fears that her husband may not consider her needs. She fears that her husband might make a foolish mistake that will have negative repercussions in her life. She fears that her husband might choose to walk down a path that will bring hardship to herself or her children. She fears that her husband might through disobedience bring judgment and calamity upon herself and the rest of his household.

By spiritualizing gender and changing the obvious and natural interpretations of scriptures, a woman is offered a way out; she is given an alternate path that she can walk that gives her much more control over her destiny. She no longer has to walk in submission to man, exercising faith, trusting God to protect her from the failures of her husband who has feet of clay. As Satan offered the fruit to Eve and it had a pleasing appearance to her, so does this forbidden fruit have allure to women in the Church.

Peter makes it clear, however, what a woman's options truly are before God if she wants to walk in a manner pleasing to Him and if she desires to see God support her and protect her.

I Peter 2:18-19; 3:1-5

18 Servants, be submissive to your masters with all respect, not only to those who are good and gentle, but also to those who are unreasonable.

19 For this finds favor, if for the sake of conscience toward God a man bears up under sorrows when suffering unjustly...

1 In the same way, you wives, be submissive to your own husbands so that even if any of them are disobedient to the word, they may be won without a word by the behavior of their wives,

2 as they observe your chaste and respectful behavior.

3 And let not your adornment be merely external-- braiding the hair, and wearing gold jewelry, or putting on dresses;

4 but let it be the hidden person of the heart, with the imperishable quality of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is precious in the sight of God.

5 For in this way in former times the holy women also, who hoped in God, used to adorn themselves, being submissive to their own husbands. (NAS)

Peter compares the relationship of a woman with her husband to that of a servant to his master. He then says that even if the woman has a husband that is disobedient to the word, she is to let him be won without a word as he observes her chaste and respectful behavior.

The principle Peter teaches is this: if a woman tries to correct her disobedient husband through her words, threats, behavior, or any form of manipulation or coercion, God will leave the woman to her own devices and He will remove His hand from the situation and He will delay in correcting the husband. However, if the woman remains chaste and respectful and looks to God to correct the disobedient authority over her, God will deal with her husband and bring correction. This is why Peter says "For in this way in former times the holy women also, who hoped in God." Yes, their hope was in God. They did not rely upon their own strength to accomplish, or words to change the behavior of their husbands.

This submission requires one to have faith in God, and unfortunately, few in the church today, men or women, know what it is to entrust themselves to God. The church is as full of men who have failed to walk in submission to Christ as it is women who fail to walk in submission to their husbands. This is one reason why there is such a lack of the presence of God in our lives. Instead of looking to God to support us and deliver us, we strive in the power of our flesh to accomplish that which we desire.

This doctrine of spiritualizing genders is but the latest temptation that Satan has set before men and women to cause them to abdicate the roles God has assigned to them. This was Satan's original sin. He was created with a glorious position before God, yet he was not content with it. He wanted to rise above his calling.

Isaiah 14:12-15

12 "How you have fallen from heaven, O star of the morning, son of the dawn! You have been cut down to the earth, you who have weakened the nations!

13 "But you said in your heart, 'I will ascend to heaven; I will raise my throne above the stars of God, and I will sit on the mount of assembly in the recesses of the north.

14 'I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High.'

15 "Nevertheless you will be thrust down to Sheol, to the recesses of the pit. (NAS)

Satan was not content with his position, even though it was a glorious position, one that brought him into the very presence of God. He viewed his role as demeaning. He began to consider that he should rise higher and that he should be worshiped. It says that he said in his heart "I will make myself like the Most High."

It was this very same temptation that Satan brought to Eve. He told her "For God knows that in the day you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God..." (Genesis 3:5).

Satan convinced Eve that her role was demeaning. She could be something greater. Rather than being what she was created to be, she could become as God. In reality, Satan was offering her the opportunity to be god of her own life. She could discern for herself good and evil, right and wrong. Rather than relying upon God as her source of righteousness, she could establish her own.

It is in addressing the error of Satan, the error that Eve also embraced, that Paul tells the Church, “Therefore the woman ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels” ( I Corinthians 11:10). By having her head covered the woman is making a bold declaration to the angels, both those who abandoned their first estate in the rebellion of Satan, and the holy angels who kept their first estate.

The woman by covering her head is saying, “I have decided to remain in the calling God appointed to me. I seek to neither rise above it, nor to fall below it. I reject the error of Satan when he sinned by trying to attain to a position other than that which God had apportioned to him.” This is a both a strong rebuke to the fallen angels and an affirmation to the holy angels.

The holy woman is overcoming the fears in her life and entrusting herself to God. God is pleased to respond by strongly supporting such a woman.

II Chronicles 16:9 "For the eyes of the LORD move to and fro throughout the earth that He may strongly support those whose heart is completely His. (NAS)

One can see what the attraction is to the carnal or fleshly Christian woman to embrace the error that is being espoused today, but what is the attraction for the male? One of the chief motivations is a desire to appease his wife and other women in the body of Christ. I can attest that any man that desires to walk in the calling in his life as the head of his wife will encounter the most extreme opposition. To touch this issue is to touch the very heart of Satan. One of the greatest strongholds of Satan in families and in the Church is centered around the issue of maintaining God’s authority structure.

Satan has from the beginning tried to alter God’s established authority; first by trying to become like God himself, then by tempting man to do the same. What is offered to each person who embraces his error is the opportunity to be one’s own god. It no longer becomes necessary to submit to God’s direct or delegated authority. One can determine for themselves what is appropriate behavior and what is not.

It is just as grievous to rebel against God’s delegated authority as it is His direct authority. The woman who believes she can usurp the male authority over her and then submit to God’s direct authority is greatly deceived. To violate one is to violate both.

Women have a tremendous position of influence in a man’s life. They can either affect a man for great good as Timothy’s mother and grandmother did to him, or they can affect a man for great evil as Jezebel did to her husband Ahab. A man greatly feels the influence of the women in his life, particularly that of his wife. The two are one flesh.

Solomon spoke much about the effect that a nagging or contentious wife can have on her husband. She can make his life a misery. Proverbs 21:9 It is better to live in a corner of a roof, than in a house shared with a contentious woman. (NAS)

Proverbs 21:19 It is better to live in a desert land, than with a contentious and vexing woman. (NAS)

Proverbs 27:15 A constant dripping on a day of steady rain and a contentious woman are alike... (NAS)

One need only look at the life of Samson as he put up with the nagging of his wife Delilah to see the effect a woman can have upon a man. Judges 16:16 And it came about when she pressed him daily with her words and urged him, that his soul was annoyed to death. (NAS)

Many men know that to stand on the truth of scriptures and to walk as the head of his wife would be the cause of tremendous strife in his marriage. Most women in western culture are so indoctrinated in the rebellion and independence of the nations they live in that they perceive God’s design of headship to be ludicrous, unreasonable and simply intolerable. They would no more willingly submit to it than cut off their own head (which, by the way, is what they are being asked to do).

Many men, being more desirous to keep peace in the home, avoid the issue altogether. They go along with the ways of the world and establish a very modern, democratic home. It is very modern, but wholly unbiblical. In the Church it is no different. Preaching on this topic is non-existent today, and if it is taught on it is usually in a fashion that undermines the truth.

Most pastors, even if fully convinced of the truth of scriptures, would not dare to proclaim it knowing that multitudes would rise up in rebellion and a mass exodus would ensue. It is much more convenient to dress Jezebel up in Christian clothes and let her remain. Doctrines are established to make woman's usurpation and man's abdication acceptable and even politically correct.

Some believers are simply ignorant of the truth, never having had it taught correctly to them. There are so many arguments that make it seem reasonable that we should no longer make a distinction between men and women in the Church. One of the most common comes from another of Paul's writings which is often quoted by the gender benders, "In Christ there is neither male nor female" (Galatians 3:28). As much as preachers talk against the error of taking a scripture out of context, it is amazing how many do so with this verse.

To see the error, one must look at the whole context of the verse. As this is such an important issue, I will include the whole passage here and if the reader is serious about knowing the truth of the matter, he or she will read it.

Galatians 3:1-29

- 1 You foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was publicly portrayed as crucified?
- 2 This is the only thing I want to find out from you: did you receive the Spirit by the works of the Law, or by hearing with faith?
- 3 Are you so foolish? Having begun by the Spirit, are you now being perfected by the flesh?
- 4 Did you suffer so many things in vain-- if indeed it was in vain?
- 5 Does He then, who provides you with the Spirit and works miracles among you, do it by the works of the Law, or by hearing with faith?
- 6 Even so Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness.
- 7 Therefore, be sure that it is those who are of faith who are sons of Abraham.
- 8 And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying "All the nations shall be blessed in you."
- 9 So then those who are of faith are blessed with Abraham, the believer.
- 10 For as many as are of the works of the Law are under a curse; for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who does not abide by all things written in the book of the law, to perform them."
- 11 Now that no one is justified by the Law before God is evident; for, "The righteous man shall live by faith."
- 12 However, the Law is not of faith; on the contrary, "He who practices them shall live by them."
- 13 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the Law, having become a curse for us-- for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree"--
- 14 in order that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.
- 15 Brethren, I speak in terms of human relations: even though it is only a man's covenant, yet when it has been ratified, no one sets it aside or adds conditions to it.
- 16 Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. He does not say, "And to seeds," as referring to many, but rather to one, "And to your seed," that is, Christ.
- 17 What I am saying is this: the Law, which came four hundred and thirty years later, does not invalidate a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to nullify the promise.
- 18 For if the inheritance is based on law, it is no longer based on a promise; but God has granted it to Abraham by means of a promise.
- 19 Why the Law then? It was added because of transgressions, having been ordained through angels by the agency of a mediator, until the seed should come to whom the promise had been made.
- 20 Now a mediator is not for one party only whereas God is only one.
- 21 Is the Law then contrary to the promises of God? May it never be! For if a law had been given which was able to impart life, then righteousness would indeed have been based on law.
- 22 But the Scripture has shut up all men under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.
- 23 But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the law, being shut up to the faith which was later to be revealed.
- 24 Therefore the Law has become our tutor to lead us to Christ, that we may be justified by faith.
- 25 But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor.
- 26 For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus.
- 27 For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ.
- 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise. (NAS)

This passage, indeed virtually the whole book of Galatians, is dealing with the issue of Judaizers coming into the body and teaching people that they must, in addition to having faith in Christ, keep the Jewish ceremonial law, as delivered by the Patriarchs and prophets. The book shows very little concern for issues of church order or relating to one another in the body. To find these issues, a much better source is Paul's letters to the Corinthian believers, because this was one of his main subject matters with them. Corinthians would be a much better source to discern doctrine about male/female relations among the body than Galatians, because such relationships are not the focus of Galatians.

Looking at this passage from Galatians we see that Paul has decided to approach the Galatians' error by revealing what the source of the promise given to Abraham was. Was it through the law, or through faith? This is important because the Judaizers were saying that in order to be true Jews, (sons of Abraham), one had to keep the ceremonial law. Paul shows that this is erroneous. The true children, seed, offspring of Abraham are those who walk in the faith of Abraham.

16 Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. He does not say, "And to seeds," as referring to many, but rather to one, "And to your seed," that is, Christ.

18 For if the inheritance is based on law, it is no longer based on a promise; but God has granted it to Abraham by means of a promise.

Paul is establishing who the true seed is and who will inherit the promised inheritance that was given to Abraham and his seed. By identifying who are the true seed or offspring, Paul is able to show how foolish those are who assert that believers must adhere to the ceremonial law, because the offspring of Abraham were never determined by keeping the law. Indeed, the law was given 430 years after Abraham.

This is essential to understanding this passage and interpreting the scripture that many are quoting. Who were the inheritors? Under normal Jewish law daughters did not inherit, only sons did, the exception being families that had no sons. Neither did slaves within the household inherit, nor foreigners. The inheritance was given to the male seed of the father.

26 For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ.

28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise.

Paul is joyfully asserting that all those who come to God on the basis of faith are the true children of Abraham. They are sons. They share in the inheritance. Observance of the Law does not determine who inherits the promises of God and who do not. Indeed, the law never determined who was a true son of Abraham.

Paul is saying that among the body of Christ, all share in the inheritance and all are considered sons in relationship to the promise given. Some are not Jews who inherit the promise, and some Greeks who are excluded from the promise. Some are not slaves who are excluded, while others are free and are included. Some are not male who receive the promise, while others are female and are excluded from the promise. All receive the promise. All are inheritors.

Paul is NOT teaching here on male/female relationships. He is teaching on inheritance. He is not talking of government, nor the exercise of gifts. He is in no way advocating the abolition of traditional gender roles as established by God. This is not the context of his teaching. Paul did teach on these subjects, but not in this passage of scripture.

Much confusion has resulted due to people removing this scripture from its context. One of the false applications of the verse is the teaching that God has nullified the headship of the physical man in relationship to the physical woman. "But I want you to understand that Christ is the head of every man, and the man is the head of a woman, and God is the head of Christ" (I Corinthians 11:3).

In the earlier passage that I rendered as those do who would spiritualize the teaching of scripture, the admonition was given to women to “let them subject themselves, just as the Law also says.” Where do we find this command in the Law?

Genesis 3:16 To the woman He said, "I will greatly multiply Your pain in childbirth, in pain you shall bring forth children; yet your desire shall be for your husband, and he shall rule over you." (NAS)

Numbers 30:3-13

3 "Also if a woman makes a vow to the LORD, and binds herself by an obligation in her father's house in her youth, 4 and her father hears her vow and her obligation by which she has bound herself, and her father says nothing to her, then all her vows shall stand, and every obligation by which she has bound herself shall stand.

5 "But if her father should forbid her on the day he hears of it, none of her vows or her obligations by which she has bound herself shall stand; and the LORD will forgive her because her father had forbidden her.

6 "However, if she should marry while under her vows or the rash statement of her lips by which she has bound herself,

7 and her husband hears of it and says nothing to her on the day he hears it, then her vows shall stand and her obligations by which she has bound herself shall stand.

8 "But if on the day her husband hears of it, he forbids her, then he shall annul her vow which she is under and the rash statement of her lips by which she has bound herself; and the LORD will forgive her.

9 "But the vow of a widow or of a divorced woman, everything by which she has bound herself, shall stand against her.

10 "However, if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound herself by an obligation with an oath, 11 and her husband heard it, but said nothing to her and did not forbid her, then all her vows shall stand, and every obligation by which she bound herself shall stand.

12 "But if her husband indeed annuls them on the day he hears them, then whatever proceeds out of her lips concerning her vows or concerning the obligation of herself, shall not stand; her husband has annulled them, and the LORD will forgive her.

13 "Every vow and every binding oath to humble herself, her husband may confirm it or her husband may annul it.

This latter passage is especially revealing. According to the Law which Paul referred to, a woman could not even make a vow or oath to God without her father’s or husband’s permission. This is because under the government of God man is the head of woman. Woman was not created for God, she was created for man (I Corinthians 11:9). Whether these truths be popular, or not, is inconsequential. They are established by God and Paul validates that these truths as revealed in the Law are still valid in the church.

Most of the arguments against maintaining the gender roles established by God and spoken through the mouth of His prophets, are based upon fairness, or rather, the apparent lack of it. It seems unfair for a woman, who undeniably has the ability to hear the voice of God, to submit herself to man. Often these men are less sensitive spiritually than their wives or daughters. However, even in this case the scripture is clear, as was revealed in the scripture from I Peter that we read.

If a woman will be honest in examining this issue she will recognize that her reluctance to agree with the testimony of scripture has more to do with fear than any other reason. Fear causes women to reject the authority of their husbands. Fear also causes men to reject the authority of Christ. Questions such as “What if he doesn’t consider my interests in his actions and decisions?” “What if he makes a decision that is costly to myself and the rest of the family?” “What if his guidance leads to hardship and anguish and I have to suffer due to this?” “What if I am not given any forum to exercise the gifts and talents God has placed in my life?” “What if my happiness is threatened in submitting to his headship?” And maybe most importantly, “What will others think of me for choosing to submit to authority when it is so out of vogue and women who submit to their husbands are looked at as weak and spineless?”

These questions and others could be asked by women in their relationship to men as well as men in their relationship to God. Peter’s answer is “For this finds favor, if for the sake of conscience toward God a man [or woman] bears up under sorrows when suffering unjustly...” It is fear that leads us to make judgments and to declare that something is not fair. It is this idea that God is fair that leads people to reject the testimony of God as revealed in His word.

Yes, there is an appeal for men to adopt the false doctrine of spiritualizing the scripture’s teachings on gender relationships. For many men, fear of the conflict that would arise cowers them, leading them to avoid the issue and to seek alternatives. Another reason is that in their minds many men perceive that it would be prideful to assert that God has established man to be the head of woman.

I once asked God, when I was embroiled in this issue with the leadership of a Church I was a minister in, what it would hurt for a man to just capitulate and to tell his wife that they would run their marriage like a democracy and all decisions would be made with equal voice of both partners. God spoke back to me so quickly that it surprised me. He said “Honor would be missing.”

A wife is told to honor her husband as man is to honor his Head, Jesus Christ. God has created a divine mystery where the marriage relationship mirrors the relationship of Christ with His Bride. The King James Version of the Bible renders the word honor as ‘reverence’.

Ephesians 5:32-33

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband. (KJV)

The word reverence in this verse is a very intense word. Strong’s Hebrew and Greek Dictionary renders it this way. 5399 phobeo (fob-eh'-o); from 5401; to frighten, i.e. to be alarmed; by analogy, to be in awe of, i.e. revere:

You may recognize the similarity to the Greek word here ‘phobeo’ to our English word phobia. Both come from the same root which means “to fear.” You may ask, “Why would a woman fear her husband?” The type of fear here is a reverential fear and it is similar to the admonition that saints are given to fear God. The husband actually stands in the place of God to his wife. Man is the head of woman as Christ is the head of man. Man has been delegated authority by God. He stands in God’s own authority. This is why women were prohibited from making oaths or pledges to God without the permission of their husband or father.

God spoke to me and told me that the lack of submission in Christian marriages today is a mirror of the lack of submission found in the Church towards Christ. A man who would teach his wife to submit to his authority when he has refused to submit to Christ’s authority is a hypocrite. Jesus said,

Matthew 7:4-5

4 "Or how can you say to your brother [or wife], 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' and behold, the log is in your own eye?

5 "You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye. (NAS)

If a man finds that his wife is in rebellion to his authority, let him examine himself first to see if he is fully submitted to Christ. Only then can he help her to see that which is in her eye. I believe that as Christ purifies and prepares a Bride for Himself, that we will also see a similar purifying and preparation in the marriages of those who comprise the Bride of Christ. Men will begin to demonstrate a love for their wives that reflects the love Christ has for His Bride and women will submit to their husbands and show them the reverence that the Bride of Christ is to have for her soon coming Bridegroom.

The error being espoused by those who would spiritualize all gender roles is reflected in the error espoused by many homosexuals. Many homosexuals claim to be ‘a woman trapped in a man’s body’, or ‘a man trapped in a woman’s body’. The Christian believer who says they are a spiritual male in a female’s body, or a spiritual female in a male’s body are claiming something that is equally repugnant in God’s eyes. I suspect that all sins which are observable in the natural realm have their spiritual counterpart, as seen here.

Trying to make such distinctions would lead to chaos among the body of Christ. We would be told that we would have to discern who truly are males and females. Many women would make claims to being spiritual males in order to be given the respect and honor they desire (reflecting Satan’s error of trying to rise above his role granted him by God). Likewise, many men would claim to be spiritual females, falsely submitting themselves to the authority of women. Paul called such a condition usurpation.

I Timothy 2:12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. (KJV)

Strong’s Dictionary gives one meaning of the Greek word rendered here as ‘usurp’ as “to dominate.” Women are not to dominate men. They are not to have dominion over men. To do so would be to pervert the order established by God where “man is the head of the woman.” Even as homosexuality is taught in the Bible to be a perversion, so is this error that is being espoused by many.

The false doctrine that I have addressed here is an attempt of Satan to derail the preparation of the Bride of Christ that is in process at this very moment. Jesus, however, will not be thwarted. He will come back for a Bride that has been prepared. If you find that you are resistant to the work of God then you need to question whether you are truly a part of that Bride. The Bride is not all believers. The Bride is a remnant portion of believers that have allowed themselves to be prepared in readiness for the return of Christ. Even as Eve was formed from a remnant portion of Adam’s body, not his whole body, so the Bride of Christ will be a remnant portion of the body of Christ. I have written of this in my book “The Remnant Bride” which is available on my web site.

bherrin@hotmail.com

web site: heart4god.8k.com

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Spirit Of Religion

Mark Kaphaem

Our greatest enemy to walking in the Spirit of Christ is the spirit of religion. The Spirit of Christ is humility, the spirit of religion is pride. The Spirit of Christ is sacrifice, the spirit of religion is control.

The Spirit of Christ is mercy, the spirit of religion is self exhalation. The Spirit of Christ is truth, the spirit religion brings blindness.

SPIRIT OF RELIGION WARS AGAINST SPIRIT OF CHRIST --The Way to Win is Not to Fight!

The spirit of religion wars against the Spirit of Christ that is within us. The only way we can win this battle is by not fighting it. We do not fight against the spirit of religion, we win by surrendering to the Spirit of Christ.

COVERED IN HUMILITY

Our only hope is to cover ourselves in humility and walk in total dependency to the Spirit of Christ. It is the Spirit of Christ that brings death to the spirit of religion. We must embrace the Spirit of Christ.

As Christ continues to purify His bride and take the reigns of His church, the battle against the spirit of religion in the body will intensify. The following is how we are to fight in this battle.

TAKING A LOOK IN OUR OWN MIRROR

First, we come to the Lord to be delivered from the hold of the spirit of religion in our OWN LIVES. Until we see the spirit of religion in our own lives, we can be of no help to our brothers and sisters. The way we battle is not to fight the spirit of religion, but to open ourselves to the Spirit of Christ. We invite the Spirit of Christ to indwell us and rule over us. It is the Spirit of Christ that will kill the spirit of religion in us, not our efforts at being "spiritual". We must embrace the Spirit of Christ.

KNOW WHO YOUR ENEMY IS-- AND WHO IT ISN'T

Second, know your enemy. Your enemy is not your brothers and sisters in Christ. We are not to war against our brothers and sisters in Christ, we are to go to War For Them. Whenever you go to battle against your brothers or sisters in Christ, the only one who wins is the enemy. Do not fight over building or ministries. The Lord can raise up buildings and ministries from the rocks and the trees of the Earth. Walk in and be ruled by the Spirit of Christ. It is the Spirit of Christ that will kill the spirit of religion in the body. We Must Embrace The Spirit Of Christ.

THE ENEMY'S TWO GENERALS

The two generals the enemy will use in this battle are "the accuser of the brethren" and "self exhalation".

Both of these generals promote the spirit of religion by causing spiritual blindness. However, our focus is not to be on our brothers and sisters--- except to pray for them.

Pray for them that they would be afforded the same daily mercy that you need--- to walk in the Spirit of Christ each day.

We are not to compare ourselves to our brothers and sisters or to compete with them. We are to live a life of self sacrifice. We are to serve them so that they may become all that they can be in Christ. Once again, it is the Spirit of Christ that will kill the spirit of religion in the body of Christ. We must surrender to and embrace the Spirit of Christ in our lives.

THE MERCY NEEDED---IS IN OUR OWN LIVES

Lord have mercy on us all. As the bride emerges on that day, truly no person will be able to stand and take any credit for Her beauty but You. We live daily by Your mercy.

May the Mercy Seat of Christ become our dwelling place. Then we will begin to see beyond the veil what the Father has prepared for those who love Him and follow after His ways.

-- Mark Kaphaem <http://www.angelfire.com/journal/prophetic/kapmando@davesworld.net>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Speak To The Rock!

Doug Fortune

SPEAK TO THE ROCK! by Doug Fortune

I believe all of us are familiar with the account in Numbers chapter 20, where the Lord tells Moses to SPEAK to the Rock to bring forth water and he SMITES it twice instead. I find it interesting that this account directly follows the instructions for the Red Heifer offering in Numbers chapter 19. In a previous article (see Ashes of the Red Heifer) we saw how the Red Heifer offering pointed to the New Creation Man of the Third Day and the Seventh Day, and the importance of 'not touching' the 'dead man'- the Adam / sin nature. Now, we must keep in mind that all these things happened to them as examples for us (1Cor.10:11), so these accounts are not so much just the telling of historical events, but rather the prophetic proclamation of God's purposes.

Let us also weave into the canvass of this prophetic picture that Rom.5:10 says that as "...we were RECONCILED to God through the DEATH of His Son, it is much more certain now that we ARE reconciled, that we SHALL be SAVED through His resurrection LIFE..."; in other words, His death brought reconciliation, but it is His resurrection LIFE (zoe) that brings salvation. Also let us weave in the truths that "...they drank from a spiritual Rock... and the Rock was Christ..."(1Cor.10:4); and that Jesus said in John 6:63 that His WORDS are Spirit (pneuma) and Life (zoe).

With these Scriptures in mind, let us now bring some clarity: Just as the Rock is symbolic of Christ, so the smiting of the Rock is symbolic of the crucifixion of Jesus Christ; "...we considered Him smitten by God..."(Is.53:4). This 'smiting of the Rock' brought forth the water of the 'earnest of the Spirit'; "...out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water... the Holy Ghost was not yet given, because that Jesus was not yet glorified."(John 7:38-39). This smiting of the Rock ONCE was ordained of God and necessary to provide the 'spiritual water' of the baptism or earnest of the Spirit. The ROD also is symbolic of power, and we know that we receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon us (Acts 1:8).

We can see this 'ROD anointing' evidenced in the Pentecostal / Charismatic movements, where the emphasis is tapping into an anointing for a season, for a reason... like an external anointing that comes upon an individual for a time... the proverbial 'getting under the spout where the glory comes out' (I'm NOT poking fun, I'm just trying to bring definition). It is, as it were, a drawing upon the power of the BLOOD- the DEATH of Jesus Christ (the smiting of the Rock) that breaks bondage's and curses. We see this principle evidenced in the Revival / Renewal movements also, and certainly the ROD anointing does provide for NEEDS while in the wilderness. However, I don't believe that the ROD anointing is what takes us into the Promised Land... rather, it is the PROCEEDING WORD, the speaking to the Rock that takes us there. Mind you, I'm NOT trying to denigrate the ROD anointing at all; remember that in Numbers chapter 20, God told Moses to take the rod WITH him as he spoke to the Rock.

You see, it is not the ROD that keeps us out of the Promised Land, it is the smiting TWICE that keeps us from our destiny. TWO is the number of duality, of double-mindedness; it is also the number of agreement ("...if two of you shall agree..." Matt.18:19). This smiting TWICE speaks of the DUALITY of the Adam / sin nature, the carnal reasoning of the mind; it's the inaccurate belief that after you come to Christ you now have TWO natures, TWO spirits that are at war with each other... this is a product of religion, the result of eating from the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil. In reality, your old Adam / sin nature has ALREADY been dealt with ("...our old unrenewed self WAS nailed to the cross with Him..." Rom.6:6); it is just our MIND that must be renewed to this reality.

About now, I'm sure someone is saying, "What about Paul's discourse in Romans chapter 7?... I do the thing I hate (sin), and I can't do the thing I desire (righteousness)." Well, if you will read Romans chapters 6 and 8 for the context of this discourse, you will find he is speaking of the person under the Law (Rom.7:1), and the impossibility of the Law producing righteousness. He even asks the question, "...who will deliver me from this body of death?"(Rom.7:24), and then answers, "...He WILL, through Jesus Christ our Lord!"(v.25)... I believe that the Father meant what He said when, by the Holy Spirit, He inspired Paul to write those words! Paul goes on to say that "...God HAS DONE (past tense) what the Law could not do... condemned sin in the flesh- subdued, overcame, deprived it of its power over ALL who ACCEPT that sacrifice." (Rom.8:3). We MUST see that the smiting of the Rock ONCE was sufficient, and we must see OURSELVES in Christ- crucified, dead, and buried! Only then will we be able to see ourselves as risen, ascended, and seated IN Christ.

Consider Heb.9:26-27, "...He has ONCE for ALL at the consummation and close of the ages appeared to abolish sin by His sacrifice... (smiting the Rock ONCE, my notes)... Christ having been offered to take upon Himself and bear as a burden the sins of many ONCE and ONCE for ALL, will APPEAR a SECOND time, NOT carrying ANY burden of sin nor to deal with sin, but to bring to FULL SALVATION those who are waiting for and expecting Him.". My friend, full salvation is our 'Promised Land' and the place He is appearing this SECOND time is IN HIS PEOPLE! In the Book of the REVEALation of Jesus Christ, John hears a VOICE and when he TURNED from his present position (some of us need to turn from our present position to see Christ!), where did he see Christ appearing?... in the MIDST of the Lampstand- the Church! (Rev.1:10-13)

Now we've got to see this progression: 1. John HEARD a VOICE like a trumpet- The voice (message) of the Apostolic is sounding as a trumpet in the earth today, declaring the message of the Mystery of the Seventh Trumpet of Rev.10:7 which is Christ IN YOU, the HOPE (Promised Land) of manifesting His glory / nature (FULL salvation). 2. John TURNED from his present position- We have to lay down inaccurate doctrines, our focus and vision must be on the VOICE. 3. John SAW Christ revealed in the MIDST of His people. You see, His appearing this SECOND time in His people, is not for the purpose of being smitten a second time (to continue to deal with sin), but rather to bring forth FULL salvation- the Promised Land... and I believe the way this is appropriated is by SPEAKING to the Rock.

The Rock of REVEALation (Christ) is WITHIN US and as we speak the words of the Father, calling forth the ABIDING anointing (1 John 2:27), the abiding 'christos' in Greek or the abiding Christ, we will begin to enter the Promised Land of being conformed to His image and likeness. Remember that Jesus said His words are SPIRIT and LIFE (zoe) and that He only said and did what He heard and saw from the Father; and He also said that man does not live by bread alone, but by every WORD that PROCEEDS from the mouth of God. You see, it is the PROCEEDING WORD- speaking the words of the Father that brings forth Life (zoe)... not 'smiting the Rock'. We must move from a 'smiting the Rock' mentality, to a 'speak to the Rock' mentality... from a ROD mentality (external anointing coming upon us for a season), to a PROCEEDING WORD mentality (internal abiding anointing).

By now, someone is probably saying, "But I thought the Bible taught us that the life is in the blood!" This is very true, but we must understand that there are two types of LIFE... two different words, psuche and zoe, both translated as life, but having very different meanings. Jesus said it very emphatically in Matt. 16:25, "He who seeks to save HIS LIFE shall lose it...". The word for life in that verse is 'psuche' from which we get the word psyche, which is the mind, the SOUL. That verse literally says that if we seek to protect and preserve our SOUL life (life lived from the mind, will and emotions), we will lose it... the word lose, apollumi, means to destroy fully. The verse goes on to say that if we lose our SOUL life for HIS SAKE, we will find it, or better translated we will OBTAIN. What is it that we obtain?... well, Jesus said His WORDS (the incorruptible Seed of Life) were Spirit (Pneuma) and Life (Zoe), or Spirit Life. Jesus said His purpose in coming was that we may have LIFE, Zoe or Spirit Life! He did NOT come to give us 'psuche', or SOUL Life! THAT is the life (psuche) that was crucified with Him!

The verses in John 10:11, 15, 17, all say that Jesus laid down (in death) His LIFE for us; the word used there is psuche in Greek (NOT His Zoe). Is 53:10 says that His SOUL (nephesh in Hebrew, psuche in Greek) was an offering for sin... NOT His Spirit (Ruach) but His SOUL. Verse 12 goes on to say "... He hath poured out His SOUL (nephesh) unto death...". This is significant because according to Lev. 17:11 "...the life (nephesh or SOUL) of the FLESH is in the blood... the blood maketh atonement for the SOUL...". In other words, the SOULISH life is in the BLOOD, and it was the BLOOD of Christ that was poured out, His SOUL (psuche, NOT His Spirit) an offering for sin. Furthermore, "...the Son of Man came... to give His life (psuche - SOUL) a ransom for many..."(Matt. 20:28), His BLOOD shed as the sin offering, that WE may have LIFE (ZOE), SPIRIT LIFE!

Friends, it is His LIFE (zoe) that brings forth FULL salvation, being conformed to His image and likeness, and His WORDS are SPIRIT LIFE... we do not live by bread alone, but it is the PROCEEDING WORD that brings forth Life. As we speak the WORDS of the Father, what God says concerning who we are in Christ, as we speak to the Rock of REVEALation within us (Christ IN us) calling forth the NEW MAN within, we will go beyond just meeting needs in the wilderness... we will be on our way to conquering those things that appear to be 'giants' standing in the way of our Promised Land of manifesting the fullness of Christ.

Quit smiting the Rock within you in the duality of carnal reasoning; quit depending on the ROD anointing... start speaking to the Rock within, calling forth the ABIDING anointing... watch as the water of the PROCEEDING WORD flows freely from your life... watch the 'giants' in your life topple as the victory that has ALREADY been won is appropriated!

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Spirit of Antichrist

Jim Rinker

The job of Jezebel or the religious spirit is to introduce her god baal into the land as a substitute provider or husband for our Lord and husband Jesus Christ. Jezebel "builds" the platform upon which antichrist will sit. In this world there is a movement toward making government God. The main topic of discussion in the debates is how will the president use government to protect (military), provide (social programs), enlighten (education), and heal (healthcare) those who submit to it and entrust in it. We know the ultimate "fulfillment" of this will be when you must commit yourself unequivocally to "baal" by taking a mark in your right hand or forehead to reap the blessings of antichrist as husband or provider.

This is a "foreshadow" of what is rising up in the body of Christ for it's a picture in the natural of what is happening in the spiritual within the church. I will be as blunt as possible. The religious spirit is introducing her god (baal) into the land. That god is "government" and is manifesting itself in the form of "apostolic government". It is coming to be your "mediary" between God and man and "substitute" itself for the Lord Jesus Christ making itself supreme authority or God's "delegated authority" on earth. Sounds like the pope. Well the pope is only a "type" of this greater manifestation which is already upon us. This government is demanding submission to it and in return it is promising provision (blessings) for your "obedience" by submission.

Matthew 24:5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

Many are claiming to be "Christ" or "anointed ones" and promise "peace and prosperity" if only you will submit to their authority (Daniel 11:21). The promise of provision for you comes in exchange for loyalty or submission from you as your trust shifts from Jesus as provider to a governmental system in which blessings flow from submission to authority. All this sounds "biblical" and "spiritual" but Jesus clearly said:

Matthew 20: 25 But Jesus called them [unto him], and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them. 26 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister; 27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant: 28 Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

Thus the "definition" of government that is being spewed forth by those demanding your "allegiance" is not the same as that spoken of by Jesus for Jesus "government" will not demand allegiance but will serve you to make sure that your salvation is sure. They will serve you and not you them. As Paul said "the children do not lay up inheritance for the parents but the parents for the children".

In Ephesians 4 is says:

11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; 12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: 13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

So the purpose is to see the bride raised to maturity. Then we as a body will then begin to "feed" one another BY THE SPIRIT that the whole body would EDIFY ITSELF.

15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, [even] Christ:

16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

The flow is NEVER top down as in from "anointed ones" to the "masses below". The flow is from the LORD HIMSELF to whom the WHOLE BODY is joined. It's thus a direct connection. Those who are called to serve "plant and water" but it is the Lord who gives the increase. Their focus is simply on doing those things that will mature the body so it is capable of EDIFYING ITSELF which simply put is being able to recognize the Spirit of Christ and manifest gifts in one another and draw from them to be edified by the Lord Himself. When we are ministered to by another it is the Spirit of Christ or Lord Himself ministering to us and when we minister to "one of the least" of our brothers and sisters in Christ we are ministering to the Lord Himself.

Hold and consider these things for the time of trouble is upon us when all those things written shall be fulfilled. Praise to the Lord that He is able to preserve us through this hour of trouble and temptation.

In His Love

Jim

Jim, Terri, and Joshua Rinker

1223 Fredrick Blvd.

Reading, Pa. 19605

610-926-0237

610-458-8959 (W)

<http://landru.myhome.net/cmjhburl/Resource1.html>

<http://www.sosbbs.com/~ejhintz/sofs.htm>

The book "The Father's Message to the Maturing Bride" can be found at:

www.sosbbs.com/~ejhintz/sofs.htm

rinker@3dp.com

Spots And Wrinkles

Ruth Tillery

Spots, Wrinkles And Blemishes Examined

The Lord gave me this some time ago. "That He might present to Himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Eph 5 : 25-27"

What are SPOTS? Job 11: 14-15 SINS If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away. Let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacle. (body, temple, those things within such as envy, jealousy, rebellion, self-centerness, greed, etc.)For then shalt lift up thy face without SPOT , yea, thou shalt be steadfast and shalt not fear.

WRINKLES Job 16:8 Spiritually lean, darkness. And thou hast filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me: and my leanness rising up in me beareth witness to my face.

Isaiah 55: 1-2 Hearken diligently unto me and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. (full of fruits and light) BLEMISHES Lev 21: 16-24

1. Lame: speaks of mixture, carnal, spiritual weakness, unable to walk in the Spirit wherever He leads
2. Blind: Unable to perceive spiritual things.
3. Flat nose: without discernment, easily led into error.
4. Superfluous: Every weight. and sin which doth easily beset us.
5. Brokenfooted.: Still lives much in the world...competitive ...ambitious
6. Brokenhanded: without love for others . rude...inconsiderate, selfish
7. Crookback: no backbone...fearful, hesitant to commit to God..
8. Dwarf: spiritually retarded...has not had a revelation of the grace that stimulates growth
- 9 Blemish in the eye: out of focus ...out of balance...either dead or fanatic, cannot see God as the first cause of everything
- 10: Scurvy: also out of balance ...has not been nourished spiritually
- 11: Scabbed: sore healed over but not complete....unforgiveness
- 12: Stones broken: produces no fruit

I needed to search back over these to see where any spots, wrinkles, and blemishes are so that I can repent and ask God to wash them away with His Blood. The Lord is doing that now...the last minute things so that we can be presented to Him....without spot , wrinkle, or blemish. Oh! His Word is so rich!

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Spiritual Revival Leads to Kingdom Truth

Ron McGatlin

The awakening of the sleeping church is jolting many from their pews and into action worshiping, praising, praying, and serving God with dynamic energy. The great revivals of today are establishing the reality of life in God as His presence is again filling His temple -- the hearts and lives of "ordinary" believers. Revived believers are actively pursuing God and His kingdom. Those seeking the kingdom of God lifestyle are no longer satisfied to give ten percent of their money and even a smaller percentage of their time and call it serving God.

Only serving Him with their whole heart -- with their whole life can bring satisfaction to the revived children of God. The powerful presence of God has put a fire of desire within them that cannot be satisfied by idly watching and passively waiting. The church watchers have become God chasers and cannot be stopped. The reality of seeking first the kingdom of God has come into our world through revival.

The doctrine of the Nicolaitans is finally being destroyed. Religion's invention of dividing the Body of Christ into clergy and laity is beginning to be dissolved. The kingdom truth of the five fold ministry gifts of apostles, prophets, evangelist, pastors, and teachers in "ordinary" believers is coming forth by the Spirit in revival. Christ Jesus is beginning to be honored as head of the church in a practical real way. The revolutionary reformation of church government has begun.

The burden of headship that has been usurped by men and denominations is being returned to the shoulder of Christ. The body of Christ has greatly suffered for centuries as the people in the pew have been trained to reverence men as heads and depend on them for spiritual works and church government. Not only have the people failed to develop spiritual gifts and function but the "Reverends" have suffered under the undue burden of invalid headship.

The great overburden placed upon "men of the clergy" is being lifted in revival. No longer shall the weight of the congregation be on the back of the sacrificed life of the "Reverend -- Minister -- Pastor -- Priest" or whatever title used for the paid minister -- paid to do what God is now raising up a generation of willing volunteers to do in revival.

The overburden has destroyed many men who sought to fulfill a role as head of the church that God never intended. Not only has the burden been great but the temptation has also been great. Many have succumbed to the temptations and taken advantage of the undue worshipful reverence and respect of the people toward them as "heads of the church". The elevation of "clergymen" set them apart as virtual gods and not mere men. The intense affection for Christ that should have been focused on Jesus as true head of the church has been, in part, focused on "clergymen". It has been much too easy for men to become victims of the gifts and offerings of the people and begin to receive illicit affection and money to themselves. Scandal, burnout, and failure became common terms relating to "clergymen" in the passing church emphasis age.

Before the present day outpouring of the presence and power of God began to bring reformation, church leaders struggled with decisions. They often resorted to their own minds which were trained by seminarians in what they could intellectually glean from the Word. For centuries church "heads" and boards of deacons, elders, and denominational bosses have struggled, debated, and voted to make decisions for the church. The reformed men and women of God are learning to listen for and hear God to receive what Christ has already decided and then represent that into the church. Thus the burden of headship is being restored to the shoulder of Christ.

Isa 9:6 For unto us a Child is born, Unto us a Son is given; And the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Isa 9:7 Of the increase of His government and peace There will be no end, Upon the throne of David and over His kingdom, To order it and establish it with judgment and justice From that time forward, even forever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

In a practical and real way, revival is bringing reformation. The good news is that believers, church governments, and eventually the world will be reformed to kingdom of God ways. The bad news is that much of the old must be uprooted, torn down, destroyed and overthrown before the new can be built and planted back.

As in the days of Isaiah and Jeremiah it is the zeal of the Lord that is performing the reformation from government by men to the government of God -- the kingdom of God. In Jeremiah Chapter One, Israel had forsaken God for other gods and established ways that had to be torn down and destroyed before God's ways could be replanted. There is a parallel in the church. In practice if not in theology other gods have ruled in the church.

Jer 1:10 NIV: See, today I appoint you over nations and kingdoms to uproot and tear down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and to plant."

The tearing down of the old can be a difficult and painful experience. The past is filled with fond memories of church experiences. Many Christian's faith seems anchored in the relics of the beautiful church buildings and the security of the familiar traditions and fond memories of the past. The future can seem very unsure when the past monuments of beliefs and systems began to crumble and burn.

I remember weeping openly recently as I watched a news video from Virginia. The video was of a beautiful one hundred and sixty two year old church building burning. Fire fighters could do little as the fire destroyed the historical landmark. As I watched the flames swirl up the tall stately steeple that had stood over the city pointing toward the heavens for generations, I felt great sadness and a painful sense of loss. I was impressed in my spirit that this is how many will feel as the old ways of religion are uprooted, torn down, destroyed, and overthrown. These same painful feelings will bruise them as they experience the old ways of the organized church being destroyed to make room for the planting of the kingdom of God ways and the building of the glorious "Bride Church".

Jer 31:28 Just as I watched over them to uproot and tear down, and to overthrow, destroy and bring disaster, so I will watch over them to build and to plant," declares the LORD.

As the children of Israel in the wilderness were unwilling to cross over and take the promised land, there will be those who will not make the transition to the glorious church. They will live and die unchanged retaining their old ways. While their children -- the next generation will enter into the glorious revival of the presence of God and the extreme worship in the glorious church.

Ron McGatlin
mailto:basileia@advi.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Sprinkle Many Nations!

Doug Fortune

“So shall He SPRINKLE many NATIONS...”(Is.52:15). God spoke very clearly to me recently, ‘THIS is the DAY to sprinkle many nations!’

As we read through the books of Moses we find numerous mention of sprinkling. This sprinkling is always done by a Priest; most of the time it is done at an altar; sprinkling BLOOD is mentioned most, but also you’ll find references to sprinkling OIL and to sprinkling WATER.

You and I are Kings and Priests of the Most High and our very lives are to be altars of continual intercession as the Spirit within us prays. “...for we do not know what prayer to offer nor how to offer it worthily as we ought, but the Spirit Himself goes to meet our supplication and pleads in our behalf with unspeakable yearnings and groanings too deep for utterance.”(Rom.8:26). The next verse tells us that the Spirit prays according to the will and purpose of God, and we know that WE are the temple of the Holy Spirit, “... you yourselves also are being built up with the rest, to form a fixed abode, dwelling place of God in, by, and through the Spirit.”(Eph.2:22). So WE are the temple, and of course the Golden Altar was in the midst of the temple, just as the Spirit is in the midst of US, so from THIS altar we SPRINKLE. Even though we, in our NATURAL mind may not know how or what to pray, as we allow the Holy Spirit to pray through us we can pray the will of God over nations.

With the Kingly anointing of spiritual authority we can decree the purpose of God and the God-ordained destiny over nations... with the Priestly anointing of spiritual authority we can intercede that the judgment of a nation’s idolatry be covered in mercy; remember Jesus’ prayer on the cross?... “forgive them Father...”.

You might be thinking, ‘Doesn’t that verse say HE, meaning Jesus, will sprinkle?’. Obviously yes, He is our High Priest and His sprinkling was on the cross, but we too are Priests... HE is the Head, but we are His Body... the ministry of Christ is still effected through His Body today. Didn’t He say, ‘greater works shall YOU do’? As Kings and Priests we are APPROPRIATING the FINISHED work of Christ, bringing the Kingdom to bear upon this world.

We must sprinkle the BLOOD upon the nations: That the nations experience the salvation and deliverance of Passover, a mighty harvest of souls for the Kingdom of “Christ, our Passover”.

We must sprinkle the OIL upon the nations: That the Holy Spirit’s illuminating Light of Pentecost will shine forth in the nations, bringing people into the ‘earnest’ or down payment of the fullness of the Spirit promised.

We must sprinkle the WATER upon the nations: That “as it was in the days of Noah” a mighty flood of the knowledge or ONENESS with the glory of the Lord will cover the earth, thus consummating all things in Christ in the Feast of Tabernacles.

As I mentioned earlier, most sprinkling was done at the altar; this represents not only the altar of prayer/ intercession, but it speaks of another altar... the CROSS. We can 'sprinkle the nations' from the position of simply appropriating and enforcing that which is already FINISHED. We know that the kingdoms of this world are become the Kingdom of the Lord and His Christ, but that doesn't mean we sit idly by. Daniel understood that the Babylonian captivity was ended, still he appropriated it in prayer and fasting.

It is interesting to note that in the Amplified Bible many times instead of translating it 'sprinkle', it is translated as "...the priests shall DASH its blood round about against the altar." (Lev.1:11). Perhaps I'm reading more into it than is there, but to DASH something implies using FORCE. "And from the days of John the Baptist until the present time the Kingdom of heaven has endured violent assault, and violent men seize it by FORCE..." (Mt.11:12). I believe that THIS is the day to FORCEFULLY exercise the Kingly/ Priestly spiritual authority of being seated IN Christ, empowered by the FINISHED work of the cross and SPRINKLE MANY NATIONS!

Let us cry out for the nations as Priests... let us decree over the nations as Kings... let us advance the Kingdom of God in the earth as we FORCEFULLY SPRINKLE many nations!

(A couple days after I had written this article, the Lord spoke the following to me):

This is the DAY to sprinkle many nations; for what defines the nation?... is it that which can be seen with the natural eye, the infrastructure, the political system, the wealth laid up in storehouses?... NO, what defines the nation is the spiritual atmosphere, the heavenly realm that permeates the nation. And what determines this spiritual atmosphere?... the condition of men's hearts, whether they be filled with Light or darkness. And what greatly affects the condition of men's hearts?... the principles by which men live, thus establishing the PRINCIPALITIES that operate through those principles, and giving authority to those entities that obscure the Light from the eyes of mens' understanding - RULERS of darkness. Know that I have seated YOU in Christ at My right hand of authority, FAR ABOVE principalities, rulers and dominions, and from THIS vantage point I call you to decree MY PURPOSE over the nations! Sprinkle the nations, O sons... sprinkle the nations, O sons... sprinkle MANY nations!

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Silk Road 2000

Aimee Hennen

Dear Friends,

Greetings in Jesus' name! We are sending you this letter to pray for these needs. If you know someone who would be interested in Central Asia and in helping financially, then please forward it according to the leading of the Lord.

Many blessings,
Michael and Aimee Hennen

SILK ROAD 2000

Dear Intercessors,

Almaty, Kazakstan will be the site of an historic gathering to be held in July, 2000. On July 20th a Cultural Festival will start off this event. Presentations from many ethnic groups will celebrate the cultural diversity of Kazakstan and other Silk Road countries. From July 21-22 a Christian Festival will be held with the focus on unity, repentance, forgiveness, reconciliation and blessing for Kazakstan. Luis Bush, Roger Forster, Tom Hess, Christopher Sun and others will be speaking at the festival. More than 10,000 participants are expected from Central Asia, Korea, the US, and Canada.

To realize the full vision of SR-2000, much prayer is still required for financial provision. There are many opportunities still available for those who would like to be involved through giving. (Perhaps one of the needs listed below will interest you.) If you cannot give now toward meeting these needs, we ask that you pray that other's hearts would be open to respond. If you can give, we would like to thank you in advance for your generous gift toward meeting one of these needs. Regardless of whether or not you are able to give we would like to ask you to pass along these needs to others that are interested in partnering for Central Asia.

- 1) Print invitations for the Cultural Festival and for Christian Seminars      $3900
- 2) Send representatives to promote Silk Road 2000 and to hand-carry flyers to distribution points throughout Kazakstan. $2100
- 3) Establish a national Christian Information Center that will continue to serve Central Asia with publishing and information facilities after Silk Road 2000.      $7000
- 4) Print "Special Edition" Christian newspapers announcing SR-2000 $1480
- 5) Send invitations to 3500 local residents of Almaty $540
- 6) Give 400 pastors from Kazakstan $50 to offset their transportation costs to attend the conference in Almaty. $20,000
- 7) Give 50 pastors from throughout Central Asia $200 to offset their transportation costs to attend the conference in Almaty. $10,000
- 8) Clean Almaty T-shirt Project will provide 35,000 people with T-shirts that read "Love your neighbor, Love your country" which they will wear as they clean the streets of Almaty. $32,500
- 9) FM-radios tuned to a single frequency will allow Kazak speaking believers to hear the speakers in their own language. (1000 FM radios plus one transmitter)      $7,000

If you would like to give toward meeting one of these needs or if you would like to contribute toward the general budget, you may send your contribution to the following account:

Recipient's Name: Institute of Asian Culture and Development
Account Number: 081-42-0003-209
Bank Name: Kookmin Bank
Branch: Kang Nam Branch, Seoul, Korea
SWIFT Number: CZNBRKRS

Please send an e-mail to sr2k@orgio.net confirming the date, purpose, and amount of your contribution, and the account from which your gift was given.

We would very much like one intercessory team (2 or more people) from every country of the world to intercede with us for this gathering from July 20th - 22nd. We know that you cannot all come, but all can pray. If you and just one other person would like to commit to pray together for Silk Road 2000 before or during this event, we would like to know about it.

Here are the countries, so far, from which we have prayer commitments:

- Australia
- Canada
- Finland
- Hungary
- Israel
- Kazakstan
- Korea
- Russia
- Singapore
- Tasmania
- United Kingdom
- United States
- Uzbekistan
- Zimbabwe

If you (and one other person in your country) will commit to pray together for SR-2000 and would like to add your country to this list, please contact us at AROK\_SR2000@yahoo.com

Blessings, Silk Road 2000 Team

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

SHEPHERD’S ROD 2001

Bob Jones and Keith Davis

October 9, 2000

ANOINTING FOR THE YOUTH

Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness! Thou hast relieved me in my distress; be gracious to me and hear my prayer. O sons of men, how long will my honor become a reproach? {How long} will you love what is worthless and aim at deception? Selah. But know that the LORD has set apart the godly man for himself; the LORD hears when I call to Him. Tremble, and do not sin; meditate in your heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah. Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and trust in the LORD. Many are saying, "Who will show us {any} good?" Lift up the light of Thy countenance upon us, O LORD! Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than when their grain and new wine abound. In peace I will both lie down and sleep, for Thou alone, O LORD, dost make me to dwell in safety. (Psalm 4)

There will be a measurable increase in the anointing falling upon young people. The Lord gave Psalm 4 as an outline for the attributes associated with this outpouring.

The youth are going to begin to convert the shame associated with this generation to honor and glory for the Lord and His anointing. Whenever the reference is made concerning youth, it is denoting those born since the 1973 United States Supreme Court decision of Roe vs Wade. This would include those 28 years of age and under. The Lord is going to lift His countenance upon the youth and allow His face to shine upon them with favor to prepare them for the great work ahead. It will be the role of this present generation to become “fathers” to the younger generation and disciple them in becoming the great army the Lord desires to use before His return. Both are equally important. There will be no “sidelines” for the days ahead. Everyone will participate in the “game”.

These admonitions outlined in Psalm 4 are promises delegated to the righteous young generation. Conversely, there will also be those who reject the opportunity to walk with the Lord who will also be anointed with increasing measure by the spirit of this world. These two opposing anointings will continue to run concurrently with one another preparing the way for the great end-time battle of light vs darkness. Of course, the opportunity is given to “whosoever will”, however, there will be many who reject this incredible opportunity to walk closely with the Lord and be used mightily by Him.

Bob was awakened at 4:00 a.m. and informed Psalm 4 specifically applied to the youth. Furthermore, he was forewarned of the need for an emphasis to be placed upon the continued preparation of that generation for their high calling. But know that the LORD has set apart the godly man for himself; the LORD hears when I call to Him. (Psalm 4:3)

In the vision, he saw large gatherings of young people whose character and nature was being forged and molded into the very image of Christ, thus imparting His divine nature qualifying them to carry the powerful anointing promised for the days ahead. On the other hand, those rejecting this extraordinary privilege were also increasing in their anointing through the spirit of this world and the depravity that results from a reprobate mind. Psalm 4 is a promise to awaken the youth to increased divine opportunities in the cycle of the Spirit prominently advancing.

The season surrounding the upcoming Day of Pentecost will be a point of demarcation for those identified as this generation of youth .The interval between Atonement and the Day of Pentecost will be utilized for indoctrination and consecration for those things following the release that should take place during the season of heightened spiritual intensity surrounding Pentecost.The first six months will be a preparation for the second.Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and trust in the LORD.Many are saying, "Who will show us {any} good? " Lift up the light of Thy countenance upon us, O LORD!(Psalm 4:5-6)

There will be an increased measure of evangelism among the young as this generation is being turned back to the Lord and prepared for the great harvest.The prophetic anointing will be a key in the conversion of this unique group.But if all prophesy, and an unbeliever or an uninformed person comes in, he is convinced by all, he is convicted by all.And thus the secrets of his heart are revealed; and so, falling down on his face, he will worship God and report that God is truly among you.(1 Cor 14:24?25) A deep love for the prophetic power of God is being cultivated among the young.When the secrets of the heart are revealed and the thoughts and intents of the heart are proclaimed, they will surely recognize the authenticity of the Word coming to Life and repent giving glory to God.

THE GOLDEN RULE

Therefore, whatever you want men to do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.(Matt 7:12)

This next move of the Spirit will be characterized by “brotherly love” and recognized as the age of the “Golden Rule”.The Golden Rule will be an emphasis in the hearts of God’s people as we seek to find His pleasure by sharing in His attributes.If we will do unto others as we would have them do unto us, the Lord will correspondingly delight in us and give to us the desires of our hearts. We must be willing to esteem others as being more important than ourselves and become servants to all.The Golden Rule will become the “goal” of the Spirit for the upcoming season.

This admonition of the Spirit was spoken audibly to Bob in the early morning hours on the Day of Atonement.It was spoken audibly to accentuate its importance in the Lord’s agenda.Because God is so gracious and anxious to freely bestow the best gifts upon His children, the men and women of the kingdom are under profound obligation to consider the higher law of brotherhood communicated in the Golden Rule.

"A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another.(John 13:34)As the Lord was about to leave the disciples he gave them a new and unique command...that they love one another as He loved them.Surely after three years of life and ministry together, they experienced such love emanating from the Lord toward them that it was beyond the expression of words.Yet, they were given this new commandment, not only as an admonition but a banner or badge of their discipleship.This great fraternal affection was to be a signature by which they might be known as His friends and followers, and by which they were to be distinguished from all others.

"By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another."(John 13:35)Never before had there been a precedent for such a command as this for a people group to be distinguished and recognized.Now, in the case of born again believers in Jesus Christ, we are not to be known by distinctions of wealth, or education, or fame, although some may possess these; we are not required to aspire to earthly honors or acclaim;we are not even mandated to adopt any special style of dress or insignia.This new royal Priesthood is to be identified by tender and constant affection and allegiance for one another.

This great command to walk in brotherly love will transcend all distinctions of country, color, social status, or denomination.The disciples of Christ are to uniformly perceive we are all in the same spiritual family with common goals having all been redeemed by the same sacred blood... each having the same eternal destination. We are to befriend each other in trials and ardently guard each other's feelings and reputation... even denying ourselves to promote one another's welfare.Amen.

Mankind is looking for something as a standard by which to measure.Brotherly love and living by the “golden rule” will be the “rule” by which the church will receive its authority.Those willing to adopt these principles will find great blessings, favor and anointing.

TIMES OF RESTORATION

The thief comes only to steal, and kill, and destroy; I came that they might have life, and might have it abundantly.(John 10:10)

This will be a time to redeem stolen property, spiritually and naturally.The thief has gone about seeking to steal, kill, and destroy, yet it is the desire of the Spirit to give life and grant it abundantly.The Lord will restore those things that have been stolen if we will identify them and bring them before the throne of grace through faith, trusting Him for their recovery.

"So I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the crawling locust, the consuming locust, and the chewing locust, my great army which I sent among you. (Joel 2:25)This would include not only finances but also stolen joy, spiritual opportunity, and issues involved in every arena of our lives.An anointing will be present to recognize the areas in which the thief has successfully seized and captured our inheritance.This grace will aide in our identification of those things which can be restored.The redeeming of natural and spiritual resources will help facilitate the advancement of the great army of the Lord.

Many times the Lord will allow us to go through seasons of difficulty and discipline in order to develop our spiritual character.However, the enemy will often times take advantage of those opportunities to try and afflict us and worsen the calamity.However, there is the promise of the Spirit to redeem and restore all that has been stolen so our latter condition would be greater than our former .Not only would spiritual character be developed but also the things stolen from us would be restored in multiplied fashion.We have an example of this principle through Israel. Thus says the LORD of hosts, "I am exceedingly jealous for Jerusalem and Zion.But I am very angry with the nations who are at ease; for while I was only a little angry, they furthered the disaster."Therefore, thus says the LORD, "I will return to Jerusalem with compassion; My house will be built in it," declares the LORD of hosts, "and a measuring line will be stretched over Jerusalem."Again, proclaim, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, "My cities will again overflow with prosperity, and the LORD will again comfort Zion and again choose Jerusalem.'""(Zech 1:14-17)

Likewise, the thief has also been incredibly successful in his pursuits because of a lack of knowledge by the corporate church in spiritual warfare and walking in our destiny.In either case, the Holy Spirit is releasing an anointing that will help us identify the realms giving access to the enemy so all avenues can be sealed and full restitution obtained.

The job of the righteous will be to redeem that which the enemy has stolen. We will especially be called to recover and heal those who have been wounded in the church. The “blind, lame and halt” are to be revitalized by those developing in righteousness, thereby retaking ground previously relented to the enemy. Even the gifts of the Spirit that have been stolen or perverted by the enemy will be redeemed during the coming year and years to follow. The righteous must begin to restore all of these things the enemy has successfully stolen or perverted within the church.

Pastors and leaders will find a special anointing and grace during the upcoming year to begin to reinstate those previously used by the Lord but who have withdrawn because of wounds they have sustained in their attempt to serve the Lord.

GREAT TEMPTATIONS

In the next portion of the visions, Bob found himself in the passenger seat of a 1930 automobile. This automobile was considerably worn with many dents, scratches and abrasions showing considerable wear and tear. The vehicle denoted the year of his birth and signified his life and ministry. Each of us is journeying in comparable means denoting our lives and ministries.

Bob gratefully recognized it was the Lord driving the vehicle in a very calm and unpretentious manner. Suddenly, Bob noticed a bright shiny sports car driven by Satan himself. This vehicle was very beautiful in appearance and seemed to have the ability to travel at great speeds getting from one destination to another in a very short period of time. There were no dents, scratches or marks to distinguish its character and it seemed this vehicle would easily pass the vehicle in which the Lord and Bob were traveling.

Uniquely, the enemy was unable to pass the vehicle in which the Lord and Bob were traveling; although, from external observations, it seemed to have the ability to do so. There seemed to be some unseen force that prohibited this vehicle from passing the Lord and Bob. Even though the enemy’s plans appear righteous and able to facilitate us to our destination quickly, in reality it will only result in delays, detours and dead-ends. There is a way which seems right to a man, but its end is the way of death. (Prov 14:12)

As the vehicle proceeded parallel to Bob, the devil could be seen holding a basket of apples. These were “golden apples” and looked to be the most delicious he had ever seen. The apples were symbolic of the temptation and seduction of Eve in the Garden of Eden...the fruit of deception. The enemy offered the basket of apples to him in a very enticing and alluring manner. Everything within Bob’s soul desired not only the vehicle the enemy was driving but also the golden apples that were the most appealing his eyes had ever beheld. This represents the enemy’s attempt to offer those things inviting to the eye and the soulish realm, in an effort to distract us from the divine purposes for which we are created.

"Keep watching and praying, that you may not enter into temptation; the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak." (Matt 26:41) Not only will this vehicle be appealing to leadership but especially to the people. It would be very easy for the crowds to be drawn to this type of ministry that is dazzling, seemingly powerful, and possessing all of the modern and popular accessories. However, that is the deception of the enemy and the temptation offered to Eve in the Garden of Eden, to receive Kingdom dominion in an unrighteous manner. That is why 1 Thessalonians 5:23 must become reality in us, sanctifying us complete in our spirit, soul and body.

As the Evil One offered the basket of apples with the false promise they would do him no harm, Bob reached with his hand as though he was going to take one; instead, he overturned the basket spoiling the enemies plan and the elements of his temptation. This was to denote the upcoming days as times of great temptation and treachery.

The “golden apples” are the very opposite of the Golden Rule. They were so inviting to the natural eye, their beauty would deceive the very elect, if it were possible. These are representative of the “goals” of man rather than the “goals” of the Spirit. By being made aware of the devises of the enemy, we can begin now asking for the fortification of the Holy Spirit allowing us to withstand these onslaughts of evil.

The Tempter is going to try and offer to God’s people all that he can in an attempt to disengage us from the divine purposes to which we are called. Even the vehicle in which we are traveling appears as though it would not reach the destination as quickly as others. However, the Deceiver’s vehicle did not bear the marks of dented bumpers depicting the calloused knees of intercessory prayer. Neither did it display the scars and scrapes of hardship that develop character essential to bear the anointing that is soon to be dispensed. Additionally, the apples are symbolic of the lies, distortions, and enticements coming against the minds of God’s people as the Impersonator unleashes his arsenal.

Although we desire for all to reject the enemy’s basket of “golden apples,” unfortunately many will actually embrace those deceptions. It will be difficult to discern this false ministry as the devises of the deceiver because of the mistaken impression that it will allow us to achieve our promised destination in a more expedient manner. We must be willing to pray and intercede for ourselves and our brethren to triumph over this temptation and fervently follow the admonition of the “Lord’s Prayer”...lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

When the enemy offered the kingdoms of this world to the Lord as an enticement, he actually offered something that was to be the Lord’s destiny, but in an unrighteous manner. The Lord would receive the kingdoms of this world as His inheritance only in the Father’s mandated design. This will also denote the invitations of the enemy toward us. He will offer to us the opportunity to reach the goals and objectives that have been set for us, but by unrighteous means. This makes the temptation much more subtle and cunning, requiring the discernment of the Holy Spirit in us to recognize the enemy’s sponsorship. The “golden apples” can also be related to the quail eaten by the children while in the wilderness. Their flesh desired the quail but the manna was the Lord’s divine provision. The Deceiver will withhold no attempts to do all that he can to derail those in their final season of preparation.

This will be a very dangerous year and we should gladly “leave the driving to the Lord”. Even if we are traveling in what seems to be an outdated, neglected vehicle, with the Lord as the driver, all are safe and secure. That which is not of faith is sin. We must cultivate faith in the Lord as our Guide to take us to the place most beneficial and the manner most appropriate to the Spirit of Wisdom. Anything that surfaces in our lives that is not of faith or righteousness must be dealt with expeditiously and harshly, extracting it from our soul and spirit. The enemy intends to exploit any seeds of corruption that exist in our soul in an attempt to divert us from our destiny. Great and measurable outpourings of the Spirit are eminently facing the church and the enemy will do all that he can to keep us from attaining that heritage.

The righteous calling for us during this upcoming season is to SPOIL THE SPOILER. There will be an anointing of the spirit to disrupt the plans and schemes of the enemy once they are identified through our spiritual discernment. In this spiritual conflict, there will be those anointed with apples of gold in settings of silver as a word to destroy and disrupt the plans of the enemy. These will be done through righteous men and women who have determined in their minds they will not turn back to the spirit of this world.

Now the heart of the king of Aram was enraged over this thing; and he called his servants and said to them, "Will you tell me which of us is for the king of Israel?" And one of his servants said, "No, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom." (II Ki 6:11-12) As with Elisha, the Lord will anoint certain ones with the spirit of revelation to uncover the plans of the enemy and expose them to the church. Once the plans are brought out of darkness into light, the battle is half won.

The declaration is being made, "choose you this year whom you shall serve". The line of demarcation is being drawn, and the great separation between light and darkness... righteousness and unrighteousness is being established as those who truly belong to the Lord are being separated unto Him. We must not allow ambiguity to exist in our heart concerning our commitment and devotion to the Lord so opportunity would not be furnished to the tempter to find a place in our soul. We must eventually be as the Lord on the night of His temptation when He announced the enemy was coming but had no place in Him. "I will not speak much more with you, for the ruler of the world is coming, and he has nothing in Me; (John 14:30) The ruler of this world must find no place in us into which to sink his hooks of corruption and temptation.

The 1930 vehicle also represented that which the Lord is going to anoint. It was humble and unbecoming in appearance denoting the spiritual attributes we are to have if we desire His anointing. "For My hand made all these things, thus all these things came into being," declares the LORD. "But to this one I will look, to him who is humble and contrite of spirit, and who trembles at My word. (Isa 66:2) This will allow the vessels to be transparent in their nature so no flesh would glory in His presence. The vehicle the enemy was driving was dark and possessed all of the modern comforts and attributes appealing to the eye. However, it did not have the authority to pass the vehicle the Lord was driving, even though it had the apparent ability to do so. This vehicle will be very appealing to many and will require the discernment and anointing of the Holy Spirit to resist.

The Lord's vehicle was also brown denoting servant-hood. Have this attitude in yourselves which was also in Christ Jesus, who, although He existed in the form of God, did not regard equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied Himself, taking the form of a bond-servant, and being made in the likeness of men. (Phil 2:5-7)

The servants of God possess the willingness to seek the Lord for daily manna. We need the revelation of His voice each and every day in the coming season. Even if we lose the taste for the manna as did the children of Israel, we must be willing to receive the Lord's supply and not desire or embrace alternative provisions such as the quail. It is imperative we not allow ourselves to become discontent or over anxious with the things the Lord has us doing no matter how seemingly small or humble they may seem. The Lord is looking for obedience, while the enemy is offering enticing alternatives.

The commissioning comes after the temptation according to the Lord's example in the wilderness. Some of the main commissioning will come around Pentecost. The vehicle the Lord was driving was buffeted and battered to denote that many have gone through difficulty and hardship in their walk with Him. However, it has produced a cloak of maturity and righteousness necessary to carry His anointing. Most of the wounds received by the people have been in the church, even as the Lord Himself received His wounds in the house of His friends.

This will be a year of the testing of our faith and faithfulness. The just shall live by their faithfulness to the Word of God and His daily provision of heavenly manna. Another expression of faithfulness is simply obedience. Walking in humility and obedience to the revelation of the Spirit. This will produce the righteousness of God, which is His ultimate objective for us. Righteousness based in truth produces the divine nature of Christ.

FOURFOLD PLAN OF THE ENEMY

When the Lord was led into the wilderness by the Holy Spirit, the enemy approached Him to tempt Him in His spirit, soul, and body. Our adversary's deceptive plans have not changed. This manner of temptation will also be the designs of the enemy as he attempts to find issues in our spirit, flesh and soul that will defile us and delay our divine purposes. The following four examples of Satan's schemes provide the outline he will utilize in this hour.

The temptation to change the stones into bread by a miracle was an appeal to Christ to step out of His divinely appointed path for the sake of satisfying His human appetite. Although He possessed the power to quench the desire of His flesh, He had not received the "Word" from the Father to do so. His was a life of perfect obedience to the Father as the ultimate example to us to do nothing but what we see the Father doing and speak only what we hear from the Spirit. We can never use the power and anointing of God in a self-serving capacity.

The second temptation was to prove His Sonship and presumptuously demonstrate His certainty in His power and authority as the Son of God by casting Himself from a pinnacle of the Temple. This temptation was at the opposite extreme from the preceding. The first was a temptation to distrust, the second that of an elaborate, unwarranted demonstration of presumption. Presumptuously plunging Himself into needless peril would have been a violation of the nature and character of God. The Scripture quoted by the adversary was recited in a mutilated form. He quoted "He will give His angels charge concerning you," leaving out "To guard you in all your ways". It is contrary to the design of God to build a kingdom by means of flamboyant display and exhibitions, rather than by the patient, divinely appointed processes of humble demonstrations of the Spirit and power.

The third temptation was the most crafty of all. Inconceivable as this may seem at first, this was the bold form in which the Adversary embodied the idea of achieving power for good and holy ends by a compromise with corruption at the outset. It was an appeal to holy ambition and a righteous destiny, but upon the grounds of doing evil that good might result. The kingdom was to be won, but in the manner Satan suggested would have been at the expense of spoiling the King. The enemy will present before us "the kingdoms of this world" in an effort to ensnare us in the pride of life and use the divine gifts delegated to us in a selfish manner.

Additionally, there will also be a great effort of the enemy to deceive and beguile the church as he did with Eve in the Garden of Eden. But I am afraid that, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds will be led astray from the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ. (2 Cor 11:3) The times dictate our keen awareness of this plan of the enemy and supreme grace so we too would not be led astray by his cunning words and shrewd deceptions. As the Lord increases the anointing upon His people, there will be great enticement to use those gifts and attributes in a presumptuous or self-serving fashion although the temptation will come in a very subtle and unassuming manner. We must be very cautious and aware of this plan of the enemy, making certain that all decisions that are made have been prayerfully considered and follow meticulously the leading of the Spirit in order to avoid these snares and traps.

SATAN THE “SUPER-SALESMAN”

This will be the year of Satan, “the super salesman”. We must choose carefully whom we shall serve. He will be approaching the church with very appealing sales pitches and seemingly appropriate agendas, yet anointed with the spirit of anti-christ. It should be our continual prayer that the Lord will set a guard around us at all times so that every decision we make be appropriate and in the purpose of the Spirit. The enemy is going to attempt to get us ahead of the Lord. The vehicle in which He was traveling was very speedy and beautiful and would seemingly carry us to our desired destination in a much quicker manner. However, as the vision unfolded it was apparent that Satan was unable to pass the purposes of the Lord even though the vehicle conveyed the misleading appearance of being capable of doing so. All decisions should be made carefully and prayerfully, especially in the upcoming season.

The ultimate purpose of these temptations is to disqualify us from our anointing. Those who refuse the “golden apples” will embrace the “golden rule.” Conversely, those who reject the “golden rule” as their banner, open the door to be overcome by the “golden apples.”

This will be a year of righteousness and wickedness. We will either make great strides towards righteousness or we will take the detour of wickedness and the pursuit of the spirit of this world. One thing is certain, this will not be a year of stagnation. We will be moving in one direction or the other.

The thief is coming primarily to attack our love, joy and peace. His primary objective for the upcoming season is to attack the fruit of the Spirit in our lives because He knows it is divine character the Lord is going to anoint. Where the Lord is able to find His character and nature, there the anointing will be abundant. Therefore, the enemy is going to endeavor with all he has to destroy the fruit of the Spirit in our lives with the hope the Lord will not find His nature and character but the spirit of this world residing in His people. Our admonition for this hour is to continue to allow the Holy Spirit to impart and develop in us the fruit of the Spirit... foremost among them love. It will be our adversary’s greatest aspiration to cause us to do things displeasing to the Lord. Furthermore, the enemy is going to attempt to bring all manner of affliction and infirmity in his effort to destroy our peace. If we will be willing to rest in the Lord, an impartation from heaven will be released to us to see us through this battle more equipped for our purpose than ever before.

The “super-salesman” is simply the spirit of deception that has been identified as a predominant nemesis for this generation. The scriptures plainly exposes this spirit as a stronghold within the end-time church. Because you say, "I am rich, and have become wealthy, and have need of nothing," and you do not know that you are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked, (Rev 3:17)

In the admonition to the Laodiceans, the church which most appropriately describes this generation, the Lord announces our delusion that we are rich and increased in goods having need of nothing. However, that is a deception, for our true condition as seen from heavens perspective, is that she is wretched, miserable, poor, blind and naked. This correction clearly identifies the spirit of deception as one of the prevalent defiling fortresses during this generation. We must overcome this enemy if we are to sit with Him on His throne as He overcame and sat with the Father on His throne. In fact, we shall overcome this enemy for the Book of Revelations goes on to describe the Bride in all her beauty adorned for the King.

In order to overcome the enemy and his deceptions, as the Lord did when led by the Spirit into the wilderness, we must also share in His divine nature and character to confront the same counterfeit appeals. We are not adequate in our strength to triumph over the enemy. It is only in His strength we are made strong and equipped to prevail over all the enemy can deliver.

The plan of the enemy is to utilize the spirit of deception and delusion against us in the arena of the body, soul, and spirit. The instrument of His destruction will be the deceiving spirit that would convey we are in one condition when in reality we are in another or sidetrack us on detours and dead-ends. If he can deceive us in this manner, it would cause us to go into combat without being fully equipped for the battle. All the forces of hell will be released against the church in the great end-time battle. His only opportunity for victory is to attempt to seduce the church into entering the battle lacking the full armor of the Spirit. Our promise is to be like the Lord. He is the first fruit among many brethren. When the grain of wheat falls into ground and dies it is for the purpose of producing multiplied grains of wheat like the original seed. If we are to win the contest ahead, we must be like Him. That is our promise and our destiny. We cannot settle for anything less. Beloved, now we are children of God, and it has not appeared as yet what we shall be. We know that, when He appears, we shall be like Him, because we shall see Him just as He is. (1 Jn 3:2)

When Satan appears as the “super salesman, he will do so in a very appealing and attractive manner. In fact his appearance and attributes would seem to allow us to reach our destination in a more speedy and productive manner. However, that is the deception. We must remain in the vehicle the Lord has placed us in and the one in which He is “steering.”

YEAR OF THE TRANSMISSION

This is the year of the “transmission”. The Lord continued to utilize the automobile to illustrate spiritual directives for the upcoming season. Bob was shown the transmission of the truck as representing the Spirit of the Lord as our intermediary “transmitting” the power and resources of heaven to the earth, thereby mobilizing His people. The transmission is defined as an assembly of parts including the speed?changing gears and the propeller shaft by which the power is transmitted from an engine to a live axle. But now He has obtained a more excellent ministry, by as much as He is also the mediator of a better covenant, which has been enacted on better promises. (Heb 8:6)

The transmission functions as a mediator (to transmit as intermediate mechanism or agency) conveying power from the “main engine” or source of heavenly power to the axle mobilizing the church to move forward to its destination. There will be a shifting of gears by the Spirit as a continued and multiplied outpouring of His anointing is released to us. This will be especially applicable to those who have allowed the refining preparatory work of the Spirit as we escalate the pace towards the destinations of the Father.

This will clearly mark an increased measure of spiritual activity for both the kingdom of light and the kingdom of darkness. There will be increased angelic activity for the righteous and heightened demonic activity for those who have rejected the Holy Spirit and have set themselves in opposition to the Lord and His church.

The transmission provides the source of power that propels the vehicle forward. As greater ratios come to the transmission from the engine, likewise the vehicle will be capable of moving at a greater pace. The tempo of the Spirit will increase as this transmission of power is delegated to us from the resources of heaven. We will see a marked increase in the power of God released to the church.

We will also be receiving elevated measures of “Transmissions” from heaven as the revelatory gifts increase, thereby facilitating us in our preparatory process. The Lord is not only going to expand the unveiling of His purposes, He is also going to develop the listening ears of His people to receive His “transmissions” as disciples being instructed by a master tutor. The Lord GOD has given me the tongue of disciples, that I may know how to sustain the weary one with a word. He awakens me morning by morning, He awakens My ear to listen as a disciple. The Lord GOD has opened My ear; and I was not disobedient, nor did I turn back. (Isa 50:4-5)

Likewise, there will be a transformation of our “mission” on the earth as greater clarity and focus is released to us as the Lord’s emissaries in this world. With this shift of gears in the “transmission”, we will begin to see the government of God take on greater clarity as we move towards the appropriation of His government in the earth. That will transform us from a defensive posture to an offensive one...instead of simply trying to hold our ground we will begin to take ground. It will also distinguish the revelation of the Lord as the “Good Shepherd.” The “transmission” taking place will reveal the “Good Shepherd” as the operator of the vehicle in which we are traveling. He restores my soul; He guides me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

This portion of the revelations also highlighted the season surrounding the upcoming feast of Pentecost as a pivotal time of transition for the church. Again, we are admonished to allow the term between the Feast of Tabernacles and the season of Pentecost as preparation for those days that follow the “shifting of gears” that will transpire around Pentecost.

Thou dost prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; The Lord is going to allow us, through His provision of great grace, to rule in the midst of our enemies. The “transmissions” from heaven will begin to reveal our weaknesses and shortcomings so they can become our strengths through the work of the Good Shepherd in our lives. Who can discern his errors? Acquit me of hidden faults. Also keep back Thy servant from presumptuous sins let them not rule over me; then I shall be blameless, and I shall be acquitted of great transgression. (Psalm 19:12-13)

This scripture will begin to reveal our hidden or unknown sins so the appropriate work of the Spirit can be done in us. As these areas are exposed to us we should immediately repent of them and ask the Lord to extract them from us so they can not be exploited by the enemy during this season of great temptation.

As in the days of Esther, the enemy has set out for our destruction, however, the Lord has brought us into the kingdom for such a time as this to be equipped and prepared by the Spirit to prevail over the plans of the Liar and capture the adversary in his own designs. Left to ourselves we would be helpless and defeated, nevertheless, equipped by the Spirit we are a great overcoming army of many banners.

Graciously, the Holy Spirit is going to reveal the areas of weakness in us first before the enemy has opportunity to exploit those deficiencies. Although this is going to be a year of great temptation and deception, opportunity is being given for us to prepare for it beforehand by allowing the Holy Spirit to condition us for it. If we will be sensitive to the Voice of the Spirit and immediately repent of those areas of sin and weakness, then a grace will be released to extract those areas from our nature so the enemy will have no prospect to victimize.

REMOVING THE WEDGE

In the next portion of the visions, Bob found himself holding an implement similar to a garden hoe. With this tool he was instructed to cast it into the sands of time and withdraw that which he detected below the surface. After following this command, he discovered a wedge had been extracted from the sand. A wedge is defined as something causing a breach or separation. He was instructed this instrument represented the division that has penetrated many within the Body of Christ. The wedge is the efficient agent the enemy has used to bring separation and alienation between brethren, loved ones and the church family, prohibiting much of the blessings rightfully belonging to the church. Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity! It is like the precious oil upon the head, coming down upon the beard, {even} Aaron's beard, coming down upon the edge of his robes. It is like the dew of Hermon, coming down upon the mountains of Zion; for there the LORD commanded the blessing-- life forever. (Ps 133:1-3)

When Bob inquired as to the specific nature of this wedge, the Lord acknowledged it was primarily emerging from unresolved anger. That is not to limit the issues causing division to this one spiritual atrocity. There are many issues splintering the church, families and friends, however, many can find their roots in this agent of the Accuser.

This is the allotted season when unresolved anger will be uncovered as one of the great entanglements fragmenting the Body of Christ and keeping us from the unity and fraternal affection that should characterize the church. Unresolved anger is being identified as a predominant stronghold of the enemy residing within the church keeping us from the harmony described in Psalm 133 producing the anointing oil and the blessings of God. This has especially been true in the great racial divide that exists, even within the church. This wedge has been driven by the enemy to separate brethren. It is the old warrior adage to divide and conquer.

The spirit of divinely granted repentance as portrayed in II Timothy 2:25-26 will produce the provision from heaven that will extract this wedge allowing us to escape this snare of the enemy, having been held captive by him to do his will. When thus accomplished, unity is the sure result and brotherly affection that will produce powerful expressions of the anointing of God.

Unresolved anger leads to depression and a spirit of confusion. We dwell in confusion continually when this evil opposition prevails. When unresolved anger, whether known or unknown, resides in our heart it causes us to hear communications through a demonic filter distorting comprehension and perception. It makes our hearing of the discourse and admonitions from others become perverted and misconstrued, precipitating the hearing of one thing while they are expressing another. This amplifies the division and separation of brothers as wrong perceptions only fuel the unresolved anger and divisions. It is imperative we develop the spiritual insight allowing us to see Christ in each other and the important contributions each makes to the whole. Without one another functioning in the Body in our appointed place, the Body would be fragmented and incomplete.

Over time unresolved anger can actually mature into a root of bitterness which will completely defile. All manner of evil works result from a root of bitterness resulting in the depletion and destruction of our fruit. During the upcoming season, there will be an impartation of grace allowing us to identify the areas of unresolved anger thus producing divinely granted repentance freeing us from the distortions and divisions created by this stronghold. It is important to denote, these identifications of enemy fortresses require a response on our part, calling upon the grace of God to extract these issues from us...thus allowing the work of the Spirit to be complete. The end result is true fraternal affection towards our brethren of every race, color and creed producing the oneness and wholeness greatly pleasing to the Lord. This opens the corridor allowing the release of His anointing from the resources of heaven.

If these strongholds are allowed to persist, it not only distorts our perception and communication with our brethren, it also distorts our view of the Lord, composing an inaccurate image of Christ. We must see Him with an unveiled face in order to “behold and become.” Unresolved anger, depression, and bitterness are deep-seated veils clouding our view of the Lord and restricting our ability to be transformed into His image. These are areas of identification the Lord is desiring to address in His people during the coming year and days to follow.

When these malicious fortifications are present they will also tend to cause people to selfishly insist upon their own way. However, the scriptures admonish us to, “Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return to the LORD, and He will have compassion on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.” “For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways,” declares the LORD. (Isa 55:7-8).

INVITATIONS OFFERED TO CITIES

The Lord is looking for cities upon which He can place the seal of His name. These will not only be cities of refuge but also cities of exportation, as ever increasing measures of His glory will begin to be experienced in the church. The cities which embrace this invitation and join together in unity will impart Divine Light to other areas of darkness throughout this nation and the nations of the earth. There will be certain cities across the nation that will be receiving invitations from the Lord to become cities upon which He desires to place His name and all of the divine attributes expressed through His name. One of the key elements in this invitation is to allow the Lord to do it His way and not by the methods of man. It is extremely difficult for the Lord to have His way entirely within cities and churches without the control of man inhibiting the flow of His Spirit and anointing necessary to accomplish divine purposes. Where His name is there His presence will be also.

The cities that will be receiving these invitations must be willing to enter into unity among the leadership without schisms and division and self-serving agendas nullifying the grace of God.

With this invitation a question is also being posed, “will the leaders of these cities be willing to lay down their own agendas in order to take up His divine invitation and opportunity?” Tokens of this opportunity can already be observed, particularly in other nations where the people humbled themselves and prayed, seeking God’s face and finding Him.

RETURNING TO INNOCENCE AND SEPARATION

I hate the assembly of evildoers, and I will not sit with the wicked.I shall wash my hands in innocence, and I will go about Thine altar, O LORD, That I may proclaim with the voice of thanksgiving, and declare all Thy wonders.(Ps 26:5-7)

This is the season in which we are being beckoned again to wash in His redemptive process, returning to the place of innocence before Him.In so doing, we will enter an arena of continual gladness in the presence of the Lord.The release of power in the coming year is to produce righteousness in us and all of its many benefits.The righteous shall inherit the earth.The color for this year is white as a great emphasis is being placed upon the development of righteousness in God’s people.

*I advise you to buy from Me gold refined by fire, that you may become rich, and white garments, that you may clothe yourself, and that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and eye salve to anoint your eyes, that you may see.(Rev 3:18)*The great directive for this season is to be clothed in righteous-spotless garments that the shame of our nakedness would not be revealed.Great grace is being released for that purpose if we will embrace it and flow with His Spirit.

*The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want.(Ps 23:1)*We will receive greater revelations of the Lord as our shepherd in the coming season.Not only will we receive greater revelations of the Lord as shepherd, we will also obtain greater understanding of ourselves as His sheep and all of its implications.The Lord’s sheep hear His Voice and another they simply will not follow. As the impartation of revelation of the Lord as Shepherd is released to us, we will obtain greater measures of enlightenment of the Lord’s Voice and distinguish it more clearly than ever before.In so doing, we will then be able to distinguish the enemies voice and reject the appealing qualities of his arsenal.

We must come to understand that we are the seeds of God and the sheep of His pasture.With this revelation we will see many of the troubled waters being calmed by the Lord with merely a word.This revelation will be an authority over the opposing winds agitating the seas attempting to prohibit us from “navigating to the other side”.His voice will silence these demonic forces as He did on the Sea of Galilee.Understanding will be the key that unlocks these resources and authority of heaven.Revelation with understanding will be imparted to the shepherds commissioned by the Spirit and placed in the church to delegate to her the attributes of the Good Shepherd.

This will also be a year of great separation.The insight with understanding being communicated to the church will bring a clear distinction in the attributes of the “sheep” and the characteristics of the “goat” nature."*And all the nations will be gathered before Him; and He will separate them from one another, as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats; and He will put the sheep on His right, and the goats on the left."*Then the King will say to those on His right, 'Come, you who are blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.(Matt 25:32-34)

This will produce a clear differentiation between the two.It is the desire of the Holy Spirit to extinguish the goat nature within the church.It is His earnest desire that all embrace this important work of atonement.However, those who are unwilling to allow this sanctifying work will be sanctioned to wander at their own discretion.Conversely, those allowing the attributes of the sheep to be amplified will follow the Shepherd more fully.

The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, they have *committed abominable deeds; there is no one who does good.(Ps 14:1)*To harbor unbelief breeds corruption.As the voice of the Lord is heard more clearly by the sheep, great impartations of faith will override the spirit of unbelief.This alienation and extraction of unbelief will sift the seeds of corruption from our innermost being, distinguishing us from a life of impurity.The sheep who come to know their shepherd intimately will recline in green pastures and rest beside still waters.This will produce the promised peace in the midst of storms.

That I may proclaim with the voice of thanksgiving, and declare all Thy wonders.(Ps 26:7)

Expressing proclamations in agreement with His Spirit will produce spiritual Life allowing those things to come to fruition.The expressions of our lips, when spoken in agreement with Him, will become reality. We will begin to see the fruit of our lips coming into fulfillment.As we tell of His wonders, we will begin to BEHOLD His wonders.This will be the spark that ignites the fire among the youth spoken of earlier.A great hunger and thirst for the supernatural power of God is being imparted to that generation.As they behold the true manifestations of His Spirit in the earth, a holy fire will be ignited bringing that generation to the point of impartation.

TRUTH SPRINGING FORTH FROM THE EARTH

Surely His salvation is near to those who fear Him, that glory may dwell in our land. Lovingkindness and truth have met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other. Truth springs from the earth; and righteousness looks down from heaven.(Ps 85:9-11)

The “spotlight” of the Holy Spirit will be on the kingdom truths expressed in this passage. The salvation here promised is not restricted to the future life in our Heavenly home, rather it signifies deliverance of all kinds... rescue from trouble, distress, and calamity in this generation. All who truly reverence Him and possess the Fear of God rather than the fear of man, may expect His impressive support and aid. This depicts the confident assurance of God’s people that He will intervene in the troubles of His people and will deliver them.

It is the heart’s cry of all God’s people to see the Glory abiding in the land.For Thy lovingkindness is before my eyes, and I have walked in Thy truth.(Ps 26:3) The benefits of the Kingdom (His glory, lovingkindness, mercy, righteousness and peace) are produced by the Spirit of Truth.If we are going to be fruitful, we must be faithful to the Spirit of Truth.The Spirit of Truth will expose the spirit of deception.When this is accomplished, great conflict results between the two camps.Again, we are confronted with making choices.If we embrace the correct commission, we will be catapulted to greater measures of lovingkindness and righteousness and experience heightened expressions of His glory.This again denotes the continual testing with which we will be challenged.

*Consider it all joy, my brethren, when you encounter various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance.And let endurance have {its} perfect result, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.(James 1:2-4)*The testing produces choices which we must make in righteousness as we choose this day whom we shall serve.We must especially pray for a guard to be placed before our tongues so that our words are spoken in agreement with Him.Our prayers should continually ask for a covering to be placed around our hearts so we will not embrace deceptions but only the Spirit of Truth.All of our words should be galvanized with charity. Even if words of correction are necessary, when galvanized with charity they can be embraced because love never fails. As a result, we are no longer to be children, tossed here and there by waves, and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, by craftiness in deceitful scheming; but speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in all aspects into Him, who is the head, even Christ (Eph 4:14-15)

If we do not cultivate a love for the Truth, especially in the season ahead, we will be turned over to a spirit of delusion. The one whose coming is in accord with the activity of Satan, with all power and signs and false wonders, and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. And for this reason God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they might believe what is false... (II Th 2:9-11) Unfortunately, many erroneous doctrines continue to be embraced in the church providing veils that separate us from the One we seek. A powerful release of the Spirit of Truth is coming to guide us into ALL TRUTH, dispelling the lies that have been taught as truth.

Although the Lord has given you bread of privation and water of oppression, He, your Teacher will no longer hide Himself, but your eyes will behold your Teacher. And your ears will hear a word behind you, "This is the way, walk in it," whenever you turn to the right or to the left. And you will defile your graven images, overlaid with silver, and your molten images plated with gold. You will scatter them as an impure thing (menstruous cloth); and say to them, "Be gone!" (Isa 30:20-22) Teachers will emerge who have encountered the Teacher and heard expressions from His lips that will provide clear and concise direction, preventing us from stepping waywardly to the right or left. The path we have been called to travel is straight and narrow. We can only remain on this path by being ushered by the Spirit of Truth and embracing every Word that proceeds from the mouth of God. The scriptures are not a matter of private interpretation, but men moved by the Holy Spirit will speak from the anointing of God revealing the mysteries of the Kingdom that will present the Bride without spot or wrinkle.

Idolatry and precepts of man will be put away and dispensed as “menstruous cloth,” an impure thing. The prophet Isaiah utilized this wording to portray to the nation of Israel the hideous nature of false teachings and idolatry esteemed by God’s people. According to the Law of Moses, cloth used for this purpose had no redeemable value and was good only to be burned. Much “gold and silver” has been generated from teachings that have measures of truth but have been taken well beyond their scriptural foundation. This has caused great confusion and disillusionment among many and has brought a reproach upon the church from the very ones most needing the Good News of the Gospel. The Lord is announcing His intention to begin dealing with these issues. Truth shall spring forth from the Earth through the hearts of His people as the Spirit of Truth descends upon the church. "When the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, that is the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, He will bear witness of Me, and you will bear witness also, because you have been with Me from the beginning. (John 15:26-27)

The teachers that will be maturing will primarily be commissioned to DIRECT the people to the Truth... He is the Truth. Christ is both the Way and the Truth and the Holy Spirit is the Guide who shows the way to the Truth. The Lord is desiring to be the Teacher for all who believe. Anointed instructors will present to the people the seeds of biblical truth and point the way for each to cultivate their own relationship with the Lord. It is His great pleasure to enlighten His people in the ways of Kingdom Life.

GENERAL INSIGHTS

There will be a continuation of the patterns of natural disasters, earthquakes, storms, drought and rain as experienced in the past several years. However, our focus is not to be placed upon these areas of hardship except to delegate the authority of the Spirit through intercessory prayer to combat the adversities. A great responsibility is being placed upon the church to intercede, not only in the areas of natural disaster, but especially related to Israel and our willingness to stand in the gap for the natural seed of Abraham and the sovereign land of Israel. A book of remembrance will record those who are willing to take their stand in the Fear of God for Israel during the days of her hardship. Those who possess the fear of God greater than the fear of man will vigorously stand in the gap for Israel and find favor with God in the days of travail. We should not only pray for the peace of Jerusalem, but also the veil be removed so Israel and her Arab neighbors will recognize the Messiah and return to Him and discover the Prince of Peace. A great harvest awaits the Arab nations.

Although there will be continued fluctuations in the economy, the Lord did not reveal a collapse.

For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our lawgiver, the LORD is our king; He will save us—Your tackle hangs slack; it cannot hold the base of its mast firmly, nor spread out the sail. Then the prey of an abundant spoil will be divided; the lame will take the plunder. And no resident will say, "I am sick"; the people who dwell there will be forgiven their iniquity. (Isa 33:22-24) Satan is not going to be able to hold his ship together as the Lord begins the process of unveiling His government. The Government of God has been in the embryonic stage of development. In the coming days His Administration will begin to mature and take shape and exhibit some resemblance of what it is intended to be. The Cross of Christ is the answer for all of the problems of humanity, and we are the agents through which He has chosen to appropriate His great redemptive plan. This government will not be a ship charged by the plans and efforts of man to set sail...the wind of the Spirit will take this great "ship of state" called the government of God to its ordained destination.

This is the year the righteous will "pan for gold"...gold that never perishes.---The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever; the judgments of the LORD are true; they are righteous altogether. They are more desirable than gold, yes, than much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and the drippings of the honeycomb. (Ps 19:9-10)

I advise you to buy from Me gold refined by fire, that you may become rich, and white garments, that you may clothe yourself, and that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and eye salve to anoint your eyes, that you may see. (Rev 3:18)

PSALMS 100 & 101

Shout joyfully to the LORD, all the earth. Serve the LORD with gladness; come before Him with joyful singing. Know that the LORD himself is God; it is He who has made us, and not we ourselves; we are His people and the sheep of His pasture. Enter His gates with thanksgiving, and His courts with praise. Give thanks to Him; bless His name. For the LORD is good; His lovingkindness is everlasting, and His faithfulness to all generations.

(Psalm 100)

The insights provided by these Psalms will continue to generate revelatory blueprints into the heart and plan of God. This will be a year of increased anointing on praise. As true praise and worship ascends to the throne from the hearts of God's people, it will produce greater manifestations of His presence.

I will sing of lovingkindness and justice, to Thee, O LORD, I will sing praises. I will give heed to the blameless way. When wilt Thou come to me? I will walk within my house in the integrity of my heart. I will set no worthless thing before my eyes; I hate the work of those who fall away; it shall not fasten its grip on me. A perverse heart shall depart from me; I will know no evil. Whoever secretly slanders his neighbor, him I will destroy; no one who has a haughty look and an arrogant heart will I endure. My eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me; He who walks in a blameless way is the one who will minister to me. He who practices deceit shall not dwell within my house; He who speaks falsehood shall not maintain his position before me. Every morning I will destroy all the wicked of the land, so as to cut off from the city of the LORD all those who do iniquity.

(Psalm 101)

The theme and prophetic highlights for the entire revelation given for this year's Shepherd's Rod can be found in the verses of this incredible Psalm. We hope each reader will fervently pray for the reality of these Kingdom truths to be manifested in our lives, families, churches and cities.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

Silk Road Reports

Aimee Hennen
Central Asia's Great Awakening

Tobin Perry

Silk Road Reports
Aimee Hennen

Silk Road 2000, July 20th

Dear Intercessors,

We want to thank you for your prayers as this conference continues, and to encourage you with some "praise reports":

1. Funds were received to sponsor 50 Central Asian church leaders to come to the conference.
2. Media, intercession and youth program team members arrived safely from Uzbekistan.
3. We received $1200 in donations for medical seminars and were able to find 2 Korean-Russian interpreters with expertise in these areas for these seminars.
4. The Silk Road office staff was able to take a spiritual discovery journey around the city of Almaty with the help of a local pastor, who pointed out the places of specific prayer needs.
5. Charter planes from Korea have been arriving with participants and so far visa and accommodations have gone smoothly.
6. Grace Church of Almaty is housing and feeding over 1,000 foreign guests.
7. The government finally gave full confirmation of approval to hold all events, and all seminar outlines were approved.
8. We have 330 volunteer ushers from the churches of Almaty.
9. We have an on-site intercessory team of 30.
10. We have local volunteers who are working together from many churches to provide the praise and worship: a 400-voice choir, 50 musicians, and 200 dancers. The dances will include Jewish dances. All churches have been practicing in their Sunday services 2 songs which all will sing together: a song in Kazak that says "Rejoice, rejoice, rejoice Kazakstan, Emmanuel is with us..." and another one that says "Lord, we are together, we are one Body, we are one Body of Christ..."
11. 600 FM radios for translation into the Kazak language have been received.
12. T-shirts for the street cleaning on the 19th were distributed to church members in Almaty, and the streets were cleaned and prayed for on Wednesday afternoon. The T-shirts read, "Love your neighbor, Love your country."
13. A group of Korean intercessors has completed their month-long prayer tour of cities and places along the Silk Road.

14. All necessary interpreters have been secured and trained (Korean-Russian, English-Russian).
15. Participants are arriving safely from the US, Canada, Korea, and other Central Asian countries, and no visa problems have been reported.
16. At the opening seminar this morning, the Sports Arena that seats 6,000 was completely filled with standing room only. We are expecting a larger crowd on Friday and Saturday night at the Central Stadium. Roger Forster preached on "One new man in Christ" and Luis Bush preached on "Requirements for Transforming Your City".

Prayer Needs:

1. Please continue to pray for the anointing and for a strong sense of the presence of God in all of these meetings. Pray for people to be deeply touched and for bonds of the love of God to join believers together.
2. Please pray for all visas, accommodations, and food arrangements to go smoothly.
3. Please pray and bind all distractions and all miscommunication. Pray for clear communication, bind a spirit of confusion, and pray that no extremists will interrupt any of the proceedings.
4. Please pray for the safety of all involved.
5. Pray that the desired unity among believers will come about, thus opening the way for more prayer and revival.
6. Word has gotten around that satanists are cursing this conference from all the high places around the city, and that a certain religious group is praying against it also. Please bind all curses and break all witchcraft prayer. Jesus is LORD!!!!
7. Please remember to pray for the key ministry times we mentioned in our last update:
  - 1) the foot washing at 11:00 - 1:00 Friday;
  - 2) repentance from 7:00 to 9:00 Friday evening; and
  - 3) the blessings from 7:00 to 9:30 pm on Saturday (all local time).
8. A virus has hit a few key people who are organizers of the conference, causing diarrhea and weakness. Please pray for complete and swift healing, and for a shield around the health of all leaders and participants.

SILK ROAD 2000, JULY 21ST

Dear Intercessors,

Thank you for your prayer coverage of Silk Road 2000. The believers here are much encouraged to know that on every continent there are people focusing their prayers on Almaty, the Silk Road and, in particular, this conference.

It is a little foretaste of heaven! "After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation and all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes...." (Revelation 7:9) Indeed, the gathering at the seminars on Friday morning were a glimpse of that great day in heaven when we will all gather before God's throne. Many ethnic groups and nationalities were present.

The 6,000-seat sports arena where the seminars are being held in the mornings was packed to capacity again on Friday. At the time of the foot-washing, several pastors representing various denominations and confessions went up to the platform. They each introduced themselves. We had evangelicals, charismatics, Pentecostals, missionaries and national pastors, but the crowning moment was when one young Russian Orthodox priest introduced himself as the leader of the Orthodox movement called "Vostok" (meaning "East") and the crowd roared in applause and cheers. He was paired with Pastor Vladimir Lyashevsky, the president of the Association of Religious Unions of Kazakhstan. Mr. Lyashevsky is a charismatic/Pentecostal from a Ukrainian background, whose family were believers even during the time of the Soviet Union. They prayed over each other and washed each other's feet. Then Mr. Lyashevsky took the microphone and asked forgiveness on behalf of all Protestants for judging and rejecting the Orthodox believers, and the priest (I am not mentioning his name) took the microphone and declared that they want to be in unity with all the Body of Christ, because "that is what the world needs to see". What a breakthrough!

A section of the "Transformations" video was shown to the crowd of 6,000 in the morning. It was the part about Almalonga, Guatemala, where the Gospel transformed the town, the people, and the soil. The impact was tremendous. The lifestyle in Almalonga is similar to the status of people in Central Asia, many of whom are poor and farm for a living or work menial jobs. It was a revelation to most that there could actually be an end to alcoholism, that jails could be closed for lack of criminals, and that families could be restored.

In the evening, we were hoping for a crowd of 10,000 believers, but the Lord had other plans. The stadium which seats 35,000 was more than half full, and 3,000 people were left standing outside unable to gain entrance. The 400-voice choir, 200 dancers in ethnic costumes, and 50 musicians were all in top form. The beautiful snow-capped Tien Shen mountains formed the backdrop and about 8:00 pm the sun broke through the clouds which had kept the day cool and pleasant. Perfect weather for a perfect evening (thank you for praying!). After a message by Luis Bush on repentance and spiritual breakthrough, eight designated pastors led the crowd of about 20,000 in repentance for the national sins of Kazakhstan and of the churches. They repented of abortion, murder, violence, corruption, indifference and apathy toward the poor and needy, alcoholism, drug addiction, prostitution, pride, disunity, self-exaltation, divorce and domestic violence, ecological destruction of God's creation, and so on. I don't think there is a sin they didn't cover. The crowd prayed in agreement. Then after giving thanks to God for hearing our prayers, and healing our land and our society, we all closed with praises to the Lord. God is enthroned in the praises of His people.

The Almaty policemen (around 300 were on hand for crowd control, but there was nothing to control because everyone was under the control of the Holy Spirit!) were awed by the attitude of the people - all happy, rejoicing, hugging, and not a drop of alcohol around. People were saying "thank you" to them, and they were a little shocked.

All in all, the whole day was a resounding success. The seminars on medical, economic, and social issues are continuing as well. A medical mission to some nearby villages is in the works. Leaders are meeting to form a consensus on reaching the unreached and blessing Kazakhstan and Central Asia.

Participants from Korea, USA, Canada, Europe and other areas are here along with believers from all over Central Asia. Every country in Central Asia is represented. We are believing God for the expansion of His gracious kingdom in the hearts of His people and in the places where they live.

Prayer needs:

1. Please continue to pray for good weather, since today looks like it might possibly rain. We need especially the evening stadium meeting to have no rain.
2. Please continue to pray for the health of all the leaders, organizers, speakers, and interpreters. Those who were ill reported feeling better, but some people are still struggling with stomach pain, diarrhea, and others have not had sleep in several days.
3. Please pray for the blessing of Kazakhstan and Central Asia tonight. Pray that the faith declarations will be clear and significant, and that new spiritual breakthroughs will be gained.
4. Pray for continued momentum when the conference is over, and for new working partnerships in the Body of Christ, so that we may work together to do God's will in this region.

5. Pray for the development of the Kazakhstan Prayer Center, which is underway. People have been praying 24 hours a day and fasting for several weeks in preparation for this event, so let's pray that this fervent prayer will continue on behalf of Central Asia.

Thank you for praying!
Michael and Aimee Hennen
(on behalf of ) Silk Road 2000

Central Asia's Great Awakening Tobin Perry

A decade-old ethnic church blooms despite government suspicion. Christianity is seeing a rebirth among the 10 million ethnic Kazakhs in Kazakhstan, just a decade after the collapse of the U.S.S.R.'s 70-year-old Communist system. The number of ethnic Kazakh Christians has grown from fewer than 10 to more than 6,000 since the fall of communism in 1991, according to Christian workers at a recent gathering in Kazakhstan.

The mostly Muslim Kazakhs live within the Central Asian country of Kazakhstan, a former Soviet republic that lies between Russia and China. Although Christianity has been in the region for centuries, it has not taken hold among ethnic Kazakhs since the days of the fifth-century Nestorian Church. But now Christianity is on the rise.

Followers of the Messiah

For centuries, most Kazakhs associated Christianity with Russians. When Kazakhstan became independent in 1991, Russians were the ethnic majority within the state. In 1992, 960,000 Russian Lutherans of largely German origin lived in Kazakhstan, according to Lutheran World Information. But by 1997, 600,000 of these Lutherans had emigrated to Germany, Russia, Siberia, and the Ukraine. Christian influence dropped dramatically, and only one Orthodox cathedral remained in the Kazakh capital of Almaty. Then missionaries began using terms identified with Kazakh culture when sharing their faith with Kazakhs. A typical Kazakh evangelical will use the phrase "follower of the Messiah" instead of Christian, which Kazakhs still link with imperial Russia and the Soviet Union.

Zhana Khamzina, a Kazakh student in Almaty, rarely refers to herself as a Christian although she has been a follower of Jesus for almost two years. Khamzina is a leader of the True Way Church, a student-led fellowship in Almaty. She found Christ at an English-language camp put on by American evangelicals. Khamzina saw in them a relationship with God that she never knew, yet she still found it hard to overcome the idea that Christianity "was just for Americans and Russians," she says. Muksat Sagiev, a church planter working in the rural regions surrounding Almaty, says one of his greatest challenges is getting Kazakhs to put aside folk Islam, a brand of Islam mixed with animism. "They keep saying they are Muslim because they know about it, but they don't know what [pure Islam] is," Sagiev says. He became a Christian just four years ago, but he has baptized 29 new Christians in the past two years. Through his church, or the churches that have sprung from it, 57 new converts have come to faith in two years.

Signs of Intolerance

The new church growth has met some opposition from Kazakh society. Many fear that recent government actions signal an increasing level of intolerance that could stunt Christianity in Kazakhstan. President Nursultan Nazarbayev has led the nation for 10 years. He is steering Kazakhstan toward a more authoritarian state by attacking the free press and banning his main political opponent.

Churches recently were threatened by a law that would have disbanded all religious groups that had not existed for 10 years or more. This would have outlawed the majority of Christian churches and organizations in the country. "There is still a significant section of the population, both in and outside of the government, that would prefer that evangelical activities be stopped or at least curtailed," says Eddie Smith, who works for a Christian humanitarian organization based in Almaty. "This is a continued concern."

The discovery of a vast new oilfield in May could also have a strong effect on the country's religious tolerance, depending on which oil consortium Kazakhstan chooses to help export its greatest economic resource. The Washington Post reports that the United States is pressuring Kazakhstan to ship to Azerbaijan, thus avoiding an oil alliance with southern, Muslim-dominated oil exporting countries like Iran.

The Gospel Goes Rural Christianity in Kazakhstan is still predominantly an urban phenomenon, leaving many rural areas with little access to the gospel. Hoping to remedy this, Southern Baptists are recruiting 20 individuals to plant churches in some of the country's remote villages. The United Methodist Board of Global Ministries voted earlier this year to fund a new medical missions center for Kazakhstan's rural poor.

Youth are the fastest-growing segment of Kazakh evangelicals. The generation that came of age just when the Soviet Union crumbled has formed the backbone of many Kazakh churches.

"This age group seems to be those whom God is using right now," says Matt Anderson, an English teacher who helps one of the student-run churches in Almaty. "It's great to see the young people come to Christ and bring their family members too."

"God has a special plan to be fruitful here," Sagiev says. "I believe many Kazakhs will accept Jesus as their God and Savior, and there will be many churches formed. There is a great awakening in Kazakhstan."

Tobin Perry in Almaty

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Something Special In Indonesia

Suzette Hattingh

Friday Fax 2000 issue 13, 31 March 2000

Indonesia: throat slit - raised from the dead

"As far as I could see, there were only ashes and the ruins of a burned-out Christian hospital and training center in Jakarta," reports Voice in the City's evangelist Suzette Hattingh. "Over one thousand students waited in the one building which survived the recent attacks. Among them was a young man with a scar running literally from one side of his throat to the other. He had been the victim of an attack by a Muslim group, who viciously slit his throat and left him to die, as they had done with many others. The police found his corpse and loaded it on to a truck. He told us how he had seen his own body lying on the ground, and that an angel came to tell him to return, because his time had not yet come. With that, his spirit returned to his body. If I had not seen the photos with my own eyes, I would not have believed it, but it is true. I am a trained nurse, and I know that nobody who had lost so much blood through such a serious wound could survive. This young man did not survive: he died and returned to life. Today, he is alive and well," says Hattingh.

Evangelistic event broadcast on State radio

"God is doing something special in Indonesia," she continues. "An evangelistic event in Pontianak, West Kalimantan, was attended by 3,000 people, including VIPs, who sat on the floor with everybody else. That's not all: Republic Radio Indonesia (RRI) decided to broadcast the last two evenings throughout the whole of southern Indonesia. That is astonishing, because Indonesia is still the world's largest Islamic nation. I preached as though it would be the last sermon held on earth..."

Source: Suzette Hattingh,

Voice in the City,

Tel (+49)-6109 70295; Fax: (+49)-6109 702958;

web site www.grasse.de/voice\_in\_the\_city

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

A Season of Silence

Chad Taylor

"But behold, you will be mute and not able to speak until the day these things take place, because you have not believed my words which will be fulfilled in their own time." (Luke 1:20).

A season of silence has kept the church in a place of immobility. She has stood on the fringes of the world like a spectator waiting for Her chance to enter the game. Her chance to reap a harvest and take the prize. As Zechariah, Her lips have been sealed for an appointed time that they would speak of a greater glory and a new revelation. "Until the days these things take place..." was the time line in Heaven, the starting gun to go off and set the Church into the Harvest fields white and ripe.

The promise was of a Child that kept the lips of Zechariah silent. A Child that would "Give knowledge of Salvation to His people..." He was not only speaking of John on the day of his prophecy, but of the "Dayspring"! The Messiah! Jesus Christ, born of the virgin Mary! "My words which will be fulfilled in their own time," had come upon them in the form of a Child, but not only a Child, but an era of the Church, a revival of religion, a reformation in the dry dank halls of philosophy and law. A signpost that would mark the vast landscape of eternity forever.

Zechariah prophesied of a season of Harvest and revival. A time that would, "give light to those who sat in darkness and the shadow of death and to guide our feet in the way of peace." (Luke 1:79). His season of silence had ended and a time of refreshing from the presence of the Lord had come. The lame would walk, the blind would see, the dead would live again in this great season of revival. The reaper would now overtake the sower, and the immense harvest of captive humanity would hear the words of the "Life, the Truth, and the Way..."

In this day and hour we find the church in a similar state of silence. Unprepared, and sometimes even unwilling to reach out into the dark waters of hopelessness and save a soul. A silence that has made her mute to a world so desperate for Her words. Zechariah's sin was unbelief, he could not comprehend such a thing that the angel declared. He could not sound out the depths of its possibilities. He was stunned into silence. Taken aback by the magnitude of what was promised.

Yet in the midst of his state of silence the promise still echoed in his mind and heart, "Until the days these things take place..." A time when the ground would shake and hardened humanity would cry out, "What must we do to be saved?" When the veil would be violently torn, making way for the billions yet to be born. A time when all men could "believe in their heart that God has raised Him from the dead, and be saved..." A season when the press would be so great that the roof would be torn from its place to get access to this great grace. When Heaven would be in a state of explosive expansion from the billions that stood at Her gates. Harvest was what Zechariah saw! A great harvest of souls! A great influx and spiritual awakening that would cause even the old saints to walk the streets again! Graves would be emptied and hearts filled with the glory of Almighty God.

The season of silence is coming to an end upon the face of the earth. The silence that has caused the church to be a spectator instead of a participant on this great stage of life. God will now open Her lips as He did Zechariah and they will declare a greater glory! A greater revelation than they once knew in their temple rituals and routine! They will emerge from its shadows with a countenance of a visitation! They will descend the mount of transfiguration with a revelation of Jesus Christ! The masses will hear and see the miracles done and the sound that they make, billions will come to the Knowledge of the Lord. The "appointed time" has come, the day of visitation is at hand, lift up your eyes! Your redemption draweth nigh!

"Immediately his mouth was opened, and his tongue loosed, and he spoke and praised God..." (Luke 1:64).

Prophetic evangelists will be birthed from this season, ones that have sat in a state of muteness and silence for years, will suddenly declare a glory and a power never heard before. They will hear and speak things that will cause the world to fear the Lord. "Then fear came upon all those who dwelt around them..." (Luke 1:64). Churches will not be able to contain what is about to occur. No revival in history can reach the standard of what God is about to do in our midst. No book or article can define its greatness. But the fruit will be undeniable, "BILLIONS PRESSING INTO THE KINGDOM OF GOD!" The heavens will suffer a violence never seen or to be seen again on this side of eternity. Get ready church! The roof is about to be broken up!

The season of silence has ended. The season of glory has begun...

PROPHETIC EVANGELISM 6 TAPE AUDIO SET

By Chad Taylor

We are offering a tape set that was produced recently of two conferences in the Seattle area, and a conference in San Jose. Both were charged with an atmosphere of revival and harvest. Teams were raised up during both of these conferences and marched into malls and city streets proclaiming the love of Jesus! Returning each night with testimonies of God's power to heal and save as they opened their mouth to share! I have a boldness to make these tapes available to the Body of Christ. Already they have been sent around the world. We are asking $25.00 for each tape set, this is slightly above the cost to produce so that we can have sets to send overseas and to churches or homes that cannot afford the $25.00. I believe that this set has the anointing to ignite revival fires wherever they are heard. So I boldly make them available to the Church at large! Let us then expect Him to do "above and beyond what we can think or ask!" Chad Taylor.

Email us for more info. And we will reply immediately.

Chad Taylor

Email: destiny@televar.com

Web: www.televar.com/~destiny Chad Taylor

Email: destiny@televar.com

Web: www.televar.com/~destiny

LAMENTATIONS 2:19

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Stay Close - Get Ready

Debby Good

Vision:

Jesus told me to stay close today. His voice has a drawing effect on me. I see a child playing in the yard and the parent cautions her to "stay close, don't go too far away" I need to stay within eyesight of the Lord today. Sometimes when a child is playing, they get so caught up in what they are doing, that they don't pay attention to where they are wandering. Then the "wolves" get a hold of them and they are sunk. "Pay attention, children, pay close attention. Get ready, Be prepared...because things are going to begin happening and you need to pay attention so you don't wander off. I'm coming soon - PLEASE listen and get ready, be prepared. I'm calling to you. I have been calling to you and you need to pay heed to what I'm saying to you. The time is now to be ready, to gather, to "fill the oil lamps". When I come, it will be swiftly. There will not be time to go get anything OR anyone or to finish anything. Spend your time wisely. Remember, time with Me is what you need. Time spent on anything else will not last. Choose wisely. Be 'heaven-minded'. Know that when you stand before Me I will want an account and I already know everything. I've told you what will hold up and what will be burned.

You know the things I require of you. I extend mercy and patience to you now in hopes that you will listen to my teaching. Remember, "those I love I chasten" But when you come to stand before Me, there will be no more excuses or lessons. The time to learn will already be past. Do that NOW. I long for you to live with Me - that was My original plan. You have all you need to be able to do that. Listen to Me like a child should listen to their parents, because I have all you need, I AM all you need. I love you and do not wish for you to spend eternity in hell. I did not create that for you. I created heaven for you and am creating you for heaven. Allow Me to mold you and to shape you and to change you and to teach you - to prepare you. You were created to live in heaven, in that I mean you were created perfect but the world has affected you. Allow me to affect you instead. Allow Me to touch you, to speak to you, to commune with you, to shelter you under the shadow of My wings. They will protect you today. They will keep you hidden from the enemy of your soul, they will keep you warm and dry and safe. They will hold you, they will dance with you, they will love you.

I AM all you need - learn and believe this. Keep this hidden in your heart for it will become part of your shield of faith. Keep this hidden in your mind for it will become part of your helmet of salvation.

Keep this hidden in your purposes and it will become part of the shoes you wear in being prepared with the gospel of peace. Keep this hidden in your heart for it will become part of your breastplate of righteousness.

Keep this in your most inner parts for it will become part of your belt of truth. Above all, get ready!"

In Pursuit of God,
Debby Good
Dayton, OH

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Stepping Stones in Transition

Bret Wade

These are great times of transition in the Body of Christ! There are major things happening that we have prayer for and prophesied over the years. These are exciting times, but they are also stressful times. The old wine skin is not able to take us where God is heading with the Church. We are making a paradigm shift to a new wine skin. It's a new model that is forming. We have waited on it with expectancy! How we respond in this "now" prophetic season will determine our effectiveness in the future.

This is a time where there is major rearranging happening. Those who were not considered capable for the task at hand are surfacing as qualified and being strategically placed by the Spirit of the Lord. They are the hidden company of believers that have been waiting in the wings. What has qualified them? Their faith, patience and the process of God have qualified them. Though others would disdain them for how they would do things, they are the cream of the crop. They are Joshuas with a heart to possess and divide an inheritance to the people of God.

If you are one who is in this hidden company, I am writing this to you as one modern day Joshua to another. While in the process of transition, there are some stepping stones to follow that I have found to be trustworthy. They will keep you from being hindered in forward progress. The enemy would like nothing better than to distract you to cause you to lose your direction during times of transition. If he can keep you from advancing, he can keep you from getting into position to displace him.

DRAW CLOSER TO GOD: We must all make a choice when arising into that which God has prepared for us. It involves either following the direction that God has placed in our heart or giving into the desires of others. Draw closer to the Lord. Be a worshipper of God. There will be a rock solid assurance in your heart when you do this. It will come down to "but one thing I do" Phillipians 3:13. You must have a determination to press forward before setting out to do so.

FOCUS: It is vital that you get yourself focused and keep yourself from all distractions that would pull at you. Remind yourself that leaders never lose their focus. Someone will be following even though you may not consider yourself a leader. Lead yourself well and others will follow in your steps.

If then you were raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God. Set your mind on things above, not on things on the earth. Colossians 3:1-2

In transition, things change rapidly. Be careful what you get involved with at this time. Don't make long-term obligations without absolutely knowing that it is God's direction for you at this time. If in doubt, back up and pray until you know. Romans 8:6 says "to be spiritually minded is life and peace". God's direction will bring peace.

Everything the enemy will send your way right now is intended to pull you off course. Choose your battles wisely. Move forward and maintain course in spite of conflicting opinion and who chooses to stay behind.

KEEP PEACE: Maintain and keep peace at all costs. Understand that often the enemy will use those around you. Do not burn bridges. You will just have to go back and rebuild. Your effectiveness in the future will be determined by how you respond now. It will either be with a forgiving attitude or bitterness.

Beware of anger and bitterness. It will set you back in your forward progress. Bitterness is an indicator of pride yet to be dealt with. Repent now. Bitterness will only fuel an unruly tongue. Watch that little member! Pass up opportunities to give a piece of your mind! Only say what is needed, do not try and justify your direction or come against another's. It takes a response of humility to agree quickly with your adversary at your expense.

Pursue peace with all people, and holiness, without which no one will see the Lord: looking carefully lest anyone fall short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up cause trouble, and by this many become defiled. Hebrews 12:14-15

Therefore if you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are on the way with him, lest your adversary deliver you to the judge, the judge hand you over to the officer, and you be thrown into prison. Matthew 5:23-25

Do not choose sides on issues. Try and resolve issues if possible but not at the cost of relationships. In times of transition, it is difficult to resolve issues because change is likely being resisted. If it is justice that is ought after, you must discern the condition and intent of your heart. What spirit are you operating out of? Can this wait? If you can wait, attitudes will often change.

You can differ, but do it in love. It is very easy to see hypocrisy in others. We must repent for the hypocrisy that we see rather than attacking our brothers and sisters in Christ. Stay in a repentant state before God.

Create in me a clean heart, O God; And renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from thy presence; And take not thy holy spirit from me. Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; And uphold me with a willing spirit. Psalm 51:10-12

GET YOUR HEALING: Before entering into that new thing that the Lord has for you, get healed and delivered of the past. Whatever it takes! Don't let past hindrances become present hesitations. Enter into the new with wholeness! There is something about being free that causes a refreshing for possessing the next thing ahead of you!

If you'll do these things, you'll come through much easier. Follow the Lord and possess!

Pursuing Christ, Bret A. Wade

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

A Stern Warning To America!

Rose Everett

Hearken unto the Voice of The LORD GOD ALMIGHTY!

Learn a lesson from the past. As I have dealt with the peoples of the world in times past, so do I deal with you today.

Your nation was founded upon MY Principles, and your laws bore MY Name. You were a nation called to be a safe haven for all to live in and to worship and serve ME openly and freely.

You, as a nation, have turned from ME to serve Satan in all his wicked ways.

I liken you to MY People Israel. They are a People called by MY Name, and were chosen to live for, worship and serve ME; They chose to go a whoring after other gods instead of being obedient to ME in all their ways.

I AM a jealous God, and will not share MY People with another!

Each time Israel turned her back on ME, I sent drought, famine, pestilence, captivity and slavery, so as to humble them and cause them to turn back to ME in repentance. Each time they repented and turned to ME, I answered their prayers and delivered them out of all their miseries.

Look to yourselves now, O People of America. Do you not see that I have sent storms, earthquakes, floods, drought and pestilence upon your land in ever increasing frequency because you have turned from ME in all your ways. You, as a nation, have far exceeded Sodom and Gomorrah in your wickedness!

I call to you to repent of your wickedness and idolatry. Turn to ME in humbleness and contrition of heart, that I may have mercy upon you, and deliver you from all your troubles.

I have dealt with you in mercy, as I have waited patiently for you to return to ME, to walk in obedience, but you have been as one deaf and dumb!

Now, hearken unto this call, for it shall be your last call from ME! If you do not heed MY warning, I will totally deliver you into the hands of the enemy! You will be a country of slaves to another; you will suffer famine and financial ruin; Your land will become utterly desolate, and if you still refuse to repent, You, as a nation, will be utterly destroyed off the face of the earth!

Hearken unto the Voice of THE LORD GOD ALMIGHTY!

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Storm Clouds

Bill Burns

February 14, 2000

Yesterday morning during worship (at church) the Lord began to speak to me about the wind blowing. When worship was over this prophetic word came forth:

February 13, 2000: As we were worshipping, I heard the words, "There's a wind blowing." It is an ill wind. There is an ill wind blowing, and if you sow to this ill wind, you shall reap the whirlwind and the results of the whirlwind. For there are many distractions blowing in with this wind. These distractions have come to seduce you and move you from your First Love. They have come to enamor you and captivate your imagination. This ill wind is bringing the work of the evil one. For, have I not said that this is a time of preparation? These are the days in which you should be walking with Me in the Spirit. You should be discerning My purposes. You should be seeking my face. You should be asking, seeking, knocking. Yet, the distractions that come with this wind right now are bringing old issues from the past to your remembrance. Again, I say, if you sow to these things, even sudden destruction itself shall come upon you, and you will miss what I am about to do.

After church the wind began to blow at our house, and as I watch the wind raging, the Spirit of the Lord said, "Euroclydon. This ill wind that is blowing is like unto the ill wind that ship-wrecked the Apostle Paul. This wind is blowing in storm clouds which will now come against My people. These storms are for the purposes of spoiling My plans for My people. This is Satan's wind which will blow for a season, and it will be allowed for the purposes of testing the resolve of My people. Study and learn."

Euroclydon is a fierce, tempestuous wind that blew especially in the spring. This is the wind that tried to destroy the Apostle Paul. The story is found in Acts chapter 27.

The Apostle is on his way to Rome under the guard of a Roman centurion. Sailing at this time of the year was very dangerous and in verse 10 Paul prophesied, "Men, I perceive that this voyage will end with disaster and much loss, not only of the cargo and ship, but also our lives."

In spite of the Apostle's warning, they set sail. When the great seduction came as revealed in verse 13, "When the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose," they set sail. Anyone listening? Watch out for the seductions and distractions that will seem to be all right. They may even seem to be God's open door. It may look like smooth sailing, but look what comes next. Verse 14 says, "But not long after, a tempestuous head wind arose call Euroclydon." Then, in verse 15, "The ship (vessel) was caught" and driven. They should have stayed in "Fair Havens" (verse 8), but they didn't. And the Spirit of the Lord says, "It shall also be so, for many of My people, because they are not anchored in a safe habitation. Many are about to be storm-tossed and even driven by their own obsessions, and many will think they have gained their purposes, but these are not of Me. This wind is one of seduction to get My people out from under My safety and into their own purposes. The hopes and plans of many will be dashed to pieces in this storm because of presumptuous sin."

This storm will rage, but we can survive the storm if we follow God's word. Verse 18 tells us that they "lightened the ship." I believe that this is speaking to us about the past...the extra baggage that many are being enticed to go back and pick up. Throw it overboard and lighten your load.

In verse 21 they fasted and in verse 22 they took heart (courage). In verses 23 and 24 Paul got a word from God that no life would be lost. In verse 25--believe God and in verse 29 they dropped anchors (on Christ the solid Rock), and they prayed. In verse 31 they did not prematurely abandon the ship. In verse 32 they cut off their alternatives, and in verses 33 and 34 they ate food and strengthened themselves (God's word). And, in verse 35 they thanked God in the midst of the storm. In verse 36 they encouraged themselves (in the Lord).

Now, the storm that Satan intended to use to destroy the Apostle Paul, the Lord used to bring a revival (read chapter 28).

The Spirit of the Lord says, "And so shall it be again that the storms will indeed come, but I will use them to strengthen My people and take them to My intended destination, and My purposes shall be fulfilled for each one that belongs to Me. Fear not when the wind blows, for I am about to take you into revival." Oh, praise the name of the Lord! Do you see it, people of the Lord? Without the storm, the revival in Malta would never have taken place. Oh, by the way, the Apostle Paul did make it to his destination in Rome, but what an adventure he had with God on that storm-tossed sea! And, what a glorious revival he had in Malta!

I don't think Paul would have missed it for the world...what about you?

Prophetic Utterance through Bill Burns:

February 13, 2000:

As we were worshipping, I heard the words, "There's a wind blowing." It is an ill wind. There is an ill wind blowing, and if you sow to this ill wind, you shall reap the whirlwind and the results of the whirlwind. For there are many distractions blowing in with this wind. These distractions have come to seduce you and move you from your First Love. They have come to enamor you and captivate your imagination. This ill wind is bringing the work of the evil one. For, have I not said that this is a time of preparation? These are the days in which you should be walking with Me in the Spirit. You should be discerning My purposes. You should be seeking my face. You should be asking, seeking, knocking. Yet, the distractions that come with this wind right now are bringing old issues from the past to your remembrance. Again, I say, if you sow to these things, even sudden destruction itself shall come upon you, and you will miss what I am about to do.

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

February 14, 2000:

How can you say that you belong to Me and still walk in the ways of the world? How can you say that you belong to Me and that you love Me when you have bitter accusation and hatred in your heart? The words of your mouth have been smoother than butter, but war was in your heart; your words were softer than oil, yet they were drawn swords. I am calling you to purify your hearts and motives and begin to seek Me in the beauty of holiness. Be done with hypocrisy. James 4:8-12, "Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded. Lament and mourn and weep! Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to gloom. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up. Do not speak evil of one another, brethren. He who speaks evil of a brother and judges his brother, speaks evil of the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge. There is one Lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy. Who are you to judge another?"

February 15, 2000:

These are days of great sighing. I hear your sighs of weariness and grief as you yearn for things to be different. You long for the fulfillment of broken dreams and unsatisfied hopes and desires. But, I say to you that you must leave the flesh pots of Egypt before you can inherit the Promised Land. There is a greater hope and a greater promise in Me. I call to you today to come out of the world and to put to death the deeds of the flesh and selfish desire so that you can live in the Spirit. Come out, My people, and do not touch what is unclean. For, if you sow to the flesh, you will reap corruption, but if you sow to the Spirit, you will reap everlasting life. I am calling you to invest yourself in those things which have eternal value, to invest in the kingdom of God and not the kingdoms of this world.

February 16, 2000:

I had a vision of a lighthouse atop a great rock. The wind blew, the storm raged, and great waves of the sea crashed against the rock with lightning flashing across a darkened sky. It was a magnificent yet frightening sight, and the Lord said, though the storms release their fury in violent wrath, I will hide you in the cleft of the Rock. Do not venture outside of My realm of safety. Be still and hide in silent wonder. For, soon the storms will pass, and I will bring you out again in peace. These storms will come in intense verbal assault for many, but have I not said, do not answer a fool according to his own folly? Stay humble, for this attack is not against you; it is against Me. Be still and know that I am God.

February 18, 2000:

I am the Lord that heals you. My healing virtue has not diminished. My desire is for your complete and perfect healing; the price has been paid. Come and touch the hem of My garment. Press through the crowd of fear, doubt and unbelief; access by faith what I have already provided. Didn't I heal ALL who came to Me in the days that I walked the earth? I have not changed; I am the same yesterday, today and forever. So, I say come. Come and touch Me with your faith, for surely I will not turn you away disappointed. Cast off the garment of infirmity and cause fear to flee, for when you touch Me, I touch you and bring restoration and wholeness to your being. Isaiah 53:5 "But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities; The chastisement for our peace was upon Him, And by His stripes we are healed."

February 19, 2000:

Oh, My children, how I desire to have intimate fellowship with you. But, when you have rejected one another and been given to offense, you not only separate yourselves from one another, but you separate yourselves from Me. Until you bring down the walls of offense that have brought division between you and others, you will likewise be alienated from Me. Haven't I said that you should love your neighbor as yourself, and if you bite and devour one another that you will be consumed by one another? Oh, My beloved, your only way out of this dilemma is to forgive. I call you today to forgive and release those who have offended you. Matthew 5:44-45, "But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you, that you may be sons of your Father in heaven."

FAITH TABERNACLE

111 North Fourth Street

P. O. Box 1148

Kremmling, CO 80459

<http://ft111.com>

ft111@ft111.com

Send us your full name and e-mail address to receive our prophetic bulletin.

Streets Of Joy

Debbie Cossu

debbcossu@juno.com

Zechariah 8:4,5: "This is what the Lord Almighty says: 'Once again men and women of ripe old age will sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each with cane in hand because of age. The city streets will be filled with boys and girls playing there.'"

Vision:

The streets were dirty and cobblestone. It was hot and dry. So many people were there. They were so close together the smells of the individuals just blended into one aroma. Everyone in this place had a cane. Everyone also had a place to sit, a designated seat with their names marking their place, but most were mingling through the crowd. Some of the canes looked like walking sticks, others like royal maces, actually each one was different and could serve more than one purpose.

But oh, the children, so many children, were just running around all over. Laughing and playing without a care in the world! They seemed unaware of the true activities, and serious business going on around them. The families were now grouping together where they belonged.

The sound and shouts from the joy and expectation of this gathering rejoicing all around began to quiet now as those who had not seen each other for many years were awe struck to see their loved ones still alive. Now through tear stained faces an embracing of tenderness and love swept over the crowd. True, some of the tears were due to sorrow of the past, but new ones of this day were washing them away as tears of joy and fulfillment and reconciliation flowed freely among all gathered. ---

I remember hearing so often that God does not care about numbers when a meeting has been called and only a few show up. That might offer some comfort to the people wondering where everyone is, but God is still searching them out. It seems His heart is drawn to the masses, the multitudes still in the valley of decision.

As He watched so many respond to the call and gather together, tears of joy streamed down His face as well...

Word to the Church:

Because of your age, because of the maturity you have been brought to, because of the time that has past and the history that has been recorded, I draw you together. Where there has been even wars, and the evidence of war still mounting, I will grant a peace to prevail in your hearts, and a time of rejoicing proclaimed in the streets.

Do not forget what you have been given as you gather together. Some have been anointed as apostles, and the authority and unction of My Spirit is lifting you up to the next level. Some as shepherds will turn in the staff they love so much, because there are other flocks that need the mercy and grace so strong within them.

Some of you hold a mighty sword, the sword of intercession that has even brought forth this day...do not give up what you hold. Hold tightly to that which has been entrusted to you, and go forth into the battle with renewed strength and vigor.

Some have a conductors baton in your hand for you lead the way of worship and entrance into My presence...DO NOT be enticed by the ways and means of the world, I am your provider.

Trust Me and continue to pour out to Me in the secret place. Then you will usher in My love in public, and many will find the way to My heart. A new sound is about to be released through you that will draw the attention of the world crying out to find truth in the church.

You scribes and teachers in the land, you need not draw from the events of the past to make your point, for even in this day I am about a work that will make the headlines of the papers and magazines all over the world. Open your eyes and record what you see, not just what you have heard.

Old and young alike I am banding you together to form one generation of love that will go across the land in the victory and in the truth of My love. This time of rejoicing and renewal and reconciliation, is not just unto Me , but among yourselves. Even as you tend to line up and gather in your distinct streams and family "lines", I will make evident how I am uniting and blending you together for My own pleasure, and your own good.

I will not allow you to be separated, or stagnant or distant from each other any longer.

The strongest wave of My Spirit now is unity.

The commanded blessing has been unleashed already.

Strongholds And Dominions

Bob Jones and Keith Davis

email: whitedov@netpathway.com

<http://www.bobjones.org/articles/strongholds&dominions.htm>

Main web site: www.bobjones.org

INTRODUCTION

The Holy Spirit, through visions, dreams and revelations, has continued to emphasize the important issue on His heart involving the strongholds and dominions preventing us from our high calling. When these spiritual fortresses are identified in such a manner, there is always a corresponding release of grace to address the issues of His heart when embraced through faith and obedience. A number of the visions have expressed in a variety of forms our need to be spiritually balanced and in harmony with the desires and purposes of the Father. The last words our Lord spoke before his sufferings began, as recorded in John 17:26 states, "and I have made Your name known to them, and will make it known, so that the love with which You loved Me may be in them, and I in them." This great High Priestly prayer will be answered in its fullness...TO LOVE THE LORD WITH THE LOVE OF THE FATHER. If we are to love the Lord with the love wherewith the Father loved Him, we must allow the Holy Spirit to achieve in us all that is required to live in such a blessed place.

We can love the Lord with the same love the Father had for Him only when the Holy Spirit takes up residence in us in His fullness. That empowering Presence then catapults us beyond the realm of human reasoning and emotions and thrusts us into the Spirit Life imparting the Divine attributes of the Father and His Redemptive Names revealed to us in Jesus. The scriptures make it plain...light and darkness cannot co-exist. We cannot continue to embrace worldly conformity and expect His Holy Spirit to rest in us with His abiding Presence. His Grace is being extended to enable us to be free from the strongholds and dominions of the enemy as we yield to this all important work of refinement.

LOVING THE LORD WITH ALL OUR HEART

"You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength. (Deut 6:5)

"FREEDOM FROM SINS OF OUR FATHERS IS AT HAND"

Many of the thrones and dominions that exist in us are the result of seeds imparted through the fallen nature as the result of sin originating in the Garden of Eden. Likewise, many individuals battle strongholds of the enemy transferred through generational bloodlines. That does not mean they should be allowed to remain with us. We do not have to continue to battle the same spiritual enemies that plagued our father and his father and his father before him. The generational curses can stop NOW...freedom from the sins of our fathers is at hand. Simply because our father or mother battled depression, or rejection, or lust does not mean we must live with these same adversaries. Through repentance, prayer and supplication, grace is being released to free us from the reproach of generational afflictions so the Lord's face can shine upon us, His desolate sanctuary.

"O Lord, in accordance with all Your righteous acts, let now Your anger and Your wrath turn away from Your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; for because of our sins and the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people have become a reproach to all those around us. So now, our God, listen to the prayer of your servant and to his supplications, and for your sake, O Lord, let your face shine on your desolate sanctuary. (Dan 9:16-17)

"THE TIME HAS COME FOR THE CHURCH TO BE FREE"

The time has now come for the church to be free from the dominion of the enemy and set on the course for liberty and freedom through the Holy Spirit. We must not allow these things to separate us from God any longer. Even though strongholds and dominions can separate us from the knowledge and awareness of His manifest Presence, they cannot separate us from His love. His love is abounding and lavished toward us. So great is His love that he will not allow us to continue on a path of destruction to our own demise. It is His Mercy and Grace to bring correction and release Grace to liberate us from strongholds and dominions of the enemy resident in us.

The term stronghold is taken from the word ochuroma meaning 1) a castle, a stronghold, a fortress, fastness or 2) anything on which one relies; used of the arguments and reasoning's by which a disputant endeavors to fortify his opinion and defend it against his opponent. Webster's dictionary conveys the meaning as a fortified place; a place dominated by a particular group or marked by a particular characteristic. From these meanings we can discern that a stronghold is a fortified place within our soul dominated by a particular characteristic contrary to the character and nature of God.

HE ALONE IS TO OCCUPY THE THINGS OF OUR SOUL

A dominion is likewise defined as the ability or strength with which one is endued, which he either possesses or exercises; the power of authority (influence) and of right (privilege); authority over mankind; a thing subject to authority or rule; a jurisdiction. Webster's records a dominion as a domain; supreme authority : sovereignty. Therefore a carnal dominion can be understood as a sphere of authority granted that allows the exercise of influence over one's thoughts and actions that are opposed to the mandates of scripture and the representations of a righteous life. The Lord and He alone is to occupy the thrones of our soul having complete dominion and authority over the purchase of His blood. Any other power usurping that place of authority rightfully belonging to Him, creates conflict within us and a veil over our soul separating us from the fullness of His Presence.

THE WAR IS RAGING

I see a different law in the members of my body, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin which is in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will set me free from the body of this death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! (Rom 7:23-25)

If we are to fulfill the biblical mandate to love the Lord our God with all of our heart, soul and strength, we must experience the reality of yielding our will to the will of the Father and apprehend the purification and refinement in each area of our life. The foundation for this principle resides in his abundant love for us and our love and appreciation toward Him for His great work of redemption. This war is presently raging in the souls of those being prepared to be used mightily of the Spirit.

THE BODY IS THE SCENE OF THIS SPIRITUAL CONFRONTATION

Who will set us free from the body characterized by this spiritual death? The body is the scene of this spiritual confrontation. Sin living in our members imparted with the fall of man in the Garden of Eden brings spiritual death to the body and separates us from that which we desire most...intimate fellowship with the Lord. Thus, man becomes aware that his strength is insufficient in himself to win this war. Paul cried out for the deliverance of his soul from the spiritual opposition working contrary to the true desire of his heart. The fallen nature of man is characterized by spiritual death---the doing of that which is in opposition to his desire to do that which is good. Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord, we can be free and experience victory in this battle as we surrender to the fortifying work of God. Those who do are called overcomers, inheriting the great promises reserved specifically for them. (Rev 2:7,11,17,26; Rev 3:5,12,21; Rev 21:7)

BE SLOW TO ANGER

This you know, my beloved brethren. But everyone must be quick to hear, slow to speak and slow to anger; for the anger of man does not achieve the righteousness of God. (James 1:19-20)

The Holy Spirit has clearly identified one of the great strongholds of the enemy in the American church is anger. Anger is generally the offspring of aggravation and irritation promoted through the Western lifestyle permeating this nation. The modern media fuels this stronghold by promoting a robust and stressful lifestyle creating frustration and pressure even within Christian homes, when allowed. These strongholds must be identified and dealt with through our biblical promises. To yield to these enemies is not simply experiencing unwanted emotions, rather, it admits demonic spirits assigned to create havoc and confusion at every opportunity. Unresolved anger, left unaddressed, will become bitterness and will pervert our thinking on every level. Bitterness will defile.

UNFORGIVENESS HAS A TRAVELING COMPANION NAMED "REJECTION"

The Holy Spirit has also made it clear that un-forgiveness along with anger is another predominant stronghold inhibiting many from entering into their heritage and greater intimacy with the Lord. Un-forgiveness has a traveling companion named rejection. Rejection will blind us to the love the Lord has for us and His plans for our welfare. Although many of us have been hurt, abused, and maltreated by parents, teachers, neighbors or others with whom we have had contact in the past, to harbor un-forgiveness only prevents our high calling and God's best for us. The Lord keeps good books. He knows all that has been done against us and all that we have done against Him. We must sow grace at every opportunity in order to reap a harvest of abounding grace. We have each been forgiven much and should therefore be willing to likewise forgive. In so doing we will discover our own freedom as we release to God any and all wrongs done against us, even praying for the Lord's blessings upon those who hurt us.

FORGETTING WHAT LIES BEHIND

Brethren, I do not regard myself as having laid hold of it yet; but one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, have this attitude; and if in anything you have a different attitude, God will reveal that also to you; (Phil 3:13-15)

To give undue attention to the past will only serve as a stumbling block to our desired goal of perfect fellowship with Him. The past contains both victories and defeats. The enemy will often try to divert our focus to either in an effort to withdraw our attention from the Lord and our divine destiny. David, the great Prophet and King, once said, One thing I have asked from the LORD, that I shall seek: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD and to meditate in His temple. (Ps 27:4)

This singleness of purpose is paramount in our pursuit to Know God and walk intimately with Him. We can only allow ourselves to focus forward and upward in this noble quest to become One with Him. Anything else would serve only as a distraction from the one thing for which we have been called and commissioned. Let us therefore, so live that we may sincerely say, that there is one great object which we always have in view...HIM. With all diligence avoid everything which would interfere with that one thing. The past is the past because it is the past. Let it thus remain.

CONCLUSION

If we are to fulfill the commission to pull down strongholds and dominions holding captive our churches and communities, we must first experience freedom from the strongholds and dominions residing in us as individuals. Then, the necessary release of heavenly authority will be entrusted to us to destroy corporate strongholds of the enemy in our surrounding community through the Love reigning in us. For now, a limited flow of power for ministry is being released. However, as love grows within us greater measures of power will be bestowed with ever increasing revelations of His Glory. The Lord is the Spirit and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty. The Lord is looking for liberators in whom He can display His glory and set the captive free. The Kingdom of Heaven is within, and upon the thrones of our innermost being He is to rule and reign allowing the Rivers of Living Water to flow freely, providing a refreshing to those who are perishing.

When the Lord Jesus entered the temple as recorded in Mark 11:15-17, He first drove out the moneychangers and robbers with their corruption that defiled the temple creating confusion and excess. Then, the scriptures record, the sick and afflicted were healed as they came to Him in His Temple. We are to be His Temple and when the Holy Spirit comes in, He will do the same thing and will make us a house of prayer. All we need do is give Him complete permission by the yielding of our will to the will of the Father. When we do He will drive out the corruption.

We will love the Lord our God with our entire soul when it has been fully purified by the washing by the water of the Word. The divine attributes expressed to us through the Word provide the key that unlocks the resources of heaven to mold us and change us into His image, when applied in faith. Having an absolute resolve in our hearts concerning this biblical heritage touches the heart of the Father, releasing grace and strength needed for the battle. We must have the determination to no longer allow these strongholds to separate and veil us from His Presence and the fellowship rightfully ours.

Therefore, strengthen the hands that are weak and the knees that are feeble, and make straight paths for your feet, so that the limb which is lame may not be put out of joint, but rather be healed. Pursue peace with all men, and the sanctification without which no one will see the Lord. (Heb 12:12-14)

1999 All Rights Reserved BobJones.org Permission is given to print the material for personal study or sharing with family and prayer groups so long as the articles remain unaltered. Any other use of the articles or materials would require written permission.

E-mail whitedov@netpathway.com

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Strategic Warfare

Julia Pickard

Often around December of each year the Lord will begin to show me things for the next year and I also did not receive the form of messages I usually receive. Rather, on December 1, 1999 the Spirit began to speak to me one word "Midway". As I pressed in The Lord began to reveal to me revelation for the past and the coming season in a revelation concerning the Pacific Theatre of Operations during WW2 (Asia Pacific region).

I believe the Lord has opened revelation concerning the Pacific Theatre of Operations in order to warn us, to encourage us, to show us what has been happening in the spirit realm and to give us strategic plans for the times ahead and would like to share what he has spoken to me concerning this.

Thank you for the opportunity to share this.
Julia Pickard <dayspring@home.com>

He began to reveal several things about this that actually speak prophetically of our times and seasons.

Some are as follows:

1) The Pacific War was primarily fought on the water. The waters were "stirred" much. There has been and continues to be a battle against the people for the wisdom of the Lord. During this operation there were four campaigns but the one that held the most battles was the Solomon's Campaign. 2) During this operation there were many "firsts". There will many, many "firsts" for us. There will be things that will be tried and failed but there will be many successes. Lots of mistakes will be made but we are not to be alarmed by them. New and wondrous things are about to be released.

Regarding Pearl Harbor:

Warnings were ignored due to these two facts:- 1) An army private noticed the large flight of planes on his radar screen and was told to ignore them since a flight of B17's was expected. Early warnings were ignored due to already held expectations. This is a significant warning for the body. 2) Most of the damage in this raid was done in the first few minutes or hours of the attack. There are those in the body who are carrying around hurts they have received in the first few years of their walk with the Lord that has crippled their walk and the rest has all been collateral damage. He is about to reveal and heal these areas. 3) Not all the warships were in the harbor. God always has a reserve.

Regarding Java Campaign:

1) This campaign confirmed to the Allies that the attack at Pearl Harbor was NOT a fluke. The Allied command (ABDA) was a force which had many different languages and lacked common training. This is a picture of the body today. We speak many languages, in the natural, in the spirit and doctrinally but the Lord is going to become the common ground on which we will stand and that will bring unity as a result a refined and stronger fighting force. Unity between the prophets, intercessors and leadership will begin to manifest in shorter and less damaging "battles".

Regarding the Doolittle Raid:

1) This raid was one of the "firsts" exercised during the Pacific Theatre of Operations. It was the first time aircraft took off from the aircraft carriers for battle. The results of this raid were meager. Some of the body have been wondering about the renewal and the river movements prevalent in many areas today and what good they are doing. I feel the Lord has shown me this: As in the Doolittle Raid these have: i) caused the enemy to shift resources and ii) has bolstered morale in the body.

Regarding the Battle of the Coral Sea:

1) This was a naval and air engagement in which the battle had taken place completely in and from the air and was the "first" naval battle in history in which opposing fleets fought without ever coming in sight of each other. I believe the Lord is saying here that He has been building faith in us. We have fought and are learning to fight the fight not by sight but by faith in Him who is able.

Regarding Guadalcanal:

1) Admiral Halsey made one historical comment that I believe has relevance for us today if we will hear the Spirit speak through it. It was this: "Before Guadalcanal the enemy advanced at his pleasure, after Guadalcanal he retreated at ours." 2) There were three specific lessons learned by the allied forces at Guadalcanal. They were: a) planning b) supply c) support In other words they learned how to strategize, how to supply their troops and how to support them in battle. This is what the Lord has been about doing and continues to do in our midst. 3) It was the "first" US "offensive" campaign in the Pacific. The church is going on the offense and will no longer be on defense.

Regarding the Solomon's Campaign:

1) As stated previously, of the four campaigns fought the one with the most battles was the Solomon's Campaign. There has been and continues to be a battle against the people for the Wisdom of the Lord.

Regarding Midway: (and the attack of the Aleutians)

1) A naval battle fought almost entirely with aircraft. I believe the Lord is saying here that we are Midway in our battle. The next phase of warfare is being fought in the heavens. As in Daniel 10:12 I feel the Lord would say to us "Do not be afraid. Since the first day that you set your mind to gain understanding and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response to them. But the prince of the Persian kingdom resisted me twenty-one days . Then, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, because I was detained there with the king of Persia. Now, I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the future for the vision concerns a time yet to come." 2) Midway is regarded as the "turning point" in the Pacific Theatre of Operations. 3) The enemy had no land-based air support. The US had two positions, one from Midway and the other from Hawaii. For us we must understand the enemy has "no ground to stand on". We have two. The Blood of the Lamb and the Word of our testimony.

Regarding the Aleutians Theatre:

1) Although the enemy had set up on the Aleutian Islands they were ejected only after 15 months of arduous operations which were hampered by shortages afloat, ashore, and in the air, as well the fact that they were unable to gain a foothold due to the climate and terrain which made it too harsh an environment (the Geographical Factor, terrain and weather) and also the fact that valuable resources were sent to battle at Midway. However, of commitments elsewhere, the means of quickly resolving the situation were far from adequate.

I believe the Lord is revealing here what could be happening in our level of strategic warfare for our regions. I believe the enemy has set up camp in some strategic areas but has been unable to get a foothold due to the climate many of our intercessors have produced during their times of prayer and intercession. Their prayers have made it a difficult terrain, a difficult geographical area and the atmosphere too unstable. However, others have had commitments elsewhere that have also hampered our ability to quickly eject the enemy from certain areas but this is about to change (remembering Midway - the turning point).

He has shown me particularly a similarity of the sudden need for intercessory prayers that some have felt in the past to a certain weather conditions called a "williwaw" which happens in the area of the Aleutian Islands. It is a "sudden squall" which is a special hazard to sea and air navigation which sweep down from the mountainous area with great force, sometimes reaching gale proportions within half an hour. The mountains are concentrated on the north sides of the islands, and the williwaws cause strong off-shore winds which make it difficult to find a lee along the north coasts. The columns of spray and mist resulting from the williwaws frequently resemble huge waterfalls. He who has an ear let him hear what the Spirit is saying.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Sudan

Lars Widerberg

Sudan - Muslim Forces Prepare For "Final Solution" Offensive Against Sudanese Christians

Reports from Sudan indicate that the government of Sudan is preparing to launch a "final solution" that is intended to permanently eliminate the black, mostly Christian inhabitants in southern Sudan. An imminent threat looms over the south eastern region of the Nuba Mountains where eight new divisions of the Sudanese army have already moved into place. The government forces are equipped with tanks and new weaponry purchased from China with money earned from the militant-Muslim regime's newly operational oil pipeline. It is estimated that once the assault on the Nubian people begins, it could take as little as a few days until Khartoum's objective of genocide is complete.

An eerie silence is evidence enough to one pastor in southern Sudan that no help can be expected from the international community. He echoes a frequently asked question: "Why does the militant-Muslim regime in Khartoum get help from their Muslim neighbors and yet our cries for help from fellow Christians around the world seems to fall on deaf ears?"

Many of Sudan's non-Muslims are wondering why America responded to cries for help from the Muslims of Kosovo who claimed that they were victims of a genocide and yet is silent about a greater genocide taking place in Sudan? One medical worker attending the wounds of an injured child at the hospital in Yei asks, "How can America justify helping the oil-rich Muslims of Kuwait by swiftly providing U.S. military assistance when the armies of Iraq marched against them, and yet remain silent about what is happening in southern Sudan?" The tears of a countless number of suffering civilians in southern Sudan fall on the barren earth. The only thing awaiting them is their earthen grave.

Once the Arab-government in Khartoum has gained total control of the region belonging to the Nubian people, the government will be able to offer increased security for the oil fields located to the south. The oil pipeline was built by Talisman Energy of Canada with heavy investments from China. A major effort has been launched by human rights organization to persuade Canadians and Americans to divest stock holdings in Talisman Energy.

The French humanitarian organization, Medecins Sans Frontieres, has documented many of the bombings and conducted many interviews with survivors from bombing raids. One young girl who escaped this bombing of the school of Narus testifies: "I was unwell for a few days suffering from acute diarrhea. For this reason I was often in the toilets located at the end of the compound just behind the school. I was in the toilet when I heard the sound of a plane. I immediately realized that the plane was the Antonov. I got up, ran quickly out of the toilet and started running away from that place. I dove on the ground just in time to hear the explosion of the bomb and the fragments flying all over. After a few seconds I looked back at the place where the toilet had been located, but it was no longer there. What was the toilet is not a big crater." In 1999, the Government of Sudan dropped more bombs during its aerial bombardments over the Equatoria province in southern Sudan than in any previous year since the civil war began 17 years ago.

The areas hardest hit were Kajo Keji, Yei, Maridi and Kaopeta. It has been documented that more than sixty bombing raids took place in the Equatoria province alone between January 1999 and January 2000. A total of about 400 bombs had been dropped on the civilian population, causing at least 22 deaths and wounding 51. An equal or greater number of deaths and injuries have occurred in the Nuba region just since February 8, 2000. A fact-finding team from International Christian Concern that visited the devastated town of Yei discovered that a majority of the population had fled because of the ever-constant threat of bombs dropped from Russian-made Antonov airplanes. ICC's president Steven Snyder described the conditions: "Nearly every solid-constructed building has either been damaged or destroyed. Everywhere I saw sharp-edged pieces of shrapnel that the Khartoum regime commonly uses in bombs that are intended to kill and maim children."

Conclusive evidence from an inquiry carried out by a group of NGO's working in southern Sudan found that the Khartoum regime had used chemical bombs in the towns of Lainya and Loka. The inquiry discovered that many civilians had suffered from symptoms such as poisoning, vomiting blood, miscarriages, headaches and skin burns. Two field staff who visited the area three days after the bombing complained of having some of the same symptoms. Mr. Snyder is asking all Americans to ask this question: "Why has there been no serious attempt on the part of the international community to stop the slaughter and displacement of hundreds of thousands of innocent civilians in southern Sudan?" He adds, "This should be very troubling to any humane person." The world now awaits in silence as the brutal regime in Khartoum prepares to commit their "final solution" and to Islamicize all Sudan." ICC urges Christians to call the White House and their elected representatives in Washington to urge the U.S. to take every action necessary to end the looming genocide.

Give the king knowledge of Your way of judging, O God and the spirit of your righteousness to the king's son to control his actions. Psalms 72:1 Amplified version.

PRIORITY NUMBER ONE: PRAY FOR MEN IN AUTHORITY, 1 TIM 2:1-4

Lars Widerberg
Intercessors Network
<mailto:lw.pray@swipnet.se>
<http://home.swipnet.se/~w-54890>

From: Religion Today

March 20, 2000

"Are the lives of Europeans more valuable than those of Africans?" Franklin Graham of Samaritan's Purse asked in a March 15 article in The Wall Street Journal. Graham decried the failure of the governments of the United States and other Western nations to respond to the ongoing genocide he said is being carried out by Sudan's Islamic regime against Christians and animists.

...The suffering in southern Sudan "is the most appalling I have seen in 25 years as an international relief worker," Graham said. "I've seen the heart-wrenching suffering of Kosovar Albanians. Sadly, the brutality in Sudan -- where the U.S. has taken no action -- has devastated and ended thousands more lives than the conflicts in the Balkans."

...Sudanese government troops routinely attack civilian and humanitarian targets, have prevented relief flights from carrying food and medical aid to famine-stricken areas, and abduct women and children, selling them to slave traders, Graham said. A Samaritan's Purse hospital, which has treated more than 100,000 Sudanese since 1998, was the target of two bombing attacks this month.

..."When several thousand Europeans are killed and tens of thousands displaced, the world calls it genocide. But when 1.9 million black Africans are killed and millions more are displaced, tortured, and even sold into slavery, the world remains strangely silent. Western governments not only fail to take punitive action, they continue to trade openly with the government of Sudan," Graham said.

...Governments could help the Sudanese by imposing trade sanctions, taking military action, or condemning the government, Graham said. "The international community has taken no meaningful action to condemn the Sudanese government," but instead has issued "empty, half-hearted rebukes." The United Nations also has failed to impose trade sanctions, he said.

..."I call on my fellow Americans everywhere, and particularly my fellow clergymen, to unite on this moral cause and ask our president to lead the international community to save the Christians in southern Sudan from butchery and slavery," he said. Failure to respond to the crisis in Sudan could bring God's judgment on the United States, he said. "His hand of blessing could easily and quickly be removed."

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

Suddenly Deeper In The River

Ching Co

May 13, 2000

AFTER THE LONG BATTLE

I've been feeling within my heart a gentle calmness that seems to take over my whole being. It does not imply that nothing is happening around me. Yet I've notice a new calmness and stillness which is becoming stronger day by day.

I felt like I'm swimming in an open seas where the waves are high. But somehow having been immersed in that water for quite sometimes, instead of the waves becoming a threat to me, I've become adjusted to the motions of the waves and am now finding myself not affected by it's coming and going and in fact am beginning to enjoy it.

TAKEN DEEPER INTO THE RIVER

Many of God's people have been drawn by the Spirit of the Living God to come into the Living river of God. When we started to move in, just like wading into a real body of water, it does take a lot of effort to get in. And since at the start, the water is shallow, we cannot swim but need to wade and walk into deeper territory. and walking in water is much more difficult than swimming in water.

But now, those who have been faithful to God's leading are finding themselves in deeper water,-- so deep in fact that their feet no longer touch the ground. The suddenness of the rising of the water has initially surprised many of us. And our initial reactions was to swim hard to go back to shore where we felt safe as we can touch and feel bottom. But the river of God keeps on rising around us and overtaking us at many points. We felt that we might drown and many times we did find ourselves underwater and gasping for breath.

However, through all these initial struggles we discovered that something has been sustaining us and many of us were amazed that we have survived this long. Somehow we knew that something was going on that is beyond us. Although we cannot see it nor feel it, we knew inside our heart that our survival has not been because of our ability and effort.

Today many of God's people are learning to enjoy the deep water of God's river. For we have tasted God's goodness and His faithfulness and we know that ALL WILL BE WELL IN HIM.

THE MEANING OF THIS VISION

Many of God's people have been feeling the drawing of the Holy Spirit for them to come closer to the Father. Just like wading in water, it has not been an easy path but has taken a lot of our effort. Many circumstances and events has came against us like the sudden rushing of the river water and many of us were tempted to go back to shore where we feel safe and many of us have found ourselves drowning and gasping for breath so many times.

SURVIVAL DUE TO THE GRACE OF GOD ALONE

But somehow through it all, we have stayed afloat over our circumstances and deep in our heart, we also knew that our very survival has not been because of our own ability and effort but has been due to the grace of God.

Today, many of God's children are slowly becoming adjusted and amazingly rested in the midst of all the high waves and deep waters that surround us. The peace of God that He planted in us which at the start seem like a mustard seed has grown and has slowly filled us from within. The fruit of the Spirit which is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self control are beginning to mature. All these are slowly filling us up and overtaking many of us.

WHY AND WHAT

The season of training and preparation is now over for many of His children. He has tested us and have found us faithful to the call and the challenge. And the Father is getting ready to meet us in a grand way. Just like the 5 virgins who faithfully kept their lamps full of oil. God is about to open the door to us and soon we will be seeing the face of the Groom.

A MIGHTY EXODUS OF TRUTH SEEKERS

God's purpose in all these is not just for us to enjoy Him , but to lead the way to many. We have been prepared TO SERVE AND TO LEAD OTHERS. The coming days will be filled with an exodus of mighty numbers of seekers of truth and they will be needing assistance and help and this is where we will be positioned by God.

We will soon discover that what the enemy has intended for harm, God will turn for our good. What we have perceive as punishment were actually God's promotion for us. . . That truly God does not waste anything but has the ability to turn tears to laughter, dust to diamonds, stripes to stars.

PRAYER

"Father, we are thankful for all the works which you have done in our lives. We know that you are continually at work in us day by day even when we don't feel or see your hands. We thank you for the evident manifestation that is being birthed from within us. We know that one day, people will see you through and in us. Thank you for this awesome opportunity that you've entrusted to us. Help us never to depart or deviate from you at any point. We want to be hooked on to you all the remaining days of our life. Amen!"

Blessings,

Ching Co Cebu City Philippines

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Super Bowl

John Paul Jackson

The Super Bowl And The Coming Move Of God

Super Bowl MVP Kurt Warner came out of the shadows to win the NFL championship for the St. Louis Rams. Given his humble football roots, no one expected Kurt to be a starter in Sunday's game and he was an unlikely candidate for the MVP award. But Kurt's hard work, faith and persistence paid off.

After spending three seasons on the outskirts of pro-football with the Arena Football League and the NFL Europe (Amsterdam Admirals), Kurt was drafted by the St. Louis Rams. Then, suddenly, when Trent Green was injured in training camp, Kurt was catapulted into a full-fledged NFL star.

A PICTURE OF WHAT GOD IS DOING

For Kurt-who credits God for his astounding success-it was a dream come true. What Kurt may not know is that his rise to the Super Bowl is a picture of what God is going to do for many pastors and leaders in the coming days.

During the days of being hidden, God used the small and humble Arena Football League to develop precision training in Kurt. Likewise, many leaders that will be exhibited in the coming days are being prepared today in small, hidden places for precision-like work. So that when they are promoted to a larger arena, it will be easy to excel as champions.

FIRST THE SUPERMARKET

Furthermore, I imagine that during those difficult days of working in a supermarket, Kurt was probably struggling with wondering how he would survive and feed his family. I doubt he was thinking, "In two years, I'll be the starting quarterback for the Super Bowl champions." But when he least expected it, that's exactly where God positioned him.

As such, Kurt is a prototype of a new breed of leaders-unknown people in whom the glory of God will be revealed when God returns the passion of Pentecost to the end-time Church. This massive move of God will release the favor of God upon unknown and humble leaders who will not be recognized for their titles or ministries, but for the presence of God evidenced in their lives.

THE UNRECOGNIZED TO BE PROMOTED

In the coming days, God will promote many unrecognized and hidden servants of God-who have been learning righteousness through the difficulties of life-into champions. They may consider themselves to be washed up and forgotten, but God says they have not yet walked into all that God has destined for them. And in the day when they least expect it, God will suddenly promote them.

ROMANS 4 PRINCIPLE

The four years it took for Kurt to achieve this pinnacle of success and be suddenly thrust into super-stardom parallels a vision the Lord gave me several years ago that I typically refer to as the Romans 4 Principle. It unveils a coming move of God.

VISION OF THE COMING MOVE OF GOD

In the vision, I found myself standing in a heavenly room. The pure white room was quite large with a tall ceiling. Two huge doors were on one side of the room. On the opposite side were four rows of white stone bleachers. Each row was higher than the previous row. The first row was the lowest and the fourth row was the highest.

As the doors swung open, many men began to march past me into the room. When they reached the bleachers, the men marched up to the third row and began to fill it up. Once the third row was full the men began to fill the second and then the first row.

Surprisingly, I recognized many of the men on the third row as nationally and internationally known evangelists, television personalities, pastors and such. (It needs to be noted that not everyone who is nationally and internationally known was sitting on the third row.) I did not recognize many of the men on the first and second row. They seemed to be unknowns.

THE EMPTY FOURTH ROW

Immediately, I noticed that the fourth row was empty. Suddenly, the man who had lead the line of men into the room stood up and began to speak.

"Gentlemen, I have a message to bring to you from the Throne Room of God," he said. "Had I embraced what I'm sent to bring to you, I would still be in the ministry today. I wish I had trusted in this great truth, but it was so hard to attain to that it was not even considered in the latter stages of my ministry."

This messenger went on to say that, "A key to the next great move of God is found in the book of Romans and in particular chapter four. The only way you can get to the fourth row is to not violate the Romans 4 Principal. Contained in it is an un-embraced truth that will mark and distinguish this move in the Church from all other moves."

He continued his message, but sadly, upon awakening, most of what he said was erased from my memory.

MANY MINISTRIES WILL FADE AWAY

However, as he finished his message, he looked at the men on the third row and said, "You men on the third row have already violated the Romans 4 Principle. Many of your ministries will fade away. Others will not grow beyond where they are today. Some of you will fall by the wayside."

"But, you men on the first and second row, if you do not violate the Romans 4 Principle, in a day you think not; suddenly, in a moment, you will be catapulted over those who lord their ministries over you, to the fourth row where no man has stood since the Early Church."

What does God seem to be saying about this coming move of the Holy Spirit in conjunction with Romans 4? And the Super Bowl 2000?

FROM OBSCURITY TO HONOR

Just as Kurt Warner was thrust from obscurity into a national and honored showcase, many servants of God who come out of nowhere will suddenly be promoted out of hiddenness to the fourth row-in a day they think not.

Here are additional insights that the Lord has revealed to me.

1. While the entire book of Romans contains a message of redemption and judgment to a prodigal and largely decadent society, Chapter 4 recounts the faith of Abraham to offer his promise of fulfillment on the altar to God. Similarly, God may ask us to kill our ministries to determine if they are ours or His. It will be nearly impossible for us to kill what we have built and promoted, because we will feel as if we have to live up to our own reputation. But it will be necessary to offer it to the Lord to do with our lives and ministries whatever He wills.

2. God will raise up unknown men and women at a time when they believe it will be least likely for God to use them. These men and women, who were formerly hidden, will be refined by years of making good choices that reflect strong character, ethics and morality. They will also be individuals who are both vulnerable and transparent. Both of these qualities will need to be present. Transparency allows us to tell others what we have been through. Vulnerability allows us to tell others what we are going through.

3. Supernatural power and manifestation-reminiscent of the Early Church- will return. Anointing and power will not be limited to one man or to one church or to one geographic area. It will be scattered over many cities and nations. In addition, denominational boundaries that separate churches will become insignificant in the presence of the Holy Spirit.

4. A fresh emphasis will be made on the fruit of a deeper relationship with the Holy Spirit. And power will be released to individuals who have previously struggled with personal sins and addictions.

5. This move of God will come in surges. The first surge will get the Church's attention and will begin to build and repair the Church from within. The second surge will bring in the prodigals. The third surge will bring in new converts. There is no set pattern or time-frame for the occurrence of these surges. In some locations, all three will happen back-to-back, while in other locations it will happen over the course of a year or more.

6. Just as the ocean has large swells with several smaller waves in between, this move will have smaller waves between larger surges of supernatural manifestations. I believe the first wave broke off the restrictions that our mind, will, and emotions placed upon us-breaking of our own personal wineskins.

7. As this move of God matures, repentance from dead works will become a stronger focus. Things that God has permitted in the past will come under greater scrutiny and conviction. Holiness will fall upon believers.

WHAT IS GOING ON NOW?

It's already happening! We see a cloud the size of a hand and are beginning to feel it's raindrops. What so many people of God have been crying out for has started. It is happening with many ministries and in many churches in many cities. The Spirit of God is being stirred up again.

SAVED WITHOUT ALTER CALLS

People are getting saved without an altar call. Healings are taking place. Marriages are being restored. People are actually becoming spiritually stronger in the weeks and months following meetings. Children are falling under the power, praying for people-and cancers are being healed! Children are laying hands on people and giving spectacular words of knowledge and prophetic utterances that are amazingly accurate.

BROKEN PASTORS - BROKEN CHURCHES

This move of God seems to be hitting the broken pastors and broken churches. God's Spirit is touching places where there has been great conflict, touching pastors who are ready to give up. God has been touching pastors who have been battling with feelings of failure-broken men with broken churches.

This movement of the Holy Spirit is not dependent on a certain man being anointed. It is sovereignly being released by the Holy Spirit. Let me give you an example of how God proved that to me.

"AND HE TOOK A LITTLE CHILD..."

In a particular meeting, a 4-year-old boy who had Downs Syndrome was hanging around the platform. I had been calling out various things that I had noticed the Holy Spirit was doing. For some reason, this little boy was drawn to me and innocently walked up to the platform and stood beside me. As he stood there, the Holy Spirit clearly spoke to my spirit and said, "Pick him up, I want to show him what I am doing".

Not knowing exactly what that meant, I lifted the boy into my arms. To my amazement, this little boy who had Downs Syndrome began to point out people the Holy Spirit was moving on. They began to fall, cry, and shake as this little boy, with a very little voice, called for "more power, more power, more power". As he did, an explosive power of the Holy Spirit came. Furthermore, the people that he pointed to were the very ones I would have called out, had the Holy Spirit given me the chance.

God made it very clear to me that He needs great vessels, not great men. He will use whomever He desires. We simply need to be ready and full of humility, transparency, vulnerability, hunger and brokenness.

HINDRANCES TO GOD'S MOVE

What will stop this move of God happening in a church?

1. Jealousy among members of a pastoral staff over issues such as who has the most power or anointing. Or, jealousy among pastors over what church is going to have the final authority in the meetings.
2. Pride over being used in a particular way that you think is more anointed or more powerful than the way others are used. Or, pride that God chose your church and not another.
- 3 A spirit of control. And usually, as leaders, we are the worst offenders. Tell-tale signs are evident when we allow the people to fall under the power of the Holy Spirit, but we do not allow ourselves to be impacted by the Holy Spirit. People can laugh, but we never do. People can cry, but not us. This is a controlling spirit. God wants to break it. After all, God has said that He will be near to those with a broken and a contrite spirit.

CONCLUSION

In the coming days, we will see the greatest move of God on the face of the earth. This new breed of leaders whom God will anoint will not be perfect. But they will be broken in heart and contrite in spirit. On the shoulders of such people, God will place the weight of His glorious Kingdom.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Super Bowl XXXIV

John L. Moore

NOTE - For those new to the List, the Spirit came on me unexpectedly two years ago during the Super Bowl and lingered for days. During the game the Lord spoke a number of prophetic messages concerning the players, the significance of their numbers, and the game's outcome. Several months later, Meri posted a word from Canada that Bob Jones had spoken the previous year. At that time, Jones had prophesied several things the Lord had also shown me including the significance of John Elway winning his first Super Bowl.

Last year during the Super Bowl the Lord used a situation that happened away from the game involving an Atlanta Falcon defensive back to show me a message concerning prophets and the importance of being "righteous" and not simply "right".

This year I honestly did not know or expect if the Lord would show me anything at all. There was no profound anointing like the first year or even a mild rebuke like last year. This year's message was contained in the identities of two men and is predictive in nature.

The prediction: In the coming year burnt-out pastors will return to ministry and embrace Five-Fold ministry, and particularly Apostolic ministry.

In 1981 the Philadelphia Eagles were taken to the Super Bowl by their driven coach, Dick Vermeil. Vermeil was young, intense, and known throughout the league as a controlling micro-manager. He often slept in his office after working late into the night. The Eagles were defeated in the Super Bowl by the Oakland Raiders 27-10 and shortly thereafter, Vermeil resigned from coaching and coined the term "coaching burn-out." For the next 14 years he observed football from a network broadcasting booth. When coaxed out of retirement two seasons ago, the St. Louis Rams (formerly of Los Angeles) were one of the worst teams in the league and badly in need of a miracle. Most experts doubted that Vermeil would be effective. He was, after all, known for his almost abusive intensity and control, traits modern athletes would not easily respond to. In his first two years his team won only a handful of games and his team was reportedly on the edge of mutiny.

Things appeared even more dismal early this season when the Rams' new high-dollar quarterback, Trent Green, went down with a knee injury in the third pre-season game.

Onto the field game Green's backup, a much-traveled and unheralded second-year pro named Kurt Warner.

Many of you know Warner's story. He had labored at a small college, Northern Iowa, where he had started only during his senior season. Undrafted by the pros, he spent three years in Arena Football -- a football sideshow played with reduced numbers on a field scarcely larger than a hockey rink -- and one season in Europe quarterbacking an Amsterdam team. He tried out for the Green Bay Packers but was cut, and was scheduled for a try-out with Chicago but suffered a spider bite that caused his throwing arm to swell. Meanwhile, he had met and married a young divorced mother of two children. Her oldest child, Zachary, had suffered brain damage and blindness when accidentally dropped as an infant by his biological father.

Warner adopted the children and supported his family by working for $5.50 an hour stocking supermarket shelves in Iowa. He kept his arm and dream in shape by tossing rolls of toilet paper.

Dick Vermeil expected Warner to do okay leading the Rams. But no one expected him to shine. But by the end of the season, the Rams were 13-3 and Warner had thrown for 41 touchdowns.

After each win, Warner gave glory to the Lord and even Sport Illustrated commented in their October 18 issue that "...by overcoming doubt and adversity at every turn, he (Warner) has earned the right to have his faith taken at face value."

Two years ago, after attending a conference in Dallas for apostles and prophets, I returned to the home group I pastored to find a visitor. A retired pastor from Iowa. The man and his wife had traveled to Montana to visit her son, a member of our group, and also because the Lord had told the man "someone in Montana will have a word for you."

This man had risen in the ranks of his Pentecostal denomination through the years and had pastored several large churches. A couple years before his first wife had succumbed quite suddenly to cancer and he soon remarried a divorced woman. His denomination did not take kindly to this second marriage, and burnt-out by years of church service, he retired from the pulpit. "I had believed in the five-fold ministry for years," he told me. "But I'd never seen it used."

Like Dick Vermeil, he had labored with intensity but had fallen short of his goal.

Like Vermiel, in spite of his micro-managing, this pastor was a man of love. He often got "tickles in the spirit from Abba daddy." Vermiel, even in his first tenure with the Eagles, was known as a man who cared passionately for his players and was often chided for his emotional displays of crying.

This past Sunday the St. Louis Rams edged the Tennessee Titans 23-16 in one of the best games in Super Bowl history. Warner tossed the winning pass with two minutes to go and the teams tied. He was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

Dick Vermeil finally had his Super Bowl victory. Curt Warner had gone from supermarket stock boy to the super market of NFL riches.

But the spiritual lesson in this is the wedding of the pastoral with the apostolic.

Dick Vermeil represents the church as we have known it with one man in authority, running the show, and often burning out and disappearing into the secular world.

Curt Warner represents the apostolic.

First of all, he wore number 13, not a number of ill fortune, but the number of Matthias, the 13th apostle chosen to replace the disgraced and deceased Judas Iscariot.

Warner's path was one of perseverance and humility. He was quoted in USA TODAY as saying: "I've learned a lot about perseverance; I've learned a lot about being humble and enjoying everything you get."

Second Corinthians, 12:12: "The things that mark an apostle - signs, wonders, and miracles - were done among you with great perseverance."

In post game interviews Warner often mentioned coach Vermeil and how Vermeil had cared about him not just as a player, but as a person. Rather than basking in the glory he was receiving, Warner consistently deflected the glory to Christ and talked about the value of being a part of something special, namely, being part of a team. The emphasis there is on the word "team".

What the Lord showed me through this game was that this year many pastors will return to finish unfinished business. The ability to "finish" is an apostolic anointing. This business will be "finished", as the pastoral office embraces the apostolic and gives it the freedom and opportunity to succeed.

The results, of course, will be super.

(One last thing for you trivia buffs. When Dick Vermeil lost his first Super Bowl in 1981 the game received a television share of 63. When he won his first Super Bowl this past Sunday, Vermeil had reached the age of 63. Performance (television exposure) had finally given way to maturity (age).)

Oh, and by the way, the burnt-out pastor that I mentioned above. After working for a couple years in a store selling appliances, this year he and his second wife returned to the ministry. This time not as the head man, but as a helpmate in team ministry.

An important difference in Vermeil's season this year was his ability to designate and delegate authority. He relied more on his assistant coaches. Interestingly, most of those assistants are former head coaches. This, I think, clearly points out how God would like to see five-fold ministry operate.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Supping with God

Teresa R. Michieli

The wickedness that has ruled over My people is being called to an end. Those things that have ran rampant through My church are being brought down. Hard places have been where My children reside. Desolate lands have been their dwelling places. Locust have come and destroyed their fields. The cankerworm came and before the fruit could come to harvest it was cut off. What is left of the harvest? What is left to be enjoyed by My people? Everything they had hoped for has been destroyed. But I am returning with new life in My hand. As I return My life back into My children's lives, a new life will take place. Have I not said in My Word that I would restore everything that the locust and cankerworm stole from you? My Word is truth and it shall come to pass.

A mighty visitation is about to take place over My people's land. I am in the midst of your dwelling place and in My hand I am carrying the restoration that I have promised to you. You shall receive back all that the enemy has stolen. Not only will you receive it back but you will see an increase of it as it is given back to you. It will multiply as I give it back to you to further My Kingdom. Those who are waiting with open hands in faith will be amazed at the blessings they will receive. Others that gaze into their lives will see and believe that I Am the God of restoration. Many will be moved and will choose to enter My Kingdom of eternal life. Not only will I bless those who are waiting, but I will also bless those who choose to call on My Name and receive My gift of salvation, and I will restore what the cankerworm and locust has stolen from them.

This move that is being poured out upon My people is a promise being fulfilled to My people of faith. I Am a God who keeps His Word and brings it to past to fulfill My plans and purposes. Be encouraged this day that I your sovereign God has spoken these things into existence and as I have spoken, shall come to pass.

Wait on My promises that I have given unto you. They all shall surely come to pass. Be again encouraged and know that I, your Father, know every need you have. My heart is open and I see your heart and I Am moved with compassion. My love for My children is great and full of mercy. My mercy is being poured out upon you, My children even as I speak these words to you. Remember always that I your Father am continuously thinking good thoughts towards you.

Exodus 3:7-9 (Amp.) (7) And the Lord said, I have surely seen the affliction of My people who are in Egypt, and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters and oppressors; for I know their sorrows and sufferings and trials. (8) And I have come down to deliver them out of the hand and power of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land to a land good and large, a land flowing with milk and honey (a land of plenty) to the place of the Caanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. (9) Now behold, the cry of the Israelites has come to Me, and I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them.

Spiritual Warfare Vision

J. Solomon Kostelnik

9/17/2000

Since arriving in Athens, Greece, with my dad, we had both been sick. The enemy always attacks us over there, as it is one of the, if not the, most spiritually oppressive countries we have been to (even being to Haiti before, where pagan animal sacrifice and voodoo is common). We both know that prayer is the only way to break through such oppression. Then one night I was unable to fall asleep. So I began to pray.

I had been praying in the Spirit for three or four hours and it was now about 3am. I also had asked the Holy Spirit to manifest in me the discerning of spirits, word of knowledge, and word of wisdom, concerning the evil spirits that would be affecting the meetings, and who were causing our health problems.

After praying in tongues for a while longer, praising God, and dwelling in His presence, an image appeared before me. Although I could see this image in front of me, I was still well aware of lying in my bed praying in the Spirit. It was not fully detailed, but I could clearly make out images, colors, etc. It was as though as I was given a window of vision to another location.

I found myself walking up a curving flight of marble stairs. They were situated high in the sky, seemed as though they rose up through the clouds, working their way up to a loft. It gave the impression of a palace in the sky. Although I was personally present in the vision, I could look at myself as though I were watching a movie.

In front of me I noticed a short, stocky being. It was grayish in color, and was wearing armor like that seen in ancient pagan civilizations—boots, a sheet of metal hanging over his back, and a metal helmet covering most of his head. He walked slowly up the curving stairs, right in front of me. He was walking very purposefully, as though he were carrying out orders and nothing else was on his mind. I grabbed him by the shoulder and turned him around. He then became angry and started to push me. I continued praying in tongues in bed, although louder, and there came lightnings from my body in the vision, which seemed to attack him. It was then I noticed I had a sword and as I was swinging it, the great light continued to "pour" into him, knocking him backwards. He was unable to retaliate even though he was highly enraged at my actions. As we both moved up onto the loft from the stairs, two angels came from above and behind me, swooping down in a great cloud of light, picked him up by one arm each, and carried him out of my field of vision.

The vision then moved to the right of the stairs, to where the walkway continued. I saw a marble throne, lifted up from the ground, ornate and tall. Seated was a tall being, with great adornments. It was as though the details of and objects in his "clothing" were actually part of his body—including his headdress, which looked like two crescent moons on each side of his head. He emanated pride, seated in the grayish, marble throne. The whole setting had the same color and feeling, of being magnificent, yet somehow "fallen" from its original creation. The being, also, gave the same impression—although he was majestic and inherently powerful, there was a feeling of loss of original stature, position, and purpose.

As I walked up to the being, he began to tilt his head to one side, looking at me in inquisition. It was as though he were thinking, "What manner of being is this? And how did it get up here?" I then began to speak.

"Your reign is over. I rebuke you, and command you to come off of your throne of dominion. By the authority of Christ, you will reign no longer."

I, lying in my bed watching this scene, then began to pray in tongues more loudly. Again, I noticed I was wielding a sword at him in the vision, and great amounts of colored light began to emanate from my body and the sword, rushing towards him in an "attack." He was surprised and stood up, slowly being pushed backward, revealing more fully his great height and stature. He then began to change colors and appearance, his whole body was filled with a kind of blackness. His face took on a horrendous, angry expression, as though he could not believe I would attempt such a thing. He attempted to walk towards me, but the great light coming from me was keeping him from moving.

When he realized his futility, a great swarm of the same blackness that had colored his body materialized behind and all around him. I knew it was intelligent, was subservient to him, and had come at his command. It began trying to move towards me as well, as he continued his efforts. All the time the great lightnings from my sword continued to "cut away" at him and the great, black swarm, rendering them powerless to attack me or move forward, causing his rage to increase.

As I saw no further progress was being made, I thought that now would be the perfect time for the angels to return. It was as though this thought was a request. Not that I had commanded any angels, but as though I had put in a request for them to come to my side. At this, like before, they came from above and behind me, swooping down in a marvelous light. Yet, instead of picking up the being like before, they drew swords and began to cut away at this tall being and the swarm around him as well. I could tell that this enemy was now being pushed back, but more of the black swarm appeared and continued resisting. I could tell that our attack was causing some kind of damage and pain to our enemies.

As the angels and I continued to emanate light from our bodies and swords, a great Hand descended from the same direction as the angels had come. It then grabbed the being and the swarm, enveloping it with great ease, and just as quickly as it appeared, took them from the throne... the scene of the vision withdrew as the Hand now carried the enemy across the backdrop of space, with the sphere of the earth to the far right of my field of vision, finally throwing them into some kind of black hole. The scene of the throne in the sky then returned before me.

The throne was now empty, and the angels stood with me, continuing to emanate a great light of glory. There was a sense of peace and calm. They began to walk towards each side of throne, as though they were flanking it. Just then, in a flash of fire, a man appeared on the throne. I knew it was Jesus. He was a flaming fire, the source of such tremendous glory and majesty. I immediately fell upon one knee, bowing my head towards Him. He began speaking.

"An honorable victory, my son. You fought with great diligence and courage. This throne has now been returned to my authority. What many do not realize is that mankind has authority upon the earth. It is he who received dominion over the earth from the hand of God Himself. While it is true that the majority of mankind has yielded that dominion to Satan, there are those such as yourself who have chosen to yield their authority to Me. What you must tell your brothers and sisters is this: For those who serve me, dominion on the earth can be taken from the enemy. I and my Spirit will take the thrones back that the spiritual squatters of the heavenlies have occupied. Once challenged, they have no authority or power to stay in their high place. But it is up to you to speak dominion over these enemies that I may take their place. You must exercise your authority as mankind to willingly give Me authority over the earth and its high places of ruling."

He then spoke some things personal to me. After which, He continued speaking, and I knew He meant the following not only for me, but for all believers.

"The sword in your hand will never be lost, nor will it ever break in battle. Wield it continually. I have given you many weapons to defeat the enemy. You must ask the Spirit for His gifts and manifestations; they will enable you to discern the condition and position of the enemy, allowing you to better attack and defeat him. Continue the battle.

There is still much to be done."

At this, the vision ended. I began to thank my Lord for such a glimpse into the heavenlies. As I began to think upon the vision, and later shared it with my dad, some things became very clear.

The Holy Spirit wants to give us His gifts and manifest Himself through us. All we must do is ask in faith. I had just asked Him for the three manifestations (word of knowledge & of wisdom, and discerning of spirits), when the vision came.

It was through praying in the Spirit (other tongues) that this battle had been begun, fought, and won. It had caused me to "ascend" into the heavenlies. The vision beginning with stairs ascending out of thick clouds clearly shows that I had been walking up them the whole time I had been praying for three or four hours, not realizing it in the flesh.

That the short, gnome-like being in front of me was not aware of my presence tells me that our prayer language is unintelligible to the enemy. They are not aware of our preparation for battle, nor are they aware of our presence until we decide to let them know. Once confronted, some will know who we are, while others will not. The short being knew I had intentions against him as soon as I turned him around, while the tall being on the throne was curious as to my purpose and origin.

Many times the enemy is ignorant of what we are doing. They also seem to be so full of pride that they cannot believe we would even imagine of confronting their authority or power. Yet, they cannot stand against us when our sword is drawn and in use. The sword being the Holy Spirit, and praying in tongues being the means of wielding it. Great light comes from the Spirit when we let Him pray through us, nullifying the power of the enemy. Even one person can hold back a great fallen angel and his swarm of evil spirits. It will be the angels of Yahueh who help us win the victory, ultimately accomplished by God the Father Himself.

Please don't give up in prayer in tongues if it feels as though you are making no progress. Although you may not sense it, you are climbing stairways into the heavenlies, and speaking mysteries in your spirit, which are affecting and changing the unseen worlds. You are responsible for bringing the will of the Father into this earth, just as it is in heaven. Try to pray continually in the Holy Spirit for extended periods of time, and see just how much happens from the hand of God Himself!

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

There Shall Be One Fold

TaMara Williams

I had a dream about being in a church, It seemed I was in the area ministering, and someone told me if I was ever in that area to come by and visit this church. So I told the lady who was with me that we would stop by this church before returning home. However when we came to the church it was before time for church and no one was there but the pastor. He seemed to be friendly very casually dressed, however he quickly excused himself to go to the restroom. So we just waited for him to return after a while the people started to come in for church.

This building was a very nice it was evident that they were blessed. As the people began to come I noticed how timely there were about coming to church. I then noticed how nicely dressed the people were, and their faces were aglow with radiant smiles. They greeted one another as true family. Then it seemed that they all gathered in a fellowship hall before service and sang before actually going into the sanctuary. A man told them it was time to prepare for the service, and they began to join hands like a carousel and sing and do a dance which seemed wonderful and had much joy. As they went around you could see again radiant faces aglow and they were so confident and sure of each others love and that they truly loved God.

However I noticed that they didn't pay much attention to myself and the other lady there, they looked at us but did not seem to recognize us as members of the body of Christ. We were dressed okay and we were friendly but they just didn't look at us like they looked at each other.

I told the lady who was with me, that we should go. As we were leaving we went through this door and then we saw the pastor again, he was coming out of what seemed his study to prepare to go into the service. He seemed startled to see us, but when he looked at us he didn't say a word he kind of pulled his cuff of his suit to make sure he was perfectly attired to enter the service. It seemed he did not have time for anyone who was not with his group. The look on his face was like 'O well,' we have need of nothing, we have it all together.

Interpretation:

I sense the Lord revealed that there is great PRIDE AND ARROGANCE in the church although those things that we have sought Him for have been made manifest. However because we fail to recognize that His Body is made up of many members we are not able to recognize other parts of the Body. We tend to think that we are so graced and gifted, and have such an excellence in what we do that everyone must come and become a part of us to be recognized as valid.

I also sense the Lord is saying that we produce after our own kind in other words the first encounter we had was with the pastor and he blew us off like, you are a part but not from my church. When we saw the people they had the same spirit.

There is much coming from the Father to the church as a Body, however we must remember the words of Jesus.

John 10:16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

In the dream no one said we were not of God, they just didn't seem to recognize anyone not from their church or fold, which prevented them from embracing us with the love by which they embraced each other.

1 Cor 1:25-31 25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. 26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: 27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; 28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: 29 That no flesh should glory in his presence. 30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: 31 That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. Let us remember that whatever GRACE GIFTING we have is not because of who we are or what we have done. It was in the heart and mind of God to bless us so that we could effectively do His work in the earth.

Finally in the dream I was there with another lady, but could it be possible that God is sending angels into our midst just to see how we will embrace people that He sends to us and share His love? Could it be possible that He wants to see if we have forgotten where we came from? SELAH THINK ABOUT IT!!!

Ish Shah Ministries International PO Box 1196 Kennesaw, GA 30144

The Two Brides

Nita (LaFond) Johnson

I saw an interesting scene played out before concerning Yahveh’s heart for Israel and the church. I would like to share it with you.

I saw a beautiful woman standing on the end of a dock overlooking a charming and peaceful lake. The scene took place just as night was beginning to fall so I could see the reflection of the rising moon upon the water.

The woman was dressed in lovely apparel. Her hair was dark and flowed in long gentle curls down her back. I watched as she noticed something lay on the walkway and bent down and picked it up. As she held it in her hand her face beamed with delight. I continued to watch as she opened her hand and put her newly found treasure on her finger. It was at that time that I realized that what she had found was a gold pearl engagement ring. When she found it she realized that it was rightfully hers and was delighted to wear it. At the very moment she put the ring upon her finger the dress she was wearing became a lovely wedding dress.

She looked at her dress and realized the transformation that had just occurred and wanted to find her fiancée’. It was at that moment that He appeared strolling along the walkway toward the dock. He was the most handsome man I had ever seen. He was tall, dark and handsome and impeccably dressed. I watched as she walked over and said to him:” I have found my ring and realize who I am and I am ready to get married. “

He looked at her tenderly and with so much love. It was as though the sun rose and set in his beautiful bride to be. He replied: "I would like that very much but I cannot do that yet." You see there is another. We must wait for her for if we don’t she will never know what she could have had with me. When she is ready we will go together and become one.

I knew the lovely lady was the Church, the handsome groom was Messiah and the bride to be that He was waiting for was Israel. As much as He loves His church He also loves Israel. He longs for the day when He will be one with both and He will, albeit a little impatiently, wait until He can make the two one and the wedding can occur. It reminded me a little of Jacob. He so greatly desired Rachael but could not be without Leah as well. The two brides ultimately brought forth the whole house of Israel. In the same respect the predominately Gentile church and the Jew who will be born again in the “time of the Jew” will form the whole house of Yeshua’s espoused in heaven.

Please don’t ever think that our Messiah loves His predominately Gentile church less than He does His soon coming Jewish bride. He loves both with unfathomable love. His church is in His hand however, while if distance makes the heart go fonder, then it may be said that this distance is causing a certain yearning in His royal heart toward the Jew that none except the Father can understand. And with the same anticipation, with which He longs for every Gentile soul, He longs for the Jew. As His body our hearts should be like His. Not caring less for the Gentile, but adding to our love for the Gentile, love for the Jew and his soul and desiring that none would perish.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Second Coming

Fear Not - My Government

David Howe

The Second Coming

David Howe

The second coming.

This vision came over three days in July 1998.

Released October 14th 2000.

Please use your discernment with this.

Look up - Look up for the day of the Lord is close at hand - Yes the day of my coming is almost upon the earth.

Lift your heads - Lift your hands - Look up to the clouds for those same clouds that took him back into heaven are about to part - To release him onto earth - Into your midst.

For the Lord is getting ready to mount his white horse - The white horse that he will lead the army of the Lord to complete and final victory over all the powers of darkness and death.

Yes get ready - Get ready to mount your war horses - To follow the Lord as he comes in the sky upon his white horse.

Draw your swords - Raise your shields - Get ready to attack - To charge with him into victory - To charge with the army without number - All dressed in white.

Be ready - Keep your eyes unto the sky - Keep listening for the angels are about to sound their trumpets - To sound their trumpets to bring the ages to a close.

Yes be ready - Don't be caught sleeping - Make sure that your lamps are trimmed and filled with oil - The oil of the Holy Spirit - For the bride groom is about to call the bride unto himself - Call you so that we can be married before my Father's throne in heaven - So that we will be one forever my beloved one - So that you can spend Eternity with me, My children in the Holy City that my Father has been preparing for you and I to live says the Lord.

Yes look up - Be ready for the coming of the Lord is close at hand.

The Vision.

I can see a vast plain with an army upon it - An army without number - The army of the Lord.

As I look I can see their armour - Swords and shields - The light reflecting off them - The light of the Lord - The Glory of the Lord.

This is the end time army coming together - The Lord calling them to take their places in the ranks.

I can see them carrying many different flags - I can see one colored red - The Blood of the Lamb.

Another one is purple with a golden glowing crown upon it - The Kingship of the Lord.

The next one that I can see has Jesus - The name of the Lord - The standard of the Lord.

I can see that every nation - Color and creed is there.

The horses that they will be riding are mighty steeds - Powerful chargers of the Lord - All ready to go.

All around this scene is the Fire of the Holy Spirit.

Yes and the Lord he is giving them their final orders - His battle plan.

And now they are mounting their horses - Getting ready for the order to attack - To charge into the final battle of the ages - Into victory.

For the battle of the ages is about to begin - Yes the Lord is calling his people - Giving the order for his army to come together - To leave the things of this world behind them - To follow him for the victory is the Lord's.

Pick up your weapons - Raise your standards - Mount your war horses - Be filled with the Fire of the Lord - Be filled with The Holy Spirit and be ready to move out To attack - To ride unto victory - The victory of the Lord - For the end of the ages is almost upon you - Yes the time of my coming is almost here.

For the Lord is about to give the order to move out.

You are part of that army - Be ready.

The Lord has given the order to attack - Charge.

The army draws their swords and moves as one man with the Lord at the head upon his white horse - There is Fire coming forth from his mouth - The Fire of the Word of God - The Fire is burning up all before him that is not pure.

I can see that the army is using their swords to break the chains that are holding the captives - The angels ministering to those that have just been set free.

Then They are putting on the armour that the angels are giving them - They are picking up their swords and shields and joining the fighting with much vigor.

The enemy is trying to fight back but they are overcoming him by the Blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimony.

The enemy is trying to come in from behind but the solders of the Lord are covering each other backs with the power of prayer - Each one in the army trusts the others to do their jobs - Trusts the others with their lives - Each one would willingly give his/her life for their brothers and sisters.

The battle is getting hotter and hotter - The enemy firing the arrows of accusation and slander at the army - Trying to get the brothers and sisters to back bite each other but they are knocking these arrows down with their shields of faith for the love of the Lord is within them - For They love each other.

The army is pushing back the powers of darkness - The Glory of the Lord blinding the enemy - Wow it is so bright and getting brighter as the saints go from Glory to Glory.

I can now see the army taking prisoners - Chaining them up ready to be judged before the throne of God - These are the angels that followed the devil in his rebellion.

I can see those that live in deliberate rebellion against the Lord - Falling over the cliff into lake of fire below - To that place reserved for the devil and his angels.

I can see that the Lord does not want this to happen for he wants all to come to him but he has no choice but to allow this to happen - For they have made their choice - ( For all have freedom of choice to follow the Lord or not ) - I can see a tear in his eye as this happens.

For darkness and light cannot come together - All must be pure.

For soon the kingdoms of this world will become the kingdoms of our Lord for all the world will become his foot stool.

Yes for the battle is Lords - Onwards into victory my children for the victory is mine says the Lord - The victory of the cross.

Yes the kingdoms of this world have now become the kingdoms of our Lord.

Come - Rejoice with me - The wedding of all Eternity is about to begin - Yes let the singing begin - For the devil has been chained and has been cast into the lake of fire and the door has been sealed forever.

Come dance - Come dance with the all the saints that have gone before.

For the groom is now taking the hand of his beloved one - The church before his Fathers throne - He presenting her without spot or wrinkle - Perfect in every way to his Father.

They are now becoming one - The head and the body are one.

The bride and her Christ are one.

Listen - Can you hear the trumpets sound - Can you hear all the heavenly musicians play the wedding song of the Lamb - Can you hear the angels without number sing.

Come - Come feast with me - Come feast with me - Come take your place at wedding feast of the Lamb.

Yes rejoice with me for the Lord has wiped away all your tears - Yes pain and suffering are no more - The days of fighting are over - The ages of Eternity have begun - Time is no more - Glory Glory Glory Glory.

Yes from Glory into Glory and yet more Glory - Brighter and brighter without end - Glory without end.

For this is just very small part of the picture - For it would be too much for me to take while in this body of flesh - When I was been given this there was such intense heat within it was almost painful.

Yes for this just a small part of what the Lord has for you his bride - For you my children says the Lord.

This is just the beginning.

Dave Howe -

Released 14th October 2000.

davehowe@fdn.co.uk

Wellspring Ministries - England.

Fear Not - My Government

David Howe

Fear not - My Government.

Fear not my people for I AM at work - Yes fear not - Be of good cheer for your redemption draws near says the Lord.

For it says in My Word that when you hear of wars - Rumors of wars - Storms and pestilence on every front with the hearts of men failing because of fear - Then look up for your redemption draws near - Yes my coming is so very, very close - For it is now only 3 minutes to midnight. Yes fear not my people and work while you still can - Work and snatch as many as you can from the coming burning - For soon my righteous sword will sweep over this world in Judgment

For when the clock strikes midnight then no man will be able to work for the night would have come.

Fear not my church for I AM making you right before me - For the Government will be upon my shoulders says the Lord.

For I gave some to be apostles - Some prophets - Some to be teachers - Some to work as Pastors and some to be Evangelists for the building up of my body unto maturity until I come to take you unto myself.

So I would say to you - Do not copy the world in its ways - For if you do you will suffer loss and your works be burned in the coming fire.

Follow my Government - Not your own - Inquire of My Word for I will show you what is right in my sight - Consider what I taught my first apostles when I appeared to them in the days of old - Taught them to be servants - Taught them not to lord it over each other - Taught them to be the least - To prefer others above themselves.

For only he who has a truly humble heart will stand in the days ahead.

For in the coming days at the end of this age only that which is truly built upon My Word - Built upon the foundation of my apostles and prophets with Christ as the chief corner stone will stand in the days to come - For if the government is not built on the rock - Then like the house on the sand it will be washed away in the storm - For only the house which is built upon the rock will stand says the Lord.

Fear not my people fear not that which you see happening around you - For as it was in the days of Noah - So shall it be on the last day before I come says the Lord.

Yes work while you can before the end comes for the end so close - Work and save as many as who will listen to you from the burning - For I AM now mounting My White Horse ready to lead the armies of heaven forth into the final battle of the ages says the Lord.

Dave Howe

October 10th 2000.

Wellspring Prophetic Ministries England. 2 park place Margate England

davehowe@fdn.co.uk

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Third-Day Church (2000-2001)

Bill Burns

October 21, 2000:

Today is the eighth day of assembly known as the Feast of Conclusion which follows the seven days of Tabernacles (Succoth). It is a day of rejoicing over the word of the Lord. The number eight signifies new beginnings. On this, the eighth day, the old is passing away (in conclusion) and the new is springing forth.

Isaiah 42:9, "Behold, the former things have come to pass, and new things I declare; before they spring forth I tell you of them."

The church has entered into the third day, the third 1,000 years after the birth of Christ. The third day is one of resurrection power. It was on the third day that Christ arose from the dead, and Romans 6:5 tells us that we (the church) "shall be in the likeness of His resurrection (power)." The third day will be the day when the church, as a body, begins to operate in the fullness of power and, thereby, fulfill John 14:12 "Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father."

The third day will be the day of Christ's power that David spoke of in Psalm 110:3. The church will begin to rule over Satan's kingdom as the rulers of darkness are defeated by those who receive revelation of God's present purpose.

Psalm 110:1-3 "The LORD said to my Lord, 'Sit at My right hand, till I make Your enemies Your footstool. The LORD shall send the rod of Your strength out of Zion. Rule in the midst of Your enemies! Your people shall be volunteers in the day of Your power; in the beauties of holiness, from the womb of the morning, You have the dew of Your youth."

This will be a year of spiritual confrontation in the likeness of Elijah's victory over Jezebel's prophets (1 Kings chapter 18). The rod of authority will be given to the present day Elijah Company, and they will rule in the midst of their enemies.

Psalm 23:5, "You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; My cup runs over."

This will be a time of great victory for the church (the called-out ones) as they go from glory to glory and victory to victory.

Isaiah 60:1-2, "Arise, shine; for your light has come! And the glory of the LORD is risen upon you. For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and deep darkness the people; but the LORD will arise over you, and His glory will be seen upon you."

The Lord has shown me seven things that will be taking place in this coming year. They are as follows:

1. Deep Darkness Shall Cover the Earth: We are in the time of the Great Falling Away. 1 Timothy 4:1-2, "Now the Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons, speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their own conscience seared with a hot iron." Many will fall away in this coming year. 2 Peter 3:17, You therefore, beloved, since you know this beforehand, beware lest you also fall from your own steadfastness, being led away with the error of the wicked."

Satan will intensify his assault against truth, and false doctrine will be reinforced and promoted by those who are taken by the spirit of deception. The spirit of deception (error) will find a stronghold in all of those who hold to any position of self-agenda and self-promotion.

A warning to the prophetic community -- those who operate in the prophetic as the elect which may be deceived must set a watch and discern the spirit of error and the Spirit of Truth. Prophetic people are used to operating in the spirit realm. Those who continue to operate in the gifts of the Spirit for selfish purposes will now be given over to deception, and they will speak as the world does...through a spirit of divination.

1 John 4:5-6, "They are of the world. Therefore they speak as of the world, and the world hears them. We are of God. He who knows God hears us; he who is not of God does not hear us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error."

2. Revelation Knowledge Shall Increase: Great darkness shall cover the earth, but the glory of the Master (Jesus) shall produce a great light (revelation) on those who do the will of the Father. These are the sons and daughters of glory who, in the likeness of Jesus, will not hold to any form of self agenda. These are those who will be about the Father's business and not their own.

The mysteries of God will be revealed (completed). Revelation 10:7, "But in the days of the sounding of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, the mystery of God would be finished, as He declared to His servants the prophets. Before the seventh angel sounds his trumpet, the mysteries of God (those things still sealed [unopened] in the written word) will be declared by the Lord's prophets who serve only Him who holds the key of David.

3. The Gatekeepers: The Son of David who has the key of David (Revelation 3:7) will appoint some spiritual gatekeepers according to Isaiah 22:20-22, "Then it shall be in that day, that I will call My servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah; I will clothe him with your robe and strengthen him with your belt; I will commit your responsibility into his hand. He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem And to the house of Judah. The key of the house of David I will lay on his shoulder; so he shall open, and no one shall shut; and he shall shut, and no one shall open." Eliakim means "God is setting up." Hilkiah means "God is protecting."

Isaiah chapter 22 is the Lord's burden (prophecy) against the Valley of Vision. This prophecy is against the church (as well as Israel). Those who have departed from the vision or pattern shown to the church. The Book of Acts is the vision given to the church. This vision has been cast aside, and man's vision in the guise of denominations has been established as the abomination which makes desolate. This desolation has produced powerlessness in healing the sick, casting out devils and preaching the word.

The prophecy in Isaiah 22 tells us that God is going to replace those who have hewn out a place for themselves in ministry. He says their ministries will become a tomb, and the Lord will "violently" drive these unfaithful stewards out of their offices. He will then appoint those that He is now setting up and establishing. These are the sons of God that He is now preparing and protecting. And, to them He will give the keys of David, and they will be gatekeepers in the Tabernacle of David that is now being rebuilt (Acts 15:16-17).

The gatekeepers will open the treasures of God and bring forth the Master's instructions and provision for these end times (1 Chronicles 9:22-27). The gatekeepers will also close the gates and forbid the enemy from entering into the holy places. They will be like Elijah opening and closing heaven's gates. James 5:17-18, "Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it would not rain; and it did not rain on the land for three years and six months. And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit."

4. The Manchild: Much of the revelation that is received is progressive. Last year I prophesied the birthing of the manchild (and assumed that the whole child would be birthed at once. Later on this year, the Lord said that only the head of the manchild is out of the birth canal. The manchild is the company of apostles and prophets now being birthed by the woman (church) who will establish apostolic government (foundation) in the church. The foundation is Christ's doctrine as confirmed by the Spirit of Truth and will be established by the mouth of the apostles and confirmed by the prophets.

The head represents: The seeing (eyes/vision) or perceiving of the apostolic/prophetic manchild which is coming forth; The hearing (ears) represents the ability to hear the voice of the Lord as to His purposes for the manchild; The mouth represents the speaking forth by apostolic power the word of the Lord as the manchild is spoken into being; The nose represents the ability to receive the breath of the Holy Spirit which gives life to the manchild.

In this coming year we shall see the shoulders of the manchild come forth. Isaiah 22:22, "The key of the house of David I will lay on his shoulder; So he shall open, and no one shall shut; And he shall shut, and no one shall open." The shoulders represent the place of divine authority on which apostolic government will be established in the church. Remember Isaiah 9:6, "For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government will be upon His shoulders."

This is the Father's purpose for the manchild -- to establish divine government and apostolic power in the church in the likeness of Jesus Christ as the Head of the church. Once the shoulders come forth then the body will quickly follow the shoulders.

Isa 66:7-9, "Before she was in labor, she gave birth; Before her pain came, She delivered a male child. Who has heard such a thing? Who has seen such things? Shall the earth be made to give birth in one day? Or shall a nation be born at once? For as soon as Zion was in labor, She gave birth to her children. Shall I bring to the time of birth, and not cause delivery?" says the LORD. "Shall I who cause delivery shut up the womb?" says your God.

5. The Transference of Wealth: This will be the year that wealth transference begins to take place. This transference has been prophesied for several years now, but this coming year (2001) it will actually begin to take place. The Lord will raise up certain gatekeepers who will open the treasures of the Lord who has laid up the wealth of the wicked for the righteous.

Isaiah chapter 22 is the prophecy of the gatekeepers now being raised up to build the Tabernacle of David. In Isaiah 22:15-19 the Lord tells us that the unfaithful stewards (NKJ) that will be removed from office are treasurers(KJ). So some of those given the keys of David (verse 22) will open the treasures of the unfaithful and the unsaved and bring forth funds to be used for the rebuilding of the Tabernacle of David (faithful ministries).

Isaiah chapter 23 is the prophecy against Tyre who represents Satan and those who are in league with him through disobedience to the Lord.

Isaiah 23:1-5, "The burden against Tyre. Wail, you ships of Tarshish! For it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no harbor; from the land of Cyprus it is revealed to them. Be still, you inhabitants of the coastland, You merchants of Sidon, Whom those who cross the sea have filled. And on great waters the grain of Shihor, the harvest of the River, is her revenue; and she is a marketplace for the nations. Be ashamed, O Sidon; For the sea has spoken, The strength of the sea, saying, "I do not labor, nor bring forth children; Neither do I rear young men, Nor bring up virgins." When the report reaches Egypt, They also will be in agony at the report of Tyre.

Ezekiel 28:11-19 makes it clear that the king of Tyre is Satan. This is what the prophet Isaiah says about the wealth that Tyre has gathered. Isaiah 23:18, "Her gain and her pay will be set apart for the LORD; it will not be treasured nor laid up, for her gain will be for those who dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for fine clothing." These funds will be distributed to "those who dwell before the Lord" to do all of His will. Those who eat sufficiently (feast on His word) will have the provision that they need to carry out the assignments given to them by the Lord. The fine clothing first speaks of those who wear robes of righteousness (Revelation 19:8), but it also speaks of the material needs that are necessary to equip the body of Christ to do the work of the Master in these end times.

6. The Cities of Refuge: In this coming year we will begin to see the reality of the establishment of the cities of refuge. The cities of refuge will be spiritual environments in certain geographic areas which will become the physical manifestation of the Tabernacle of David (the house of David) in the earth. These cities of refuge will have spiritual walls of protection around them as established by the Spirit of the Lord.

Ezekiel 48:35, "All the way around shall be eighteen thousand cubits; and the name of the city from that day shall be: THE LORD Is THERE."

The most important aspect of these cities is "the Lord is there." He will be there to protect His people and provide for them in these end times. Psalm 9:9, "The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble." And, because the Lord will be there, the manifest presence of the Lord will create a spiritual atmosphere that will facilitate the spiritual equipping of the saints for the work of the ministry (Ephesians 4:12).

Much of the transference of wealth will be for the purpose of establishing these cities of refuge. The gatekeepers will identify these cities and open the gates of provision that are necessary to establish these cities. To many, these cities will become the spiritual habitations that reveal the secret place of the Most High. Psalm 91 tells of all the benefits that belong to those who are looking for the city that God is building.

7. The Beginning of Sorrows: (Matthew 24:8) In December of 1999 my wife (Marsha Burns) had a vision of a three-ring circus. In the vision was a man riding a unicycle carrying a red, Y2K banner. In the first was a high-wire act. As the cyclist was going out, the high-wire performers were beginning to come down, and a lion and a bear were moving to the center ring for a wrestling match. The cyclist sets the time as the end of year 2,000. The high-wire act represents the stock market with it's high fliers coming down, and the lion (Israel) and the bear (Ezekiel chapter 38 company)--the Palestinians, Persia and friends, with Russia's backing and weaponry, which is Gog and Magog, are moving towards center stage.

These events are a sign of the beginning of sorrows that shall come upon the whole earth. These events signal the beginning of economic problems that will become more pronounced as 2001 proceeds. The Oslo Peace Accord is history, and the Middle East conflict will escalate until Ezekiel chapters 38 and 39 are fulfilled.

Marsha saw in her vision the four horses of the apocalypse waiting in the wings. (Revelation 6:1-8). The beginning of sorrows will now increase in intensity like the birth pangs that come upon a woman who is about to deliver. Once the wrestling match is over and the lion (who represents Israel) defeats the bear, then it will be time for the horses to come into the ring, and the final event will begin.

These are the seven things that the Spirit says to the church. Today is the Feast of Conclusion, and seven is God's number of completion. The events of the past are behind us (brought to conclusion), and now the events of the future shall unfold.

May we be found rejoicing over the Master's words, and may He give us ears to hear so that we are prepared for that which is now to come in this New Year. Amen.

The Third Day

Doug Fortune

‘Do not let this one fact escape you beloved, that with the Lord one DAY is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one DAY...’ (2 Pet.3:8) ‘...be ready against the THIRD DAY, for the THIRD DAY the Lord will come down in the SIGHT of all the people...’ (Ex. 19:11). This is the dawning of the THIRD MILLENNIAL DAY since the cross and the resurrection of Jesus Christ changed everything. Yes, I’m aware of the inherent flaws of the Gregorian calendar we use, but that still doesn’t altar the fact that we are somewhere in the dawning of the THIRD DAY... and for that matter, it is really the SPIRITUAL reality, the ‘kairos’ (not chronos) time that is important, so the THIRD DAY can happen ANY day! Hosea 6:2 says, ‘After two days He will revive us, in the THIRD DAY He will raise us up, and we shall live in His sight.’ I believe we have been seeing the fulfillment of this as people all over the world have been drawing closer to God (God hasn’t moved, we moved closer to Him!), resulting in what we have termed as the ‘move of God’ in renewal / revival... let us not stop there however, for the best is yet to come! I would much rather be ‘raised up to live in His sight’ than to remain in the wonderful blessing of revival, as I see revival as primarily ministry in the Outer Court and Holy Place, in other words, ministry to the BODY and the SOUL. To be ‘raised up’ to a higher realm, the realm of the SPIRIT and to ‘LIVE (not just visit) in His sight’ implies the continual tabernacled manifest presence of God where we LIVE from the spiritual realm and impact the natural realm... that is where my heart lies. It is life in the THIRD dimension on the THIRD DAY... the other two dimensions being the Outer Court and the Holy Place... it is time to move into the Holy of Holies, the THIRD dimension in the temple... time to live from the SPIRIT, the THIRD dimension in this bodily ‘temple’ I live in.

Yes, it is time to move into the culmination of the THIRD Feast also... we’ve experienced Passover (first) and the wonders of our salvation; we’ve experienced Pentecost (second) and the wonders of the gifts of the Spirit, the ‘earnest’ of the Spirit; it is time to move into Tabernacles (third). Remember, the ‘earnest’ is really a down payment, a promise of the FULL dispensing... let us press into the fulfillment of the promise, which is the FULLNESS of the Spirit, the fulfillment of Tabernacles.

Consider also the words of Jesus in John 2:19, 21 as He said, ‘...destroy this temple, and in THREE days I will raise it up... He spake of the temple of His body...’, and are WE not His BODY? I see the TOMB becoming a WOMB, because ‘...if we have become ONE with Him by sharing a death like His, we shall also be ONE with Him in sharing his resurrection...’ (Rom.6:5) ... as we DIE with Him, so shall we be raised up with him in the THIRD DAY!

I see another powerful prophetic picture in John 2 where we read that ‘...on the THIRD DAY there was a wedding feast at Cana of Galilee...’. Through the scripture the wedding feast is a symbolic picture of the intimacy of being joined to Christ, the ONENESS symbolized by the marriage relationship. In the Hebrew, Cana of Galilee literally means ‘circle of heathen’... do you see the picture? A great ‘wedding feast’, people being joined to Christ in salvation in the place you least expect it... the circle of heathen! I can see a great harvest of souls happening in the streets, the bars, those places and people deemed 'unacceptable' by religious Babylon... and outside of the four walls of the edifices we have built and called 'church'. Mind you, I'm NOT against building facilities when needed, but 'church' cannot depend upon buildings. Church is what happens when you and I get up in the morning and go to our workplace (for some it is a 'circle of heathen'), or do the thing that occupies our time, just 'everyday life' because we ARE church! This is the THIRD DAY!... look for the wedding feast in the 'circle of heathen' that you have contact with and understand that God is working a unique miracle in this THIRD DAY. You see, the world, the 'circle of heathen' has run out of wine... they've tried everything, been there and done that!... nothing satisfies the thirst. God has a unique miracle in progress though; He is taking SIX water pots of STONE and filling them with WATER. Six is the symbolic number of MAN, Peter refers to US as living STONES, WATER is analogous of the filling and cleansing of the Living Word, CHRIST IN US. I see a TRANSFORMATION happening in the church as the water is turned into WINE, as wine symbolizes the FULLNESS of the Spirit... this WINE, this FULLNESS of the Spirit then being poured out in the 'circle of heathen'! And this will be the report that is heard, '...He has saved the BEST WINE till the last!...'. 'And nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising... They all gather themselves together, they come to you... the abundant wealth of the sea shall be turned unto you; unto you shall the nations come with their treasures...' (Is.60:3-5) Yes, the 'circle of heathen' is thirsty, and the FULLNESS of the Spirit flowing through these stone vessels is the plan of God as '..the kingdoms of this world are become the Kingdom of the Lord and His Christ.' '...be ready against the THIRD DAY...' (Ex.19:11), and the key to being 'ready' is found in that the six water pots were consecrated or set apart for the purpose of purification... let us be totally 'set apart' to His purification in us, that we may be FILLED, TRANSFORMED and POURED OUT!

Let us move into this THIRD MILLENNIAL DAY with a THIRD DAY mentality, for '...as a man thinketh in his heart, so he is...' (Prov.23.7).

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Third Heaven

Todd Bentley

A Prophetic Cry for the eyes of our Heart to be opened and hunger for the deep things of God.

2 Kings 7:17 And Elisha prayed, and said, "Lord, I pray. open his eyes that he may see. " Then the Lord opened the eyes of the young man and he saw, And behold the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

As I was waiting on the spirit of God earlier tonight I felt a release in my heart to call for the Eyes of Gods servants to be Opened to the reality of the Spiritual realm. Angels, demons, trances, visions, dreams, prophetic experiences and (The Third Heaven}

The apostle Paul said in (2 Cor 12:2,4) I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago whether in the body I do not know, or whether out of the body I do not know, God knows was caught up to the third heaven. How he was caught up into Paradise and heard inexpressible words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. I believe these prophetic experiences are about to increase on the body of Christ and young people.

Two and a half years ago in a three month visitation of Gods Glory that lasted at times 4-12 hours a day the holy spirit took me into the heavens several times and out of this season, I received the supernatural release into our ministry and the healing and prophetic mantle that God has given us. Prior to this season, I worked in the mill on the green chain and now we travel internationally doing up to 30 meetings a month or more and are exploding beyond our ability quickly. The reason I share this with you is because I believe that it is the "kairos" of God in the spirit to visit his church with what was the common experience of the early church and our forefathers.: Supernatural Guidance and visitation"

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. And the Lord God formed man out of the dust of the earth and put man in the garden. I believe that as redeemed saints in Christ, who has made our peace with God and access to the throne of Grace through his blood that as natural as it is for us with our five natural senses to touch, taste, smell, hear and see the realm of Created earth. I know that I am to with my Spiritual senses experience what God has created in heaven now. I want to see Angels, Paradise and operate in the supernatural knowing, have visions, dreams and interact with heaven. From the beginning of the bible to the end you see God speaking to his church Abram, Jacob and Joseph and Moses through angels. the burning bush, visions and dreams. Daniel saw the prince of Persia and Michael the Arc angel. Ezekiel was caught up into visions of God and taken before the four living Creatures, the Glory and fire of God. Peter went into a trance, Paul had so many prophetic experiences that he relates to it as a thorn in the flesh was given me, due to the abundance of visions and revelations. John the revelator and on and on. The experience of Saul and the directing of Cornelius,

We believe it strange today as a church that one see angels or speak of being caught up into heavens, or visions and prophetic experiences. We have let the devil and the new-age movement and every other false God take away Our spiritual right, and strike fear into our hearts in such away that we trust the devils ability to deceive us more that God's to keep us. Note I am not saying that we ought not to test all things and walk in wisdom in how we communicate what God gives us but lets be hungry for what God have for us in the third heaven. Then ask him for what he wants from us most the character to be able to stand with all that he gives us. I don't look for experiences but I hunger for heaven and all that is mine in Christ. I want to know the realm of where God dwells even as I know this earth.

I see the Holy spirit in a larger corporate way visiting his church like He visited Smith Wigglesworth with the faces, names of the sick, and demon possessed at times even before his meetings. God would take John G Lake to the sick and hospitals in the spirit and he would he heal them and even at times preach the gospel. What about the translation of Philip from place to place? I see Trances, the word of Knowledge and angelic experiences that will release the revelation of sickness and the devils schemes, so we can set captives free. Gods direction and purpose to his people and warnings like God visited Joseph and Mary, his direction through dreams. In a world that is hungry for esp and psychics, meditation and Guru healing, Tarot reading and Astro travel. We need to experience the truth of all that God has for us in his Glory and not the devils false. I believe that even those who read this word, many of you will even struggle with the reality of what God wants us to have and struggle with reality of believing that we need to contend for this experience of God manifested in the church..

Evangelist Todd Bentley.

For more info on Todd and this ministry please visit the below weblink and remember the upcoming Conference below you need to register now!!!.

Miracles,signs and Wonders Conference
Sept 14-17 at Valley Christian Fellowship
Speakers: Todd Bentley and Bob Brasset
Worship: Norm Stauss and Clif Robertson
More info email- todbentley@home.com
Web Site: <http://www.thearc.bc.ca>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Third-Day Jubilee

Bill Burns

May 27, 2000:

We are about to enter the most exciting time in the history of the church as we step into the third day of Christ. We are about to experience the 40th Jubilee since the birth of Jesus.

Luke 3:23 tells us that Jesus began His ministry "at about thirty years of age." Daniel's prophecy (Daniel 9:25-26) fixes the year of the Crucifixion when the Messiah was "cut off" in 33AD. Jesus ministered on the earth approximately three years. If this is true (and it seems likely that it is) then our Lord would have been born in 1BC and would have been one year old in 1AD.

The year 2000 would then be the 40th Jubilee since the birth of our Lord and Savior. The year 2000 also marks the end of the second day of Christ and the beginning of the third day of Christ. If we apply the Apostle Peter's revelation (2 Peter 3:8) that one prophetic day equates to 1,000 literal days, then Hosea's prophecy becomes a revelation of what is about to take place in the church.

Hosea 6:1-3, "Come, and let us return to the LORD; For He has torn, but He will heal us; He has stricken, but He will bind us up. After two days He will revive us; on the third day He will raise us up, that we may live in His sight. Let us know, let us pursue the knowledge of the LORD. His going forth is established as the morning; He will come to us like the rain, like the latter and former rain to the earth."

Now, we have revelation of the third day of Christ. After two days He will revive us as He comes to His people (on the earth) as the latter and former rain (Spirit) together. This will occur early on the third day and then the revived church (bride washed by the rain, without spot or wrinkle) will be caught up to live in His sight.

Between the beginning of the third day and the catching up (rapture) of the church, a glorious event will take place, the grandest of all Jubilee's will take place. Liberty and blessings for the true church (those who are faithful and obedient to serve the Master).

Jubilee is the 50th year after seven cycles of seven years. The word Jubilee comes from the Hebrew word "yobel" which means to be jubilant (to celebrate Christ) and to exult (by giving honor to Christ and praise for His blessings). Yobel is related to the Hebrew word for ram's horn or trumpet and indicates a time of the blowing of the trumpet. The Jubilee year begins with a blowing of the ram's horn on the Day of Atonement signifying a call to joy, liberation, and the beginning of a new year of justice and mercy and bountiful blessings.

Jubilee is a year of restoration and redemption. It is when our Kinsman-Redeemer, Jesus, commands His blessings (supernatural provision) to come upon His people. (Leviticus 25:21-25) The scriptures outline some requirements for those who wish to become recipients of this, the grandest of all Jubilee's.

1. Hosea 6:3 tells us to "pursue the knowledge of the Lord." It is time to seek the Lord for understanding of the time of this visitation (Jubilee) and ask for the rain (spiritual outpouring) according to Zechariah 10:1, "Ask the LORD for rain In the time of the latter rain. The LORD will make flashing clouds; He will give them showers of rain, grass in the field for everyone."

2. Leviticus 25:10 tells us that this Jubilee must be consecrated. That means to be set apart to God and devoted to His purpose (will), and shall be considered a time for holiness to prevail in the church. (Leviticus 25:12)

3. Leviticus 25:10 also tells us that we must "proclaim liberty." We must speak and call forth the blessings of Jubilee. We must prophecy and call those unseen blessings forth as though they were (Mark 11:23-24). This must be done in faith, believing that this is the time of visitation and do not doubt.

4. Leviticus 25:17 tells us that we are not to oppress (mistreat) one another. We must forgive and release past grievances.

5. Leviticus 25:18 tells us that we must be doers of the Word. We must be obedient to His word of truth. If we do these things, then we will dwell in safety (in the midst of judgment), and our land will yield its fruit according to the commanded blessings of the Lord (verses 18-21).

Jesus is our Jubilee blessing (Kinsman-Redeemer), and now is the time of the third-day Jubilee. We must blow the trumpet in Zion and awaken the people so that they can be a part of this 40th Jubilee. The question, then, is when does this third day of Christ begin? It depends upon the date of the Master's birth. I will give you three possibilities and let you decide. These three dates all occur this fall, and they are the Feast of Trumpets, Feast of Atonement and Feast of Tabernacles.

The Feast of Trumpets (Leviticus 23:24) is a day of the blowing of trumpets. It is a two-day celebration and could represent the first and second comings of the Lord.

The Feast of Atonement (Leviticus 23:27) is the day on which the ram's horn is blown to announce the year of Jubilee (Leviticus 25:9). The blood of Jesus is our atonement, and the Jubilee year begins on the Day of Atonement.

The Feast of Tabernacles (Leviticus 23:35, 39) is a time of harvest. It is when the children of Israel dwelt in booths with God for 7 days. Jesus, Emmanuel, has been abiding with the church for 7 dispensations lasting 2,000 years.

Take your pick! It doesn't really matter that much because all of these feasts occur in the fall of the year, in the same season. What is important is that you prepare yourself to become one of those who will meet the conditions of the blessings which I outlined.

As I have said, this will be the 40th Jubilee. The number 40 becomes significant to us as we compare it to the scriptural patterns set forth in the scriptures. Jubilee is a year of liberty when the captives are set free. Isaiah proclaims this acceptable year and identifies God's purpose.

Isaiah 61:1-3 "The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon Me, Because the LORD has anointed Me to preach good tidings to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound; to proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn, to console those who mourn in Zion, to give them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that He may be glorified."

Jesus was tempted for forty days (see Luke 4:1-13). Victory came on the 40th day. Luke 4:14, "Then Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit to Galilee, and news of Him went out through all the surrounding region."

The children of Israel came out of the wilderness in the 40th year and crossed Jordan (type of the Spirit) and received the promise of God's victory and blessings.

I believe that the great victory and blessings will come forth in this Jubilee as a result of the restoration of the five-fold ministry (Ephesians 4:11). We find the number 5 (50th year) in the Jubilee provision. The 50th year follows the 7 cycles of 7 years, and the church has gone through 7 cycles (Revelation chapters 2 and 3) and is now to come forth purified like gold refined in His consuming fire.

In the Azusa Street outpouring 100 years ago, the Jubilee brought the baptism of the Holy Spirit back to the church again. Fifty years ago, the Jubilee brought a healing revival to the church and the gifts of the Spirit began to flourish. This year God will restore apostolic authority and power once again as it was at the beginning of the church age. The apostles will come forth, and the power of God's order will be manifest, and the multiplied blessings of God will be poured out as the windows of heaven are opened.

It is time to blow the trumpet in Zion and proclaim that the grandest of all Jubilee's is about to occur. It will begin with the restoration of a holy people, His church, those who worship in spirit and in truth, before the last trumpet shall sound. 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17, "For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord."

Let us not miss the time of these glorious visitations from the Most High God, for Jesus, our Jubilee, is coming to His people. HALLELUJAH!

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

May 22, 2000:

I have given you, My people, clear and concise language so that you can communicate clearly with one another. Yet, there is a work of confusion and misunderstanding coming against My people. The enemy has come to muddy the water and bring division. And unless you speak forth your heart in an understandable, uncomplicated, straightforward manner with pure motives and clarity of purpose and vision, the enemy will bring chaos and destruction. I speak to some of you who have gotten into a mental whirlwind. I say to you, quiet your soul. Seek My face for direction, guidance and wisdom, for surely I pour out abundantly. Resist the temptation to sink into the mire of Pandemonium.

May 23, 2000:

I declare to you that I have gone before you to make crooked places straight. I have prepared the way for My will to be accomplished and for My word to go forth in mighty power. Who then will stop this work or thwart My plans and purposes? I have called you for such a time as this. But, you ask, what about these setbacks? I say, these are not setbacks. Nothing is set back! These are times of redefining and reestablishing your strength of purpose. Will you quit and sit down in the middle of the race? Or, will you catch a second wind and continue on with greater courage and determination than before? You choose, but only those who finish the race get the prize.

I say, rise up and go forth. You gain nothing by giving up.

May 24, 2000:

Arise and come out of the darkness of secret sin. Some of you, My people, have become ensnared by hidden sin and covert bondage. You have entered into this realm of darkness through trying to bring comfort to your flesh. This bondage has interrupted the flow of My life into your spirit. Some of you have opened yourselves up to unclean spirits and perversion through fantasy; others have allowed discouragement, disappointment and depression; still others are entertaining bitterness, anger and offense. Nothing is hidden from My eyes. I say to you, shake yourselves free. Turn from this evil, resist the devil, and he will flee. The wages of sin is death, but I have come that you might have life. Lay aside all darkness and come into My glorious light.

1 Corinthians 10:13-14, "No temptation has overtaken you except such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way of escape, that you may be able to bear it. Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry."

May 26, 2000:

I had a short vision of a horse with a saddle but no rider. The horse was bucking. And, the Lord said: Some of you are saddled with circumstances and situations that you are trying to throw off by bucking. I have not saddled you with these conditions to make you uncomfortable or to cause you to resist, but rather to train you to carry the responsibilities that I will give you in My kingdom. I want to be able to trust you to bear My load with quiet assurance so that you won't abort My mission. I want you to come to the understanding that this saddle won't hurt you, but will enable and prepare you. For, I have work ahead of you that you know nothing about, and unless you go through this training, you will be of no use to My kingdom. I say to you, settle down. Do not be afraid, for I am with you.

May 27, 2000:

I saw a myriad of colors released into my spiritual vision, and the Lord said: I am about to release a vibrancy into your lives that will make the past look like shades of gray. This spiritual color will be generated by greater light, the brightness of My presence that will expose My purposes and illuminate My paths in greater depth and clarity. Prepare yourselves, for what you called excitement in the past will pale when compared to what is ahead of you. What you thought was spiritual renewal in the past will seem like child's play compared to what I am about to do in your midst. It would be wisdom for you to put aside and bring closure to old issues that cause you to live in darkness; rainbows are only visible in the light.

Faith Tabernacle

111 North Fourth
P. O. Box 1148
Kremmling, CO 80459
<http://ft111.com>
ft111@uswest.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Truth and Mercy Must Marry

John L. Moore

There is a wedding that must occur which precedes the banquet between the Lamb and the Bride. It is the marriage of truth and mercy. Psalms 85:10-11 says: "Mercy and truth have met together; righteousness and peace have kissed. Truth shall spring out of the earth, and righteousness shall look down from heaven."

Throughout Scripture you find the yoking of truth with mercy. Proverbs 16:6 says: "In mercy and truth, Atonement is provided for iniquity." And Psalms 25:10: "All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth to such as keep his covenant and His testimonies."

This pattern is often found in human marriages. We hosted a wonderful pastor recently who told me: "I look for the good in everyone and sometimes I'm deceived. My wife discerns people instantly and she tells me exactly what she thinks."

The husband here is Pastoral. He may see the shortcomings in people but chooses to concentrate on their potential. The wife is prophetic. She warns of possibly dangerous character flaws. Which one is the better shepherd?

I know a similiar couple where the husband's pastoral anointing graces a gentle nature. His two rambunctious children do much as they please under his watch. The wife is prophetic. She disciplines with a firm hand and a stern eye. Which is the better shepherd?

The answer is that neither is complete in itself.

The embrace in Psalm 85 is a clear picture of the need for the prophetic and the pastoral to come together. Must of us know this but few of us see it occurring. Verse 11 gives us a clue as to why.

"Truth shall bring out of the earth," it says. The root word of "humility" is humus, which Webster's defines as "the dark organic material in soils produced by the decomposition of vegetable or animal matter." Truth should be earthy and humble.

Humility is the decomposing of the arrogance of the flesh. While it's not good to be worldly, it is good to be "down-to-earth." The prophet John Sandford often expresses his thankfulness for growing up on an Oklahoma farm because it made him "earthy".

Unfortunately, few pastors think of prophets as being humble and earthy. They often see prophets as mystical and ethereal. Air-heads, in other words.

The young prophet is often unstable because his "earth" is still the red clay of the Adamic nature. The fierce windstorms of testings force him to anchor himself in Christ. As he dies to the flesh the soil beneath him becomes enriched with nutrients. Rich soil, once watered by mercy from above, can produce life!

While it is misperceived that the prophetic is ethereal, there is a mercy that is far more mystical and less earthy than the prophetic.

The pastor who always looks for the best in people may be operating with a mercy born from false hope. This is sensual and natural and comes from the unredeemed areas of his soul. If a prophet were to prophesy from this realm we would use the terms "soulish", "mixture", and even "psychic." If he persisted his way would be bent into manipulation and control. This we call witchcraft.

False mercy is no better.

The pastoral person operating in unsanctified mercy simply seems like a nice guy. He fits our worldly idea of what a "pastor" should look and sound like. "Love, Acceptance, and Forgiveness" was a hugely popular book born from the pastoral and teaching outpourings of the 60s and 70s. This title symbolizes the ideals (idols) of false mercy: Love. Accept. Forgive. It neglects the severity of God, the chastening of sons, and yes, even the Scriptural shunning of false brethren. It allows for wolves to enter sheep pens and it shelters sin with a false covering. False mercy is as surely from the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil as soulish prophecy. There is nothing good in the natural human heart, including innate goodness.

Once human mercy is offered up as a sacrifice Godly mercy can come down from the heavens. It is this mercy -- not mercy that strains to find virtue in wickedness -- that triumphs over judgement.

False mercy will drive the prophetic from a congregation. It sees truth as unkind and intolerant.

"We do not see our signs, there is no longer any prophet, " reads Psalms 74:9. Without road signs people lose their way. "Righteousness and peace have kissed each other," says Psalms 85, but Proverbs 24:26 adds that "He who has a right answer kisses the lips." The right answer is often released through the prophetic spirit while mercy without truth is simply flattery. Conversely, truth is likened to wisdom and wisdom is related Scripturally to honey. His truth is sweet.

Truth without mercy causes people to wither. Mercy without truth grows weeds.

For the prophet and pastor to marry there must be a spirit of reciprocity . This denotes mutual respect, a giving that comes from both directions. Completeness. Balance. An equivalent counterpart. A reciprocal in mathematics means "the ratio of unity to a given quantity or expression; that by which the given quantity or expression is multiplied to produce unity.'

Math was never my subject, but it seems evident that the combining of separate but equal powers causes multiplication and unity.

In physical marriage, two become one flesh. My wife's tenderness and pastoral spirit has softened and smoothed my rough edges. My boldness and defense of truth has strengthened her. Yes, she is still who she is and I am still me.

In a spiritual marriage there is also an impartation of one to the other. It can be expressed with nouns and adjectives. The Pastor (noun) becomes Prophetic (adjective) producing a Prophetic Pastor. The Prophet (noun) receives an impartation of the Pastoral (adjective) to become a Pastoral Prophet. An adjective "qualifies" its subject. Consequently, the prophetic qualifies the Pastor and the pastoral qualifies the Prophet. Throughout Scripture the wedding of mercy and truth produces healing in the land and a paved way before the Lord. Proverbs 2:3 even warns: "Let not mercy and truth forsake you," while Psalm 89 says: "Mercy and truth go before Your face."

Yokes are not designed to place one ox ahead of the other. They are designed side-by-side so that two can pull as one. Even when yokes are multiple as with Elijah and his 12-yoke team (24 oxen) the importance is not the placement of the ox but the plowing of the field.

There can be much disputing about which is the "set man", or senior elder in a congregation where there is multiple ministry.

In all truth, the "set man" sits at the right hand of the Father. He who performs the ceremony is greater than those being wedded.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Five-Fold Debate

Bill Burns

April 2, 2000:

The church has been laboring to bring forth the new man child which represents the restoration of apostolic government. Whenever God brings forth a "new thing," Satan stands up to devour the work of the Spirit so that God's purpose will not come to pass.

One of Satan's main devices is to bring confusion into the Body of Christ. His plan is to negate the work of the Holy Spirit by confusing the issues and thereby bring disagreement, which will ultimately bring division. Division will fragment the Body of Christ, and then the different factions will end up fighting one another, destroying the unity of the Spirit, thus diminishing God's purpose.

We can already see this process taking place regarding the Father's efforts to restore apostolic order to the church. Apostolic order operating through the five-fold ministry (Ephesians 4:11) has the potential to restore apostolic power to the Body of Christ. A church in order according to divine government will bring forth the power that the present day church so desperately needs.

To offset the re-establishing of apostolic order, Satan has been promoting the "Great Five-Fold Debate." Pastors are paranoid because they are being told that they really aren't supposed to be leading the flock. The emerging prophets have been hurt because they don't have a platform in the local assembly.

Some believe that a plurality of elders should oversee the flock, and some believe in the "set man" principle. And then, we have some who call themselves apostles and others bishops; some insist on the term elders while others are overseers. Some want to change the title of pastor to shepherd, and most really don't know what to do.

If we are really honest, we must acknowledge the present confusion regarding the function of the five-fold ministry. I am not really sure what the term "five-fold" means. If it means that the five offices given by Christ (Ephesians 4:11) are to equip the sheepfold, then how do bishops, elders, and overseers fit into this scenario? And, if we really want to add more confusion, we can read 1Corinthians 12:28 and see that the apostle Paul changes the five-fold to a three-fold and added some more "giftings" to the equation.

As you can see, we now have a very large can of worms, so to speak. Up until now I have had no desire to mess around in this can of worms because things can get slimy. However, if we don't dump this can upside down and sort the worms out, we are not going to fulfill God's purposes, and the devil will continue to mess us up.

Before I dump this can upside down, please allow me to say that I do not consider myself to have "absolute truth" concerning the five-fold ministry. I believe that the unveiling of the five-fold ministry will come as a result of progressive revelation until the one perfect spiritual man is formed in the likeness of Christ.

If this is to happen, we must stop bickering and start listening to each other. We must stop being offended and begin to seek corporate revelation until we are fully persuaded by the witness of the Most Holy Spirit that we have present truth. We must earnestly seek the Father's heart concerning this matter, and we must not allow Satan to devour this new man child.

With that said, I will now dump this can of worms out and offer my nickel's worth of understanding about this subject. My prayer is that I don't add to the confusion. For some time now I have been seeking the Master for revelation concerning this subject, and I believe that He has given me some revelation, which I will pass on for your consideration.

Elders -- Many teach that elders and overseers mean the same thing, same title, but this simply isn't so. The term elder (presbuteros) means an aged person and is not an office. However, an elder (aged person) could hold an office. For instance, Peter who was an apostle (office) called himself an elder (1 Peter 5:1).

An elder is one who is considered to be mature in the faith (not necessarily advanced in years), full of wisdom and the Holy Spirit. The term "elder" is a catch-all term that could include those who hold church offices of responsibility or it could include those who operate in the gifts of the Spirit and helps or administrations (1 Corinthians 13:28).

1 Timothy 5:17 denotes a difference in types of elders -- "Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and doctrine." Some would say, "But didn't Paul tell Titus to appoint elders in every city (Titus 1:5)?"

First, we must understand that Jesus gave (called) some to be in the five-fold ministry, so when Paul said to appoint he meant to identify those called (by gifting) and set them before the congregation and acknowledge God's appointed ones and set them in the place of God's gifting.

Now, allow me to carry this to the next step by asking a question. Is it possible that Paul was telling Titus to go and appoint elders to be overseers? This is most likely, which we will see as we continue.

Overseers -- Whereas the term elder means an aged one, an overseer (episkopos) is one set to watch over the flock as an inspector. The overseer has responsibility to shepherd (feed and care for) the flock. Acts 20:28 "Therefore take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God which He purchased with His own blood." Now we have introduced the term shepherd, which we will get to later. Let's take the next step which will identify these overseers.

Bishops -- The term bishop (episkope) means essentially the same thing as overseer. It means "oversight." The apostle Paul writes in Philippians 1:1, "Paul and Timothy, bondservants of Jesus Christ, To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, with the bishops and deacons." 1 Timothy chapter 3 is the only place that qualifications for an office is fully expounded, and it is the office of a bishop. 1 Timothy 3:2 also tells us that a bishop must be able to teach.

Now, in order that we may understand where we are going, we must introduce the term "set man."

Set Man -- We know that the Old Testament establishes patterns as examples to us New Testament believers to help us understand spiritual principles. 1 Corinthians 10:11, "Now all these things happened to them as examples, and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have come."

The question is -- in the New Testament who is the set man? So, all through the Old Testament God gave (set) a man as a leader over the people. This man had authority over the people, but also had responsibility for the people. Moses was one example of this. Moses appointed elders to minister with him, but Moses was the "set man."

Who is the set man in the New Testament? Is it the pastor, apostle, prophet, etc.? Since we only have one office fully defined in the New Testament (other than deacon), we must assume it is the bishop. But, now we have another question -- who is the bishop? Well, he is the set man, but who is qualified to be a bishop (overseer) as identified by the Holy Spirit?

There is only one place in the New Testament where office order is established, and that is in 1 Corinthians 12:28, "And God has appointed these in the church: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, administrations, varieties of tongues." Paul identifies three offices -- apostles, prophets and teachers that could be set men or a set man in the church. 1 Corinthians 12:18, "But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body just as He pleased."

But, what about the five-fold? The apostle completely left out the pastor and evangelist. Why? Well, the evangelist is a traveling preacher, and so he wouldn't be set in a local congregation because he would be gone most of the time.

And, what about the pastor? Okay, let's read Ephesians 4:11, but this time very closely. "And He gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers." Notice it did not say some pastors and some teachers. A pastor/teacher will be a shepherd that qualifies under 1 Corinthians 12:18 as teachers.

Shepherds -- The word pastor (poimen) is "shepherd" and "feeder." A pastor who is also a teacher then can be a set man in the office of a bishop. A shepherd is one who feeds his sheep (teaches the word) and cares for the sheep. It is possible, however, to have those who only teach, or others who only extend pastoral care in the five-fold, but they will not be bishops (set men).

The word teacher could mean one who instructs the flock in the word of God and also cares for the flock through pastoral counsel. Most of those we call pastors today are really bishops because most of them are teachers, or we could call them shepherds by definition.

I hope at this point we can say we have sorted the worms out? Before we put them back in the can where titles are lost (they really aren't that important anyway), let's look at the bottom line. There are three offices that qualify as a set man (bishop): 1. An apostle who is able to teach. 2. A prophet who is able to teach. 3. The pastor/teacher who feeds or instructs the flock.

These three are appointed by God (1Corinthians 12:28), and if they are able to instruct and care for the sheep, then they will be set by God over a church as the authority of the Most High. They will facilitate and utilize those who operate in various offices and giftings for the work of the ministry. Ephesians 4:12-13, "For the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ, till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ."

Not all apostles or prophets or pastors will be bishops (set men). The term bishop (episkopos) means overseer and also superintendent. The set man is one who feed (instructs) and supervises (cares for) the sheep.

Authority is never given by God apart from responsibility. Those who are held responsible are accountable to God who appointed them. James 3:1, "My brethren, let not many of you become teachers, knowing that we shall receive a stricter judgment."

It has not been my intention to try to fully define the function of each office in the five-fold ministry or how these offices can flow together to the extent that one man may function in more than one office. In fact, it would take a complete book to examine the possibilities. So, I am now going to put all of the worms back in the can and label the can.

Now, let's see....what shall we label this can? Hmmmm...I think I shall label it "bond servants" and that title will include all of those "called" by the Most High.

FAITH TABERNACLE 111 North Fourth Street P. O. Box 1148 Kremmling, CO 80459 <http://ft111.com>
ft111@uswest.net Send us your full name and e-mail address to receive our prophetic bulletin.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Seven Spirits Of God

Bill Burns

June 29, 2000:

Have you ever wondered what the seven spirits of God were? Several years ago while I was studying the Book of Revelation, I began to ponder several scriptures that I had read before, but had not sought any spiritual insight into. They are:

Revelation 3:1 "And to the angel of the church in Sardis write, These things says He who has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars: I know your works, that you have a name that you are alive, but you are dead."

Revelation 4:5 "And from the throne proceeded lightnings, thunderings, and voices. Seven lamps of fire were burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God." Revelation 5:6 "And I looked, and behold, in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as though it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent out into all the earth."

From these scriptures I could see that Jesus had or held these seven spirits, which are the eyes of the Lord, and are represented by the seven lamps (lampstands) of fire. This concept is also spoken of by the Prophet Zechariah:

Zechariah 4:2 "And he said to me, 'What do you see?' So I said, 'I am looking, and there is a lampstand of solid gold with a bowl on top of it, and on the stand seven lamps with seven pipes to the seven lamps.'"

Zechariah 4:6 "So he answered and said to me: This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: 'Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,' Says the LORD of hosts."

Zechariah 4:10 tells us that these seven (lamps) are the eyes of the Lord. This also agrees with Revelation 3:6, but also included in the Revelation passage is reference to the seven horns. So, we have these images to consider:

1. The Seven Spirits--Seven is God's number of perfection. The scriptures said that Jesus had these seven spirits. This concept of perfection or fullness agrees with John 3:34 "For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit by measure." In other words, Jesus had the fullness of the Spirit without limitations which produced God's perfection.
2. The Seven Eyes--These seven eyes represent spiritual vision. Jesus had 20/20 spiritual vision. These eyes represent the ability to see by the Spirit into the Spirit world.
3. The Seven Horns--Prophetically, horns represent spiritual authority (power). Jesus has been given all authority in heaven and on earth (Matthew 28:18). Again, the number seven indicates complete authority.
4. The Seven Lamps of Fire--Represent the baptism of the Holy Spirit. John the Baptist said that Jesus will baptize with the Holy Spirit and fire. Zechariah tells us that the temple will be built, "not by might nor by power (of men), but by My Spirit, says the Lord of Hosts." It then stands to reason that the latter temple (New Testament church) would be built by the Holy Spirit. The fire of the Spirit is first purifying, and then the power of the Spirit will be demonstrated through those who are baptized by the Holy Spirit. It is interesting to me that Elisha sent Naaman to the Jordan River to dip seven times. When Naaman finally did this, he was wonderfully and completely healed. (2 Kings chapter 5) This event was a foreshadowing of the baptism of the Holy Spirit for those New Covenant believers who would seek the promise of the Father.

Jesus Himself was baptized in the Jordan when the Holy Spirit came upon Him in the form of a dove. (Matthew 3:16) He then told His disciples to wait for the promise of the Father before they left Jerusalem (Acts 1:4) and then He said: Acts 1:8 "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."

The seven spirits of God must, therefore, be the One Holy Spirit (Ephesians 4:4) who will manifest in the believer's life in seven distinct ways. If we will allow the Holy Spirit to do seven works in our lives, He will bring us into God's completed work, His perfection, in the likeness of Jesus, in the fullness of the Spirit. These are the seven facets or manifestations of the Holy Spirit in the believer's life:

1. The Spirit of Justification: "...you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus and by the Spirit of our God." We are all justified because of God's grace and by our faith, and it is the Spirit of God who draws us and empowers us to acknowledge Jesus as our Lord and Savior (1 Corinthians 12:3). This is the first work of the Spirit when one is born again.
2. The Spirit of Sanctification: 2 Thessalonians 2:13, "...God from the beginning chose you for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth." Sanctification is the process of God's grace by which the believer is separated from sin, purified by life lived in the Spirit. (Galatians 5:16, 25 and Romans 8:1-14) The fruit of the Spirit will begin to manifest as we yield to the process of sanctification.
3. The Spirit of Life: Romans 8:2, "For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death." This is the Spirit of adoption (Romans 8:15) which makes us the sons of God (Romans 8:16-19). We can now live in the resurrection power of Christ where the operation of the gifts of the Spirit cause our lives to become supernatural. The Spirit will give life to our mortal bodies. Healing and strength will come into our bodies of flesh (Romans 8:11) as well as giving us a glorified body in that day.
4. The Spirit of Truth: John 14:17 "The Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees Him nor knows Him; but you know Him, for He dwells with you and will be in you." The truth will set us free. The truth will bring revelation knowledge as we are taught by the Holy Spirit. The Spirit of truth will reveal Jesus to us (John 15:26). Vision will be given to lead us into all truth and reveal the kingdom to us. Deception will be removed, and the lies destroyed.
5. The Spirit of Wisdom: Ephesians 1:17, "That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him." Not only will the Spirit give us a knowledge of Jesus, but it will give us insight into His mind and what He is doing (1 Corinthians 2:6-16). The Holy Spirit is our teacher (John 14:26).
6. The Spirit of Deliverance: Matthew 12:28 "But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, surely the kingdom of God has come upon you." It is by the power of the Holy Spirit that we are delivered from sin and by that same Spirit demons are cast out and the powers of darkness are defeated.
7. The Spirit of Prayer: Romans 8:26, "Likewise the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered." Ephesians 6:18 tells us that all prayer should be done in the Spirit. These are the seven profound works that the Holy Spirit will do in our lives. If we allow Him to do these works in and through us, He will perfect us. There are other names of the Holy Spirit in scripture such as the Spirit of holiness, burning, etc. However, they will all be identified in the seven functions which I have listed.

May each of us seek to serve the Master and yield to these seven functions of the Holy Spirit who will change us from glory to glory into the same image of completion and fullness that our Lord Jesus Christ gave us example of.

THE SEVEN SPIRITS OF GOD -- FOLLOW-UP:

My heartfelt thanks to those of you who responded to the Seven Spirits of God. Many have asked about Isaiah 11:2 because they have been taught that these spirits listed are the seven spirits of God.

Isaiah lists only five aspects of the Holy Spirit that rested upon Jesus. The Spirit of the Lord is the one Holy Spirit that manifested in Christ as the Spirit of:

1. Wisdom and understanding (same thing) which is the Spirit of Wisdom which I listed.
2. The spirit of counsel is the Spirit of Truth.
3. The spirit of might is the Spirit of Deliverance.
4. The spirit of knowledge is the Spirit of Life i.e. knowledge of the kingdom of God. See Acts 1:3.
5. The spirit of the fear of the Lord. The word for fear is reverence; not terror. This reverence and honor for the Father became the Spirit of Prayer in the life of Jesus.

Jesus did not need the spirit of justification and sanctification because He was not a sinner. The key to understanding the seven spirits is given in Revelation 5:6. A Lamb is seen as though it had been slain. It was His death that provided justification and sanctification for the sinner saved by grace.

As I previously stated, the seven spirits of God are the one Holy Spirit manifesting seven profound works of the Holy Spirit in the life of the believer. I also said the other names of the Spirit in the scriptures will categorically be found to fit into the seven functions which I listed. Hopefully, this will bring clarity to the Isaiah 11:2 scripture.

Be blessed,
Bill

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

June 26, 2000:

Prepare yourselves in humility for a powerful manifestation of My presence in your midst. For, I am releasing a new, fresh anointing that will enliven you and quicken your spirits. This anointing will be released on those who endeavor to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. Only those who bow low in kingdom service with genuine humility will receive this fresh touch. It is written: Though the LORD is on high, yet He regards the lowly; but the proud He knows from afar. You who are lowly of heart shall see My glory in a fresh way, and there will be a powerful integration of your spirit, soul and body as you receive this new outpouring and refreshing rain of My Spirit.

June 27, 2000:

I had a quick vision of an old-fashioned, one-room school with a small group of children whispering and backbiting, talking about their classmates. And, the Lord said: This is happening in My spiritual classroom with small groups of people, perpetrated by those who would sow division, strife and contention. But, I say to you, whatever you sow, that you will also reap. Have I not said, that you will give account for every idle, unproductive word spoken?

Galatians 5:14-16, "For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' But if you bite and devour one another, beware lest you be consumed by one another! I say then: Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh."

June 28, 2000:

I am bringing you to a new level of effectiveness in My kingdom, but the enemy will contend for this new territory. Don't expect to take more spiritual ground without a fight. His points of opposition, however, are feeble in comparison with the power of My truth released in you. Use the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, in this battle as you go forth with clarity of mind, righteousness, truth, peace and faith. You are My battle axes, but this battle is still Mine. Go forth in the assurance of victory.

June 30, 2000:

Seek Me with all your heart. I say to you, keep your eye single with concentrated focus. For there are many things which vie for your attention and bring distraction from My purposes. I have set you to do a specific work in My kingdom, but many of you think what I have given you to do is too easy and mundane, and you are looking way beyond as though scanning the horizon for what mighty work I would have you to do. But, I say to you, if you are faithful in little, you will be faithful in much, and I have called you at this time to be faithful in the little things that I have given you to do. Haven't I said that My yoke is easy and My burden is light? Do not underestimate even the smallest assignment. If you plant in obedience, I will bring the increase.

July 1, 2000:

I am going before you to open doors of opportunity for ministry. Some of you have become satisfied with status quo and settled back in places of comfort and routine. But, I say to you, I am going to upset your routine and bring great surprises. You will be afforded opportunities to grow in many ways as you yield to My Spirit. This is not a time to be at ease; it is a time of preparation for what lies just ahead of you. Quiet your soul and be aware of the many ways that I will lead you and position you in places of effective ministry. Though some will minister to groups, yet most will find ministry in personal relationships.

Faith Tabernacle 111 North Fourth P. O. Box 1148 Kremmling, CO 80459 <http://ft111.com> ft111@uswest.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Tacoma

Chad Taylor

For I hear the Lord saying Tacoma will be a hub of the wheel for revival. I will make Tacoma the head and not the tail. The First and not the last. There is a residue of revival in the ground of this place, the prophetic destiny is suspended over this city and is about to be released. Like the tongues of fire on the day of Pentecost, they came over their heads, so shall it be in this hour O Tacoma. I am about to release the Spirit of destiny and purpose in your hearts. You will see these things and your hearts will be glad.

Your city has been a Jericho, now it shall be a Bethel. A open heaven will be over you Tacoma. A place of wonders, signs, and miracles. You will be known as a place of healings and miracles. For there is fountain of healing that I am about to open says the Lord. A fountain of miracles. I am about to stir the waters. You will be a Bethel to Me says the Lord.

My heart is stirred toward your children Tacoma. Know longer will they be stifled and rejected. I will put my favor on them and they will do exploits. I will visit them in the lowest places, in this wilderness will come a fountain says the Lord. Rivers from the desolate heights. In the projects and streets will come a fire. An all consuming fire from their hearts. The gang member will now be a trailblazer for revival in this hour. A pioneer.

Jonathans will be produced and Davids from your midst. Churches that have stood on opposite ends of the river will now covenant together for harvest and revival. Black and white will partner for a great catch in this hour says the Lord. Black and white will stand together in My glory. They will lift a chorus of unity that has never been seen or heard before. They will make history in Tacoma in the coming days says the Lord. They will make history. In newspapers and television they will give report of this in the coming days.

I am building a bridge of revival between Tacoma and Japan. A cross pollination. They will come in and go and bring the fire to these places and races. Prepare yourself O Tacoma, you will see now what your destiny is, a place of healing and miracles, a fountain of blessing not cursing. Your neighbors will call you blessed. Your children will rise up and call you blessed Tacoma. They will rise up and call you blessed.

Chad Taylor

Email: destiny@televar.com

Web: www.consumingfire.com

LAMENTATIONS 2:19

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

About To Take Over

Ching Co

ching@gsilink.com

March 22, 2000

For many days now, I've been seeing being played on my mind the scenes taken from two events which took place in the Old Testament. One was the time when King Solomon brought the ark to the temple and the second was when Ezra and God's people were gathered together in prayer.

THE ARK BROUGHT TO THE TEMPLE

Then Solomon summoned to Jerusalem the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes and the chiefs of the Israelite families, to bring up the ark of the Lord's covenant from Zion, the City of David. And all the men of Israel came together to the king at the time of the festival in the seventh month. (2 Chronicles 5:2-3)

The Solomon stood before the altar of the Lord in front of the whole assembly of Israel and spread out his hands. (2 Chronicles 6:12)

" Now arise, O Lord God, and come to your resting place, you and the ark of your might. May your priests, O Lord God, be clothed with salvation, may your saints rejoice in your goodness. O Lord God, do not reject your anointed one. Remember the great love promised to David your servant." (2 Chronicles 6:41-42)

When Solomon finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the Lord filled the temple. The priests could not enter the temple of the Lord because the glory of the Lord filled it. When all the Israelites saw the fire coming down and the glory of the Lord above the temple, they knelt on the pavement with their faces to the ground, and they worshipped and gave thanks to the Lord, saying, " He is good; His love endures forever." (2 Chronicles 7:1-3)

EZRA AND THE PEOPLE GATHERED TOGETHER

On the twenty-fourth day of the same month, the Israelites gathered together, fasting and wearing sackcloth and having dust on their heads. Those of Israelite descent had separated themselves from all foreigners. They stood in their places and confessed their sins and the wickedness of their fathers. They stood where they were and read from the Book of the Law of the Lord their God for a quarter of the day, and spent another quarter in confession and in worshipping the Lord their God. (Nehemiah 9:1-3)

PRESENT DAY APPLICATION

The time is coming and the time is near when the Spirit of the Living God will once more began moving in the midst of His church and among His people. Many of the gatherings that will be taking place in our midst in the coming days will be in the type of the two gatherings above. It will contains times of celebration and times of confessions.

The atmospheres of these gathering will not be directed by men but the Holy Spirit will moved in the hearts of people and will overshadow them at all point. We cannot manufacture or plan the flow of the Lord, but it will be made manifest clearly in the midst of the people.

Many times we will start in the usual manner that we have been accustomed too. But suddenly in the midst of these gatherings, the Holy Spirit will just take over and take charge of everything from there on.

THE PREPARATION IS COMING TO AN END

In the past years and months, the Holy Ghost has been moving silently and quietly and doing His work of preparation and cleansing in the hearts of His people (His temples) and many have yielded themselves to Him. Now the time for these great Holy Assemblies are about to come. The Holy Spirit is about to take over our gathering in a way that will astound many.

Let us continue to press on to the Lord, let us allow the Holy Spirit the freedom to finished what He has started in our lives, in our families, in our churches, in our cities.

The time is near, the season is now.

Come Gracious Father, pour down your glory in our midst. Come Lord Jesus, we longed for you. Come Holy Spirit, take your place in our midst.

Awaiting for that time,

Sis. Ching Co
Cebu City Philippines

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

They Are My Warriors

Hollie L. Moody

hlmoody61@aol.com

September 6, 2000: The Lord showed me an immense crowd of people trudging down a dusty dirt road.

"What do you see?" the Lord asked me.

I gazed intently into the crowd of people. I was shocked and horrified by what I saw. The people in this crowd all appeared to be injured. They were dirty, bloody and appeared to be extremely weary and weak.

Some of the people were helping to support those weaker than themselves. Still others were being borne on stretchers. As I watched how these people trudged forward, appearing so tired, I felt great discouragement emanating from them.

"Who are these people, Lord?" I asked the Lord.

"They are My warriors," the Lord replied.

To my eyes, they didn't look like warriors.

"Nevertheless, they are My warriors," the Lord said to me. I knew the Lord had discerned my thought, and I felt ashamed.

"Where is their armor, then?" I asked the Lord.

"You must look at them with the eyes of the Spirit," the Lord answered me. "Look again."

I looked once again at the crowd of people. They were still trudging wearily forward. This time when I looked at the people, I saw their armor. I saw the helmets on their heads. They all had a sword and a shield, but the swords were sheathed, and the shields appeared to be slung by some type of strap over one of their shoulders. I saw that they had some type of combat boots on their feet. There was armor covering their bodies also.

Their armor appeared well worn and even dented in some places. The swords were bloody. Their boots were caked with mud and dust, and were split open. All the people were covered with dust and blood, as was their armor.

"What happened to these people?" I asked the Lord.

"They have been engaging the enemy in battle," the Lord replied.

"Where are they going now?" I asked the Lord.

"To be cared for," the Lord replied. "Behold!"

I saw that the Lord was pointing and turned to see what He was pointing at. I saw what appeared to be a hospital. I was puzzled when I saw the hospital. I didn't understand its significance.

In front of the hospital, a new group of people was beginning to form. This new group of people appeared excited, restless and impatient. They all appeared to be quite young (from children on up to young adults). They kept glancing impatiently down the road towards the Lord and I, and towards the weary group of warriors. When they saw the weary group of warriors coming towards them, they began to cheer. Some of the warriors lifted up their heads and stared down the road when they heard the cheers. Most of them, kept their heads down and continued to trudge slowly forwards.

The group of warriors came closer to the group of people in front of the hospital. When the group in front of the hospital saw the injuries and dejection of the warriors, they fell silent. The warriors continued to trudge onwards, until they reached the new group of people. Silently, the new group of people parted for the warriors and let them pass through their midst.

When the warriors reached the doors of the hospital, I saw doctors and nurses begin to stream from the doors of the hospital towards the warriors. The doctors and nurses began to rush the warriors into the hospital.

"What is happening to the warriors?" I asked the Lord.

"Come with Me," the Lord replied.

Together, the Lord and I walked into the hospital. I saw many of the warriors on gurneys or sitting in chairs with their heads down and their eyes closed. As the doctors and nurses began to care for the wounds of the warriors, I heard groans and cries of pain as the wounds were being cared for.

The Lord and I went inside what appeared to be operating rooms. We watched silently as the doctors and nurses began to perform surgery on some of the warriors. Some of the wounds were external, and some of the wounds were internal. Every warrior, though, had suffered some type of wound.

The Lord and I then walked into the recovery rooms, and into the rooms of the patients. The warriors that had had more extensive wounds, had been anesthetized, and were sleeping deeply and peacefully. Many of them were in darkened, silent rooms.

I then became aware that while I had been observing what was transpiring around me, the Lord had been going from warrior to warrior. He was touching them, soothing them, ministering to them. I became aware of His words of praise and encouragement to the warriors. As the Lord touched each warrior, I saw that warrior as if a great weight and burden was lifted from them. I sensed peace coming upon them, and within them.

"Come with Me," the Lord said to me.

I followed the Lord silently from the busy, bustling hospital. The other group of people was still in front of the hospital. They appeared slightly confused and perplexed. Some of them had started down the road. The others were calling them to come back and join them; that it wasn't time yet to leave. I didn't understand what they meant by it not being time.

"Who are these people?" the Lord asked me, indicating the group of people standing in front of the hospital.

"Lord, I don't know," I replied.

"These are the new warriors I am preparing to send back out into the battle," the Lord answered.

I stared at them once again, and felt alarmed and a bit dismayed. Before I could say anything, the Lord spoke to me.

"They don't appear to you to be ready for the type of battle you have seen that the other warriors were engaged in," the Lord said.

"They have no armor!" I cried out to the Lord. "They'll be slaughtered without any armor on."

"I always provide armor for each of My warriors," the Lord replied to me. "Whether they don it is their own choice."

"The warriors I showed you have been in great warfare. They are exhausted and wounded. I am calling them aside to become strong again. They have battled on the behalf of many, and have willingly received wounds meant for others to shield others. Now, it is time for them to be shielded. I am calling for a changing of the guard. I am raising up a new group of people to go out and do spiritual warfare."

"What is the battle for?" I asked the Lord.

"One of these battles is the fiercest battle of all," the Lord replied. "Yet so very few are actually aware of this battle."

"Which battle is it?" I asked the Lord.

"It is the battle for the hearts and minds and souls of the children" the Lord replied. "Behold!"

I turned to see where the Lord was pointing, and saw an immense, innumerable group of children of all ages. A dark cloud was over these children. Demons were flying around the heads of the children, and walking through the midst of the children. The demons were whispering to the children, and showing them things they were holding in their hands. The children were excited and fascinated by what the demons were showing them. The children were reaching out eagerly to grasp what the demons had in their hands.

I looked closer and saw that the demons were demonstrating magic tricks to the children. The children were enchanted by the tricks, and enthralled. When the demons moved, the children followed them. When the demons showed them something, the children reached for it. I felt that the children had no concept or idea that it was demons who were showing them these things.

"What is going on?" I asked the Lord as I turned back towards Him.

"The minds and hearts and souls of the children are being corrupted, bought and won by the occult," the Lord replied. "Parents are unaware of the true nature of many of the things they have allowed their children to buy, watch or participate in. The parents think these things are harmless, and the children enjoy them. If the enemy can seduce the children, he has won battles that will never be fought."

"How can this battle be fought?" I asked the Lord.

"Through wisdom, discernment and prayer," the Lord replied. "I will be using a new breed of warriors for this particular battle."

The Lord pointed to the group of young people still standing impatiently in front of the hospital. Those who had left because they were too impatient to wait, I saw were already discouraged, and were dropping out by the side of the road.

"I will use the young to win the young," the Lord said to me.

I felt troubled by this.

"Why are you troubled by this?" the Lord asked me.

I wasn't surprised that the Lord knew my thoughts. "Are these young people able to engage in this battle? Are they aware of what they are up against? Do they have the wisdom for this battle?"

"It is the intercessory prayers of the war-weary warriors who will shield and enable the young group of new warriors to battle for the children," the Lord replied. "This new, young group of warriors knows the depths of satan; they have been there and have been delivered. They know very well what is truly transpiring. More even than many of the parents know or comprehend, these new young warriors know and comprehend."

I watched as, at a silent signal from the Lord, the new, young group of warriors was released and commissioned to go out and battle for the children. From within the hospital, I heard the prayers of the wounded, older warriors for the new warriors.

God save our children.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Angel And The Honey

Kathryn Walters

An Angelic Visitation and Encouragement to PRESS IN to the LORD

A TESTIMONY WITH A MESSAGE!

During a week-end at the end of last year ( 1999) I was home and I planned to spend time with the Lord and pray-

On the Saturday morning I woke up and being very English I went and made myself a cuppa tea. When I returned to my bedroom I sat up in bed and began to wait on the Lord - These Saturday appointments I have with God are very powerful and wonderful - He just shows up. The Presence of the Lord came very strong into my room and I began to pray.

All of a sudden I heard footsteps walking across my kitchen and coming toward the bedroom door, where I was praying. I knew there was no one in the house so I thought to myself , "Hmm must be an angel." Next thing I knew, there was an angel sitting on the side of my bed.

A TEASPOON FULL OF HONEY

Although he was sitting, I knew he was very tall.. He had in his hand a teaspoon full of honey - it smelled like the clover honey you get in the north. Then my mouth was filled with the flavor of honey. I didn't see the angel now because he didn't manifest his presence - but I sensed he was still there in the room. He also was getting my focus on the honey and not himself. I wondered what it was all about and I looked up a couple of scriptures about honey but it didn't seem to gel in my mind.

So, I asked him, "What is this with the honey?"

HAVE YOU NOT READ OF JONATHAN AND THE HONEY?

The angel said to me, "Have you never read about Jonathon - when he ate the honey - his eyes were enlightened?"

So I had a mind to check it out of course. I found the scriptures he referred to in 1 Samuel 14: Saul had forbidden the soldiers to eat but Jonathon had not heard it. When they came through the woods, Jonathon reached and dipped his rod in the honeycomb and ate it.

When the soldiers rebuked him, he said, "...See I pray you how my eyes have been enlightened because I tasted a little of this honey."

After that the presence of the Lord got stronger and stronger and then for 2 1/2 hours I saw open visions.

THE SHIP FROM WALES

It was during this time that I saw the ship of Wales which appeared in my room. (Posted at: <http://www.elijahlist.com/wales062200.htm>)

Since that time as I have traveled various places here in the US and in the UK, I have continually smelled the honey in many meetings, especially during ministry times when I have been praying for people.

GOD WANTS HIS PEOPLE MORE AND MORE--SEEING IN THE SPIRITUAL REALM

What does this mean?

The honey represents the enlightenment of the eyes or the revelation of the Spirit. God never just does one thing for one person only - but He pours out His Spirit and anointing over the whole Body to those who will receive.

He wants us to see in the Spirit realm - so that we may see what He sees - what HE sees is MOSTLY very different from what WE see.

Press in - take time-WAIT ON THE LORD.

Blessings -

Kathie Walters

Special!!! Kathie's new angel book -"Angels-Watching Over YOU" Kathie's books and tapes .

<http://www.goodnews.netministries.org/kathie.htm>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Tanzania

Elizabeth Jordaan

Moderator's note: [Allison Pappenfus]

Elizabeth Jordaan ejord@mweb.co.za has sent this fascinating post about Tanzania. I commend to everyone the description of prophetic acts that underline the prayer and declarations that the team made on this journey. In addition - the insight into the very spiritual nature of Africa runs through this post. The theologians amongst us may be interested to know that Africa is accepted amongst many academic Theologians as the most spiritually aware continent on earth today.

Please take time to read this if you can - to skim it is to deny the spirit of God the opportunity to write his agenda for Africa into your prayer itinerary.

During a recent visit to Tanzania God amazed me once again with His faithfulness. During the Highway through Africa, we faced strong resistance in Tanzania. One of the intercessors on our team commented that the battle was against an unchallenged principality. Well, at this stage in time, Christians have challenged this principality in Africa on more than one occasion. I was encouraged to witness and experience the depth of repentance from idolatry in the hearts of the believers during a recent prayer conference in Tanzania. As the representatives of the Red People in 1999, repented before the Lord for laying the ancient foundations of idolatry and witchcraft, a new foundation of repentance and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ was laid in Tanzania. Since then, God has spoken into the hearts of the believers from different tribes to repent of their own tribal involvement in idolatry and witchcraft. A plan was formed to visit every tribal shrine in the country to repent of blood sacrifices and covenants made with the spiritual forces on behalf of the different tribal groups in the country.

As we entered Tanzania through Malawi during June 1999 on the Highway through Africa, we received a prophetic word from the Lord concerning a womb that needed to be closed. En route to Kondoa, near Kolo, the Lord spoke to us about a "false bride" in Africa, a "womb" that needed to be closed up and the "umbilical cord" cut. The area between the equator and 20 degrees north is known as the fragmentation belt. Many African nations had their origin here, evolving from the "mother nation". At least 80% of the languages spoken in Africa, are spoken here. Most of the migration routes diverge from this area, which allows a mingling of all the different cultures, religions and languages to take place. In a spiritual and ethnological sense, this area can be seen as the "incubator" or "womb", in which ideas are conceived, transformed and then "birthed" or "channelled" into different directions via the migration and trade routes.

Although we cannot prove it beyond a shadow of a doubt, the first migrations into Africa seemed to have taken place via the land bridge between Yemen and Ethiopia. The first peoples settled in Ethiopia, especially in the fertile areas of the Blue Nile. Secondary migrations spread from Ethiopia via the Blue Nile to Egypt and south via the fertile Rift Valley and the White Nile in Sudan. Later migrations from Egypt, Sudan and Libya populated West Africa. The ancestors of the Red People were the first people to move south through the migration route of the Great Rift Valley, opening the "birth canal". With them they brought the knowledge of witchcraft and idolatry in worshipping the spirits of the rocks and the rain, and as they migrated they covenanted with the spirit world, leaving visible "altars" as prove of the covenants. In the light of this information, we deduced that God wanted us to cut the link between the Red People and this spiritual "womb", and cancel the covenants that formed the foundation for witchcraft and idolatry in the continent by closing up or sealing the "womb".

Africa is a "fatherless continent". In history, including church history, Islamic history and African culture, fathers were always away from their homes, leaving the mother to bring up the children. The slave trade added to this dimension in a dramatic sense. In this "fatherless" state, the people turned to "Mother Africa" to supply in their needs. The more involved they became in fertility rituals to secure their bonds with the land, the more were they controlled by the spiritual forces. In addition to this, palaeontologists call the Olduvai Gorge in eastern Tanzania, the "cradle of mankind" or the "birthplace of humanity", adding to the concept of this area as a "womb" or place of incubation.

For this closing up of the womb, the Lord shared some principles with us: First of all, the battle against the forces of idolatry and witchcraft was not ours but the Lord's. One impression that repeated itself was that the Lord would be the ONLY one to receive ALL the glory resulting from this victory. Secondly, in this battle, God was calling the whole of Africa to repentance, to turn from idolatrous ways to worship Him alone (Jeremiah 3:9,14,17). Thirdly, for this kind of battle, God required absolute purity and holiness from the soldiers accompanying Him in the battle. The outcome of the battle against idolatry and witchcraft was depended on the condition of our hearts and caused us to search our own hearts, attitudes and motives and deal with selfishness, pride, and self-reliance, as well as any form of idolatry we had ourselves. The strategy was simple: Repentance with absolute humility and brokenness, total surrender, total commitment and total obedience. The battle raged for two weeks as we travelled from Dodoma to Kondo, Olduvai Gorge and Mt. Kilimanjaro.

The breakthrough came as the Lord guided us to declare a prophetic judgment (Hosea 5:4) against the spirit of idolatry (harlotry) and witchcraft, masquerading as Mother Africa, the one to care for her children, demanding ancestral fertility rites and sacrifices, bloodshed through ethnic wars and endless religious ceremonies and feasts. The strategy the Lord gave us was to "break the clay pot". In Jer 29:1-13, the prophetic act of breaking a clay pot is described. The breaking of the clay pot suggested God's judgment on the enemy/harlot/idolatry. An ancient custom in Egypt was to write the name of the enemy on pottery, and then to break it in hope that the power of the enemy will be broken. In Rev 2:27 there is a prophecy that Jesus will break the nations, who commit idolatry under the influence of Jezebel, like a clay pot. We realised that God was asking us to demonstrate the declaration of judgment on the spirit of Babylon, which forms the root of all idolatry and false religion. It was then that we realised why God was so serious about holiness, because who can stand before a holy God about to bring judgment? We remembered the words of the prophet: "In Your wrath, remember mercy, o Lord." (Hab 3:2). When God was pronouncing judgment, He was always ready to extend mercy when people repented and turned to Him. As we stood at the foot of Mt Kilimanjaro, we pronounced the Lord's intentions of bringing judgment on the principality controlling witchcraft and idolatry. A strong proclamation was made against "Mother Africa", that God said she is not His wife (Hosea 2:1-3) and that He will expose her as a false bride. The breaking of the pot brought the final release in our spirits.

That same night Jone, an African intercessor, had a dream. In his dream the team was sitting on the slope of Mt Kilimanjaro. From the valley below came a piercing cry and the next moment two giant soldiers, dressed in camouflaged soldier's outfits, came running from the top of the mountain down into the valley. After a while they reappeared, carrying a pole on their shoulders. As they came closer we saw that a big snake was tied to the pole. It was a strange snake with two tails. The soldiers dumped the dead snake in front of us. While we were looking on in amazement, a big, fat woman appeared in the valley and made her way up to where we were sitting. She was weeping as she sat down next to the snake. Jone asked her why she was weeping? She pointed to her stomach and he saw that her womb was cut open. She explained to him that she could no longer conceive or give birth. Jone asked the Lord to explain the dream to him. The Lord answered that the snake was the witchcraft and idolatry we dealt with in confession and repentance. The woman is the Queen of Africa (Mother). The snake was cut out of her womb and she could no longer conceive or birth any witchcraft or idolatry into the continent. But she was still alive.

Prayer focus: I believe that God accepted the repentance of the Red People and broke the foundation of idolatry. Idolatry is sin against God Himself. It is the ultimate form of rejection. God likens it to adultery. In this sense, Africa, as a continent committed adultery in the extreme, not only rejecting God, but also causing Him to be repulsed at the sight of our idolatry. None of us can distance ourselves from this sin, so let us come before our Lord in humility and brokenness and beg for His forgiveness. We need the outpouring of God's grace and mercy on this continent. Millions of Africans are still bound up by this principality and daily worship this false bride. Thousands more think they are free but are caught in the net of syncretism, a mixture between the truth and the lie. Others are trapped in comfort and are unwilling to commit themselves to see the whole continent turn to the Lord Jesus Christ as her only God. Let us pray that God will open our eyes to see as He does, to weep as He does, to intercede as He does and to preach the gospel of the Kingdom with such power as He did. Pray that whole nations will repent of idolatry and turn to embrace the Living God. Ask the Lord to give Christians the courage and determination to speak out against idolatry and witchcraft, and to break down all holy places, shrines and altars that caused God to remove His favour from Africa. Let us as a continent resist this principality and cause it to flee from us (James 4:7). Lastly, ask the Lord to pour out His Spirit on this continent, to bathe us in His Presence and to draw us with cords of love, until He can once again embrace this continent and receive pure worship.

AfricaProphecy is dedicated to disseminating Prophetic Words for Africa. Moderator: Alison Papenfus, AfProphecy@icon.co.za To subscribe: <http://www.onelist.com/subscribe/AfricaProphecy> To unsubscribe: <http://www.onelist.com/unsubscribe/AfricaProphecy>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

Taming Our Tongues

Priscilla Van Sutphin

God is taking us into a place of overcoming the sin in our lives that has so easily beset us...and a reflection often times of overcoming is what comes out of our mouth. Jesus said, "Hear and understand: not what goes into the mouth defiles a man, but what comes out of the mouth; this defiles a man." Matthew 15:10b-11 NKJ That means, the pent up rage, anger, lust, insecurities, fears, greed, murders, bitterness, covetousness, jealousies.... that are hidden in our hearts when we are not yet healed completely in our soul, are reflected in our speech. Our speech often betrays what demons have strongholds in our lives. Listening to people and what they say, how they say it, is one key to discernment.

Following is a list of definitions. Definitions are important. Oftentimes people accuse others of things they don't even truly understand what those things mean. Any accusation we make against others...is a judgement. And we are not judges. There is only One Judge, Christ Jesus our Lord. Also we cannot defend ourselves without accusing someone else. Jesus was led as a lamb to the slaughter. There were times he defended himself, however, against Pharisees usually. So there are times to defend, and times to be quiet and just pray. We must be led of God, and not our own hurt and pain when doing so. A lot of Christians ASSUME that whatever they think is from God, just because the Spirit of God indwells them. But this is far from the truth. We are easily led away by our own desires, our own flesh. When we say things to others, we should consider first, what would YOU want me to say LORD? We must be dependent on God for direction, or else we are depending on our own self, our flesh, and our own earthly wisdom. James 3:17 tells us "Wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy.

Definitions:

Gossip: A person who HABITUALLY retails facts, rumors, or behind-the-scenes information of an intimate, personal or sensational nature. Idle talk especially about other people's affairs.

Slander: Accusing falsely. Those given to finding FAULT with the demeanor and conduct of others, and spreading their innuendoes and criticisms in the church; in 2 Tim 3:3. Dictionary: 1) utterance of false charges or misrepresentations which defame and damage reputation . 2) a false tale or report , maliciously uttered orally, tending to injure the reputation of another and constituting a legal tort.

Malign: 1) to regard with intense ill-will or bitter dislike or hatred: resentment 2) to utter injuriously misleading or deliberately and injuriously false reports about: induce misunderstanding of and lower regard for by falsehood or misrepresentation. (suggests malevolent calculation as a motivating force) and specific and subtle misrepresentations.

Backbiter, backbiting: Greek (katalalos=backbiter, and katalalia=backbiting) "to speak against" or to speak evil against someone. Babblers 1) Greek=spemalogos (4691-Strong's) is primarily an adjective, but came to be used as a noun signifying a CROW, or some other bird, picking up seeds (sperma=seed, lego=to collect). Then it was used of a man accustomed to hang about the streets and markets, picking up scraps which fall from loads; hence a parasite, who lives at the expense of others, a hanger on. Met aphorically it was used of a man who picks up scraps of information, and retails them secondhand, a plagiarist, or of those who make a show, in unscientific style, of knowledge obtained from MISUNDERSTANDING lectures.

2) kenophonia (2757) "babbling" from keno= empty, and phone=a sound; signifies empty discussion, discussion of useless subjects, 1 Tim 6:20 and 2 Tim 2:16. See whisperer (greek 5588) seen in Romans 1:29 and (5 587 greek) for whispering which is used of secret SLANDER in 2 Corinthians 12:20: For I am fearful that somehow or other I may come and find you not as I desire to find you, and that you may find me too not as you want to find me that perhaps there may be factions ( quarreling ) jealousy, temper ( wrath, intrigues, rivalry, divided loyalties ), selfishness, whispering, gossip, arrogance (self-assertion), and disorder among you. (amplified)

Ecclesiastes 10:11 of a murmured enchantment. Katalalos is a backbiter and synonymous with whisperer, Rom. 1:30. The distinction being that this denotes one guilty of open calumny (false and malicious statement) (psithuristes; one who hides it clandestinely (in hidden, secret, underhanded, stealthily).

(The following inserted article has an unknown author and was given to me by a charismatic Presbyterian friend.)

Talkativeness " Talkativeness is utterly ruinous to deep spirituality. It is one of the hindrances to deep, solid union with God. Notice how people will tell the same thing over and over how insignificant trifles are magnified by a world of words; how that things that should be buried are dragged out into gossip; how a worthless nonessential is argued and disputed over; how the solemn, deep things of the Holy Spirit are rattled over in a light manner until one who has the real baptism of divine silence in his heart, feels he must unceremoniously tear himself away to some lonely room or forest, where he can gather up the fragment of his mind, and rest in God.

Not only do we need cleansing from sin, but from our natural human spirit a radical death to its own noise and activity and worldliness. See the evil effects of so much talk. First it dissipates the spiritual power. The thought and feeling of the soul are like powder and steam the more they are condensed, the greater their power.

Second it is a waste of time. If the hours spent in useless conversation were spent in secret prayer or deep reading, we would soon reach a region of soul life and divine peace beyond our present dreams.

Third, loquacity {which is a spirit- insert} inevitably leads to saying unwise, or unpleasant or unprofitable things. In religious conversation we soon churn up all the cream our souls have in them and the rest of our talk is all pale skim milk until we get alone again, and feed on His green pasture, until the cream rises again. The Holy Spirit warns us that " in the multitude of words there lacketh not sin." And James 1:19 NKJ says So then, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath; It is impossible for even the best of saints to talk beyond a certain point without saying something unkind, or severe, or foolish, or erroneous. We must settle this personally. If others are noisy and gossip, I must determine to live in quietness and humility of heart. I must guard my speech as a sentinel does a fortress and with all respect for others, I must many a time cease from conversation or withdraw from company to enter deep communion with my precious Lord. To walk in the Spirit we must avoid talking for talk's sake, or merely to entertain. { there is time for fun } To speak effectively we must speak in God's appointed time, and in harmony with the indwelling Holy Spirit.

"He that hath knowledge spareth his words. Proverbs 17:27" " In quietness and confidence shall be your strength." Isaiah 30: 15

" Do not be rash with your mouth, and let not your heart utter anything hastily before God. For God is in heaven, and you on earth; therefore let your words be few. For a dream comes through much activity. And a fool's voice is known by his many words. Ecclesiastes 5:2-3 NKJ

God has had me to post this, not because I have walked perfectly in it, but, am overcoming like everyone else. The scriptures I always find are convicting and say enough without explanation sometimes. So here are more on the mouth and it's best or improper uses. JAMES 4: 11-12 Amp My brethren, do not speak evil about or accuse one another. He that maligns a BROTHER or judges his brother is maligning and criticizing the Law and judging the Law. But if you judge the LAW, you are NOT a practicer of the Law but a CENSOR and JUDGE [ of it ]. ONE ONLY IS THE LAWGIVER AND JUDGE-[the ONE] Who has the ABSOLUTE POWER OF LIFE AND DEATH- Who is able to save and destroy. [But you], WHO ARE YOU THAT YOU PRESUME TO PASS JUDGEMENT ON YOUR NEIGHBOR ?

Psalms 141:3 Amp Set a guard, O Lord, before my mouth; keep watch at the door of my lips.

Job 16:5 Amp But I would strengthen and encourage you with [the words of] my mouth, and the consolation of my lips would soothe your suffering. Psalm 12:2-4 Amp To his neighbor each one speaks words without use or worth or truth; with flattering lips and double heart [deceitfully] they speak. May the Lord cut off all flattering lips and the tongue that speaks proud boasting. Those who say, with our tongue we prevail, our lips are our own [to command at will]; who is lord and master over us?

Psalm 15:1-3 NAS O Lord, who may abide in Thy tent? Who may dwell on Thy holy hill? He who walks with integrity, and works righteousness, and speaks truth in his heart. He does not slander with his tongue, nor does evil to his neighbor, nor takes up a reproach against his friend;

Psalm 34:13 NAS Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking deceit.

Psalm 59:12 Amp For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips let them even be trapped and taken in their PRIDE, and for the cursing and lying which they utter.

Proverbs 4:24 Amp Put away from you false and dishonest speech, and willful and contrary talk put far from you.

Proverbs 6:16-19 Amp These six things the Lord hates; indeed, seven are an abomination to Him; A PROUD look [ the spirit which makes one overestimate himself, and underestimate others ] a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that manufactures wicked thoughts and plans, feet that are swift in running to evil, a false witness who breathes out lies [even under oath], and he who sows discord among his brethren. Proverbs 10:18-20 Amp He who hides hatred is of lying lips, and he who utters slander is a [ self-confident] fool. In a multitude of words transgression is not lacking, but he who restrains his lips is prudent. The tongues of those who are upright and in right standing with God are as choice silver; the minds of those who are wicked and out of harmony with God are of little value.

Proverbs 17:27 He who has knowledge spares his words, and a man of understanding has a cool spirit.

Proverbs 13:3 Amp He who guards his mouth keeps his life, but he who opens wide his lips will come to ruin. Isaiah 32:6-7 NAS For a fool speaks nonsense, and his heart inclines toward wickedness, to practice ungodliness and to speak error against the Lord, to keep the hungry person unsatisfied and to withhold drink from the thirsty. As for a rogue, his weapons are evil; He devises wicked schemes to destroy the afflicted with slander, even though the needy one speaks what is right. See Jeremiah's complaint: Jeremiah 20:1-13 false prophets against the true.

Ecclesiastes 9:17 Amp The words of wise men heard in quiet are better than the shouts of him who rules among fools.

Eccl.10:12 Amp The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious and win him favor, but the lips of a fool will consume him.

Matthew 5: 22-26 You have heard that it was said to the people long ago, 'Do not murder, and anyone who murders will be subject to judgement.' But I tell you that anyone who is angry with his brother will be subject to JUDGEMENT. Again, anyone who says to his brother, 'Raca', is answerable to the Sanhedrin. But anyone who says 'You fool!' will be in danger of the FIRE OF HELL. "Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled to your brother; then come and offer your gift. Settle matters quickly with your adversary who is taking you to court. Do it while you are still with him on the way, or he may hand you over to the judge, and the judge may hand you over to the officer, and you may be thrown into prison. I tell you the truth, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny.'

Matthew 12:34-37 "You brood of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak what is good ? For the mouth speaks out of that which fills the heart. The good man out of his good treasure brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of his evil treasure brings forth what is evil. And I say to you, that every word that men shall speak, they shall render account for it in the day of judgement. For by your words you shall be justified, and by your words you shall be condemned."

Romans 1:28-32 NKJ And just as they did not see fit to acknowledge God any longer, "God gave them over to a depraved mind, to do those things which are not proper, being filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, greed, evil; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malice; they are gossips, slanderers, haters of God, insolent , arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, without understanding, untrustworthy, unloving, unmerciful; and although they know the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, they not only do the same, but also give hearty approval to those who practice them.

Ephesians 4:29-32 Amp Let no foul or polluting language, not evil word, nor unwholesome talk [ever] come out of your mouth; but only such [speech] as is good and beneficial to the spiritual progress of others, as is fitting to the need and occasion, that it may be a blessing and give GRACE (God's favor) to those who hear it. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, (do not offend, or vex, or sadden him) by whom you were sealed (marked, branded as God's own, secured) for the day of redemption of final deliverance through Christ from evil and the consequences of sin. Let all bitterness, indignation, and wrath {passion, rage, bad temper) and resentment (anger, animosity) and quarreling (brawling, clamor, contention) and SLANDER (evil speaking, abusive or blasphemous language) be banished from you, with all malice (spite, ill-will or baseness of any kind). And become useful and helpful, and KIND to one another, TENDERHEARTED (compassionate, understanding, loving-hearted), forgiving one another [readily and freely], as God in Christ forgave you. Ephesians 5:1-4 Amp Therefore, be imitators of GOD - copy Him and follow His example as well-beloved children [imitate their father]. And walk in LOVE esteeming and delighting in one another as Christ loved us and gave Himself up for us, a slain offering and sacrifice to God [for you, so that it became] a sweet fragrance, [Ez. 20:41] But immorality (sexual vice) and all impurity [of lustful, rich, wasteful living] or greediness must not even be named among you, as is fitting and proper among saints (God's consecrated people). Let there be no filthiness (obscenity, indecency) nor foolish and sinful (silly and corrupt) talk, nor coarse jesting, which are not fitting or becoming; but instead voice your thankfulness [to God].

Philippians 2:14-15 Amp Do all things without grumbling and faultfinding and complaining [against God] and questioning and doubting [among yourselves], that you may show yourselves to be blameless and guileless, innocent and uncontaminated, children of God without blemish (faultless, unrebukable) in the midst of a crooked and wicked generation-[spiritually] perverted and perverse. Among whom you are seen as bright lights stars or beacons shining out clearly in the [dark] world;

Philippians 4:8 Amp For the rest, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is worthy of reverence and is honorable and seemly, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely and loveable whatever is kind, and winsome and gracious, if there is any virtue and excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think on and weigh and take account of these things FIX YOUR MINDS ON THEM. Colossians 4:6 NAS Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned, as it were, with salt, so that you may know how you should respond to each person. See 1 Timothy 6, Titus 3, James 1:19, 26 Amp, and JAMES Ch 3 Amplified is GREAT.

<http://upstream.homestead.com>
upstream10@hotmail.com

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Apple Of God's Eye

Steve Shultz

REPORT AND PERSPECTIVE ON ISRAEL

"THE APPLE OF GOD'S EYE"

By Steve Shultz, THE ELIJAH LIST

Steve's email: steve@elijahlist.com

Note: My apologies that this report on our trip to Israel was so long! You should have seen all the stuff I left out that I was going to talk about!! Anyway, this may give many a perspective on our trip. I call it "perspective soup" since there are so many types of impressions mixed in. Hope you find it informative. Blessings to all on THE ELIJAH LIST!!

Zech 2:8 " . . . for whoever touches you (Israel) touches the apple of his eye."

It's been three weeks since THE ELIJAH LIST group returned from THE HOLY LAND. Twenty-nine of us went to Israel.

I've been struggling for these few weeks as to how I could possibly encapsulate the trip and give readers a perspective. After all, shelves of books have and are being written about Israel and Jerusalem. What is one more report?

Israel, and more specifically Jerusalem is no less than the focal point of the entire earth, after all. While we were in Jerusalem, Barak was in Washington, D.C. As the peace talks broke down in Washington, it was our last hours in Israel as a group. Our returning flight, and Barak's flight back home, no doubt crossed in the air.

How important is this tiny piece of land called Jerusalem? Put one way---Were an attempt made today-- by Jewish citizens, to tear down the Moslems' Mosque, the "Dome of the Rock," which sits on top of the Temple Mount, (where Solomon's and Herod's Temple once stood), it would be tantamount to the beginning of World War III -- Literally. World Alliances on both sides would quickly join the battle and there would ensue global chaos and destruction. With issues that important and complex, what can I, a first-time visitor say after only one visit?

WHAT PERSPECTIVE DO I WRITE FROM?

I'm torn!

There's the Biblical perspective of walking where Jesus walked and taught. Then there's the actual archeological sites we visited, or the Spiritual encounters we had in our private devotions and thoughts. There's the College-course worth of teaching by our Jewish-Believing Guide, Avner Boskey who holds a degree in "The Second Temple Period" in Israel's history. And of course, there's the Geo-political aspects of current events with impending conflicts.

So I've decided to skip around and give you a little bit of "perspective soup." Because, -- the way I write, is roughly the way I processed the information and sites as they came to me. Some were spiritual, others analytical, but the Love of Yeshua for all peoples, Jewish and Gentile alike. . . Jewish and Arab alike, captured me the most. I could not help but be taken in by all of these people. None of those crowding into the Old City of Jerusalem, be they Jewish or Arab, are unloved by God. But the Jewish people seem to have a Scriptural prophetic calling and ministry to the world. Scripture is clear:

Rom 11:15 15 For if their [The Jewish people] rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?

WILD BY NATURE

Let's get the whole picture, from a Gentile perspective. Many have been taught to say, "The Jews rejected Christ, so then God took the Gospel to the Gentiles. Partially true, but only part of the story. The end is better than the beginning. We just read about "LIFE FROM THE DEAD" when the Jews come to Messiah. But read ahead just a few more verses:

Rom 11:24-27 "After all, if you were cut out of an olive tree that is wild by nature, and contrary to nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more readily will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree! I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers, so that you may not be conceited: Israel has experienced a hardening in part until the full number of the Gentiles has come in. And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written: "The deliverer will come from Zion; he will turn godlessness away from Jacob. And this is my covenant with them when I take away their sins."

WHAT THEY SAY IN BETHLEHEM

Regarding the above Scripture--it turns out that in Bethlehem, one of the things they are famous for, is olive wood carvings. People all over the world own Christian carvings from Bethlehem. The owner from a carving's store explained to our group that though the olive tree lasts hundreds of years, it is easier to start a NEW tree from an old stump or root. It takes too long to start a new olive tree, so they graft new shoots into an OLD olive tree. Do you see the picture?

Israel was the original olive tree. We, the Gentiles, were the wild shoots, but it was easier, faster, more expedient to graft us into THEIR cultivated olive tree. Paul says, if you, being wild Gentiles could be grafted into a cultivated ISRAELI root (for "Salvation is from the Jews" --Jesus said in John 4:22) ---- How much more READILY can Israel be grafted BACK into their own OLIVE TREE. Therefore, as Paul says to us Gentiles, "DON'T BE ARROGANT."

What the Jewish people lost in History (His Story), they will regain--their true Messiah. And when they do, it will be LIFE FROM THE DEAD for all the world. Yes, we the Gentiles are to provoke the Jews to jealousy by our lives in Christ (something that hasn't happened much--yet), but then, in return, the Jewish people's acceptance of Messiah, will result in TRUE LIFE to all who are in Christ.

THE SHOT IN THE ARM I NEEDED

Have you ever needed a new and fresh perspective on the Word of God? Visit Israel and you will have it. For me, and for members of my own family, the report is the same . . . "Now when I read the Bible, it makes more sense, and I can picture the very places things happened."

I can truthfully say that the Written Word has come alive because of this visit--like it has not "lived" for many years. Beyond that, while we stayed in Israel, my prophetic dream life took off again. One gets the feeling---no, --- one gets the KNOWING that there is something beyond special about this LAND. Even while wars and rumors of wars abound, the Spiritual aspect of this land was evident. This is where HE, the Savior of the world not only walked-- It is the one place God CHOSE for Him to walk--and where HE chose to walk. . . among the common people of the day. Also, among a lot of dirt and rocks. How easy-to-visualize it must have been when Jesus told Peter, "On this ROCK I will build my Church." Peter later told the Sanhedrin that Jesus was the "Stone" that the Builders had rejected--but Yeshua had become the "Chief Cornerstone!" Jesus used the landscape of rocks and buildings to paint this picture:

BECOMING LIVING STONES TOGETHER

1 Pet 2:4-8 "As you come to him, the living Stone-- rejected by men but chosen by God and precious to him-- you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For in Scripture it says: "See, I lay a stone in Zion, a chosen and precious cornerstone, and the one who trusts in him will never be put to shame." Now to you who believe, this stone is precious. But to those who do not believe, "The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone," and, "A stone that causes men to stumble and a rock that makes them fall." They stumble because they disobey the message- - which is also what they were destined for."

A STUDY IN CONTRASTS

I was dumbfounded throughout the trip by what I called "a study in contrasts."

Things which appeared bigger in my mind were often found to be much smaller-- and vice versa For instance, what seemed like it might have been a short day's walk turned out to be a two-hour air-conditioned bus ride in unbelievable heat--From Galilee to Jerusalem (with a few stops along the way).

Now, when I look at charts of what Biblical events occurred during certain seasons of the year in Jesus Ministry, I understand why not much happened (that was recorded) during the summer months. Could it be that Yeshua (the Hebrew name for Jesus) and His disciples were just like any other human beings--that is, the heat was unbearable for them too, so they weren't out in the heat as much? Just a theory.

MCDONALDS AND TOYS "R" US

I saw the Old City co-existing close to a modern and new freeway. Yes, freeway. And in many locations, McDonald's-- Not in the Old City, thankfully. But then there were Toys 'R' Us, and Remax Real Estate signs. (I did see one ATM machine in the Old City. That kind of makes one realize things are a bit different than they were in 30 A.D. I couldn't completely make myself stay away from things modern. While the food in Israel seems healthy and is very good, I was delighted to visit McDonald's ONE TIME, and eat a "great" Chicken Sandwich (with fries) while sitting in an air-conditioned environment!

I saw high-rise modern hotels, within a minute or two of the Arab quarter in the Old City-- where women's heads are always covered and where we saw a few mothers with children on their lap-- being professional beggars. I also saw some children in the Arab quarter who my heart broke for, as they begged for money---and then I saw them run and proudly present their plastic bags full of coins to what looked like their grandfather-- who laughed with glee at their catch. Then off they went to beg for more.

NOT EVERYTHING IS WHAT IT SEEMS

You begin to get the idea that not everything in Israel is what it seems.

What are reported by the American media as new Israeli settlements (which purportedly prevent the peace process from going forward), we can now see with our own eyes. We see a highly advertised impediment to peace, a certain "provocative" settlement is built out in the middle of no-man's land. Nothing is even close to it. It's as if houses are set up in the middle of nowhere, and yet the western media play on the sympathy of Americans who find themselves asking, "Why do the Israeli's keep building right in the middle of Arab communities? Don't they know this will inflame the opposition?" we say. Now we see the reality and how we have been duped by biased reporting.

THE GOLAN HEIGHTS

In Israel, the West Bank is everything west of the Jordan and the Golan Heights is practically everything East of the Jordan. All the land-rich Arab countries want, they say, is the Golan Heights and the West bank--in Other words-- ALL OF ISRAEL. But we've swallowed this propaganda in the U.S.

80% of the water for Israel comes from the Sea of Galilee, fed by the Jordan River, and among others, the waters from Mount Hermon, the tallest mountain in Israel. To give the Golan Heights to Syria, all we are asking Israel to do, is give up the East Shore of the Sea of Galilee and all of the Jordan River that feeds into it. Not a problem, all that would do is give Syria 100% control of 80% of the water needs of Israel. Then, with new ownership of the highest mountain in Israel, Mt. Hermon, Syria could launch any attack on Israel with little notice. Of course, the media doesn't tell you this.

ISRAEL - TIRED OF WAR

The sad thing to learn is that many families in Israel have lost several generations of sons in Israeli battles. They are tired of death. They want peace and at this point, they want it at any price. No longer do Temple Mount issues, Jerusalem issues, or any other land issues concern them. They can only HOPE that giving away this critical land will somehow appease their enemies and bring safety to their families. Unfortunately, giving God-ordained land to their enemies will only hasten the attack planned against them. Already large secret tunnels have been discovered where arms were being smuggled into Israel so that Israel can be attacked from within their own land. No Air Force can defend Israel against such an attack.

BETWEEN A ROCK AND A HARD PLACE

God, it seems, has painted Israel between a rock, THE ROCK and a hard place.

As we walked through the streets, we heard constantly, the everyday greeting, "Shalom" (peace) to which another replies "shalom." Except on Saturday, where the greeting is changed by all to "Shabbat Shalom" (Sabbath Peace.)

I found myself listening to this cry for PEACE with each greeting by Jewish people. The phone is answered, "shalom," instead of "hello!" I can't help but remember the Scripture that says,

Jer 8:11 "They dress the wound of my people as though it were not serious. 'Peace, peace,' they say, when there is no peace."

And God Warns:

1Thes 5:3 While people are saying, "Peace and safety," destruction will come on them suddenly, as labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

Are we seeing the beginning of true peace for Israel--or only the foreboding longing for peace that will NEVER come until the nation turns to their true Messiah . .

HOLY SITES AND THE DEFENSE OF ISRAEL

There was an irony when we visited some of the quiet Holy or "almost Holy" places.

Probably more than half of our group was re-baptized, as a sign of rededication of our lives to the Lord in the Jordan River, the same river where Yeshua received baptism, though He was sinless. It was a wonderful time.

However, as the baptism was held, at several points, we had to stop and wait for the screaming Israeli Jets to fly over. While staying at our hotel on the Sea of Galilee, the same sea where Jesus walked on water, I got up at 5:30 to see what it might have been like to experience the early morning calm of the Galilee for Jesus. It was pretty nice and overall, very quiet. But in the distance, even at 5:30 in the morning, I kept hearing explosions, up towards the Golan Heights. Upon inquiring, I was informed that those were most likely sonic booms from Israeli Jets.

Then, at the Garden Tomb in Jerusalem, our group was preparing to have a walk-through of the tomb and to hear the host (of this tomb site) explain the area, when suddenly a gigantic explosion that seemed no further than 50-75 yards away. I was sure that a bomb had been set off. The group jumped. The guide said, "Not to worry, just probably a sonic boom from the jets flying over."

TINY ISRAEL

In the U.S. we have the luxury of outlawing sonic booms in populated cities. In Israel, there is no such luxury. The entire length of Israel, top to bottom is not greater than 250 miles long. At the very widest spot in Israel, from west to east, Israel is no more than 100 miles wide.

Now picture being the jet fighters in Israel that must defend their country. As they practice, they can fly only about 10 minutes before they run out of country and must turn around. Flying the entire length of the country? Maybe twenty minutes, and that's if you stay just under the speed of sound. The sonic booms indicate the jets are breaking the speed of sound, so the time before turn-around is much less than that.

NEVER AGAIN, THE CRY IS HEARD

The Jewish people, after the Holocaust say, "Never again! Never again!" But when one sees the limitations of defending this tiny country, one cannot help but imagine the immensity of this task-- with enemies on all sides who would crush Israel in a second if they had half a chance.

Throughout Israel, teenagers, both male and female are seen wearing the Israeli green military uniforms and carrying rifles. They walk the city and country streets and are seen hitchhiking for rides to and from their military bases. A very large percentage get to "work" this way. Imagine, if you will, your own teenager, carrying an M16 high-powered rifle, hitching a ride to work, with all his/her friends. Imagine average citizens, most who have already served in the Military themselves, picking up these rifle-carrying teenagers. In Israel, both men and women (more like boys and girls) are obligated to spend three years in the Israeli Military.

With all of this, you can see why so many are so tired of war in Israel.

The cries, "Never Again" and the readiness of Israel to courageously defend their Land, can make you proud of this people. But the realization is also self-evident, even according to Scripture that:

NOT BY MIGHT OR POWER

Zech 4:6 It is: "Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit," says the LORD Almighty."

Think of all the great military powers that have come and gone in World history. And where did they go? The Psalmist wrote:

Ps 146:3 "Do not put your trust in princes, in mortal men, who cannot save."

The Gentile Church ought not take too much pride, or brag too arrogantly on behalf of the Israeli army. Instead we ought to pray that when they are shown that their military is woefully INADEQUATE, they will look to Yeshua for their deliverance. Sometimes, it seems that even the church is proud of the strong military might in Israel--- like even we think our prayers are not so much needed for Israel's defense. How wrong this thinking is. For the time is coming when PRAYER is all the Church or Israel will have on their side-- Prayer and the humbling of ourselves before the powerful Anointed One.

IN LOVE WITH ISRAEL

God loves Israel. He is IN LOVE with Israel. But as only the Creator Himself can do, He is able to both keep His covenant of blessing with Israel and also refine them --at the same time (just as He does with the Church).

Roughly 80% of all Israelis are "secular" in all that they do. A visitor to the LAND finds him/herself asking, "Wouldn't it be good to have the Jewish people all become religious-- even if that means becoming Orthodox--- so that there is SOME context for them to find their Messiah? As it is, most secular Jews today say, "How could anyone believe in a God who would let six million Jews be murdered in the Holocaust? The Holocaust tells us that there is no God," they say, in one way or another. Of course this is a complex question. This is why if a Jewish person is to find the Love of their Messiah, they will likely need to see it in another Believer first.

IS THERE A GOD? AND CAN HE BE KNOWN?

One learns that to the Jewish mind, the first question is--"Is there a God at all?" And if there is, the next question is equally important: "Can He be known?" If these questions are not answered through the life of a Believer, then "witnessing" can be unfruitful at best.

We are told by Avner Boskey, our guide, that even though most of the Orthodox Jews do not seek God from a pure heart (in so many words), nevertheless, God responds to the desperate cry of the human heart, as he responded to the Children of Israel-- crying from Egypt to be delivered. So, we see the Western Wall, crowded daily with Orthodox Jews, crying for deliverance of Israel and the Temple Mount, while the whole time they reject even the notion that Yeshua (Jesus) was or could have been the Messiah.

Nevertheless, perhaps the LORD does look on the desperation He sees at the Western wall in Jerusalem and say . . .

Isa 57:18-21 I have seen his [MAN'S] ways, but I will heal him; I will guide him and restore comfort to him, creating praise on the lips of the mourners in Israel. Peace, peace, to those far and near," says the LORD. "And I will heal them." But the wicked are like the tossing sea, which cannot rest, whose waves cast up mire and mud. "There is no peace," says my God, "for the wicked."

What a contrast in values! God sees man's foolish and disobedient ways, and yet he says, despite that--- "I WILL GUIDE HIM AND RESTORE COMFORT TO HIM, CREATING PRAISE ON THE LIPS OF THE MOURNERS IN ISRAEL."

If that isn't grace, it'll do until grace comes along!!

THE CITY OF DAVID

In our tours of Jerusalem, other discoveries were made. For instance, I didn't know there were actually two "City of David's" -- The one-- Bethlehem, approximately five miles from the temple mount in Jerusalem is what we think of most. We are more familiar with this Scripture:

Luke 2:4 "And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, to Judea, to THE CITY OF DAVID, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David."

THE "OTHER" CITY OF DAVID

But the place where David lived, his own city-- was just below (and up against) the Temple Mount itself, and was also called, "THE CITY OF DAVID." Bethlehem was called Bethlehem, but the City of David was called, "THE CITY OF DAVID."

On a map of Jerusalem, it might look like a city-- but when you walk on a place where part of the city stood, you realize that as cities go, it's not the world's idea of a city. No more than 200 feet wide and a few thousand feet long, it runs into the temple mount at the top and drops off toward the Kidron Valley and the Valley of Hinnon below.

From this place, atop his Palace on the City of David, David looked down across the valley (which you now realize is more like a large ravine), and he could see the flat-roofed houses where Bathsheba was bathing. As you stand on this place today, close to where David would have stood, there are again flat-roofed houses across this ravine (valley), similar to what would have stood there in days of old, and now one can almost picture the scene.

TEMPTATION, SIN, AND GOD'S GRACE

You can nearly hit the flat-roofed houses with a rock. This is where David ran headlong into sin-- as he first lusted, and then sent for the object of his desire, Bathsheba. It boggles the mind to learn that Uriah the Hittite was a Gentile, fighting for David's Israeli army. Surely David must have begun to rationalize, "Even though Uriah is a good soldier, the bottom line is that he's an "uncircumcised" Gentile. "And I am King of all Israel." The people serve "at the pleasure of the King so what is theirs, is mine." Whatever was in his head, David went forward with his adultery and later, murder--to complete the cover-up.

Nathan, God's prophet for the hour put a stop to that charade in a hurry.

After David's murder of Uriah, and David's repentance, Bathsheba became David's wife. And after experiencing but a small part of God's judgment for this sin, the loss of the child conceived in this sin,--- Bathsheba then gave birth to Solomon. This wise king Solomon who would eventually take over David's palace after David's death,-- looked down at the same spot where his father gave in to the lust of the eyes. Perhaps he then turned around and looked just up the hill at the temple mount behind him. Surely he knew that because of his father's blatant sin, he had life was now the King of Israel. Strange feeling.

There, above him, his father David had planned to build the most magnificent house for the Lord God that would ever be built--at least up to that time. But God chose Solomon to do the building instead--because of the blood on David's hands. David could only spend the last of his life collecting the building materials for Solomon to use. While Solomon was the result of a sinful union, he was not punished for it. He became the wisest king who ever lived.

THE MAN ON THE THRONE CAME THROUGH SIN

And from the line of this man Solomon, through David and Bathsheba, (the now-forgiven adulteress)-- would come the Savior of the World, Yeshua. And Yeshua, as prophesied will someday sit on "THE THRONE OF DAVID." In one sense He does now. But He will yet also sit on David's throne, so it seems. As the angel told Mary,

Luke 1:31-32 You will be with child and give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the THRONE OF HIS FATHER DAVID."

As I stood close the same spot where this had all happened-- the place of the palaces of the City of David--even now, I cannot help but proclaim:

"Oh, the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and unfathomable His ways! For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who became His counselor?" Rom 11:33-34

ARRIVING ABOVE THE CITY OF JERUSALEM

One of the more dramatic moments for me was our arrival in Jerusalem. Coming over the hills on the road leading from Jericho into Jerusalem--all on the bus were told to "close your eyes"--and then suddenly "Ok, now open them!" -- as the City of Jerusalem came into spectacular panoramic view from our vantage point on the Mount of Olives. At this spot, we were just down the hillside from where Jesus Ascended into Heaven. What a magnificent view he must have had of Jerusalem whenever he went up on the Mount of Olives. It's almost breathtaking.

In one second, shrieks are heard because of the beauty of what we are just now seeing. The City, Jerusalem and the Temple Mount, the very SPOT on earth where God chose to manifest specifically His Presence for so many years--the very spot where Jesus will rule and reign again, as the Scripture says,

Isa 9:6-7 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign ON DAVID'S THRONE and over His kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

THE NATION OF ISRAEL RE-CREATED

I say that this City and this nation, Israel was re-created because it was here before--several times-- but Jerusalem was finally completely destroyed in AD 70. Left more-or-less desolate for many centuries, the Lord began to highlight the city again to the World around the times of World War I and World War II.

However, as in the movie, "Fiddler on the Roof," so accurately portrayed---with the Jewish people, it has ALWAYS been, "NEXT YEAR IN JERUSALEM." The cry of Jewish people was always to go home. They would worship facing Jerusalem no matter which country in the world they lived. In 1948, in part because of the awful Holocaust, Israel became a State--a nation again-- through the miraculous intervention of the Lord.

REWRITING TEACHING ABOUT ISRAEL

>From 1948 on, Christian Theologians, who had always taught that Israel was only "Spiritual Israel," and that Jerusalem itself would "never be rebuilt" ---well, let's just say there was a flurry of papers shuffling as many Church Historians had to re-construct centuries of bad Theology--once again coming to grips with the fact that Jesus was a Jewish Messiah, with Jewish Disciples, in Israel. Many of those theologians became like Noble Bereans who began to 'SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES TO SEE IF THESE THINGS WERE SO.' Many today now understand much more about Israel, seeing it again as God's "BEAUTIFUL LAND." (Daniel 11: 16,41) Since that day in May, 1948, Israel began to be seen not only as a literal nation again, and Israel not only seen again as God's "Chosen People," but now, Israel and the events in the news became as signs for the Church of what God is doing in the Heavens.

The Scriptures promising the return of the Jewish people to their own land? We are quite literally seeing them fulfilled before our eyes. The Passover, celebrating when God took the Children out of Egypt, will begin to seem small in comparison to how the Lord is soon to save and regather His Jewish People from all points on the Globe. Here's what Jeremiah says about that day. Note by the description that this has NOT FULLY HAPPENED YET--but it is STARTING to happen:

Jer 16:14-15 14 "However, the days are coming," declares the LORD, "when men will NO LONGER SAY, 'As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of Egypt,' but they will say, 'As surely as the LORD lives, WHO BROUGHT THE ISRAELITES UP OUT OF THE LAND OF THE NORTH and out of ALL THE COUNTRIES WHERE HE HAD BANISHED THEM.' For I will restore them to the land I gave their forefathers.

Even yet, many hundreds of thousands of Jews will soon be released from the Land of the North, the former Soviet Union, but we are also told that from all the other countries,(which would certainly include the United States of America) the Jewish people will return to their own land--and consider it a gift from God when they do. We, as Believers need to be ready to support them, help them, even finance them in their endeavors to get to the LAND.

ALWAYS A NATION IN GOD'S EYES

You see, In God's eyes, they have never NOT been the NATION OF ISRAEL:

Jer 31:35-40 This is what the LORD says, he who appoints the sun to shine by day, who decrees the moon and stars to shine by night, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar-- the LORD Almighty is his name: "ONLY IF THESE DECREES VANISH FROM MY SIGHT," declares the LORD, "will the descendants of Israel ever cease to be A NATION BEFORE ME." This is what the LORD says: "Only if the heavens above can be measured and the foundations of the earth below be searched out will I reject all the descendants of Israel because of all they have done," declares the LORD. "The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when this city will be rebuilt for me from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. The measuring line will stretch from there straight to the hill of Gareb and then turn to Goah. The whole valley where dead bodies and ashes are thrown, and all the terraces out to the Kidron Valley on the east as far as the corner of the Horse Gate, will be holy to the LORD. The city will never again be uprooted or demolished."

JERUSALEM WILL BE RE-SIZED

God loves Jerusalem. And its future is more glorious than anyone can imagine. Viewing this city from the Mount of Olives, you can see how layer upon layer of the OLD Jerusalem that was destroyed was also rebuilt many times. It gave me a less-than-fulfilled sense of well-being to see that Jerusalem was rebuilt on the ruins of previous destruction--- surrounded by centuries of rubble, pushed into the valleys next to the City. How can the city be truly glorious, surrounded by the trash of previous generations?

God speaks of the NEW JERUSALEM, coming down out of heaven. This will be the truly Glorious New Jerusalem, --a bit larger I might add. Only the Lord knows when (and specifically how) all of these things will be. But here's what the Word says:

Rev 21:10-16 10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God. It shone with the glory of God, and its brilliance was like that of a very precious jewel, like a jasper, clear as crystal. It had a great, high wall with twelve gates, and with twelve angels at the gates. On the gates were written the names of the twelve tribes of Israel. There were three gates on the east, three on the north, three on the south and three on the west. The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. The angel who talked with me had a measuring rod of gold to measure the city, its gates and its walls. The city was laid out like a square, as long as it was wide. He measured the city with the rod and FOUND IT TO BE 12,000 STADIA IN LENGTH, AND AS WIDE AND HIGH AS IT IS LONG.

HOW BIG IS 12,000 STADIA?

These Bible-times measurements are hard to grasp. One thing we learn is that the City will be a cube, the exact shape of the Holy of Holies in the Temple--the same width, length, and height. God is making a point by decreeing that the City of Jerusalem will be the exact same SHAPE as the MOST HOLY PLACE---He is saying that the NEW JERUSALEM will be completely and eternally IN THE PRESENCE OF GOD.

SO HOW BIG IS THIS CITY? HOW BIG IS 12,000 STADIA IN LENGTH, BREADTH, AND HEIGHT?

Let's state it in Miles:

1,400 miles wide!

1,400 miles long!

1,400 miles tall! (way out in space, in other words)

Now there's some space in which jets can maneuver--though I don't suspect we'll be having jet fly-overs in this

NEW Jerusalem. For God's people will be complete--The full number of the Gentiles and Jews from every kindred, tongue, tribe, and people will have come in. Israel will have said, "Blessed is He who comes in the Name of the Lord."

When Jesus speaks of this time when He makes the NEW JERUSALEM glorious, He offers THE CHURCH this invitation to all who are interested in this kind of future for Jerusalem,

Rev 22:16-17 "I, Jesus, have sent my angel to give you this testimony FOR THE CHURCHES. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, and the bright Morning Star." The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life."

By Steve Shultz, THE ELIJAH LIST To subscribe: send a note to: steve@elijahlist.com

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

Taps

Author Unknown

I too, have felt the chills while listening to "Taps" but I have never seen all the words to the song until now. I didn't even know there was more than one verse. I also never knew the story behind the song and I didn't know if any of you had either so I thought I'd pass it along. I now have an even deeper respect for the song than I did before.

THE HAUNTING SONG, "TAPS"

We have all heard the haunting song, "Taps." It's the song that gives us that lump in our throats and usually creates tears in our eyes. But, do you know the story behind the song? If not, I think you will be delighted to find out about it's humble beginnings.

It all began in 1862 during the Civil War, when Union Army Captain Robert Ellicombe was with his men near Harrison's Landing in Virginia.

The Confederate Army was on the other side of the narrow strip of land. During the night, Captain Ellicombe heard the moans of a soldier who lay mortally wounded on the field. Not knowing if it was a Union or Confederate soldier, the Captain decided to risk his life and bring the stricken man back for medical attention.

Crawling on his stomach through the gunfire, the Captain reached the stricken soldier and began pulling him toward his encampment. When the Captain finally reached his own lines, he discovered it was actually a Confederate soldier, but the soldier was dead.

The Captain lit a lantern and suddenly caught his breath and went numb with shock. In the dim light, he saw the face of the soldier. It was his own son. The boy had been studying music in the South when the war broke out. Without telling his father, he enlisted in the Confederate Army.

The following morning, heartbroken, the father asked permission of his superiors to give his son a full military burial despite his enemy status. His request was only partially granted.

The Captain had asked if he could have a group of Army band members play a funeral dirge for his son. The request was turned down because the soldier was a Confederate; but, out of respect for the father, they did say they could give him only one musician.

The Captain chose a bugler. He asked the bugler to play a series of musical notes he had found on a piece of paper in the pocket of the dead youth's uniform. This wish was granted.

The haunting melody we now know as "Taps" used at military funerals was born.

Day is Done

Gone the sun
From the lakes
From the hills
From the sky
All is well
Safely rest
God is nigh.

Fading light

Dims the sight,
And a star
Gems the sky,
Gleaming bright,
From afar,
Drawing nigh,
Falls the night.

Thanks and praise,

For our days,
Neath the sun,
Neath the stars,
Neath the sky,
As we go,
This we know,
God is nigh.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Ark of God's Presence

Robert Burgess

"And they set the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in Gibeah: and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drave the new cart... And David and all the house of Israel played before the LORD on all manner of instruments made of fir wood, even on harps, and on psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals. And when they came to Nachon's threshingfloor, Uzzah put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen shook it. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and God smote him there for his error; and there he died by the ark of God. And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perezuzzah to this day. And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, How shall the ark of the LORD come to me? So David would not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David: but David carried it aside into the house of Obededom the Gittite. And the ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obededom the Gittite three months: and the LORD blessed Obededom, and all his household (2 Sam 6:3-11)."

The foregoing Scriptures are a historic record of the attempt to bring the Ark of Gods presence to the "Mount Zion" upon a man-made vehicle, instead of Bearing it upon the Shoulders of the Priesthood, as God had commanded it to be. We find that there are Principles revealed here which closely parallel the actions of certain churchmen during the early part of the 1900 s.. It is interesting to note that in a span of only a few years (1910 to 1914), nearly all of all the existing mainline "Pentecostal Denominations" were formed. The formation of these organizations resulted in a spiritual "Death" to many priests like UZZA (meaning Jehovah is Mighty) who tried to "Help" the Spirit in the shakings which were taking place in the Pentecostal World of that time. The result was, that the Ark was "Parked" in the house of Obed-Edom (meaning Servant of ADAM, or, of the Flesh). I has been there now, in the nominal camp for 90 years (or three full months of prophetic "Days" See Ezek 4:6 etc.); and truly you must say God has "Blessed" their house abundantly..

In the early hours of Feb. 15th I had a vision, in which I saw the priests going in and carefully wiping off all the grit and grime which had settled upon the "Ark of God;" You wouldn't believe how that "Beaten Gold" shined when they got through. I saw them take down the wooden poles (or "Stays) and gently place them through the rings on the sides of the Ark, put it upon their shoulders, and begin to march with it up the road leading toward "Mount Zion," and the "Tabernacle of David." Get ready saints, things are about to start happening very soon (and even now) that will manifest openly that God has moved from one dimension into another.. This is the signal and an open invitation for His Sons to arise and follow Him, in like manner.

Robert Burgess
GreatEagle Ministries International
apostle3@gte.net
<http://members.tripodasia.com.sg/great1eagle/id1.htm>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Ark Of My Presence

Who Would Be Shepherds

False Prophets

Harley Hickling

The Ark Of My Presence
Harley Hickling

January 22, 1999

Just as in the days of Noah, a point in time eventually came when it was time for those appointed to take up residence within the Ark, for the destructive rains and floods were soon to be released upon the world and it was only within the Ark that safety would be found from the outside forces that were coming into play. Just as it was then in the days of Noah so it is today, for soon the winds of destruction and rage will be unleashed sweeping your world into another time of chaos that has never before been known by man. And so today I say unto you My Children, come, come now and enter into the Ark of My Presence for it is only within the Ark of My Presence that you will find that place of safety you will need to weather the storms that are about to strike everywhere about you. Although the tempest will build slowly, it will in time reach truly devastating proportions. Yet for those of My children that are stayed upon Me and are within the Ark of My Presence, it will be like it was for those who were within the Ark during Noah's time. You will not be touched nor harmed by the maelstrom without.

Come, My beloved. The entrance into My Tabernacle is wide open in invitation just as it was during the days of David. Come into My presence today and fix your gaze upon me. Worship Me with all your heart and I shall cleanse you of that which still offends and then I will fill you with every good thing, equipping you and preparing you for service with your King. I shall completely clothe you and surround you with My protection and nothing from the enemy shall be able to break through that which I shall place upon and about you. Though the tempest will soon rage about you, you will know only My peace within.

Many will cross your path in that day and they will see that My Glory is upon you. Be prepared to speak to them of My love for them for many shall inquire of you seeking that same unspeakable joy they will see manifested in the fullness of My Presence upon you.

So again, by way of invitation I say unto you My beloved. Come, come now into that safe place which can only be found in My Presence!

Please send any comments to riverman@exis.net

Who Would Be Shepherds
Harley Hickling

A Word To Those Who Would Be Shepherds

January 16, 2000

The Word of the Lord came unto me this morning to speak against the multitude of hirelings that are posing as shepherds throughout the Earth.

Pay heed to that which He has written:

From Ezekiel 34:

1 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto the shepherds; Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

3 Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them. . . .

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

11 For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

12 As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

13 And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

14 I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel.

15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord GOD.

16 I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment.

And from John 10 Jesus spoke:

I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. But he that is a hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

To you Pastors who are entrusted to shepherd My sheep:

Are you guilty of waxing fat and in need of nothing because you are actively stripping your sheep of their wealth, even swallowing widows houses as did the hypocrites of old? Are you tending to the needs of your sheep? Are you bringing strength to the diseased? Are you bringing healing to the sick? Are you binding up the broken and the lame? Are you actively seeking out the lost or those that have gone astray? If your not doing all of these things than perhaps you are a hireling and not a true shepherd and if you are a hireling, beware, for My time of judgment amongst the hirelings is very near for I will no longer permit My sheep to be plundered by those who should instead be serving them. When My sheep come to you seeking comfort and guidance or even food and shelter, do you give to them from what you have to bring them relief? Do you encourage others among your sheep to reach out to the maimed and hurting as well? Or do you at best supply those that are needy and hungry a token of what is needed from an under funded ministry you have established and then in seemingly good conscience turn your back upon them, washing your hands of any further responsibility to those in need?

Again Shepherds, are you guilty of establishing large building programs without first seeking out My permission? And in these building programs that you have undertaken to satisfy your ever increasing ego gratification demands, have you been severely fleecing your sheep to bring the building into reality? If this is you then again I say, beware. And woe unto you when you make every attempt to avoid your sheep when they appear like they are coming to you in order that might receive that which you do not care give out.

Among My true shepherds there are many who are willing to give and to give unto their sheep and in this process of giving, they receive back from Me all that they have given and with that which they receive back I provide them with an increase as well. My true shepherds know this cycle of blessing very well. This cycle is true whether it involves material needs such as food, shelter or money or whether that which is given is immaterial such as love, good counsel or even a friendly shoulder.

What is the true test of determining whether you are one of My shepherds or a hireling? The true test is simple to state; are you willing to give up your life for your sheep as did Jesus? Or would such a possibility cause you to run and hide? You in your rich land of affluence and ease have yet to be faced with this question but there are increasingly many around your world who have been faced this question and most of them have known and given the right answer! The day will soon come when many of you as well will be rocketed out of your ease and comfort and will be confronted with this same question. Be sure you understand what the correct answer is to that which will be required of you. Being one of My true shepherds is a high calling indeed! And it is in this high calling that My true shepherds shall share in My glory! Likewise all impostors, beware!

Please send any comments to riverman@exis.net

False Prophets
Harley Hickling

January 16, 2000

Early this morning, during my time of Bible study, the Lord quickened very strongly to my heart that He will no longer permit those who present themselves falsely as His prophets, His voice in the land.

TO The False Prophets

In Jeremiah 23 the prophet of the Lord did say:
9 Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness. . . . .
11 For both prophet and priest are profane; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.
12 Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD. . . .
16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Harken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.
17 They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you.
18 For who hath stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?
19 Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.
20 The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.
21 I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.
22 But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.
23 Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?
24 Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD.
25 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.
26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart . . . . .
29 Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?
30 Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour.

*31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that use their tongues, and say, He saith.
32 Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them:
therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.*

My son likewise spoke concerning false prophets when He said to beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

As it was in former days, so it remains today for false prophets abound. Many among the prophets who are now speaking forth falsely are those who at one time heard My voice and did once clearly present My word to My people. Yet they have wandered away from that place where they could still hear My still small voice. Instead of focusing their lives on Me as they once did, they are pursuing all manner of things such as seeking out fame and fortune unto themselves and doing that which I have not given them permission to do while all the time speaking forth from their own vain imaginings and from that which they once saw clearly and now remember only dimly. Many voices today are even being raised up from various schools of the prophet that have been formed by those who have not been instructed to do so by Me, yet show Me where I have ever used such a voice to speak for me! Many among these school graduates are speaking forth that which they say they have heard from me, but how can that be when I have not spoken to them? I have always raised up My own true prophets and so it is today for I have indeed raised up, in many a cave throughout the world, My prophets for this day. Prophets who have sought My face with all their heart and have sought to hear My still small voice in their caves as did Elijah. Prophets that I have placed My mantle upon! Prophets that are coming forth from their caves speaking in My power and under My anointing bringing forth truly life changing pronouncements that I have given them to trumpet forth proclaiming My Kingdom throughout the earth!

To you who have forgotten the place of your cave experience with Me and to you who have never experienced this place yet believe you are speaking for Me, I say REPENT and turn from your evil ways. Turn away from the divining spirits that are using you! Turn away from your own vain imaginings! Rent your garments and cover yourselves in sackcloth and ashes for judgment is even now standing at your door! Truly repent of your wickedness and I will still make a place for you.

My prophets are those who stand Holy before Me! All others shall be removed!

Please send comments to riverman@exis.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

These Are The Days

Bill Burns

July 2, 2000:

These are the days of My glory. Is it not written that I must bring many sons into glory? If I bring My sons forth in the power of My glory, will it not become the day of My power in which all the work of the enemy is destroyed under your feet? It is not only written, but it has been prophesied that I am doing a new thing in My house. I am bringing forth extraordinary power, the power of deliverance, the power of the word of truth, and the power of prophecy to loose the captives and bring forth a completeness within the kingdom of My Son. Have you not been translated from the world into the kingdom of My Son, into the kingdom of His glory, the kingdom of His righteousness, the kingdom of His holiness? I say arise, people, put off this darkness. Cast off this oppression and walk out into the glory. I am now lifting you up. It is the third day, and I must come and lift you up into My presence that all things might be fulfilled, that the kingdoms of the world will become My kingdom. You say, how will it become Your kingdom? Because My sons and daughters of glory will go forth marching in the truth, wielding the sword of the spirit and taking dominion over all the works of darkness, and the captives shall be set free. Rise up, those who are bound, and shake off the dust of defilement. Rise up, those who are discouraged, and walk forth in the power of My presence. Have I not spoken and said that the good work in you which I have begun I will, by Myself, bring to a place of completion. Will I not deliver those who are Mine? Will I not heal those who are Mine? Will I not give a prophetic word to those who are Mine? Will the truth and the power of the truth be found in My vessels that are yielded to Me? Say YES! For, this is the day of My power, and it is now coming to pass in these that I bring to a position of boldness. I am loosing Holy Ghost boldness that you will go forth and have victory over the enemy. Are you not tired of being defeated by the enemy? Is it not written that I will always cause you to triumph through Christ Jesus. Therefore, you must go from victory to victory. You will move from faith to faith and go from victory to victory. Break out, I say. I am the Lord of the breakout, the Lord of the breakthrough. Break out of the position of darkness and the spirit of bondage, and loose yourselves and walk in the glory of these days.

These are also dangerous days because I am compelling My people, and what will be the results of their lives if they do not hearken unto My Spirit which is given to say: Come out from among them and be ye separate. Touch not the unclean thing. Drink not from the cup of demons or feed at their table. Compromise has washed through My house. Compromise will bring weakness. Compromise will bring sickness. Compromise will bring bondage. Now is the hour and day of truth. Now is the hour and day in which I require righteousness. Stop watering down the word. Stop moving in a position of compromise. Stop being timid. Be bold and strong in your Lord, who will manifest Himself in you.

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

July 3, 2000:

My people, rise up above the petty issues of life and activity. I have called you to serve Me unreservedly with a whole heart. Refuse to get your focus on circumstances and self-interest. These are days when the enemy will use every possible crack to drive a wedge into and bring division. But, I have not called you to division. I have called you to unity, peace, and one accord. I have called you to serve one another with generosity and liberality. Level the walls of pride; humble yourselves before Me. For, I am looking for chosen vessels, those who are willing to wash the feet of another without complaint or motive. I say again, rise up and yield yourselves as vessels of honor for My purposes.

July 4, 2000:

I have seen the whirlwind of activity around you and the dust the enemy has stirred up to bring confusion and cloud the issues. But, I have also seen your willingness and ability to stand firm in the face of turmoil and not be moved by the chaos around you. And, I say to you, well done My good and faithful servants. You have refused to cave in and release yourselves to anger and debate. You have humbled yourselves in trust and obedience to My word. And, I tell you, that this test is ending. You will find that clarity will come just as surely as the sun burns through the morning fog. Rejoice! For the victory is sweet.

July 5, 2000:

I had a dream last night of someone answering the telephone, and the receiver became a short, black, vicious snake. Suddenly, I had a machete in my hand and told the person to throw the snake down, and when she did, I cut the snake in two. As I am reminded of the dream this morning, I hear the Lord saying: The enemy has come to speak destruction to you and to bring a message of discouragement. He will come in everyday ways and in everyday circumstances so that he can catch you off guard. The venom of his bite will paralyze you with rejection if you don't throw him down and cut him off. I say to you, do not receive what the enemy speaks to you, even if it comes through a friend. And again I say, be on guard. Watch for this attack, for it will surely come.

July 7, 2000:

My people, you have become scattered. You are scattered from one another, scattered in your thinking, scattered in your devotion. Many have lost focus and become divided in your intentions and purposes. You have become broken cisterns that can hold no water. You don't know whether to go forward or to pull back, to sit down or to stand up, to shut up or to speak. Some of you even question what I have spoken to you, saying it probably wasn't the Lord. You feel abandoned and forsaken, and yet I have not left you. Come back from the waste places where you have been driven, scrambling around like creatures of the night in the desert. Rest and be refreshed in My presence.

July 8, 2000:

Do you hear the roaring of the Lion? Do you hear the sounds of victory in the heavenlies? For, I say that no weapon formed against you shall prosper. I have promised you victory. Though the enemy has come in like a flood, I have raised up a standard against him. You, My people, will begin to see that you have gained the advantage and won the battle that you have been in, for I have indeed given you power to tread upon serpents and scorpions and over ALL the power of the enemy so that nothing shall by any means hurt you. I say to you, arise and take the spoils of war; possess and occupy the land for the victory is sweet!

Faith Tabernacle
111 North Fourth
P. O. Box 1148
Kremmling, CO 80459
<http://ft111.com>
ft111@uswest.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Battlefield Commission

John L. Moore

THE BATTLEFIELD COMMISSION

Thirty years ago as a cub reporter for my hometown newspaper I was introduced to the publisher; a slim, silver-haired man with a distinguished air of authority. When I asked the city desk editor about him, he -- himself a Naval aviator during World War II -- responded with a sense of awe and respect. "I can tell you this about him," he said. "He went from private to captain in WWII on battlefield commissions." Battlefield Commission. The term rang in my young ears. Promotion of the common man tested and proven by fire.

THE HISTORY OF BATTLEFIELD COMMISSIONS

History probably did not stop to record the first battlefield commission, but in the modern American era the practice began with what was called a "brevet" -- the promotion of an enlisted man to a commissioned officer without an increase in pay. According to the National Order of Battlefield Commissions, the Marine Corps established the Brevet Medal about 1918. This commissioning was second only to The Congressional Medal of Honor in respect.

A "competent authority" may commission a soldier for leadership, valor, and devotion to duty during actual combat. By best estimates, there were some 6000 battlefield commissions during World War I and 28,726 during World War II. Of those, 10,989 were awarded during the worst of the fighting between the Normandy Invasion and the final victory in Europe.

The movie, Saving Private Ryan, and the books by Tom Brokaw, The Greatest Generation and The Greatest Generation Speaks, have immersed America in a new-found respect for those who fought World War II. This was our last noble war. A time when a provoked nation rose unified and long lines formed in front of enlistment offices. "Your people shall be volunteers in the day of Your power," reads Psalm 110:3 and this was a foreshadowing of that day.

Audie Murphy, the most decorated soldier of WWII, symbolized the dog-faced G. I. who rose to greatness. A skinny Texas orphan, Murphy was rejected by the Marine Corps and nearly washed-out of Army basic training. A Medal of Honor winner, Murphy described his battlefield commissioning in his book To Hell and Back: "A Colonel pins gold bars on our shoulders and pats us on the back. 'You are now gentlemen by an act of Congress,' he says. 'Shave, take a bath, and get the hell back into the lines.'"

COMBAT AND HEROISM

Those who became commissioned had to learn to survive before they learned to lead. Once self-survival was mastered, soldiers in combat usually excelled in the face of danger for three obvious reasons.

The first is simply love of the brethren.

In his definitive book, G. I. The American Soldier in World War II author Lee Kennett quotes a young soldier named John Hogan who was offered a safe job after serving in combat with the Rifle Platoon of the 7th Infantry Division. Said Hogan: "There is something about the spirit of the men in this platoon that I have grown to love and I want to help guard it." Hogan turned the transfer down because "danger is a sacrament, too."

In the same book, S. L. A. Marshall comments: "I hold it to be one of the simplest truths of war that the thing which enables an infantry soldier to keep moving with his weapon is the near presence or the presumed presence of a comrade." Love of fellowship.

This love of a friend and dying to one's self produced countless acts of courage. "Heroism was common place," former soldier Jim Levy says in The Greatest Generation Speaks. "But there was no alternative. It is easy to be selfless when there seems to be no self."

A poorer motivation for courage is hate.

War is not without its psychopaths, but while they make good warriors, they make poor soldiers. Novelist James

Jones, a WWII vet, was quoted saying this about these men: "....they observe no firing discipline, blazing away at any enemy they see, sometimes exposing their unit to a riposte by vastly superior enemy forces. If admonished, they would accuse their fellow soldiers and even their superiors of cowardice."

A better motivation was simply duty. Soldiers wanted to get the job done and go home. Action was better than waiting. Kennett quotes an Army psychologist: "I do not feel that combat was as likely to bring out psychoneurotic behavior as boredom and lack of purpose...the number of neurotic individuals can be greatly reduced either with good leadership or an attack by the enemy."

ORGANIZATION VERSUS ORGANISM

World War II was not simply a battle between aligned countries. It truly was good against evil. Murphy wrote in his book about a soldier named Barnes. "He (Barnes) soon learns that a man does not necessarily die because a machine gun sputters, and that the enemy is not merely a being with warm flesh and blood. He is part of a wall of menace that expresses itself in the snapping of a branch, a roll of gravel, or a shadowy bulk that looms in the night. In the heat (of battle), Barnes learns coolness and calm fury. He becomes a valuable man."

During World War II the "valuable man" was still highly prized. By Korea and Viet Nam, the "organism" of the American military had become the "organization" of a political machine. Interestingly, although they occurred, there is no record of battlefield commissions during the Korean Conflict according to the National Order of Battlefield Commissions.

After Viet Nam, the Defense Department stated there had been no battlefield commissions granted during that "police action" but both General William Westmoreland and General John K. Singlaub disagreed. The NOBC claims there were 62 commissions including two Air Force POWs promoted while imprisoned by the senior officer of their compound.

More common than commissioning during Viet Nam, was the dishonorable action of "fragging". Combat units faced with fresh-faced First Lieutenants straight from "shake-and-bake" officer schools, sometimes took action into their own hands. A fragmentation grenade was rolled into the tent of the "Ninety-day wonder", killing or seriously wounding the junior officer. In a messy, confusing, unpopular war, this action seemed justified rather than having the Lieutenant's inexperience and brashness endanger the lives of other men. While communism was evil and brave Americans died, the problem of Viet Nam was the disunity and lack of resolve. Leaders at the highest level were more often concerned with career advancement than with saving American lives.

THE CHURCH AS AN ARMY

I must politely disagree with Tom Brokaw. I believe the "Greatest Generation" is yet ahead of us, though it may already be amongst us. The greatest generation will be that generation that produces the great end-time harvest of souls.

Like the World War II generation, this will be a people of "volunteers". They will not be seeking promotion, political advancement, or career possibilities. They will be laying their lives down.

To understand this future generation, we must understand that the church, too, is by nature an organism, not an organization. Unfortunately, most of the church has been restructured by man into a disorganized organization. It sends

First Lieutenants fresh out of Bible schools to the frontlines of war zones rather than promote from within through spiritual battlefield commissions. Veteran master sergeants, scarred by battle, sit in pews eager to engage the enemy; others watch, wait, and wonder; and meanwhile, the young pastor tries to apply book-learning to a harsh reality. This is reminiscent of what one Marine Corp division commander said over fifty years ago. "About 10% of the unit do all the fighting and will never cause you any trouble. About 80% are half-trained, scared to death, and are waiting to see what someone else is going to do. The other 10% never were and never will be any good." (Quote from Kennett's book)

The church today is often fighting the war as the U.S. did in Viet Nam. We are trying to overwhelm a determined, well-entrenched enemy with technology, numbers, and propaganda. No matter how selflessly the soldiers fight, the system is fatally flawed.

THE DEFINITION OF "G. I."

G. I. stands for "Government Issue". It became a slang term for America's dog-faced infantry, representing the hometown soldier who was doing a dirty job honorably and just wanted to come home.

The future Army of God will also have a G. I. that stands for Government Issue. This G. I. will be "issued" forth from the proper "government" of Five-Fold Ministry. A force built on the foundation of the prophet and the apostle with Christ as the chief cornerstone.

The work of the Five-Fold Ministry is to equip the Saints, the greatest Army ever to mobilize for the invading, liberating and occupying of this earth. Working now behind the scenes are many in God's resistance army. These are men and women of God who stealthily do the work of the ministry, often outside of the organized church system. Found here is the "valuable man" that Audie Murphy talked about. The ones who in the heat of battle have learned a calm fury. "Plans are established by counsel," says Proverbs 20:18, "and by wise counsel wage war." Wise counsel is the counsel of experience, not the arrogance of theory.

A young Army is waiting to be rallied, trained, equipped, and sent forth. This is an Army of unity with a Holy purpose, not a police action for political advantage. But, this is not a time to frag Lieutenants. It is a time to promote the servants.

There are many qualified for promotion by the leadership and courage they have shown while under fire. Like Jeremiah's scribe, Baruch, they have learned not to seek great things for themselves. They have been satisfied with having their lives. Among these are the supply sergeants. Napoleon said: "An Army travels on its stomach." And David said: "But as his part who goes down to the battle, so shall be his part who stays by the supplies." (1 Samuel 31:4). There are apostles of the marketplace preparing to be released. They will walk in their anointing and not merely write checks for building funds. They will know of wealth is created, not merely how it is redistributed.

This will be a radical Army. Jehu was commissioned from an officer to a King and even though he saw Jezebel and the descendents of Ahab destroyed he ultimately failed. He compromised and fell into Jeroboam's sin of worshipping golden calves.

Promotion is coming. It is coming to those who have not loved their lives unto death but know that no greater love have no man except that he lay down his life for a friend.

Selflessness is the criteria for spiritual commissioning. "Remove the turban," said Ezekiel. "And take off the crown. Nothing shall remain the same. Exalt the humble and humble the exalted." (Ezekiel 21:26).

War looms on the horizon. The trumpet sounds. Sergeants, corporals, and even privates are now being tested in the Baptism of Fire that they might be commissioned to leadership.

Perhaps Emerson said it best:

"So nigh is grandeur to our dust so near is God to man, When duty whispers low, "Thou Must" The Youth replies, "I can".

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Battle of Britain - A Call to the Allies

Leonard Hjalmarson

"If the British Empire lasts for a thousand years, men will say, 'This was their finest hour!'" Sir Winston Churchill

Last fall the Lord seemed to be saying to me that a new Battle of Britain was being waged or about to be waged. I had been thinking about the battle a great deal, and a friend and I had planned to rent the movie one Saturday evening. No one knew that except my wife. Then mid day I had email from an acquaintance 2000 miles away that the movie was playing on the History channel that evening.

I noted the coincidence for two reasons. First, because in my real life occupation I was writing for an online magazine about military simulations. Second, because I had had some personal words about a call to combat and strategy for the kingdom.

Anyway, when we got together in the evening we both felt there might be a message in the movie that the Lord wanted us to hear. I took some notes as a result. But first let me share the quote that comes on screen at the close:

"Never in the field of human endeavor has so much been owed by so many to so few." Sir Winston Churchill

If that isn't a picture of intercession I've never seen one!

The Intelligence Network: Baker Street Irregulars

This year is the 60th anniversary of the Battle of Britain, which began on July 10th, 1940.

The intelligence network was in development for a full year before the war. They were called the "Baker Street Irregulars." Those around them thought them an odd lot, and they were! They were bankers and scientists, toy makers and magicians, and soldiers and thieves... but they knew their part and understood their destiny. Lester B. Pearson later wrote,

"The need was for unconventional men and women who understood that the Second World War was ideological and fought against political terrorism. The guerilla and the agent had to forego the certainty and tradition of military life - external marks of respect, uniforms and unquestioning obedience."

There were a few famous among them, but many more who would have been famous when the war ended if their tale could be told. Yet they had no rank or privilege. None were well paid, because it was critical that they remained invisible to the enemy before the war, and still important that they remained low key during the war. They didn't want to attract attention to themselves or their work.

In the same way, the Lord is building an intelligence network for the Kingdom today. The network will be strong, and fruitful in unity. Strategies for warfare are being released. Those building networks today for the sake of the Kingdom are like agents working under cover. The Lord has hidden the significance of some of this work from the enemy, and even many Christian leaders haven't seen the importance of what God is doing.

It doesn't matter. The nameless and faceless ones are being raised up to establish Kingdom foundations and to prepare for war. Their work will be international and will change nations.

The Allies: Canadian and British and American

Recently I've been reading "A Man Called Intrepid," the story of the Canadian who headed up the Baker Street Irregulars and who built the intelligence network that spanned the globe. William Stephenson was the right hand man of Winston Churchill: secretly, before Churchill came to power, and then later when he was Prime Minister. He also became a critical link to Roosevelt and the White House.

Last week John Keating of "Fireland" Ministries visited with us while on a trip to Seattle. John told us about plans to visit Germany in June and tear down the "Seat of Satan," which is in Berlin. Hitler was well aware of that particular place, and in fact had copies of it built in at least one other German city, where all kinds of occult ceremonies were practiced.

When John told us about their plans, I was struck that a British team is making a strategic attack in Germany. The timing is significant, since July 10th is the 60th anniversary of the Battle of Britain. I believe there is a significant role for Britain and Canada and the US in the strategy of the Lord in the spirit for Britain and Europe this year.

The Americans were also involved intimately in the intelligence network, though their role was even more cautiously guarded since they were neutral through this battle. Bill Donovan was the visible American counterpart to William Stephenson, whose activity remained mostly hidden.

Lessons from the Battle of Britain

In the Battle of Britain the home guard was an important element. In the war that is going to be waged in the coming years every common soldier is important. If we can mobilize even the butcher, baker and candlestick maker, the battle will be easier for all of us. It's time to release God's army!

Don't delay. The delay of the German army was their loss and an opportunity for the British to prepare. While the military machinery in Britain wasn't really prepared, the Baker Street Irregulars had been working behind the scenes for months. There were special underground training camps, notably Camp X in Ontario, Canada. The time we have now is a time to build and to train for war.

In the initial skirmishes with the British the Germans took out many of their radar sites. As a result, the British ability to know what the enemy was up to became limited. The network of observers on the ground, and intercepted intelligence was a backup. This will likely be a tactic of the enemy: attack those who see in the spirit, and attack the intercessors. We need to cover our radar!

The initial onslaught is already occurring and may be the heaviest of the war. The enemy will target key people and ministries. Some of these key people don't appear to be anybody, because they are "Irregulars" who have not yet been released into the battle.

Fatigue and discouragement are great dangers. The Nazis were adept in psychological warfare and disinformation. They attempted to manipulate opinion and create fear so that resistance could be overcome without ever engaging their physical forces. Some leaders in the church have been influenced by the spirit of control and have actually created bondage rather than release for God's warriors. We need to keep our eyes fixed on Jesus and our minds filled with truth. Earlier this year Rick Joyner wrote,

"there is about to be a clear distinction between those who have received their authority from above, and those who have promoted themselves, or been promoted by institutions. The latter authorities will be increasingly revealed as operating in the control, political and religious spirits. "

"This is Satan's "cord of three strands" that he has used to bind the church. That cord will soon be broken, and the true liberty of the Spirit released in the world, and the church which will fall into increasing tyranny and bondage to evil. 'Where the Spirit of the Lord is there is liberty' (II Corinthians 3:17)."

There will also be some feinting manouvers. The enemy will use distractions to keep us from seeing what he is really about. He may seem to come against some areas, churches and people and then actually show that his real target is something else entirely. We NEED our intelligence network functioning at capacity through prophets and gifts of discernment and wisdom.

The battle is decided in the air. We can't resist the enemy in any area successfully without air cover. We also won't make progress in any area against the enemy without air cover. If we win the air war, we win it all. If we lose the air war we will be quickly overrun.

The Germans, in their pride, underestimated the forces against them. Let's not make the same mistake. Pride goes before a fall.

Somehow Britain and Europe are key in God's plans right now, and also prominent in the sights of the enemy. Losses initially could be heavy, but without air cover will be devastating. Britain will again become a staging ground for the Allies in taking Europe.

The British used group and squadron tactics very successfully. In fact, without the ability to rally large groups of fighters to a specific area at a moments notice, the war would have been lost. Perhaps the internet will become the HQ for this Battle of Britain, with prophetic calls to rally in prayer at the right place and time. I'm sure there are prayer networks in Britain and Europe that the Lord has raised up for this purpose.

Group tactics are also for the protection of combat teams. Going into battle alone is a good way to get taken out. Air cover (intercessors) must cover the warriors while they do battle.

Team work is critical, and the communication network must function effectively to avoid confusion or "friendly fire" accidents. Leaders who operate alone without a cover will be particularly vulnerable. There is too much for one or two people to do and too much for a few people to know. Isolation will result in discouragement and failure.

Leadership

"And now it has come to us to stand alone in the breach, and face the worst that the tyrant's might and enmity can do. Bearing ourselves humbly before God, but conscious that we serve an unfolding purpose, we are ready to defend our native land against the invasion by which it is threatened. We are fighting by ourselves alone; but we are not fighting for ourselves alone." Churchill, July 14, 1940

"Some men are born to greatness, others acquire greatness, and still others have greatness thrust upon them." John F. Kennedy

This phrase from Kennedy came to mind as I was seeking the Lord about all this. There will be new leaders rising from this battle, many forged in the heat of the conflict, others rising up whom the Lord has been preparing quietly behind the scenes for years. Again from Rick Joyner,

"Freedom is coming. A new breed of leader is going to arise who will fulfill the mandate of true New Testament ministry to equip the people, and allow them to do the ministry. This will probably come in many forms, but it will come. It must. A true New Testament church leader is only successful if he or she is raising up others who can do what they do. Is that not the model that the Lord gave us for leadership? Then we will also have true church growth, which is not just growing fat, but growing strong as well." From Megatrends in the New Millennium

In an interview on the days of the Baker Street Irregulars, Noel Coward commented:

"Technical expertise isn't worth a damn if you don't get the best out of people. Winston understood that, and so did Roosevelt... These were leaders who saw the strength in ordinary people. Camp X did that.. took ordinary people and showed them how to break tyranny."

What is the Goal of Battle?

The goal is the liberation of Europe. The Allies will take Britain and Europe for Christ and raise up a new Reformation. The first reformation began in Germany and Sweden, but the reformers persecuted the Jews and radical reformers and so division and dissension and terror cut short the work God wanted to do with His people.

In January of this year Paul Yonggi Cho, while visiting Seattle, prophesied that the new reformation would be birthed in Canada and then taken to the world. Allied ABC teams (American, British, Canadian) will seed a new reformation across Europe, jump starting what the Lord began more than four hundred years ago. This time there will be a release of priesthood and an army of "irregulars" will rise up to complete the unfinished work of reformation.

Ordinary people will grasp their identity and authority as ministers of Christ and the sons of Levi will take their stand in the heavenlies.

Prepare for war. Britain was the linchpin for the defense and then re-conquest of Europe.

"If the British Empire lasts for a thousand years, men will say, 'This was their finest hour!'" Sir Winston Churchill

"This is no war of chieftains or of princes, of dynasties or national ambition; it is a war of peoples and of causes. There are vast numbers, not only in this Island but in every land, who will render faithful service in this war, but whose names will never be known, whose deeds will never be recorded. This is a War of the Unknown Warriors; but let all strive without failing in faith or in duty, and the dark curse of Hitler will be lifted from our age." Churchill, July 14, 1940

Len Hjalmarson

vikings11@home.com

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Their Blood Cries Out

Jill Austin

Dear Friends,

Not only is the revelation of the beauty of God being released with millions coming into the Kingdom, but hell is also vomiting out its murderous rage in unparalleled fury. God has told many of you that you are called to martyrdom. What can you do to prepare? What can you do to make a difference in these last days? With so many lost and dying people in the nations, my heart is stirred to take a fresh look at what may be ahead for many of us.

Martyrdom - Their Blood Cries Out
Jill Austin

“They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death.” Rev. 12:11

Beaten and Raped For the Gospel

In the summer of 1998, a young woman from Sudan, Africa, was attacked, severely beaten, and raped by Muslims simply because she was wearing a cross. When she tried to escape, her throat was slit and she was bayoneted in the back.

Her assailants ripped her dress off and proceeded to melt water bottles and pour the hot, liquid plastic onto her skin, leaving it in puddles and scarring her for life. She survived the brutal assault only to become pregnant by the horrible incident and is now raising her child.

600 Million Suffering People

Seventy-five percent of the world’s Christians live in third world nations - nations that are predominantly Hindu, Buddhist, and Muslim. Persecution in many nations brings extortion, family division and separation, harassment, and discrimination in employment and education while over 600 million Christians live as second-class citizens in their societies.

Pacifying Theology

In the Western church today, “intimacy with Jesus” has become a sweet and oft-heard phrase echoing in church halls as believers quote from Philippians 3:10: “That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection . . . .” But they don’t finish the verse: “. . . and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death.”

This irony is a powerful revelation - that intimacy comes through suffering! That is why Holy Spirit chose to use Paul not only to pen these words, but also to demonstrate them through his own life of suffering for the gospel.

The Western church has developed a pacifying theology of telling herself that suffering is not the will of God, but that it is Satan having his way in the life of a believer. Accusations rise up in our hearts against a sovereign God’s inability to alleviate pain and suffering in our lives, preventing us from embracing the Cross.

Ready or Not!

Martyrdom and persecution are on the rise in America and the Western nations. Yet, many of us still believe that suffering means we aren’t physically comfortable or that persecution means our family thinks we are just too radical when we refuse to watch a certain program on TV.

Jesus paints a different picture in Luke 9:23,24: "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me. For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will save it." Many will lose their lives and be martyred, but they will overcome their accuser "by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony," not having "loved their lives to the death." (Rev. 12:11)

I once saw a pastor standing in front of a large map of the world that was mounted on the wall of his church while Holy Spirit was brooding over the room. In tears, he told the Lord that he would send his sons and daughters from his church to the nations - even if it meant that they would be martyred. Women of Destiny, release your life to the glorious cause of Christ. Learn to love Him so much that you, too, will join those who have not "loved their lives to the death."

Reprinted from the Women of Destiny Bible, (c) copyright 2000 by Thomas Nelson, Inc. Used by permission.

Yearning to Burning!

Many of us sit in dead, dull churches week after week, longing to do radical exploits and move in signs and wonders ... but we don't. We yearn to be ablaze with something worth dying for, something that would so grip and move our hearts that we would soar above the mundane and the pettiness of this world. Yet, many of us do not walk across the street to even witness to our lost and dying neighbors!

How do we get from yearning to burning? We need what the men and women of old possessed ... a revelation of His majesty and incomprehensible love so that our testimony cannot be stopped, no matter what the circumstances are.

Visitation Brings Revelation!

We all long to be burning and shining lamps like John the Baptist, with the fire of Holy Spirit blazing within our being. He received a revelation of the Bridegroom King and did not love his life, even unto death. How we need a visitation from the Beautiful One. A visitation and revelation that so rocks the core of our being that nothing stays the same. Go or stay ... live or die ... plenty or nothing ... we would desire only one thing - to run with Him.

Pray Dangerous Prayers

Join me as we agree in prayer: "Lord, I want a life-changing visitation, an encounter with You so I am radically and eternally changed. Give me the kind of hunger John the Baptist burned with. Make me so in love with You that I will endure pain, suffering, separation, and even death, to further Your purposes in the earth. Replace this shriveled up, dull heart with an abandoned and reckless passion to redeem out of every tribe and nation a people for Yourself."

Jill Austin Ministries

<http://www.jillaustin.org>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Beard

Joseph Herrin

The Significance of the Beard

Joseph Herrin (7-19-2000)

Some may wonder why I would take the time to write about the beard. After all, isn't wearing a beard, or not wearing one, just a matter of personal choice concerning grooming and appearance? This is the mindset of the Western world that many Christians find themselves in. But the scriptures actually have much to say about the beard and Paul told Timothy that "ALL scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching... and instruction in righteousness" (II Timothy 3:16).

We live in a day when the revelation of the Spirit, the voice of the prophets, the signs in the heavens, and other witnesses are testifying that a full stature man child is about to come forth. The manifesting of the mature sons of God is about to be revealed. The scriptures also reveal to us that Christ will return during a period of time described as the "restoration of ALL things" (Acts 3:20, 21).

That which has been out of order will be put back in order. That which has been lost and neglected will be found once more and adhered to. The matter of the significance of the beard of man is one of these things that is being restored, and it is not coincidental that the beard is representative of a man of maturity and full stature and its symbolism is coming back into light at this hour.

Although it is rarely preached upon, God gave Moses specific instructions regarding the beard of man and how it was to be worn. As with many of the instructions given to Israel, great symbolism was bound up in this matter. Even as the observances of the feasts pointed to spiritual truths and future fulfillment of the will of God, so does the matter of the beard.

Consider the Hebrew meaning for the word beard and its significance begins to be shown. The Hebrew word for beard is zaqan (zaw-kawn'). This is Strong's' word 2206 and we are told in Strong's' dictionary of Hebrew and Greek words that the word for beard comes from the related word zaqen (zaw-kane'), which is a primitive root meaning to be old. The correlation to this second word for age is so clear that Strong's dictionary defines the Hebrew word for beard as "the beard (as indicating age)."

To the Hebrew mind the beard was clearly a symbol of maturity and age. This was not a cultural viewpoint, rather it was an understanding of God's design in placing a beard on mature males. A boy cannot grow a beard. A boy is one who is not mature. When a young male passes through the time in his life defined as puberty some distinct outward signs accompany this advancement to maturity. One of the signs is that the voice takes on a deeper timber, it becomes more commanding. Another obvious sign is the growth of body hair and, for a male who is modestly arrayed, the only part of this growth that is seen is that which is on the face.

It is interesting to note that the Webster's 1933 Dictionary, (the one I often refer to, preferring the older and more conventional definitions), defines puberty in this way: "the age of maturity; manhood, adult; the time a plant comes into flower." Did you note that puberty also refers to the time that a plant comes into flower? Is not the beard of a man a sign of the flowering of his manhood? Even as the flower is the beauty and adornment of many plants, so is the beard the beauty and adornment of a man as he crosses the line of puberty and comes into the age of maturity.

God gave the beard to man for beauty and glory. Older men whose beards had turned grey were to be accorded special honor because the grey beard was a sign of even greater maturity. We find this understanding in the following verse.

Leviticus 19:32 Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear thy God: I am the LORD. (KJV)

The phrase “Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head” and the phrase “and honour the face of the old man” are actually parallel expressions denoting the same truth. The hoary, or grey head directly corresponds to the phrase “the face of the old man.” The hoary head certainly could include the grey hair found on top of the head, but it most specifically refers to the grey hair of the face which is the beard.

An amazing truth is found as one begins to link certain words found here to other scriptures. The word ‘face’ in the above verse is the Hebrew word ‘paniym’ (paw-neem'). It literally means face, but is often interpreted as ‘presence.’ One such place this word is interpreted ‘presence’ is in the scriptures that talk about the Tabernacle of God. In the middle court of the Tabernacle was found the bread of the presence that was placed on the table of shewbread. The word ‘presence’ here is the same word ‘paniym’ which literally means face. The bread that was placed on the Table of shewbread was actually the “bread of faces.”

The articles in the Tabernacle were symbolic. To reach the middle court, or the Holy Place the believer has to pass through the Outer Court which symbolizes spirit salvation. He has to go through the washings and repentance symbolized by the altar sacrifices and such a one has submitted himself to the continual searching and cleansing of God. These are then able to enter into the Spirit filled life typified by the section of the Tabernacle called the Holy Place. Those in this place were to feed on the bread that came down from heaven, which is Christ. We eat Christ’s body as we meditate on Him and fellowship and commune with Him. As we behold His ‘face’ we are transformed into His image.

II Corinthians 3:18 But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit. (NAS)

The longer one looks at the face of Christ the more one becomes transformed into His likeness. This does not come suddenly, but over time. John spoke the following in his first epistle.

I John 2:12, 13

12 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for His name's sake.

13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know Him who has been from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I have written to you, children, because you know the Father. (NAS)

John makes a distinction between children, young men, and fathers. The distinction is very revealing. Spiritual children are focused on overcoming sin and they have come to see God as their Father. This is good, but it is just the first stage of maturity. Young men are focused on overcoming the evil one and they are becoming strong, as John further reveals. They are enjoying flexing their spiritual muscles. This is a definite advancement from the child stage. Spiritual fathers, however, are known by their knowledge of “Him who is from the beginning.”

John writes to both children and fathers “because you know Him”, but what they know of Him is quite different. Children know Him only as Father and they are still focused on forgiveness of sins. Fathers are advanced in knowledge of God until they are described as “knowing Him who is from the beginning.” This highest level of maturity is marked by a deep knowledge of God.

The longer one feeds on the bread of faces found in the Holy Place, the more one becomes transformed into the image he is beholding. His own face begins to reflect the image and glory of God. This is symbolically witnessed to by the sign of the beard that God has placed upon the face of man. Not only does the beard express the glory of maturity, but it serves to cover the flesh of a man’s face.

The fathers that John writes to are being transformed into God’s image from having spent much time beholding Him. This deeper conformity to God is evidenced in a greater glory resting upon these mature ones as is stated in I Corinthians 3:18. We are “being transformed into the same image from glory to glory.” Those who have long gazed upon the face of God have attained to the greatest glory, and in the natural God has set the beard, and particularly the grey beard, as a symbol of this truth.

This is a marvelous truth. All the way back in the book of Leviticus God said “Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man.” Honor was to be accorded to those who were of great age in the natural realm as a sign of the parallel principle that honor is to be accorded those who have greatly matured in the spiritual realm. Both principles must be adhered to. An old man in the natural is to be honored, whether he has attained to a deep knowledge of God, or not. This is a sign indicating that we understand the spiritual principle that we are to honor those who have matured in the Lord.

God has declared this matter in the manifestation of the beard. A child does not have a beard. He has little maturity and little glory and honor are accorded him. A young man has achieved a certain level of maturity and even as he has put away childish things he has flowered and his beard has grown and God has set a mark of maturity upon him. As a man perseveres in his pursuit of God and continues to look steadfastly at the face of God, he begins to enter an even greater realm of glory and he acquires a grey beard which is his crown of glory.

Why then do so many men, especially Christian men, shave off the beard? A great portion of the reason has to do with the fact that the body of Christ has lain in immaturity for so long. When the body should have long ago progressed to eating meat, they have remained drinking only the milk of the word. When they should have advanced to the place of being teachers themselves, they have need for someone to teach them again. The body has failed to come to maturity, and as a judgment against them God has allowed them to fall under the deception and delusion of Satan. They have cut off their beards which symbolize their advancement past childhood and in an outward way they are agreeing with God that they truly lack maturity. God prophesied through Isaiah that this would happen.

Isaiah 66:4 I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not. (KJV)

This is an awesome thing indeed. God said, "I also will choose their delusions..." A delusion has come upon the mind of man. Man has failed to press on to maturity as God has designed and as a judgment God has given them over to delusion. One of these delusions which God has chosen is that man should despise his beard which was given to him as a sign of maturity and a symbol of glory. Even as the body of Christ has failed to mature and to become worthy of glory, a delusion has come over them where they willingly shave and cast off that which God designed to proclaim maturity. Is this not a most fitting judgment and delusion for those who have not answered God, nor listened to Him when He spoke?

To those who would say that the beard is just an external matter and it holds no real value, I would ask "Why do you want to throw away that which God has ordained to cover the face of man?" Do you have a good reason for doing so? We teach that the spiritual realm takes precedence over the physical or natural realm, but it is in the natural realm that what is in our spirits is manifest. Is this not why God created man in the first place, that He might have a way to manifest His person to all of creation?

Christ Jesus had a beard and we know that He only did what He saw the Father doing. Jesus did not wear a beard because it was a social standard of the time. The only standard Jesus conformed Himself to was the standard of His Father. He did not see the Father cutting off the beard, so he did not cut off the beard. Jesus not only had a beard, He had a substantial beard. We are told of Him "I gave My back to those who struck Me, and My cheeks to those who plucked out the beard..." (Isaiah 50:6). One cannot easily pluck out the beard of one who has cut his beard short. It is only a full beard that can be grasped and pulled in this manner. Furthermore, Jesus said that He came to fulfill the Law and the Law has these commands concerning the beard:

Leviticus 19:27 'You shall not shave around the sides of your head, nor shall you disfigure the edges of your beard. (NKJ)

Leviticus 21:1, 5 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them... 'They shall not make any baldness on their heads, nor shave off the edges of their beards (NAS)

Nelson's Bible Dictionary has this to say about the beard.

In biblical times most adult males of Israel wore full beards. An oiled and well-kept beard was a mark of pride (Ps. 133:2).

The Law of Moses required Israelite men not to "disfigure the edges" of their beards (Lev. 19:27), a common practice of Israel's pagan neighbors.

To shave or pull out part of the beard was a sign of grief (Jer. 48:37-38), and to cut off someone's beard was to insult him (2 Sam. 10:4-5). Isaiah 7:20 pictures God's judgment on Israel as a shaving of the nation's beard, an intentional disgrace. (from Nelson's Illustrated Bible Dictionary) (Copyright © 1986, Thomas Nelson Publishers)

Note: The reference to the beard being a mark of pride is not used in a negative sense, but a positive one. The scripture referred to is Psalm 133:2. This verse and the one preceding it state the following:

Psalm 133:1-2

- 1 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity!
- 2 It is like the precious oil upon the head, coming down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard, coming down upon the edge of his robes. (NAS)

This is clearly a beautiful and honorable thing. In fact the beard is intended as a sign of beauty and glory. God intends man to be crowned with beauty and glory.

Psalm 8:4-5

- 4 What is man, that Thou dost take thought of him? And the son of man, that Thou dost care for him?
- 5 Yet Thou hast made him a little lower than God, and dost crown him with glory and majesty (hadar)! (NAS)

The word for majesty in the Hebrew is the word 'hadar'. Strongs' Dictionary gives us this description: "magnificence, i.e. ornament or splendor: -beauty, comeliness, excellency, glorious, glory, goodly, honour, majesty." In Deuteronomy God reveals that it is His desire and intent to lift men up, not to abase them. He has created them for glory, not for dishonor.

Deuteronomy 26:17-19

- 17 "You have today declared the LORD to be your God, and that you would walk in His ways and keep His statutes, His commandments and His ordinances, and listen to His voice.
- 18 "And the LORD has today declared you to be His people, a treasured possession, as He promised you, and that you should keep all His commandments;
- 19 and that He shall set you high above all nations which He has made, for praise, fame, and honor; and that you shall be a consecrated people to the LORD your God, as He has spoken." (NAS)

However, as Nelson's Bible Dictionary states, God will abase those who fail to walk in faithfulness before Him. In Isaiah God symbolically spoke of shaving off Israel's beard as a sign of their disgrace.

Isaiah 7:20 In that day the Lord will use a razor hired from beyond the River-- the king of Assyria-- to shave your head and the hair of your legs, and to take off your beards also. (NIV)

To have the beard shaved off was a sign of great disgrace. This is shown clearly in the story of King David's ambassadors who were disgraced by the Ammonites by having their robes cut in two and having half of their beards cut off. David was so enraged that he declared war on the Ammonites and destroyed them. So deep was the shame of David's ambassadors that David told them to not return to Jerusalem until their beards were grown back, but to stay in Jericho.

II Samuel 10:5 When they told it to David, he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly humiliated. And the king said, "Stay at Jericho until your beards grow, and then return." (NAS)

Is it not a great delusion that has led men today to so carelessly cast off that which God designed to be for their glory and beauty, that which was to distinguish men from boys and from women? Rightly did Paul prophesy to Timothy the following:

II Timothy 3:1-5

- 1 But realize this, that in the last days difficult times will come.
- 2 For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, revilers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy,
- 3 unloving, irreconcilable, malicious gossips, without self-control, brutal, haters of good,
- 4 treacherous, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God;

5 holding to a form of godliness, although they have denied its power; and avoid such men as these. (NAS)

We live in the generation Paul spoke of and it is fitting that a generation that has so despised God and pursued their own pleasure should be shorn of the glory that God ordained to be revealed in the beard of a man. Men having failed to seek after God have remolded themselves after the fashion they desired and they have uncovered their faces.

However, God does have a remnant that are coming to maturity in this day and hour. These will be used of God to go forth before the return of Christ and prepare the way before Him. These will walk in a similar calling as did John the Baptist, setting things in order that have been out of order, and calling men and women to repentance. These will be used of the Lord to begin to restore all things that have been lost and neglected, of which this teaching is but one small part.

As the man child spoken of in Revelation 12 is revealed and as the sons of God spoken of in Romans 8:19 come forth manifesting a maturity that the church has not known, the signs of maturity that God has set in the natural order of things will be restored. The beard is intended to be a beautiful thing and for the great majority of men, it is only with stubborn persistence that they keep it from manifesting. Even so, the maturity that God has ordained to be the portion of His church has been stubbornly resisted, and many have turned to other things. This is precisely why Paul described this time as "perilous days." Men have heaped to themselves teachers to titillate and entertain, and it is with difficulty that they are made to endure sound doctrine.

I am confident that maturity will come to the body of Christ for the scriptures foretell it, but for many it will only be as they demonstrate great patience in the midst of severe trials. Those who willingly give themselves to God as a freewill offering will always find their way easier than those who resist God and are forced with a bit and bridle to go where they have not desired.

God will bring forth the unity that David spoke of in the Psalms and it will be even as he described it, as the dew upon Mount Hermon, or as the oil upon the head of Aaron, running down the beard and onto the robes. Unity will be restored and once again believers will greet one another with a holy kiss. This was the manner of greeting in days of old and it has not changed.

In the book of II Samuel we are shown a description of the manner of the greeting of brothers who were united in oneness and friendship. Although Joab was being treacherous and patterning the same deceit that was later found in Judas when he betrayed our Lord with a kiss, we see the pattern for the holy greeting.

II Sam 20:9 And Joab said to Amasa, "Is it well with you, my brother?" And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him. (NAS)

In the instruction to "greet one another with a holy kiss" it was intended for men to greet men and women to greet women. For men and women to greet in this way would be improper and would open the door for temptation and lead to adultery. In this manner of greeting the man would reach out with his right hand and grasp the beard of a brother. Throughout the ages the right hand has represented fellowship and even in many churches today the saints speak of extending the right hand of fellowship.

As one reached out and grasped the beard of a brother he was touching that which was the glory and beauty of the brother. This was a sign of affection and an acknowledgment of the other brother's maturity in Christ. The brothers would then kiss one another on the cheek. We are told by Christ that all men will know we are brothers by our love. Indeed, how beautiful it is for brothers to dwell together in unity.

However, many saints are having much difficulty holding onto one another today. Even as the beard is missing, so is the maturity that it represents. Brothers that lack maturity manifest it by their divisions and strife. Where there is immaturity there is division and strife and a lack of unity, and consequently the sincere greeting of the holy kiss is missing. This is found in Paul's words to the Corinthian believers.

I Corinthians 3:1-4

- 1 And I, brethren, could not speak to you as to spiritual men, but as to men of flesh, as to babes in Christ.
- 2 I gave you milk to drink, not solid food; for you were not yet able to receive it. Indeed, even now you are not yet able,

- 3 for you are still fleshly. For since there is jealousy and strife among you, are you not fleshly, and are you not walking like mere men?
- 4 For when one says, "I am of Paul," and another, "I am of Apollos," are you not mere men? (NAS)

In this passage we see both the inability of the saints to partake of the solid meat of the teachings and doctrines of Christ, and we see the jealousy and strife among them. Both of these are signs of immaturity. Even as a very small child cannot yet eat meat, neither could these believers. Even as small children bicker and quarrel, so did these saints. Paul declares that they are fleshly, and this description of being fleshly typifies a man's face that has not yet grown a beard, or the face of a man who has cut his beard off. Both symbolize immaturity.

For brothers to greet one another with a holy kiss after the manner previously described, they must move on to maturity. They must symbolically allow their beards to grow so that other brothers have something to grasp and hold onto while embracing. The smooth face of childhood that the church has presented to the world and to one another has kept the unity from coming forth which God has desired.

Yes, the beard is but an outward symbol of greater truths, but they are important truths. It would avail a man little to grow a beard, even a grey beard that is full and glorious, and to not have grown to maturity in Christ. God has called us to a harmony of the natural and the spiritual. It is unfitting to see adults acting in a childish manner. The apostle Paul declared that when he became a man that he put away childish things. Our outward appearance is to reflect our inward condition.

E-mail: bherrin@hotmail.com

website: <http://heart4god.8k.com>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Bride as Seen in Esther

Joseph Herrin

The Bible is full of images of brides. These images were given to provide understanding of the ultimate bride, which is the Bride of Christ. In the book of Esther we read of a bride that was prepared for a king. Even so, the Bride of Christ is being prepared for her King.

The events of the book of Esther take place within the empire of the Medes and the Persians during the time of Israel and Judah's exile. King Ahasuerus was a Mede. He was also known by the Greek form of his name, Xerxes. He reigned from 486 to 465 B.C..

In the third year of his reign he gave a banquet and "displayed the riches of his royal glory and the splendor of his great majesty for many days..." (Esther 1:4). On the seventh day of his great banquet he commanded his eunuchs "to bring Queen Vashti before the king with her royal crown in order to display her beauty to the people and the princes, for she was beautiful" (Esther 1:11).

The timing is important to note here. It was on the seventh day of the great banquet that the queen was commanded to come forth. We are told in scripture, "But do not let this one fact escape your notice, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day" (II Peter 3:8). The world since Adam has experienced 6,000 years; 4,000 before Christ, and 2,000 since His birth. This equates to 6 days. We are just entering into the 7th millennium, or the 7th day.

King Ahasuerus, in this illustration, is a type of Jesus Christ, the King of Kings. On the 7th day Jesus will summon His Queen to come before Him, but because she does not revere Him as Lord, she will refuse to answer His summons, presented by His eunuchs (ministers).

12 But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command delivered by the eunuchs. Then the king became very angry and his wrath burned within him.

13 Then the king said to the wise men who understood the times...

15 "According to law, what is to be done with Queen Vashti, because she did not obey the command of King Ahasuerus delivered by the eunuchs?"

Esther 1:12, 13, 15

Even so, let the wise men and women of our day, who discern the times, realize that this same event is being played out. Notice what was determined to be done to Queen Vashti due to her failure to revere King Ahasuerus as her lord and to respond in obedience to his summons.

"If it pleases the king, let a royal edict be issued by him and let it be written in the laws of Persia and Media so that it cannot be repealed, that Vashti should come no more into the presence of King Ahasuerus, and let the king give her royal position to another who is more worthy than she."

Esther 1:19

Due to disobedience, Vashti was no longer permitted to enter the presence of the king. Much of the body of Christ today also is failing in obedience to their King and they will be excluded from the honor of entering His presence. "Another who is more worthy" will be accorded this honor.

For all those saints who have been falsely taught that salvation by faith affords them all of the honor of heaven and access to God's presence, as well as access to all of God's most holy things, this is a wake-up call. It is those who are worthy who will be granted such honor.

It does not say that Vashti was killed, or cast out. She was simply stripped of her honor. How terrible to be betrothed to the king, yet denied access to his presence. Shame due to her folly followed her for the rest of her life.

What tremendous grief she must have felt when her royal position was given to another. Many in the body of Christ are making the same error today. Shame and grief will be their portion as well.

Much of the body of Christ has been presented with a distorted view of God's desire for them. They have been taught that expressing faith in Jesus Christ to attain salvation is the pinnacle of what is set before them. Unknown to much of the church, salvation is only the beginning, it is not the end. Salvation is a loosing from the bondage to sin that we should forevermore become slaves to righteousness (Romans 6). We were formerly conformed to the ways of a fallen and sinful world, now we are to be conformed to the image of Christ (Romans 8:29). This conforming comes as a process. Salvation is but the first step in this process.

Many saints today, having confessed faith in Christ, are then assured by others that they can now continue on to pursue personal happiness much as they did before salvation. They are even taught that God will be there to help them achieve the selfish longings of their hearts. The Lordship of Christ is overlooked, or given very minimal attention. Such saints ultimately fall into the pattern of Queen Vashti. They love the honor of being wed to the King, but they see the King as existing to meet their needs. Obedience is foreign to them. They obey only when God's desire for them coincides with their own desire.

When Jesus calls those who have been betrothed to Him to respond in obedience in this hour, many will refuse. Jesus will then respond as King Ahasuerus; He will restrict access to His presence to the disobedient ones. He will then search for another who is more worthy to be His Bride. This obedient Bride will be given honor and afforded access to His presence.

We are told that after the anger of King Ahasuerus subsided that he remembered his queen. He could not repeal the royal edict, so his advisers counseled him to have a new queen sought out. Beautiful virgins from all over his kingdom were gathered to his capitol and they were placed under the care of Hegai, the eunuch in charge of the king's harem. Hegai was charged with the responsibility of preparing these chosen ones to meet the king. Esther was among those picked for consideration to become the bride of Ahasuerus.

Once selected, these beautiful young virgins were not immediately ready to go into the king's chamber. A preparation process was required first. For these young women the process lasted an entire year.

for the days of their beautification were completed as follows: six months with oil of myrrh and six months with spices and the cosmetics for women--

Esther 2:12

It was only after the virgin went through a year of preparation that she was ready to be presented to the king. The first six months of this process was marked by the pronounced usage of oil of myrrh. Myrrh should be recognized by most believers as a spice that was used in preparing bodies for burial. After Christ's crucifixion we are told that His body was prepared for burial and myrrh is especially mentioned.

I think it is significant in the description of this event found in the book of John that it repeatedly states that Christ's body was taken away and prepared. The Bride is a remnant portion of the body of Christ, and, as is seen in the book of Esther, a preparation with oil of myrrh is an important part of her being made ready.

38 And after these things Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but a secret one, for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate granted permission. He came therefore, and took away His body.

39 And Nicodemus came also, who had first come to Him by night; bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds weight.

40 And so they took the body of Jesus, and bound it in linen wrappings with the spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews.

John 19:38 - 40

Myrrh, for the virgin bride candidates of the king, represented death as well. The one chosen to be the bride of the king was to live for the king's pleasure. She was to respond to his summons with quick obedience. No longer was her life her own, she belonged to another. Essentially, she was to die to her own life. In the same way the scriptures tell those betrothed to Christ that they are no longer their own, "For you have been bought with a price" (1 Corinthians 6:20).

Death is the first step of preparation that those who would become the Bride of Christ must go through. Salvation is not an end. It is a beginning. Our salvation was purchased with the blood of Jesus. The purchase price was exceedingly high, but it was paid. We are now no longer our own. We must die to our own desires, goals, and ambitions. Christ's life must become our life, His will our will, His desires our desires.

This death process doesn't come all at once, nor in a single moment of time. The flesh's desire to seek after self is firmly entrenched in our being. It takes considerable time just to identify all of the ways in which we have sought our own welfare. Some forms of selfishness are very subtle. The scriptures teach us that even our righteousness, that which we deem to be good, is as filthy rags in God's sight (Isaiah 64:6).

It is in this death process that obedience is learned and an end of personal initiative is brought forth. This time of preparation is designed to produce a suitable and compatible Bride for Christ. She must become like Him, conformed to His image.

Death to personal initiative was a characteristic of Jesus. It was exemplified in His words at Gethsemane, "Nevertheless, not My will, but Thy will be done" (Luke 22:42). This was a characteristic which Vashti lacked, and it cost her that which was most precious to her. It is appropriate that this failure was the first thing addressed among those who would contend for the opportunity to replace Vashti. It will likewise be the foremost issue addressed among those who are called to be the Bride of Christ.

In the story of King Ahasuerus' search for a suitable bride, we see some profound truths that are equally applicable to the Bride of Christ. The king's first bride was rejected due to a failure of obedience. A more worthy bride was then chosen to replace the one who had disqualified herself. Those called to betrothal to Christ need to take this lesson to heart. As we will see in subsequent chapters, many are called, but few are chosen. Esther distinguished herself by her obedience. She listened to the voice of the king's eunuch who was given charge over her, to prepare her, and she found favor in the eyes of the king.

This is the second chapter of the book "The Remnant Bride" which can be found on my website at:
<http://heart4god.8k.com>

You can e-mail me at: bherrin@hotmail.com

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

Trumpet Blowing Louder

Bill Burns

October 4, 2000:

In my spirit I continue to hear the sound of a trumpet blowing, and it is becoming increasingly louder. With the sounding of the trumpet I am also hearing the Master's voice: Blow the trumpet in Zion, lift up your voice like a trumpet, sound the alarm in My holy mountain. Set the trumpet to your mouth and awaken those who slumber, for the Day of the Lord comes burning with holy fire.

The unholy shall not touch Zion, My mountain, My chosen habitation where My glory abides. Again, I say, blow the trumpet in Zion; tell the people to consecrate themselves. Tell My people that they must sanctify themselves and make themselves ready for the Third Day.

The Third Day shall release My glory upon My holy mountain (Zion/church), and it shall produce resurrection power which shall abide on the righteous as a covering. My glory will be life to those who love Me with all of their hearts, but it will become a fire of destruction to those whose hearts are not wholly given. (Exodus 19:9-12)

Beware, My people, for these are the days of glory in which the Third Day anointing will be released, and that anointing will produce either life or death. Again, it will be according to the patterns set forth in My word. Do you hear the sound of the trumpet? It is I, Myself, that is blowing the trumpet in Zion, so I say come up to the top of the mountain. I am calling you to come up higher. Is it not written that I will raise you up on the Third Day that you may live in My sight and have knowledge of Me? (Hosea 6:1-3) Only those who have clean hands and a pure heart can come up and live in My presence.

Come today. Do not delay, for it is the Third Day, and I am calling to you as I did to My servant, Moses. Exodus 19:16-20, "Then it came to pass on the third day, in the morning, that there were thunderings and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain; and the sound of the trumpet was very loud, so that all the people who were in the camp trembled. And Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain. Now Mount Sinai was completely in smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire. Its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked greatly. And when the blast of the trumpet sounded long and became louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him by voice. Then the LORD came down upon Mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain. And the LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up."

Note: In Matthew chapter 17 Jesus is seen on the Mount of Transfiguration talking to Elijah and Moses. Moses represents the apostle and Elijah the prophet. The foundation of the New Testament church is built upon the foundations built by the apostles and prophets (Ephesians 2:20)

It is now time for Moses (the apostles) to go up to the top of the mountain. (Exodus 19:20). As the apostles go up on the Third Day into God's presence, they shall receive knowledge (revelation of the Lord's plans and purposes). And, like Moses, they will bring this word back down to the earth as the latter and former rain. This proceeding word shall equip the church for the work of the ministry in the power of Christ (stature of His fullness).

I have come to the end of the Master's words for this writing, but I can still hear the sound of the trumpet. Louder and louder it sounds, and I suspect that it will become deafening in the days ahead. Then there will be a brief moment of silence in heaven before 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17, "For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord."

October 7, 2000:

I feel the stirring of the Holy Ghost. I hear the voice of the Lord saying, can you hear the sound--the sound of the mighty rushing wind? Can you hear the sound--the sound of the trumpet blowing? Can you hear the sound--the sound of an army marching? What is it that you hear? It is victory...sweet victory for My people! For this is the third day, in which My army shall arise, and the weapons of warfare shall be mighty through your God for the pulling down of every stronghold, every hindering power, everything that has withheld you, everything that kept you without the gates of the city that I am bringing you into. Can You hear the sound? It is the sound of apostolic anointing. Can you hear the sound? It is the sound of prophetic gifting. For this is the day and the hour that I have chosen to loose every captive and set every person free that they might live in the fullness of My kingdom. Arise, people of the Lord, with a shout in your mouth, and with grace coming forth from the kingdom, lay hold of that which I have given unto you, for this is the hour of victory!

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

October 2, 2000:

Expect change, great sweeping change in all areas. For, I say to you assuredly, old things have passed away and all things are becoming new. Even the old things that are worth bringing into this new era will be transformed and take on the characteristics of progression. Those areas in your life that you stubbornly cling to and refuse to yield to this spiritual conversion will become lifeless and historical. You are but a pilgrim passing through this foreign land on your way to a City "whose builder and maker is God." And, I tell you that many of you seek only to find a safe and comfortable place to stop and camp. But, your spiritual camping places are for the purpose of bringing you into greater revelation of Me. You cannot camp on revelation of one aspect of My nature and character and still see the fullness of My purpose. Believe Me when I tell you that the cloud is moving, and it is time to strike camp once again. You must move on to your next destination. But, fear not. I am with you. I will lead you and direct your steps. Come, courageous hearts; let us journey together!

October 3, 2000:

Be sensitive to the flow of My Spirit, for surely I will gather you to Myself and speak to you and instruct your hearts. Then, I will send you out to perform that which I have spoken and to do that which I have instructed. Beware of stopping the flow of movement, the continual gathering in and sending out. I say that many of you prefer to sit at My feet and are reluctant to go out and do the work that I have prepared you to do. Yet, many others of you prefer the doing to the listening. To those who prefer to hear, you will become like stagnant pools; to those who prefer to do, you will become depleted and empty. You must learn to yield to the tidal movements of your spiritual atmosphere in order to flow with the current.

James 1:22-25, "But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man observing his natural face in a mirror; for he observes himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, this one will be blessed in what he does."

October 4, 2000:

I am drawing you to Myself with greater intensity than you've known before. This drawing will bring further separation from those who resist this spiritual pulling. For, I tell you that I have set Myself as a magnet, and you are being drawn as tailings. This is a refining process as I continue to separate the precious from the vile. And, I tell you a mystery--those of you who do not resist and are drawn to Me also become magnetized as I am and will begin to draw others to yourselves and to Me. Those who resist will be repelled, and I tell you that this separation process will continue and intensify. Those who think they have chosen safe middle ground and have remained neutral will have to choose. I tell you, there is no middle ground. So, let your yes be yes and your no be no. Choose this day who you will serve.

October 6, 2000:

You are entering a time where your life will absolutely explode with diversity. You, My people, are going to break out of old molds that have confined your gifts, talents and abilities. Dreams and visions that were once extinguished by discouragement and lack of opportunity will now become revitalized. For, I say to you, that you are in the season of resurrection power. What has been dead and buried will now spring forth with new life and take on new meaning. Be warned, however, that you cannot do this by your own volition. That which is being raised up will be by My power, not by your will or coercion. You must rest in My presence, for I am the resurrection and the life and what I speak life into shall live! What I bring to pass shall be established.

October 7, 2000:

Come up higher! I am about to release a new level of anointing in your midst. It will no longer do for you to stay on the last plateau, for I am doing a new thing, and you will not be able to comprehend it if you don't come higher. I hear your question, "How do I do that?" Quiet your soul and seek Me with greater intensity and focus. I will indeed pour out revelation knowledge and deeper understanding of My kingdom purposes. But, you must be in a position to receive what I am about to pour out. You must press through your comfort zone and step into territory that is unfamiliar. I tell you the truth, some of you have remained in old areas of religious comfort so long that you have gotten stuck there; you are truly established. But, I say to you, shake yourselves awake; be bold and take the next step. I am calling those who are willing to fast to break out of religious bondage. What I am about to pour out cannot be received where you are.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Black Horse

Nita (LaFond) Johnson

THE COMING OF THE BLACK HORSE

On November 8th 1999, I was doing a radio broadcast with my friends, Pastor Monte McCutcheon and Pastor Bob Hill, when the angel of the Lord suddenly flew into my room and stood beside me. Once by my side, he waved his arm in the air in a very deliberate manner. As he did this, the veil of the spirit was opened up to me, and I was permitted to see many things. One of those things I will share with you here.

I looked as I saw the black horse of Revelation chapter six running toward the earth.

And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld and lo a black horse; and he that sat upon him had a pair of balances in his hand. And I heard a voice in the midst of the of the four beasts say, a measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine. Revelation 6:5,6

I saw him running toward the earth with a rider on his back. In the hand of the rider was a pair of balances. I saw seraphim with the face of a man off to the horse's right side and to my left. This seraphim cried out the words of verses five and six above. Then the angel standing by my side shared with me the meaning of his strange words. As it turns out his words mean more than we have known.

The wheat and the barley represent the Word and prayer. In the dark ages when Catholicism ruled the earth, the Word was in the hands of the Pope and the priest. The average man was not allowed to read the Word. In addition, if my memory serves me correctly the Bible was printed in Latin. Therefore it was impossible for the average person to read, even if he would have had a copy. The average person was dependent totally upon the priest both to read and interpret the Bible for them.

Furthermore, the practice of prayer was reduced to a formula of praying over beads and forgiveness from transgressions was placed in the control of the local priest. If a man would hope to free himself from the place of torment, it would cost him great sums of money. The Mediatorial ministry of our Messiah had been completely circumvented. Prayer had been effectively placed into the hands of the priests and the pope.

All that remained was the life of the Spirit of revelation and stimulation in the remnant. The oil and the wine symbolize the Spirit of revelation and stimulation. Shaul (Paul) speaks about the Spirit of revelation that is symbolized by the oil in Ephesians, chapter one. The word translated "revelation" means to unveil, to uncover, to release the hidden mysteries. He encourages us to pray for this gift. I would therefore have to say that it is not something we automatically receive. As we grow and develop in this gift we are able to uncover the mysteries of Yeshua and His Kingdom and how we fit into His plans and purposes. The seraph also said to protect the wine. This is the Spirit of stimulation. The purpose of this gift is to stimulate the bearer into the spiritual growth needed to appropriate the mysteries that have been revealed. When I say "stimulate," I don't mean to inspire, but to ignite the spirit into this desired growth. Peter called it the Spirit of virtue. It can also be recognized as the zeal of the Lord. It compels the Christian onward into the maturity of the revelations that are given. Many of the mystics of the dark ages are really Christians who obtained various levels of these two gifts and sought to enter into the revelations given to them. We call them mystics, but really they were the remnant. They were those who would not sacrifice their relationship with the Lord for the favor of the religious system of the day. Hence, many were martyred.

The angel of the Lord told me that this time period was reflective of the presence of this foreboding horse. Further, we are going to see him come around again in the near future. The church is going to travel through another season wherein the wheat and the barely are going to be taken. The exact timing of this event, I don't know. I think we can safely say that if it doesn't happen before, it will certainly happen under the reign of the anti-Christ. Even now we see a type of his activity in places like China and other countries where the Word and prayer is being strictly suppressed in light of the government's own purposes. Also, we see it in places where Catholicism is ruling. His coming will have a positive effect on the remnant who will not relinquish their rights to any but the Lord, and will maintain their position as King's Kids regardless of the temporal cost. The point of the visitation I received was to warn me that we in America are going to see it. I want therefore to encourage you, my Dear Friends, to press into Yeshua with all your heart and strength, pray for the Spirit of revelation and stimulation that in the time of trouble you will not be found wanting. Our Father above will be delighted to teach you His ways and grant your heart's desire.

STAND IN AWE

On November 30 1999, Yeshua spoke to me in a vision saying: "In the coming year My church must fast and pray and draw close to Me. In the final quarter of the year I demand that you stand in awe and sin not."

To "stand in awe" is to recognize who and what He is and honor Him with a holy fear. He spoke to me in a vision recently saying: "You are My people; that signifies that you are the subject of My care and provision. I am your God; that speaks of My right to demand your honor and obedience."

In this next year every day must be spent preparing for the last quarter when we must be ready and able "to stand in awe and sin not." To prepare, we must turn from the ways that are displeasing to our Father, and seek His face with great diligence through fasting, prayer, Bible study time, and a life of obedience. Those who will do this will experience blessings. Those who will not turn from their evil ways will begin to experience the judgments of our Father in an attempt to lead them to repentance. Once they enter into this cycle, His judgments will grow increasingly worse until either repentance or destruction takes place. You can read about this in my book "Prepare for the Winds of Change" and you can find a brief description in the 26th chapter of Leviticus. The Hebrews writer says that is it a fearful thing to fall into to the hands of the living God. I want to add that it is an even more fearful thing to fall out of the hands of the living God, through unrepented sin. My dear brothers and sisters, our Father is going to visit His people and pour out great mercies and blessings upon us out of the wells of salvation. For He feels great care and pity for our weaknesses and longs to bless us with His wonderful presence. but, He will not overlook deliberate rebellion indeed cannot. As His magnanimous presence draws near we can bear it only as much as our hearts have been purified. Further, a rebellious life style prohibits us from finding our rest under the wing of His protection. Therefore His warning is strong, but it is out of the greatest love for our souls. Draw near to Him and He will draw near to you. In His gentle love He will prepare you for His coming.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Big Move

Penny Johnson

The Mind:

As I sit here and write this thing the Spirit of the Lord is stirring inside of me a great churning like water in a river boat wheel. I know He is moving to bring us into another level of anointing for deeper intercession. Like never before. We must be willing to sacrifice like we have never sacrificed before. We MUST allow the cleansing of the Holy Fire to purge out greater amounts at a time like never before. It is not going to be anything that we will at first welcome as from the Lord. We may even think that we are under attack from the enemy. We may wonder even, why our families and friends are so strange to us. Well, it's not them, it's you. Your perspective is changing. God is even changing the way you talk and think. We have been asking all along to have our minds bound to the mind of Christ which means Christ-like thinking. Not world-like thinking, or compromise thinking or self-thinking but Christ-like thinking. What is that? It is Fatherward, Godward, biblical, Holy Spirit thinking.

The Will:

The bible tells us that God gives us the will to do His good pleasure, but if our will is so clouded with "what about me"? then we will reject what God is leading us toward. We have to ask the Father to bend us toward Him so hard that the only way to get rest in our spirit is to do the will of the Father. Would He lead you toward destruction? NO. We must give Him our will today.

The Heart:

In the book of Acts we find a classic account of some people that look as though they are doing the will of the Father and are hooked up to the body of Christ for good. As I read this account today the Lord gave me a marvelous revelation on a couple that had everybody fooled into thinking they were sold out to Christ. They belonged to the group that was going about preaching the Gospel and many souls were being saved. Folks were being healed and delivered and set free of years of bondage. But when it came time to dig deep into their pockets and their hearts, they were exposed. They were not sold out to God. They valued their comfort and each other more than Christ. They were struck dead when they lied to the Holy Ghost. What was really in their hearts?

What is God asking us to give up in these last days? And are considering it just because it is the last days? What if Jesus isn't coming back any day now? Would you still be willing to give all up for Him? Or will we sell part for the kingdom and keep the rest for ourselves? I shudder to think of it.

The Church:

The Church as we know it is changing. The Spirit of God is warning me. Get ready. There is such an urgency creeping through my bones right now that I can not contain it. God is warning every one that calls themselves a Watchman to stay on the alert! Be ready to do battle at the split of a second. Just that quick the enemy will try to catch the Church off guard and come in like a flood. STAY AWAKE! God will not drop you, but we must not drop Him for one second. I believe it is that crucial. As never before in the history of the Church we must stay alert, awake, on guard. If you have ever played baseball you know that if you don't keep your eye on the ball coming at you it will smack you in the head and knock you out. That quick!

Stay prayed up. Pray without ceasing. Be instant. Keep from sin that will hinder your focus. Don't get distracted by the things and worries of the world. Be ready and be on call to gather for prayer with others at any time of day or night. Why do you think the early Church gathered and went from house to house daily? Not for breakfast or coffee! They went to pray, to seek God, to listen in one accord for the direction of the Holy Spirit because the enemy was on a rampage to destroy the Church. Well, what do you think the enemy is doing now? He hates you! He hates the Church! He know his time is very short. He know that God is giving more revelation knowledge to His people than ever before and he (the enemy) is running scared. Want to scare him more? Get on fire for God and seek Him like you would if one of your children were missing in the woods full of wolves.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Breath of God

Teresa Daly-Crews

There has been a dearth in the land. It is now time to call forth the breath of God to bring forth life. The Wind (ruwach/pneuma) is available to bring forth new life. We must prophesy, using the Word of God to call it forth in this hour. In the following passages from Ezekiel there is one word in the original Hebrew that describes both wind and breath. That word is ruwach. It is defined in the Strong's as:

from 7306; wind; by resemblance breath, i.e. a sensible (or even violent) exhalation; figuratively, life, anger, unsubstantiality; by extension, a region of the sky; by resemblance spirit, but only of a rational being (including its expression and functions): -- air, anger, blast, breath, X cool, courage, mind, X quarter, X side, spirit([-ual]), tempest, X vain, ([whirl-wind(-y)).

The corresponding word used in some of the New Testament passages is pneuma. The definition is essentially the same.

Strong's number: 4151

Greek: pneuma

Pronunciation: pnyoo'-mah

from 4154; a current of air, i.e. breath (blast) or a breeze; by analogy or figuratively, a spirit, i.e. (human) the rational soul, (by implication) vital principle, mental disposition, etc., or (superhuman) an angel, demon, or (divine) God, Christ's spirit, the Holy Spirit: --ghost, life, spirit(-ual, -ually), mind. Compare 5590.

The same word is used from Genesis to Revelation when describing the action from the Lord of His breath or spirit. It is also used to describe the Wind or Whirlwind that brings forth God's divine plan. The Father is commanding us to call forth His Breath (ruwach/pneuma) to bring life to the dead and change to the Body.

Ezek 37:9 Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord God; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

Many in the Body feel dry and overburdened in this hour. Hopelessness and heaviness is trying to overpower those who are crying out for the latter rain. Just as Gideon's army there is a remnant who have been prepared to help their brethren to victory. Those who stand ready have been refreshed and alerted for such a day as this. They stand at alert awaiting the Lord's command. These individuals have gone through much destruction and restoration in their lives shine forth the Power of the Lord to give hope to those who are dry and hopeless.

Ezek 37:11 Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

12 Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel.

13 And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I have opened your graves, O My people, and brought you up out of your graves, 14 And shall put my spirit (ruwach) in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the Lord have spoken it, and performed it, saith the Lord.

15 The word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

By calling forth His Breath it will bring unity within the Body of Christ. One heart, one mind, one spirit. The purpose is to bring glory to the Lord renewing our knowledge of His supreme Lordship over us. It also will make manifest unto the world His power and authority.

Ezek 37:16 Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim and for all the house of Israel his companions:

With this unity will come forth the dunamus power as in Acts 4-5. The "greater works" that Jesus spoke about will come forth with this move. Manifestations of the Lords power which have never been seen yet by human eye nor perceived in the hearts of men will occur.

Ezek 37:17 And join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand.

18 And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these?

19 Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand.

A Greater and new authority is being given to the Body in this hour. Now is the appointed time. The Lord is calling forth for an unparalleled unity, that He may be glorified. The Father is calling back those removed into far countries by rejection and hurt from the brethren. He is wooing the prodigal sons and daughters' home. We must prepare to receive the broken and despired. Opening our heart in love, restoring those who have fallen to their called positions. The hand of the Father is upon us for the restoration of His people.

Ezek 37:20 And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand before their eyes.

21 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land:

It is the work of the Fathers hand. No flesh may glory in what He is about to do. We must surrender and stand in the gap for those who are near death. Interceding for the Lords perfect and complete will.

Ezek 37:22 And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all.

Purity will come forth along with the knowledge and recognition of the profane and holy. Spiritual blindness will be removed and our hearts will be cleansed, perfected in His holiness. A bride chaste and pure standing ready for Her grooms return.

Ezek 37:23 Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwelling places, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God.

24 And David my servant shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them.

25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their children, and their children's children for ever: and my servant David shall be their prince for ever.

26 Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.

27 My tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

28 And the heathen shall know that I the Lord do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.

Father, I thank you for your Breath of life. Bring forth the latter rain unto our dry and barren lands. Spirit of God come unto your people now. Restore unto us your strength and love. Lord, I stand in the gap for those who have become too weak and dry to even stand before your throne. In the precious name of Jesus, I call forth the breath of God. Come forth to your people now. We receive your covenant of peace and desire to dwell forever in your sanctuary worshiping you in the Beauty of Holiness. Praise you for your divine and unending love.

The Whirlwind of the Lord cometh.

In His Service,

Teresa Daly-Crews

15 May 2000

Jahshalom@aol.com

www.jesusrministries.com

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Boy Who Cried Wolf

Bill Burns

January 13, 2000:

This is a prophetic parable of the boy who cried wolf. There once was a boy who was given the job of watching the sheep. His job was to come and warn the elders if danger was seen. So, day after day he would take his position and watch over the flock, but no danger was seen and no predator was spotted. The boy then began to wonder if his job was even necessary, and so he went to talk to the other boys who also had the same job he had. The other boys told him that although they had not actually seen any wolves, it was rumored that there was a large pack of wolves in the area, and they had heard from others that the wolves were moving toward their pastures.

Renewed with purpose, the boy excitedly ran back to watch over the flock. He began to imagine what the wolves looked like. He could visualize them lurking behind the bushes ready to pounce upon the sheep and kill them. The more he thought about this, the more active his imagination became. Soon he was convinced that the wolves were coming. He was sure that the bushes were moving. So, off down the mountain the boy raced and told the elders that the wolves were after the sheep.

The elders armed themselves and rushed to save the sheep, but when they got to where the sheep were, everything was peaceful and no wolves were in sight. The boy was still sure that the wolves were nearby. So, once again, his imagination got the better of him, and once again he called to the elders, for the wolves were sure to come. Again, the elders came and found no wolves. They ridiculed the boy and told him to be more cautious about sounding the alarm.

Then came the day when a pack of wolves actually came. No, this time it was not his imagination, for several of the sheep had already been slain. For the third time, the boy ran down the mountain shouting and blowing his trumpet to assemble the elders to come and save the sheep. The elders assembled, but they did not believe the boy. They mocked him and sent him home. They said, "Enough of these warnings. Every time we listened before nothing has happened." Surely this time was no different. They decided to wait until tomorrow to replace the boy with another lad because it was too late in the day to send the boy up to the mountain to watch the sheep. They waited until the next day, but in the darkness of the night, the flock was slaughtered.

1 Thessalonians 5:1-6, "But concerning the times and the seasons, brethren, you have no need that I should write to you. For you yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night. For when they say, "Peace and safety!" then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a pregnant woman. And they shall not escape. But you, brethren, are not in darkness, so that this Day should overtake you as a thief. You are all sons of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness. Therefore let us not sleep, as others do, but let us watch and be sober."

Brethren, this parable was birthed in my spirit as it relates to the Y2K fiasco. The boy represents the immature prophetic community that gave dire warnings about Y2K. These ominous warnings were stirred by the rumors that affected the imaginations (images) of many who declared that destruction would be the product of the Y2K bug. They cried wolf, but nothing has happened. So, the world and the church are presently crying peace and safety and prosperity for all because we have been saved from Y2K.

The church is declaring a safe and prosperous habitation. I even heard some declare that the stock market will not go down or crash because America is a Christian country. The cry in the world (Middle East and America) is peace--peace with Palestine; peace with Syria.

We are now being lulled to sleep by a false sense of security (peace and prosperity), and the Spirit of the Most High says: "Have you become blind guides? Can you not discern the times and seasons in which you live? Have you not read My word which reveals the events which are coming upon the end of the age? I would not have you to be ignorant, My people, for you are not in darkness so that these days should overtake and destroy you."

"Awaken, you sleepers, for the deep sleep of delusion has come upon you. The deceiver has come to seduce you. Will you also say, 'Peace and safety will continue until the end?' Or, will you not sound the trumpet because others have been deemed wrong and have been ridiculed?"

"Watchmen, what of the coming night when the slaughter takes place? Will you remain silent because you are afraid of what the elders will say? Yes, there is safety and provision in My sheepfold, but there are many who have not entered into this safe habitation. Many are still grazing in pastures of worldliness."

"Verily, verily I say unto you that great destruction will come upon the earth for these are the days of judgment. Is it not written in the days of the seventh trumpet, when My messengers are about to sound, that the mysteries of Father's kingdom will be finished? (Revelation 10:7; 11:15) And, are you not about to enter into the seventh millennium?"

"To those of you who are called to be My prophets but have acted like boys, I say be zealous and repent, for I have not cast you away, nor have I sent you home to be replaced by another. I counsel you to buy gold refined by the fire of My Holy Spirit so that My voice alone will you hear and no other voice will you follow."

"Arise and blow the trumpet in Zion, for the destruction will come suddenly in the night hours when deep sleep is upon the face of the people."

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Bridge

Bill Burns

November 11, 2000:

Last night in church I began to have a vision of a bridge that the Lord was building. This morning that vision has expanded as I saw more of the details of what was taking place. I saw a city, and I asked the Lord, "What City is this?"

The Master answered, "The name of this city is Christian City; it represents the church. But, it will soon be called Babylon." He then asked me a question, "What are they doing?"

I quickly went from house to house, and then I gave this report: They are watching television and the news reports about the election results in America, and they are discussing what will come of all of this. The Lord then said, "What did you learn from watching?" I replied, "American is divided." He then said, "As it is in the natural, so it will be with the church. Watch and learn." As I watched, an angel flew over the city and cried out with a loud voice, "Come out of her, you people of the Lord, for the Master is calling you to come out from among them and touch not the unclean things of this world. The time is short; come and follow your Jesus."

I watched in amazement, for most of those in the city were to engrossed with the cares of their world to answer the call. However, some had listened, and some had obeyed, and they came forth from the city. As they gathered together for the journey I noticed that each one brought their baggage with them. Some carried only a brief case; some had a couple of suitcases; some were pulling a small cart filled with an assortment of bags.

The angel then called to the people and told them to follow the trail called "Zion's Way" to the top of the mountain. The people obeyed and followed the ancient pathway to the top of the mountain. It was quite a hard journey for those who were pulling carts because the path was narrow, and it was also steep. They all made it to the top of the mountain, but they came to a deep canyon, and they could proceed no further. They camped there not knowing what to do. At this point the Lord began to speak to them, and this is what He said: "You are here because you have each desired to know Me, and this is why you were able to hear Me. That is why you have obeyed the command to follow Me. Many of you desire to know me better than you do now. You have often struggled because of unbelief, but as you cross over this canyon, your desires shall be fulfilled. The name of the mountain that you are camped on is called Second Day. The mountain across the canyon is Mount Zion. That is your destination."

Some of those in the camp said, "But, Lord, how shall we cross over?" The Master replied, "Examine yourselves now. Do any of you have any faith? I say that all things are possible with God. Do you have any faith?"

A few of the people said, "Yes, Lord, we believe that if you want us to go to Zion, then you will make a way." The Lord of Hosts then commanded the angels to gather up the faith of those who had spoken and said, "Build My bridge." The angels then brought the faith of those who spoke to the edge of the canyon and began to build.

As the angels picked up the faith of the people, their faith took on the shape of various sizes of bricks, depending on the faith that was produced. As the angels set the bricks in place, the Master Builder (Jesus) would bind them together with a substance which I knew was His glory. As His glory touched each brick, the bricks became larger, and the work was begun.

This work quickened the faith of the people, and soon shouts of faith were heard throughout the camp, and more building bricks were produced. The work was progressing quite well when an angel came and posted a sign at the gateway to the bridge which read: "This bridge leads to Zion. As you cross over, you will enter into the Third Day. The name of the bridge is the Narrow Way, and you cannot take any of your baggage with you."

The bridge was, indeed, very narrow and had hand rails on it that would not allow any baggage to be carried across it. The bridge was designed so that it was necessary that one's hands remain in contact with the rails to insure a safe journey. The name of the rails was hope.

At this point I began to see that each piece of baggage had a name on it. I saw bondage and unbelief labels on some, and others were called compromise, works of the flesh, fear, and many other things that had become attachments to this world. I had also noticed that those who carried brief cases had never set them down...not even for a moment. The labels on the brief cases were identifying different kinds of ministries.

The Master then spoke, "This canyon represents a further place of division. The baggage that you have brought with you belongs to the Second Day, and you cannot bring it with you. You must decide, for those things cannot be brought into the Third Day. If you will leave your baggage and cross over by faith, I will deliver you from the bondages of the Second Day and bring you into the glory of the Third Day where all things become new. This is the time of the Great Crossover. Come, My people, for the bridge is finished. Cross over now before the night comes and the way cannot be found. Forget those things which are behind you, and press forward into a bright and glorious new day."

To my delight, most of the people who had followed the Master to the mountain top crossed over. They left their baggage, and by faith crossed the bridge. But, not all; some could not bear to give up their possessions, and like the rich young ruler they went back down the mountain, back to Babylon and bondage.

The sun was now setting, and back down the valley I could see the dim lights of the city. It was now time for me to also cross the bridge. As I reached the other side of the canyon, the darkness was behind me, and I could see a great light before me. This was the light of Zion, the city set upon the mountain of the Lord. The echo of the Master's words have persuaded me, "Cross over; cross over now, for deep darkness is coming upon the earth, but the light of My glory shall rest upon My people."

What about you? Will you lay aside your baggage and the sin that so easily besets you? Will you come and cross over the bridge of faith? Will you come to the mountain of the Lord?

Micah 4:1-2--Now it shall come to pass in the latter days That the mountain of the Lord's house Shall be established on the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and peoples shall flow to it. Many nations shall come and say, "Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, To the house of the God of Jacob; He will teach us His ways, and we shall walk in His paths." For out of Zion the law shall go forth, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

The Blacksmith Shop

Bobby Conner

From: http://bobbyconner.org/BC\_ARTICLES.HTM

August 2000

In a vivid prophetic experience I was taken to the door of a blacksmith's shop. Standing there I was surrounded by shimmering swirling smoke I could hear the heavy hammer as it struck the anvil. Another sound I could hear was the sound of rushing wind as it was being blown across the coals.

Each time the mighty hammer fell upon the anvil the most beautiful brilliant burning sparks were sent flying forth. These white-hot flaming sparks were shooting into many different nations of the world. As these burning sparks fell into the nations they were ablaze, burning with the passion of the Spirit of God, each igniting wonderful fires of Holy Ghost revival.

I pleaded saying, "I want to get closer. I must see what is being forged!" I had to see for myself what wonderful work was being fashioned and forged. I was completely compelled to behold what was being used to create such revival fires in the nations. In answer to my plea, I was brought even closer to the anvil.

With each approaching step I could feel the heat as it increased. Such heat, as it radiated out, was the most extreme and intense heat, however it was not unpleasant at all. Matter of fact it was right-- the opposite - it was comforting and compelling, it seemed as if the heat was drawing me closer and closer. I was looking into the cloud of smoke. However, this smoke was not the black choking kind, but rather it was shinny and brilliant, it was the Cloud of God's Glory.

At last I was shown the hammer and anvil and what was being forged. It was a mighty YOKE! . I was told, "This yoke is being forged by the Lord for the purpose of joining together "ZEAL" and "WISDOM."

God said, "I am joining the Joshua generation- (zeal) with the Caleb generation -(wisdom)." The youth have extreme zeal and the older saints have wonderful wisdom. God is joining the generations.

We will soon see this yoke being placed upon the shoulders of many who are now being prepared. They will be linked together as teams going into the ripe end-time harvest fields reaping souls for the Kingdom of God.

The greatest reaping of souls is coming. We must set our heart upon the Lord so He can make us ready. We have come to the day spoken of in Psalm 110:3 In the day of God's power the people will volunteer willingly.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Buckboard

Becky McLendon

It appears that the Lord is bringing back dreams and visions that He gave me 20 years ago. for NOW, He says, is the time to lay hold of their fulfillment. The two dreams I am keenly remembering right now both involve passing through large rooms full of people.

The Buckboard and the Church Building.

I was riding beside a buckboard driver. Suddenly the driver whipped the horses into an extremely fast run. I saw at the bottom of the hill we were descending, a small traditional white church building with steeple and double doors. We were approaching it at break neck speed. My thoughts were "WE ARE GOING TO CRASH AND BE KILLED". but the driver never noticed me. He stared straight ahead. I noticed he had long hair and wore a white robe. But he headed the buckboard quite determinedly toward the building. It was inevitable. we were going to crash through the doors. As we touched the threshold of the building the doors floated open and we began floating down the middle aisle of it. On either side of us the people were FROZEN. They pointed and whispered. "Look at them. they are floating." but they were FROZEN no one moved.

Suddenly I was seized with the conviction to start telling them to hop on this wagon. A few slowly climbed on and were immediately free. They started telling the others to hop on. Just then the buckboard crashed through the wall at the other end of the building and was outside again. the horses never skipping a beat of their hooves. A few people ran after us. it was raining and very muddy by now. but they ran for the wagon. I and several others helped them on to the wagon and we rode off in a down pour of rain.

This move of God, the final wave of waves is headed with singleness of purpose toward what we all have conceived in our minds to be "church"...The messenger will "crash the gates" of the religious system and pass right through it. Will this move of God find the people FROZEN and pointing and LOOKING at it but never moving? Or will the remnant hop up on the wagon and begin calling to others to COME. God spoke to me about 5 years ago to have my theology shaken. I truly believe we are in that time. We will either bundle our faulty theology up and toss it down at the foot of the cross, or we will be FROZEN and unable to respond when the Truth of God "rides" right through our midst.

The Banquet Hall

I entered a large banquet hall. The aroma and atmosphere was one of sumptuous dining and rich fellowship. It was decorated to the hilt. There was every imaginable food laid out at many different "stations". People were piled around each table stuffing their mouths with as much as they could. One group called to me...BECKY!! Come over here. You must try this it is so delicious. One had whipped cream all over her mouth where she had stuffed a huge sweet delicacy into her mouth. The whole group was beckoning to me. Another was around a lavish feast of roasted meats and rich sauces...They had grease all over their faces and were talking with their mouths full.

Just then I looked in my hands. I was holding a plate with a small piece of meat and a small bit of gravy and potatoes. I looked at the meager meal and then at the banquets. and thought, "surely the Lord intends me to eat of those rich banquets and not this simple portion."

I then heard his voice say, 'YOUR MEAT IS TO DO THE WILL OF HIM THAT SENT YOU.' I knew then to take the meat and gravy HE had given me. I stared straight ahead and walked all the way through the banquet hall and out the other door. After all he said "this is the way walk in it." We are not to look to the left or the right and be distracted by the sumptuousness of the feasts that man have built on a "revelation" from God. We are to accept HIS MEAT and eat it in His presence. He reminds me of my "plate" every time I turn my attention to some of the fluff that passes off as God's work.

Hmmmmmm If we were to eat "His " meat we might loose some of the WEIGHT that so easily encumbers us!

Love you all.

Becky (wayfarer)

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Bull's Eye

Bill Burns

July 27, 2000:

As I stepped into the Valley of Vision, I found myself in a long tunnel. I saw many people in this tunnel, and I was told that these people represented the church. At the end of the tunnel was a light, and I knew that this light was Daylight, and this scripture came to mind:

Romans 13:12 "The night is far spent, the day is at hand. Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light."

As I looked towards the light at the end of the tunnel, suddenly the tunnel turned into a gun barrel. I could see the riflings as they shone with light from the end of the barrel. Riflings are the grooves that are cut into the metal on the inside of a gun barrel. The grooves are cut in a spiraling motion. The riflings are designed to put a "spin" on the bullet. The bullet is pushed out of the gun barrel under great pressure (from the powder) at great speed. The spinning of the bullet keeps the bullet flying in a straight line and keeps the bullet on course so that it will hit the mark that it was aimed at. The bullet spinning under pressure is somewhat like a drill bit turning in a circular motion that cuts through (in a straight line) the material being drilled. The bullet (projectile) then cuts through the atmospheric pressures that oppose it and keeps moving in a straight line towards it's target.

The Lord then spoke and said: I am putting a spin upon My people so that they will hit the mark of the high calling of My purposes for them. I am about to move you under great pressure (Holy Spirit power) and at great speed (accelerated time) into the fullness of My purposes for you.

Tremendous spiritual forces are aligned against you (atmospheric conditions), for Satan has set himself to keep you out of the high calling of your destiny. Many are still struggling with the unresolved issues of the past. The power and speed that is coming upon you by My Spirit is also designed to cause you to leave the past behind. Keep your focus on the Sonlight at the end of your journey as you are propelled toward the target. Put on the armor of light, cast off the works of darkness which are against you, leave the darkness behind you and press on to the mark (bull's eye) of the high calling.

Philippians 3:13-14, "Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

July 24, 2000:

Prepare yourselves to stretch. For, I am allowing opportunities to come that will be new to your life experience and cause you to reach further than you ever have. Also realize that the enemy will do his utmost to keep you bound in old patterns, ruts, and mindsets by bringing the old familiar lies of failure which produce fear. But, I have gone before you to make the crooked places straight; I have prepared the way for you to go. Will I not, therefore, supply and equip you for the journey? I say to you, I will! See? The cloud is beginning to move. You have camped in this spot long enough. It is time to move on. Your destination awaits, and with it comes higher wisdom, deeper understanding and greater effectiveness in My kingdom.

July 25, 2000:

This morning as I waited on the Lord, I couldn't get away from a verse in Song of Solomon 2:15, "Catch us the foxes, the little foxes that spoil the vines, for our vines have tender grapes." A fox is a burrower that digs down and disturbs the root of a plant bringing it to ruin and destroying its fruit. We often hear the word "sly" when referring to a fox. Some synonyms: crafty, guileful, wily, insidious (treacherous, seductive, underhanded, having a gradual effect). What are the little foxes? The Lord says, watch out for the foxes, those sly, seductive thoughts and motives that burrow down to the core of your heart and kill the life of Christ in you. I speak to you of the works of the flesh that will destroy the fruit of the Spirit in you. Catch these foxes! Seize them, capture them, take possession of them and cast them out. 2 Corinthians 10:4-6, "For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, and being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled."

July 26, 2000:

Have you sensed it? The enemy has tried to envelope you in a spiritual fog so that you cannot see clearly or discern correctly. He has brought an attack against you of fear, rejection and failure to paralyze you and stop you from being effective. This has had a numbing and dumbing effect to prevent your progress and to make you feel cut off from Me. But I say to you, rise up, for the light of My glory will burn off the fog and bring light and truth to your situation. Look up. Be still, for I have not left you nor forsaken you. I am with you. Rejoice, for today is a day of liberty and release. This is a time of breakthrough, for the day declares it.

July 28, 2000:

I am calling you to a place of spiritual clarity. Through this process you will find yourself seeking greater intimacy with Me as well. This past phase for you has been like a jigsaw puzzle; you haven't found all the pieces or made them all fit together yet, but you are getting closer to seeing the whole picture. Assuredly, I tell you that the pieces are all there and they will fit together perfectly. For, I have a plan and purpose for you that cannot be thwarted. As with any puzzle, you will find that the temptation to get frustrated will be paramount. But if at those times of frustration you will be still and look at all possibilities, be patient, and don't give up, you will have success. In your greatest moments of frustration worship will bring you through. Trust Me.

July 29, 2000:

I have continued to have a vision of a ghost town this morning, complete with tumbleweeds blowing through the deserted streets. And the Lord says, things from the past that have not been fully released and dealt with have now come back to haunt you. I am bringing you out of places from the past that have become the habitation of jackals. I am talking to you about those places of the past that you have deemed to be points of failure that have continued to mock and laugh at you for lack of success. But, I say to you, I am bringing you out of old waste places, which were deserted long ago except in your memories. There is no need to go back because there is nothing back there. I tell you assuredly that I will bring streams in the desert and cause the living water to flow and bring life in new ways.

Isaiah 35:6 -8, "Then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the dumb sing. For waters shall burst forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert. The parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water; in the habitation of jackals, where each lay, there shall be grass with reeds and rushes. A highway shall be there, and a road, and it shall be called the Highway of Holiness. The unclean shall not pass over it, but it shall be for others. Whoever walks the road, although a fool, shall not go astray."

Faith Tabernacle
111 North Fourth
P. O. Box 1148
Kremmling, CO 80459
<http://ft111.com>
ft111@uswest.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Calling of the Apostles

Pam Clark

A few weeks ago [on 7-21-99], I was invited again as a guest for the local "Praise the Lord" television program here in Houston. I asked the Lord what was His purpose for this invitation, as He had told me in advance they would be asking, and He answered, "I want you to make a prophetic declaration for the end time company of apostles to come forth."

So I said, "OK!" I want to share with you here what I shared on that program.

There is a five fold ministry which (as found in Ephesians 4:11-16) is the government Hand of God in the earth today. These office ministry callings come from God and are not elected by man, but are special equippings of the Spirit. These are ministerial office giftings which are full time ministry calls. They are assignments and mandates and are life long callings. Their job description ACCORDING TO THE WORD OF GOD is:

Ephesians 4: 11 And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, 12 for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ, 13 till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; 14 that we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting, 15 but, speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the head; Christ; 16 from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love.

That is a long sentence. Let's see if we can break it down:

1. The five fold ministry is called to equip all believers for works of ministry.
2. They are called to the edifying or building up of the Body of Christ at large (all individuals, not just one church or denomination or select group).
3. They promote unity through faith and knowledge in the Son of God, Jesus.
4. This unity causes a perfecting or a maturing -- and causes people to look and act more like Jesus and to walk in His anointing and power.
5. The five fold ministry will also equip people not to be deceived or fooled or tricked or misled by the enemy but will cause them to be wise in this world and ABLE to speak the Truth in love in freedom and liberty and power.
6. As people grow up in Christ, each person does its share with his/her gifting by the Spirit and so we need each other and nourish each other and grow as His workmanship in the Spirit of Love and these ministers will exemplify this.

THIS is what the five fold ministry of apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor and teacher is called to do!

This is their JOB DESCRIPTION according to THE WORD OF GOD.

The five fold ministry is the governmental Hand of God in the earth today administratively and strategically. We are in a war. We are reclaiming territory from Satan that is ours by God's command and mandate. Therefore God has a Body that needs officers not only for administration but also strategically for His advancing Kingdom on earth. [Cary Goodwin has a good explanation of this in his book "Gather My Apostles."]

Isaiah 45: 18 For thus says the LORD, Who created the heavens, Who is God, Who formed the earth and made it, Who has established it, Who did not create it in vain, Who formed it to be inhabited: "I am the LORD, and there is no other. 19 I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth; I did not say to the seed of Jacob, 'Seek Me in vain'; I, the LORD, speak righteousness, I declare things that are right."

Psalms 24:1 The earth is the Lord's, and all its fullness, The world and those who dwell therein.

These ministry officers of God carry positions of authority, but they are positions of leadership, not rulership over kingdoms. It is a stewardship of leadership for the sake of the common Cause.

There is a difference with the office gift and an anointing for ministry. Since all are called to the work of the ministry, all will have anointings for ministry but some have leadership anointings with authorities in God to stand in positions and appoint and train and equip others for ministry. There are not just a few, but many and they work as a team for the whole Body of Christ.

Someone may have a prophetic anointing, or an evangelistic anointing or pastoral anointing and not have the office call of ministry in that area. Some will and are in training, but God has many who have a supporting ministry gift who can assist the minister (such as an associate pastor or staff person), and is a person who can take care of things and represent the pastor or minister in a manner of truth and representation in integrity if the minister is not there or available.

Many are able to prophesy and because of that are called prophets and in a sense they are but if they do not stand as pillars and leaders in the community in the face of oppositions most likely then do not really have the governmental office calling of prophet although they can minister profusely and eloquently in the gifting. True prophets do not need a lot of words to establish their gifting.

Obviously, both the anointings for ministry and the office callings of ministry are vital. Most people will have one strong role but also may be able to operate in other areas, usually with an anointing for ministry. Anointings can come upon anyone who has the Holy Spirit inside and there are times anointings will for the sake of the need. The Spirit of Jesus who carries all the anointings and callings can rise up and meet the need anytime as He sees fit, even though it may not be a particular person's assignment.

Some may be called as office ministers but not seem near as strong in the gift as one with an anointing because the one with the anointing has applied themselves more diligently to ministry and the Word. Just because a person has a calling does not mean they operate in that ministry if they do not do the works of that ministry. I am not a driver even if I have a valid license to drive unless I actually drive the vehicle!

There is a subtle danger here for some with only an anointing to usurp an office calling without the sanction of the Lord. In Joel 2:17 it says: "Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, 'Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?' " There are times when God calls His Body into accounting and alignment. Those who do not hold these office ministry calls will not be accepted before His altar with their sacrifices! Only God's true ministers can fill certain positions in His Presence.

Many people have said it is wrong to say you are an apostle or prophet, but that is very much not true. If that is true for apostles and prophets, then it would also be true for pastors, teachers and evangelists! How absurd! There are times Jesus told people He was the Messiah for the sake of their faith--the reason He did not do it everywhere was because He did not want to create a mob of idol worshippers. He wanted people to worship in Spirit and in Truth, not for the sake of a position.

I was given the prophetic mandate that day to call forth His apostles in the Name of Jesus and say, "Come forth! Now is the time." We have had the season of the prophet, and it is still their season for ministry. At the time the prophets came forth, the Church was very comfortable with the three fold ministry of pastor, teacher and evangelist in the Church. Just a few years back if someone told someone that God had called them as a prophet, people would gasp and think, "Blasphemy!" and demand instant supernatural works to ease their mind and of course it didn't quite work that way. Many prophets took great persecution.

But the prophets pressed through, as God raised up a company of prophets, and now it is not uncommon to hear that a prophet is going to be on a Christian television program or ministering at a nearby church service. And now God is raising up a company of apostles.

Not only did the prophets rise up in their season, but the enemy also sent a strong wave of false prophets during this same time of their "coming out" to confuse, defame, contaminate and defile the true prophetic ministry. At first many people were so excited to see anything called "a prophet" that they were willing to receive almost anyone, and are just now open to receive true Biblical teaching on discerning in this area.

I see the same thing happening with the apostles. The Church is in a ready position to receive the apostles of God but the enemy is most certainly also sending out a wave of a false apostolic move to confuse and bewilder and get off track any body he can.

God has given His Body His supernatural Spiritual gifts for strategy and administration, equipping and witnessing and for breaking off the bondages of the enemy. But we also must remember that the enemy, Satan, who once walked in an incredible anointing also has "gifts of the spirit" for the same purposes for his "kingdom."

There are many young apostles coming up now and many who are already doing great works on the scene who are not always recognized by the "title" of apostle. What is this young company of apostles facing right now? They are facing fear, intimidation and false apostles. Not only they, but the rest of the Body needs to discern the true from the false signs and wonders.

The Scripture says that signs and wonders follow The Word of God. Apostles will walk strong in the Word and MANY signs and wonders will follow their ministry, but we also must remember that the Scripture teaches that there are false apostles and that lying signs and wonders would be prevalent in the last days. How we need discernment against this cunning craftiness and deceit of the enemy by those who lie in wait to deceive!

Mark 16:20 And they went out and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the Word through the accompanying signs. Amen.

What are apostles? What do they do? The word apostle means "sent one." Often we think of this as a missionary calling to another country but it goes beyond that. A better word would be delegate. A delegate represents someone. We send delegates to conferences and conventions to represent us. God sends His delegates to represent Him and His Will and will confirm that with His signs and wonders and miracles.

But we must judge as Jesus taught us to judge and that is in the Spirit by the fruit of the Spirit.

(Galatians 5:22-23) Miracles that do not promote the Kingdom of God and bless and increase it may not be true miracles of God. Some people tremble, cry, shake, jerk, laugh and jump but every tremble, cry, shake, jerk, laugh and jump may not be of God. It very well may be, but it may not. Judge the fruit. Some who get jealous condemn manifestations when manifestations can be Biblically proved, but Satan also is a counterfeiter.

Apostles will take territory. They will have assignments and mandates. They will take territory for God's Spirit to be in dominion in those territories. God is calling for a company of apostles to come forth for the end time dominion of His Spirit through the Church.

Habakkuk 2:14 "For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea."

Apostles will work well with the other five fold ministers and set order in the Church. When they do it will work and the evident anointing of God will manifest and witness it, just as it does with the true prophetic word.

Apostles will focus heavily on the resurrection power of Jesus. Many will have had personal visitations of Jesus and Heaven and into the spirit realms. Again, seek the Scripture and wisdom of God to discern the calling! Familiar and demonic spirits can imitate the real Spiritual gifts.

Galatians 1: 6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: 7 Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. 8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. 9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

Just because someone says they hear from or see angels or even Jesus, if they do not line up with the Scriptures, do not receive nor believe them. If they want to control you, it is bondage and service to man and not to God. If they do not want you to go out and minister and spread the Good News of the liberty Christ to who so ever will, it is NOT GOD! If they bind you to a church or a group and you are not free to go without penalties and condemnations, it is NOT GOD!

2 Corinthians 3:17 "Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty." This spirit of "the power of His resurrection" that the apostles walk in is a restoration spirit. It is life giving. It is restorative in every dimension of your life. They will be known for raising the dead, incredible healings and manifest miracles. They will rise up to fight in these end times the last enemy, death.

They will be restoring the Kingdom of God back to this earth with signs, wonders and miracles. Instead of just the beginning twelve, whom Jesus poured the foundation of His ministry into, we will see this gift come forth in a company of apostles in these last days!

You must also remember that just as the apostles of the Bible were once disciples, that principle still applies today. One may know they have the appointment of apostle and even declare it, yet we see an imperfect, impetuous and at times presumptuous person! Remember Peter, considered the leader apostle? The Word is gracious to let us see the developing stages of His foundational Church apostles as people like unto us, yet holy in anointing.

In Scripture, Paul gives his own testimony, and places where apostles held other apostles accountable in their works.

1 Corinthians 14: 29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge. 30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace. 31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted. 32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. Prophets are subject to prophets for accountability, just as we see the apostles are, evidenced in Galatians chapter 2.

The apostolic calling is not to be feared or awed in the sense that it leads to idol worshipping. Apostolic people are in daily need of the work of the Cross just as every other minister and Christian is. They are not "super people" beyond the rest of the Body, even though their work is great. We need each other! EVERY joint supplies and nourishes!

Apostles do not rank themselves above others, they consider themselves servants.

2 Corinthians: 11 I have become a fool in boasting; you have compelled me. For I ought to have been commended by you; for in nothing was I behind the most eminent apostles, though I am nothing. 12 Truly the signs of an apostle were accomplished among you with all perseverance, in signs and wonders and mighty deeds. 13 For what is it in which you were inferior to other churches, except that I myself was not burdensome to you? Forgive me this wrong!

Many had the fear that when prophets came on the scene, they came to take over the churches. That spirit is not the spirit of a true prophet. It is a team ministry with different giftings. The prophets are not "over" the pastor, teacher, and evangelist, any more than the apostles are "over" the other four fold ministries. EVERY office and ministry gifting is to be respected in its position and for the work they do.

Often God will put people in positions of anointings for ministry to better equip them for team ministry and will especially do this with the apostles. It is not a "higher" position in the sense it can take the place of another needed ministry ordained by God. They cannot.

Because of the gift for team ministry, we will see apostles bringing forth order in the church as they have the gift of establishing that works. Again, many may say they are apostles and prophets, but if you do not see the fruit (or evident manifestation) of the Spirit, be discerning as to what you believe and receive.

True apostles will be of humble spirit. When Paul and Barnabas were in Lystra, they chose this posture.

Acts 14: 11 Now when the people saw what Paul had done, they raised their voices, saying in the Lycaonian language, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!" 12 And Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul, Hermes, because he was the chief speaker. 13 Then the priest of Zeus, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, intending to sacrifice with the multitudes. 14 But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard this, they tore their clothes and ran in among the multitude, crying out 15 and saying, "Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men with the same nature as you, and preach to you that you should turn from these useless things to the living God, who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them..."

Here we see these men humbly taking new territory for Christ. Apostles will be known by their work and are to be respected by the anointing they carry and will be endorsed by God.

Many, if not most apostles will have seen Jesus and received direct words from Him of assignment, but they are also called to respect one another's territory. The seal of their ministry is their work as Paul declares.

I Corinthians 9: 9:1 Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are not ye my work in the Lord? 2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

Paul refused to take advantage of his position. If anyone takes advantage of the gifts by taking improper advantages, they are operating in a wrong spirit. We see many today taking advantage of people because of their spiritual gifts. This is a great temptation that we all must be sensitive to--not for others only, but ourselves!

We are not to be infatuated with our titles, whatever they are, but involved in the work! And there will be sufferings in the work as we fellowship in Jesus' sufferings for the sake of others coming into the Kingdom of Christ, but there will also be great joy set before us as well.

I Corinthians 4: 9 For I think that God has displayed us, the apostles, last, as men condemned to death; for we have been made a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to men. 10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are distinguished, but we are dishonored! 11 To the present hour we both hunger and thirst, and we are poorly clothed, and beaten, and homeless. 12 And we labor, working with our own hands. Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure; 13 being defamed, we entreat. We have been made as the filth of the world, the offscouring of all things until now. 14 I do not write these things to shame you, but as my beloved children I warn you. 15 For though you might have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers; for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. 16 Therefore I urge you, imitate me. -- I bless you in your ministry.

Pam Clark

Trumpet Wind Ministries <http://www.prophetic.net> <pamclark@prophetic.net>

The Cally Story, Surgery And Gilgal

Sandy Warner

4/12/00

Hi Loved Ones!

The following true story happened to me in 1994. I knew the funny story was an obvious and confirmed parable from the Lord and it was quickened to me at the time as something spiritual that I had experienced in the 80's. But His Word is eternal and He circles His Word until we finally "get it." So this story once again comes to life. This time I got it...

THE CALLY STORY (1994) Our cat Cally had kittens who are now 5 months old and I just found out that cute little boy kitties can impregnate little sister kitties at this age. Uh oh... I also heard of a good family willing to adopt them if we have them 'fixed.' Time has run out and these little furballs are now scheduled for surgery. They are supposed to fast 12 hours before surgery so two bowls have mysteriously disappeared. Oops, scratch that idea. Normally mother cats wean their babies at about 6 weeks but someone forgot to tell Cally. I am looking out the window, and those precious little bundles are nursing! Try again...

Cally is now in exile away from her babies, food and water. The babies are crying at her shed door, and she is crying at them. It's going to be a long night.

Well it was. I didn't sleep hardly at all last night as every dog in the neighborhood was barking and I kept thinking about the kittens. This morning I quietly squeeze through the shed door so Cally won't dash out. I manage to get her in the carrier and when I open the door the kittens scurry to her cage and they all cry at once. Cally is now crying and the kittens are alerted.

We pick up the kittens and put them in the box. But before we can get the lid down, we have lost one. No, make that two. Try again. And again. This is crazy, we are chasing kittens in every direction! After 5 scampering attempts, we simply can not entice them to come to us. These are now very educated cats. Suddenly two bowls mysteriously appear. They run to the food. We got em'.

Now we are all packed in the jeep and it sounds like a traveling cat zoo. Cally is howling. She is banging her head and body at the door, she scratches to no avail. A frightened baby pops her head through the little hole in the box. Her eyes are literally bugging and she squeaks. By the time I stop on the freeway shoulder, she has managed to stretch the hole and get her stomach stuck. She is dangling half way in and half way out but at least her eyes are back in her sockets and she has a hardy meow. I carefully tug and pull her out the hole without lifting the lid, lest I have kittens making a wild escape. Now Cally's window is snug against the box's enlarged hole and maybe they can comfort one another by being close. I drive into the clinic, harried and feeling like I had lived a full day and it is only 7:00 AM.

Who is that lady with the clipboard and why is she waiting for me in the parking lot? "Excuse me, are you Mrs. Warner?" I have this bad feeling in the pit of my stomach. "Yes, I have cats scheduled for surgery." "I am very sorry Mrs. Warner but we are going to have to cancel and reschedule. I tried calling you, but you had already left." "Oh no — I have to go through the whole thing again....this time with educated cats!"

On the way home I am thinking about the scriptural principal of something being repeated twice. (Gen 41:32) I know this is a God story. "Lord what are You trying to tell me?"

This next appointment is vital because their new owners are coming into town next week. I am sure they will love living on a farm, with all the freedom and fun any cat would want. No matter what, I have to keep this appointment!

Well, it is now once again the night before surgery. Not a creature is stirring, and especially not even a mouse. We have no mice. I have locked Cally and her kittens in together. It's better to nurse and have surgery, then not at all. I think I have slept, but that clock says 4:45 AM. I am wide awake wondering how the little family is doing. Maybe I should separate them into the cat carrier since 4 hours of no food is better than none at all. It's dark and cold outside, but I am determined to follow through on this appointment. I rush out in bare feet and pajamas and jump into the shed, slamming the door behind me. The kitties are contentedly sleeping next to Cally! I separate the sleepy little furballs from her and place THEM in the cat carrier. It was so easy! All is perfect! Now I can go back to bed and get warm.

I reach for the latch on the shed door and it is gone. The door won't open! The little wire thing that is attached to the latch on the outside of the door is missing. It had fallen off when I slammed the door. I am trapped inside the dark shed with Cally and her kittens, and I have this strange knowing that God is definitely speaking to me. This story isn't just some parable that the Lord is wanting to tell me, He is talking to me about ME. It's me in this shed.

I am now in exile, in a cage with all the tools for pruning anyone could ever want. I sit down on an ice chest and take note of what I have. 2 handsaws, electric pruners with electrical cord and outlets intact, an ax, and other misc. items. I push a wire through the little hole where the missing wire used to be. I put a metal tent stake through it, I put a stick through it. Nope, I'm definitely trapped.

OK, my son's alarm is set for 7:00 and I am supposed to leave at 7:00. I don't know if he will even know I have not left the house when he wakes. Will he realize the car is still in the driveway? He probably won't make the connection since it's there every morning. My beloved husband gets up much later depending on what time he finally falls asleep. I could ax my way through the door, but he would really be upset having to build a new door. It's 4:45 AM so what else is there to do? I can lay the camping tarp on the floor, unroll the sleeping mattress, use 2 life jackets for my pillow and unfold a plastic tablecloth for my blanket. Sounds good to me. I am now camping out on the floor of our shed in the dark, surrounded by purring kittens. I start to laugh. "OK Lord, You got me. Do you have anything You would like to say to me?"

I must have snoozed some because I just heard the thunk of the newspaper in our driveway. I wildly shake and kick the door. "Help me, can you HELP me? I'm stuck in here!" I am yelling like my life depends upon it — I still want to make that appointment. Silence. Nothing. He must have thrown it from the street and not heard a thing. Back to camping. Let's see, the newspaper usually comes about 6:30 AM. I wonder how much longer I get to stay in here!

It's about 7 AM and I hear footsteps coming up the sidewalk, stopping in front of the shed. Silence. "Is someone out there?" "Yes" "Could you PLEASE open this door, I am stuck inside." "Uh, yes." Door opens. A pale and scared paper boy is staring at me. "Are you all right?" "Yes, I accidentally locked my self inside, because the little wire thing fell out of the hole." He is looking at me like I am a little crazy standing there in my pajamas. I don't blame him a bit. I am so happy to be out and besides that, I don't have the time to worry about it — I have an appointment to make. He is rambling on as he walks away, "I wasn't sure what I'd find behind this door, and I went to get help. I wasn't sure about calling the police. And someone drove me back here." "Well Thank you VERY much for coming and helping me. I really appreciated it!"

Cally is now outside happily eating at the food dishes. At this point I don't care how much she has eaten, but back in the shed she goes. I need a clean shower and to get warm after camping. "Ding dong, ding dong, ding dong!" The door bell is ringing incessantly at 7 AM and I am dripping wet. "John, please wake up and answer the door. Don't be upset, it may be the police. I was locked in the shed and the paper boy rescued me. Tell them I'll be out in a minute." My son answers the door in a stupor. Two sheriffs question him. "We heard there was a disturbance. Was there a fight? Is everything all right?" "Yeah, my Mom just locked herself in the shed." They grin. In my robe and wet hair I come to the door. "I accidentally locked my self inside the shed, because the little wire thingy that is attached to the latch fell out of the hole." I don't know if they knew whether I was talking straight or not. I don't know that I was. My face is turning bright red.

Totally mortified that the sheriffs had come to our door, I realize I don't have time to think about that now. I have just enough time to eat a bowl of cereal, catch Cally and stuff everyone in the car. I go outside, jump into the shed and my son is right behind me. SLAM! John has just slammed the door shut... I AM LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY. I roar. I laugh so hard I am crying. I am holding my stomach, with hilarious tears rolling down my cheeks. All I can think of is this thing is repeated twice, it is of the Lord. Two times for the cats, two times for me.

"Mom you are scaring me, you are hysterical!" "Well if you had gone through what I have gone through with these cats, you would be hysterical too!" I am laughing even harder while watching my son frantically take inventory of everything in the shed and do exactly the same things I had tried. He didn't think it was funny at all.

Finally, I decide to forget my husband having to build a new door, I AM NOT GOING TO MISS THIS APPOINTMENT. The only way those cats will have their new home next week, is if they are fixed. We have run out of time. Warning, crazy women with ax in hand. Slam, thud, pow, a chip at a time. 20 minutes of repeated blows with the bull's eye changing upon each swing. Sweat, panting... My son takes a few swings and hands it back. I take a few then give it back to him. I am determined to get out of there. Footsteps. We hear footsteps! The door opens and a very undressed puffy eyed husband looks incredulously at me. My normally very kind and gracious husband appears to be quite perturbed. He grumpily says he just got to sleep at 4 o'clock and what are we doing axing the door? "Well excuuuusssseee me!" I wasn't mad until then. Now I am mad. I march out, rescue Cally, who is now enjoying a banquet and stuff her and the kitties in the car. Normally-kind-and-gracious husband is standing at the door in his altogether, muttering, "May I go back to sleep now?" That made me madder. Here I had just been through world war 3 and all he can think about was that we disturbed him? I am so mad I don't even say goodbye to my son. I smolder all the way to the appointment.

I am now home and my back-to-being very kind and gracious husband reminds me that last night he had recommended that I bang on the shed door loudly to scare the cats, so they would hide and not try to run out as soon as I opened the door. I am feeling very humble for my anger. He thought all we were doing was scaring the cats with all that noise and wondered why we were inside with the ax! I guess our neighbors came by also, since they heard the ax. What a day.

Surgery went fine, in spite of their eating. When I picked up the cats, they told me to put them in a dark and quiet place. I left them in the shed with the door slightly open knowing they would come out when they were ready. But instead of sleeping, the journey had stimulated them and they wobbled out the door totally drunk! You never saw such precious sights as Cally and these little creatures trying to find their legs. Looking cross-eyed and with rubber legs they were wandering around bumping into each other. Their brother, cold sober with no surgery, hisses and runs away. When they found their mother, Cally immediately weaned her babies, having no desire whatsoever to be touched and they were all planted in their new home one week later.

INTERPRETATION Over the past 10-20 years God has had a plan to bring us into a place of enlargement and be lovingly adopted into a new life. This is known as coming out of the wilderness and crossing over into the land of promises. (Deut 1: 5-8) However, pruning or surgery needed to take place in our carnal flesh, in order for this adoption to take place. (Josh 5:7)

In preparation for surgery, some time in the last 10-20 years we were placed in exile - separated from our promises (2 Chron 6: 36-39), went through a personal famine of hearing and experiencing Him (Amos 8:11), were spiritually put to sleep in dark circumstances with dogs howling outside (Psa 35), and confined to a circumstantial cage with hand saws, pruning sheers and axes looming over our heads! (Isa 45:9)

This was a dark place where the enemy was allowed access, confined to the limits of using isolation, blindness, outside intimidation, cold and uncomfortable circumstances and unrest. We were quite miserable in those God-allowed circumstances, and with inevitable surgery looming in the future, we became master escape artists, thinking we had escaped the enemy, when in reality we were running from God and His circumcising our heart and its desires for carnality. (Col 2: 11-15)

During our many attempts to escape the inevitable, time ran out. Shepherds of the day were still hand feeding the milk of the Word. They were doing all the work and their children were growing up passive and inactive. Their 'crop' was close to having adult sized bodies but were still nursing. (I Cor 3:2) It was time to learn to hunt for themselves, find their own sustenance in the Lord, and become active participants in the maintenance of an enlarged territory. (Heb 5:12)

These children were in danger of passing on family sins of unpruned flesh if they spread their seed (fruit) prior to surgery. Through out the years between several blunders of back-in-the-cage syndrome, children and shepherds were in prison using battling axes to war their way out. Time had run out and God sent messengers to rescue all with the good news of coming glory just in time to make the appointment with Gilgal. (Josh 4:18-19)

This caused all kinds of commotion. Judgment (the law) knocked on the door to check things out. We were sent to get cleaned up and dressed for a new day. (1 Pet 4:17) Neighbors heard the noise and wondered. And after one last blunder, Big Father God - whom we have known as kind and gracious, shows up with a stern look on His face and opens the door. We come out of the cage in a mass of tangled emotions. Ouch. It's time for surgery. (Josh 5:2)

The beautiful part of this story, is that after He cuts away the flesh and even though recovery hurts, if we wake up early enough, we will still be intoxicated with His Presence! The joy of His Presence helps alleviate the pain of our sinful nature when we displease Him. He promises to roll away the shame and reproach caused from our carnal pleasures. (Josh 5:8,9)

ENDNOTE Even though the original Cally story took place in 1994, I want to say I suffered a very difficult winter this year, both in warfare and in personal life. After one last horrific time in that cage, (see the Quickened Word post on 2/7/00 "Between the Blessings and Curses" at my site) I faithfully used my battle ax with courage and at times I even laughed, thanks to His intoxicating and wonderful Presence. In the end, it was the Lord Who showed up and let me out. And only because of His grace, did I finally understand that I had been arguing with Him for a very long time in trying to escape the circumcision of carnality. It was He Who put me in a bind, He Who let me out, and He Who sent me to surgery.

What IS that surgery? It is pure, raw repentance. Beloved, as a forerunner, I know that we are headed for a time of massive repentance. When it happens, I can tell you it will be Daddy God Himself Who convinces us that we have been running away from His dealings for years. He is a Holy God and does not change. He says yes to the enemy only for our own good. He will have the last Word, and we will finally be convinced that the same unholy issues He has been dealing with us for years is still on the operating table staring us in the face. (1 Pet 4:12) The most loving part of this story is that this surgery is available now more than ever before in history, through the novocain of His awesome Presence. I found out that even though I could not escape His dealings, the pain of anything I finally yielded to die on the cross, was worth experiencing His awesome and loving Presence!

I hope this story makes a difference in your life and you take time to ponder and see if you have unknowingly walked the same path these past 10-20 years.

Lovingly, Sandy

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Lord's Candle

Paul Gervais

"The spirit of man is the candle of the Lord, searching all the inward parts of the belly." Proverbs 20:27

"And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." John 8:32

These are the most exciting days to be alive in the Body of Christ, particularly for those who have chosen to enjoy intimacy with the Father and walk in the fullness of the Spirit. The Church is heading in a direction of fulfilling prophecy...becoming the head and not the tail, being far from all oppression. Spots and wrinkles...sins, symptoms and other forms of oppression, are bending their knees in the Presence of a unique Anointing... infilling and enshrouding those who have chosen to abide in that Secret Place of the Most High, desiring, more than anything else, to witness, as well as dispense the Glory.

The Holy Spirit has much to share about that marvelous newness, as the Word of the Lord came unto me, saying, "Prepare ye the way for the Most High!"

THE LORD'S CANDLE

"Precious Child, your spirit is, indeed, the place in which the Mind of Christ must be revealed. Take heed! There are many seducing influences in the world. Once the Seed of Revelation is sown...that dream, vision or revelation, immediately the enemy comes to rob what was imparted from the Throne Room, utilizing this planet's worries and cares, the deceitfulness of riches...having too much or not possessing enough. Keep those eyes upon Me, the Author and Finisher of your faith. Beloved, defer to the spirit man.

Therein lies the truth that sets the captive free. Take no thought. Cast down vain imaginations and any high thing that attempts to exalt itself against your knowledge of the Word, who you are in Christ and what the Church has been called to perform. I am encouraging the Body to think and act big, since She represents a mighty God. Develop a first-class mentality. The sky's the limit. Whatever is seen on the inside must be gestated and birthed. Dad is to not be limited or placed in a box. When that happens, all slats are invariably kicked aside and obliterated. The Glory is poised to do far above what you are able to ask or think, via the excellency of Heaven's Power within.

As darkness increases, the Bride will maintain a single eye, strictly moving and having Her being in Me. Depend upon this certain word of prophecy. The seen was created by that not viewed. Consequently, the unseen is more potent. Natural man cannot perceive the deeper truths of the Spirit. Precious One, become God-inside minded. Count the cost! Totally sell out. There is nothing to lose and everything to gain! At the other end of your commitment abides My Glory!"

TRUST NOT IN OPPRESSION!

"The deceiver of the Brethren does not possess or embrace truth at any level. He has been a liar from the beginning. In fact, had Satan realized what he was doing, that character would not have crucified the Lord of Glory. You see, Dear Child, the truth was, and is, not in him, as he remains the author of all lies and confusion. Understand, the evil one cannot even keep his own story straight, which is why many have been halting between two opinions, remaining in the valley of decision, themselves disoriented. Know Dad's Word and boldly declare what is written and spoken, contrary to that witnessed by the natural eye. The temporal is always subject to change, completely ruled by the eternal. Again, realize that the enemy of your soul (mind, intellect, will, emotions, dreams and visions) is profoundly confused. Consequently, that trickles down into the world and sometimes, the Body, promoting additional turmoil and derision.

Without deferring to the Holy Spirit, even the very elect will be fooled, often acting and speaking in My Name, yet ever representing Daddy's Heart or manifesting the Presence. Have I not invited you to boldly approach the Throne in times of need, for the purpose of obtaining grace? Effectiveness and success can only be enjoyed as the Kids do just that."

REVERSED CAPTIVITY!

"Oh, I was there during occasions of shame, blame and false accusations. Often, individuals, pointing the finger, sincerely believed in what they spoke, not recognizing the spirit behind their destructive articulations. Apple of My Eye, your God surely witnessed those tears of helplessness and hopelessness. However, there is no future in the past. In fact, former days are to be a servant of your future. Joy is on the horizon! Captivity will soon yield, and be remitted by, the Anointing that is permeating every atom of My Beloved. The Holy Spirit's eraser has been positioned to fully eradicate negative memories, permitting a renewal of the mind for the job that is just ahead.

Is it possible to not only forgive, but forget? Surely!

As far as the East is from the West, there is no memory in the Creator's heart of iniquities, which have been blasted away by the Blood. Such will be the case in each Child's soul, pertaining to those fears and nightmares. You don't have to recollect them either. Trust Me! Your thought life is about to be transformed!"

PREPARE TO BE ATTACKED!

"Precious Vessel, oppression is not of Me. Trust not in those former days of attack and ridicule. I was present when those circumstances seemed so overwhelming and Heaven appeared as brass. Dad has heard your cries and bottled all tears. One might question the reason for containing that anguished flow. Everything in My Kingdom has a purpose. For each droplet of expressed pain, another devil-busting outpouring will manifest...Rivers of Living Water, a proliferation of deliverance...great joy, signs, wonders and miracles. You are to be far from all oppression (Isaiah 54:14). The hour is quickly approaching when the Children will come under another type of attack, not from the forces of darkness, but the Covenant of Promise, the King of Kings, the Spirit of Prophecy, Himself!

For these blessings, salvation to the uttermost, will come upon and overtake (positively attack) every spirit and situation that is contrary to the Word. So many have given up, perceiving the Creator's will and purpose less potent and inferior to that which is described in the Book. Prepare for an army of angelic forces, as Heaven is opening its womb to release perfect gifts of healing, health, deliverance, prosperity, life and empowerment. There has never been such excitement and anticipation, pertaining to the birthing or plan. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it will surely speak, and not lie. Neither will that stirring on the inside tarry. The baby is alive, Beloved! Prepare to birth My dream. Scores will stream into the Family as a direct result of your stand, subsequent experience, victory and testimony. Former weaknesses and battles are about to become earthshaking regions of Anointing and ministry. I am the God of reversed captivity!"

DAYS OF GREAT OUTPOURING

These are certainly the days of great outpouring. There has never been so much preparation and excitement in Heaven over what is programmed to transpire. I don't know about you, but Paul [Gervais] has had it with the enemy and his efforts to rob us of the Covenant. Personally, a solid mindset has been established. Regardless of what this boy thinks or sees, he is going to believe and act upon the Word, letting God be true and every man a liar. How about you?

During the earthly ministry of Jesus, He never laid sin, sickness, poverty, death, despair, defeat or destruction on anyone, but went about doing good, healing all-- not some--but all oppressed of the enemy. For God was with Him and hasn't left the Beloved, either. He is the same, yesterday, today and forever, never altering what has proceeded from His lips. The bottom line here is this-- We have been called to perform "even greater works than these." When it comes to any of the above, salvation for spirit, soul and body, the lesser is always contained in the greater!

Forgiveness of sins, healing and prosperity are part of the entire package.

BUILDING STRONGER MUSCLES

The Believer has been cheated long enough. Dad is calling us to build stronger muscles, spiritually speaking, by way of those Throne Room encounters, so we can be mighty champions for the Kingdom. That is a process, since faith, in fact, comes by hearing an unveiled word from Christ.

The Church must be vigilant, as lying spirits are prolific in both the world and Body of Christ. That is where discernment remains vitally paramount, permitting the Holy Spirit free course to do His job...reveal truth, while exposing contradictions that keep us from the Covenant of Promise.

It's very disconcerting to learn that someone has been spreading false stories, especially if they are about you. However, the student is not greater than the Teacher. If Satan launched such missiles against Jesus, why should we be exempt? In fact, when that happens, there are to be two immediate realizations. The first is a recognition that lying spirits are at work to rob joy and get your goods. The other involves an acknowledgment that hell has initiated a negative smoke screen...a weapon formed to distract the Believer from revelational knowledge...a destructive pattern interrupt from the pit, if you will.

COUNTING IT AS JOY

What am I to do under those conditions? Count it as joy! Cast down vain imaginations. Simply, don't take the thought, but say, "Devil, I will not gestate that fabrication. Instead, Dad and I will spend more time together than ever, in the Secret Place of the Most High."

Lying spirits will cause us to refuse to see ourselves as we really are. Most professional photographers will admit that people usually choose pictures that look least like them. Why is that? Satan has promoted self-loathing.

Frequently, Satan's minions are successful in convincing the unconverted that they are good enough without Christ. On the other hand, a Child of God may discover himself driven into a state of condemnation, captured by past forgiven and forgotten sins, or fear of failure. But, thank the Lord, there is no negative past in Him, only a positive future. Ponder this fact. Daddy chose you and me first, sent Jesus, who freely came...gave us His Best when we were at our worst.

LYING SPIRITS

Lying spirits can also promote untruths about other people, even fellow Christians. They really enjoy that, often reversing the binoculars, causing us to see outsiders as smaller or worse than we. Self-exaltation feeds on that abasement, plugging the conduit leading from Dad's location of habitation. Then, there is no Power to witness or display His Uncion.

Jesus has always been a favorite focus of lying spirits. So successful has been their dominion over the minds of men, that through the centuries more have believed the false than the truth about the Master.

When He walked this planet, the Pharisees, Sadducees, doctors of the law, scribes, as well as religious and intellectual leaders, opposed Christ because they believed wrongly that our Savior was a troublemaker, vain boaster, false Messiah and a partner of devils. The Martyrdom of Stephen and, most recently, Cassie Bernall, along with the persecution of the early Church, was accomplished by lying spirits.

They nearly wiped out Christianity in the infamous ignorance and superstition of the Dark Ages, not to mention the Inquisition. Bibles and saints have been destroyed to satisfy their lust.

GRACE ABOUNDS

Revivals have encountered them. In many places they succeeded in driving the Church underground into secret meeting places. Nevertheless, where their activity abounded, grace has much more gained ascendancy. The final outcome was invariably revival and new converts. That will never change.

Hundreds of millions have received imperfect pictures of Jesus and who they are in Christ, due to their influence. Some sadly failed to appropriate the fullness of the Covenant, having been accorded a blank check, signed with the Precious Blood of the Lamb, not knowing the vastness and enormity of Dad's bank account.

Believer, let's draw a solid line in the sand and cease questioning God's desires. That Word is His will. Lying spirits are only doing their job. Our Anointing and call are so much higher and greater than theirs. We are dealing with defeated entities. So, why give them the time of day?

JESUS INTO EVERY FIBER

As we ask the Revelator to build Jesus into every fiber, a transformation can be predicted, one that takes us from Glory to Glory. No longer will you be the tail, but the head, blessed going out and coming in, ready to distribute...always having full sufficiency is everything pertaining to life and godliness.

Repeat this profession: "Satan, I don't ever want to hear from you, again! My posture in this life will be to love and serve, obeying those nudgings and promptings on the inside. No weapon formed against me will be able to prosper. Lord, let me perceive others as You do...prophetically, even myself, so that I might call those things which be not as though they were, until each becomes...takes on flesh and dwells amongst us! The power of life and death is in the tongue. My words will set this world on fire with Your love and Presence!"

Dr. Paul N. Gervais

Speak The Word:

I imitate God. I copy Him and follow His example. Ephesians 5:1

For Further Study:

Micah 3-4 Psalm 135 John 8:25-29

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Canopy Of Grace

Tracy Shepard

Now is the time to be found under the canopy of Grace from God. I am not going to make this a long writing. The message is really very simple and clear. Step into God's Grace and stay there.

Tough times are coming up. You have only seen the beginning. You have seen some earthquakes, tornadoes, hurricanes, and murders. You will see more and more frequently and on a regular basis.

God doesn't want us to get used to it, but He wants us to make ourselves totally committed to Him 100% so that we can shelter these storms and walk in His Will. He wants us to pray and pray and pray.

The way I look at it, even if I do get caught up in some catastrophe, at least I know I will end up in Heaven with My God again! But, many people do not have this assurance! We have to let them know.

My friend, everyone needs to look at their hearts too and be sure that THEY will be in Heaven should a catastrophe strike you right now. I woke up tonight in the middle of a dream. I was trying to help a friend of mine who was in an irate tirade and he turned me away. I said "okay" and walked away and let him go.

That is what God will do if we do not stay under His canopy of Grace. Please friends, don't take a chance. God said in this dream very clearly, "Time is running out". He is serious. Get under His canopy. I am not going to tell you how. You must ask Him. If you have not officially asked Jesus into your heart at sometime in your life, do so now. That is all it takes. God says "Call on me and I will answer you."

When Jesus is in your heart, you have opened your connection with God and He will tell you how to get under His canopy of Grace. It is very different and personal with each person. God takes us each as we are and where we are and puts His covering over us. He is our shelter from the storms.

So don't be afraid, just run to your shelter in God. His canopy of Grace will cover you and keep you safe from all harm! He will keep you from the storms. Then, someday, we will be back at home with Him safe and sound! I can hardly wait!

Until then, the canopy of Grace is over my head! Is it over yours? God loves you. Come to Him today!

With love in Jesus,

Your friend, Mrs. Sunshine,
Tracy Shepard Walking and Loving God In Love

Come See Our Website at: <http://www.angelfire.com/journal/naturesparables>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Church Behind

Rick Wiggers

The Church Behind the Church

From an aerial view, I found myself looking down upon a great mass of people - millions, tens of millions, maybe more. Towering before this great mass were spires, many of them, lined up closely side-by-side. These vertical towers stretched from horizon to horizon. Each one differed from the others in its appearance. Each tower was squeezed in between two others so that all butted up against the ones on either side. Some of these spires were grand and majestic and noble. Others were plain and mundane. Some were tall and modern. Others were short and antiquated. Some had crosses on them. Others didn't. Some were wide. Many more were narrow. Some were glistening and grandiose. Others were drab. But each spire had its place.

Each spire was portrayed in a way as to attract attention to itself. Some overlapped those beside them. Some were overshadowed by the size of others. Some drew attention to their majesty. Others drew attention to their modesty. Few drew attention to their Creator. Some were nearly lost in the busyness of the whole scene. The juxtaposition of one spire to the next, and the contrasts between them, made the whole image dizzying. This mixture had the appearance of a poorly conceived patchwork quilt, making the wall that the masses was looking at almost indiscernible as to what it actually was. However, the skyline was distinctive, and clearly revealed what was represented. You could see spire stacked next to spire for as far as the eye could see - pinnacles proudly extending themselves upward. I noticed that the tightness of their formation next to one another made it impossible to see past them.

Upon closer examination, I observed that each of the spires had something written on it - "Lutheran", "Charismatic", "Catholic", "Messianic", "Pentecostal", "Methodist", "Apostolic", "Brethren", "Presbyterian", "Friends", "Church of God", "Anglican", "Independent", "Orthodox", "Mennonite", "Episcopal", "Baptist", "Church of Christ", etc. They were all there; every denomination, every non-denomination, every organization, every church, every Christian initiative, every fellowship, every "faith". It went on and on. Each spire was unique in its appearance. Together they made up a spectacular, yet distasteful collage.

The Holy Spirit revealed to me that this is how the world saw the Church. And they mocked. They made jokes about each of the different spires. They ridiculed the gaudiness of the assortment. They pointed out the hypocrisies of the various segments. They pointed to the defects of others. They spoke with derision about the conflicts between different factions. They laughed. They sneered. They spat.

And my spirit was grieved.

Then the Lord began to move me from that vantage point. He took me up and over the top of the spires, around to the back side. From here I could see what the world could not. The wall of towers that they saw was not a series of buildings constructed close together after all, but rather a thin, flimsy exterior being held up by supports. It was a façade! It was like a mock western movie set made up of fake storefronts. What seemed to be solid from the front, was clearly unsteady when viewed from the back. What the world saw was a surrealistic representation of the Church, made up of a mixture of man's ideas, Truth, and heresy. However, it was impossible for them to know which was which amidst the jumble before them.

But then I began to see THE CHURCH!

I saw the hand of the Lord reaching into a section of the façade from the back side, and pull something out. Although the façade appeared to be constructed of wood, the hand of the Lord reached into it and gently pulled out a brick. Only this brick was not made of clay. It was like pure crystal - perfectly clear. He took this brick and set it in place, along with others like it, behind the façade. Then He reached into another section of the façade and pulled out another crystal brick. He continued to do this, pulling crystal bricks out from all over the back side of the façade. Each one He would carefully position in its proper place. Every brick fit perfectly where He placed it, and all were like pure crystal.

What I saw the Lord building was breathtaking! It was a structure of such elegance, such splendor, such magnificence! This was no collage. This was no façade. It had the appearance of a large majestic cathedral, only constructed of pure crystal, reflecting the true image of Christ. No edifice that man has ever built even approaches the beauty of what I saw. It was radiant - literally! The resplendent glory of Christ, the Cornerstone, shown up through, and was magnified out from, each of the crystal bricks, which were no longer distinguishable individually.

This was THE CHURCH, the ekklesia, the called out ones!

The Lord had been working on it for thousands of years, and although it was not yet complete, it was well-advanced. But it could not be seen by the world yet.

Then suddenly I was looking at this same image, but a period of time had passed and I was in the future. I don't know how long it had been. But, the Church that the Lord was building was complete - standing immovable, without equal, still hidden behind the facade. And now it was time for the world to see it!

The world had continued in their state of mockery of the Church since I had seen them last. But something was beginning to happen. It was like a deep rumbling was beginning to take place, shaking everything. Suddenly, I could see from the back side the hand of the Lord strike the facade. In a moment of time, like the veil of the temple that was rent when Christ was crucified, the façade was split in half. It fell flat, sending debris and dust flying.

There was confusion and panic by most on the other side. Some were triumphing in the fact that the "Church" had fallen. Then, a nervous hush began to settle over the masses. The air began to clear. I could hear gasps coming from the crowd. For standing there, seen by the world for the first time in its true glory, was the Church - pure, spotless, without blemish, majestic, powerful.

In stunned, dreadful awe the world was saying, "Where did this come from?" The gravity of what they were beholding began to sink in. There was no more mockery. There were no more jokes. There was no more faults to be found. There was no more gaudy imitation. There was no more hypocrisy. There was no more division. How could there be? There was only Christ - and His Bride, the Church, left standing!

Rick Wiggers
wiggers\_r\_us@yahoo.com
Hesston, KS

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Coming Days

Julie Baxter

Reconciling the great worldwide revival

With "as it was in the days of Noah", & "in the days of Lot".

June 15, 2000

Ejb

In the coming days, you shall see My hand of judgement come upon this earth as never before. You shall see an increase in wickedness that you have not dreamed possible. Fear thou not, I am a good and kind God and want that all men should know my immeasurable love towards them. But men will ever more seek their own and do their own thing, heaping onto themselves the pleasures of sin for a season, and being taken away by the cares of this life. The love that demanded I give my Son's life for mankind demands that I give men an opportunity to turn to me, that as few as possible can resist without totally hardening their hearts.

My hand is just beginning to scatter the devastating judgments upon the earth as foretold, when men shall see wars and rumors of wars, when a man's enemies shall be of his own household, when famines, insect infestation, drought, hurricanes and earthquakes shall literally shake men from their securities. Fear thou not, my people. This is mercy, my people; this is my mercy for I am a God that wills that none should perish. This is my mercy, my people, in that if those who will not yield to me are taken, the judgement is less for their iniquities than if they linger on in increasing sin, rebellion and depravity. This is my mercy, in establishing once and for all that I am a jealous God and will not share my people with another. I will answer the cries of my people to make them holy. I will rid them of everything that hinders them from obedience to my Word and falling in love with Me.

Yet in the midst of these judgments, I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh and I will cause my beloved to experience the dominion I promised to Adam in the garden. You shall see wonderful demonstrations of my presence in your midst. You shall see an awesome and mighty flow of gifts unto my people, and you shall see a maturity spring forth from them almost overnight.

In the midst of an incredible outpouring of my word to my people you shall see a famine for my word, but fear not. Those who will be Martha and do the necessary things to the exclusion of hearing my voice will hunger and hunger and hunger and experience that famine. Those who will choose as Mary did, to sit at my feet and listen shall be overcome with my words of love and my spirit. She shall feast and feast and feast. I will send angels to do her busywork, and she shall go forth on prepared pathways. I shall anoint her with mighty orchestrations of my power. That which would previously taken days and months to organize shall be accomplished overnight. I will put all my resources at her disposal for I can deny her nothing when she is loving me with her whole heart, mind, body, and strength. I watch her dancing before me in celebration of my love and my sacrifice and I am drawn to do her bidding. Ah...she captures me with one of her eyes, and yet, still needs maturing that her every thought should be for my kingdom.

My beloved shall lack no good thing, but it shall be good that I decree. It shall be the good that will hasten her preparation for our wedding feast. I hunger for her loves, and yet she tarries with putting on of her coat and shoes, and does not answer when I knock. She will learn to come quickly when I bid her, just as she is, listening only for my voice, hungering and thirsting, and taking no thought of her station in life or her responsibilities.

Moses demonstrated to his world my deliverance when he spoke "let my people go". I shall once more say unto my enemy "let my people go" and then I shall catch them away to forever be with me. For when my people partake of the feast, the banquet prepared in the presence of their enemies they demonstrate to all the confidence that they have in me. They demonstrate to my enemy that although he may roar, and prowl, and even rip and tear, he has weapons that will not prosper against that which I have planted within them. He shall not prevail against my church, My chosen, and my called-out ones.

Yea, I shall come with judgement, but fear not, it shall drive you to me, and when driven into my courts, you shall be satisfied with my presence, and shall only leave to go into the highways and byways and compel others to come in. Thus I shall restore all things; I shall restore my people.

The world shall know that you are my disciples by the love you show. This is the love that asks that you lay down your life. This is the love that asks you to step outside your comfort zone, that you demonstrate to the unsaved, the ignorant, those stuck in tradition and false doctrines. But more than this, it is the white-hot love that you can receive from your soon coming King and Bridegroom, turned toward the world He gave His life to redeem. So send I you, prepare the way for my coming.

A few scriptural references: Luke 17:26-37; Amos 9:13-15; Mark 13:7-37; Joel 2:25-32; Mal. 3 & 4

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Centrifuge Of God

Debra Westbrook

God began to show me a picture of a centrifuge, which is a machine that rotates at high speeds, separating substances of different densities, such as milk and cream. Having been a science major in college, I knew what God was saying through this picture.

In chemistry classes, one often puts test tube vials into centrifuges to separate mixtures. I am always in awe of our Lord as He speaks to us through personal life experiences. Here is what I believe the Lord is speaking through this. For a season, many of God's children will find themselves placed in a divine centrifuge by His hand. It will be a time of increased intensity so as to produce a quick high speed separation. God will place us there with the sole intent to quickly separate that which is excellent from that which is good within our lives. All the good that we strive to accomplish in building His kingdom is mixed with human effort and fleshly zeal.

There is a separation unto purity that God is requiring as He searches beyond the surface, or what is easily seen, to examine the purity of our desires and the purity of our motives. Often, our actions and our good works can be deceiving, even to us. Who are we doing this all for?

Is it for Jesus and His glory alone? Will we submit to the agitation of the process to purify us for the greater work of building His kingdom? God is seeking people of excellence, of outstanding quality. The centrifuge is reserved for those who cry out to walk in the fullness of His anointing, close to our Lord. These are a people who understand that within their flesh is no good thing. Wanting all of God, they submit to the process of maturity in whatever way He chooses to do this.

This separation will expose areas of our hearts that may be totally veiled even from us. This separation will draw off good intentions, well meaning desires, and any self-righteousness that exists within our lives. This will be a quick work before many will be released and sent forth. Submit to the process.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Chains Are Rattling

Hollie L. Moody

For the past few weeks, with my spiritual ears, I have been hearing the sound of rattling chains. When I sought the Lord for what this could mean, I heard the word, "Captives." I also heard the name, "Jephthah." When I looked up in the Bible the name, "Jephthah," it meant, "He will open."

The Lord has begun to reveal to me what the sound of these rattling chains were.

THE TUNNEL

I was hearing the sound of the rattling chains once again, and once again I sought the Lord as to what this could mean. A long tunnel opened up before my eyes. It had the appearance of a subway tunnel. The Lord and I began to walk into this tunnel together. As we did so, the sound of the rattling chains became louder. I also began to hear what I perceived to be "sighs." These "sighs" sounded like soft groanings.

On either side of the tunnel, were prison cells. Each cell was occupied by a prisoner. Each prisoner had chains on their ankles and wrists. They were moving slowly and sluggishly. Each movement rattled their chains. I heard them sighing.

I couldn't see to the end of the tunnel. It was a very long tunnel, but along each side of the tunnel were prison cells filled with prisoners.

I turned to the Lord and asked Him, "Who are these people, Lord, and why are they in prison?"

"These are My children," the Lord replied. "They have been taken captive."

"Who has taken them captive?" I asked the Lord.

"Come and see," the Lord replied.

THE TROPHY ROOM

Suddenly, the Lord and I were in a room with what appeared to be trophies on the walls. The Lord and I began to walk up to the walls to view the trophies. There were large plaques on the walls with names on them. Smaller plaques with words on them were beneath each of the large plaques.

I began to read the plaques out loud. On each of the large plaques, I read the name, then I would read the smaller plaques. The smaller plaques had words like, "joy," "faith," "peace," "love," "deliverance," "goodness," "humility," etc., on them.

Puzzled, I stopped reading the plaques and turned to the Lord. "What does this mean?" I asked the Lord.

"Many of My children have been taken captive by the enemy," the Lord began to explain to me. "They have been robbed of the good gifts I bestowed upon them. They are in bondage. I have surely heard the rattling of their chains. I have heard their sighs. I have raised up those who will go into the enemy's trophy room and take back what has been stolen from My children."

Around me, I became aware of activity. People were appearing around me. They were marching up to the walls, and snatching the plaques from the walls. As they were doing this, they were speaking words of deliverance for each name on the larger plaques.

The enemy also came into the room. He was furious that his trophies were being taken down, and he began to try to oppose the people who were taking down the plaques. There were times the enemy's opposition was fierce against the people around me. Yet, they continued to take the trophies down.

TAKING THE TROPHIES TO THE PRISONERS

When the trophies had been removed from the walls, the people began to leave the room. The Lord and I went with them. The people with the trophies went to the tunnel where the prisoners were. They stopped before going into the tunnel.

"Why did the people stop?" I asked the Lord.

"Listen," the Lord replied.

I fell silent and listened. From within the tunnel, I heard the sound of chains rattling very loudly. I also heard the loud sighs of the prisoners from within.

"COME FORTH !!!" the Lord suddenly yelled very loudly into the tunnel.

For a brief space of time, there was complete silence. Then those of us standing outside of the tunnel heard the sound of prison doors banging open.

THE PRISONERS COME FORTH

I heard the sound of rattling chains, and a "shuffling" noise. Then, at the entrance of the tunnel, the prisoners from within began to emerge. They exited the tunnel, then just stood together at the entrance of the tunnel. I was struck by how silent it had become.

The people who had retrieved the trophies from the enemy's trophy room, began to approach the Lord and put the trophies at the Lord's feet. When they were finished, they stepped back, and stood silently before the quiet prisoners.

One by one, the Lord began to call each of the prisoners to Him. They came to Him, still bound with the chains. When they reached the Lord, the Lord would reach out to them and touch them. When He touched them, the chains would fall off them. Then, the Lord would stoop down to the trophies at His feet and give to each person the trophy that had their name on it. The Lord also gave them the smaller plaques with the words on them.

When the Lord was finished handing out the plaques, He took the robe from around His shoulders and cast it out over all the people. When He did this, all the people began to rejoice.

SCRIPTURE

During this vision, I felt impressed by the following scriptures:

Isaiah 61:1-3 ~ "(1) The spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; (2) To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn; (3) To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified."

I pray that those of you who have been taken captive by the enemy, and have had the good gifts of the Lord stolen from you to be displayed as trophies in the enemy's trophy room, soon have a "Jephthah" experience in your lives. "Jephthah." "He will open." The Lord will open whatever prison you may be imprisoned within, and give you back liberty in Him. He will clothe you with His robe of righteousness and enable you to rejoice freely before Him once again.

The Children's Hour To Shine

Paul N. Gervais

"And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all (not some, but all) flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit. And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, before the great and the terrible day of the Lord come." Joel 2:29-31

"Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth." Hosea 6:3

WITHIN THAT WOMB . . . A STIRRING

Ponder those precious moments when the Holy Spirit moved upon your heart, affording revelation. Within that womb, a stirring and leaping were felt. An unusual knowing...certain anticipation, seemed to accompany that impartation from the Throne Room, not unlike a confirmation of any viable pregnancy. And let's not leave out persecution for the Word's (revelation's) sake, some of which came from Family, those who should have been standing with you during gestation of that promise. Regardless, diligence ruled the day. "I won't give up, no matter what!"

The Divine portrait ongoingly occupied your thoughts, both consciously and subconsciously, accompanied by an expectancy that seemed to make each day worth living, supernaturally adding purpose to life. Yet, nothing seemed to happen. Satan repeatedly shouted..."Fool!" The natural fought with all of its might to gain ascendancy over the supernatural...the Precious Mind of Christ. Months, and even years passed, minus results.

WAITING IS ALMOST OVER!

Are you prepared for some wonderful news? The waiting is about to cease. The proverbial tide is turning! That which seemed to lose significance and fail in maintaining priority has been recipient of Heaven's Wind. Dust of despair, discouragement and even unbelief will no longer be able to keep that head from crowning, obscure Dad's plan, since the gap between the spoken Word and manifestation cannot survive hell's process of abortion. Baby is on the way! Life has arrived...His! The smile of a proud Parent has been programmed for your countenance.

Jesus made a clear point during those three-and-a-half years of active ministry. The works our Savior performed were what He perceived the Father thinking or doing. That was His quick response when questioned about the evidenced Power and authority.

INTIMACY PRODUCES REVELATION

The Master's vertical walk ruled and influenced each moment. Such is to be the case with us. Intimacy will always produce a revelation (spiritual pregnancy), then incubation...that season of waiting, followed by manifestation. As with that great crowd listening to Jesus' sermon, the Redeemer will feed His Body...the Church, Bread (additional information and encouragement), vitamins for that Child, nourishment in the form of dreams and visions. She will adamantly refuse to give up or faint, as the blueprint of faith is really and truly Dad's. We are His Carriers, the actual Spout where the Glory comes out.

COVENANT . . . DELIVERANCE, MINISTRY, JOB CHANGES . . .

What might be the form of that soon-to-arrive infant? Well, for many, Covenant will surface in the form of deliverance, ministry, job changes...those nudgings and promptings you have sought in prayer coming to pass. The list goes on and on. Results are limited only to what the Revelator of Truth has painted on the canvass of that soul.

In plain terms, the Waiting Room is about to prophetically empty. What you have yearned forth is about to become reality. The Kingdom's furtherance is hanging in the balance. That must happen soon, as a multitude of souls are dependent upon birthing of the unseen.

You are transporting a belly full of the miraculous! It's ultimate purpose is to point humanity to Christ, since all creation awaits that marvelous unveiling of what the Bride has received. Fathom the outcome of your obedience to Papa's call. Those blank pages in the Lamb's Book of Life are awaiting new names. Planet earth is the Delivery Room. That Water must imminently break for presentation of promise...the unthinkable, unprecedented and unpredictable.

AT CENTER STAGE

The One Who moved on Mary's womb is at center stage. A solitary statement from the Standby can turn this world upside down. Let's let Him do just that!

THE RAIN!

"Where can one go to escape My Spirit? Who, following a revelation of the Glory, would ever desire anything but the Father's very best? Precious Child, the beggarly elements of this world are not your lot in either life or ministry. The best has been reserved until last...not only the strongest and most well-trained Soldiers, but the mightiest victories and grandest outpourings. Faith works experience, and experience, hope. You are only as good as those struggles, encounters and subsequent successes. Therein lie your promotion and testimony.

A CLOUD . . . CONDENSATION VISIBLE TO THE NAKED EYE

The day is quickly approaching when this earth will be covered with a Cloud...Condensation that is visible to even the natural eye. The heaviness of the Creator's Presence will overshadow entire regions, individuals and groups of people. Just as it literally rains on the just and unjust alike in the natural sense, such will be the case in these unparalleled days of display, destiny and deliverance.

IMMEDIATE CONVICTION AND ALIGNMENT!

That drenching will promote immediate conviction and alignment in all departments, as spiritual cataracts vanish and scores of hungry (for My love) souls drop to their knees, cognizant that the great I AM is alive and well, all they really need. Pages in the Lamb's Book of Life will be filled with new names. Numerous entries of those greater works have been slated for addition into the Book of Remembrance.

AUDITORIUMS AND STADIUMS WILL YIELD

Beloved, entire auditoriums and stadiums will suddenly yield to the long prophesied, unprecedented Unction, that overshadowing. A stillness will follow. Then crowds will receive a revelation of Dad's never-ending love, Power and commitment, subsequently entering the Kingdom, being instantly healed and strengthened to do great business for Me.

HOSPITALS AND NURSING HOMES WILL NOT BE LEFT OUT!

Medical Centers and nursing homes are not to be left out of this process. As the Vapor forms, bodies will be quickened and yield to the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ. Wholeness will rule, emptying facilities, while promoting earthshaking testimonies of the miraculous and a Covenant-keeping God.

THE DEAD RAISED!

Oh, the joy that will invade entire nations, as I also move upon those that sleep (death). And yes, this planet will be full of the knowledge of the Lord's Glory, as the waters cover the sea. The media will no longer be able to shun, deny, rationalize or minimize this outcome. In fact, they will trip over each other, attempting to be first in obtaining the story. Blood, Fire and Pillars of Smoke (Glory) will be the Force behind this long-awaited onslaught...the Blood of Jesus, demanding the fruit of all purchased by way of the cross; Fire...consuming and obliterating remnants of the curse, including trespassing sin-consciousness, symptoms, lies and distorted perceptions; Smoke (the Glory Cloud), where, in some cases, the sun will be totally obscured by the intensity of Papa's explosion of Life.

THE CHILDREN'S HOUR TO SHINE!

Bride, prepare to venture forth with a new spring in your step...a yet to be experienced boldness and certainty that everything your hand touches will be transformed and prosper, from sinner, to sickness, poverty and death. This is the Children's hour to shine, in more ways than one. The previously unreachable and unhealable are slated to be impacted by the droves. Nothing and no one will ever be the same. Royalty is poised to rule and reign. Remember your identity...Heirs and Joint-Heirs! Seated with Me in Heavenly Places, that Throne Room, prepare to rest those feet on the enemy's head and facilitate his demise. The deceiver will stand naked and defeated before a rejoicing Body!"

THOSE TEARS!

"I have witnessed your tears, Dear Child, and personally plan to wipe them from your eyes. Has the Father not promised to do just that? Each drop (tear) stored in Heaven's bottles will shortly be released in the form of another type of Condensation...Dad's Glory! And you wondered why Papa has been retaining those droplets! Each will generate deliverance, in one form or another...from despair to joy unspeakable. Parched relationships of all kinds are being readied for that Rain. Just as the Blood has a Voice, each tear is a seed, placing demands on the ground for vindication, unification and manifestation. Contemplate the Word. In My favor is Life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy will arrive in the morning. The old is currently giving way to the new. Little One, those enemies are to be seen no longer. Observe, as the Lover of your soul moves mountains to put a smile on that face!"

Dr. Paul N. Gervais

Speak The Word:

For Further Study:

Hosea 4-5 Psalm 119:145-176 Matthew 25:14-30

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Coming Of The Lord Draws Near!

Ros Henderson-Hobson

To all, today I am filled with great zeal for the Lord, The visions below have filled my heart with complete joy! The prophetic office is very hard at times, especially when we are given hard words to speak. We are going to witness many mighty works in these last days, before the coming of the Lord ! and I can hardly wait. It has been very much on my heart, and the hearts of others concerning the spiritual state of disrepair of the bride of Christ, so when I was allowed to see parts of the Lords unfolding plans. It has given me much joy and hope. Last night as I lay upon my bed pondering over the things of the Lord, the Holy Spirit came upon me with a great anointing and opened my eyes to many things.

The first scene I saw was the bride dressed in her bridal outfit, and at first it was very dirty and stained. Then small white spots began to appear all over the dress. I sensed this was because at first, there were fellowships that had been found pure and blameless in the eyes of the Lord. The next scene I saw was of the Bride now wearing the most beautiful glowing white dress, it was almost transparent and she was twirling around with great excitement as she knew she was ready and prepared to meet with her betrothed, and there was a royal diadem on her head. [ this scene represented to me, the bride who had been made ready for Jesus ] Then I saw a third scene and there were virgins dressed in white, standing outside in the pitch black, with lamps that shone brightly, and again there was great excitement in the air! They were ready and prepared to meet the Master, for he was on his way!

Then I saw the final scene, and there was a mountain with many caves. And inside the caves were believers sitting around fires warming themselves. I knew these believers had taken refuge from the storms outside. Then I looked and a snake started to enter into the cave, there was at first a small snake, then a bigger snake came up and tried to enter into the cave. I saw an amazing thing happen. The face of the rock opened up and swallowed and consumed the snakes. I said to the Lord Wow, look at that! Then I realized the rock was the Rock of ages, is a shelter to all that seek refuge and abide in him. And no evil could enter in and harm those who sought shelter in the Rock.

Revelations Chapter 21 verse 2 And I saw the Holy city, the new Jerusalem, descending out of Heaven from God, all arrayed like a bride beautiful and adorned for her husband.

Mathew chapter 25 verse 6 But at midnight there was a shout, Behold, the bridegroom! Go out and meet him!

Isaiah chapter 32 verse 18 My people shall dwell in a peace-able habitation, in safe dwellings and in quiet resting places.

Isaiah Chapter 25 verse 4 for you have been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy, in his distress, a shelter from the storm, a shade from the heat; for the blast of the ruthless ones is like a rainstorm against a wall.

Psalms 91 He who dwells in the secret place of the most High shall remain stable and fixed under the shadow of the Almighty [Whose power no foe can withstand] and I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress, my God on him, I lean and rely and in him I (confidently) trust!

God Bless Ros

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Coming Healing Revival Part 2

Todd Bentley

And the inhabitant shall not say I am sick. Isa. 33:24

I believe that this verse is speaking of a time in the church where there will be no sickness or disease just like when Israel came up out of Egypt in Ps. 105:37 and none were feeble. Think about it, more than three million people! Kathryn Kuhlman prophesied in her day that there would be a day in the church where the church would say I am not sick. Many others have prophesied a great healing revival including John G Lake who through his ministry it was reported that Spokane was the healthiest city where over 100,000 healings and miracles were documented. God has shown me many things into the coming healing revival in Canada and the North American church. I want to share with you today four aspects of what I believe will happen in this revival.

1. Repentance: In the beginning in the garden of Eden there was no sin, sickness, disease or death. When sin entered the world then came sickness, disease and death. Sin opens the door for sickness and disease. Much sickness today is rooted in control, bitterness, envy, jealousy and unforgiveness in a persons life. Two things that I see happening is as people who are in bondage to sickness and disease repent of their willful sin, they will be healed. I've also seen that as the church repents of its corruption and worldly ways that healing would take place supernaturally without the laying on of hands. As repentance and the revival of righteousness sweeps through the church so will healings and miracles.

2. Saints revival: God is going to do away with a clergy - layman mentality and raise up the saints in great works of his power. Not just the leaders, the anointed man, pastor or evangelist but the saints will begin to preach the gospel and heal the sick. Acts 6:1-7 reports that the Apostles called out seven men full of good reputation and the Holy Spirit. They laid their hands on them then vs. 7 reports the number of the disciples increased greatly. We all know Stephen full of faith and power doing signs but who were the rest (vs.5) we never hear of them again or their works of power. I believe they flowed in an anointing just like Stephen. God is going to use the church deacons, business men, cashiers and housewives including children to work his great power. Nobodies as it were, people we don't know just like those chosen by the Apostles, people like Stephen.

3. Children's ministry: I have seen a great move of healings and miracles by the hands of children. I had a vision of an 8 year old boy with a bible in his hand preaching with fire and boldness to thousands. Through the word of the Lord he preached and the sick were recovering in their seats. I see children being used by the spoken word and faith to grow limbs and I see them working creative miracles. Jesus said in Matt. 19:14 "Let the Little children come to me do not forbid them, for of such is the Kingdom of heaven." We know that the kingdom isn't in word only but in power and Jesus driving out spirits by the spirit of God said the kingdom is upon you. Children are going to move in the power of the kingdom driving out spirits, healing the sick because the kingdom is theirs.

4. Last Day Anointing: I have seen a glimpse of the anointing that will be on the last day church. We think the book of acts was glorious but the glory of the latter house will be greater than the former. We are going out with a bigger bang than we came in. Rev. 11:1-6 describes the two witnesses moving in great power like Elijah and Moses. I believe that this is not two people but the end time church operating in the spirit and power of Elijah and Moses. Rev 11:4 says the two witnesses are the two lampstands. Where was Jesus standing in Rev. 1 but in the midst of the seven lampstands which were the church. Luke 1 prophesies John the baptist in the spirit and power of Elijah at the first coming of Jesus. Some even thought he was Elijah. Matt. 17 on the mount of transfiguration the Father used Moses and Elijah as a sign of the law and the prophets to show that Jesus was who he said he was and I believe as we near the second coming God will again confirm the church as His voice by bringing the spirit and power of Moses and Elijah upon His army. I have seen the army of God moving in creative anointing through the spoken word, like at the word of Elijah the heavens were opened (1Kings 17:1). Joshua spoke and the sun stood still, Moses turned water to blood and I see the church having the same power over the natural elements even as Jesus had the winds and the sea obey him. This also will happen to us, we will move into a wonder ministry fulfilling the rest of Joel 2. Through the church God will show wonders in the heavens and the earth. We will speak to limbs like Jesus did when he said "stretch forth your hand" and it will happen. The wonders we will do will be like in the day of Elijah and Moses to stop the world from its busyness to see the glory of God. I don't just see healings and miracles, but signs and wonders of great proportion stopping the busyness of life as the glory cloud literally comes down upon the church like with Moses The end of Rev 11:6 concerning the two witnesses says they could do their signs as often as they desired, that's power. Pray it in. Let's believe God to confirm His word and trust us with the last day anointing we'll need for last day harvest. The God of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Moses our forefathers will once again begin to show up in the church like he visited in old testament times when he visited his people. Think about it.

God bless you all.

For more info on Todd Bentley and this ministry please view <http://www.thearc.bc.ca>

The site is updated with a new look!!

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Cross

Paul Cain

" When you are content with any food, any climate, any society, and raiment and any interruption by the will of God, that is dying to self.

When you are forgotten or neglected, or purposely set at naught and you don't sting and hurt with the insult or the oversight, but your heart is happy at being counted worthy to suffer for Christ.

When your good is evil spoken of and when your wishes are crossed, your advice disregarded, your opinion ridiculed and you refuse to let anger rise in your heart or even defend yourself.

When you lovingly and patiently bear any disorder, any irregularities or any annoyance.

When you stand face to face with waste, folly, extravagant spiritual insensibility and endure it as Jesus endured.

When you never care to be referred to in conversation or to record your own good works;

When you truly love to be unknown;

When you can see your brother prosper and have his needs met and you can honestly rejoice with him in spirit and feel no envy, nor question God while your needs are far greater and in desperate circumstances.

When you can receive correction and reproof from one of less stature than yourself and can humbly submit inwardly as well as outwardly, finding no rebellion or resentment rising up within your heart, that is dying to self. "

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Cloud and the Fire

Russ Walden

Isa 4:1 (KJS) And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only let us be called by thy name, to take away our reproach. This is that day.... the seven churches of Revelation have sought their identity in man, in doctrine, in the Christian religious system. They each ate their own "bread", the own Jesus, but they relied on men to take away their reproach rather than seeking their identity in Christ.

2 In that day shall the branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth [shall be] excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel. But in this day when the seventh and final church of Laodicea has been fulfilled, THE BRANCH OF THE LORD WILL BE GLORIOUS (shining).... the dead branches have been gathered and cast into the fires of their own burning (see John 15:1-8). But the Branch of the Lord for those that are ESCAPED from the apostatized CRS will bloom and bear fruit. The fruit of the EARTH (a type of the heart, and humanity itself) will be COMELY to the LORD, even as the fruit that Jesus bore on the mount of Transfiguration.

3 And it shall come to pass, [that he that is] left in Zion, and [he that] remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, [even] every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem: Zion is the highest point in Jerusalem. It is interpreted "a parched place" .... the dry place, the wilderness. He t hat remaineth SHALL BE HOLY EVEN AS HE IS HOLY. The lukewarm have been spewed out of GOD'S purposes. Those that REMAIN IN THE ECONOMY OF GOD will partake of his fullness!!!

4 When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning. The sin stained and vomit spattered remnant will be cleansed and washed by the Bridegroom and taken to HIS BEDCHAMBER to conceive and bring forth his MANCHILD. They are cleansed by the SPIRIT OF JUDGEMENT, the spewing out of the lukewarm, and the SPIRIT OF BURNING the BAPTISM OF FIRE that orthodoxy misinterprets as RAPTURE.

5 And the LORD will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory [shall be] a defence. There are many dwelling places on ZION, of which this is ONE. And there are many ASSEMBLIES - - not the religious clubs that call themselves "the church", but those groups throughout the world with the DYNAMIC of ASSEMBLY manifests in contrasts to the rabble that confederate themselves in HOUSES OF RELIGION. And the CLOUD we have spoken of will be our "covert" or refreshing by DAY, and the FIRE OF GOD as it was with the children of Israel in the wilderness will be upon us for a defense. When will this be? Not in the millennia, or the apocalypse for we won't need defense then.... but in this hour when Assyria (anti-Christ) and Ephraim (lukewarm religion) confederate together (see the Isaiah chapter 7) to conquer the REMNANT. 6 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain. This tabernacle is the tabernacle of DAVID. These Jews this was written to understood this quite well. The ark was in an open air tent on Zion, where David's palace was. Moses tabernacle stood nearby with all her pomp and liturgy and structure, but NO GLORY, NO PRESENCE OF GOD> But the tabernacle of the Lord is promised to be not just at a GEOGRAPHICAL LOCATION, but a place of continual refuge from the STORMS OF LIFE AND THE RAIN THAT BEATS DOWN upon the HOUSES BUILT ON THE ROCK. The cloud is our comfort brothers and sisters, from the criticisms of the vipers who slither from their cockatrice den. When we are bitten, look to him who was LIFTED UP, for if they persecuted him, how much more shall they persecute us. A man's foes will be those of his own household, his immediate fellowship. For he didn't come to bring peace, but a SWORD, to set a man at nought with his brother and those OF HIS OWN "HOUSE". This List and others like it are the HARPER'S FERRY of the Civil War that Rick Joyner spoke of (the dumb ass speaking, forbidding the madness of the prophet). But we are wearing the Kevlar of the Spirit of God, and can take the point blank attacks of the enemy. REJOICE, REJOICE, REJOICE for that hour we've longed for and cried out for is emerging. We know that by the cohesiveness that is beginning to emerge among the dispersion, those that are the cast offs of the CRS, who have languished in isolation, but are now finding CORPOREALITY in the CLOUD!!! Signed: Russell E. Walden <http://go.to/Kindrednation> Mal. 3:16 Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard [it], and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Coming Year of 2000

Stephen W. Morris

The Lord says to His Church:

The time of separation is ending and the time of preparation is coming upon us. Prepare ye the way of the Lord. Prepare the evening sacrifice. Prepare your hearts.

There has been much reshuffling and reallocation and reorientation that has taken place in the earthly realm and in the spiritual realm. As the final adjustments are made in the separation and the sifting of all that can be shaken many shall look around and look about and they shall recognize the change that has occurred in their natural relationships and in their spiritual relationships.

They will now begin to reach out and familiarize themselves with that which heretofore has been unfamiliar to them. In this reaching out there are many things and many areas that are being prepared at this time. You have seen the earthquakes and the mighty shakings that have occurred in many areas. This earthly shaking has been accompanied by a spiritual shaking. Many things have changed and there have been casualties.

Now the time for preparation is at hand. Prepare ye the way of the Lord. Prepare the evening sacrifice. Prepare your hearts. And so you must prepare yourselves for those things that have been written for your guidance and for your instruction so that you would know that the hand of your God is stretched out in great power. As you prepare yourselves for all that is to occur and you continue to be guided and instructed by My word and by My Spirit many shall come into the fullness of the union that they now find themselves in, in the natural realm and in the spiritual realm. Others must continue the preparation process with some effort on their part.

Those who do not remain in My word will not receive from My Spirit that which is needed to finalize their preparation. For those who base their efforts on other than My word there will be much confusion which will result in much error. For there can be no preparation that is attempted and is not founded upon the truth of My word. And so their shakings and siftings will continue. And the shakings and siftings of those in the world will continue.

Others of you who have struggled and struggled and struggled during this time of separation, this time of sifting that is passing, will now begin to see past those things in the natural which have confused you and you shall see with your spiritual eyes the things that have been formed about you. You will recognize the alliances, you will see the connections. You will understand the potential of the fellowship that lies before you and you will see past the natural barriers into the fullness of My plan for you and those with whom you now have to do. For there is no error in My economy. The error lies in the desires of the flesh which run contrary to that for which I have separated you and am now preparing you.

Let him who has ears to hear, hear what I have said. For in this time of preparation I shall withhold no good thing from you and I shall bestow upon you the fullness of My Spirit and I shall open up the windows of heaven and bless those who desire this time of preparation according to My will and My plan and My power.

Think not that the things that you have prepared that are of your flesh will prosper. Think not the things that you have wrought in your own kingdom shall prosper. Think not that those things you have prayed for which are contrary to My will shall prosper.

For I have brought about a time of preparation that you may prepare the way of the Lord, that you may prepare the evening sacrifice, that you may prepare your hearts for the fullness of all that I have for those who are obedient unto My word, unto My Spirit and unto My will. Great shall be the blessings that I continue to pour out upon those whose preparation is of Me, says the Lord.

swmorris@herald.infi.net

Web Site: <http://www.angelfire.com/in/HisName>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Dam Is About To Break

Clyde Flanagan

Saturday, August 05, 2000

A GREAT CANYON WAS FLOWING

I saw a great canyon flowing North-West to South-East. All along the way there were dams built. Some had been enormous, and some looked as though they had been built in a hurry, but all but one had one thing in common,...they were broken. The biggest of all the dams is the last one, and this one is now, presently, not broken.

THE LAST DAM

On the other side of this last dam is the WORLD, open and without barrier.

The Lord then gave me a closer look at this enormous, last dam. On the side opening to the world was a black army. They looked almost like a swarm of ants all over their side of the dam. They looked as if they were trying to cover every square inch of their side. The Lord then told me that this army is the host of hell, and that the dam is the last stronghold of the enemy before His glory fills the whole earth.

RIVER OF LIFE - IN THE PAST KEPT CONFINED TO THE CHURCH UNTIL . . .

He went back and showed me that the canyon is the River of Life that began to flow after Jesus released the Holy Spirit. The Lord said that the enemy has kept it confined to the Church since the beginning.

He showed me the massive dam that was broken after the dark ages and all the dams since. He showed me that at times the river would flood its banks regardless of the dams. When this happened revival would take place on earth.

ENEMY IS RUNNING OUT OF TIME

Each time the enemy would have enough time to make another dam. Sometimes enough time to make many. But, here of late there has been no time. Numbers of make shift dams completely smashed just before this last dam.

WHEN SINGING WORSHIP WAS SURRENDERED . .

I asked the Lord why there was so much distance between dams in the beginning of Church History as if there was little need, and how there were so many in within the last 300 years. The answer from the Lord was swift:

"When the weapon of singing worship was surrendered, the enemy had little need. When understanding, and obedience are surrendered, the enemy has little need."

THE LORD'S MASSIVE ARMY OF LIGHT

The Lord then showed me that on the River side of the great dam, a massive army of Light digging and at times blasting at their side of the dam. At one blast the Lord took me to the enemy side of the dam and showed me a hole that the blast had caused in the wall and the small stream of water, about the size of a finger, start to pour.

At this the Lord began to laugh, and then to dance. He looked up and said, "Soon Father, very soon!" Immediately panic would hit and the dark army would swarm this leak and plug it. When this occurred they would also throw an explosive over the wall. Fierce commands would break forth that the dam must not fall at any expense. On the light side, the bomb had caused confusion and division mixed with discouragement.

"THEY CAN'T SEE WHEN THEY HAVE BROKEN THROUGH, BUT THEY ARE."

Then the Lord spoke to me, "They can't see when they have broken through, but they are."

Fight, fight with all of your might for the enemy knows that this is the last barrier and will stop at nothing to stop it. He has only deception and darkness to stop you, but I am with you and those who fight from my presence can't be blinded, can't be deceived, can't be discouraged. SO FIGHT ON CHURCH. FIGHT ON!!!

jaycf7@earthlink.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Third Day Visitation

Gaylene Womack

Tuesday, June 27th (third day of the week) - The Lord led me to meditate on Exodus 19:10-25.

Wednesday morning I had received a prophecy, via email, with no headers or identification numbers on it. Nothing!! It was sent only to me, no other names. It was from someone I don't have a clue who they are and they used a pen name. It confirmed, in part, what I had been meditating in Exodus. Seemed like the Lord Himself sent the Word.

Thursday, 3:48 a.m. the Holy Spirit woke me up and told me the following. He also told me to get up and look at the clock. Then He directed me to look up the meaning of 3:48. 3 = divine providence; 4 = earth, creator; 8 = new beginnings, new creation; the total of the three numbers is 15 = rest, peace. This is only the second time the Lord has given me numbers for the purpose of understanding. Please prayerfully read the following:

Satan has seeded a false word amongst the church for the purpose of man not being prepared for what is really coming forth at this hour, this third day.

The false prophecy is "prosperity and power" and coming as the latter reign. This word is true in part; it is not for the overall church. For a prosperity of My Truth, not financial prosperity, and anointing is coming forth but it is only for those that have sanctified themselves and washed their clothes, that they may partake of My visitation.

Few there are that have done such a thing. There will be few that will partake of this prosperity, that which comes from My Spirit. Not material things, as such things many seek. Seek rather righteousness and now I say, seek this diligently that this day does not pass with unrighteousness found within your hearts.

For as I told Moses to tell the people to sanctify themselves and wash their clothes for the Lord shall come on the "third" day. The "third" day is nigh upon thee and the "church" has not sanctified themselves and washed their clothes and will not partake of the "third day" visitation.

This visitation is only for those that have been separated unto Me and have dwelt in the wilderness and have been taught by My Spirit and not that of man. These are the virgins within the element of the church that I shall pour out My Spirit of the latter reign (Elisha double portion anointing) upon and they shall be hid (protected) in this the day that is upon you, My third day.

Many are called and few are chosen but because of the false word sown within the church, you continued on your path of degradation and immorality and have gathered up such treasures of defilement. Look within your dwelling places and see what fills it. For where your treasure is there is your heart. You have not separated from the world and you still sit in the counsel of the ungodly. You listen not to the quickening of My Spirit to bring you to repentance.

For you must repent in sackcloth and ashes (prayer and fasting), closing yourself in with Me that I may search the very intents of your heart. I called many of you but you did not heed my calling. You were too busy going here and going there. Doing this and doing that. Party and play has been the schedule of the day.

You have not washed your clothes, separating yourselves unto Me unto repentance and come forth out of the defilement of the world and the possessions that dwell within your homes. Idols stand within your walls. This very thing alone testifies against you.

You have not lived on bread alone as some have in the wilderness alone with Me. A few willing hearts have come into the wilderness through the beckoning of My Spirit and there they have dwelt for years, being sanctified, washed and purified in My ways and My truth for two days. Now the third day is nigh upon thee and you are not prepared, forsaking all and coming to sit at My table.

For they that have been in the wilderness truly have partaken at My table. These are the ones that My Spirit will be poured out upon as the latter day reign, bringing unto Me the greater harvest as a reward for their righteousness that they have sought in Me and they have truly found. Vessels of honor they are unto Me. Their lives bare witness of the suffering of My Son.

Repent I say and seek righteousness that you may be hid (protected) in My coming judgment and that you may be arrayed with My clothes for the battle that will rage, between light and dark, righteousness and unrighteousness, and is nigh at the door.

I am now ready to send forth My disciples. They have gone forth once without provision and now I will send them forth with provision. For their hearts are not on silver and gold, but on the true provision that comes from My throne.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Death Knell

Mary Clark

10/9/00

Last night the Lord woke me and said the words, "death knell." Father, what did you want to tell us about those words? *** I am sounding the death knell, beloved. I am sounding it in the hearing of all who have looked to the world as a place of refuge. Hear Me when I tell you that the season is about to change. The days as you have known them are going to take on a new look - a look that will be perplexing to those who have not trusted in Me. But the look will not perplex My beloved, for I have forewarned you about circumstances changing in your midst. I have told you to expect change, and I have told you not to look to the world for your security. I am about to sound the death knell to the way the world has gone, and open a vista of unusual proportions that My beloved will look on, and embrace. The people of the world will not understand. They will not know just what it is that has caused this shattering of the life they once knew. Those who have looked to the world for visions of security will rise, if they will seek the Almighty. But those who favor the world, and will not release their grasp, will see gloom and devastation overtake, and they will be in the throws of utter anguish.

I am calling to you, My beloved, to remain steadfast in My truth. I am wanting to explain some very complicated things to My beloved - things that you will look on as strange at first glance, but you will see, as you examine them closer, that your God is giving you the undying fortitude required for the time approaching. I want you active in My will. I want you to participate in all that is coming your way. Don't seek for cover, beloved, when I sound the death knell to the world's way of doing things. The world has woven an intricate pattern of deceit. I am just in the process of unraveling it. I will unravel it, and as I do those who will come to Me will be worked into the fine fabric of My plan.

I am calling for you, My beloved, to rise in the face of this sound of gloom, looking to the Beloved, trusting in Me to guarantee you that promised safe haven. It is prepared for you. It is all prepared for you to nestle close in the Beloved's arms of love. I am speaking about My most pronounced glory coming and engulfing all who will hearken to the voice of the Beloved. I am calling for you to rest in the peace and safety of My heart where I will reveal My love to you. This is a place of comfort, beloved. It is not a place of insecurity, but a place of the knowledge of My love, being made known in you, and enabling you to rest in the embrace of your Master. Rest in this knowledge as you see the scurrying to and fro of those who are seeking the world's ways. Rest in the sweet, peaceful knowledge that the love of your God brings you. While the world is listening to the death knell, you will be in My embrace, nestled close, listening to the rhythm of My heart as it gives you that wonderful peace - that peace that passes all understanding, pervading, in every heart that longs for the Beloved's nearness. Is that you, beloved? Are you one who longs to be near the Beloved? Then you may count on Me to draw you into this sweet embrace, and reveal some wonderful things about My love for you. As you look on the conditions of the world, from that most pleasurable place, there is to be peace in the loving arms of the Master - in the direct vicinity of My glory.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Doctrinal Pendulum is A - Swingin

Becky McLendon

Discussion of Bible difficulties often serves as the springboard for heated arguments which in turn lead to strife. It seems that more often than not in Christian circles, arguing and strife tend to break out and become quite bitter.

I recall a very, very strong vision I had from the Lord several months ago, where I heard his audible voice saying, "WHAT HAVE YOU ALL DONE TO MY SON?" I saw what originally looked like vultures tearing apart His body. The vultures became humans, and they were tearing Him limb for limb, some saying..."I have the ARM."

Others saying, well I have the LEG...they took all of His body EXCEPT the HEAD and the HEART. God said emphatically STOP IT!!! STOP IT!!! STOP IT!!! You are running around whacking each other over the head with PART of my body...but you don't even have the Head nor do you have My heart!!!!

Also about five years ago I had a vision of someone in a white robe with a gold belt around the waist carrying a set of scales. The person walked amongst the candle sticks crying BALANCE!!!! BALANCE!!!! BALANCE!!!

The theological pendulum swings to tremendous extremes, yet God says BALANCE. And that balance is HIS TRUTH. Wise students of the Bible search out ALL possibilities and then let the HOLY SPIRIT take over to reveal truth.

Major issues at hand that have been hotly debated are:

I. Law and grace and their extremes:

A. Legalism

B. Licentiousness

C. God's balance:

1. If you love me keep my commandments. (John 14:15)

2. If you keep my commandments, you will love me. (John 14:21)

3. These two are inseparable, and summed up in one: You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind...and you shall love your neighbor as yourself.

On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. (Matt. 23:4)

II. The Rapture Issue:

All these "issues" have scripture to substantiate them!!!! And we are inundated with massive volumes to prove each theory

A. Pre - Trib

B. Mid - Trib

C. Post - Trib .

D. Not at all

E. God's balance:

1. If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us, out of thine hand, O king. But if not, be it known unto thee O king, that we will serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. Daniel 3:17 - 18

2. Vision If you are ready to go, you must EQUALLY be ready to stay!!!

III. The woman issue

A. No women in leadership or able to speak in church

B. Women can do whatever they want

C. God's balance

Answer the call on your life no matter what. If GOD called you, you are accountable and submitted to Him and HIS authority.

Since all the above "issues" can be substantiated with long lists of scriptures taken out of context, how do we settle these constant debates?

I Timothy 1:4 - 6 Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister QUESTIONS, rather than godly edifying, which is in faith. Now the end (purpose) of the commandment is LOVE, out of a PURE HEART, and of GOOD CONSCIENCE and of faith unfeigned, from which having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling.

I Timothy 4:6 - 7 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith, and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained. BUT REFUSE PROFANE AND OLD WIVES' TALES AND EXERCISE THYSELF RATHER TO GODLINESS.

I Timothy 6:3 - 5 If any man teach otherwise and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ and to the doctrine which is according to godliness, he is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about QUESTIONS and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness. FROM SUCH WITHDRAW THYSELF!!!!

2 Timothy 2: 14 - 16 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. STUDY TO SHOW THYSELF APPROVED UNTO GOD, A WORKMAN THAT NEEDETH NOT TO BE ASHAMED, RIGHTLY DIVIDING THE WORD OF TRUTH. BUT SHUN PROFANE AND VAIN BABBLINGS, FOR THEY WILL INCREASE UNTO MORE UNGODLINESS

Remember in the vision where we were tearing His body up? We did NOT take the Head or the Heart!!! In all our presenting of doctrine WE MUST HAVE HIS HEART AND HIS HEAD!!!!

Heart = His character, His NAME. If we do not say or do IN HIS NAME He will say GO AWAY YOU DOERS OF INIQUITY...I never KNEW you!!!

Head = His MIND and His counsel.

So when we are running to and fro whacking each other on the head with our pet doctrines WITHOUT HIS COUNSEL OR HIS NAME!!! I believe a commandment stated something about TAKING HIS NAME IN VAIN.

2 Timothy 3: 1 - 7 says This know in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, high minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; having a FORM of godliness but denying the power thereof./ FROM SUCH TURN AWAY. For of this sort are they which creep into houses and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away by divers lusts. Ever learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

Many are running about labeling this one a false minister, and that one a false prophet. True there is a preponderance of false ministers infiltrating the body of Christ. I asked the Lord EXACTLY WHAT IS A FALSE MINISTER.

He revealed this: A false minister is one who has had a genuine revelation from the Father through the word or vision or a manifestation (sign/wonder), and THEN promptly BUILDS on THAT foundation rather than on the One Sure Foundation. He sets up a money - making, Hollywood production machine and becomes KNOWN for who HE is, rather than representing the NAME (CHARACTER) of Christ. People flock to "his" meetings to seek HIM out or the "sign" or the "prophecy" rather than seeking the GIVER of all good things!!! The false minister refuses to receive the winds of change that the Holy Spirit Brings, and stubbornly holds to the sandy foundation he has built "his" house upon. His "doctrine" which originated in heaven, has now become DOGMA which he must defend against the "enemy."

Dogma divides!!! Sound doctrine builds up.

Jesus addressed the issue of wanting to build on a manifestation or vision in Matthew 17: 1 - 9 on the Mount of Transfiguration. He told his disciples NOT to build a "shrine" on the mountain AND NOT to tell what they had seen. People would have flocked for miles and miles to come "see where Moses and Elijah appeared with the Lord." It would have become a "religious oasis". That is NOT what the Lord wanted.

He told the woman at the well, that the day would come where we would not worship on a certain mountain a certain way, but we would worship in SPIRIT AND IN TRUTH.

We cannot rest our "case" on basic Bible difficulties except in what God Himself has revealed through our diligent prayer, meditation on the Word and study. True doctrine is birthed out of an intimacy with the Father, nothing else!

If the pendulum is ever to stabilize, we are to anchor ourselves in HIM for He did say, "Seek first My kingdom and MY righteousness, THEN all these things will be added unto you!!!!"

AMEN.

Love you,

Becky (Wayfarer)

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Dredge / Muddy Waters

Bob Neumann

THE DREDGE

This is a strange vision that I still am looking at to learn all THE LORD is trying to reveal. I find myself on a large barge in the middle of a wide river. I am working on the barge with ten or twelve others. All are men, older men. All are dressed in heavy, well worn work clothes. The Barge is slowly running up river. At the stern of the Barge is a large double boom with a powerful winch system and heavy cables. I watch as the winch engages and a large Dredging Sled is pulled out of the water. Once clear of the water it is "muscled" by a crew of the men I saw earlier over the open cargo space of the Barge. Over and over the Dredge is dropped and dragged behind the Barge and lifted up and dumped. It took no major "interpretation" to figure out we were dredging out the RIVER'S CHANNEL.

Each time the Dredge was dropped we had time to rest and look out at the RIVER. It was a beautiful river. As we continued our slow passage up stream many sail boats and powerboats blew by us. Occasionally we passed boats that were anchored and people were fishing. Our passage was marked by nasty comments and gestures provocative. Most of the recreational boaters seemed to have similar negative thoughts about us. At first I was puzzled by the negativity. But after awhile the continuous strain of the labor diverted my thoughts about the behavior I was seeing.

As the Barge Dredged we followed the slow and gentle meanderings of THE RIVER. After a while it was my turn to take a break and I walked to the bow of the Barge. There I could see the turns of THE RIVER. I had sat only a short time when I heard a loud steam whistle behind and above me. I looked up and saw a Pilot House. In the window I saw an arm beckon me to come up. So I went up the ladder and saw a man at the wheel. He was focused on the RIVER ahead of him and I knew it was not his arm that had signaled me. Behind him was a chart table filled with navigational charts. Not being able to read a chart I again looked out at the RIVER.

"GIVE ME TWO DEGREES TO PORT", came a familiar VOICE. I looked behind 'us' and saw THE MASTER sitting comfortably in a swivel chair bolted to the deck. With HIS instructions the "helmsman" moved the wheel and the Barge kept moving. I did not notice any change of direction but I did notice we were not directly in the middle of the RIVER. I know that "the channel" like the RIVER itself meanders between the two banks. The thought came to mind....most people would say we were dredging the RIVER. In reality we were "dredging the channel" within the RIVER. Sort of makes sense....but I am not sure what the difference of perception tells me.

We just kept going for awhile and then THE CAPTAIN got up and walked to the window facing the stern of the barge. I went over and stood by HIM. When I got to the window I could look down into the "hold" of the barge where the dredgings were dropped. I was surprised to see people moving through the silt and trash and scattered debris. And I wondered, what are they doing. The next thing I knew I was standing in the hold with the "scavengers".

It was very weird. The stench alone was overpowering. What was dragged up by the DREDGE had been accumulating for some time from the channel. The stench of decomposition and simple plain rot was undeniable. I watched as many people were on their hands and knees digging through the muck and the mud, the garbage and the trash people had "dumped into the river". I watched as bits and pieces of "stuff" was dug up and even fought over. I was wondering exactly what was so valuable to these "people". I looked closer and what I saw was nearly as disgusting as the smell. Bits of "cloth", "bones", and old "trash"....cans, bottles, odds and ends. Pitiful was not the word for it. As each time the Dredge dumped the accumulated silt and garbage of centuries the scavengers raced each other and fought for what I was already labeling as "their treasures". The IMAGE of my heart being where my TREASURE was suddenly took immediate and intense clarity. Where was I "storing" up my TREASURES?.....or was I digging through the rot and filth....for what.

With these "thoughts" running through my mind I was back at the BOOM and THE DREDGE as THE LORD'S WORK continued. Once again my attention went to the "pleasure boaters" who shook their fists and yelled curses and accusations as they went by. Now I could hear their complaints clearly. It seems we "were in the way"...."occupied their river"...."was stirring up the silt" ...."mucking up the water".... and more. It seemed the water was muddy ahead of us...and behind us. It seemed we were not there to provide clarity. You dredge the channel for navigation....so you can travel without hitting something under the water or going aground. The obvious was that THE MASTER was in charge and was "piloting" the BARGE. HE HAD WORK GOING ON....THERE WAS A PURPOSE.

It was then THE RIVER itself caught my attention. Granted as THE RIVER OF LIFE....OF LIVING WATERS this was not what I expected. Suddenly my mind was on a commercial about "pure waters from the mountains" and I thought of fast clear rushing waters....ice cold and pristine. I thought about the hundreds of rivers I had seen, crossed, fished where the width of the river was measured in steps to get across. Then I realized that all those rivers when they finally flowed together you had THE RIVER....broad and long....but only as deep as the channel we were now clearing.

As I sat and pondered THE RIVER FLOWED and we kept moving up stream meandering with the waters. After awhile THE MASTER stood alongside me and I looked at HIM. Wearing work clothes and a black wool watch cap. I suddenly realized it was more than nippy, it was cold. On THE RIVER....in the there and now it was "either" late fall or early winter. Did not make sense, but I "knew" it. So I just watched HIM as HE WATCHED THE RIVER. Eventually HE spoke and asked, "DO YOU UNDERSTAND WHAT YOU ARE SEEING?". I replied that I did not. HIS REPLY WAS..."YOU WILL"..... and suddenly I was in the air...maybe in low orbit. But I could see THE RIVER as a wide line below me. I could not have distinguished the BARGE from all the other dots on THE RIVER even if I knew where to look. Eventually I came down and saw where streams and tributaries joined THE RIVER all along it's length. THE RIVER started and ran straight briefly. As it lengthened and widened it meandered more and more back and forth across the land. The more it meandered, the more land it touched, the more lives were influenced, touched.

It was then my focus got centered on smaller areas running parallel to THE RIVER. As my field of vision narrowed I saw a great construction site. Huge numbers of men and machines were moving tons of earth, digging what looked like a canal. It was wide...deep...and dry as a bone. The funny thing is it ran parallel to THE RIVER for 20-30 miles. They must have been working for years I thought. Suddenly I was 50-100 miles farther up stream and there was another company digging. A few men were standing around as a couple bulldozers were working. It was nothing like the scale of the first group, but the results were the same. Over time I saw more and more "ditches" up and down both sides of THE RIVER. Some where just a man or two with shovels and wheelbarrows. Some were huge projects wasting huge amounts of money, manpower and time.

FOR NOTHING.....

They were not digging to THE RIVER....which would make sense...they all were trying to bypass THE RIVER. And that reality bothers me.

A whole lot about it bothers me. Especially because it is TRUE....and I will know all it means in "DUE SEASON".

I had this vision two weeks ago and like the OK CORRAL had no intention to write it down....let alone talk about it. There is a "sovereign" work being done by a few. THE LORD is clearly "micromanaging" it. But clearly few recognize it. Fewer yet appreciate it.

This vision needs no interpretation. IF YOU ARE OF THE RIVER....you will HEAR HIS VOICE and DISCERN HIS WILL. You do not need man's help.

SELAH SHEMUEL

Muddy Waters
Bob Neumann

It has been an "interesting" week, and I say that with tongue firmly in cheek. Long ago in the school of hard knocks I learned a strange lesson that revolved around an ancient Chinese Curse..."May you live in "interesting times"." To a western mindset the 'idea' of 'interesting' is "good". It implies things like fun, adventure, and excitement. If I can borrow a line from Captain James T Kirk "to boldly go where no man has gone before". That is the essence of "excitement", of "novelty" and "FUN". But that is only if you "crave" things like novelty and variation. In simple words, those who seek "interesting" quite often are addicted to "entertainment"....."HOOKED ON THE MOMENTARY EVENT".

Funny thought, isn't it. The idea people might be "living" for "feelings". But most are and they yearn for "their fix" like any 'junkie'. Now I have nothing 'against' "junkies". I know they are people sick and in need of treatment from a competent PRACTITIONER. The best there is, is available 24/7/52. HIS NAME IS Y'SHUA. Today there are people addicted to "holy ghost goose bumps", "falling out", looking for the phenomenal like "gold dust" and "feathers" falling from the ceiling. According to THE GREAT PHYSICIAN these are the prime symptoms of severe "MANIFESTATION ADDICTION". When I was given this I really had to question it and was answered that it was a spiritual variation of two syndromes that are becoming popular in America today. "Munchausen Syndrome" and "Munchausen by Proxy". Personally I thought this was amazing, but right along the line of other RHEMA from the past. Like "spiritual sodomy" and "spiritual adultery" they fit tightly into the reality that the "evils" in this world will have a "counterpart" spiritually. Heart Disease, Lung Disease, Cancer, AIDS, Liver Disease, Kidney Disease, are all present realities that manifest a spiritual counterpart in the "corporate body" as implied in Ephesians where all the "saved" makes up one body....with KING JESUS as the HEAD. Diagnostically said body, or at least that in North America, is showing strange symptoms.

Many prophets are speaking of changes and alterations ahead for us. There are some who speak of these as "interesting" and imply excitement and diversity. For there sake I remember the line both my Grandfathers quoted from there experience of being in the TRENCHES in France when under attack and artillery barrages were falling on them. "FOR WHAT WE ARE ABOUT TO RECEIVE, MAY WE BE TRULY GRATEFUL". The Chinese would agree for their idea of "interesting" could be better comprehended if we think in the 'terms' of "catastrophic", "seismic", "devastating", "shattering". What is shattered is their "world" by the fickle finger of "change".

Now "CHANGE" is a spiritually ""HOT"" topic. Often it has a positive spiritual spin to it. But should we be "boldly seeking" it like Captain Kirk and the good ship Enterprise? "Looking for adventure, and whatever comes our way"....is part of THE AMERICAN MINDSET...the desire for THE THRILL of THE MOMENT. Now if JESUS had sung about "LOOKING FOR ADVENTURE....AND WHATEVER COMES YOUR WAY..." I probably wouldn't care what is coming, and what will happen to anyone but me. The problem is that line is from the chorus of Steppenwolf's greatest hit..."BORN TO BE WILD". On the other hand there was a 'song' long ago that went... Amos 5:18 18 Woe unto you that desire the day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light. (KJV)

It has a wonderful melody...but it asks a probing question...what do you really desire? Do you really know what you are seeking for, raving for. Are you really "ADDICTED TO JESUS" (which is a great song by Carman) or are you getting too many fun feelings from the counterfeit to care whether you have THE REAL DEAL.

I had to ask...JESUS thinks you need a wake up call out there, all you in THE MEADOW. All sheep can hear HIS VOICE but HIS WORDS have no meaning. It is the plight of a Christianity that is built on tiny bits and pieces of HIS WORD and tons of "STUFF" from man. The problem is how do I touch HIS SHEEP and REBELLIOUS CHILDREN without bruising the worn down and battered saints trying to serve against all odds. So I asked and saw an "old vision" of a basin of MUDDY WATER.... and a remembrance of an "interesting time" a year ago. In this remembrance THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT brought back the 'crushing pain' one of HIS SERVANTS had when certain "brethren" turned their backs to THE HOLY ONE and opened their mouths and let their tongues flow with accusations, indictments, condemnations, and curses. This one servant felt violated, defiled, and abused....by "family" within THE HOUSE. In that moment THE HOLY ONE...BLESS HIS NAME...showed me a basin with filthy, MUDDY WATER. And, BLESS HIS NAME, the UNDERSTANDING of it, and the WISDOM to bring comfort.

This servant was a basin of MUDDY WATER. Water gets dirty when you spend yourself serving THE MASTER washing the feet of HIS GUESTS, your "brethren"...fellow "servants". Now among those you stooped down and did your duty in TRUE LOVE of THE MASTER were also hypocrites and false brethren. It was not your call who may come in and who may not FOR THE MASTER DECLARED an OPEN DOOR....any could enter. The fact that "some" came looking for offense, for reasons to lay charges against the servant goes "with the territory". For this reason they saw the MUDDY WATER and called you "defiled"....of "THE ENEMY". What is funny, in their own minds they are absolutely correct, CHILD OF GOD. You are the enemy to all who serve the serpent, who follow angels of light and trust their own minds and do what is right in their own eyes.

For Children THE WATER IS JESUS...the ONE WHO BORE OUR SIN AND SHAME. OF COURSE HIS WATER IS MUDDY....or it should be if you are diligently "washing feet". All you have to do is throw the MUDDY WATER into THE RIVER and fill again WITH LIVING WATER that flows from you.

For you children are HIS VESSELS...doing HIS WORK...a vessel that pleases HIM. Not because you are cute and look nice on the shelf, but because you are used to do what pleases HIM.

Now a short word for the "fools" who like to play offended. You know yourselves as THE RIGHTEOUS...in your own beady little eyes and hard cold hearts. Most of you are striving for places to sit and names in the world as it is without much regard towards the KINGDOM to Come. I call you "fools" for in your heart you say there is no GOD, except the one you made for yourself. There was a time were I would cry out a warning and call you to repent....but no more. For you see to you who knew HIM and tasted HIM and were partakers of HIS GRACE and MOST HOLY SPIRIT only to turn away after your own lusts and desires THE DOOR IS CLOSED. FOR GOOD. No longer will you enter into HIS HOUSE...ABUSE HIS SERVANTS...DEFILE HIS HABITATION... MOCK HIS HOSPITALITY. HIS CITY is now closed to you and your evil and perverse ways. You scorned HIS GRACE and ignored HIS MERCY. AND YOU HAD THE GALL TO TOUCH AND HARM HIS SERVANTS. You had THE WORD and THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT. You have no excuse...

THE DOORS ARE CLOSED...THE GATES ARE BARRED....HE WHO SITS ON THE THRONE OF HEAVEN LAUGHS. HE NOW PLACES HIS GATEKEEPERS AT HIS GATES. TO THE DOOR OF HIS PAVILION STANDS A DOORKEEPER WHO YEARNs ONLY FOR THE MASTER'S PLEASURE.

and he takes no bribes.....for he knows where his treasures are.... selah shemuel...the 'old dog'

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Delivery Room

Dennis Drewlo

THE BRIDE IS HEADED FOR THE DELIVERY ROOM

My Bride is headed for the delivery room. She is ready to give birth. Contractions are coming closer and closer together. Through groanings that cannot be uttered, that which has been conceived shall come forth. I say to you now, PUSH! PUSH! PUSH! Hold My leaders - those whom I have set over you - in prayer, for they will feel the effects first. Be warned for it will be messy, but those who see it through will receive the reward: whole cities and nations will be her inheritance. Many will come into the Kingdom because of what I will bring forth.

Now is the time to breathe! The winds are blowing. BREATHE! BREATHE! BREATHE! I am raising up leaders to lead the Bride through the birthing process. They must be held up before the Throne in your intercession, for it will be messy for them at times.

I am bringing forth a fresh wind of the Apostolic and Prophetic in the Land. I am bringing forth an Apostolic Revolution in your midst. A Fresh word will come forth out of the Bride. I will awaken My Bride from her sleep with visions and dreams from the Throne. I am calling you to come together as one unified Bride - in intercession, throughout the birthing process. Some will be called to deep intercession, even in the latest hours of the night. Pray fervently, for contractions will come closer and closer together.

I am about to birth a new song in the land, such that has never been heard before. Songs of deliverance will rise up in your midst. New songs shall come forth out of the Bride. She will give birth to songs coming down from the Throne. A new generation of radical worshipers, worship leaders, and worship music will rise up out of the Bride.

There will come a fresh wind to the youth. They too will undergo the birthing process.

A fresh word shall come through them, and they shall be a Joshua generation who will bring forth a fresh word. Have I not written that your sons and daughters shall prophesy?

I will raise up key leaders to train and equip the Bride. She will be well equipped, for birth. She will be a Bride who loves and nurtures Her children. The leaders that arise will train others to go through the birthing process, and leaders shall give birth to leaders.

For the Bride to give birth, she must be unified. What I desire to bring forth can only be birthed through a unified Bride and not a dis-jointed harem.

I am calling for the Bride to prepare the birthing rooms. On-going worship and intercession will arise to strengthen the Bride and honor the Bridegroom. Places will emerge throughout the land.

The intimacy that shall come will be like that of Ruth and Boaz, and they shall bring forth the line of David.

I have great gifts for My expectant Bride. Showers have been planned for her, but they will be showers of blessing. The gifts that I will give to Her are those things that she has longed for. What I will bring forth from My Bride will cause Her to examine Her life and re-order Her priorities, but there will come out of this a great reward. I clothe My Bride in the finest raiment.

Signs and wonders shall increase as a token from the Bridegroom to the Bride. Many will be healed, the dead shall rise, and multitudes will come into the Kingdom. The Bride will hunger more and more for the things of the Kingdom. The anointing oil will flow in a greater measure to help Her go through the birthing process. I will help My Bride along the way, and she will give birth in the River. The waters will be warm and soothing for Her.

What shall come forth out of the Bride will not be stolen. I will protect it. I will seal it. There will be a hedge of protection over My Bride, and the birth will not be aborted. Be encouraged, for My Bride will not give birth prematurely, for the timing is in the hand of the Bridegroom.

Get ready, My Bride, for that which has been conceived is soon to come forth!

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Days Grow Short

Katie Jordan

Thus saith the Lord,

I speak to My beloved people. I call to you in a loud voice, MY TRUMPET WARNING. The days grow short. As your nation has exalted itself to the skies, so I shall bring it down to the ground. As she has made her nest in the stars I shall bring her low indeed. Oh My people, she has truly been deceived by the nations she confers with constantly.

There will be no peace in the world but, you WILL ALWAYS FIND PEACE IN ME. There will be no joy in the world but, YOU CAN ALWAYS FIND LOVE AND JOY IN OUR FELLOWSHIP. You are only passing through this world so hold on to nothing. Put all your treasures in Heaven as My Word says you must.

Beloved, you must spend much time alone with Me. The more time you spend in My Presence the more you will understand My Word. IT IS URGENT THAT YOU GROW VERY CLOSE TO ME NOW AND THAT YOU ALWAYS HEAR MY VOICE FOR GUIDANCE.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Teach And Instruct Them

Stephen Hanson

April 15, 00

9. You who bring good tidings to Zion, go up on a high mountain. You who bring good tidings to Jerusalem, lift up your voice with a shout, lift it up, do not be afraid; say to the towns of Judah, "Here is your God!" Is. 40

10. As the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return to it without watering the earth and making it bud and flourish, so that it yields seed for the sower and bread for the eater, 11. so is my word that goes out from my mouth: It will not return to me empty, but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it. Is. 55

26. But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you. John 14

16. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. Col. 3

"You who are on the mountain....shout glad tidings in Zion. Tell them that her hard service is over with. "

"He sits over the earth and watches everything."

"I have instructed my servants the prophets, to speak. To give a word which would "build-up" my body. To replenish the dry land with the rain of my Spirit. The words I give would be like the manna that was gathered in the wilderness. I ask you, my servants, to come before Me."

(The Lord showed me a scene in which I saw the profile of himself, like a giant King, and He was looking down upon His children. There were a few standing in front of Him, waiting for His orders. As I watched then, the Lord gathered up a bowl of water and poured it forth upon these men. As I continued to watch the water, it changed, and there seemed to be many things going on in the water. It began to boil and rise to the surface, and there appeared to be various things in the water. Then out of the water, came other figures, who were garbed in kingly and various robes. I watched these figures, and as they walked, they moved their hands and motioned and spoke.)

"I have instructed some of you to build-up and edify the body of Christ. I have placed my words in you. They have been like fire and burning coals. And some of you have followed my designs in doing this. But I AM calling many of you to other things. For out of the water of my Spirit are coming others. These are those who have been waiting for this time. For they have been in the desert and in caves being prepared for this time. Those of you who have stood before Me in my council, and have given forth my word in obedience, I ask you to help those, and train those who are coming forth. Yes, continue to speak forth my words. Continue to call forth those things and bind them in my Spirit."

(Again, the Lord began to show me some things and here I saw a huge pair of hands motioning to me to come over here and sit down. He then said, "Come and sit down, for many of you have been trained in my Spirit, but it is now time, to begin training others. For school has begun and it is time to get into your seats. )

His servant and friend, Stephen Hanson

"PREPARE THEM FOR WORKS OF SERVICE"

April 15, 00

11. It was he who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, 12. to prepare God's people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up 13. until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ. 14. Then we will no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of men in their deceitful scheming. 15. Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will in all things grow up into him who is the Head, that is, Christ. 16. From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work. Eph. 4:11

As we well know, there has been much talk about the five-fold ministries, and there will continue to be for some time. There will continue to be a "shifting of gears" so to speak, in how many of these ministries and offices unfold and play out in the coming months and years, until the Lord comes back to take His bride home.

What I want to mention here is the need for "preparing the body for works of service." I believe that much that needs to happen now is the need for preparing the body and training them in ways that will "bring them unto maturity." And essentially, that I believe, is what a lot of the thrust of the five-fold should be about. A prophet will continue and need to "speak forth" what the Lord gives him or her to say and do. A teacher will continue to teach and train what they have received from the Lord. A shepherd will continue to watch over the needs of the flock. An evangelist will continue to "gather-in souls" for the kingdom, and the apostle will continue to "lay a firm foundation of the word." Now, there are other things which each of these ministries do and will continue to do, but I believe, the emphasis should also be on discipleship, or more importantly, "reproducing themselves." (Training others to do the work of the ministry.) Obviously an apostle can't make an apostle, but he or she can train them in the ways that they are familiar with, and impart fatherly wisdom and lay a firm foundation. A prophet can't make someone else become a prophet, only God calls forth someone unto this. However, there can be a training, a school, a "grounding in the word and in the Spirit," of these things, so that people can be prepared, so that they can be nurtured, and can grow-up unto Christ unto maturity.

There are some who have taught that some of these ministries are not needed for today, namely the apostle and the prophet. Many of them perhaps have not realized that there is a great need for the body of Christ to be build-up "until we all reach unity in the faith." We cannot arrive at a unity in the faith until ALL of the ministries are allowed to function and do their part. We cannot "become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ," when some part of the body is not functioning as it should. And it must be emphasized here, ALL are important. Each has a place and a function.

Without the apostle, various "winds of doctrine" will continue to "blow the ship," or the church, in the wrong direction. The cunning and craftiness of men in their deceitful scheming, or "hollow philosophy," can destroy what the word of God can do in human hearts and minds.

8. See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the basic principles of this world rather than on Christ. Col. 2

Without a good foundation, a house comes to ruin.

19. Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and aliens, but fellow citizens with God's people and members of God's household, 20. built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone. 21. In him the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy temple in the Lord. 22. And in him you too are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by his Spirit. Eph. 2

Now, we are ALL part of God's holy temple, and without each part doing its work then there are "gaps" in the wall or the building. We need a firm foundation of what the apostolic and prophetic ministries can bring to the building, and solidify it. Without an "impartation" though, of what they bring, then the building cannot continue to be built. We need to train "in the ways that we are familiar with." By that I mean, to preach, teach, and impart those giftings, those lessons, unto the people. We cannot, and we must not, hoard what we have received from the Lord. Remember the manna in the wilderness was only good for the day it was collected.

6. But now we have lost our appetite; we never see anything but this manna!" Numbers 11 18. And when they measured it by the omer, he who gathered much did not have too much, and he who gathered little did not have too little. Each one gathered as much as he needed. 19. Then Moses said to them, "No one is to keep any of it until morning." 20. However, some of them paid no attention to Moses; they kept part of it until morning, but it was full of maggots and began to smell. So Moses was angry with them. 21. Each morning everyone gathered as much as he needed, and when the sun grew hot, it melted away. Ex. 16

We need the bread that comes down from heaven, that which comes from the Father. We also need the bread which is imparted from the apostolic and the prophetic, along with the pastoral and teaching ministries. We need a "balanced diet." We also cannot live on words and lessons which we have learned from the past, they will only grow maggots and mold with them. We need a "fresh word," and we need to be in the presence of the Lord "daily."

Stephen Hanson

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Tears For America

Ros Henderson

Hi Bill,

I have been reading today many prophecies concerning America, quite a few from your site, and to be honest I had not given much thought to America concerning her judgement until recently, when I responded to an American Believer who was questioning why the Lord had not yet judged America.

My own country is Australia, so for this reason I was surprised the Holy Spirit would speak to me concerning the coming judgement of America.

Below is the prophecy I was given:

Judgement is coming upon the whole earth, including America for the sins of the nations have reached the Heavens. America's foundations were set by the Spirit of God, and yes though she sin greatly, so has she saved ! Like a big brother she has shouldered the responsibility for many smaller nations, and campaigned their cause ! America at many times has been a mother hen with wings wide open taking in my refugee's and yes she has had a mothers heart !

I have blessed her with abundance and prosperity for the worker is worth payment for his work. Her people have gone out into the highways and the by ways and preached my word, even unto the ends of the earth ! Yes yet shall I strike her for her iniquities, so shall I heal her and restore her to her youth ! Fear not America though I will strike you with the rod of affliction ! I will restore you and repay you for you kind acts and deeds. Yes though the coming days of Judgment lays ahead, I will call a people to come forth, who will stand in the gap, and declare my name amongst the nations ! I will set a standard of righteousness and those I have called by name will follow in my path ! Yes I say again great troubles and afflictions shall come upon this nation, and again I say Fear Not ! For I will deliver you and restore you to my way ! Thus saith the Lord !

God Bless you All

The Spirit of the Lord over whelms my soul ! and I cry many tears for America, alas her troubles are great and it burdens my soul! I will pray for the repentance and restoration of my beloved friend America Woe is me for I have seen the great and awesome power of the Lord!

Ros

Faith 2000 Australia <http://www.q-net.net.au/~goldmint/>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Spirit of Elijah Being Released

Pat Gregory

This morning while getting ready to run some errands, the Holy Spirit began speaking to me. He said, the day is upon you, upon my servants, which has been long awaited.

The physics of the day are at the forefront, deceiving and being deceived. They flaunt their powers to the world claiming they know secret things, the hidden things. I declare they know nothing. They prophesy lies to intrigue and entice. They are ensnared by the words of their mouths. They have risen to a position of popularity in the world, cunning and crafty, snatching souls into the grip of the enemy.

Just as it was in the days of Moses, my servant, when I sent him unto Pharaoh, and Pharaoh's wizards and sorcerers put on display their falsehoods, demonstrating trickery, professing to be wise, they became fools.

And just as it was in the days of Elijah, when I sent him to Ahab and all the false prophets rose to prominence at Jezebel's command, prophets of Baal, prophesying lies, whose end was death.

My prophets were sent to confront the evil reign of their day, and destroy it by the power of my word. Mighty men of faith, trusting me with their very lives, in the face of opposition, they became bold in my strength.

Throughout the generations, evil has rose to great proportions, but only for a time, only for a season. Just as now, the magnitude of the voice of the evil one has gained in notoriety and is commonplace amongst the people.

Now shall I release unto my servants the spirit of Elijah. You shall walk in a greater level of anointing than you've known, a greater level of power than you've known, a greater level of authority than you've known, a greater level of discernment than you've know. Expect it! I have prepared you for such a time as this, and the time is now that it shall come forth upon my prophets and my servants.

Many of you are being sought out even now, just as in the days of old, with one hearing a word, and then tells, there is a prophet over there who can tell you the words of God. This is just the beginning. Many shall come to you seeking answers, seeking direction, seeking a word. Stay ready and expect it! I shall give you the words to speak. Declare my words, prophesy my words, shout them from the housetops.

It is confrontation time. It is time for my prophets, my servants to rise to the forefront, confronting the false prophets, the psychics, the witches and wizards. Do not back down and do not fear, for I am with you, just as I was with Moses and Elijah. I will not leave you, and I will show forth my power in even greater measure than that in days of old. You cannot understand it's magnitude, but I say unto you, receive it. Walk in faith, hearkening to my words, and allow me to demonstrate my greatness through you and before you. I will confirm my words out of your mouths with signs and wonders the world has never known. The things I've placed in your hearts that you've only dreamed of, shall now come forth and you shall walk in it.

Just as I brought to nought the sorcerers and soothsayers, the wizards and false prophets, exposing their lies and the deceitfulness of their hearts, so shall I do again. The enemy was permitted for a time to flaunt his lying wonders, but only for a season and for a reason.

Now I shall flow through you, my prophets, with the spirit of Elijah upon you, to demonstrate my power in the earth, with mighty manifestations, signs and wonders eye hath not seen. Expect miracles! Expect signs and wonders! Expect the phenomenal! I say to you, expect it! I shall plunder the enemy's camp, and free my people from bondage, with a strong hand. I will once again show myself as the one and only true God, who loves His creation.

My church shall once again be a lighthouse to the hurting and broken, the bruised and beaten. They will hear that there's bread in the house, and come to eat and live. I will take the yoke of bondage from off their necks, and it shall be destroyed because of the anointing.

Seek me, press into me, hearkening to my every word, with diligence, as a soldier awaiting the call to launch out for war. I AM the Lord your God, and I say to you, rise up as mighty men of valor, and move out in the spirit of Elijah, for I release it unto you this day.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Temporary Relief

Ephraim Frank

Dear Messianic Israelite,

Israel's pullout from Lebanon has been accomplished. A mixture of joy and apprehension characterizes the feelings that prevail in the country. As one reserves general put it, it is not for lack of military prowess that the I.D.F has come out of Lebanon (and certainly not because the "Lebanese problem" is solved), but it is the nation's "deteriorating resistance and deterrence capabilities" which have forced us out of there. This same person observed, that now the Hizbullah's guided missiles and rockets could very easily and accurately penetrate living rooms, kindergartens and vehicles on the northern border roads. Not everyone, though, shares the same feelings and opinions. Our Prime Minister knows that if there is one issue that cuts across all factions, it is parental love and care. The I.D.F pullout of Lebanon allows thousands of parents throughout Israel to get a good night's sleep (except those living on the border). By getting to the hearts of parents Barak has now "hit the heart" of the matter, and of the consensus of the nation. One could feel the relief, as the news swept over the country after the withdrawal. However, there is always an underlying sense of fear that crouches at the door, even as we heard this morning of tear-gas canisters thrown into the synagogue by Joseph's tomb in Shechem.

How sad it was to watch, for the past few days, the news reports and to see the I.D.F retreating as fast as they could, with the South Lebanese Army (S.L.A) soldiers covering their heads in shame, waiting for the inevitable takeover by the Iranian and Syrian backed terrorists! Israel, wanting to save face, set a July date for the withdrawal, but the smell of victory was too enticing for the guerilla forces. They made a surprise offensive as soon as the Israelis turned their backs to walk out of Lebanon with dignity. In a matter of days Israel lost control of the so-called security zone and was faced with only one option, to get out and to do it without any delay. Quite a few of the S.L.A soldiers have given themselves up to the Lebanese Army and to the Hizbullah forces. However 7000 of them – including families – have taken refuge in Israel. Armed with Israeli military know-how (after about 20 years of cooperation), the Muslim Shiites who fought with the S.L.A. will now become an asset to the terrorists. The latter, in their turn, are "selling" their patent, of getting rid of the Israelis, to their compatriots in the "West Bank". So, the cycle of war games in the Levant keeps revolving...

A year or so ago I wrote about a meeting that was held in Damascus. While Israel was closing more deals with the P.L.O, Hamas and the Hizbullah were coordinating their plans and vision for the conquest of Palestine. Their plan was, and is, very simple: divide and conquer. They know that Israel is already divided almost right down the middle, between Left and Right wings. Both the Arabs and Israelis may not be aware of the scripture verse that says: "a house divided against itself cannot stand", but they are definitely aware of the principle. Ehud Barak formed a political party called "One Israel", hoping that his policies, or should I say the American State Department's foreign policies, would ultimately bring peace to the area. By the way, it appears that most Americans do not realize that their country's foreign policy is based on Arab oil and not on the citizens' choices. As was alluded to above, the one thing that everyone seems to be blind, to is the lesson that Hizbullah has taught the Palestinians. Persistence will eventually tire out the giant, and make his big club seem like an inhumane tool in the eyes of the spectators (the UN and the rest of the world), thus forcing him to retreat and withdraw from all Arab occupied territories. This is why the Syrian president is in no hurry to make a compromise settlement.

With the Lebanese situation in the state that it is, the United Nations, whom Israel has asked to send in its peace keeping forces, can breath a sigh of relief, since the Hizbullah forces will do the job for them. The latter have now free reign and will no doubt continue purging Lebanon of its Christian population. Lebanon used to have a significant Christian minority, which through the years has been ‘evaporating’. Islam is set to clear the Middle East from the presence of the “infidels”, as their holy book calls any non-Muslims. It is not only Israeli flags that the “faithful” burn, but often alongside the Israeli flags, American flags are also being set fire to. Even at this moment Christian Arabs are fleeing into Israel by the thousands, expecting the inevitable consequences that would most certainly meet them, if they were to stay, which the latest report has confirmed (that the Hizbullah has been systematically taking former S.L.A. men and killing them). Other south Lebanese are hoping their relatives in other countries will take them in.

Last year at about this time, while Hizbullah and Hamas were coordinating their efforts, several of the south Lebanese leaders were in Israel, issuing a warning that if Hizbullah and Syria were to arrive at Israel’s northern border, and if the Palestinians gain control of the West Bank (Judea and Samaria), pressure will be put on the Galilee Arabs (Israeli Arabs) to join the “war effort”. The year is not quite out, and this has already started happening. The head of the northern Police Force has been warning the politicians (who criticized him for speaking out) of the deteriorating situation among the Galilee Arabs. We have already seen several violent demonstrations in the Israeli Arab towns, with building and land disputes taking place all the time.

Another example of the escalating violence (for peace) is the latest episode, which took place in Jericho, the first city to be given over to the PA in the so-called peace processes. An Israeli car passing through that town was hit by a fire bomb hurled at it by a P.A. policeman, hurting a two year old girl who sustained burns over 50% of her body. Jericho has become a pilgrimage center for Israelis, as it offers them the opportunity to get rich quick, or to become poor even more quickly. Why would an Islamic regime like that of the PLO, want to “install” a casino in one of its towns, when Islam forbids its own people to gamble? On the other hand, one may ask, why is it so hard for the Israelis to resist that institution (even on Yom Kippur, Holocaust Day and memorial day for Israeli’s fallen soldiers), knowing that the profits support an enemy, to their own detriment?

As this week wanes here in the land of Israel, “Shabbat Shalom” is a hopeful blessing for much needed relief.

Shabbat Shalom

Shevet Achim

“Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity” Psalms 133.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Tenacity To His Throne

Sandy Warner

SWauthor@aol.com

Website: www.thequickenword.com

7/11/00

Hi Loved Ones, Spiritually speaking, we are living in exciting and volatile times and truly the righteous of the past yearned to see and hear the things we see and hear from the Lord. (Luke 10:24) These generations before us planted their seeds via intercession and warfare, and WE are the living fruit of their harvest. Their prayers and overcomings are planted in the foundations of our own lives and now we are able to travel greater distances in the Lord, because of their faithfulness. I am deeply grateful for all those who bore the heat of the day and paved a way for us. People are now hearing Him, seeing visions, being taught through dreams, and experiencing His power and Presence in awesome ways.

One door that is now wide open is prayer. This year in particular, God is calling and rallying the hearts of His people to pray. We have been given ACCESS. The Lord is so desperate for our prayers that He hears even the fleeting thoughts of our desires and hopes” and turns them into prayers. He so loves us and wants to give us good gifts!

It is interesting that my husband, without knowing the subject of this post, just commented that several times lately the Lord has asked him a question. Wayne had been pondering this and considering why the Lord would ask this. The Lord asked him, "What do you want?"

The quickened question gave me Holy Spirit goose-bumps. I could think of no greater honor than for the Lord to ask this. The Lord brought to memory the scriptures where Esther was given audience before the King's throne. The King asked her THREE different times, "What is your petition?"

Est 5:6 "And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

Est 7:2 And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.

Est 9:12 Now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

The Lord asked this same question to Solomon: 2 Chron 1:7 In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

Both Solomon and his dad, David, were acquainted with what it meant to have access to a king's throne, and to be granted requests. This was part of their own duties as king. When David wrote the following Psalm, he spoke the Word of the Lord, understanding the love of a Father for His successor Son:

Ps 2:7-8 I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee. ASK OF ME, AND I SHALL GIVE THEE the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

And so I pass on this encouragement to us all, that our Heavenly Father waits for our attendance before His throne. He waits for us to come to Him. He waits for us to pour out our hearts so that He can answer! He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. He promised: "Keep on asking, and you will be given what you ask for. Keep on looking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened. For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And the door is opened to everyone who knocks. You parents--if your children ask for a loaf of bread, do you give them a stone instead? Or if they ask for a fish, do you give them a snake? Of course not! If you sinful people know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give good gifts to those who ask him." (Matt 7:7-11 NLT)

Two more interesting tid-bits to writing this post. I started it on 7/11, which is personally special because my family has a long line of wonderful stories connecting to the above Matt 7:11. Now today as I am finishing, my husband just put today's mail on my desk. On the outside of an envelope it says, "Find the answers in answered prayers!" The Lord is very serious, He wants us to pray and to seek Him. He has given us ACCESS!

The following is a vision from Annie Schisler. I believe that the fulfillment of this vision is now. She is one of our intercessors who bore a great battle to pave a way for us. She was given this vision in the 70's.

THE DIFFERENT ENTRANCES (from Annie's Visions, Book 2)

"Today again there was a time of great opposition and I fought and fought in prayer but still could not get through or find the way in. It seemed that all hell was allied against me. Everything was in vain. Praise, prayer, rebuking the enemy, singing the songs of victory. Nothing that had worked before seemed to help at all. I thought that I would never be able to get through this swarm of evil hosts that surrounded me whose shadowy forms I could even see as they hurled their thoughts of fear and doubt at me ceaselessly. I would throw them out and they would crowd in again. I wondered if I would ever be able to press through that horde of evil beings that seemed so determined to hold me out. Yet I knew that He had promised me entrance and had put it entirely into my will: that if I was determined enough I could get through. So I pressed on. Finally after several hours of battle He came in great mercies.

Again before me I saw that most wonderful and welcome sight. Oh, how beautiful it was! I was drawn closer and it seemed even larger in all that shadowy darkness that surrounded it. It made all the false shadows show up even more clearly and I could see their intense activity of hindrance. At last it was there - the glorious cross of light. My soul leaped with joy within me and I relaxed within, for I knew now that I was very near unto Him whom my soul loves!

As I passed through that shining cross of purest light, His voice came to me rebuking all my fears. Oh, what a relief! Then He took me unto Himself in the wondrous splendor of that mighty Cloud of glory. I felt so fully rewarded. Nothing of the battle seemed to matter any longer. As I rested there in the silken cocoon of divine love that flowed out from Him in ever continuing waves, I felt it had all been so worth while.

As the cloud-river of tangible love flowed over me enclosing me and enfolding me in itself, it washed away all my wounds in its shining flow. He told me of His love and continued watch care over me, saying everything just the opposite of all that the enemy had been saying to me as I had tried to reach Him. When He spoke away all the doubts the enemy had tried to sow, faith, real and strong, flooded my being again and I was no more afraid.

He showed me Himself in a great building as it were, only no building was there. Into that great place where He dwells there were many, many entrances which were all different. Each one was like a different door with a different pathway leading up to it. All the doors of light were guarded by His great angels; yet they were not doors and they were not closed. All around were regions of light filled with the glory of the Lord.

He explained to me that all of these were entrances into His presence and each one was different. "There are a very great number of them and I am teaching you the various entrances. That is why you are having to go through such a variety of experiences and why it is sometimes easy and sometimes difficult to find your way through unto Me. But it is very necessary that I teach you the many entrances, for the day will come when you must bring many others through these entrances with you. Therefore it is necessary that I teach you at this time the many different entrances into My presence."

His words brought me great comfort and release for I understood the reasons for the strange battles; before they had seemed so senseless and without any reason at all." [end of vision]

For those of you interested, Bob Jones said in 10/98, "The Lord has been instructing me to go back and look at the bread that had been stored back in the 70's. As I checked that old bread, or revelation, I discovered that this bread was as fresh today as it was the day it was "placed upon the shelf." The Lord is saying that He has stored bread (hidden manna) that He is about to release in this day and that bread is as fresh today as when it was first put away."

In the 1970's I was given a set of 4 books which were Annie's Visions. She was given a series of experiences where she was taken to the 3rd heaven numerous times. The books are a rare treasure of her throne room visitations and have been proven many times over as I study them, and as the Lord brings me confirmations via scripture as well as testimonies of others who have visited His awesome throne. All four books have been merged into two books, reprinted and are now available at my site. I highly recommend them for anyone wanting to understand more about the heavenlies and how they relate to what the Lord is doing in our personal lives on earth.

May He give us the tenacity to pray, to seek Him, and the joy of His answers! Lovingly, Sandy

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Emperor Has No Clothes

Jill Austin

PROLOGUE

We are on the verge of a fresh outpouring of Holy Spirit where new waves of His glory and visitation are coming. Radical signs and wonders are once again going to hit the earth as unprecedented prayer movements explode around the globe.

We’ve read about historic revivals over the centuries that usually lasted only a few short years. Why did this happen? How can we experience not only a visitation but also an inhabitation of God’s Spirit? When the Manifest Presence comes, it also acts as a refiner’s fire to test the hearts of each individual, church and community. Will we open up the gates for the King of Glory to come in?

The Emperor Has No Clothes
A Prophetic Challenge & Vision by Jill Austin
www.jillaustin.org

This month I’d like to share with you an open vision illustrating the devastating warfare that takes place when there’s a sovereign move of the Spirit. The setting is that of a charming 18th century village in Europe.

As the players emerge in this drama, faces from your own experiences may appear to you, but this is not for you to point a finger. If we are honest, we will see a part of ourselves in each of the actors.

In this vision, I saw that the village had experienced a powerful outpouring of the Spirit but the fire had been slowly and ever so subtly allowed to flicker out, opening the way for religious spirits of witchcraft and manipulation to move in and threaten its destiny.

I watched, in horror, as an enormous red dragon moved through the village, undetected, exuding poisonous sulfur with fire erupting from her gaping mouth. Her leathery scales rubbed abrasively, tearing and bruising all who came in contact with her. Pregnant with vile offspring, she laid her gruesome eggs of manipulation, self-promotion and politics throughout the village.

As I continued to watch, dark fiendish figures burst forth from her eggs, seeping into every home that was open to her deception and flattery. Her victim’s eyes became dim and their tongues forked as they took on the characteristics of their unseen enemy. A veil of darkness covered the hearts and minds of many in the small community.

A Prophetic Warning!

Standing their watch on the ancient walls, prophetic intercessors recognized the raging dragon and sounded their trumpets in alarm. “Strange fire is being released in our midst! The fire of the Holy Spirit is being put out,” they cried. The Emperor and his Counselors had deaf ears to the warnings of the Watchmen and ignored their call to repentance and fervent prayer.

Guarding their stance they mutter, “After all, our village has been known for the outpouring of the Spirit.” To reinforce the faith of the people, the Emperor decreed a festive celebration to take place the following month. The whole village eagerly prepared for the extravaganza!

Allowed to continue her work, the dragon and her offspring infiltrated even further, cloaking their deeds behind the busy activities taking place as they spewed out even more of their evil venom.

The Grand Procession!

The next scene materialized as the day of the celebration arrived. I looked as the Emperor and his Counselors marched down the middle of town with dancers, musicians, and singers following. The music and glittering multicolored banners drew the crowds. The loud speakers announced how beautiful the Emperor was dressed as everyone looked on.

The bright sunlight shimmered off his robes, causing them to sparkle like diamonds, dazzling the eyes of the onlookers. The people were so amazed ... some of them bowed down in awe and reverence, no one daring to come near such splendor.

As the procession moved through the village, the Emperor’s Counselors drew near to whisper their sage advice, “Surely the Lord is with us. The anointing is growing like never before and all the peasants love you.”

“Oh yes,” another whispers, “they do love you. Have you noticed how the treasury has increased? And look how the people are dancing in the streets, intoxicated with the new wine and music! You, O’ Emperor, are covered in a glorious mantle the likes of which others only dream of. We are at the beginning of great things!” Child-Like Faith

In the distant crowd a child’s voice can barely be heard above the clamor, “Mommy! Daddy! The Emperor has no clothes on. He’s naked!”

Moving quickly the Counselors barked out orders, “Silence that child!” But the child would not be still, “Can’t you see Mommy? He’s naked! Doesn’t anyone see it?”

The truth spoken with child-like faith resulted in gleaming angelic swords being drawn, readied for battle. The Watchmen had been interceding day and night for reinforcements. Quickly heavenly warriors moved among the crowd to circumcise hearts and open the eyes of those bowing low to the Emperor.

They gasped, “He’s naked! The Emperor is naked! Where’s the anointing? I thought the mantle of God’s government was upon him? What has happened? I can’t bare to look at him!”

The Emperor’s ears were finally opened to hear the sounds of the battle taking place. Swords were clashing as the host of heaven wages war against the dragon and her children. Furiously spinning around to face his Counselors, the Emperor charged them, “You lied to me! Why is it that I had to hear the truth from a child?”

Naked and Ashamed

Hot tears fell from the eyes of the Father to melt the Emperor’s heart and open his spiritual eyes. “I have no covering. The anointing has left. I’m naked!” Embarrassed, he grabbed one of the banners and frantically covered himself.

Looking over the crowd lining the narrow winding streets, he began to discern the horde of dark spirits invading his village. The once powerful and anointed man fell helplessly to the ground, “The village is being destroyed. Oh, God, what have I done?! How did I become so deceived? What am I to do now?”

Fear and panic hit the crowd as the raging dragon became visible to the town’s people. They scattered in all directions, searching for a safe place to hide. Some became casualties on the battlefield once known as the “City of God”.

Sword of Repentance

Above the town square stood a huge, fiery Angel proclaiming, “When we ushered in the glory of the Lord, His consuming fire broke off all that hindered love. The whole village was glad and rejoiced. We also brought the First Sword and passed it over your hearts, bringing repentance and reawakening your first love.”

“The Father watched to see how your hearts would respond to this powerful outpouring of His Spirit. Many of you were promoted and given mantles of authority, but some of you used your position to control the Holy Spirit and manipulate His people. You challenged Him on how much fire you wanted in this revival.”

“Not desiring His holy fire, you settled for a political agenda and gave in to the fear of man, causing you to become lukewarm. Without His tangible presence, you became blind to the dragon invading your village and deaf to the warnings of His Watchmen.”

Sword of Judgment

“Now a Second Sword is coming - a Sword of Judgment! Many of you have operated in pride and self-promotion.

Others received beautiful prophetic words but tried to fulfill them in your own strength and timing. These things opened the doorway for strange fire to fall on the altars of your hearts.”

I watched as the Angel passed the Second Sword over the people. Those who stood in pride and opposition to God unknowingly called forth the dragon and brought devastation to themselves and their children.

Knighthood & Promoted

This same Sword of Judgment was used to knight those who had a history of prayer and humility. Many fell on their faces and cried out, “Oh Lord, have mercy! Save this village and destroy the dragon. Bring a fresh consuming fire!”

The Angel continued, “You were called not only to be His servants, but also His Bride, and to become a prophetic womb, impregnated by His Spirit and bringing forth His Manifest Presence to the nations of the earth.”

“There’s always a contesting and heavy spiritual warfare that occurs when the dragon rages to abort the things of the Spirit into the earth. The Lord has placed the Watchmen strategically on the walls to sound the alarm and to intercede. Birthing is bloody but it is also a tremendous privilege. There’s a price behind the anointing.”

Behind Closed Doors

I saw the Father extend prophetic invitations to the Emperor and his Counselors once again to repent for grieving Holy Spirit. Seduced by their need for power, they ignored the invitations so graciously extended. Infighting and jealousy over positions began to blind and deceive once valiant warriors. Confusion increased as the war raged and the Emperor was torn between pleasing the prominent villagers and following the Spirit.

Holding secret meetings behind closed doors, they tried to resolve their debates over how much of the Manifest Presence they would allow and so determined the fate of Holy Spirit. The seducing dragon continued to plant her malevolent eggs of pride and elitism in the minds of the rebellious, which eventually closed the city gates to the move of God.

The Bridegroom sadly watched as His fire went out on the altar and His precious Spirit was delegated outside the walls. The angels bowed low as He wept over the village and the Father sorrowfully declared, “The fragrance of My Son has left.”

Meanwhile, the Counselors were busy trying to defend their position and to rationalize away the fears of the Emperor, while the dragon destroyed more lives and ministries. Disease and death spread throughout the ravished village as the dragon moved in for the ultimate kill. People became numb to their pain and slowly - ever so slowly - they moved into denial.

The naked Emperor stood alone looking over the blood-soaked battlefield. Unable to overcome his fear of man and break out of the bondage of the dragon, he told himself, “Everything should be done in decency and order. Our prominent businessmen and wealthy folk expect their village to be a safe place for everyone to come. After all, it’s God’s wisdom not to offend the unbelievers. Most people want to be part of something respectable.”

Watchmen Beware!

The dragon sent out a death warrant for the Watchmen, the seers of God. If her henchmen couldn’t take their lives, they would try to silence their voices and gouge out their eyes. Sadly, some of the seers became political in an effort to save their lives. Manipulating with prophetic words to gain the Emperor’s favor, they became power brokers in this devastating war.

Driven out, other Watchmen just slipped away silently in the night, desperately asking God where to go next. With the city gates no longer opened to them, they were left as prophetic voices crying out in the wilderness. “Oh, Lord, have mercy! Forgive them even though they know what they do.” Those left behind watched in fear as yet another one disappeared. One by one the ax fell and heads rolled.

The Glory Lifted!

The loud speakers broadcast false reports of how Watchmen were being sent to new works in other nations. Everything was covered with flattery and deception but where was the commissioning prayers and laying on of hands? It seemed that broken hearts and torn covenants were all that were left.

Fear of the tremendous power of the Emperor and his Counselors silenced those remaining. No one talked; control and order became the rule of the day. Barrenness was the high price they paid for respectability.

Finally, Holy Spirit was pushed out of the village and the dragon’s deception spread like a deadly plague. The heavens wept as the war continued and destinies were aborted prematurely. Helplessly, I looked on as this terrible war continued to destroy them. The altar of the people’s hearts became colder and colder as the fire went out and the Presence of God left. The glory lifted!

History Repeats Itself

Who is wrong? The Emperor? The Counselors? The Villagers? The Watchmen? All of the above! The Emperor was guilty of compromise and control. The counselors were guilty of flattery and lies. Let’s not forget that some of the villagers were guilty of idolizing a man and some of the Watchmen abused their prophetic gift.

History repeats itself and Holy Spirit is often put outside the camp. He desires for each of us to look at our own hearts and responses. The bottom line is - we are responsible for keeping the fire lit on the altar of our hearts instead of passing judgment on others. We need to desperately cry out, “Do not cast me away from Your presence, and do not take Your Holy Spirit from me.” (NKJ Psalm 51:11)

Respectability vs. Anointing

Looking at the players more closely, aren’t we all “Emperors” in different arenas of our lives? Are you really clothed or are you naked? Are you a counselor who builds up someone to gain credibility and political access? Or, as one of the villagers or watchmen, do you flatter the ears of the Emperor to win position and favor? Or have you just become apathetic, giving into silence just to survive?

Are you really prepared for the next move of God? When He comes - and He will come - He will shake, expose and challenge all of our agendas, exposing our nakedness. So let’s get personal. Are you on your face in repentance and humility? Do you have the revelation and strategies to oust the dragon and her children from your midst? Or have you shut the gates of your heart and city to the move of God?

Remember history repeats itself!

©2000 Jill Austin Master Potter Ministries

www.jillaustin.org

office@jillaustin.org

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Establishment of the Kingdom of God

Teresa M. Daly-Crews

There has now been released to the Body of Christ an anointing of Praise to tear down powers and principalities. Strongholds will immediately be broken as we step up to the next level of power. Father God will manifest this anointing through unity and praise. The power made manifest through dance and prophetic song will be brought forth in purity, in a magnitude that has not been seen before.

It is also time for the establishment of the Judges in the Kingdom by the hand of God, so that justice and balance may come to the people. It is important to remember that the Lord appoints and positions those in authority so that He may be glorified. Man does not sanction them nor can anyone choose where they are to serve. We must fall into place as called of God, ready to serve in whatever area the Lord has commanded. It is important to understand that rank and position are not given by the mandate of men. God will be using the foolish things of the world to confound the wise.

Many who will be leaders in the coming days will carry with them testimonies that by man's standards make them tainted and unworthy for service. In the eyes of God these tried and tested soldiers have been through the fire and have passed the test. Many have overcome insurmountable odds and are now walking in a humility that could have only been grown through adversity.

Pray that the Lord gives to His Body eyes to see beyond the outward appearance. These individuals are the gold that has been tried in the fire we are counseled to buy in Revelation 3:18. These sons and daughters will carry the anointing of sanctification to purify the Bride in holiness so that She may wear white raiment. They will also manifest the Fire of the Lord. This is the presence of the Father, and He himself will bring forth repentance. For it is now time for the establishment of the Kingdom of God.

Father, I ask that you anoint our eyes with eye salve that we may see and open our hearts that we may receive correction. For we are indeed your sons and daughters who desire to overcome so that we may inherit your Kingdom in its fullness.

Teresa Daly-Crews 4 August 2000

In HIS Service, Teresa M. Daly-Crews Jahshalom@aol.com www.jesusministries.com

Joel 2:11-18 "And the Lord shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible; and who can abide it? Therefore also now, saith the Lord, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: ... Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach..."

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Testing of Hearts

Deborah Voetberg

Testing of Hearts & Emotions

The majority of the Body of Christ is preparing to cross the river Jordan to enter its promise land. Many of God's children are finding themselves in the fire and dealing with emotions and heart issues they thought were gone or never knew existed. This morning the Lord took me to Numbers 20 and revealed to me a side of Moses I had not seen before.

Verse one in Numbers 20 has the children of Israel in the first month of their fortieth year in the wilderness. They were at Kadesh, the same place where forty years ago the spies were sent out to spy the land. They were coming to the end of their journey, the old generation had passed on, and the leaders of Israel were preparing to cross over to the other side. Moses, Aaron and Miriam were close to realizing the promise they had laid their lives down for. But in verse one we read that Miriam died and was buried in Kadesh. So close to the promise; so close to what the three siblings had longed for.

There are many teachings on this section of scripture, but I would like you to look into the hearts of Moses and Aaron and see what the Holy Spirit revealed to me. They have come to the last year of their journey, and now Miriam dies. In their time of grief, the children of Israel gather against Moses and Aaron, because there is no water. Accusations are flying, contention rising and strife spreading.

Moses and Aaron fall on their faces at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, crying out to the Lord as their hearts break before Him. They are undone. There have been many battles, many victories, they have just buried their sister and in this moment they are spent.

In our own lives we have found ourselves in times of great testing, where it looks like the end is so near...break through and deliverance is at the door. We can hear it knocking! Our hearts have been tested, and our strength seems solid. We are ready! But God knows what still lies deep within our hearts. A trial arises unexpectedly, our hearts faint and we are spent. We cry out to God, "How much more? I'm undone...there is nothing left."

The Lord commanded Moses to speak to the Rock. We know that Moses chose to strike it twice, saying to Israel, "Hear now, you rebels! Must we bring water for you out of this rock?" The Lord knew the anger and frustration that was coming to the surface in Moses' heart. The test was for Moses to know that even in his weakest moment and greatest trial, the Spirit of the LORD was all that was needed to bring provision. Moses failed the test because he relied on his own strength, and was overtaken by his frustration, brokenness and anger.

This decision not only cost him the honor and joy of bringing his people into the promise land, but four months later the LORD tested him again concerning Aaron. "Aaron shall be gathered to his people, for he shall not enter the land which I have given to the children of Israel, because you rebelled against My word at the water of Meribah.... so Moses did just as the Lord commanded, and they went up to Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation. Moses stripped Aaron of His garments and put them on Eleazar his son; and Aaron died there on the top of the mountain. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain." Numbers 20:24, 27&28

Yes, both of them had rebelled, but the LORD held Moses, as the leader, responsible. The test for Moses.... would he follow the command of the LORD exactly this time? This test was not in private, but in front of the whole congregation and his nephew. The outcome of this test being the death of his beloved older brother. What was the condition of the hearts of Moses and Aaron by this time? Can you see them standing face to face as Moses lifted his arms to remove the priestly garments off of Aaron? During the trip up the mountain were they reflecting on the many times they stood together and also those times when they stood at odds with one another? What about Miriam whom they had buried just four months earlier?

Moses stood staring at his older brother that had helped him deliver the children of Israel from Egypt. Can you see their eyes meeting? I believe that what the LORD showed me is that they found in one another's eyes, peace. This was the last test for them; they were passing. Their hearts had found peace. They had climbed that mountain not with their own strength, but with the LORD's. They stood there in front of the whole congregation and immediate family with the cost of their sin exposed to all. They had embraced brokenness and accepted separation knowing it would only be for a short time. They found the peace and strength that comes with full surrender.

The LORD's message to Israel.... The crossing of the river Jordan into the promise land would not be by the Law (Moses), the Prophet (Miriam), or the Priesthood (Aaron), but by the Spirit-Jesus (Joshua).

We are standing in the last of our forty years of wandering as the body of Christ.

The Lord is testing the hearts of many and some feel as if the LORD has forsaken them. When breakthrough seems within reach, our own hearts seem to betray us. Where the body of Christ is heading, only the spirit of the LORD can take us there. Hold fast to your faith, knowing full well that the reigns of your hearts are being tested. The end result will be a place of surrender, having all that is not of the LORD purged out of our hearts. We are being prepared to house His glory, vessels full of His faith and His strength! Children who have truly died and been resurrected by His Spirit!

Great Grace!

Deborah Voetberg Women Of Influence www.judges5.com judges\_5@msn.com

The End Times

Paul Cain

A Vision by Paul Cain written by Terry Sullivant

Paul has had several specific burdens and prophetic expectations for the Body of Christ today and in the days to come. He has had reoccurring visions concerning the end times, which he believes are rapidly approaching. About 30 years ago the Lord gave Paul a vision that has occurred to Paul more than 100 times and still reoccurs to this day.

It is a vision of the last days when sports stadiums all over the United States are filled with thousands of people. In this vision, people are being healed and miracles are happening to thousands in the name of Jesus Christ. People are turning to the Lord in droves and the whole nation is in revival. It seemed the whole earth was turning to Christ.

Television news reporters are broadcasting stories of resurrections and miracle healings. None of the secular reporters could get near the men on the platform. They did not know who the men were. Paul described them as "almost faceless men." He hears a TV anchorman saying, "There are no sporting events to report tonight because all the stadiums, ball parks and arenas are being used for large revival meetings and are filled with people crying, "Jesus is Lord, Jesus is Lord."

In these visions, Paul saw these men minister for three days and nights without food, water or change of clothing. Supernatural strength enabled them to continue for these long periods. In the vision, Paul is standing at the crossroads of life and sees a billboard that says, "Joel's army now in training." People are being trained to walk in obedience to Jesus. They have learned patience and endurance, have the power of God and having done all, they know how to stand against the enemy.

"They will have the mind of Christ," Paul said. "They will partake of the heavenly calling and be a new breed, God's dread champions." Those ministries will be filled with such passion for Jesus and the power of the Spirit that the host of darkness will dread their impact.

Paul said in the midst of the Laodicean church age of lethargy and apathy, that God was preparing in hiddenness an army to pull down enemy strongholds, and go forth in the power of God and have pure and undefiled religion.

"He's going to do this with a people who have stripped themselves and separated themselves from the world, the flesh and the devil," Paul said. "They will realize the end time is here and that things are in a mess and things at the end time are different. Just as it required total sacrifice on the part of the disciples to begin this thing, it will require an equal commitment from us to complete the task in the end times. Joe's mighty army, as described in Joel Ch. 2 is the army of God - not a wicked army, as some have thought. They are the ones with 'feet of iron not mixed with clay', with the wisdom of God alone, not imitators of other men of God. Some of the superstars of the Church will fall. The Lord will have an army of holy anointed vessels to usher in His kingdom so that no one man can take credit for it. It will be to the glory of God alone."

This vision was printed from Grace City Report Special Prophetic Edition Fall 1989

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Eye Of The Hurricane

Stephen Hanson

Each man will be like a shelter from the wind and a refuge from the storm, like streams of water in the desert and the shadow of a great rock in a thirsty land. Is. 32:2

Feb. 12, 2000

"There has been a storm which has been blowing upon my servants....It has appeared to be as a blast; but it has just begun."

"I ask you to stay in the midst of the storm.....in the eye of the hurricane. As everything is blowing around you, stay still there in the midst. Watch as calamity goes around you. See the debris of many things going....If you stay within the eye of this hurricane, you will not be hurt. The winds blow from all directions. No one knows from whence the wind comes; but I say, that I can calm them. "

"Consider how a ship is set upon the ocean.....It can easily be blown and shifted off course. A course is set, and that ship needs to keep to it. "

(I was in a scene at the top of a ship; one which would have been sailed several hundred years ago, with netting, rigging, and sails. I was at the top of this ship where sailors would look out from their post to look for land. I was given a telescope and was looking through it. As I started to look out of this telescope, I noticed shifting winds and turmoil around me, encircling this ship. It was a vast area of gray winds and turbulence. However, this ship, and the immediate area around it, was calm and protected. There was a definite area that surrounded this ship that was calm and still, and around that, it was a vast encircling wind which encompassed the entire scene.)

"My servants will be protected in the midst of the storms which come. Nothing would come and destroy them, would say the Lord. But do not venture out into these storms without Me. For the waters there will be rocky and unsteady. Stay under the canopy of my wings. I do not take the storms away from this life, but I do protect those in the midst thereof. Stay within the "eye of the hurricane" and you will be protected, and I will enclose and encircle around. "

"The winds will blow, my people, but do not fear their fury."

Stephen Hanson

What is the way to the place where the lightning is dispersed, or the place where the east winds are scattered over the earth? Job 24:24

Praise the LORD from the earth, you great sea creatures and all ocean depths, lightning and hail, snow and clouds, stormy winds that do his bidding, Ps. 148:7-8

The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit." John 3:8

No man has power over the wind to contain it ; so no one has power over the day of his death. As no one is discharged in time of war, so wickedness will not release those who practice it. Ecc. 8:8

Daniel said: "In my vision at night I looked, and there before me were the four winds of heaven churning up the great sea. Dan. 7:2

The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because it had its foundation on the rock. Matt. 7:25

But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, "Lord, save me!" Matt. 14:30

*(If you would like to consider a monthly donation to this ministry, it would be greatly appreciated, but not necessary.)

Thank you,

Stephen Hanson
1095 Western Dr. 560 J.
Colorado Springs, Colorado 80915
(719) 591-5690
(719) 591-5690 (fax)

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Face in the Field

Mary Koons

And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news (the Gospel) of the kingdom and curing all kinds of disease and every weakness and infirmity.

When He saw the throngs, He was moved with pity and sympathy for them, because they were bewildered (harassed and distressed and dejected and helpless), like sheep without a shepherd.

Then He said to His disciples, the harvest is indeed plentiful, but the laborers are few.

So pray for the Lord of the harvest to force out and thrust laborers into His harvest. Matthew 9:35-38

Saturday, March 11

While in prayer last night the Lord showed me a vast field - so large I could not see the end of it. Each "planting" in this field had many tall leaves that were a sparkling, almost luminescent white, and I discerned that the Lord was telling me that this was indeed - a "field WHITE for the harvest." The leaves on these plants appeared intricately made, as if each one had been "hand-crafted," and delicately tended with great care and concern. I was shown that if ANY of these plants brought forth a downward curling green leaf - instead of the desired upturned white leaves - it was pruned off immediately.

The Lord then told me to turn around and look behind me and when I did so - I saw another field - again, so large I could not see the end of it. This field however, was entirely different than the first. As far as I could see was "broken stubble," littering or sticking out of the ground, and on a post directly in front of me was a "scarecrow." The scarecrow was a horrible looking caricature, with its "worn felt hat and frown" and its "moldy and tattered clothing." The same stubble as the field, stuck out of its arm and leg holes, at grotesque angles. The Lord impressed upon me that this field represented those who attempted to impress Him with their "works," done in HIS name - works of the flesh, and NOT OF THE SPIRIT.

The LORD drew my attention again to the "beautiful white" field. I began to perceive how the "latter rains," had watered and produced "good soil," from which each plant had been nurtured. I saw each delicate white leaf turned "upwards," drawing sustenance from the "LIGHT" flowing down from above. I was then shown a thick, golden oil - resembling honey - which began to flow from above and TOTALLY COVER each delicate white leaf. As this happened, another miraculous thing began to take place, for each plant began to produce a "bloom," and "flower" - for the SEASON FOR PRODUCING THE FRUIT OF THE FIELD WAS AT HAND! The blooms were vibrant - each unique - each flowering forth with indescribable colors, textures and variations. It did not appear from where I stood that ANY two blooms were alike, but ALL were beautiful, and ALL the textures and variety of colors had combined into an array that was INCREDIBLE!! - unlike anything I had ever seen before.

Next - a "FIRE" that I realized meant "judgment" began to pour forth out of the heavens The "stubble" field behind me exploded into a fireball - until the only thing left was ash. The "field of blooms," however, had been protected from this fire by the "golden oil" of the Spirit that had coated each leaf and bloom. NONE had been harmed or touched by the fireball that had obliterated the other field.

Suddenly - instead of standing in front of the field - I found myself hanging above it. Looking down.... I realized the GLORIOUS REASON for the variety of the shading, color and texture of each of the blooms. For when I looked down from a vantage point of being ABOVE the field - each of the white leaves and blooms magnified the GLORY OF GOD - and what the field had been planted for became obvious. Each plant - each bloom - reflected its heavenly creator. Each plant - each "flowering bloom," represented a "laborer" of the Lord of the Harvest - for HIS harvest at the end of the age!

As I looked down I realized how vitally connected each blooming plant WAS to the other - for collectively they reflected HIS LIGHT AND GLORY and formed in their fabulous shading and color of their blooms - the FACE OF JESUS!

For behold, the day comes that shall burn like an oven, and all the proud and arrogant, yes, and all that do wickedly and are lawless, shall be stubble; the day that comes shall burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch.

But unto you who revere and worshipfully fear My name shall the Sun of Righteousness arise with healing in His wings and His beams, and you shall go forth and gambol like calves [released] from the stall and leap for joy.

Malachi 4:1-2

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Trust Falls In Place

Lisa Allen

On April 4, 2000, I was praying and interceding, and cried out to God, in the middle of my computer room and asked for a visitation from the Lord Himself. Now, I never has done this, and I do not know why I even asked. it had been no great desire to see Him for reason I do not want to get into. But, I believe it was the prompting of the Holy Spirit. And I remember asking and imagining that I would see our Lord like I had heard others had seen Him; you know, in the white robe, beard, blue eyes, etc.. and I went to sleep that night...

I was sitting in this field of tall green grass. I noticed two little dogs "play" fighting with each other in this clearing amongst the tall grass. I just watched. And then I did notice that there was a huge male lion meandering through the tall grass. When I saw it, it seemed to have a human persona about it. The face of the lion was not a lion's face but that of a man. The face was very stern, very strong, and defined, very strong bone structure. The hair was human hair and was sandy in color, and wavy like a lion's mane. He looked at me. The face was serious but not threatening. The lion began to walk away from me, after it had been somewhat in close proximity to me. I felt a sense of awe, yes, even some fear and trembling, but, with an innate knowledge that it was not out there to hurt me. There was an air of majesty and awe and kingly spirit. Even though it was a distance from me, I could sense that it knew me, like its presence was right where I was sitting. I felt a need to be submissive. my heart attitude became submissive. I had kept looking at the lion but then I couldn't anymore look directly at Him. my eyes began to avert downward towards the grass. Yet, I still had some peripheral vision and could see that the lion was coming back around towards me. I did feel a little fear, but I had bowed my head, and showed no threat to His authority. After a little while, I felt a huge presence right behind me. This lion had already made its way behind me, and I could hear and feel the breath from its nostrils on its wide snout against my hair in the back of my head. Then I felt it brush up against the side of my head, on my right side. At this point, I really felt I could trust this lion completely. It was amazing. It was a little frightening, but exhilarating. The lion's presence was very huge, so big.

Jesus visited me in the form of the Lion of the Tribe of Judah! (not a white robe!) There is only one reference in the entire Bible to the Lion of the tribe of Judah (Revelation 5:5) He is King of kings....

after this experience, I felt the fear of the Lord like I have never experienced before!! I was astonished, and kind of in a stupor for hours, and days even. I was overwhelmed by the experience. A sense of judgment was upon me. I gained the following:

when I submitted to Him, the trust was natural. When we submit to His will, the trust falls in place. People would question and ask, "but how can you submit if you don't trust first?" that is man's way of thinking. God is God Almighty, Creator of all things. When He tells us to obey His voice, and obey His commandments, He is able to show His trustworthiness. We are not to put God to the test.

Another thing, the different adjectives or words that came to mind after this experience:

judgment
majestic

awesome mighty powerful omnipresent omniscient fear of God omnipotent very strong submission trust humility authority

Also, the Lord reminded me of Isaiah 33:17 (the Lord had waken me up at 6 am, back in 1992 and had literally given me this scripture...) "Your eyes will see the King in His beauty; they will behold a far-distant land."

Jesus showed me as not someone who was meek, and gentle, and how most of us see Jesus of the gospels. He is all this too. However, there is Jesus as Judge mentioned in Revelation. As the Lion, He is the Judge of all nations, and how He will come at His second coming is one described in Revelation.

The message in my spirit that Jesus impressed upon me, and deposited in me, was that of walking in the fear of the Lord, in righteousness (not our own) and separating ourselves from every form of evil.

My heart is for the Lord Jesus to reveal Himself to the body of Christ, each and every one of you, as He revealed Himself to me, in order that His body, His people, may humble themselves before their King. HE IS LORD!!! ALWAYS!!! NOTHING WILL TAKE THAT AWAY!!

I pray that those reading this may by God's hand get this revelation in their spirit, that of the coming judgment of the Lord, and where our hearts need to be. He comes first in the morning. We must ask ourselves when we get up in the morning: "Good morning, my Lord, how may I worship you and glorify You, and please You?" He will answer, if you will only ask....

Love and blessings to you, through our King, Christ Jesus. :) Lisa Allen

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Fallacy

Tom Lamb

The Fallacy of the Communion Service

Intro:

Having taken part or observed Evangelical communion (Brethren/Baptist), High Church communion, Pentecostal communion, Charismatic communion, Ecumenical communion, and New Age communion (same platitude, but without reference to Jesus) over the years, have I witnessed the same rigmarole or extremes of the cold formal approach, to the emotionally charged ecstasy of "lives touched" and "hearts melted". However, at the end of the day, neither have I ever witnessed lasting fruit or lives changed from these solemn experiences. From the aftermath of these "spiritual" highs and religious gestures, has life continued on just the same, where people may have confessed to an "attitude" to someone, or been radiant for God while on top of Mount "Fuzzy", then neatly slipped back into their carnal everyday pattern of guile or indifference.

Why ... ?

No, am I not going to mention the Roman Catholic Church at this stage and sandblast t r a n s u b s t a n t i a t i o n (phew, easier to type than say though!), the bread and wine BEING CHANGED to God by priestly magic. But I am going to look at the Protestant version, c o n s u b s t a n t i a t i o n (take note of the first three letters ... con, cause that's what it is) the bread and wine BEING LINKED to God mystically by consecration. Two versions of the same thing. One hard-line the other moderate.

Some may think I'm being a bit too hard here, however, some time back I attended a Protestant/Evangelical/Pentecostal home meeting of about 30 people from various back grounds, young and elderly, were present. During the meeting when the subject of traditional "communion" came up I felt it had to be made very clear the bread and wine in scripture were symbols only! To my surprise the Head of the home openly disagreed with me and made it plain they were far more than symbols. What was just as surprising was the fact not one person present supported me or even refuted the counter claim made by our Host.

"Wow", I thought! ... "were all our past bible believing Church fathers martyred in vain? Had we forgotten the great price paid during the Inquisition?"

Inquisitor: "Is this piece of bread the body of our Lord and Saviour?"

Believer on trial: "No it is just a symbol, that's all!"

Inquisitor: "To the flames with this Heretic!!"

Read on please ...

A wee bit of history:

Did you know there is something remarkably different about the Believers when they rubbed shoulders in the book of Acts compared to what is referred today as fellowship. It was a spontaneous, not compulsive, informal getting-it-together in peoples homes. Even breaking bread together was an ordinary thing, a meal, not an involuntary ritual as it has become today.

In fact, there are only three places in Acts where the breaking of bread together is recorded and they are all to do with snack times. Proof ... ? Then here it comes:

Acts 2:42- 47 ... and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart.

Then there is Acts 20:7-11, a first day of one particular week. No, not a Sunday as previously taught. The Adventists have got this part right. It was a Saturday evening (after 6.00 pm), the first day of the Jewish/Biblical week just hours after the sabbath had ended, and not in accordance with the present R.C.C. calendar which was invented in the 16th century prophetically and partially fulfilling Daniel 7:25. The Believers got so caught up in what God was doing they put tea on-hold.

It wasn't till after midnight however (remember the tired young lad falling asleep at the window while Paul was delivering the word), did they finally ate. It's amazing how we have justified a ceremony we esoterically call "communion" to be strictly observed on the commencement of the Day of the Sun. Whoops! ... Sunday morning that is!

Not convinced? Well ... please read on, because there is only one last record left in Acts. Chapter 27:14- 44:

Here Paul found himself on a ship being lashed about by violent storms for a couple of weeks. He and Luke appear to be the only Believers on board as all the others come across as being superstitious, trying to appease their gods out of the anger situation by abstaining from food (I think they call it "fasting", or something!). Or perhaps they were too bloom'n worn out, or seasick, to handle anything that looked like kai.

However, Paul, in touch with his Dad, encouraged everyone on board (verse 33- 36) to cheer up and have a bite to eat, as he knew his God had everything under control. Then he gave thanks and broke the bread with his pagan heathen friends. What!!?? Must be a translation error or something?? Relax ... this was a meal out of necessity, not religious habit, with ordinary people having a chance to see God work in this whole tricky situation.

So, the Acts have it ... an informal, not surprisingly meaningful get-together, with some tucker thrown in.

Beyond the show (biz) bread:

How can folk taste something that's not tangible, or material? That's why religion is in great need, along with all its trappings and adornments; to make something, and to turn something abstract (like "God") into something we can feel, taste, touch and smell. Whether it be the eucharist, or music, incense burning, or the laying on off hands by the clergy; folk need something palpable. And decorative. Even crosses and doves, and silver chalices! Quite at home in evangelical circles!

Or is there another way? A better way!?

David took the show bread. No, he wasn't trying to be "spiritual". He was just plain bloom'n hungry. In other words ... desperate for some grub. And because of his plight, he wasn't worrying about any order of ceremony. Just think about it? If David had been out to impress or religiously comply, it may have cost him his life. Which was far more important than things like tradition, ritual, and piety. It was time to give the touch not/taste not syndrome the boot. If it was either the 'doctrine of food' or divine provision; and David choose the latter. He was now looking beyond the exhibit bread.

Meals and hospitality:

Let's look at this: Many folk around the Mediterranean still use a loaf of bread and a bottle of wine as a basis for their staple diet, and usually are family orientated people who enjoy entertaining their guests and making them feel at home. Here in New Zealand we have seen a few documentaries over the last few years of ex-Kiwi servicemen who have gone back to places like Greece or Italy for WW2 reunions with families they befriended during the war. I can recall scenes of breaking bread together, toasting wine, embracing each other in song, and generally making merry around the table, in remembrance, of a special time gone by.

Is the penny beginning to drop??

A meal - but more than a meal:

To the Jewish folk the Passover still has both a significance and symbolic meaning. Their very existence and survival as a people has depended upon their sharing together. A meal typifying a common bond. With a hope their Messiah will walk in on their banquet as an unannounced guest, at any given time, fuels this incentive to meet and be together.

However, two thousand years ago Jesus did arrive as Messiah into their midst, and as a lamb, unrecognized, as the fulfilment of their passover meal, before this ordinance was nailed to the cross. Here, Jesus was replacing the Old System with something far better, as He certainly was not replacing one form of Judaism with another. He was actually making a remarkable statement that could even be experienced if adhered to. He made a declaration about the bread at their passover meal being a representation of His flesh. Not literally. And the grape juice being a representative of His blood in the same way. He also said to His disciples, as often as you do this (having meals - the breaking of bread - fellowship) do this in remembrance of Me.

Sounds almost too simple eh! Like taking the Holy Bible for what it says. But never so easy. The cross was never supposed to be. That's why Jesus wanted to get through to His disciples:

"Are you able to partake and drink of what I'm about to taste?" "Are you willing to be baptized with My death?"

And when He said, do this in remembrance of Me, did He mean to duplicate a certain setting and format as a new form of ritual over and over again, each time His followers met together, until He came back? Or did He mean to know Him in our eating, working, hospitality and sharing? In real life settings? Doing all for the glory of God! Only knowing and acknowledging ... in him we live, and move, and have our being! Without me ye can do nothing!

There's nothing abstract or mystical about this. It's just a natural process of dying to self (laying your life down for the Lord and others) and living daily (acknowledging Him in all your ways) for Him. This way He gets total credit for everything, and our attitude is kept humble as we shy away from religious paraphernalia, or being a "spiritual" exhibitionist. Making us grateful He has chosen the base things.

Instituting a substitute:

However, today there is one big problem if you can be categorized a W.A.S.P. (Western/White Anglo-Saxon Protestant ) converted to a gospel which was to the Jew first ... and that is eating mashed spud is more of a staple diet now just as breaking bread together was in the days of old. When a loaf of bread was the centrality of the meal. Bread is now usually a snack or a top-up, and since the advent of the sandwich late last century, it is nowadays pre-sliced and packaged for individual consumption and is not as 'family friendly' as yesteryear.

Also, a meal in bygone days generally took a lot more preparation than today, so there would have been a lot more appreciation and less taken for granted. The main meal (supper in biblical times) was the advent of the day. Not being a couch potato in front of the electronic altar ... the TV. When guests came the meal table was central, not the Tube. People generally stayed there for the duration of the stay. Relaxed. No urgency to gulp down the grub. No hi-tech distractions. Taking your time as there was plenty to talk about.

Grab as many bible dictionaries, commentaries, history books and encyclopaedias (as well as the word of God) you can get your hands on, put some hours in, and do some checking yourself, as the truth will still filter through. You will discover in biblical times when a guest arrived at someone's home he would be welcomed at the door by the head of the home with the greeting of a kiss. Next he would be shown in, then seated, and the servant of the home would attend to him by washing his feet (bearing in mind the footwear and dusty streets of that era) and anointing his hair and beard with oil. Then finally he would be shown to the table where he would be joined by other guests and family members. Everyone would wait for the head of the home who would come and offer thanks to God. He would then take the loaf and break it and share it out to the others gathered, symbolizing the oneness of friends and family under the Headship of God.

Now metaphorically apply the above paragraph to the spiritual and you will see Jesus is now our all in all. He is the one we kiss (Ps. 2:12). He is the door, the door keeper, the servant, the House, the Head, the one who leads, the table for gathering, the anointer, the bread, the new wine, as well as the one who points us to God. We are His guests, His friends, His family, His gathering, His household.

There's much in the New Testament about believers banquets, also known as love feasts. No doubt with plenty of bread and grape beverage, along with other goodies. And as we have lost some qualities in living (after all, we are the "instant" age) since "the good ole days" because of changes in life style and culture (with the notion of staying "religious", or "biblical") we have packaged our meetings together into our own convenient liturgies to suit our own format, our own mid to upper class materialistic culture. F' instance ...

Stand/pray ... sit/listen ... stand/sing ... sit/read ... stand/collection ... sit/"communion" ... stand/sing ... sit/item (song, dance or drama) ... stand/benediction. With 'happy clappy' times thrown in (so we can show off how free we are by breaking out off structure); etc. etc.:

" Oh, we are so diverse!! So sensitive!! So expressive!! So multicultural!! We do everything in our church!! We must look beautiful before God!!"

You see we compartmentalize parts of scripture and throw in a bit of Old Testament with the New (this way it looks "biblical"!), along with new ideas, to spice up our gatherings and call it "having church". And since we have left 'breaking bread' as a meal, yet are aware of its contents in the New Testament, we, in our human discretion, have replaced it with an invented, representation ritual, we call the "Lords supper" or "communion". This consists of a "holy hush" ceremony, by hand to hand passing of crumbs and lolly water (sometimes booze) around, under certain emotional criteria ... tears, confessions, solemn posture, predictable prayers etc. Unscripturally with our eyes closed. Confusing reverence with austerity, holiness with sanctimony, and the presence of God with emotionalism. And turning inward to passivity we turn off true fellowship one to another.

However, if we are going to be strict about ceremony here, then we need to do it properly. Like the book of Galatians f 'instance; saying if we go back under one part of the Old then we are obligated to go back under every regulation belonging to that system. As James 2:10 puts it:

For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

Which means (if we are going to look "scriptural" and "correct") are we constrained to literally and regularly attend the feasts and observe the days. Making sure the bread is unleavened as one loaf (uncut) from the twelve! Making sure there is one cup (not heaps of minis) with the fruit of the vine, grape as its content (not black current or raspberry ... this will make it loose its valued symbolic meaning). Eat paschal lamb, bitter herbs with sauce, each dipped in the one bowl. All in the correct order of procedure.

Then there is the question of washing one another's feet ... literally and regularly!???

Forget it! As mentioned there is a more simple way. Let us repeat in reverse the only three witnesses (breaking of bread) recorded in Acts again:

Fact 1. Paul broke bread with non-christians. I'll repeat that ... with non-christians!!

Fact 2. Sunday's breakfast was Saturday's supper postponed because of Paul's extra long message.

Fact 3. And breaking bread was eating meat with gladness of heart (not glumness of art).

With no mention whatsoever of the Communion Service in the book of the Acts of the apostles and churches.

"What about water baptism (immersion)?" some would say. "Is this not a similar New Testament ordinance?"

The practice of believers baptism in water is repeatedly mentioned in the book of Acts. End of story!

There is a passion in believers, and genuine may I say, to get back to the true "roots"/"culture" of the New Testament Church. Quite frankly this is impossible (and a so-called loop-hole for many movements to exploit with their own monopolized version) as we live in a totally different era, with a different culture along with modern technology. We must remember the early Church did not have the complete bible. Just portions or copies of the apostles letters, along with books of the Old Testament.

However, what we do have today is the spiritual bare essentials: God's complete package ... the same Holy Ghost and the same inspired scriptures in a complete book, pointing us to the same historical complete work on the cross. Complete is the word! What more do we need?

Both practically and spiritually speaking, 'breaking bread' in our fellowshiping is now sharing a portion of scripture from the scriptures (the Bread of Life) with others gathered, with the purpose of building them up. Thanks to the Reformation (or me thinks the other way around) we now have a complete, full, open, public Bible. The Lord's table is where we fellowship from in spirit and in truth (remember the table of devils is metaphorical also). Communion is our deep intimacy with the Lord as we walk with Him, sharing in His suffering as well as in His resurrection life.

"But the scriptures can't be broken!" some will protest.

The true meaning is ... they can't be taken out of context; added to or subtracted from. But vital for collective individual contribution and consumption:

When you come together, everyone of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation.

All various aspects in bringing the word to each other; for edifying each other as individuals and the Body in general.

"How can you say the bread, wine and table are not literal?" some may question.

Cause in the same context the scripture says also He was the rent veil (the way to the presence of God). Jesus also said He was the vine (where the juice came from), as He was the door (where we pass through to sup). Are these literal or symbolic? The literal was the material copy under the Old Covenant as a type or copy of the spiritual in the New Testament! Who gave us the authority to compartmentalize or materialize? When the scripture say taste and see that the LORD is good, how should we respond?

He has made a promise ... if any man hear My voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with Me.

This is true New Testament communion.

The False Throne

Teresa Daly-Crews

THE FALSE THRONE AND THE MANIFESTED SONS OF GOD

The Lord gave a vision that warned of the deception that will come upon the church concerning the false signs, wonders and miracles. It was vivid and precise in detail and it is now time to share it with the Body of Christ.

In the Word we are warned repeatedly of the impending blindness. It is time for us to search our spirits and check our hearts. Are we approaching the Throne of Grace with a willing open heart or are there selfish, fleshly motives behind it?

We must be transparent and open for the next level of purification that is come upon the Bride. The Father desires us to come closer unto Him so He may prepare us for His Son Jesus. We must be wise as serpents and gentle as doves to discern the truth from false. The spirit of error has been unleashed and to see where it lies in wait to devour, we must possess the Spirit of Truth.

When the vision began, I looked into the distance and saw what at first I perceived to be the Throne of God. There were multitudes of people assembled before it in praise and worship. At first it appeared to be an average form of worship. Much like you would find upon entering many churches.

The Spirit of the Lord told me to look closer. The throne was glittery and ornate with the appearance much like the Throne of God. But as I continued to gaze at what one would think would be the Father, the countenance of the being seated at the throne changed. It took on a prideful grin and was very pleased to receive the praises of the people assembled before it. I immediately knew he was the deceiver, Lucifer himself. He had exalted himself to sit upon a false throne of God and was receiving praise and worship meant for our King.

I looked back over the multitude of people and did not see any order. It appeared that "anything went" here, more like a "flesh out" similar to what you would see in secular music. Instead of being swept away by the River of God an unholy anointing manifested. This was not the River of Life but a river of death and deception.

What was missing in these people was the spirit of repentance. Instead of looking within their hearts to see what displeased the Lord they were caught up in "emotion" of the music. As if they were mesmerized by the beat. I looked around at these people and realized they thought they were in the presence of the Lord and continued to lay themselves down before the altar.

The more they worshiped the more ensnared they became in a spirit that called itself false religion. It manifested as bundles of snakes and ensnared each unknowing participant.

Next the Spirit of the Lord bid me to follow Him. We walked behind what I then knew to be the "false" throne and looked. I could see the outer gates to the kingdom of God. As we entered through the gates I could see there were some people assembled and they were entering into the outer courts of the Lord. Each person was singing the praises of the Lord preparing their selves for entrance.

There was a jubilant feel in the air, a feeling of expectation. The focus was not on how it felt to "self" but on how to die to self. There was singing and dancing but very unlike the throne we had just visited. The people around were making themselves ready with preparations of Holiness.

We moved forward into the inner courts and found still more saints singing praises unto the Lord. It was here I saw many washing their robes in the bowls set for cleaning. Some had filthy garments when they put them in the bowl. As they lifted the robes out you could see that they shone with beauty. Each person then placed upon themselves these cleansed robes and proceeded to sing and dance. They each entered into the holy of holies with a purity that only comes by surrender to the Spirit and the Blood of Jesus.

Before them shone the Throne of God. The beauty was beyond words as the Glory of the Lord was made manifest. The brilliance was beyond the sun and the iridescence of everything around glittered like a million tiny stars.

Upon the throne was the Father Himself clothed in His Glory. At His right hand sat His Son Jesus. As each person boldly approached Them you could see the delight in the Lord's eyes. They had arrived and come through much deception to make it to Him.

The only way they were not overtaken beyond the outer gates at the false throne is because their hearts were pure as they approached the throne. If they had any fleshly motives involved instead of desiring the fullness of the Lord they would have been drawn into the "unholy throne".

Because their desire was after holiness and for the Lord's will in their lives, the Blood of Jesus had covered where they had not overcome yet. If they had insincere motives in their hearts the Blood would not have covered it.

The Father called forth each of the saints to His side and gave unto them the power and authority over all the things they had overcome. He gave them His eyes to see and His ears to hear what the Spirit had to say to them.

Then He placed within each of them the heart and mind of Christ and told them to return into the darkness. As they departed from the gates to the Kingdom each of them had a scepter in their right hand with the authority given to overcome the enemy. They were given an assignment to allow the Lord's light to shine through them so the Father could bid more to the wedding.

Out of the scepter shone a light that rivaled the throne of God and it dispelled all darkness as they went forth. At this point the Father sat back and said, "These are my "Sons" made to be manifest before all the earth."

Teresa Daly-Crews <Jahshalom@aol.com> May 2000

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Father and the Son say, "Come!!!"

Karan Vowell

I would like to submit this word for your consideration:

"My Precious Children, My Precious Bride,

I love you. As I walk amongst you, I kiss you with the kiss of Life, Light, Truth & Revelation. It is yours ..... awake My Beloved!! This kiss of Mine is the balm of healing, restoration, renewal, transformation all that I AM doing My work in you from the inside, out.

I have seen you as you have done what you believed pleased Me, but now you understand it was not the Way of My Son. Now you will learn the Way of Shalom. I am removing from 'your way' the busyness of doing, and growing in you the Way of Being, intimately communing with Me, deeply, quietly.

I am turning your eyes away from the old way - you will sometimes look back & yearn for it ... but in your spirit & by My grace, you will continue to put on the robe of 'rightness' in My way. Don't worry about how this is effecting everything around you. And it WILL & is dismantling the old structure of things.

Trust Me ... talk to with Me. Say what is in your heart say it out speak it into the atmosphere. I am not angry with you. I am excited about what IS already. To you it is future ... to Me it is NOW. I LOVE YOU!!!"

The Father and the Son say, "Come!!!"

The Spirit and the Bride say, "Yes, LORD!!!"

Karan Vowell

cityprayer.vowell@integrityonline.com

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Final Curtain Call

Mark Wattenford

Sometimes we "find" we just want to pick a fight with God because our "expectations, words, and visions" have YET to come to pass. I see many right now, like me, who are crying out to God, "WHEN will we see YOUR handiwork...and not the work of men?" Sometimes we feel if we "grumble a little more, or a little louder," that will move God to do something! But GOD "moves and responds" to "FAITH!"

IN FAITH I believe the following: That many of the Lord's chosen WILL "walk" in the LOVE and FULL MANIFESTATION of the Spirit of Christ with all power given unto them to heal the sick, break the chains, raise the dead - in "unstoppable" power. I believe that God's tremendous and "overwhelming" promises and blessings are promised to MANY and that He WILL bring it to pass. I believe that some will be called to do "creative miracles" in His Name in a way not seen on this planet since Jesus walked here. I KNOW that the time is coming when many will have "clean eyes." The prophetic will no longer be hindered or stopped by the enemy or other men - but come forth with full clarity, no longer "shadowy" in substance or discernment, but concise and detailed.

Things are about to take on the nature of God so dramatically will "change" the faulty things in ALL of us. I KNOW that praise and worship and song are about to "EXPLODE" in purity, like never before. Hundreds of thousands are about to be given the mantle of Glory that will CAUSE THEM TO SHINE LIKE BRIGHT LIGHTS in this time to the degree that it will be "visible" even to those who do not yet believe.

I believe there is coming a great breakthrough by the Holy Spirit into the Mormon Church through the "X-Generation," and that the power they will walk in will come through and by the praise and worship they offer up to the Father and to the Son. Very young children will do miracles by their "simple" faith.

Many key government officials will be ROCKED, SHAKEN and CHANGED and will witness themselves to others in government. The military is about to move into an awareness and power of God and the futility of their "own weaponry" against it.

Astounding wealth will come in for the sake of ministry to the many by those He's Chosen to go forth in this time. Miracles never before even "heard or dreamed of" will be talked about around the world.

I see the angels poised in Heaven with sickles in hand ready to gather the harvest in. I see God's eyes turning "back" to Jerusalem and I see how He "is" working in the hearts of the rabbi's and teachers there to bring them into the "saving knowledge" of their Messiah, Yeshua! I see the hand of God coming out of Heaven that will miraculously save and deliver Israel from those who are planning, EVEN NOW, for her destruction.

I believe that "MANY" will "HEAR" the audible voice of God - for direction and intercession.

I believe that "MANY" couples have been "called as ONE" and will be KNOWN for their "unity and oneness" and the Love of God that flows between them and outward to the lost and hurting.

God "WILL" send a TSUNAMI, - the "WAVE OF GOD" as a "WAVE OFFERING" that will flow over the whole earth. The enemy is extremely furious as he sees and knows more than ever the reality of his own end. God is binding satan from interfering with this outpouring and the Word of God to us is:

"Believe NOW in the grace and open show of My Love and Power for the Age of Grace is about to close and those who do not turn and believe in Me NOW will enter into the tribulation and the consuming fire of My wrath and condemnation."

This is all leading up to the time of the final "Curtain Call," for just as when God closed the door to the Ark after Noah and seven others entered in - there will be NO MORE CHANCE to "open the door" and walk inside; for God will "also" shut the door to His Grace to those who reject Him at that time.

Mark Wattenford 8-30-00

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Final Round

Reuven Doron

The Embrace Israel Word from Jerusalem (formerly called Prayer Focus) is prepared regularly by Pastor Reuven Doron, director of Embrace Israel Ministries. This is provided free of charge to a select group of intercessors around the world.

"On your walls, O Jerusalem, I have appointed watchmen; all day and all night they will never keep silent. You who remind the LORD, take no rest for yourselves; and give Him no rest until He establishes and makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth." [Isaiah 62:6-7 NAS]

WORD FROM JERUSALEM

8-12-00

REUVEN DORON

JERUSALEM THE FINAL ROUND?

"The LORD nullifies the counsel of the nations; He frustrates the plans of the peoples. The counsel of the LORD stands forever, The plans of His heart from generation to generation. Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD, The people whom He has chosen for His own inheritance." [Psalms 33:10-12]

We thank God for His blessing upon our recent Embrace Israel annual conference which was hosted at River of Life Ministries in Cedar Rapids, IA, under the blessing of Pastor Francis Frangipane. In spite of our family's deep fatigue following a very demanding year in Israel, we found that God's grace not only strengthened us for the task, but also lifted us higher than last year's conference with clearer vision and deeper passion for the resurrection of Israel. I praise God for the good friends who stood with me in leading this year's gathering.

Not accidentally, we found ourselves gathered before the Lord with hundreds of intercessors right during the strategic days of the recent Camp David "peace negotiations." Never in the history of Jerusalem was her destiny in the balance under such international scrutiny and manipulation. Never has she drawn so near to becoming the ultimate cup of reeling (poison, in the Hebrew) and the stone of offense to the international community as the prophetic word predicts (Zechariah 12).

As you know by now, the Camp David summit has miserably fizzled out into another "dead-end." As most Bible believing intercessors know, and as we have said for years, this "peace process," though loaded with good intentions and naïve expectations, must inevitably fail. And the ultimate point of failure will be the destiny of the City of Jerusalem.

Prime Minister Barak made valiant, human efforts, to achieve peace, offering much more than he should have. Even so, the deal never matured. The Palestinian demand for full sovereignty over east Jerusalem was, so far, rejected even by the American administration, thus derailing the talks. All who honestly examine the situation know that historically, Jerusalem has never been the capitol of a Palestinian state, and that in fact, there has never been a Palestinian state in the region at all.

There is no doubt that a just and adequate solution should be found and implemented to alleviate the suffering of the Palestinian society; a suffering which is mostly perpetuated due to the Arab hostilities toward the emergence of Israel. However, the fact needs to be pressed and remembered that their national aspirations are but a modern myth conceived to opposed Israel's claim to the land and to the City of Jerusalem.

Jerusalem, according to God's word, is the final test revealing the motives and heart inclinations of the nations regarding the Lord and His Word. Long before David wrestled the city from the Jebusites and established her as the capital of his kingdom, more than 3,000 years ago, God already promised that there will be a place where He will set up His Name and anchor His standard.

Moses spoke to the sons of Israel yet in the desert, saying, "then it shall come about that the place in which the LORD your God shall choose for His name to dwell, there you shall bring all that I command you: your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes and the contribution of your hand..." [Deuteronomy 12:11]

Biblically, a name represents the whole of the person who carries it. Our own children, Sarah, Rebekah, and Yohanan, are named with names, which are not simply identifying sounds, but are also titles, descriptive adjectives which carry a message and speak of the nature of the one who bears them.

For God's name to dwell somewhere, as the text suggests, all His attributes, characteristics, and virtues are to be represented and expressed in that place. Think of it, a place on earth where God intends to reveal, over time, all of who He really is. His truth, love, holiness, goodness, faithfulness, sovereignty, compassion, long suffering, anger, mercy, severity, and judgments; all of His manifold and eternal nature is to be found in Jerusalem.

In light of such destiny, is it any question why the city of Jerusalem has become the battleground of the ages? Because God singled her out as His earthly anchor, the forces of darkness desperately seek to capture her, rule over her high places, rape and ravage her children, and thus thwart God's purpose for the earth. Whether by physical destruction, political seduction, or the annihilation and exile of her offspring, all hell rages to see her undone.

Behind the demonic rage is fear. Fear of the inevitable fulfillment of God's Word, of His coming Kingdom, and of His final judgment of evil. The demonic strategy argues that if God cannot find a resting-place for His feet at his second coming, then His plan of redemption for the world could be aborted. And so, through many devastating wars, unending assaults, and recently through political manipulation, Jerusalem remains the battleground.

I believe that our prayers and proclamations during the recent gathering rose to wage war in the heavenlies against demonic schemes and human manipulations. Jerusalem, the throne of the Lord, is the final prize, and the battle lines are forming. The video and audio tapes from this recent event will educate and inspire you and others as you receive the heart of the vision from our ministry team which consisted of Francis Frangipane, myself, David Demian, a leading Egyptian brother, and Ofer Amatai, an Israeli pastor from Jerusalem.

Pray with us against an outbreak of violence in the "West bank" and Gaza. Such "spontaneous" riots have been staged in the past to display Palestinian impatience towards Israel's "stubbornness" in refusing to hand over sovereignty of the city that has been it's capital for over 3,000 years. The emotions of man are tending toward violence at times like this as the Palestinian leadership is threatening outrage in the streets, and the Israeli military has been given orders to use live ammunition in case security personnel or Jewish settlements are attacked by Arab mobs or terrorists.

Pray with us for "peace that passes understanding" to be present among the believing Messianic and Christian congregations in Israel, both Jewish, Arab, and international. These often-isolated pockets of embattled saints are God's strongholds of sanity, prayer, and faith who ultimately will lead the entire region forward through bold intercession and sacrificial witness.

Pray with us also for the Lord's will to prevail in the bewildered and divided Israeli government. Considering the gravity of the situation and the recent upheavals in the coalition (Barak's eroding power base), a national unity government (coalition and opposition governing together) may prove to be the best option in forming a united front against the present challenges.

And pray with us for the peace of Jerusalem; the place where God's name dwells; the City of the Great King.

GRACE AND PEACE TO YOU, IN JESUS NAME. REUVEN DORON AND FAMILY

Embrace Israel Ministries

PO Box 10077

Cedar Rapids, IA 52410-0077 USA

Voice: (319) 393-1096 / Fax: (319) 393-2912

E-Mail: mailbox@embraceisrael.org

Internet site: www.embraceisrael.org

SPECIAL PRAYER INITIATIVE We are asking intercessors to join in a special prayer initiative: "One Million Hours of Prayer for Israel." Please contact Liz Rhodes and request your prayer card today. You may contact Liz directly via e-mail at mailbox@echad.org or visit the Echad Ministry web site at www.echad.org on the Internet. Please include your name, address, and phone number in your correspondence.

GIVING If you would like to give financially to the work of God through Embrace Israel Ministries, contact our office or send your tax- deductible contribution to our mailing address as indicated above. Please include your name, mailing address and phone number with all correspondence. Embrace Israel is a faith ministry supported by tax-deductible donations of friends and lovers of Israel throughout the world. Thank you!

COPYRIGHT NOTICE Duplication and re-transmission of this writing is permitted provided that complete source and contact information for Embrace Israel Ministries is included.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Floods Are Coming

Stephen Hanson

March 4, 00

And Noah and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives entered the ark to escape the waters of the flood. Gen. 7:7

17. For forty days the flood kept coming on the earth, and as the waters increased they lifted the ark high above the earth.

11. I establish my covenant with you: Never again will all life be cut off by the waters of a flood; never again will there be a flood to destroy the earth." 12. And God said, "This is the sign of the covenant I am making between me and you and every living creature with you, a covenant for all generations to come: 13. I have set my rainbow in the clouds, and it will be the sign of the covenant between me and the earth. 14. Whenever I bring clouds over the earth and the rainbow appears in the clouds, Gen. 9

"Look to Me, when the floods would come. Floods... floods.... are coming upon this earth, would say the Lord. Floods in the natural have been here, but now you would see floods in the spiritual. "

(I saw a river which was raging, and a man was in this river. As I watched, this man was caught-up in the current, with his hand and head just above the water, traveling down the current. Then this scene changed, and I watched a single leaf which was traveling down the stream, and it flowed with the stream, and it was on top of it, through various currents, up and down waterfalls, and continued down this river. There then was seen a blossom on top of this leaf, like a water lily.

Another scene was shown to me, but this time I was looking at a cityscape with skyscrapers in the distance. A river flowed next to this city, and as I watched, the river's force tore-up a bridge and it collapsed. Then I saw cars on a highway, and they seemed to be racing, as if to leave this scene and get away from the deluge.)

"My people, there are floods that are coming....floods like any other which you have seen. You have seen them in the natural as they tear-up homes and in people lives. I told Noah that I would never send another flood upon the earth, and I promised him this through the sign of the rainbow. And I warned him ahead of time so that he might build an ark. He and his family were brought to safety after the flood. "

(The Lord showed me a container which was laid-open on the floor, and it opened-up from either side. At first I thought that it was a casket, but it wasn't. As I looked at it, it was beautifully wrought, and was laid with jewels and gold, and it opened from two sides with a hinge on either side; so there were three sides in this container. As it laid there before me opened, it then appeared to be a bible. He told me: "My word is an ark of safety, for those who would come into it.")

"My dear people, when the floods come, seek shelter in my word. Seek shelter in Me alone. You will find shelter in your time of need. They will come, the floods will come, you can be assured of that. You will see floods in the violence in homes. You will see it in schools. You will see it in the rise of false prophets and teachers. You will see this as the "unrest" of many. You will see this in the natural as well. For the floods will come in natural as well. For the banks will overflow and the rivers will be filled to the brim. The waters will rise-up, but safety is in Me. Come into the ark and take refuge. "

15. Do not let the floodwaters engulf me or the depths swallow me up or the pit close its mouth over me. Ps. 59

4. the flood would have engulfed us, the torrent would have swept over us, Ps. 124

38. For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark; 39. and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. Matt. 24

48. He is like a man building a house, who dug down deep and laid the foundation on rock. When a flood came, the torrent struck that house but could not shake it, because it was well built. Luke 6

5. if he did not spare the ancient world when he brought the flood on its ungodly people, but protected Noah, a preacher of righteousness, and seven others; II Pet. 2

Stephen Hanson

*(If you would like to consider a monthly donation to this ministry, it would be greatly appreciated, but not necessary. Please feel free to pass these messages onto friends or others in the faith. Let me know if in anyway it has blessed, or brought forth "new life" in Him. Any questions may be directed to me. Thank you.)

Thank you,

Stephen Hanson 1095 Western Dr. 560 J. Colorado Springs, Colorado 80915 (719) 591-5690 (719) 591-5690 (fax)

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Father Loves You

Cease Wandering Remnant Bride

Doug Patterson

The Father Loves You

Doug Patterson

Oct 19, 2000

I have come to comfort you today, to pick you up and to hold you. I sit you upon My lap and allow you to lean into My breast to seek comfort. Your feet are dirty, I shall clean them. You need a change of clothes for your garments are tattered. I will take you shopping for a new outfit. I want you to know that My heart is for you for I love you dearly My children. I never ever will abandon you or leave you alone. I smile upon you every day. I am seeking your face for I want to see into your eyes. The beauty of the Lord shall cover you and you shall be changed into My image. The fires have not gone out. The passion for your call, your purpose and your destiny still burn deep inside of you.

Some may have circumstances which have stopped the move of the Spirit. Though it be delayed, it shall not be denied you. For I am coming and bringing you into a time of restoration. Have hope in Me. Allow Me to simply hug you for I am placing My arms around you as you are leaning upon Me and resting in Me. I embrace you. It is like a covering on a cool day, a blanket of peace and security to know that you are with Me and I am with you.

You shall be clothed in My splendor. My Spirit shall blow a wind that will stir up the flame within and cause a new strength to come in to that passion in your heart. For you shall really burn with My desire to go forward. Let's do this together, you shall not walk alone. Many of your brothers and sisters in the Lord will come by your side and stand with you and help you. It will even be My hands and My heart extended. Love one another, encourage one another speak well of one another.

Our relationship will grow and increase for you are My delight and I abide upon you and in you. So rest in Me. Drink deep of the living water for your soul shall thirst and be filled, satisfied with My living word. Provision will follow you. Increased revelation will be upon your mind. But the greatest of all will be the assurance that the Father loves you forever.

Cease Wandering Remnant Bride

Doug Patterson

October 20, 2000

Listen carefully My Bride for the sound of My trumpet. The blast has sounded from the mountain of the Lord. An assembly is being called at this present time, so come and gather together in My name and seek My face. Do not be wandering in the darkness or the wilderness. Do not be set apart or isolated but gather together to have communion with Me.

The wandering warriors and wandering worshippers shall hear the call as they move towards the mountain of the Lord. They shall be redeemed in their steps, strengthened and encouraged. The intercessors pray for you, even now that your hearts would become ablaze with the glory of the Lord.

Increase your steps, take charge of your mind and your actions. Sharpen your ear gate and hear the voice of the Lord. Has the trumpet not sounded? Indeed you have heard correctly and your eyes will see the pathway to walk upon. Assemble in the sanctuary. Gather for new instructions. I am calling the royal priesthood to come into servanthood.

I am gathering a remnant group to have communion with each other. For as you prefer your brother and your sister and help them pursue their needs, their heart, their desire in Christ, you shall be blessed. It shall be given back to you pressed down and running over.

Harvest belongs to you for I give you charge over the fields, over the land and over the seed. Speak to the elements to declare the sun and its warmth to be upon your crop. Speak to the rain to come and yield its refreshing dew drops. Speak to your soul to magnify the Lord every day. It is a time of instruction. It is a time of reinforcement. It is a time of great joy.

The Father is seeking a remnant bride for His Son who is the greatest remnant warrior the world could ever know. He is coming back to take His possessions and to sweep His Bride up into His arms. For He desires to go forward with the Body unified as the army of the Lord to fulfill the purposes of God as it has been written in His Living Word.

Intercessors For Jesus Ministries P.O. Box 172 Fergus, Ontario N1M 1N0

Now He who searches the heart knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

Romans 8:27 - NKJ

The Forces Of Darkness Are Gathering

Ros Henderson

It seems the Lord is speaking to the Prophets across the world, to begin to prepare ourselves for the coming battle ahead. The Lord is raising up, the intercessors, and renewing their zeal for prayer! The Lord is telling The prayer Warriors, start praying over the nations of the earth, start binding and breaking the forces of evil, in the dark places! For the forces of darkness are gathering, their battle plans are set!

And I said Lord what shall we do ? The Lord spoke and said Gather ye the eagles, speak to my body and tell them to prepare! for the coming battle lays shortly ahead!

Put on the whole armor of God- leave nothing off- gird your loins with the belt of truth- put on the breastplate of righteousness! I tell you now, leave nothing off! for the enemy is looking for the weak spots- There spies have entered the camps! they are searching out the weak links, to break the front lines down!

Warn my people watchmen! speak to them the truth! the enemy is coming! to the battle ground you must go! warn my body! tell them to prepare! let the weak say I am strong! Send the eagles out, so that they may soar above in the heavenlies! let them spy out where the enemy has set camp! Let them warn my foot soldiers, the enemy draws near! I say again gird your loins up, and run, weaken not your step! prepare ye the way! hearken unto the voice of the Lord! cry out to the nations! speak to my people! tell them the truth! the enemy is on the move! for his days have become short! he desires to destroy my workmanship- the work of my hands! Come all you people of the land- speak out on the authority of my word! hasten unto the battle field. For the time is set, and the hour is come! The mighty of God shall go out, to fight the enemy!

Only be strong, alert and courageous all you people of the land, says the Lord and work! For I am with you says the Lord of Hosts.

God Bless
Ros

Bill, my inner spirit is hearing the warning calls of the Lord- We need to warn the whole body of believers to renew their commitment to the Lord! many are not wearing the full armor of God! many have become complacent- Yet they do not know how close we are to the biggest battle of our lives! The enemy has set camp- the battle plans are laid- the people of the earth are being corrupted and deluded, they see nothing of what is happening in the spiritual realm- Yet I see legions and legions of the enemy lined up, row after row- there are no gaps between them. They stand ready and prepared to destroy us- What will we do! shall we run and hide or shall we prepare for the coming battle lay lays closely ahead. I say let us fight!

amen

Glory be to God

Faith 2000 Australia

<http://www.q-net.net.au/~goldmint/>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Fire of Heaven Company

Gone On To Be With Jesus

Becky McLendon

The Fire of Heaven Company

Becky McLendon

"The "Fire of Heaven" company has stood, for I AM have stood up in them. They have been held back for so long, but now they stand ready, for I am ready. The vast army of pride, lawlessness and lack of conscience is enlisted in an army that LOST THE BATTLE 2000 years ago. The "FIRE OF HEAVEN" company is equipped to say so! This has been silenced too long, but "for such a time as this, " My Esthers come forth, willing to perish for My integrity in the land.

"The "Fire of Heaven" company has a word for you OH COUNCIL OF UNHOLINESS ...it is this" YOU HAVE LOST. YOU HAVE LOST!! YOU HAVE LOST! " The council of Unholiness would want to take My people down for this but they will NOT prevail. For I AM stands in them.

"Imprecations come forth through the "Fire of Heaven People." The time has come for an end to the kingdom of darkness. Pray to Me the destruction of this kingdom. The time to say to darkness, "Your kingdom has an END to it and you are weighed in the balances and are found wanting," has come.

"The "Fire of Heaven" company now say these things. The Fire comes from teachers in schools, parents, preachers, prophets, people in the streets, on their jobs, news casters, political figures and young people ...but the declaration that the kingdom of Darkness has been numbered and has an end to it, GOES FORTH. The declaration that this kingdom CAN NO LONGER SUPPORT ANYTHING goes forth. The declaration that DIVISION and DOWNFALL to this kingdom goes forth.

"The "Fire of Heaven" company does NOT fear man. They fear ME. This people has a job to do for ME and they will do it, not even paying attention to man's efforts to distract them and get them into a program or agenda. They do not cringe at the hot breath of religion who hates them. They do not cringe at what MAN says to them to threaten them back into seclusion. They have a JOB to do for ME and they will do it! Consider My first Apostles. These do the same.

"The "Fire of Heaven" Company has a shaft of flames in their throats for My words to come out of their mouths. The mantle is upon them to prophesy to the darkness and disperse it with LIGHT. Darkness is divided and fallen because of the LIGHT. The "Fire of Heaven" KNOWS Me and therefore has the AUTHORITY to carry out the Vengeance of the Lord upon the kingdom of Darkness.

"Their heels have been bruised for too long. NOW they crush MY ENEMIES under their feet. Why? For the sake of My kingdom which has NO end!

"Prepare oh EARTH for the "Fire of Heaven" company! For they are HERE with SHIELD OF FAITH to quench fiery darts. With the SWORD of the Spirit to pierce, and divide asunder what is against ME. I am jealous for My people and that JEALOUSY is infused in this company. Oh Earth they are here. Look up, for all of creation looks Up, redemption draweth nigh."

Amen.

Becky (Wayfarer)

Gone On To Be With Jesus
Becky McLendon

As Christians we refer to fellow Christians who have died as "Gone home to be with the Lord" or "Gone on to be with Jesus". It is always in reference to physical death. But can we take these euphemisms for a stark reality and apply them to the lives of those who live a life caught up into God. The goal of every true believe is to "go on to be with Jesus" but that here on earth. It is the walk of Enoch.

Enoch walked with God and so tuned himself in to God that he "was not". Things of this world meant nothing to him anymore. He experienced a death to his selfish nature and took on the character (Name) of Jesus. Therefore every thing he did, asked or said was in His Name.

The true Bride of Christ is coming to that. She, dead to the old "man", will "go on to be with Jesus". She has received her Inheritance here on earth, not in the "sweet by and by " where it won't accomplish anything on earth, but HERE.

The Lord has come to His temple on EARTH to settle down and take the throne there. We are the temple of the Holy Spirit HERE on earth. As we leave behind the lusts of the flesh and the soulish mindsets that tie us to this world system, and "go on to be with Jesus," religion gets furious. One who has "gone on to be with Jesus" has shucked religion as part of those mindsets that hold one back.

Equate this "going on to be with Jesus" = Asking and doing IN THE NAME OF JESUS. Pause and reflect on all the scriptures where Jesus says "do this in MY Name."

Equate this: The NAME OF JESUS = THE CHARACTER, NATURE OF JESUS.

Equate this: "going on to be with Jesus = being partakers of the Divine Nature.

Equate this: "going on to be with Jesus" = being joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

With these equations the answer is THIS: going on to be with Jesus is accomplished here on earth NOW.

The KINGDOM OF GOD IS AT HAND.

Lets go on to be with Jesus.

Becky

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Final Round!

Gabriele Gause

The final round

About 3 weeks ago these thoughts came to me and I felt it was a prophetic picture of what was going on in the church. I felt like we had been in a boxing match and that we are entering the final round where opponents go for the knock-out punch. I feel the Lord is calling us and preparing us for a higher level of warfare. It needs to be strategic and focused. It needs to manifest in and through the corporate body of Christ.

Prepare for war

Isa. 42:13 The Lord will march out like a mighty man, like a warrior he will stir up his zeal; with a shout he will raise the battle cry and will triumph over his enemies. The Lord says: "My children you are the arrows in my quiver. Many have said unto me, Here am I, send me. I have been stretching my bow and am now releasing it to launch you out into the harvest to pierce the darkness and to hit the mark."

The release of power

The bow represents the release of his power. The arrow is lined up with the eye when being shot. We need to line up with his vision and say: "Here am I, send me" in order to be launched out by his power. This is a place of surrender! The Lord has been stretching us, there has been much pressure applied and now if we line up with his vision he will release his power to launch us out. This is not a hard thing with the Lord at all. It is by the release of his finger which has been stretching the string of the bow that launches the arrows that have lined up with his eye. It's like the snap of a finger to him. All we have to do is line up with his eye and in surrender entrust our lives as an arrow into his hand and we will be launched to hit the mark he sets before us. We don't set our own.

Post a lookout

We will not be able to win this final round in our own strength or with our own methods. I have also seen a vision of a football game where we as the kingdom of God team were advancing, but the kingdom of darkness team brought out his bully defense to oppose and stop us. I could hear helmets clashing and swords clinging. The Lord said: "You must get a new strategy from me in order to continue to advance. The enemy has found out your tactics and has devised a counterstrategy to oppose you. He is looking for weak spots and links to break through and push you back." Then I saw a coach up above the stands who is posted as a lookout to oversee the game. This lookout represents the prophets and prophetic intercessors for strategic warfare, who are stationed as watchmen to oversee the battlefield and to report what they see and hear in order to bring God's kingdom team into offensive advancement and victory.

Oil the shields

Isa.21:5-7 They set the tables, they spread the rugs, they eat, they drink! Get up, you officers, oil the shields! This is what the Lord says to me: "Go, post a lookout and have him report what he sees. When he sees chariots with teams of horses, riders on donkeys or riders on camels, let him be alert, fully alert." (for more insight read Isa. chapter 21 and 22) The Lord is saying through this to the leaders (the officers) in the kingdom of God, the time of spreading the table, eating and drinking are over, it's time to oil the shields, get ready for battle. 2 Samuel 1:19,21 "Your glory, O Israel, lies slain on your heights. How the mighty have fallen! O mountains of Gilboa, (Gilboa means fountain of ebullition) may you have neither dew nor rain, nor fields that yield offerings of grain. For there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, the shield of Saul - no longer rubbed with oil." Saul represent the flesh, our own strength and ways, the traditions and mindsets of man.

Our faith - the knock-out punch

It's time to heed the voice of the prophets and don't delay. We are coming into the last round of the boxing match and we need to prepare for the knockout punch. We need to line up with God's vision like arrows are lined up to the eye to be shot in order to be launched in his power to hit the mark. We are called to fight the good fight of faith. The God of peace shall soon crush Satan underneath our feet, if we will obey him. Oiling the shields represents practicing our faith. We need to be doers of the word. We need the power of the Holy Spirit, the anointing rubbed all over us, for victory. This is the victory that overcomes this world, even our faith. Will Jesus find faith in the earth when he comes? Faith without works is dead (knocked out) !

The Lord's arrows of victory

2 Kings 13:15-19 tells the story of Elisha telling Jehoash the king of Israel to get a bow and arrows, to open the window and shoot. Elisha said: "The Lord's arrows of victory," and he declared that Israel would completely destroy their enemy the Arameans. Then he told Jehoash to take arrows and strike the ground. He struck it three times and stopped. Elisha was angry with him saying: "You should have struck the ground five or six times; then you would have defeated Aram and completely destroyed it. But now you will defeat it only three times." It is time to strike the knock-out punch on our enemies. As a corporate body we need to strike and break the false and faulty foundations, the foundations of wickedness in our land and restore the foundation of righteousness and truth, declaring and securing victory over our enemies. In the name of the Lord we cut them off. The Lord has declared us to be his arrows of victory, but we must line up with his word. He is calling us to be faithful and persistent in striking the ground until we have complete victory in advancing his kingdom. Matth. 11:12 Since the day of John the Baptist the kingdom of God has been forcefully advancing and forceful men lay hold of it.

May we lay hold of it !

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Fullness Of Time

Bill Burns

August 6, 2000:

It is by My Spirit that I bring you into the fullness of time. You have heard that word preached to you, the fullness of time, but it has been an abstract word to you. You have not reasoned with yourselves, and you have not come to the understanding that the counsel that is birthed in the depth of your heart that comes forth ushered out by the living water will bring you the understanding and truth that the fullness of time has come. The generation that is now upon this earth shall walk in the fullness of those things that I am bringing forth by way of restoration. And, I say that that fullness is bringing forth the power of My Spirit in a new dimension where all of the water that flows out of your innermost being shall become a distilled dew that shall fall upon those around you and cause life to be given unto them. In that water shall flow revelation. In that water shall flow truth. In that water shall flow deliverance. In that water shall flow healing, for it is My purpose to set My people free. I have come to deliver every captive, and Satan will no longer hold those who will release the waters that I have deposited within their hearts through the word of God and mix that word with faith. Then, the water shall flow forth producing life, and every place it flows healing shall spring forth.

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

August 7, 2000:

I am preparing you to be a water spout, for I am beginning to pour out My Spirit in greater magnitude than you have ever known. But, I will pour into those who have also made themselves an outlet. I will not pour into stagnant pools or broken cisterns, for these do not foster life in My kingdom. Nor will I pour into pools where My living water will become bitter or brackish. I seek vessels to pour through who have no selfish motives, who will not keep for themselves that which I wish to pour through them to bring life to another. I say to you, prepare your hearts then both to receive and to give. Let My love flow through you unhindered by selfish desire or prejudice or laziness.

August 8, 2000:

Watch out! The enemy is going to try to stop the flow of My Spirit through you. He will do it by speaking lies. He has come to kill, steal and to destroy. But, he can only bring his wicked schemes to pass if you walk in the flesh instead of moving by the Spirit. The first thing he will try to do is kill the life of Christ in you through condemnation. Then, he will steal your boldness in an effort to shut you up. Finally, he will destroy your sense of worth in My kingdom and render you ineffective. But, I say to you that if you stay in faith and believe My word instead of his lies, he will have no inroad. I have given you authority to trample on all the works of the enemy so that nothing shall by any means hurt you. So, rise up in victory and walk in the truth of My word, for the devil is a liar and the father of lies.

August 9, 2000:

I am going to cause you to step out of the shadows and obscurity into luminous exposure. Listen to Me! I am going to eradicate every trace of darkness that has tried to keep you shrouded and hidden. Enough is enough! The enemy has hindered My work long enough. It is time to break through those barriers and break down the walls that have kept you from moving in absolute liberty. For, indeed, I am pouring out My Spirit in greater ways than you have ever experienced. It will be like the Jordan River at flood stage, overflowing its banks, moving too rapidly to contain or control. Get ready for a faith explosion!

August 11, 2000:

Yesterday as I was coming home from church, I got caught in a traffic jam created by road construction and had to sit and wait about half an hour. This is not a usual occurrence for this country girl! My wait wasn't exactly full and grace and patience, but I became interested in the cars ahead of me and the cars behind me. The people got out of their vehicles and stretched, and after awhile it was obvious to me that the several cars ahead of me were traveling together and looked like a group of boys probably ages 12-14 possibly going camping. They were out of their cars playing and teasing one another. The two or three cars behind me also seemed to be traveling together, and they were foreigners--I believe Spanish speaking, and they started to party. They turned up their music from their car radio and began to dance on the highway. And, I was reminded of the scripture Matthew 24:38-39, "For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be." My attention was then drawn to the 55 mph speed limit sign that was just before me, and the Lord spoke to my heart that Isaiah chapter 55 is just ahead of us. The entire chapter is powerful; it is a plea to people both domestic and foreign to come to Jesus, to seek Him while He may be found and for the wicked to forsake his way and the unrighteous to forsake his thoughts and receive the Lord's forgiveness. The Lord extends an invitation to enter into an everlasting covenant of the sure mercies of David. Then, verse 12 sounds like revival to me: "For you shall go out with joy and be led out with peace; the mountains and the hills shall break forth into singing before you." There seems to be no doubt that we are living in the very end of the age; the time is short, and the Lord is calling out, "Ho! Everyone who thirsts, come to the waters." The river of life is flowing, and we are invited to come and presumably to compel those who don't know Him to come. Luke 14:23 "Then the master said to the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.'"

August 12, 2000:

Keep your vessel clean and pure, for what I am about to pour through you now must not be contaminated by selfish motives, selfish desires, bitterness, or any unclean thing. I want My message to come forth through My chosen vessels in absolute purity. For many would rise up and despise My proceeding word, and you must be blameless. I tell you the truth, the enemy has stirred up those who would issue forth a cry of heresy. These are dissidents being released to undermine the work of My kingdom now and to shut the mouths of My servants.

Faith Tabernacle
111 North Fourth
P. O. Box 1148
Kremmling, CO 80459
<http://ft111.com>
ft111@uswest.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Gagging of the Prophets

Hollie Moody

When I hear from the Lord, I seem to hear Him speak to me with words. At the same time, I also "see" what the Lord is speaking to me about. This is just the way I seem to personally hear from the Lord. We all hear from the Lord in a way that is unique to us and to our natures and personalities. With this as way of explanation, I submit the following to the judgment and discernment of all of you.

I seemed to see a large group of people gathered before the Lord. They appeared excited. The Lord was speaking to them. As He spoke to them, it was as if I could actually see His words entering into these people. The Lord's words were being put into their hearts, and then would come out of their mouths. When the Lord's words proceeded out of their mouths, the people would turn around (with their backs towards the Lord), then they would speak God's words to other people spread out before them. When they were finished speaking God's words, they would turn back towards the Lord.

This continued for a time. I then saw the Lord reach out, and put His hands over the mouths of the people gathered before Him. This stunned and surprised the people, and they became very still. Their eyes were totally focused upon the Lord. There was no movement, nothing to distract anyone. There was an absolute stillness and calmness.

Another, smaller, group of people came from behind the people who had the Lord's hands over their mouths. This smaller group of people stood before the "gagged" group of people and began to speak to them. As I listened to their words, and observed their actions, I gradually became aware that this small group of people were "teachers," and that they were "teaching" the gagged group of people.

When the "teaching session" was over, some of the teachers departed. A few remained with the gagged group of people. The Lord removed His hands from the mouths of the large group of people. Even when the Lord had removed His hands, the large group of people remained very still and calm. They remained silent and quiet.

"Why aren't they saying anything?" I asked the Lord.

"Because I have not put My words into their mouths yet," the Lord replied. He seemed pleased with the silence of the large group of people. "For a season, I allowed My prophets to speak freely whatever I spoke to them. That time has ended. They will speak only what I tell them to speak, only when I tell them to speak it. I have brought a season of training and teaching into My church. For a season, the prophets will speak very little. This is their time to learn to wait fully and totally upon Me. They will continue to hear from Me, yet very little of what I speak to them during this time, will I release them to speak to the church."

As I pondered and prayed about this vision and conversation with the Lord, I felt that a time of intense training has come upon the church. I feel that for a time, we will hear fewer prophecies, visions and words from the Lord. This will be supplemented and replaced for a season by those with a great deal of wisdom, understanding and knowledge of spiritual matters. These are the people I feel the church will be hearing from in the coming days. Their voices of reason will serve as a foundation for the coming move of God, when He releases into His church once again the voice of the prophets. When the great company of prophets begins to speak forth God's words into His church once again, they will do so with greater understanding and wisdom and maturity.

It is a wounded generation we will be reaching. Our words must be seasoned with honey and with salt. Those who are more mature and wise, and less rash and impulsive, will be teaching and training the prophets and those in ministerial positions (as well as all members of God's body) how to effectively reach out to and minister to these wounded ones. Until then, for a short period of time, this could very well be the season of "the gagging of the prophets."

In Him,

Hollie L. Moody

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Garbage Dump People

Jim Bramlett

The below story is one of the most fascinating I have ever heard. It comes from a reliable Christian friend. I first heard it last year but was able to document the details only a few days ago. It demonstrates the power of God's love to penetrate even the most closed cultures when His people are willing to lay down all for the Savior and take up His cross. It also demonstrates the outpouring of God's Spirit in these last days.

A missionary couple had been laboring in a certain Muslim country that I will not name for purposes of protection. They had become terribly discouraged in their attempts to share the gospel with the Muslims there, and they were about to quit and go home. However, they first decided to take a few days to fast and pray, asking the Lord for direction and guidance.

To their surprise, during this period of seeking, the Lord gave them this simple instruction, "Go to the garbage dump people." (In my humble experience, whenever God really speaks to us it is usually very succinct -- short, to the point, with few words, very direct. I am always wary of long dissertations purportedly from God.)

The garbage dump people lived on the outskirts of this large Muslim city, the last people group anyone would normally ever want to visit. There are thousands of people there who literally live in the garbage dump. They have no other place to live. They actually comprise a city built on top of all the garbage. "Homes" are typically cardboard boxes. (My friend has photos.) People live off of what they find in the garbage. The stench is described as terrible.

The missionary couple hesitated, humanly not really wanting to go, but they decided that if the Lord was speaking to them they had better obey. (Good idea.)

They soon began an outreach to the garbage dump people. God's anointing was obviously on the effort because after only a short time they had 30-40 people gathering around them for a Bible study in the garbage dump. In less than a year, 800-900 people were gathering every time the missionaries went in to preach and teach, which was three times a week. They soon began to see God's wisdom in this unique ministry. The garbage dump was a totally protected place because no one, including the authorities, wanted to go in there to interfere with what they were doing.

One day, their numbers having reached into the hundreds, they were talking with one of the oldest men of the garbage dump city. They told him that somehow they were going to have to find some shelter so that the assembled people would have some cover from the elements. The old man said, "When I was just a child, many years ago, some of the old people at that time said that there was a cave, and far down into the cave there is a meeting place. I remember being taken in there as a young boy. I think I could take you there again." They agreed to come back and go with the old man.

The missionaries soon returned with friends and flashlights. The old man led them to a back part of the garbage dump with a lot of rock formations. He then took them to the opening of a very large cave. They all entered the cave and walked and walked, for about 45 minutes. Finally, at the end, there was a turn, and then to their astonishment they saw an enormous, incredibly well-preserved theater! It was like one of those in the Roman times we have seen in pictures. It was in immaculate condition, obviously preserved from ancient times by the unusual climate. They discovered there was seating for about 5,000 people!

The missionaries began to use that underground theater as the meeting place and as the church. God began to fill the place with garbage dump people. It was not long before every seat in the whole theater was filled, and it was not unusual for lines of Muslims waiting to give testimonies of salvation to go down both sides of the theater, to the left and the right, all the way to the back. These were all Muslims who had come to faith in Jesus Christ, many of them after a supernatural experience, with Jesus appearing to them in dreams and visions, a phenomenon in Muslim countries we have heard about from other reliable sources. Services sometimes go on for hours.

All this happened because the Father's love through the Holy Spirit stirred in the hearts of two people -- a committed missionary couple -- who said, "yes," and who were willing to lay down their lives, personal ambitions, ego and pride for Jesus, and preach in a filthy, stinking Muslim garbage dump.

I marvel at God's wisdom and how He loves and remembers the lowly.

To Him be all the glory, honor and praise!

Jim

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Gate

Bob Neumann

bneumann@netrox.net May 15, 2000

THE GATE

Last night was one for the books. Whose books I am not so sure, but there is a strange level of humor involved. Say a side of THE LAMB few have seen because they have never followed or abided on HIS TERMS or by HIS RULES. Maybe that is the final "interpretation" of this early morning romp in THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT. Let whoever reads this decide what it means to them. I know what it means to me....that is hard and heavy enough...the second more so than the first....

So here was the 'first' image. I saw a part of a city. Not a modern city at all. It was a city with a wall around it. The second image was so different that it makes this first one stand out. I was looking down at a GATE in this walled city. It was shortly after sunrise and I watched as people entered through the GATE. Large numbers of people walking with bundles and push carts, wagons and even a "caravan" or two. All had business in the "city" and it was lively. Call it a marketplace or a "town center", both seem to fit.

I watched as people ran to and fro through the day and as night began to fall I watched the people who had come in the morning rush to leave. This puzzled me at the time. I watched as the "guards" at the GATE close the heavy wooden Gate and place bars to secure it. In the massive GATE there was a small door. It too, was barred and closed, and in my spirit I knew it was THE EYE OF THE NEEDLE that JESUS had spoke about.

What "caught" my attention was that numerous people were "caught" inside the city when the GATE was closed. Now the guards were numerous and well "turned out". All dressed in fine armor and strutted in front of the "unlucky ones" who were too late to get out. I watched as several individuals and families approached the "guards" and were either quickly turned down or just simply ignored. Occasionally a guard was approached and a "deal" was made. Sometimes a quick move of hands occurred and the EYE OF THE NEEDLE would open and some would "escape" the city. Funny how the term "ESCAPE" was spoken in my spirit.

Regrettably most of the "caught" people were turned away. Their faces told a strange story of fear and resignation as they turned back into the city. The sun was well set when a fancy cart pulled up to the GATE and a man in very ornate armor climbed down from the wagon. I watched this "officer" order the GATE opened. It was obvious wealth did have it's privileges as the wagon departed and the GATE was closed. Later the scene was repeated for a fairly large caravan escorted by several civilians. Obviously "elder statesman" types as the crooked guards/watchmen bowed and scurried to open the GATE. This time there was open payoff to the politicians who gave each of the guards their "cut".

Later I watched as slowly the guards/watchmen "leave/desert" their post and go into the city proper. Eventually there were only a few left when the "late escapers" began to show. First was a man with a heavy knapsack. He approached one guard and "cut a deal". Half of what had been in the knapsack was missing by the time the EYE was opened. What caught my attention was the EYE was not re-barred. I watched the scene repeated over and over as people came and most left all their "worldly goods" to get out. Each "deal" was a story in itself. But not all the "late escapers" got to go through the EYE. The last one I will mention is the one that seemed most "heinous" and "offensive". But also told me how desperate things were. There was a "family" trying to "get out". A man, a woman, and three children. Boys or girls I could not tell...ages four to eight is a guess. The man approached guard after guard and no "deal" was cut. Obviously there was neither coin nor merchandise acceptable to buy their way out. Eventually I watched as they approached a guard for the second time. Now the woman and children also approached with the man. I watched the man speak and then the woman. I watched the guard laugh and turn his back to them.

They approached another guard and the scene was repeated. Then a third guard was approached, but he did not laugh. Instead he spoke with a smile on his face. He reached out and touched the head of the largest child. I watched the woman's eyes show utter terror as she pulled the child away. Now the guard laughed but watched them as they went to another guard. Again the scene repeated itself. But this time the woman did most of the speaking. This guard was quiet and listened as the man moved the children away. The guard reached out as the women opened the dress exposing part of her chest. And I knew "one more deal" had been cut. The guard pulled the woman to the side and opened the EYE for the man and the children. Later he opened it to the woman after his "payment" was "transacted".

Now all this sickened me but I understood little of the "why" of these people so desperate to leave. and then things changed...for me. Next thing I knew I was walking toward the GATE. Armor on, shield up, and spear in hand. What had been a company of 30-40 men when the GATE was closed was maybe seven or eight when the "NIGHT WATCHMEN" arrived. I was one of the six who relieved the GATE guards. I watched as the 'off going' guards laughed and spoke as they too returned to the city.

I thought what kind of city is this? I could have asked, "why am I here?" but did not. Seems like this was more than a FYI scenario. I stood leaning on my spear listening to "the city" and hoping to hear THE VOICE OF THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT. Instead I heard "music" and "song", laughter and shout of anger. In a very weird way I realized this was "just another Saturday Night in the BIG CITY". I watched and listened as the city slowly became quiet. I also noticed that THE NIGHT GUARD was asleep in their shadows, all comfy and content. I was thinking for some reason that "dawn" would be soon when the attack came. The first sign that we were under attack was when the GATE crashed in. The huge GATE and it's heavy bars were rotten and shattered easily. I watched as the other Guards crawled from their corners to be overrun by the enemy. As soon as the GATE was crashed I had struck the alarm bell/triangle thing. From around the city trumpets blew.

For some idiotic reason I stood alone with spear and shield alone in the Road of THE GATE. It was a point of mixed emotions. I had no "love" for this evil city or the Guards I was a member of. So why was I here? Unlike before the question was asked. Especially looking at the army coming though the GATE. They were humanoid, walking on two legs, but were exactly like the shadow beings of past visions. But now in solid form. AS THE ARMY OF DARKNESS ADVANCED two things happened....I was suddenly again above the GATE watching the scene unfold....and I heard a scripture....

"In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people, And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate."

Now that was from Isaiah 28....and I realized that I had watched Isaiah 28 played out for me.

THEN....I heard HIS VOICE...."THERE ARE THOSE WHO WILL DO ANYTHING TO FLEE SODOM....EVEN NOW AS THE NIGHT ADVANCES. SOME WILL PAY A HEAVY PRICE TO ESCAPE. HAVE PITY ON THEM WHO FLEE THE WRATH TO COME, EVEN IN THIS LATE HOUR."

and that is where the first image ended....

selah

dog

THE BREACH
Bob Neumann

THE BREACH Unlike THE GATE which seemed ancient this vision was not. Instead of a walled city it was a wooden wall right out of Hollywood and Cecil B DeMille or Howard Hawks or the like. It was the standard frontier fort. Trees chopped down and placed in a line. Not a great hindrance to an attacker. But functional, especially if the "defenders" were more honorable and dependable than the false watchmen and guards from the gate. Only I am not sure they are because none were seen. Unlike THE GATE it began and ended in the NIGHT. The wall stood quietly and suddenly there was an "explosion". Lots of sound, sudden flash, and thick smoke. Suddenly there was a "GAP" in the defenses...the wall had been cleanly and efficiently breached The next thing I knew I was standing in the breach with several "others". Have no idea where they came from or even how many there were. This time I was not alone...and I was going to "fight" it out.

The problem was when the enemy attacked they came with much shouting and noise so all who stood in THE BREACH faced the enemy and waited. Again they were the humanoid shadow beings, and were intent to enter. In the first assault we were pushed back briefly but retook THE BREACH. After a short moment to regroup the enemy attacked again. This time we held and the enemy seemed to be about to retreat when we were attacked from behind. Then the fun began. NO...it was not fun...it was horrible.

After what seemed like forever the battle ended. There were just three of "us" left standing in THE BREACH. The bodies were stacked in all directions. The smoke burned both eyes and skin. The smell was nauseating. I looked at my two comrades and I guess the look on my face matched theirs. In but a few moments the enemy re-gathered in large numbers both to our front and behind us. It was then I realized I had no idea which way I was turned. Was the enemy trying to get "in" or get "out". It made no sense.

Scripture states GOD looked for a man to "stand in the gap". In fact it is the only time the term GAP is used in the King James.

30 And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none.

31 Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord GOD.

This vision ended. But was the enemy climbing over the fallen to get through the GAP? Or to destroy those who stood in the GAP? Either way there were far more of the enemy in the city than those defending the GAP. Ezekiel says GOD found no man to stand. Ezekiel also said.....

8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field: and he shall make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

9 And he shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.

10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.

11 With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets: he shall slay thy people by the sword, and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground.

12 And they shall make a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy merchandise: and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy thy pleasant houses: and they shall lay thy stones and thy timber and thy dust in the midst of the water.

13 And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard.

14 And I will make thee like the top of a rock: thou shalt be a place to spread nets upon; thou shalt be built no more: for I the LORD have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

AS THE LAST ATTACK came I was suddenly pulled upward and away. I stood in eternity wondering what had happened when I heard THE VOICE OF THE KING. "WERE THEY TRYING TO GET OUT OR GET IN, DOG?"

Now that was a question I had come up with myself. But I still had no answer. Except HIS WORDS earlier about having PITY on those trying to escape SODOM. Suddenly I felt a deep grief and I recalled Jeremiah's WORDS about the wounds of the virgin daughter. And the call to return to the ancient paths.

"WHY ARE YOU GRIEVING OLD FRIEND?", HE ASKED. I did not know why I felt this "loss" in my spirit. I thought of those refused passage out of the city. But I also remembered all who entered the city in the morning and the day. Why do business with a city as evil and as carnal as this city was? If I am to grieve I should grieve for those who fell in the line of duty, those who died in the breach....but I felt no grief for them.

So I waited and listened. I remembered the battle in the breach and tried to identify any difference between those on the inside and those on the outside. There was none. And then I heard THAT LAUGH. I had to smile for I knew HIS LAUGHTER. "WHY OLD DOG DO YOU PONDER SUCH THINGS. YOU CAN NOT FIND SOMETHING THAT IS NOT THERE. THE DEMON ENTRENCHED AND CONFIRMED IN MY FLOCK LOOKS NO DIFFERENT THAN ANY OTHER DEMON FROM THE PIT. HIS SURROUNDING ARE MORE DIGNIFIED, HIS GARMENTS ARE RICH AND COSTLY, HIS ACQUAINTANCES ARE UNIQUELY RELIGIOUS. BUT HE IS STILL A DEMON.

"AS FOR THE PEOPLE, EITHER THEY ARE FOR ME OR AGAINST ME. EVEN RATS WILL LEAVE A SHIP THAT IS SINKING OR A HOUSE THAT IS BURNING. SO SHALL SO MANY, BOTH MAN AND DEMON TRY TO FLEE MY WRATH."

At that point I was back to the here and now, and dawn was minutes away. Being a good husband and father I set out to do some chores before waking the kids for school. I took the garbage out to the street and looked to the east. The night was pierced by the "false dawn" and the sky was a magnificent red color. The song of our resident turtledoves was loud and noticeable with the assorted songs of larks and other birds. And suddenly all were still as I recalled the old adage...RED SKY AT NIGHT, SAILORS DELIGHT...BUT RED SKY AT MORNING, SAILORS TAKE WARNING!.....SO I WAS WARNED....now what do I do with it.

I went in and opened THE WORD....and looked up GAP and BREACH.... outside of UZZAH nothing pushed my button till I came to the last "BREACH".... JEREMIAH IN LAMENTATION WROTE.....

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee?

14 Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee: and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment.

15 All that pass by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

16 All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.

17 The LORD hath done that which he had devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their heart cried unto the Lord, O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

I got goose bumps on my goose bumps.... it is being set up.... AND IT IS WRITTEN.....

4 He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.

THE LAMB LAUGHS....

warning is given

dog

Chosen Vessels

Bob Neumann

CHOSEN VESSELS.

20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

When you read MY WORD or hear the fresh utterance of MY WORD why do you cling to the GOLD and say "yes LORD, I want to be a vessel of GOLD!""? IN MY HOUSE THERE ARE INDEED MANY VESSELS. I know for I not only chose them but I shaped them and formed them. I DO SO AS PLEASES ME. IS PLEASING ME IMPORTANT TO YOU? Or are these just more words dripping from lips whose hearts are far from ME.

IN MY HOUSE THERE ARE MANY MANSIONS. EACH ONE IS A VESSEL DESIGNED AND PLANNED OUT BY MY SON. EACH IS STRUCTURED AND FABRICATED FOR USE, AND NOT FOR SHOW. SO ALSO WAS IT FOR MY TABERNACLE. THEN AGAIN SO IS MY HOUSE FOUNDED AND ESTABLISHED. IT FUNCTIONS TO GIVE ME PLACE FOR HABITATION SO I MAY REST AND BE PLEASED.

SO CHILDREN, ARE YOU MY VESSELS? ARE YOU ROOMS IN MY PLACE OF HABITATION? THE MATERIAL I HAVE MADE YOU FROM DOES NOT SAY WHETHER YOU ARE A VESSEL OF HONOR OR NOT. FOR INDEED ARE YOU NOT ALL "EARTHEN" VESSELS? HONOR IS NOT WHAT YOU ARE MADE OF, HONOR IS BECAUSE YOU SERVE MY NEEDS AND PLEASE ME.

LIKEWISE MY CHILDREN, TOUCH NOT THE "UNCLEAN" VESSELS THAT ARE ALL AROUND YOU. YES, INDEED THEY ARE MANY. AND YES AGAIN, MOST ARE GILDED AND SILVER PLATED TO LOOK AS IF THEY WERE PURE GOLD AND SOLID SILVER. BEHOLD, FOR THIS IS PART OF THE DECEPTIONS AND DELUSIONS THAT I HAVE TRIED TO WARN YOU OF IN THIS EVIL DAY THAT YOU ARE IN. DID I NOT WARN YOU REPEATEDLY OF THIS ALSO? SO WHY ARE SO MANY OF YOU ARE IMPRESSED BY THINGS THAT I LOATH?

OH MY CHILDREN, PLEASE LISTEN AND LEARN. WERE YOU NOT TAUGHT MY WAYS? IF NOW YOU STILL DO NOT KNOW MY WAYS ISN'T IT TIME YOU SHOULD SEEK ME WITH ALL YOUR HEARTS. IF THE PLACE YOU SIT DOES NOT TEACH OF MY SON AND HIS WORDS YOU WILL NEVER LEARN OF ME. IF YOU EXPECT THE UNCLEAN VESSELS TO SUDDENLY BE CLEAN AND WHOLESOME WITHOUT BEING WASHED AND SCRUBBED BY MY HOLY SPIRIT YOU ARE DECEIVED. MANY SAY THEY HAVE REPENTED AND HAVE NOT. MANY SAY THEY HAVE BEEN CONVICTED AND CHASTENED BUT HAVE NOT. THEY SAY THE WORDS THEY KNOW YOU EXPECT TO HEAR. FOR THEY KNOW YOU WELL. DECEIVED YOU WELL FOR SO VERY LONG.

KNOW MY VESSELS AS YOU KNOW THE TREES I HAVE PLANTED FOR INDEED THEY ARE THE SAME. MY PLANTINGS BEAR MY FRUIT. TASTE THEM AND YOU TASTE MY SWEETNESS. TOUCH THE VESSELS I HONOR AND YOU WILL SEE OBEDIENCE TO MY WILL AND FUNCTIONAL SERVICE THAT PLEASES ME.

SO CHOOSE NOW CHILDREN WHAT DO YOU WANT TO BE?

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Gatekeeper

Gary M. Carroll

kingdomkeys@urvip.net

May 20, 2000:

I had watched a movie on TV and felt a deep burden for where this country is headed. I could sense the lack of God in each commercial I watched. So alone, I began to pray and apologize to God for our country. After praying, I began to wait on the Holy Spirit. I felt His touch and His substance flow into me. I felt His heat at the beginning of His touch. And then I saw a pen of sheep. They were huddled together in a circle. They were inside an old set of corrals. And then the Holy Spirit began to speak to me about the gatekeeper to this place of safety for the sheep. This is what He said.

The gatekeeper must stand between the sheep and the gate.

The gatekeeper must be a man of power and know how to use His power.

The gatekeeper must be separated from the other sheep.

The gatekeeper must not allow the gate to be opened by the enemy when he comes to kill, steal or destroy a sheep.

The gatekeeper must lay down his life for the sheep.

All those who are gatekeepers must seek the One who is stronger than the enemy. The gatekeepers have been asleep for a long time now. But awaken, yes awaken to hear My direction to all that desire this. Be vigilant and oppose all that would side-track you. The gatekeeper is standing in My place for those who cannot stand on their own. The gatekeeper must be awake like never before.

You ask, where is this sanctuary where my sheep are huddled together in?

It is in My heart. That is the Sanctuary. And I am not willing to release my sheep to anyone that would harm them. If you see a wolf, the gatekeeper will attack it. The gatekeeper will not wait for the wolf to attack. And there are many wolves. These wolves come dressed with sheep covering. (there was a long pause) And the covering is made from many sheep carcasses. But the gatekeeper can see deeper than the covering. For the gatekeeper is given the eyes of my Spirit. What others will not see, will be seen by my gatekeepers. I need more of you and I ask my children to consider the high calling of My gatekeepers. It will be a selfless life but my rewards are rich, for I am a gatekeeper too.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Gates of Heaven

Jo Spangler

jos@hiwaay.net

I have been reading about gates lately. The subject has turned up at various Internet sites and so I began to ask the Lord to show me about gates. I hope some of you find these revelations beneficial.

Gen 28.17-19 NRSV

“And he was afraid and said “ How awesome is this place. This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.” 18 “So Jacob rose early in the morning and he took the stone which he had put under his head and set it up for a pillar and poured oil on the top of it. 19 He called the name of that place Bethel; but the name of the city was Luz at first.”

Paul tells us that first the natural then the spiritual. 1 Cor. 15” 46But it is not the spiritual that is first, but the physical, and then the spiritual”. When God met Jacob in his dispensation the house of God and gate of heaven was a physical place. But we know that this episode is a type for us spiritually. The name of the place where this happened is Luz, meaning almond. At the end of the encounter Jacob renamed the place Bethel or house of God. Let’s see what we can find out about almond.

Luz= almond tree

Strong 8247-almond- means earliest to bloom; comes from root 8245 meaning to be alert, to be sleepless, to be on the look-out or watch for, watch over anything.

Jeremiah 1.11-12

“The word of the Lord came to me: “What do you see Jeremiah?” I see the branch (rod) of an almond (8247) tree, “ I replied. 12 The Lord said to me, “You have seen correctly, for I am watching (8245) to see that my word is fulfilled.”

Strong 4731 (rod) means to germinate, or a shoot, a stick, rod, staff.

Bethel = House of God

Strong 1008-refers to an ancient city built on a mountain. (Gesenius). This same 1008 is used in Judges 20.18 -27 where the children of Israel inquired of the Lord at the house of God because the covenant of God was there in those days. Bethel is the house of God where the covenant of the Lord with His people is kept.

How do you get from being an almond tree to a house of God? In other words, how do you get from being watched over as a budding shoot to being a part of the city on a mountain that keeps covenant with its God?

The work of turning the rod of the almond (the germination of the shoot) into the house of God (city on a mountain) is God’s work. He watches over it (8245). He never rests (sleepless) but says: Isaiah 27.2-3 “In that day: “A pleasant vineyard, sing of it. I, the Lord, am its keeper; every moment I water it. Lest any one harm it, I guard it night and day;”.

The Lord watches over us as almond trees (the first to bloom) performing the word He plants in us until we become a house of God that can be established. Where does He want to establish us? He wants to establish us in the city on the mountain of Zion, in Christ. 1 Peter 5.10: “And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, support, strengthen, and establish you”.

Ps 30.7 By your favor, O LORD, you had established me as a strong mountain;

Ps 48.1 Great is the LORD and greatly to be praised in the city of our God. His holy mountain,
2 beautiful in elevation, is the joy of all the earth, Mount Zion, in the far north, the city of the great King.
3 Within its citadels God has shown himself a sure defense.

Ps 78.54 And he brought them to his holy hill, to the mountain that his right hand had won.

Jacob taking the stone he had used as a pillow and making it a pillar signifies our establishment by God Himself in this passage. At first, Jacob had taken the stone and put in “under his head”. The Stone, being Jesus, cannot be put under our head (our mind, will and emotions). In that position He is not Sovereign. When we get a revelation that our soul has done this, our proper reaction is to repent and allow Jesus to become the Head of our life.

At that point, the pillow becomes a pillar. Strongs number 4763 (pillow) literally means, “that which is at anyone’s head” (Gesenius). Pillar (Strongs number 4676) means something set upright, something which is stationed. This word has as its root 5324, which means to be set up, be stationed, to be planted, to establish boundaries.

This is not an action that can be done by humans. The word pillar used here is the same one used in Ex 13 for pillar of fire or pillar of the cloud. The connotation is that the pillar establishes the place of God. And only God can do that.

The New Testament equivalent to this establishment by God is found in Matt 28.16. Before the disciples were given the great commission they “went away unto a mountain where Jesus had appointed them.” The word appointed in Greek is Strong 5021 and means to put in place, to station, to arrange, to assign a place. This is the same meaning of the Hebrew word for pillar. Hence we find Rev 3.12 “If you conquer, I will make you a pillar in the temple of my God; you will never go out of it. I will write on you the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem that comes down from my God out of heaven, and my own new name”.

Gesenius translates Rev 3.12, as “I will assign him a firm and abiding place in the everlasting kingdom of God.” As Matt 28.16 shows, the order of God would be that we are established by Him (sent to the mountain) before we are given the great commission.

Jacob equates House of God with the gate of heaven. We are God’s temple. 1Cor 3.16-17 “Do you not know that you are God’s temple and that God’s Spirit dwells in you? 17 If anyone destroys God’s temple, God will destroy him. For God’s temple is holy, and that temple you are.” A temple of God is synonymous with a house of God. Therefore, a temple of God is a house of God is a gate of heaven.

We are the gates to the kingdom of heaven because Christ (THE GATE) is in us. John 10. 7: “So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep.” 1 Cor 12 tells us “2For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ.” We are one with Him and therefore like Him.

It is only after the Lord establishes us that He calls us to lift up our heads as in the following:

Psalm 24 7 Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that the King of glory may come in.
8 Who is the King of glory? The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, mighty in battle.

9 Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that the King of glory may come in.

10 Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Selah

I wondered for a while where He wanted to come in. After all, if He establishes us first He is obviously already in the saint whose head He is calling to be lifted up. I believe what the Lord is saying here is that we need to lift up our heads and let the King of Glory come to the earth through His true church. We are the gates by which He has access to the earth. And the time for us to lift our heads is upon us. He is calling for us to look up.

He speaks to us in this psalm to lift up our heads.. As for ancient doors, this only signifies what Paul has said all along: Eph 1.4 "just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love". We were chosen from before time. Jesus adds from John 15.27 "You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning." That is pretty ancient!!!

We are gates all our lives but most of the time what we let in is NOT the King Of Glory. What we let into the earth is the king of self or soul, one of the many kings of the world, or the prince of the power of the air. The Lord directs us to let in the King of Glory.

We have much hope for this, for He continues:

Psalm 3

O LORD, how many are my foes! Many are rising against me;

2 many are saying to me, "There is no help for you in God." Selah

3 But you, O LORD, are a shield around me, my glory, and the one who lifts up my head.

4 I cry aloud to the LORD, and he answers me from his holy hill.

Selah

And Ps 27.6 Now my head is lifted up above my enemies all around me, and I will offer in his tent sacrifices with shouts of joy; I will sing and make melody to the LORD. Again,

Psalm 9

13 Be gracious to me, O LORD. See what I suffer from those who hate me; you are the one who lifts me up from the gates of death, 14 so that I may recount all your praises, and, in the gates of daughter Zion, rejoice in your deliverance.

There are gates of death and gates of heaven. What kind of gate are we operating as? The Word says we are the gates of daughter Zion! Hallelujah! He tells us to recount His praises and rejoice in His deliverance with the "gates of daughter Zion". That could only mean those who are destined to be sons of God, the bride of Christ, the New Jerusalem, etc. We are the gates for the King of Glory. We either let Him in this world through us or His avenues are cut off.

We can lift up our heads because He is the lifter!!!! It is not us but Him. Look at what He does for our heads. Remember we are one with Christ. Whatever God does for Christ He does for us.

Psalm 21..3 For you meet him with rich blessings; you set a crown of fine gold on his head.

Ps 23.5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Ps 110.7 He will drink from the stream by the path; therefore he will lift up his head.

Ps 133.2 It is like the precious oil on the head, running down upon the beard, on the beard of Aaron, running down over the collar of his robes.

Ps 140.7 O LORD, my Lord, my strong deliverer, you have covered my head in the day of battle. But what about our enemies, whether they be internal foes or external foes? Look what the Lord does to their heads.

Ps 38.4 For my iniquities have gone over my head; they weigh like a burden too heavy for me.

Ps 140.9 Those who surround me lift up their heads; let the mischief of their lips overwhelm them!

Ps 83.2 Even now your enemies are in tumult; those who hate you have raised their heads.

Ps 68.21 But God will shatter the heads of his enemies, the hairy crown of those who walk in their guilty ways.

Ps 7.16 Their mischief returns upon their own heads, and on their own heads their violence descends.

Ps 110.6 He will execute judgment among the nations, filling them with corpses; he will shatter heads over the wide earth.

Notice that it is God who shatters the heads of His enemies; we do not do it. It is up to the Almighty to shatter our enemies; He does this first externally then begins the internal work. Many of His people will not tolerate the internal workings of the Lord because the biggest enemy of all is our own head, our soul (our mind, will and emotions). That head is DEAD, but it does not want to admit it and will do anything to make a Christian believe that it is still alive and well.

Through the mercy and grace of the Lord we can and do have victory over our heads (souls). By constant renewing of our minds and believing in God, our heads will be restored with THE HEAD, Jesus Christ. Only those with restored souls (Ps 23.3 "He restores my soul") will have heads that can be lifted up to admit the King of Glory. All un-restored heads will be letting something other than the King of Glory loose on the earth.

Hear the call, O Gates. Let the King of Glory come in. He wants to restore the earth!

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Glory Cloud

Amanda Davis

I had a dream the other night that was an experience both in sight and in feeling unlike any I have experienced before. It began as I walked into a church. As I was standing in the foyer, I noticed that all the doors into the sanctuary were wide open. This was not an unusual sight to see prior to the services beginning. But, what caught my eye was that the inside of the church no longer looked as it once did. It had become a vast valley with many villages spread out amongst it. The houses stood out amongst the lush, green meadows and beautiful flowers that surrounded them. All of a sudden, in the far distance I saw huge vertical rainbow cloud. It was a column of splendid fluid colors and it ascended as high as my eye could see. As I neared the door of the sanctuary I became aware that the cloud of colors was, in fact The Glory Cloud.

Once I realized what it was I began to run towards it. As my foot crossed the threshold of the sanctuary I was lifted up in flight and my stomach was turning as I lifted higher and higher like an eagle. I began flying so fast that I began to scream with anticipation at the thought that I was going to reach His Presence at any minute. Time seemed to stop as my body pierced the Glory Cloud. My screams were sucked back into my body and I began to float effortlessly amongst the colors. A peace enveloped my entire being and I longed to stay there forever. Regretfully, I felt myself waking from the dream and I began to softly weep because I didn't want to leave this awesome place. After I awoke I remained in this state of awesome peace for several minutes. End of Dream

Corporate Application He also showed me an application for the Body of Christ, which I humbly submit for your judgement . As I pictured the church I was impressed that the Lord was saying the end-time church was to be without walls because it will encompass the entire Earth. That His Glory Cloud will come to inhabit His Church to bring peace to all who enter in. The colors of the rainbow represents His promises of faithfulness to His children. The lush green meadows and beautiful flowers are the results of the fruitfulness of His Spirit on His people. The swift flight to the Glory Cloud spoke to me of how the Lord is wanting to move in these last days upon the Body. It will take our breath away and replace it with the peace of dwelling in His Presence.

The Scripture in Exodus 40:34 came to mind which says, 'Then the cloud covered the tabernacle of meeting and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle'. I welcome any other comments or Scriptures that may come to you as you read this.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Glory Is Coming from the East

Debbie Walters

"REMEMBER THAT DATE"

The Saturday before we arrived in Africa, we had a layover in London on our way over to Tanzania. As we got off at one of the bus stops, we saw in a storefront window a small scale replica of the Gateway Arch in St. Louis, Missouri. Steve called my attention to it. As I looked, I saw a date below it -- April 28, 1985. God said, "Remember that date." That was June 3.

SIMULTANEOUS INTERCESSION

Last night I was in our room, the Lord told me to get my Bible. Then He reminded me of the date I saw in London, and then instructed me to read Matthew 28:19 (which is of course the Great Commission). He reminded me that on June 6, during our discipleship conference, one of our team members and one of the intercessors from Bagamoyo were repenting to each other for the atrocities and wounds left by the captivity and exportation of slaves. Then God told me that at the same time they asked for forgiveness for the captives and captor in Bagamoyo, some of our own intercessors in the States happened to be in St. Louis, also praying repentance beneath the Arch!

THE GLORY IS COMING FROM THE EAST

God said the glory was released into the nations. The glory is coming from the east. Remember, Jesus will enter the City gate from the east. The gateway to the west has been opened in the spiritual. The glory is coming from the east and it is going to the nations -- it will travel around the world as those who answer the call to walk in the glory share what God is doing throughout the world. The Arch in St. Louis is called the Gateway to the West, but there was a spiritual gate there. It has been opened.

The glory is flowing from the east. I know I have repeated that -- please hear what I am saying -- THE GLORY IS COMING FROM THE EAST NOW. The gate to allow Jesus into the nations has been opened in Bagamoyo and in St. Louis. These were key places. They were opened simultaneously -- opened at same time -- and in spirit, the glory was released from Africa to America. It happened because there was repentance on both continents at the same time. The heavens were bombarded by repentance as the floodgates of heaven were opened and the glory flowed down like lava from a volcano, and is now spreading.

HEALING WATERS

The other important thing about this is that the Arch is located on the Mississippi. God says that on that day, healing was released into the waters. The Mississippi River runs through most of the United States and many tributaries are connected to it. God is sending healing waters throughout the world. Healing waters are flowing from Bagamoyo into the Indian Ocean, and because of the currents, at some point in time the waters from America the waters from Africa will touch and the consummation of the healing between these two continents will be complete. Africa will be used to touch the world. America will be used to touch the world.

St. Louis is almost in the center of the U.S. -- north, south, east and west. The glory is flowing out of the spiritual gate that was opened in that city. It is flowing out to cover and consume every part of the United States. God has come to take over. He has come to fill the earth with His glory and He has revealed a major piece of the puzzle, so that we understand.

GLORY THROUGH A HEART FOR DISCIPLESHIP

No coincidence that the date I saw had 28 and 19 in it. That was part of God's plan to reveal an infinite plan to finite minds. Matthew 28:19 says, "Go into the nations and make disciples." Discipleship is the heart of Jesus. That has been our mission here. Stephen Gray is a true discipler; there is never a message spoken where a key to being a disciple is not expressed. He is always teaching; and then, when the lesson is finished, God releases the glory. Notes are no longer needed to prompt his teaching. God has burned this into his heart. It is the heart of God.

Pray for this man. Pray that God's purpose in him is completed. He has been called to be a messenger -- a messenger of intimacy, persistence, desperation, nuclear Christianity. God has given him a message that sets the captives free, because it allows us to do what God purposed: to be disciplined and to then make disciples.

I KNOW THAT I KNOW

With all my heart and soul and body, I know that I know that God is sending his Glory to the nations. God will fill the earth with His glory. I cannot put into words how it feels to be a part of a sovereign move of God -- to be carried by a river of glory, swept along the current of a Holy Spirit move of God. Come to the river and drink deep, for the water is deep and cool and refreshing and everlasting, drink and soak in the presence of God. You will never be the same.

Changed in His Glory Again, Debbie Walters

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

There's A Glory Cloud Coming!

Pam Clark

pamclark@prophetic.net

Tonight an old friend called me up and wanted to know what was going on. Well, some of the things I have been going through lately have not been pleasant or fun. Finances are tight, friends have let me down, I've been hurt. It happens.

But I am not one who makes a monument to a grudge, not if I can help it. Look up! That's where God is!

Some conversations will bring you down, but since this person was a friend, I opened up some, and it seems God has had several friends call me lately, because they have sensed concern for me. I've had a little concern for myself! My feelings have been quite hurt over some issues. But my faith was still strong.

But God knows how to minister and through the Holy Spirit, He has, through these others. He knew I needed to be provoked a little so the life would come out because sorrow was trying to enter in.

This brother asked me, "What do you see God doing?" after we had talked about several other things and personal friends we knew. It seemed like a dam broke inside.

I said, "Do you want to know what I see? Do you really want to know??? I see a Glory Cloud coming!!! I see the most awesome Glory Cloud. When people walk into it, they will be healed. They will be restored. They will have Life and ALL of its abundance. I see a Glory Cloud coming!!!

I see God separating the faithless from the faithful. I see Him separating the liars and the cheaters from those with a pure heart. I see blessings becoming a reality rather than something just talked about and promised.

I see a testing time coming to full fruition. I see those who despise God being set back. I see those in satanic worship going through the fire and judgment that they have wished upon others. I see horrible times coming for the sinners who will not repent. I see God restoring His Name!

I see people with secret agendas getting exposed. I see people with Mystery Babylon spirits of 'I can't share this unless you commit to me and this' being blasted. I see Light coming that will expose in a big way the darkness.

But most of all, I see a separation coming for God's people. I see miracles coming, arms and legs growing out, creative miracles in mass abundance for the people of God - their full inheritance finally being restored.

I see the shekinah Glory of God coming and visiting, that will ultimately take us up and take us Home, reuniting us with our loved ones. I see love here on earth. I see the knowledge of the Lord and the Glory of the Lord covering the earth, as the waters cover the sea.

I see it pooling into different areas, and the people coming and getting blessed, blessed, blessed, and I see it beginning to happen now!!! It's just beginning!!!

I see tears wiped away from hearts and eyes. I see babies growing up with trust. I see broken bodies and broken lives healed. I see true families in God. I see compassion rolling in like a river THROUGH the people of God!!! I see people wanting to be clean and pure.

I see compatibility and Godly lifestyles. I see people really caring, not just lying about it, saying they care when they don't really.

I see people getting right with God, hating the garments soiled and stained by the flesh. I see answered prayers for the benefit of the saints.

I see lies being exposed and shown for what they are. I see man made agendas coming down and the true agenda of God coming forth in powerful function and ability. I see His dominion taking over the earth!!!

Why do I see all that? Because I am a prophet and that is The Vision of God. I see false doctrines being exposed and uprooted. I see the land purged and fallow. I see God coming with His supernatural seeds of glory life and sowing into that ground. I see life and righteousness and love springing forth.

Why haven't we seen all this? Because we have compromised. Because we haven't spoken about God aright. Because we haven't declared truly His sovereignty and love.

Because we haven't declared and believed that He is the Maker of Heaven and Earth and given Him the glory for it. He is!!! And, He loves us!

We have not declared His love to a sinful and dying global generation.

He loves us too much to want keep us in our sins. And He does love us enough to test us and see where we want to be. And He will separate and judge us according to our hearts' desires.

There is a Glory Cloud coming. The name of it is Resurrection Power and Glory Restoration. People will either be in the Light of that Life, or in the darkness.

There is a Glory Cloud coming, and it's here to bless the people of God.

There is a Glory Cloud coming and the sinner will not be able to enter in. Though they try to come in the wrong way, they will not be able or allowed to enter in.

There's a Glory Cloud coming and it's for the people of God. There's a Glory Cloud coming!"

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Great Civil War

Becky McLendon

I am teaching American Literature this year at school and included in our anthology is the text for the Gettysburg Address. In reviewing this document, which I had to memorize when I was in High School, a statement jumped out at me. I feel it was the Lord saying something to us.

"Now we are engaged in a great civil war."

What is the nature of a civil war? It is NOT a war between two separate nations, but rather a war within the same nation. In the mid to late 1800's our nation was ripped apart by a civil war, with loss of lives which boggle the mind when we view the numbers. It was torn asunder by the "defenders of the truth" on two sides!

But the civil war the Lord speaks of is not a "national" war, but a kingdom war, and it rages among His people and within them. The whole nature of this war is over the Inheritance. The war is over our declaration to our Lord:

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

The great civil war is the war between darkness and light. The basic issue at hand is that natural man prefers darkness over Light.

John 1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

The world system does NOT welcome the light, but prefers darkness. Our flesh prefers living in darkness because that is the comfort zone. So when His light shines upon flesh there is a war. Paul the apostle speaks of this civil war all through Romans 7..His spirit had been quickened by the Light of God, but his flesh preferred to do the things of darkness. Paul, however, became victorious in his walk with the Lord as Christ was formed in him. As we permit Christ to form in us, we too will prefer the LIGHT over darkness.

The great civil war is the resistance to His coming kingdom. The resistance is both individual and corporate. It is within the church and without, among the "believers and professors of the faith" and the lost. It is heightened amongst the "defenders of the truth," when the "truth" defended is not the Truth that sets men free. Jesus is the TRUTH and His kingdom is at hand (right under our noses and in our face). The time is NOW to stop "warring among our members" and turn our focus onto HIM.!

Glory to the Lamb!!! Amen.

Becky (Wayfarer)

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Great Physician

Honest Balances Or Differing Weights?

My Light Will Come

Stephen Hanson

The Great Physician

Stephen Hanson

'''

Jan. 29, 2000

For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. Eph. 6:12

"There is a training which is necessary in order to come to my "completeness." In a military, men are trained for combat. They are trained how to shoot and how to endure, and they are shown how to work as a team. Their commander-in-chief helps them; and helps them understand what their orders may be. The same is true for those who are in my army, for this is a spiritual battle which you are waging. The enemy seeks to devour many of you. He seeks to destroy the things you've done for Me. But I say, that he will not prevail. From the beginning he was a liar. I have said that those who know the truth will be set free by it. I have come to destroy the works of the enemy. I say, this day, let Me penetrate your hearts. Every foul thing must be made rid of. From the caverns of your hearts and souls, those things which have laid there, will be brought out.

(The Lord showed me the hands of someone who was using an instrument, like a surgeon would use. It was something like unto a lance, and these hands were using this to extract and to cut into something. There was light within where this was happening, and a type of magnifying glass was being used to see what needed to be done.)

"I say that it is time for the root of many of these things to come out. Many of you have just been dealing with things on the surface; and a root, a seed of that problem still exists. But I desire to make you whole and complete. For I the Lord, have the hands of a skilled physician. I say, let Me extract those things from you. It is more painful for those things to remain in you. And then, when they are removed, you will be free. Bring all these things to Me, and I will make you whole. "

Stephen Hanson

Honest Balances Or Differing Weights?

Stephen Hanson

(A Teaching)

Feb. 3, 2000

"Honest scales and balances are from the Lord; all the weights in the bag are of his making." Prov. 16:11B

Balance: 4 a: "To bring or come to a state or position of equilibrium b: to poise in or as if in balance c: to bring into harmony or proportion; also : to so plan and prepare that all needed elements will be present (balance a diet) (a balanced aquarium) 5: to move with a swaying or swinging motion (syn. see compensate. )

This article or teaching, is concerned primarily, with how we spend our time and whether or not the scales have been weighted down on one side instead of being distributed evenly in our lives. In this article then, the key word is "balance" and how one can nurture or instill that in their own life.

Consider for a moment how a person would walk across a tight rope. Without a "balancing beam," or rod, then this feat would be nearly impossible. How easy it would be to fall off on either side, and not continue across onto the other side. We need this same type of "balancing beam" in our own lives, and without it, then we could easily fall off on either side.

In the judicial system scales are used to denote and illustrate whether or not justice is being served. And it should be quite obvious that "the scales of justice" have not been evenly distributed. There are many inconsistencies and unfairness in how our court system seems to operate, and "due process," oftentimes, can "undo" us. This is but one form of how "differing weights and measures" is shown in our world.

How do we spend our time throughout the day, and what do we find ourselves being occupied with primarily? Life seems to be a very "many-faceted" thing, and it seems to have a multitude of things which comprise it in our everyday lives. If a person is married and has children, then their time is spent in how they can meet the needs of their family, and be there for them. Their interests are divided, whereas, a single person doesn't consider these things.

"An unmarried man is concerned about the Lord's affairs—how he can please the Lord. But a married man is concerned about the affairs of this world—how he can please his wife—and his interests are divided. An unmarried woman or virgin is concerned about the Lord's affairs: Her aim is to be devoted to the Lord in both body and spirit. I. Co. 7:32-34

A married person's time is obviously divided throughout the day. Actually, this is true of anyone, whether they are married or single, but there seems to be more things which vie for one's attention if they are married. They probably have a job of some sort which they go to on a daily basis, and this occupies their thoughts and mindset. (Unless somehow, a very rich parent or uncle or aunt has given them an inheritance, so that they don't need to work.) Or their work may be His work, and their time may be spent in a form of ministry, in one way or another. This is also true of the pastor or shepherd who cares for the needs of his or her flock. There comes a time when the needs of the family outweigh the needs of those in that particular church body or group. A person who works thinks about what they are doing while at that job, as has been mentioned earlier. Then they come home and "shift gears" as they open the door to their home, and leave the office behind. When then does the person enter into their prayer closet to pray? When do they find a quiet time and space for themselves; a sanctuary where they can hear the still small voice of God? Paul has told us to pray without ceasing, and this is a true thing to seek, but the pie seems to get cut-up into several slices, and many things vie for our attentions.

The point then is how does a person lead a "balanced life," and how can they keep the pendulum from swinging too far on one side or the other? We are told in scripture, that God "redeems the time," and I believe that He does do this for His children. We need to be wise in how we spend our time, making the most of it.

15. Be very careful, then, how you live--not as unwise but as wise,

16.making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. Eph. 5

Things such as prayer and ministry are all very good things, but they can become "divine distractions" when they consume one to the neglect of those around them. Even serving people and helping them, whether through counseling or help in any way, can be carried to an excess, if one is again, not meeting the immediate needs of their particular family. Look at the scales again, and see whether or not there is something else you could be doing instead. Then what you desire to do for Him will be hopefully, more fruitful. There will always be dirty clothes to launder or things to pick up around the house. It then becomes primary to know what needs to be attended to next. We are given very many choices in this life, and the decisions we make on a daily basis, show oftentimes, what type of character we are made of.

The pendulum on a clock goes back and forth as it keeps time, and swings to a "steady" beat. When it is balanced, there is a rhythm and regularity as seen in its movement. If it gets out of balance, then it may keep an uneven beat, and the pendulum will end up staying on one side more than another. In the same way, this can happen in our lives. Our metronome may get stuck on one side, and thus, the rhythm of life gets "off-balance." We need Godly wisdom to know how to handle the challenges that life presents to us daily, and we also need this wisdom to pursue a Godly balance in our lives. It, (wisdom) is considered as something supreme and important. So then, let us seek Him who would give us all things, in so doing, then use this wisdom to seek after a Godly balance in our lives.

Prov. 4:7 Wisdom is supreme; therefore get wisdom. Though it cost all you have, [1]. (1) Or Whatever else you get get understanding.

"Let God weigh me in honest scales and he will know that I am blameless." Job 31:6

"Differing weights and differing measures—the Lord detests them both." Prov. 20:10

"You have been weighed on the scales and found wanting." Dan. 5:27

Stephen Hanson

My Light Will Come

Stephen Hanson

Jan 4 evening, 2000

"The people walking in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death a light has dawned." Isaiah 9:2

10. Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. 11. Put on the full armor of God so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes. 12. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. 13. Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand. 14. Stand firm then, with the belt of truth buckled around your waist, with the breastplate of righteousness in place, 15. and with your feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace. 16. In addition to all this, take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. 17. Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. 18. And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the saints. Ephesians 6

(The Lord showed me a candle which was lit and it was the type that was old-fashioned on a base---the kind that people would use in their homes to shed forth light and see with.)

He then said:

"A candle flame can only be seen in the dark--A candle can only be seen in the dark. It is in the midst of darkness that my light will shine. The city on a hill shines brightly at night. There is a light that shines brighter than the radiance of the sun. The night will grow darker, but the light of my Son will grow brighter.

"This year will see a rise in darkness."

(The Lord then showed me a old stone lighthouse on the edge of a cliff, and the light from it shown out into the dark sky which was around it.)

"But there is a lighthouse, a lighthouse which shines. The waves of the ocean will beat against the cliffs. There are dark skies above. The winds blow and the waves pound, and the sky opens-up. There is a darkness which is coming, but the light of my Son will be very bright."

"This year is a year of greater occult activity. The enemy has schemes which he has been planning. His tactics are always veiled in darkness, but his secrets will be known by my servants. For his dark tunnels and pathways will be found out, and all of his servants will be exposed. I give you my servants, the sword of the Spirit. For that sword not only penetrates between soul and Spirit, but with that sword you can fight."

(He then showed me a magnificent piece of armor, all in glittering silver. As I looked at it, I noticed a small hole like a puncture, in this armor towards the center of it. I asked what this was, and He said, "The Breastplate of Righteousness.)

The Lord continued saying:

"He was able to strike a blow because the shield was not up. For you need the whole armor on to withstand the wiles of the devil. So, do all you can to stand on that day. Darkness will grow in intensity, but my light will far outshine it."

Stephen Hanson

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Grace of A Dove

Linda Patterson

I give you eagle eyes to see and the wings of a dove to fly. Come fly with Me, My beloved. Soar high above the storm into a place of peace and rest. In this place of rest and solitude, you will see clearly the battle that is raging but will not be affected by it. I will show you My divine strategy that when released will cause the result to be victorious over the peoples of the earth.

As you are still before Me, I will show you that not all things are what they appear to be. My divine plan and strategy will cause deception to be unmasked. By the glorious light of My Spirit all truth shall be revealed.

Come back to the humility of the cross. Know that I am the crucified Lamb, the risen Christ and your soon coming glorious King.

Psalms 55:6

Oh, that I had wings like a dove! I would fly away and be at rest.

Psalms 46:10 Be still, and know that I am God.

Intercessors For Jesus Ministries

P.O. Box 172,

Fergus, Ontario

N1M 1N0 Canada

To submit prayer requests mail to hisheart@Canada.com

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Touching God's Glory

Ching Co

January 28, 2000

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As I write these words, I do so with great hesitation because I know that I am not worthy to stand before you and talk about the glory of God. But the Lord has been pressing me in, to share the little that I have learned so that others can add to it and as I do so, I too will be blessed in returned.

In the past weeks, the Lord has showed me several visions . . . . In the past 6 months , He has also given me a personal practical lesson to live by. . . . Today, the Lord began to blend these together and from these He showed me one aspect about His glory.

I am submitting these words for you to test and to discern.

THE PERSONAL PRACTICAL LESSON

During the last 6 months of 1999, God put me into a season of practicum. At various times, He would ask me to bring two lists before Him. One list detailed all the good works done for God and with that all of God's manifestation's and miracles. And the other list detailed all of my struggles and my failures. Then, after giving me some times to meditate on these two lists--He would ask me to lay them down at His feet.

Then I saw Him burn the lists and He encouraged me with these words. "Your struggles and failures are mine so do not take them back with you again when you leave my Presence. In the same manner your success and the miracles you witness belongs to me and be careful how you handle them. Do not talk about them unless I tell you." Then He would bid me to go my way and to put into practice and live out the instructions He gave me.

As I go about living these truths, time & again I found myself failing. It is so easy to dwell on the failures and be drowned by the struggles as I encountered them along the way. Instead of leaving them at the feet of the Lord, I tend to carry them close to my heart and find my faith clouded and my spiritual vision dimmed. And when good days comes and miracles abound and I am walking high in the mountaintop---I often find myself too quick to pick these up and holding them up like a medal in my hand and love to show them off to others in the guise of giving personal testimony instead of laying them down at the feet of the Lord and forgetting about them.

THE VISION OF THE HAMMER

I saw a big hammer coming down from heaven unto like a city with many structures. When the hammer was lifted back, all the structure were broken to many pieces. But underneath I saw a big mattress and it somehow cushioned the impact of the hammer's force.

THE VISION OF THE SCALE

I saw the statue of lady who is blindfolded and she holds a scale in her hand. I saw that the scale was tilted out of balance. At one end of the scale were placed envelopes bundled up and marked with these words "blessings & miracles" while on the other side of the scale I saw only one envelope and it was marked "cross".

THE WEAVING OF GOD

The Holy Spirit began taking all these pieces together and He began weaving them and I felt Him sharing these impressions to me.

In each generations that has come and go, the Lord has revealed to His people His power and His grace. There has been a show of His miracles in each generation. At the same time, He has also led His people through their own deserts and wilderness. If we are to weigh it all in the balance--It will seem that we have been magnifying the miracles more than the cross. We are quick to show off the good things and love to talk about the good times, but we prefer not to focus much on what God has taught us during the desert and wilderness times and many times we don't like to talk to others or let people know about those difficult moments.

And this we have carried over not only into our own lives but many times even to the way that we present the gospel to others, and even to the extent that we handle our ministry. In the midst of other people, we love to pull out from our memory bags the greatest healings or the most powerful words of knowledge and other acts of wonders that we have tasted and see and we love to display them for others. In so many ways, we are not much different than King Hezekiah when he showed to the envoys from Babylon all that is in his treasure house (2 Kings 20:12-15)

RELEASING A HEAVENLY HAMMER

God is releasing a "heavenly hammer" and He is about to destroy all the "worldly structures" that men have set up in the midst of the church. When the hammer falls, many will be broken to pieces which meant that great change and great shaking will take place. Ministries might fall, leadership might change. But in the midst of all these, we must put on the "mattress of love" and must guard our mind and our heart about harboring wrong thoughts, perception and ideas about anything or anybody. Nobody can have all the answers and it is important for each one to cover each other in love and not in judgment or criticism.

OUR VICTORIES AND STRUGGLES BELONG TO HIM

God wants His church and His people to remember that our victories and our struggles belongs to Him alone. We must be careful how we handle the miracles we see taking place in our lives and in our ministry. They belong to God, and we have to offer them back to Him as quickly as they manifest and be willing to burn them like incense before Him, and we must avoid using these events and the people to draw attention to ourselves and our ministry unless the Spirit clearly directs us.

Instead we must seek to follow the example of Jesus who encouraged those who received healing and miracles from His ministry to go back to their hometown to tell about what God has done for them by themselves. In the same manner, as we released our struggles and our failures to Him, we must learn to be transparent to God about them and to those that God would led us to share these things remembering how David find favors before the Father because of his willingness to confess his weakness.

We have to began sharing the whole gospel of Christ. God is about to reveal Himself to us in all His Glory and Majesty. We must seek not only His hand of blessings but we must seek His face and His heart.

MY PRAYER

"Father, forgive us for those times that we have misrepresented you before other men. Give us a better understanding of who you are and how you want us to know you. Help us never to touch the Glory that belongs to you alone. Teach us not to misuse your name for our own benefit. But give us your heart for your people. These we ask in Your Son, our Savior Jesus Name. Amen!"

Submitted by:

Sis. Ching Co
Cebu City
Philippines

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Gatekeepers

Bill Burns

May 2, 2000

For some time now the Lord has been speaking to me about the rebuilding of David's Tabernacle according to the prophetic word in Acts 15:16-17, 'After this I will return And will rebuild the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down; I will rebuild its ruins, And I will set it up; So that the rest of mankind may seek the LORD, Even all the Gentiles who are called by My name, Says the LORD who does all these things.'

It is my opinion that the Tabernacle of David will come to be known as the righteous saints who are the true church (those who worship in spirit and truth) that demonstrate the power of God in this, the end of the age.

The Lord Jesus Christ is sitting upon the throne of David and ruling over the Church as the Son of David. Revelation 3:7-10 "And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write, 'These things says He who is holy, He who is true, He who has the key of David, He who opens and no one shuts, and shuts and no one opens: I know your works. See, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it; for you have a little strength, have kept My word, and have not denied My name. Indeed I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews and are not, but lie; indeed I will make them come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you. Because you have kept My command to persevere, I also will keep you from the hour of trial which shall come upon the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth.'" The Master is speaking to angels (messengers) of Philadelphia (those who dwell together in brotherly love and thereby fulfill the Royal Law spoken of by James).

Notice that the key of David is used to open and close spiritual doors. To open doors into the blessings of the Father's kingdom, and to close the doors that the enemy uses against God's people. Revelation 3:9 told us that those who serve Satan will worship the Lord before our feet. This is what happened to Saul in Naioth in Ramah when he came into the presence of Samuel and David.

The keys of David are those given to the church to bind and loose. Matthew 16:18-19, "And I also say to you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it. And I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven."

Another very interesting scripture is found in 1 Chronicles 9:22-23, "All those chosen as gatekeepers were two hundred and twelve. They were recorded by their genealogy, in their villages. David and Samuel the seer had appointed them to their trusted office. So they and their children were in charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, the house of the tabernacle, by assignment." Here is where we get to the point of my subject -- The Gatekeepers. The Lord is about to appoint some gatekeepers to watch over David's Tabernacle. These gatekeepers will be given keys of spiritual authority (possibly over specific geographical areas) to open and to close spiritual gates according to the direction of the One who rules from the Throne of David.

I have been waiting for confirmation concerning this subject for awhile, and I have received four confirmations this week, so it is, therefore, time to release this information. Thank you, Harley Hickling, Bob Neumann, and Mary Clark for your obedience to hear the Lord. And, a special thanks to Laura Burns (my daughter-in-law) for sharing this most significant dream:

THE DREAM: We (many, many people from church and others that we seemed to know) were in cars driving down a long road. There were cars coming towards us (on their own side thankfully), while our lane headed toward the sun. We came to a stop gate in the road where three guards were giving directions. Apparently, asteroids of some sort were heading our way, and we had to pay attention to the wind, be careful of our timing, and follow the orders of the guards so that we would not be harmed. One at a time, we were allowed to go through the stop gate. As we started through, rocks entered the atmosphere and were aiming straight for the path we were on. The three guards gave specific orders to each person as they went down the road. One person was to swerve to the right and then to the left never leaving the road itself, while another had different directions to follow in order to be safe. At this time the rocks were crashing down all around us, but amazingly no one on our side got hurt. The rocks did, however, crash into the cars on the other side of the road (they had no protection, no one to guide them through the mess). When it was our turn (Jason and I), we started going through and the lady said to me, "It's supposed to be quiet for a while so you should be okay." I kept driving at a reasonable pace until panic broke loose behind me, and I heard the guard yelling to speed up. At this point I saw Bill had been released behind us, and he yelled at me to push the pedal to the metal. As I stepped on the gas, a rock came hurtling down and hit the spot that I just been in. Thankfully, because of the warnings from the guard and from Bill, we were safely escorted out of harm's way. The dream ended here. Interpretation: The dream includes the righteous of the Lord from different geographical locations for there were many, many and we, here in Kremmling, are few. The cars coming towards us represent those who are against us and are in danger of judgment. Those in our lane were headed towards the Sun (of righteousness). Malachi 4:2-3, "But to you who fear My name The Sun of Righteousness shall arise With healing in His wings; And you shall go out And grow fat like stall-fed calves. You shall trample the wicked, For they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet On the day that I do this," Says the LORD of hosts. The stop gate represents the power of opening and shutting by the authority of the Lord. The three guards represent those gatekeepers that will become manifest in the third day of power that we are now entering into, which will also be a day of judgment (the asteroids).

We must now pay attention to the Wind (voice of the Spirit) so that our timing is correct if we are to be found in safe habitations in the coming days, and we must follow the directions of the gatekeepers so harm will not come to us as divine judgment comes to the earth. Clearance was given one at a time, so admittance into the safety of David's Tabernacle will not be given carte blanche to groups or denominations. It will be a personal relationship with Christ that admits one, and those will be recognized by the gatekeepers. The gatekeepers gave specific orders to each one, so specific assignments and direction will be given in accordance to each one's calling and destiny.

At this point the names become significant. Jason (who is my son) means "one who heals." His name tells us that this group of people will be those who believe in the supernatural healing power of God. Laura's name is taken from the laurel tree which is symbolic of honor and victory. Since Jason and Laura are one (married), we can see that together they represent those who are beholding the Son, being moved by the Spirit (Wind), they are a part of the supernatural church who honors God above all, and they have victory in Jesus Christ over all the works of the enemy.

This church is listening to the gatekeepers who are watchmen, who can open and no one shuts, and shuts and no one opens. Bill (that's me) means resolute guardian, one who protects. He represents the messengers of the church who guard the flock and also the angels of God's heavenly host who protect the Master's sheep.

Now, let us hear the word of the Lord: Arise you who are called to be gatekeepers in the Tabernacle of David. This is the hour that you have longed for. This is the day of My power that David spoke of (Psalm 110). Now you shall carry the rod of My strength out of Zion, and you shall rule in the midst of your enemies, for to you it has been given the power of binding the enemy and loosing the captive. Come now, and drink with Me of the brook by the wayside (pathway). Drink of the living waters that I now give, for these waters contain the fullness of My Spirit. Open now your hand and receive the keys of authoritative power which I give to My servants, the gatekeepers, the keys of David!

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

May 1, 2000:

I kept hearing the phrase, "Don't go off half-cocked." As I began to ponder that phrase, I could see a rifle going off accidentally before taking aim. And the Lord says, slow down and carefully consider what is before you. Take time to discern your present circumstances and conditions before "firing" back. Be careful not to move on presumption. Be quiet before Me that you might hear My voice, for I am bringing you through even this test. But you must quiet your soul and listen carefully to My instructions. Proverbs 17:28, "Even a fool is counted wise when he holds his peace; When he shuts his lips, he is considered perceptive."

May 2, 2000:

When I ask questions of you, it is not that I don't know the answers, but rather that I am revealing your own heart to you. When I ask: Do you love Me? I already know that you do, but what I want you to consider is how much you love Me. Are you willing to lay aside all that you hold dear to serve Me? Are you willing to put down your own desires, wishes and agendas and do My will? Are you willing to die to the flesh that you might live in the Spirit? You have desired to move in the power and gifts of the Spirit. But, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, how can it yield its increase? My desire for you is that you would become an empty vessel, a clay jar, that I can pour into and out of as I will. And, I want your "jar" to be so clean and free of fear, jealousy, bitterness, pride, lust and the like that whatever I pour through you will not be tainted by your vessel. If you will yield yourself totally to Me, I will cleanse you to that degree, and then you probably won't even notice the pouring in and the pouring out, nor will your eyes be set on the increase. Rather, your eyes will only see Me.

May 3, 2000:

I am gathering you, My precious people and bringing you to higher ground spiritually and into rich revelation, much the same as a shepherd gathers his sheep and leads them to higher pastures. For, where you have been the waters have become fouled and the land overgrazed, and you have begun to fight over what little is left. You have been over the same ground and remained in the same revelations until they have become religious doctrines. Many of you don't even know that I have greater things in store for you. You have forgotten what fresh food and clear water look like, and have even lost your appetite for the rare delicacies found in untrodden ground. I am now leading My flock to greener pastures. Will you follow? Will you stir up your appetite and begin to hunger and thirst and desire greater things in the kingdom? Leave behind the strife and contention, jealousy and anger, criticism and judgment of your old stomping grounds. Come, follow Me!

1 Corinthians 2:9-14, "But as it is written: 'Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, Nor have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him.' But God has revealed them to us through His Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. For what man knows the things of a man except the spirit of the man which is in him? Even so no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God. Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might know the things that have been freely given to us by God. These things we also speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual. But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned."

May 5, 2000:

My people, I have raised up a standard in your midst. It is a standard of righteousness and holiness. I have shown you by example and set in My Word the model of authority in My kingdom. I have called you to follow the example that I have set and to not only yield to My authority, but to establish that same authority in your lives and circumstances. But, I say to you, there are some among you who have compromised and devalued your citizenship in My kingdom. This is because you have compared yourself to those around you in the world instead of measuring yourself according to My standard of integrity. Today is the day of reckoning. I say to you, reckon yourselves dead to sin. Refuse to live beneath your station. Rise up from the place of degradation where you have fallen, and take your rightful place in My kingdom.

Romans 6:11-13, "Likewise you also, reckon yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord. Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts. And do not present your members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but present yourselves to God as being alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God."

May 6, 2000:

I have given you great and precious promises. And, what I have promised, I will bring to pass if you will but hold on and believe. I say to you, however, that the enemy has come to steal your hope and cause you to doubt what I have spoken to you. You are becoming weary of hanging on, and the temptation will come for you to let go of all that you once held dear and to abandon what I have promised. But, you have need of endurance. You must renew yourself in vision and spiritual strength. Reassure yourself by bringing to remembrance what I have confirmed to you. Do not let go, or it will be lost.

Hebrews 10:35-38, "Therefore do not cast away your confidence, which has great reward. For you have need of endurance, so that after you have done the will of God, you may receive the promise: For yet a little while, And He who is coming will come and will not tarry. Now the just shall live by faith; but if anyone draws back, My soul has no pleasure in him."

Faith Tabernacle
111 North Fourth
P. O. Box 1148
Kremmling, CO 80459

<http://ft111.com>

ft111@uswest.net

Send us your full name and e-mail address to receive our prophetic bulletin

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The God Of Abraham, Isaac, & Jacob

Bill Burns

October 7, 2000:

Once again, I found myself awakened in the darkness for the night watch. I was troubled about some things that recently transpired. I found myself in Psalm 77:3-6, "I remembered God, and was troubled; I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah. You hold my eyelids open; I am so troubled that I cannot speak. I have considered the days of old, The years of ancient times. I call to remembrance my song in the night; I meditate within my heart, And my spirit makes diligent search."

The Lord then spoke and said, "My church must consider the days of old and remember the years of ancient times. Meditate upon these things and go forth in Spirit to search diligently for the truths of olden days." The Master then said, "It is time for My church to rediscover the ancient pathways. It is time to redeem the high places. It is time to re-establish the ancient boundaries, and it is time to rebuild the ancient cities that have become waste places."

A pause followed and then came these words: "I am the Lord your God, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Walk before Me as Abraham did, and I will make My covenant with you and command My blessings upon you. Follow after Me as Isaac did and redig the ancient wells, and the living waters shall be yours. Come unto Me as Jacob did, and I shall bring you into My Father's house. The gate of heaven shall be opened to those who dwell in My house, and no good thing will I withhold from them."

Our journey now begins as we go in search of ancient paths, which will lead us into present truth. Let us begin our journey with Moses as he first meets the God of the burning bush. Exodus 3:1-6 Now Moses was tending the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian. And he led the flock to the back of the desert, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. And the Angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire from the midst of a bush. So he looked, and behold, the bush was burning with fire, but the bush was not consumed. Then Moses said, "I will now turn aside and see this great sight, why the bush does not burn." So when the LORD saw that he turned aside to look, God called to him from the midst of the bush and said, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here I am." Then He said, "Do not draw near this place. Take your sandals off your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground. Moreover He said, "I am the God of your father; the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look upon God.

The Lord wants us to rediscover the ancient truths which He revealed through Moses as it relates to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and then becomes relevant to the church in this present time. The church has entered into the Third Day of Christ (from His birth) and into the Seventh Day of God (from creation). 2 Peter 3:8 establishes the prophetic principal that one prophetic day is as a thousand years and a thousand years is as one day. I, personally, believe that the third day of Christ and the seventh day of God began on the Feast of Trumpets this year. The question is: Can we find this pattern in the scriptures as they relate to ancient times and to Moses, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob?

It was on the third day that God called Moses up to the top of the mountain. The third day began with the trumpet of God. Exodus 19:16-20, "Then it came to pass on the third day, in the morning, that there were thunderings and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain; and the sound of the trumpet was very loud, so that all the people who were in the camp trembled. And Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain. Now Mount Sinai was completely in smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire. Its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked greatly. And when the blast of the trumpet sounded long and became louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him by voice. Then the LORD came down upon Mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain. And the LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up."

For the present day this points to the release of revelation knowledge to those who will go up the ancient pathway to the top of the mountain.

Again, the Lord called Moses to the top of the mountain (ancient heights) and gave Moses the revelation of the tabernacle. It was on the seventh day that God called to Moses. Exodus 24:15-18, "Then Moses went up into the mountain, and a cloud covered the mountain. Now the glory of the LORD rested on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. And on the seventh day He called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud. The sight of the glory of the LORD was like a consuming fire on the top of the mountain in the eyes of the children of Israel. So Moses went into the midst of the cloud and went up into the mountain. And Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights."

It was then that God gave Moses the pattern of the tabernacle which consisted of three parts -- the outer court, the Holy place and the Holy of Holies. The church is now moving into the third day (third position) into the Holy of Holies where the glory of God abides.

Now we will apply this pattern to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and bring this revelation to present truth for the Third Day Church.

First Position (the outer court) as it relates to Abraham and also to us: The brazen altar and the laver are in the outer court. This is where we are called out of the world as Abraham was. Genesis 12:1-3 Now the LORD had said to Abram: "Get out of your country, From your family And from your father's house, To a land that I will show you. I will make you a great nation; I will bless you And make your name great; And you shall be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, And I will curse him who curses you; And in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed."

Here is where we begin our journey on the ancient path that Abraham walked. This path is one of covenant promise as we come to the brazen altar, to the place that the blood is shed and the sacrifice is confirmed by fire.

In Genesis 15 the Lord makes covenant promises to Abraham and seals the covenant as He walks through the blood sacrifice prepared by Abraham. Genesis 15:17-18, "And it came to pass, when the sun went down and it was dark, that behold, there appeared a smoking oven and a burning torch that passed between those pieces. On the same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying: To your descendants I have given this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the River Euphrates." The symbols given (torch and smoking oven) represent the brazen altar where Jesus becomes our blood sacrifice and baptizes us with fire...baptized into Christ and His covenant of eternal life. Then, we must walk with Abraham to redeem the high places. Genesis 22:1 Now it came to pass after these things that God tested Abraham, and said to him, "Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am." Then He said, "Take now your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I shall tell you." So Abraham rose early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son; and he split the wood for the burnt offering, and arose and went to the place of which God had told him. Then on the third day Abraham lifted his eyes and saw the place afar off.

This journey begins at the laver (in the outer court). The brazen altar represents the place of justification, and the laver represents the place of sanctification. It is the place of washing of the water by the word (command of God) where the priests wash their hands and feet. Sanctification demands obedience to the word of God.

This is Abraham's test -- to be obedient to God's direction. Again, this took place on the third day. This is how the high places are redeemed. Obedience will break down the self-exalted places that we establish as idols. When we are obedient to be willing to sacrifice our Isaac (the self nature that we rejoice in), then God will provide the Ram caught by its horns. Horns represent authority, and when we are caught by the Ram's horns (Christ's rule), then the high places in our lives will be redeemed. Then, we can redeem the land as outlined in Ezekiel 36:1-10.

Second Position (the Holy place) as it relates to Isaac and also to us. It is Isaac that re-establishes the boundaries of covenant promise as we move into the Holy place to receive the living waters. Proverbs 22:28, "Do not remove the ancient landmark Which your fathers have set." The Holy place is where we receive the fullness of the Spirit as represented by the candlestick (7 lamps). Number 7 is God's number of completion or fullness. Jesus likened the Spirit of God to water (see John 7:37-39). The fullness of the Spirit comes as we feed on the showbread (word of God) and as we pour incense (our prayers) on the golden altar. As we add oil (the Spirit) to the candlestick, our light burns brighter and illumination (revelation) increases.

Isaac re-established the boundaries of the land which Abraham had established by redigging the wells that the enemy had plugged up. The last well that Isaac dug was in Beersheba which means the well of seven. The water of seven (fullness) of the Spirit which is also represented by the 7 lamps of the candlestick.

The church must, therefore, re-establish the power of the living water which was given on the Day of Pentecost. We must re-establish the ancient boundaries and redig the ancient wells until we have the fullness of the Spirit of God (the promise of the Father). The enemy has plugged many of these wells up by stealing the truth of the baptism of the Holy Spirit. It is now the Third Day and, therefore, time for these ancient boundaries to be established, for this is God's purpose. Acts 17:26-27 "And He has made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and has determined their preappointed times and the boundaries of their dwellings, so that they should seek the Lord, in the hope that they might grope for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us."

Third Position (the Holy of Holies) as it relates to Jacob and also to us. Jacob represents our final destination, the Holy of Holies where we see God face to face. When we have seen God face to face then we can rebuild the foundations and walls, and re-hang the gates to the ancient ruins of the cities of God. Isaiah 61:4, "And they shall rebuild the old ruins, They shall raise up the former desolations, And they shall repair the ruined cities, The desolations of many generations."

Genesis 28 records the story of Jacob's first encounter in God's house. Jacob laid his head on Christ, the Cornerstone, and he saw Jesus, the ladder of God (John 1:51), extending into heaven. Jacob poured oil on the Rock, identifying Jesus as the Anointed One, and he called the place Bethel (house of God) and said, "This is the gate of heaven."

Later Jacob wrestled with God. Genesis 32:24-31, Then Jacob was left alone; and a Man wrestled with him until the breaking of day. Now when He saw that He did not prevail against him, He touched the socket of his hip; and the socket of Jacob's hip was out of joint as He wrestled with him. And He said, "Let Me go, for the day breaks." But he said, "I will not let You go unless You bless me!" So He said to him, "What is your name?" He said, "Jacob." And He said, "Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel; for you have struggled with God and with men, and have prevailed." Then Jacob asked, saying, "Tell me Your name, I pray." And He said, "Why is it that you ask about My name?" And He blessed him there. And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel: "For I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved." Just as he crossed over Peniel the sun rose on him, and he limped on his hip. Jacob's way of walking is changed, and therefore, his name is changed to Israel (prince with God). Jacob no longer walks by the power of his flesh, but now he must walk by the Spirit. The name "Peniel" means face of God. This is what we are seeking in this, the third day -- the face of God. Later God sent Jacob back to Bethel (Genesis 35), and this time he called the place El Bethel which means the God of the house of God. Jacob had seen God face to face and then he knew the God of the house.

Jacob was now walking in the Spirit, so he was moved by the Spirit to go to Ephrath (the ancient name for Bethlehem). Bethlehem was only 5 miles from Bethel, but Jacob had to go to the birthing place. Rachel's name means "a lamb." The Lamb had to die so that the sons of the right hand (Benjamin) could be born in Bethlehem, so that one day Jesus, the Lamb of God, could be born there and later die for us. We, then, are the sons of the right hand of the last generation -- those of the third day who repair the cities of God (cities of refuge) so that the gate of heaven can again be opened over the house of God and the fullness of the Master's power can be visible in this earth.

Later, when Jacob was about to die, he had Joseph put his hand under his thigh (Genesis 47:29). This was a sign of an oath taken, but to Jacob it was more than that. It represented the ability to walk in the power of the Spirit, and this promise of the Father to the sons of the right hand would be that which would enable them to do the works of God.

These ancient truths must be rediscovered so that the third-day church, the present-day sons of the right hand can go forth at the Master's direction to: Rediscover the ancient paths Redeem the ancient high places Re-establish the ancient boundaries and redig the wells Rebuild the ancient waste places, the cities of refuge, the modern-day Bethels over which the gate of heaven shall be opened.

And, this is why it will happen: Daniel 7:21-22, "I was watching; and the same horn was making war against the saints, and prevailing against them, until the Ancient of Days came, and a judgment was made in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came for the saints to possess the kingdom."

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

October 10, 2000: This is the beginning of global sorrow as prophesied from ancient times. For, I tell you that the earth will be shaken with mighty force. The grief and sadness and pain will continue to increase until My cup of wrath is empty. To those of you who see the suffering of neighboring nations and through your pride and indifference find satisfaction in their distress, repent of this evil or you will be partakers of their suffering. You, My people, must cleanse yourselves of all filthiness and draw near to Me. It is vital that you hear My voice and are sensitive to My leading, for I will lead you to places of refuge and safety. Seek Me with all of your heart.

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

October 10, 2000:

This is the beginning of global sorrow as prophesied from ancient times. For, I tell you that the earth will be shaken with mighty force. The grief and sadness and pain will continue to increase until My cup of wrath is empty. To those of you who see the suffering of neighboring nations and through your pride and indifference find satisfaction in their distress, repent of this evil or you will be partakers of their suffering. You, My people, must cleanse yourselves of all filthiness and draw near to Me. It is vital that you hear My voice and are sensitive to My leading, for I will lead you to places of refuge and safety. Seek Me with all of your heart.

October 11, 2000:

ALERT! This is a time when you must discern the spiritual atmosphere and move by the Spirit. This is no time to be lazy or allow the prevailing winds of your circumstances to move you away from your spiritual focus. I tell you that seducing spirits have been sent against you, My people, to draw you away from your First Love. These demon spirits will try to awaken your flesh desires and passions through discontentment. Be especially careful not to fall into a sense of being isolated or lonely, for Seduction will move you to try to satisfy this emptiness by natural means when the only appeasement will come through intimate relationship with Me. The enemy will do his best to reawaken old fantasies, but you must keep spiritual perspective and be about the Father's business. For, the end of behaving carnally will be greater dissatisfaction.

October 13, 2000: Beloved, stay close to My heart and be sensitive to My leading, and I will cause My purposes to be fulfilled. Refuse to succumb to vainglory, for it will take you away from My purposes. The world would have you think that you need to be built up in self-esteem. But, that is a lie, for it is only a promotion of self-consciousness. You cannot walk in the Spirit and have your focus on yourself.

Haven't I admonished you to take up your own cross and follow Me? My flesh had to be torn to give entrance into My Father's presence, but your flesh is also a veil that prevents your entrance into the Holy of Holies. I tell you the truth -- the enemy is attacking you even now to make you feel inadequate, unloved, unappreciated, and stupid. Please hear me! Do not react by trying to build yourself up or by trying to prove your worthiness, for that will be vain and futile. Refuse to be offended. Know that You are My own special treasure and that you have nothing to prove. Rather, draw close to Me; come into My place of glory and peace, and abide in My place of safety. Come into My rest.

October 14, 2000:

You are entering a new season spiritually. The season that is coming to a close is the one of breaking down, of separation, of tearing apart, of threshing. The season that you are now entering is one of building up, of coming together for a common purpose and of unity. Look around and see that the lines have been drawn. There is no reconciliation with the enemy; there is no patching up of differences with those who are against you. Yet, within your own ranks there will be a tremendous unifying force that will draw those of like mind together in a strong bond. Your loyalties have been established and your goals are becoming clear, for you have yielded to My plans and purposes which cannot be thwarted. Many of you who have felt like you've been alone in a cave are about to become a part of a company of mighty men, brought together with unusual clarity of mission.

Faith Tabernacle
111 North Fourth
P. O. Box 1148
Kremmling, CO 80459
<http://ft111.com> ft111@uswest.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Golden Dollar

Bob Neumann

THE GOLDEN DOLLAR AND THE 'QUEEN OF HEAVEN'.....

For almost nine months I have waited for someone else to speak THE WORDS OF THE LORD concerning the Abomination that now slowly envelops the nation of my birth. Instead I hear 'words' about great blessing, harvest, revival, and anointing that have no PRESENCE of THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT in them. Granted there are timely WORDS of NEW THINGS....greater discernment....fulfillment....and positioning for the SEPARATION and BATTLE that lies ahead. Yet I have waited to hear the "CUTTING" WORD about AMERICA and it's apostate people.

Well over a year ago the US TREASURY Secretary and the 'first lady', Hillary Rodham Clinton, unveiled the proverbial "last straw" on May 4, 1999. Yet the plan was created by an act of congress in 1997. Presently the government of the United States is spending over 40 million dollars to introduce AMERICA to it's newest coin. In the last month or so the 'Christian' and 'prophetic' internet has been abuzz about many 'non' issues like Harry Potter mania and the present presidential campaigns. Yet some how all these 'discerning people' have not noticed the BLITZ of TV ADDS of George Washington pushing THE GOLDEN DOLLAR. Obviously no one discerns anything from THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT, and this bothers me.

The first time I saw the 'coin' in question the "GOLDEN" part was not an issue. What was the whole problem was simply hearing THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT whisper "THE QUEEN OF HEAVEN" and I got cold chills.....

16 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not hear thee.

17 Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

19 Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces?

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

At first sight I was not seeing the Shoshone woman of history with her baby "Jean Baptiste", but Inanna, the ancient goddess of Sumer. The thing we Christians know as the wife of Nimrod and the mother of Tammuz. It really does not matter what we call her, Semeramis, Ashteroth, Isis, Dianna, or MYSTERY BABYLON. The image is still the same, a woman and child, worshipped ahead of YHVH.

Several years ago I had a vision about THE GOD OF AMERICA....the 'god' america worships and trusts. In it THE KING OF GLORY reminded me of HIS WORDS in response to His enemies, about 'rending to Caesar'. Now, low and behold we 'proclaim' our national motto alongside an image of the 'queen of heaven'. The prophet Jeremiah mentions her in two places. The first was in Chapter 7 and is quite clear. So is the last....

Jeremiah 44:17-30

17 But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil.

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

19 And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our men?

20 Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying,

21 The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day.

23 Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

24 Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt:

25 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows.

26 Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord GOD liveth.

27 Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

28 Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs.

29 And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil:

30 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give Pharaohhophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that sought his life. (KJV)

America, like the Egypt YHVH delivered ABRAHAM'S Seed from, worships everything and anything that is not GOD. They built a "golden calf" in the desert. America worships the "bull" of Wall Street and the US DOLLAR. But even now our "pharaoh" has even played the dollar down. The US dollar is not backed by gold or silver..... but an 'idea' called AMERICA. And America now has a "GOLDEN" dollar made of base metal. There is no more "gold" in AMERICA. selah.

For weeks THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT has walked me through THE WORD to learn. To understand why

WISDOM is better than GOLD, that KNOWLEDGE without UNDERSTANDING is of little value. It is necessary to understand ABBA'S IMAGES and PRIORITIES. What I also found is that the AMERICAN CHURCH ignores ABBA in every possible detail. You have to wonder with a world of 6.4 billion people, 200+ national entities and thousands of 'ethnic' groupings how the 20-70 million 'so called' amerikan Christians have the hubris to believe they are the "church". That they are the "heirs" of the KINGDOM with little or no regard to the "DISTANT BRETHREN" that are left "out of sight, out of mind". Occasionally someone will 'send out' a prayer alert about "persecution" somewhere in the world, but the 'american church' sits silent and ignores their brothers and sisters. For the most part the american church notices nothing outside it's own walls.

So as a "nation" there is no 'light'. There is no moral fiber left in our nation. And electing "men" into office will not change the facts that the UNITED STATES of AMERICA is a reprobate nation with but a small remnant of saints hanging on amidst the perversion. Fifty years ago as a nation we survived economic depression and world war. Instead of holding onto what godly values we had we bought the lies and compromises that prosperity and the enemy placed before us. Instead of being awake and sober, the church fell asleep and enjoyed it's prosperity. They sold their birthright cheaply. Now the payment will be high.

- 1 And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell there upon me.
- 2 Then I beheld, and lo a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins even downward, fire; and from his loins even upward, as the appearance of brightness, as the colour of amber.
- 3 And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy.
- 4 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain.
- 5 Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry.
- 6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.
- 7 And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole in the wall.
- 8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door.
- 9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.
- 10 So I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, pourtrayed upon the wall round about.
- 11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up.
- 12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth.
- 13 He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do.
- 14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD'S house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.
- 15 Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.
- 16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD'S house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east.
- 17 Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18 Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

So will it be here for we have worshiped at the wrong alters and for all the wrong reasons.

Our "incense" has been "GIVE ME" and "BLESS ME" prayers for all too long.

We "poured out" libations and drink offerings so our endeavors will be blessed when GOD never anointed us or directed us. We keep expecting GOD to bless what HIS WORD tells us is cursed, but we have no care about ABBA'S wishes. We do what is right in our own eyes, and are proud of it.

It is stupid to insult GOD. It is stupid to provoke a HOLY GOD. It is stupid to offend a JEALOUS GOD.

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY IS THE LORD GOD ALMIGHTY.

how could america forget?

how could the church in america forget?

I wished I could pray like Daniel did....but I can not. Holy Judgement has not yet fallen on my nation and my people. so I await our appointed time.

selah

shemuel

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Green Jewel

Cyndee Pillow

Last night in prayer I had the following vision.

I saw a wing like a dove, come towards me. On the tip of the wing was a green jewel. The Lord spoke. "Look into this jewel and see what it represents."

I looked into the jewel, and I saw God as creator. I was told as I was watching the world and how it was all new at the beginning of time, that God never intended for anything to die. I knew this, but He seemed to impart more revelation of this as He spoke of which I cannot explain in words.

He showed me when the enemy took over the world. I saw the jewel become dim and crusted over. The glitter and beauty was tarnished on the stone. No longer did it reflect the light, but was hidden under the tarnished surface.

The Lord said, "This is what happened to my creation. It lost the glitter of life I created in all things, and it became marred and tarnished. The beauty of my life giving force was hidden for a time."

Then I saw a hand as a skilled craftsman, begin to shine up the jewel, and brush out the marred places. Then the craftsman blew on the jewel to remove all dust and debris. It was shining and gloriously beautiful again. The Lord said, "This is what I am about to do with all my creation once again. Soon, I will again bring beauty to my creation and breath new life into it."

As He told me this, He brought to my mind the maimed, lame and broken in the world. They will all be restored, cleaned up and will shine with the glory of the Lord. The sick and beaten down will become strong and anew in purpose and cause. There will be an awakening within God's people that will alert them to know when to speak and when to be silent.

A new awareness of God's timing and guidance will rest on the Christians. They will become precise and right on with what they say and do. The new life of God will create inward and then reflect outward. The inward will cause a knowing to believe for the outward display of Life in US. This will be of the Lord's handy work. NO MAN will take credit for the hand of the Lord will have done this.

Lastly, after the craftsman finished the jewel and it was lovely and glistening with the glory, he handed it to me. The Lord said, "I created all things for mankind, and I am returning it to it's rightful owner. This is my gift to you. I give life and I give it more abundantly. My people are about to know the meaning to this like never before."

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Ground

Robert Burgess

The Revelation of "The Ground"

The title of this article is the result of many separate pieces of revelation which the Lord has bestowed upon us over the years of Ministry. This is definitely a Word tailored by the Spirit to those who are "Weaned from the Milk, and drawn from the Breasts;" this is not for beginners... This Word may not agree with some things which the Church at large has received and passed on to following Generations, but I believe that this revelation was an open fact to the Patriarchs. We will endeavor not to cover too much ground too quickly, and if it seems to be too much, I suggest you lay it aside for awhile until you have time to pray and commune with the Lord on this matter; Then, if the Lord says so, pick it up again and resume the study. It is our prayer that these words will solve some puzzles and bring understanding to others which will, in time, bring clarity to many issues which are difficult to answer otherwise.

(Gen 2:7-8) "And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul. {8} And the LORD God planted a garden eastward (1] in Eden; and there he put (2] the man whom he had formed."

Gen 2:7: Man (Adam) was formed of the dust of "The Ground" The word is 127. 'adamah, ad-aw-maw'; from H119; soil (from its general redness):-- country, earth, ground, husband [husband-man] (husband-ry), land. Adam literally means "Red Man."

1 "EASTWARD": Here we find the Lord doing something different.. Planting a garden somewhere else. Not where the Man was formed, but Eastward in another "Land" called Eden (from Ednah--or, Pleasure [some]. This remarkable statement tells us plainly that man was not formed in the "East" (ward), but in the West.

2 "PUT": This idea is one of "Transplantation" he removed him from one area, and placed him (Ordained Him) in another.

(Gen 2:10-15) "And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads. {11} The name of the first is Pison: that is it which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold; {12} And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx stone. {13} And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia. {14} And the name of the third river is Hiddekel: that is it which goeth toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates. {15} And the LORD God took (1] the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it."

Gen 2:10: A single stream or River of Life, as it were, while it was in Eden, but after it left that blessed and Holy realm, it became "Parted" into Four heads. These "Heads" are the "Four Corners" of the earth (or the Adamic family), red, yellow, black, white.. We will explore this more thoroughly as we progress (a good study for the individual is found in the respective names and characteristics of these "Heads").

1 "TOOK": Took the Man.. 3947. laqach, law-kakh'; a prim. root; to take (in the widest variety of applications):-- accept, bring, buy, carry away, drawn, fetch, get, infold, X many, mingle, place, receive (-ing), reserve, seize, send for, take (away, -ing, up), use, win.

(Gen 3:17-19) "And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed (1] is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; {18} Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field; {19} In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return."

1 "CURSED": Cursed is the Ground for Adam's sake. God did not curse Adam directly, for to do so would be to curse Himself. This idea is foreign to the Gentile, but the Hebrew mind clearly understood the principle of such a curse, that it would return back on the preceding generation. Noah understood this when he cursed Canaan, the Son of Ham, after Ham committed abomination. For one to have cursed his own son would be to curse himself.

Solomon was not cursed of God for "David's sake." But a curse was placed upon Solomon's seed for his sins of leading Israel into idolatry. The reader must read the article "The Truth about Generational Curses" in order to understand how the believer is delivered from the "Curse of the Law" through the Lord Jesus Christ who was "Made a curse FOR US (See Gal 3:13)."

Gen 3:19: Until thou return... Where? To the Ground (or Country, Land, Region) from whence he was TAKEN -- 3947. laqach, law-kakh'; a prim. root; to take (in the widest variety of applications):--accept, bring, buy, carry away, drawn, fetch, get, infold, X many, mingle, place, receive (-ing), reserve, seize, send for, take (away, -ing, up), use, win.

(Gen 3:22-23) "And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever: {23} Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground (1] from whence he was taken."

1 "THE GROUND": Not just any Ground, but "The ground from WHENCE (or, from where) he was taken.. Let us consider next that, from the Garden he journeyed toward the Western Hemisphere...

(Gen 11:1-2) "And the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech. {2} And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east (To the West) [1], that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there."

1 "From the EAST": Toward the Western Hemisphere, from whence Adam was taken. See Gen 3:23

The land of Shinar symbolizes a Comfort Zone of Spiritual complacency into which many Christians are drawn. It seems incredible to think that the whole of humanity was traveling together up to this point, but practically the whole body of Christianity (with the exception of a few modernists) believes it, as do we. But why? Were they on a mission? Was there a purpose in their minds that may have been lost along the way? And after centuries, and even Millenniums is it once again being revealed by God's Holy Spirit, and if so, WHY?? Hang in there, I promise you it will get better; it may get a little deeper, but a lot better!!

The "Legend" of Atlantis

Before we leave this period of time it is necessary to discuss briefly some things that took place there which are very important to understand later on. It is generally accepted that Genesis 10 and 11 are speaking of the same period of time, but from two different viewpoints. In Genesis 11 we see the confusion of tongues and the scattering of the people, in Genesis ten however, we see the division of the land masses. One verse stands out in particular:

(Gen 10:25) "And unto Eber were born two sons: the name of one was Peleg; for in his days was the earth divided; and his brother's name was Joktan."

6389. Peleg, peh'-leg; the same as H6388; earthquake; Peleg, a son of Shem:--Peleg.

Now the history of Peleg's birth is re-recorded in Genesis eleven.. telling us that these two chapters are during the same time period:

(Gen 11:16) "And Eber lived four and thirty years, and begat Peleg:"

The foremost geologists of our day have long embraced the idea that the continents were at one time united together until some major catastrophic event took place. This event is the great Earthquake for which Eber named his son Peleg (or, Earthquake). The Scriptures declare that this event was so major that the earth was literally DIVIDED. Now some have suggested that the "Division" in view was due to the scattering of the PEOPLE; we admit that the people were scattered, but why would Eber name his son EARTHQUAKE and not SCATTERED. There is a big difference here. There was no grounds for him to be named anything else, for the earth WAS DIVIDED and even modern geologists believe THAT! But now let us consider how it must have looked to the people standing on one shore watching the people on the other slowly going out of sight. When one stands watching a ship disappear over the horizon it looks like it is sinking. In fact, this is no doubt where the idea came from that if you sailed too far from land your ship would fall off into nowhere.. This is cataclysmic event in the history of the world is why so many peoples had a "legend" of a lost continent that "Sank into the sea." If we took a globe of the world and examined the continents closely we could easily see that their coastlines are very similar as if they were gigantic pieces of a jigsaw puzzle, which in fact, they are.

The multitude standing on the western side of this great gulf were darker skinned than those standing on the European side; while those further south were more of a Blacker complexion. How is this possible?? It stands to reason that when the languages were scrambled that the whites could only understand other whites, and so forth; so they hung together with people of like language and complexion. This explains why the Indians of Central and South America built Pyramids much like those of the Egyptians. In fact they are much closer genetically with Arabs than with Mongols as the scientists of old have proclaimed. They didn't get to America over a land bridge, they got here as a result of a gigantic EARTHQUAKE.

The Thick darkness

At this point we will take a giant step ahead in history to the times of the New Testament. Jesus said; "For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be (Mat 24:27)." The direction the travel is very important to understand. The Sun (Son) makes it's way from east to west every day. The east is called the "Place of Light" by the Hebrews, and the west a "Place of Darkness." When the priest went into the Tabernacle to minister in the Most Holy Place their approach was from the East and their destination was in the West. David said; "As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us (Psa 103:12)." The idea in the Hebrew mind was centered on the Tabernacle, with the day of ATONEMENT in view. This was the day the High Priest entered into the Westernmost area of the Tabernacle known as the Holy of Holies, or, Most Holy Place.. This was God's dwelling place in the Tabernacle and the only piece of furniture was the Ark of the Covenant. As one proceeded from east to west here the Light got dimmer and dimmer. In the outer court there was plenty of light, but when one entered the Holy Place, their eyes had to become accustomed to another light, the more subdued light of the Golden Candlestick. Finally, after learning where everything was located in the Holy Place, the High Priest would plunge into the thick darkness of the Most Holy Place and there commune with God as He appeared in His Glory above and upon the Mercy Seat. Glory to God!! The Word records an encounter which Moses had with God ; "And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God was (Exo 20:21)."

Solomon said of the Lord's dwelling place (1 Ki 8:12-13) "Then spake Solomon, The LORD said that he would dwell in the thick darkness (or, the Holy of Holies). {13} I have surely built thee an house to dwell in, a settled place (Temple, instead of Tent) for thee to abide in for ever."

The idea I am trying to convey by all this is, that for the last 6,000 years the LIGHT has been traveling from East to West. This is not just a fact of nature, it is a prophetic principle clearly realized by the wise student of the Word. Now get ready for "Deep to call to Deep."

The land down under, or the Lower Parts of the Earth?

"And when he had thus spoken, he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem (Luke 19:28)"

In the Hebrew mind, Jerusalem was the Highest Point on the face of the whole earth. When someone went to Jerusalem they always "Went UP" to Jerusalem. When they went away from there it is said they "Went DOWN" from Jerusalem, either to Jericho, Samaria, Egypt, or somewhere in the "Lower Parts" of the Earth. Ooops!! Did I step on someone's Roman Catholic Doctrine?? I am sorry, but that is exactly what it is, and that is Babylon's idea, not God's. The Scriptures say that; "When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. {9} Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth (Eph 4:8-9)?" This Scripture has always been used to reinforce the idea of a literal burning hell, down in the center of the earth; but this is a misuse of Scripture for the "Lower Parts of the Earth" as we have stated was the lands that were furthest removed from the summit of all the earth, the Temple on Mount Moriah in Jerusalem. Now we must realize that this Scripture is many faceted and can be correctly used in different ways (none of which speaks of Hell). Let us examine what the Old Testament has to say on this subject:

"My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. (Psa 139:15)"

I have had some argue that the "Lower Parts" of the earth were not the "Lowest Parts" of the earth. To which we reply: "That may be so, but if the Lower parts of the earth is Hell, where are the "Lowest Parts?" They must be LOWER than HELL, and therefore HOTTER than HELL; not much of a place to be "Curiously Wrought" I would think. But where WAS man made? Certainly nowhere near Jerusalem, otherwise that statement would be in direct contradiction to the "Volume of the Book." Lets examine what else the Word has to say on this..

(Isa 44:23) "Sing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth: break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel."

It is ridiculous to say the least to attempt to fit this Scripture in with the doctrine of Hell being the "Lower Parts" of the earth. What pray tell me, would someone in burning agony do but shout, if he was able; but this does violence to the context of the passage. God is saying "Praise me with a loud voice... Shout GLORY TO GOD, HALLELUJAH!!!"

(Ezek 31:16) "I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth."

Now here it clearly shows the contrast between the "Pit" and those who drink water (of the Word) who dwell in the "Nether" or, LOWER parts of the earth. The word "Nether" here is the same Hebrew word translated "Lowest" in Psalms 139:15...

The truth is that Jesus went to the most low down places FIRST in His ministry.. Nazareth was about as LOW as a person could GO in the eyes of the Hebrew. He went FIRST to the outcasts of Israel, to those in the GUTTERS and other low life environments. In fact, He avoided Jerusalem in his ministry for the first three years or so except to go up to keep the Feasts. What was He doing during this time?? He was "Leading captivity captive, and giving gifts unto men."

The Path of the Gospel Now to take a different look at this. The Lower, or Lowest Parts of the earth in the Hebrew mindset is a place as far as the east is from the west. Everyone knows that if you travel west far enough you come around the world to the east again. Now suppose we imagine in our minds a Globe of the world, and now we turn it until Jerusalem sits up on the top. Now where are the "Lower Parts" of the Earth? They are the west coasts of North and South America. The Lord has been on a journey for two thousand years slowly, gradually making his way by the Spirit from the east to the west; to the "Lower Parts of the Earth."

Paul said: (Rom 15:24-25) "Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you (The Roman Church): for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company. {25} But now I go unto Jerusalem (first) to minister unto the saints."

Paul knew without any doubt that he was going to Spain; and at that time, Spain was as far west as anyone could go. He also knew that he was to go First to Jerusalem for what did Jesus say would be to order of spreading the Gospel?

"But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth (Acts 1:8)."

Notice the decline in altitude as far as the mind of the Hebrews were concerned.. Paul knew he must first go to Jerusalem, then to Rome, of all places, and then with the help of the Roman Church he would eventually arrive at Spain.. This was the route that the Spirit had revealed to him that he would follow. The route of the Gospel, if you please. Paul didn't go to Germany (through the Lutherans), or to England (the Methodists), but went from Jerusalem to ROME, of all places; then from Rome he made his way to SPAIN, of all places. The light of the Gospel moved from Jerusalem to Rome, and through Rome to Spain, then with the help of King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella, it traveled to the West Indies and then to North America.

Ooops!! Did I step on someone's Protestant Doctrine? I hope no one is offended by this, but Paul started his letter to the Romans by saying; "For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established (Rom 1:11)." Did he say to the Romans "Ye may Be ESTABLISHED??" Beloved, never underestimate the Power of an Apostolic Blessing upon anything. The plan of God seems foolish to those who have Him in a Box, but never fear, He is in control, and the outcome is in His Hands.

"Jer-usa-lem My Melting Pot" Coming to the final conclusion of the matter, though there is much more than these few words that could be added; according to what Isaiah the Prophet said concerning the Lord: "Whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace (or, Literally, MELTING POT) in Jer-usa-lem (Isa 31:9)." Could it be in the mind of God that the USA could be the central figure in His City of Peace? If there ever was a "Melting Pot" anywhere on earth it is the USA; nowhere else on earth can you find Red, Yellow, Black, and White all living and working, and even Worshipping together. Why? What has caused it to be so?? For six thousand years it has been in the hearts of men to return to "The Ground" from whence he was taken. He was curiously wrought in the Western Hemisphere, in the "Lowest Parts" of the earth. He must return to the place of his origins; to the Dust of the Earth, not in Die, but to LIVE for man was not taken out of ACCURSED GROUND, but from GOOD GROUND. The types and shadows we could pursue here are endless. But suffice it to say that things have been going according to plan and right on schedule. Even to the appearance of the Black man in the America's nearly 400 years ago because of Slavery; it was a terrible thing, but according to God's Sovereign plan, as strange as it seems. God is reconciling all men unto Himself in a specific region, or Land called "The Ground," or "The Earth." Notice the following Scripture.

"And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth (Rev 12:16)."

Azusa Street

The most powerful revival since Bible times took place in a little converted stable in the "City of Angels" called Los Angeles, California. It was in the spring of 1906 that a little group made up of Blacks, Whites, Hispanics (Mexican Indians), and Orientals began meeting in homes in this bustling west coast city; there was no place else for them to meet, for they were all considered "Crazy" or else victims of "Strong Delusion;" for they believed that God would again pour out his Spirit upon all flesh, even to the extreme of baptizing them in the Holy Ghost with evidence of Biblical Signs and wonders, including Tongues.. No building in town was available to them, then suddenly, someone heard that a building could be had down at Azusa street but it was in "Terrible shape" and needed much repair and cleaning up. Foolishness, foolishness; But "The foolishness of God is Wiser than men." This little Building down on Azusa street became the "Mother Church" of the Mighty Pentecostal Movement. It was here on the lower side of the Lower parts of the earth, that the Lord Jesus began again to "Lead Captivity Captive, and give GIFTS unto MEN." Azusa is spelled "A THROUGH Z in the USA," Is it not fitting that after he descended into the Lower Parts of the earth and gave such wonderful GIFTS unto men, that as before, He should begin to now ASCEND UP on HIGH to be GLORIFIED and ADMIRER by all. Get ready Church!! Two Prophetic days are now expired, and as the Millennium draws nigh at hand, know that the THIRD DAY is the day of His Mighty RESURRECTION. He will surely arise from where he has descended with Great Power and Glory accompanied by tens of Thousand of His Saints of every Nation, Kindred, People, and Tongue. May the Lord Bless you, and bear witness to your hearts.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The God of Glory Thunders

Doug Patterson

January 9, 2000

The God of Glory thunders. Hear the sound of the rumble and the majesty of My thunder. It is even a warning, a decree that I am about to visit. I am coming with swiftness and judgement. For even as the rumble is declaring My power and My authority, it is a time for you to look around carefully to discern the season and the place where you are found. Vision shall increase and you shall see a cloud that will be swiftly moving towards the top of the mountain. A wind will pick up before the rainstorm approaches and it will cause all the dust and debris to lift and blow up around your nostrils. You'll smell the fragrance of the dirt, you will know if it is clean or not. It is a time of examining and of sweeping clean anything that will be offensive unto Me. For soon after the wind comes the rain like a power wash. Yes, a pressurized rain coming with great force to clean and refresh and make ready the land you stand upon. Anything not fastened down and held secure will be washed away.

Your hearts must be open for this washing. My power is going to bring a force through the rain to declare cleanliness, righteousness and holiness unto the Most High God. It is not a severe time as much as a sobering time for in the power of the rain there will not be destruction upon you My people. For we are in covenant and we have a relationship of love and all is well between us. But judge yourself very carefully. Listen for the sound of the coming rain and be aware that the wind will create an alarm to secure your position in the Lord your God. Do not be concerned that it is dark and cloudy. The atmosphere will be electrified with the Holy Spirit thunderstorm and it will flash My lightening and touch the rocks around you. It will cause you to see My power and great works which will accompany your ministry. Be content in the darkness and the grayness of the thunderstorm, for as that cloud passes over a bright sun will shine upon the land. The penetrating warmth of the sun's rays shall refresh you, restore you and strengthen you. The Son of man is wanting to shine upon you with a maturing warmth so that you can reflect and be His rays of light to a weak and feeble world that needs to know that the God of Glory thunders.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Hand of the Father ~ Preparation of the Bride

Teresa Daly-Crews

There is a move underway by the Spirit of the Lord within the Body of Christ which will bring forth a unity which has not yet been seen. This unity will usher in the "greater works" of signs, wonders and miracles promised by Jesus. They saw a fraction of what is to come in Acts. (Acts 4) The power of unity being of one heart and mind brought dunamus power upon the apostles and great grace upon them all. The ground quaked beneath their feet and Kingdom prosperity came forth. We are in the sixth day and the portion allotted is double. Just as the manna given to the children in the wilderness. On the sixth day a double portion was collected so they could rest on the seventh.

Our natural minds must be put aside as what will be happening has never been seen before. There will be no doubt of the source of the Power. The power will come directly from the throne of God by the hand of Father himself. And will increase in intensity as our unity comes to fullness. It is a part of the preparation of the Bride for marriage. Bringing forth holiness with the most pure form of worship. Strongholds will immediately be broken in the presence of this anointing. The Glory and Fire that comes will allow no darkness to remain hid. Even the priests will be unable to stand in the Power of His presence. No person will be able to take credit for this move of the Father. It will not be quenched nor stopped. All hearts will be made manifest in HIS presence, as this is NOW the FATHERS time. He will prepare the Bride in holiness for His SON.

This is only a small part of what Father called "the dowry." As in the Word, the disciples were told by Jesus [Luke 24:49] And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be ENDUED with POWER from on high. The Spirit highlighted a word here, ENDUED.

In the Webster's 1828 it is defined as: (ENDUE, v.t. [L. induo.] To indue, which see) :INDUE, v.t. indu'. [L. induo. This word coincides nearly in signification with endow, that is, to put on, to furnish. Dueo is evidently a contracted word.] 1. To put on something; to invest; to clothe; as, to indue matter with forms, or man with intelligence. 2. To furnish; to supply with; to endow. INDU'ED, pp. Clothed; invested.

What the Spirit said was this endowment is similar to a dowry prepared by the father of the bride for marriage. The simplest definition of a dower is a gift. This gift will not only be the anointing promised from Father but it is also the gifts which are being prepared for the Son. The main portion of the gift for Jesus will be the purity and sanctification of His bride. The anointing which comes will completely consume our sacrifice.

We have a unique advantage here since the Father of the bride and groom are the same. We will be receiving a spiritual blessing of untold magnitude. Some of which will be enjoyed before the wedding! Another part of the endowment will be in the form of increased wisdom of the Spirit. Only the Father knows the depth and width this manifestation. We are to seek His face more diligently than ever before to receive this manna.

The Father also stressed the importance of obedience. We cannot lie to the Holy Ghost. Our hearts must be pure to operate in such an anointing, as all hearts will be revealed by His presence. We must remember what happened to Ananias and Sapphira when they hid their motives. These were believers who witnessed and partook of the outpouring in that day. We must acknowledge the same rules apply today. That act of God was not old testament. It occurred AFTER the death and resurrection of Jesus. (Acts 5) We must listen to the Spirit of the Lord as He warns of the Power coming. It will be an anointing that will carry with it the power of life AND death.

The enemy knows as the Bride becomes unified in heart, mind, and spirit he will loose many. That is why there has been such a frontal assault upon marriages, churches, and families. His main attack has been through offense, unforgiveness and division. But we are not ignorant to his devices, it is time for us to search our hearts. Forgiving all whom we hold in unforgiveness. There is no excuse for any form of unforgiveness and offense. Time is so short .....we must obey EVERY word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

Teresa Daly-Crews

www.jesusministries.com

jahshalom@aol.com

The Wrong Fear

Tony Crews

I was awakened from a dream that terrified me. My heart was racing, I was sweating profusely, and I was full of fear. The Lord reassured me it was a dream, but it was not just for me.

In the dream my wife Teresa and I were living next to a church. We don't now and never have lived next door to a church. I stepped out front because there were a lot of people making noise that sounded somewhat like a huge sporting event. I saw these people in a crowd in front of the church, with each holding on to the front of the church and pulling in one accord.

To my horror the front of the church separated in one gigantic piece as if the church was sectioned. They were pulling this section down towards themselves until they buried themselves with this wall. The most disturbing part was not that a church body made themselves dead, but they did so with excitement! Each time they pulled they roared with anticipated victory like a crowd would if watching a tug of war and one team surged to pull the other over their line. Then there was silence as the wall landed on the body.

I then sensed a presence to my left but I did not turn my head. I am not sure if I saw in my peripheral vision or discerned this presence. Either way there were three people standing there who watched this event as it unfolded. I knew the one in the middle was Satan but I do not know the other two. I learned in the spirit that the devil was responsible for this church demise and he was watching to see it to its end. I also knew that Teresa and I were next, so I ran into the house, grabbed Teresa and ran out into the back woods of our home. When we arrived into the woods we encountered a maze of tall hedges and attempted to negotiate our way with Satan and the other two closing quickly.

Before I ran into the house I noticed at the edge of the fallen wall a young woman crying for help to get out from under the wall. She was the only one I heard and saw who survived the fall. I knew it was in my power to rescue this woman, but I was so fearful I ran. Soon after we entered the maze in the woods, I woke up in that terrified pool of sweat.

The part of this dream that was for me pertained to the woman caught up under the wall. She could have been freed if I had taken the time to do something for someone else whom needed help more desperately than I. This would have been an act of love in the face of fear and perceived impending death. I John 4:18 tells us "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love." The Lord showed me that my lack of love for this woman caused her to perish and it bred the fear I was feeling when I awoke. I John 4: 7-8 tells us "Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and everyone that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love." This was my warning to show the love of God both in spirit and in deed. I am not even afforded looking out for "number one" if it means another will suffer for my selfishness.

Jesus then spoke in Revelations 2:10 "Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you in prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life." I don't know if I was to go to prison in this dream, or if my life was to end there. Either way I was not faithful to the love of God, so I would not have been afforded a crown of life if I was to die at that moment.

The part of the dream that was for the corporate body was more pronounced. The Lord showed me this church in the dream was representative of the church world today who believe they are doing God's will but are going to land in self destruction. This is not to say that all of today's churches are headed for disaster. But apparently there are churches out there that appear alive and well and are excited about the spirit that is working in their church. The Word tells us in Matthew 12:32-33 "And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, nor the world to come. Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit."

How does one blaspheme the Holy Ghost? The answer is directly related to a major dividing line in the body of Christ today. Jesus told us in Luke 4:4

Tony Crews
www.jesusministries.com
jahshalom@aol.com

Come And Dine The Master Calleth
Tony Crews

"It is not by your power, nor by your might, but by My Spirit says the Lord. I will ROAR from Heaven and the Earth shall tremble. I do not want my flock to fear. Nor do I want a hair on your heads harmed in any way. But I will turn up the heat as though each of you has walked through a furnace. But if you hearken to My commandments and enter into My courts with prayer, you will never feel as much as a tingle of heat. I have yet to pour out of My Spirit upon all flesh. I have yet to reveal My Glory in you as I showed it to Moses in the mount. You will not find a veil that can cover the brightness of My countenance. You will be known as My people or you will be known as those that I want for my people. Give unto me the Glory I command and I will give you the desires of your heart. I love you as a husband loves his wife. I want to clothe you in the most priceless garments that money cannot buy. You have never seen the covering I want to cover you with. I will make the others writhe in jealousy. My people are MY people and belong to no other. Come to My table and dine. Your place is set."

Tony Crews

11 June 2000

Teresa Daly-Crews
www.jesusministries.com
JahShalom@aol.com

[Joel 2:11-18] And the Lord shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible; and who can abide it? Therefore also now, saith the Lord, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: ..... Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach...."

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Hardness Of Your Hearts

William Hawkins

April 27th, 2000

I have called from the midst of you great numbers of Apostles and Prophets and Evangelists and Pastors and Teachers.

I have said unto you to Follow me and many have, but only so far and then you retreat to the security of your cave or other place to hide from what I am trying to accomplish with in you.

Yes! There is a time for a cave experience, but it is not today!

There is time everyday, for you to come to me and be with me, but you need not retreat to a cave to find me.

I have allowed the "FIRE" of Rejection and Affliction and Heartache to try you. I have allowed these because I must make you into:

A Metal hardened for battle

A Metal soft enough to Love.

A Metal pliable enough to forgive.

BUT:

You have not understood what I am doing in your hearts and when I have come with MY FIRE, it was not to destroy, but to refine.

When you have been in the Fire of Affliction, you have not opened your hearts to me, you have hardened them and run to the cave to hide.

I, must try you in the fire and RUB and Polish and Burnish and Glaze , ALL that you are to stand in the days ahead.

My people have always hardened their hearts against me:

Adam did so in the garden when he refused to obey me:

When I delivered my people from Pharaoh in Egypt with great signs and wonders, they hardened their hearts by not having faith that I could finish that which I had begun.

My Prophet hid in a cave and I had to feed him with the birds because his fear overpowered him.

My people refused to live with one wife and I gave them ""DIVORCE" Because of the hardness of their hearts.

My word is All too full of the hardness of men's hearts, especially those who have rejected Me, My Son, My Salvation, and today are in Hell.

TODAY!

I say to you-

STOP RUNNING!

STOP HIDING!

GET OUT OF THE CAVE!

WALK IN MY LIGHT.

Let Me make you into what I desire to make of you and No longer hide from Rejection and Affliction and Heartache, but let me use them to make you ready for what I have called you to do.

It is your Flesh that hides from these things, not your spirit. Seek to crucify your flesh as I have told you all so many times.

Your flesh does not enjoy persecution, but it is in and from this fire, that those that are mine will arise to go forth to do the exploits I have called them to do in these last days.

OH; do not be fooled my children, for these are the last days.

It is because these are the last days that I can no longer wait for those who are hardened to the work I have for them to do.

I let an entire nation perish in the wilderness because they lacked faith and tried me time and time and again.

NOW, gird your loins with Faith, walk upright before Me, Close the caves and all the hiding places and go forth with Me into battle.

Stand ready to Love and Forgive, to walk in Peace and to be led by My Spirit.

You have Talked much about following My Spirit, now walk with Me and do what you have taught.

The day is at hand---Order shall be restored--

I AM the King of Glory and Truth shall reign throughout the land and every man shall know that I AM GOD and every knee shall bow and acknowledge that I AM LORD.

William Hawkins

whawkins@ncats.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

A Vision of The Forerunners

Linda Robins

Dear brothers, sisters, friends, and family ~

Greetings to you all! I pray that you are all marinated in His Blood for redemption and His Saving Power through Mercy and Grace.

I come once again in humbleness for our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ who has called Keven and I to be His forerunners for the things to come. I had a vision about a year and a half ago. The vision was:

There was this crowd of people standing in a line on the left, on the right was symbolic to the Statue of Liberty. I had in my right hand a torch and was running down the middle between the crowd of people and the statue toward the angel who had a banner in his hand. He would twirl the banner over his head and let it come down on top of the peoples heads, and up from the people would come this incredible praise and worship. A wave of praise would grow bigger and bigger each time the banner fell upon the people. I knew that the torch I held in my hand was that of a forerunner. The prophetic voice that comes from that of a forerunner has been prophesied over us, "Forerunners for the things of the Kingdom of God". In this I pray that your hearts and spirits would hear this day what the Spirit of the Lord has to say to the body of Christ.

There is a GREAT move of God coming soon. A move that we have not yet beheld. The prophetic voice that comes from deep within my spirit has spoken of repentance in a few different ways. Repent of the sin that we have just shrugged our shoulders at and said "oh well". The sin that abuses God's Mercy and His Grace with complacency to stay where we are instead of moving deeper into God's Glory. The sin that has become so much apart of our lives that we put it on like we put on our clothes. ~ Leaving our first love, being manipulated by darkness instead of the Holy Spirit, having opinions of someone else that degrade or tear apart, being critical of someone, being a fault finder, judging unrighteously, to our children we say "do as I say, not as I do", having double standards or two persuasions, lustfulness, pridefulness, arrogance, lying, adultery, idolatry, unsubmitted minds that wander where ever - right into the pit of sin, murder, calling other people names (killing), living one way in the presence of the church and then another in our home, rebellion, unforgiveness, double minded ness, swearing, cheating, taking advantage of someone, dishonest gain, backbiting, gossip, uncontrolled tongues, undisciplined souls, empty promises, a promises of commitment for prayer unfulfilled, and the list goes on and on and on. You can shut me out here.... but don't shut out God and what He wants to do in you, for you, and through you.

Matthew 8 ~ God showed me a type and shadow of this scripture. Jesus went to the country of the Gadarenes where he met up with two demonized (mad) men. The sin was cast out into the pigs who represented uncleanness. The sin was drowned out by the water which represents the washing. The men are Free! The town was forced to change because freedom came but they didn't like the change. They didn't like the sin under the carpets pulled out and washed away. They didn't like the exposure of sin in their lives, they were angry! They told Jesus to get out and never come back. No one likes sin exposed because it can be uncomfortable. It takes a repentant heart, dying to self, and a yielded vessel to allow change. It demands a new perspective (Kingdom dynamics perspective)! Wake up, sleeping bride. Jump up to your feet sleeping bride and fall right into His Heart abounding in Love and Mercy. Jump right into His heart to hear His heart beat for change.

There is something very BIG coming into our midst. Something totally awesome but very, very BIG. In order to flow, survive, operate, evangelize - we must have repented hearts. Ananias and Sapphira in the Book of Acts, lied and died. They didn't die because the apostles were standing there. They died because they walked into the Glory of God, His Presence, His Power with sin in their lives and they died. They died of a spiritual suicide.

He who overcomes let him have an ear to what the spirit is saying. Return to your first love! He who over comes will be called to my dinner table. I'm spreading a banquet of fruit from the Tree of Life. For those who overcome will eat of the hidden Manna. For those who over come, You will not be scorched while fiery trials come your way. For those who over come, You will receive the FULL Goodness of God. For those who over come, You will be named with a new name. For those who over come, You will be made a Pillar in the Temple of God. For those who over come, You will receive Gold refined by the fire, you will be made rich. For those who over come, You will receive white garments to cover the shame of your nakedness. For those who over come, You will receive eye balm to see the goodness of the Lord.

"Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. 2 Corinthians 7:1

Father, I pray that you will move on us who are serious for change. Serious to repent. That you will forgive us for participating in unrighteous acts. I ask that you pour Your Blood out on to our lives. Let Your Blood flow through us, making continual intercession on our behalf. Let Your Blood flow through every nook and cranny in our lives exposing sin that has been swept under the carpet, the unrepented sin. Forgive us for our rebellion against you, being manipulated by the rulers of darkness, spiritual principalities, and the lust of our flesh. Move on us OH God that we might repent of our deeds of darkness. Go back Father in time and forgive our fathers, our nation where we took a detour away from you. Heal us and we will be healed. Free us that we will be free. Forgive us that we will be forgiven. Move on us in Holiness and we Will Be Holy as You Are Holy.

You do not need to reply to me, but if you have read this e-mail and was not stirred in your spirit I ask that you ask the Father to begin moving on you, through you, and around you. But if you have read this e-mail and you were stirred, respond to our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ who forgives all of our sins, who bore our diseases, and healed our brokenness. Just remember, it's not a one time fix. It's the condition of our hearts in the attitude toward repentance. Theres only one who looks at the condition of our hearts, and there is nothing hidden from Him.

I truly love you all. I pray all is well with you. Go in Jesus and be blessed ~

Linda Robins E-mail Address(es): drunk4him@juno.com

Keven and Linda Robins

KER son of EER and Daughter of the Most Awesome God

The more we desire the more He requires. Yet we still desire MORE!

The FROG family Fully Relying On God

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Seven Pillars of Wisdom

Mary (Koons) Wattenford

Wisdom has built her house, she has hewn out and set up her seven [perfect number of] pillars.
She has killed her beasts, she has mixed her [spiritual] wine, she has also set her table.
She has sent out her maids to cry from the highest places of the town.
Whoever is simple [easily led astray, wavering], let him turn in here!
As for him who lacks understanding, [God's] Wisdom says to him, "Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the [spiritual] wine which I have mixed!" Proverbs 9:1-5

Last May I had a very vivid dream in which I was shown (I found out later) the "seven pillars" of GODLY WISDOM. In my dream, however, these pillars were cracked and chipped - and appeared almost "splintered." I remember wondering in the dream "how" these pillars that appeared almost "wobbly" could sustain any type of weight upon them. I never looked up however, because I was totally struck by the exquisite beauty Of a white with gold-veined marble floor that I was standing on. Its beauty was surreal! A few feet outside of the circle of the seven pillars, was a single row of beautiful red marble that encompassed the entire area. The "red marble" was so shiny - it appeared to almost "glow" as it rested within the white gold-veined floor. It stood out in a breathtaking way and I was as drawn to the "red marble" as I had been to the "marred" pillars.

This morning - the Lord AGAIN showed me the "pillars of wisdom," but THIS TIME there was "no marring or cracks," on any of the seven. And He said:

See what I AM has done - MY wisdom is no longer fractured or splintered by man's thinking or objectives. There is no longer "marring" among the pillars - they are pristine WHITE - beautiful in their simplicity - unmarred by cracks, fractures, or chipping. This is the work I AM is doing in My Body - My "true" Body who does not attempt to "put me in a box" and bring me out only at "PLAYTIME!"

Look to the heavens My Child and see the handiwork of Your God! Look to the stars and read what I have brought forth in this day and hour. Look to YOUR GOD who has DONE THIS!

There will be MANY who will challenge you - who will "attempt" to get you to do it "their way," - who will say, "THIS IS NOT GOD!" "GOD did not bring this forth as you say, for HE does not move in such a fashion!" "It is the work of the enemy," or "AN ENEMY HAS DONE THIS TO YOU!" Is this NOT also what they also said to Me? I was not what they "imagined" I would be. I was meek and humble, and looked for the "sick" and the "hurting," and did NOT SEEK to find "my place," among them. I did not try to "curry favor" among those who "considered themselves somebody!" Would that MORE would seek to look for ME - where I MIGHT BE FOUND! Would that MORE would lay aside - once and for all - their preconceptions of ME and MY CHARACTER! Mankind has NEVER known ME the way I should be KNOWN - as a "loving Father," as THE "Creator God," whose creation is limitless - and unfathomable, but VISIBLE!! Mankind has ALWAYS chosen to ATTEMPT to "work its way" to ME, instead of taking on FAITH the LOVE I HAVE FOR MY CREATION! Mankind does not harken to MY VOICE, but if ANOTHER should come in MY NAME and say the words it so longs to hear - THAT VOICE THEY WILL LISTEN TOO!! As it was in the days of Noah, so IT WILL BE AGAIN IN THE DAYS OF THE SONS OF GOD.....for are they not STILL "giving in marriage," are they not STILL "working, striving," attempting to come to Me by their OWN PLANS assuming that I AM will look upon them in favor! But WHO did I minister too when I came? Was it to those who "were righteous" in appearance, but who were "full of all manner of uncleanness" within? NO!! I came to those who were "shunned" by the established religious leaders of the day... I came to the ones who had NO WAY to repay ME for what I did for them. I came to the ones that the ENEMY considered "unworthy" of MY NOTICE! AND SO SHOULD YOU DO!!

Oh yes, My Daughter - you WILL BE CHALLENGED for what I AM is saying to you this day..... For I AM A GOD who brings forth THIS DAY - the MOVE - the WAVE OF MY SPIRIT in "GREAT POWER." In MY GREAT MERCY I DO THIS - even as I have cradled you like a mother hen beneath My wings, so - do I NOW bring forth in you the FULLNESS of MY PERSON that you might go and minister to those who, again, the enemy considers BENEATH his NOTICE! Those who are lost, fallen by the wayside, who the PRIESTS and the LEVITIES will not "lower themselves to help!" Those who have been forgotten - forlorn and forsaken by what CALLS ITSELF "MY CHURCH!" What is MY CHURCH? What did I tell Peter My Church would be BUILT UPON - was it NOT "the revealed knowledge" that was given him BY THE FATHER?? Was it NOT so that HE too - could go forth - and "reveal" Myself to them who knew ME NOT - those who the righteous considered BENEATH THEIR NOTICE? AND SO SHALL YOU DO IN THE DAYS AHEAD.....and SO SHALL YOUR BRETHREN TOO! This "IS" the wisdom of YOUR GOD - that I bring forth in, by and THROUGH revelation knowledge - "MY WISDOM" that NO MAN CAN DISPUTE!! Did I not say that I chose the "simple" to confound the "wise?" The "logic" of man CAN NO LONGER suffice and attempt to replace the WISDOM OF ITS CREATOR!

Remember the Tower of Babel My daughter? They, in their "human" wisdom, attempted to reach to the stars - to MY CREATION! If they had succeeded - does My Word not say that "NOTHING would be impossible for them?" But in this hour - at this time, SOME WILL REACH TO THE HEAVENLIES, not through their own "vainglorious pride," but through MY SPIRIT and then, TRULY - will NOTHING BE IMPOSSIBLE!

I have knitted you with those who have known MUCH HEARTACHE, SUFFERING AND PAIN - I AM has CHOSEN to bring you forth with those who have "no need" for personal glory, but who seek the GLORY OF HIM WHO HAS SUSTAINED THEM THROUGH THEIR TRIALS!! I WILL BRING FORTH IN THIS GROUP - the "signs and wonders" that were the HALLMARK of My early believers, those who had walked with Me upon this earth - those who truly WERE My Church - MY BODY - brought forth in the MANIFEST FULLNESS and GLORY of its CREATOR GOD!

AGAIN - I AM CREATING - a "NEW THING" A GLORIOUS THING UPON THIS EARTH..... THIS IS A TIME TO REJOICE!! AND LOOK UP - FOR YOUR REDEMPTION DRAWETH NIGH!!! For AGAIN - Will I walk with MY CREATION - in this earth and bring forth - in My people, My chosen ones - the GLORY AND WISDOM OF THEIR HEAVENLY FATHER. And THEY, My people, My chosen ones - will REACH OUT TO ME, AS I REACH OUT TO DRAW THEM IN TO MYSELF - AND I WILL FILL THOSE EMPTY PLACES AMONGST THE STARS WITH A NEW HEAVENLY LIGHT - THAT IS THEIR REFLECTION OF ME SHINING FORTH UPON THIS PLANET AND IN THE HEAVENLIES!

And the whole earth was of one language, and of one accent and mode of expression.

And as they journeyed eastward they found a plain (valley) in the land of Shinar (meaning "country of two rivers") and they settled and dwelt there.

And they said one to another, "Come, let us make bricks and burn them thoroughly." So they had brick for stone, and slime (bitumen) for mortar.

And they said, "Come, let us build us a city; and a tower whose top reaches into the sky; and let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered over the whole earth."

And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which the sons of men had built.

And the Lord said, "Behold, they are one people, and they have all one language, and this is only the beginning of what they will do; and now nothing they have imagined they can do will be impossible for them."

"Come, let Us go down, and there confound (mix up, confuse) their language, that they may not understand one another's speech."

So the Lord scattered them abroad from that place upon the face of the whole earth; and they gave up building the city.

Therefore, the name of it was called Babel (meaning "confusion-by mixing"), because the Lord there confounded the language of all the earth; and from that place the Lord scattered them abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

Genesis 11:1-9

(Note - I felt STRONGLY that the Lord was impressing upon me that what is "really" represented here is a "pseudo-church" verses HIS TRUE CHURCH - who "will" speak the same language, and which will be built of "HIS LIVING STONES," and NOT "man-made brick!")

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Apostolic Group

Richard W Breazeale

Tuesday, January 04, 2000

The Lord has brought together the most unlikely people to establish and restore His church. In this we find teams, a more complete ministry being formed rather than as has been for a number of years. A pastor with elders is incomplete and now is all out of whack. The church of today looks nothing like that established in the beginning. Maybe purposeful on Gods part, or maybe just mans inability to stand in the ways of the Lord. It doesn't matter, all that matters is what the Lord is doing now.

We have an apostolic group. Apostle, Prophet, Teacher, Evangelist, Pastor, and?.... We see among us many of the various giftings of the Spirit. The apostolic is called to walk in Kingdom ways, Gods ways. This is why it has been difficult, first our ways have to be stripped from us. Because it seems as though we cant just lay them down!

What we do from now on will determine much in what He will do through us. As we said yes, or here I am in the past He came and has been molding, shaping, through trial and test we have been in preparation for what He wills to do in this area of the country. We are not alone, there are several across the nation and the world being raised up as this. We have learned what it means to love, to stand together in commitment to His will and works and in the midst of each others funk and lacking. He has done this thing, we are unable to do this ourselves.

Our prayers have been answered and we stumbled and fell and whined and cried in the midst of the answer. How did we think it would look when the Lord would raise one up? Did we believe it we would wake up one day and full of the Spirit and power move out to change the world? No, we have been going through a very slow precise circumcision. And as yet we are not healed. But healing is near if we allow.

The difficulty of a group of called leaders coming together like this has been at times comical, but most often mightily grievous and overwhelming. Even many of our family, friends, close relations and acquaintances has ridiculed, accused, laughed at, and denied us. As the Lord moves to change and restore His ways and remove mans ways from His body, we are a misunderstood and despised people. Sound familiar?

In this restructuring / restoration, I find there is no one of us which lords it over another. But each is held accountable and responsible to each other. The idea of pastoral covering is being stripped away and most don't see it yet. The Apostle is being shown to be a servant more than a leader. The prophet is being revealed as one who rubs all raw and needs constant prayer and balanced loving correction. The servant is learning that he must just serve, and in serving see truths and knowledge that we thought only leaders can lay hold of because of importance of position (in mans ways and eyes). The evangelist is being rung out and hung up to dry in the winds of Spirit being taught to rely, and function, and move only in the Spirit, not to rely upon human means and plans. The teacher is learning to be taught and remain teachable by the student. The pastor is learning that he leads by example and stands in the gap, that being a shepherd is nothing like he thought, that he is not boss and cannot have a committee or council of elders to help guide and direct, but the Spirit, and fellow workers and flock keeping him accountable. We are all learning all of this and more. Totally contrary to human nature we stand in this which looks like a mess to the world (and the 'church') right now. Yet our Lord has his purposes and means. If we do not resist or deny or fall away, He can use us to change the world!

He is teaching us that the foundation lies underneath the building with the capstone (Messiah) on top. The body is held up by us, it is not lifted or lead by it. The whole body is lead by the capstone. Foundations are mostly and usually overlooked except by people of certain calling or persuasion. It is not seen unless looked for, yet it is to be strong and sturdy to hold the building. It is to be solid and unmovable! Unseen to most. Unappreciated and not acknowledged. All the forces of nature and the natural move upon it and come against it to test its steel and resolve. In all this it must just stand, be solid, unmovable.

Just some thoughts

One more, if the structure does not stand, guess who is blamed?

laz

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Calm Before The Storm

Harley Hickling

April 24, 2000

In the natural world there is a time of stillness, a time of calm even though to the natural eye it is obvious that a major storm is rapidly approaching. Even the birds of the air remain silent as this calm surrounds them and as the approaching storm gathers their attention to look for a place of shelter. Just as it is in the natural, so it is in the spiritual for many among my children can see the storm of My wrath building in awesome power and strength, yet they are experiencing a stillness, a calmness in their souls. I say unto you who are experiencing this stillness to come into the shelter of My wings for a short season with Me before My Whirlwind overtakes your world. I have placed a burning flame within your hearts which only I can satisfy. Some of you are even crying out "Oh Lord, I don't know that I can withstand any more of this flame, this absolute burning hunger I have in my heart for you. Could You possibly turn the heat down a little?" To this I respond "Never" for not only will I not quench this flame, I shall cause it to increase greater still until it becomes a totally all consuming fire for with this fire I Am removing that which remains within each of you that must be removed if you are to be cleansed vessels suitable for the fullness of My indwelling presence. Come now and join me in David's Tabernacle in what remains of this season of stillness. Prostrate yourselves before Me, open up your hearts before Me and receive My cleansing fire and once you are cleansed receive My refreshing presence for I shall fill you with good things. For the water of the Spirit shall come alive within you and shall flow forth in mighty torrents. For by My fire I shall cleanse, by My water I shall refresh and by My wind shall judgment come and come quickly.

As the Whirlwind approaches, every nation will be affected, every person shall be touched. No one shall escape its' impact, though some will experience more of My wrath than will others. The hearts of multitudes will soon be crying out in consternation and fear as the calm of this present world is soon replaced by the tempest of My Whirlwind. You who have sought out My cleansing and My presence will soon stand out sharply against the backdrop of darkness and fear that will be everywhere about you, for you shall truly be seen as clearly as a beacon of light upon a hill. People shall be drawn to you just as surely as a moth can not resist the flames of a candle. They shall see within you the peace and power of My burning presence and they will inquire of you, "What must I do to have this presence within me that is so evident in you?" "What must I do to be saved?" Yes, the season of harvest is soon upon you so I say once again, Come into the shelter of My wings while it is yet still before the coming storm. Be cleansed by My fire and be filled with the refreshing water of My Spirit for in Me fire and water and wind do indeed coexist. The entries into My Tabernacle are open and I await you expectantly. Come join Me for this short season of preparation and refreshing for the work I have called you forth to perform will soon be upon you. For I have called you forth long before you were ever in your mother's womb for a time such as this. Come into My Tabernacle of love and praise and worship Me in spirit and in truth and see what wonders and tender mercies I have prepared for each of you.

Harley Hickling

Please send any comments to hickling@home.com

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Corridor Of Portraits

Bryan Hupperts

Tuesday, February 29, 2000

While praying today, the Lord opened a beautiful vision to me. I found myself in a very long hallway and at the opposite far end of this hallway was a fireplace burning in a room. I began to walk down the corridor and saw blank canvases hanging in a row all autographed by an artist named Jesus.

EMPTY CANVASES

I was fuddled and wondered why anyone would hang up empty canvases autographed by the artist as if they were works of genuine art. As I progressed down the hall I began to see a few lines here and there on some of the painting but could not make out any figures or face.

As I continued down the corridor the paintings began to take shape. I began to see faces and outlines and figures of people. All were lovingly autographed with the signature of Jesus.

At last, magnificent charcoal sketches began to appear and I could make out whole faces. These sketches were stunning in their detail and beauty. I kept walking, pausing to admire the masterpieces when suddenly colors began to appear in the paintings. There were a few splashes of color here and there but the amount kept increasing with each step. These half-finished paintings were even more haunting in their beauty than the charcoal sketches.

A FEW BRUSH STROKES MISSING

As I neared the end of the corridor the paintings were almost complete. Some merely lacked a few brush strokes to be finished and all were indescribably exquisite. They had all been painted by a Master.

Then I entered what I immediately understood to be the family room. There were glorious completed portraits of people from every kindred and tongue, people and nation hanging everywhere. They made up a mural of the grace of God and, by comparison, made the Mona Lisa look like bad street graffiti. Over the roaring hearth was a life-size portrait of Jesus that seemed to glow, lighting up the room.

What really struck me was how every painting in the room (and those nearly completed ones in the hall) could look so different from each other but still look like Jesus. There was a definite family resemblance in each portrait that looked like Jesus.

THE HOLY SPIRIT QUIETLY ASKED ME A QUESTION

As the vision ended, I felt the Holy Spirit quietly ask me a question: Child, where would you like your portrait hung?

Then I understood the vision. Those at the beginning of the hall were those who had trusted Jesus as Savior but then wouldn't let him touch them again. The whole hall was a picture of people who had progressed to various places of their sanctification and then stopped and refused to go any further with God. Some were hung so close to the family room it was a heartache to see them outside in the corridor. They were almost redone and transformed into the image of Jesus.

ALL PORTRAITS BELONGED TO JESUS--EACH WERE HIS

All the portraits were indeed autographed by Jesus and each was his. Those in the family room were those who had fully yielded their lives by always saying "Yes" to him when he asked - whatever he asked. This is not a picture of salvation by works but of the people bowing their wills to God and walking his narrow way - who had lived their lives to please Him alone.

The Lord was asking me if I would go all the way and let him paint his masterpiece in me. He calls us to be transformed into the image of his dear Son. The Christian landscape is littered with what Jesus referred to as 'half-finished towers', people who started well but then somewhere along the way got hurt, offended, or just began to drift away.

I looked at the blank canvases, the babes in Christ who wouldn't grow up, and realize that I have indeed let God touch me many times. A holy fear fell on me as I contemplated being hung up as a half-finished or even nearly finished masterpiece. I've grown faint and weary with trails and have been tempted to just quit. After seeing the faces of those who had quit in the portraits, I determined anew to run the race set before me, finish the course, and hear, "Well done, you good and faithful servant." I want my finished portrait hanging in the family room so I can dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Child of God, where do you want your portrait hung?

E-mail: bryanh@igateway.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Heat Is On - Come Up Higher!

Ching Co

In the past 3 days, different feelings has been sweeping over me both in the spirit and in reality. I have felt as if great heat has been turn on from all direction. As I watch the events taking place all over the nations and in our country, as I was watching and praying for God's people, as I was sorting through my own pains and confusions, I witness like an onslaught from the enemy seemingly overtaking many. I was feeling suffocated, choked, overwhelmed from all point and was finding myself lost not knowing how to pray for each situation and where to start praying. Everywhere around me, the need was so great and the momentum of the unfolding of events so fast, that I felt numb not knowing what to do...

MT CARMEL

It was at this point when the Lord reminded about the story of Elijah praying on top of Mount Carmel and how in so many ways this is what most of God's people and even the world at this stage are facing.

Things are happening in our midst which are matter of life and death realities. The Lord zoomed in the picture of Elijah down on his knees several times and I can picture him so still every so often as he prayed.

I also saw this vision of a pond, and there was a hand trying to muddy the water by stirring on that pond and throwing stones to disturb the serenity of the water. This is symbolic of what is taking place in our midst. The enemy is seeking to disturb the serenity of our soul by muddying up our lives through outward and inward circumstances, he has been using anything to throw at us. It comes in all manners and he will use any means (people or events even our loved ones) to inflict deep pain to our hearts and to disturb us and distract us from that place of stillness where God has already began to draw us.

CLIMB HIGHER

Then I felt the Lord impressing these thoughts to me.

Now is the time to climb up higher. Do not stay at the place of turmoil whether of spirit or of the soul. We are to press on higher to the mountain of God where He dwell. We may gasped for breath along the way because of the high altitude, but we must press in even if we seem to be moving so slowly for He is up there waiting for us to show us the whole perspective. When we reach that mountaintop, we may have to await and do what Elijah did, and we will see the shadow of the small cloud like the fist of man. God will give us the confirmation and encouragement that we all will need to stay on the track, these confirmation may also be small and not so significant, just like that small cloud the size of a man's fist. But we need to stay put in that mountain and set our eyes upon our God, who was faithful, is faithful, and will always be faithful.

NO LONGER WAR GAMES

What is happening all around us are no longer war games, it is the real battle. The enemy is seeking to kill, steal, and destroy and he is coming with all his forces seeking to destroy God's people. BUT WE WILL WIN THIS BATTLE FOR THIS BATTLE HAS ALREADY BEEN WON 2000 YEARS AGO.

FATHER'S WORD:

"Come up higher, come up higher, climb to the place that I have prepared for you these days. You know the way, You will not miss it for I am with you. Take your place beside Me as did Abraham. Be still as Elijah did before Me in Mount Carmel. See, the clouds of my blessings are on its way. It is coming, it will not be delayed. Let Me cover you under My arms. Let me surround you with My peace, let Me clothe you with My assurance.

I've seen your labor, I heard your groans, I know your longings and your desires. They are ever before Me like fragrant burning incense that fills the temple with sweet aroma.

Do not be distracted by the commotions taking place in your midst. Set your eyes upon Me. Set your hearts upon Me. For I am here with you."

May the peace of God be upon all of us who are finding ourselves in this place today. Let us remain strong and be of good cheers, the God of the Universe is with us. He will never leave us nor forsake us.

Blessings,

Sis. Ching Cebu City Philippines

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Help In The Time Of The Storm

Nita Johnson

I would like to preface this article by stating the reason for including this section in our newsletter.

First, we desire to encourage the believer in a love for Israel. There are so many different doctrines in the body of Christ that are basically anti-Semitic we feel that the church can use some balancing in this area.

Secondly we are going to see a deception eventually overtake many in the Church leading them to reject the Jew at a most critical time. We would like to temper the enemy's impact in this as much as possible by constantly revealing Elohim's heart toward His ancient people.

Third, we desire to give the believer articles to share with Jewish friends, as the Spirit would lead.

In a dream I had two very dear friends who were orthodox Jews. They were very devout in their beliefs and had a tremendous heart for our people. They were husband and wife and both were doctors. (It reminded me a little of my dear friends the Danowits who write articles for us.) That however is where the similarity ended. This couple, unlike the Danowits did not know the Messiah.

The setting the dream took place in was a time in America when the persecution of the Jews was running ramped. Some how in the midst of this terrible time, my friends were able to hide their true identity as Jews and continue their medical practice as well as their new endeavor which was to help the persecuted Jews escape America.

As it turned out I helped both of them individually. They each worked separately toward the preservation of every Jew they could help. Neither knew what the other was doing. They maintained this secrecy to protect the other in case one might be picked up by the authorities. This decision did create relationship problems however. For one of them might suddenly pick up their medicine bag, and leave for days on end never revealing to the other that they were leaving or where they were going. I found myself constantly encouraging them to trust one another even though neither understood the others silence. I often went with one or the other of them so they trusted me even as an occasional mediator in their own relationship. They sacrificed all they had to help every Jew they could find escape the holocaust that was in full swing in America to aliya to Israel.

There were times that a group of Jews were ready to be smuggled to Israel when a plague of some sort would break out among them. One of my friends would be called and off they would go to work day and night until the plague was under control and the refugees could safely make the boat trip to their homeland.

The times were filled with tension. Everyone felt it whether Jew or Gentile. Many wealthy Jews were doing as my friends; they were using all their resources to help the less fortunate Jews make aliya. There were times of laughter and great joy as little victories were won. But, for the most part the days were filled with stress, intrigue, and severe difficulties.

This is in fact coming to America. There will be Jews and Christians alike living double lives sacrificing all to help every Jew possible make aliya so their lives can be spared until the veil is removed and they find their Messiah. On the other hand, many Jews will open their hearts to Messiah through the loving support and help of Christian during this difficult time. As we feel led by the Holy Spirit we need to begin to encourage our Jewish friends to make aliya while it is still safe to do so. At the very least we need to begin to pray that Jews will begin to immigrate back to Israel for their ultimate safety while we are still in a time of peace.

The doors are now open as wide as they have probably ever been for immigration. Under the new administration of Sharansky and minister of interior, even Jews who are married to Gentiles can immigrate with family in tact. So, pray friends of Israel. Pray and pray further that Elohim will help you understand your role in the difficult days ahead!

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The I Am Is Fighting The Battle

Olivia Reitz

Rev. 18:4 "And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, come out of her, My people, that you be not partakers of her sins, and that you receive not of her plagues".

October 20, 2000

I AM a Living God and I AM a God of love, mercy, compassion and justice. I AM and have been opening up My mysteries to My true servants. I AM a God of SUPREME POWER, and very quickly now, I will intervene in your circumstances and "launch" you into your destinies.

I AM a "Separator" and a "Restorer". I AM and have been separating My Own from the world unto Myself. I have an election foreknown from the foundation of the world ... of those in their day who would be transformed to the likeness of My Son. Prophecy "is being fulfilled in this day. and it is your day". I AM a Separator, and My Chosen are separated from the world by OBEDIENT FAITH. My redeemed ones, "Abraham's seed". I have always known that "these" would receive and manifest My Word and be redeemed. You are experiencing a 'new birth' and your season of "new beginnings" is just before you.

When you accepted My Son, as Lord and Savior, He took away many burdens, but I have also called you to "take My yoke upon you". My yoke is not too heavy to bear for Jesus bears it with you. NEVERTHELESS, you have been called and chosen to follow regardless of the cost. AND THE COST HAS BEEN HIGH ! I have allowed the most intense testing and sifting to come to My saints! At times you have felt like giving up, you have been under such severe attacks, as never before. Darkness has surrounded you and it has been allowed by Me to test and purify your faith and to produce endurance and maturity for the sending forth... You are My chosen, a people who know their God and you shall be bold, strong and carry out great exploits. The enemy has tried to place doubts in your hearts. Doubts as to My promises and My goodness. But I, your God, have placed in you the desires of My heart and they have become your desires. My vision has become your vision. And My desires and My vision SHALL come forth! I have given you great and mighty promises and My promises are right on time. You shall see ALL the fruit you have been endeavoring to see. I say to you, this day, that all the palmerworm and the cankerworm has eaten is going to be restored to you...

Your are a people within a people, a Holy Remnant, that I am raising up. A sanctified people, a predestined people, a people who will be conformed to My Son's image, and prepared by My hand. I have been with you every step of the way, through all your tests and trials, through your victories and your failures. Do not be concerned about your failures, My loved ones, for "no-one" is able in these testings to have a perfect score!

I have called you to rest. Religion has taught you that you must be doing something, but I say again, REST in YOUR GOD, be strong in the Lord and in the power of My might, ALLOW ME to fight this battle. I have seen your tears, your questions and have heard your concerns. You have been and still are in the palm of My hand. I have carried and protected you and guided you through areas that you were not even aware of. You thought I was doing nothing, but a great and mighty work has been done unknown to you. But I say again, this is not the time for you to be doing something, but to be resting in Me. I AM the one Who is doing and fighting the battle.

Now is your time to receive, restoration is coming to My people. The doors of blessing and opportunity are being held open to you. Receive your blessings, speak and rejoice in My Word. Place your hope in Me, for I AM is the one who is placing you in your calling and in your destination. Rest and confess daily, "the Lord says, the Lord says, the Lord says" until you get it in your spirit. For the time is "QUICKLY" approaching when you shall mount up and soar as the eagle, as you proclaim ..... "The Lord says, the Lord says, the Lord says".

I AM the SEPARATOR, I AM the RESTORER and the I AM is FIGHTING THE BATTLE...

A Message To All My Beloved Children

Olivia Reitz

October 19, 2000

Like never before, I am moving in My children. Like never before, you will see Me moving. This is your season and hour. I will move in your life like never before. You will begin to see the signs and you will know without a doubt, this is your time.

Do you believe My word is true? Are you walking in My Faith? I have given you a measure of faith and My measure of faith is Mighty and Sure. Walk in My Word and in My Faith. Speak My Word in Faith and see the mountains move!

I am the miracle making God. What I call forth must come forth. I have called for the season and it is here. If you speak the word in the Name of Jesus, it must come forth. All things are subject to My Word. All authority has been given in My Name. Use My name to "thwart" the wiles of the enemy. Use My Name against sickness and disease, poverty, family strife, rejection, oppression and emotional problems....Use My Name, it is full of Authority and Power. In My Name, ministries will rise and walls will fall. The walls of resistance will fall. Use My Name to see the results of the cries of your heart.

One request, I now make of you, please, I repeat, please....do not wait to pray for another after you see desperation in their life. Pray for them now when all "appears" to be stable with them.

Pledge to Me your absolute surrender and obedience to anything I have called you to, for never would I express My will toward you, except in an expression of My perfect love. I desire only the very best for you, my nature will not allow anything less than the best.

Keep your eyes fixed on Me. I am reaffirming and confirming the words and promises I have given to you. Grasp and lay hold of each one of them. Speak them as though they have already happened and give Me all the praise, NOW!!!

Trust Me, I will not let you down. You shall have the desires of your heart. I AM that sitteth on the Throne, beacons to you, My Children....Great and Mighty things are done by My hand. These are awesome days and I AM an awesome God!

My Accomplished Word

Olivia Reitz

To My wilderness people, I say, My Word shall go forth and accomplish what I intend for it to accomplish. I have spoken My Word over you, and it shall be accomplished. No demon in hell can stop it from coming to pass. It shall accomplish what I have spoken it to do. So stand on what I have spoken, DO NOT WAVER! What I have said, I will do. For anytime that I speak, it is done!

You are My faithful ones, My sealed ones, who have died to self, giving up "all" to follow Me. You have made your commitment permanent, and have passed the "time of severe testing" and you will stand during the blowing of My winds. You will pass through the time of trouble, for you have received a special preparation in harmony with your commitment.

I have asked you to rest for a little season, until your fellow servants will have died as you have died, til this season comes to fulfillment. And this season is "rapidly" coming to completion.

My weary ones are getting ready to pass over the Jordan into the promised land. I have prepared you and guided you. Each "word" given to you was a preparation. It was like the manna I had given to the children of Israel. And like the children of Israel, you became weary of the manna, but they were to feed you and sustain you. Now, be prepared and be ready for I am taking you from your wilderness into your promised land. I will go with you. I will go before you and behind you. Be ready to move into the land prepared for you.

As you prepare to go into that land, run and get vessels, and not a few, for I AM pouring out blessings that cannot be contained in a few vessels but as many as you can get. DO NOT LIMIT ME but "receive" your blessings, blessings, blessings, as I pour them forth. The very blessings that you have waited so long for, are coming forth. You will be as the woman with the oil, as long, as she poured, it kept coming, so it shall be with you.

Again, My beloved ones, be ready and be prepared, to move forth at My command!

Olivia Reitz
email: mreitz@penn.com

The Joseph Experience

Hollie Moody

The Robes Of Many Colors

I saw a group of men and women. They appeared to be in a church setting. They were standing before the Lord. He presented each of these men and women with a gift. The people accepted their gifts and opened them up. Each gift was the same. It was a robe of many colors. The people were excited by their gift and immediately put it on. They then turned around to share it and to show it to the other people in the church.

Instead of being excited about the colorful robes these men and women had received from the Lord, the rest of the people were angry and upset. They began to tear at the robes of the people, and to speak angrily to them. The people who were wearing the robes, began to flee from the church.

Mantles And The Desert

Next, I saw this group of people who had fled from their church in a desert setting. Their robes were gone and had been replaced by a rough looking cape around their shoulders. (When I saw the cape around their shoulders, the word, "mantle" immediately came to my mind. I then noticed that I, too, was wearing a mantle.) We all appeared tired, weary, and wounded. We also had what appeared to be chains wrapped around our chests. Our heads were down, and we were trudging slowly and listlessly through the desert.

I began to hear the sound of a voice calling out. As I began to look around for where the voice was coming from, the people in the desert also began to lift up their heads and to glance around to see where the voice was coming from. Before us, we saw the Lord standing with His hands outstretched towards us. He was calling to us. He was standing in what appeared to be a shelter within the face of a rock wall. This shelter was enclosed on three sides by the rock wall.

The Pearls

The people with mantles and I joined the Lord in this sheltered place. When we reached Him, He instructed us to reach under our mantles. We did so, and under each of our mantles, was a pearl. Each of us had a pearl. Each pearl was of a different color and size, but we each had one. We stared in awe and surprise at our pearl.

Some of the people began to go off running, with their pearl clutched in their hand. The Lord called after them and told them to come back. He said it wasn't time yet to run, and to wait a little longer. Some of the people kept on running. The rest, reluctantly returned to those of us who were in the shelter with the Lord.

The Lord seemed to be talking to us. He seemed to be teaching and instructing us about how to use our pearls.

The Chains Fall Off

"Now it is time !!!" the Lord said to us after He had finished teaching and instructing us. When the Lord said this, the chains around our chests dropped off, and we began to run back across the desert with our pearls.

Most of us, returned to the church we had fled from earlier. The rest, went to other churches, and other people. When we returned to our churches, we were accepted back joyfully. We still had mantles around our shoulders. Yet the chains and the wounds were now gone. We were surrounded by the people in our churches, and we were all gazing with joy and awe at the pearl those wearing mantles were holding.

Then, the vision ended.

When I prayed about this vision, I felt the Lord was saying that the people I saw in the beginning, who had received a colorful robe from Him, were His "Josephs." The colorful robe represented a gift of the Spirit that the Lord had blessed this person with. Instead of being accepted and excited about the gift, others in the church had reacted to these gifts with anger and jealousy, and had stripped the "Josephs" of their robe (or "gift"). The "Josephs" had fled, and had been wandering in a spiritual desert.

When they heard the voice of the Lord, they went to Him. There, in the shelter of a rocky place, they found new strength and encouragement from being in the presence of the Lord. After the Lord presented them with their pearls, and taught and instructed them on how to correctly use their pearls, He sent them forth, and sent them back to minister once again to their brothers and sisters in their churches.

I felt that when the chains fell off, this represented the spiritual chains of bondage that had been inflicted upon many of the "Josephs." I also felt these chains were chains of bitterness and unforgiveness on the part of the "Josephs" towards those who had hurt them, and stripped them of their gift from the Lord (their colorful robes).

I feel the Lord is saying that the time of restoring those with certain gifts of the Spirit, is about to occur, and that it will occur suddenly. And when it does occur, there will be forgiveness both on the part of those who caused the wounds of the "Josephs" and on the part of the "Josephs" towards those who wounded and rejected them.

Those who attempt to take their pearl and run before having been properly instructed of the Lord, may not find this forgiveness and acceptance that is coming. In my spirit, I feel this time is already beginning, and I am excited by it.

I encourage all the "Josephs" to stand still for a little while longer, and to wait upon the Lord to prepare the way before them.

In Him, ~ Hollie L. Moody

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Kingdom Age

Harley Hickling

January 8, 2000

Quite recently multiplied millions celebrated the advent of a new millennium. Among most of the celebrants there was consistently being raised a hope that with the dawning of this new age would come a better life for one and all. The New Agers and many other like minded groups were particularly hopeful that life would not only now be different but would be better as well with love for all becoming the dominating theme of this new age. As the world turned during that night of festive celebration very few observers of the massive displays of celebration really understood the true nature of the advent of that which was truly taking place before their very eyes, for with the passage through the many time zones a new age did indeed come into being, the Kingdom Age of My beloved Son, Jesus. How fitting that the world should celebrate with mighty displays of colors, lights, fireworks, dancing and rejoicing about that which they knew not of, even as it surely came into being.

Many among you might say, yes the Kingdom Age is near for I do believe that the Kingdom Age is even now on the horizon awaiting the return of our Lord Jesus to establish His Kingdom on Earth. But I tell you the Kingdom Age is much nearer to you than that for it has already come and is already everywhere about you. Have I not said in My Word that there would be a people of great action who would take the Kingdom of Heaven by force and is this not also the time that I have prepared My Apostles and My Prophets to come forth? For it is by My Apostles and My Prophets that the Kingdom of Heaven shall indeed be taken by force and shall be introduced and to be made manifest throughout the Earth. This is that time when they shall emerge in My majestic power and authority bringing the reality of My Son's Kingdom into the everyday life of all no matter where they may live throughout the Earth. For I Am raising up My Church into a new and far higher standard than it has ever known and with this new standard there will also reside a new power, presence and authority that will truly astound all. The powers of darkness will be struck with successive staggering blows by My servants which will cause many of the demonic powers to retreat to safer grounds and in the process releasing multitudes among the lost that they have kept in bondage, separated from My love. And following this separation from evil, there will come a great harvest of the lost into My barns as My Five Fold ministry comes into its own with power and with authority and the great white harvest shall then be completed. Even now My Son is stepping forward as Captain of the Hosts calling forth His Army as the final battle with His adversary is now about to be engaged.

You might say I see little evidence that His Kingdom is in place. To this I say stay awake and be watchful and be sure to look about you with eyes of faith and listen carefully with your heart of faith, for it is by faith and by no other means that His Kingdom shall be made manifest. It is true that life about you now looks no different than it has since you can remember. But it is also true that there are yet many cataclysmic and earth shattering events that will take place before the end. Turmoil and chaos are yet to rule for a season and rule they surely will. But victory is assured and everything Satanic will be crushed with Satan himself being bound and tossed into the abyss. The glorious vistas and surroundings that signify to many of you the reality of the King's mighty presence on Earth are still yet to come, but mark My word, His Kingdom has come upon you. He has even now taken His rightful place as your King of Kings and Lord of Lords and His reign shall be from everlasting unto everlasting and all will discover that love is indeed the driving force of this, His Kingdom Age.

Please send any comments to riverman@exis.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Lazarus Call

Doug Patterson

March 12, 2000:

My people do not be discouraged. For even though some find themselves in a very dark place, the smallest degree of light will still illuminate and cut a pathway into a new victory, into a fresh anointing. You have been hidden away as my chosen ones for a very special time. It has been a time of transformation, a time of self-examination and a time of perspective and seeing who you are and who I am. Many of you have found yourself lying in the bottom of a pit. Hope stirred in your heart that someone would help you out but it never happened. It seemed that there was a group that covered or buried you in that pit bringing discouragement upon you.

This is the day that My word is coming for your deliverance and for your freedom, for there is a Lazarus anointing. The voice of the Father is calling forth the mighty warriors to come out of the burial tombs, the pits and the desolate caves. He is drawing you forth into the fields of harvest. The revival is going to come and it shall be like a meeting place.

You have been seasoned, trained and prepared for this day and hour. You are My end time harvesters. So shake off the old clothes, put on that new vision that you have received and walk towards the light. The light is shining within your own heart, for you have not lost your call, you have not lost your desire and you have not lost your zeal. I rekindle and refire your passion for the lost. Your gifts and callings are pointing as an arrow towards the harvest field. Gather together, work as a team, and unite across the nations. For the concealed tombs and pits shall shake and tremble under the hand of My Son. His hand is extended into the dark areas and as you hold on He will pull you out, set you free and set your foot upon His rock.

Doug Patterson eaglevw@golden.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Lighthouse

Brigitta Anderson

I have had an increase in visions in the past month and some of them I have felt led to share.

1. The Lighthouse

I was in service Sunday morning and the presence of the Lord was increased and as I stood their worshipping Him I suddenly saw a Lighthouse. I was inside the Lighthouse and I had a feeling of being safe and protected. I was looking outside and I saw complete darkness. It was the kind of darkness where you couldn't even see your hand in front of your face. I asked the Lord what this vision meant and He told me. The Lighthouse is the Church and the darkness is increasing and it will get so bad that the people will be totally blind, they will not be able to see anything in front of them. But we the church are to be that Lighthouse to the world and they will be drawn to us to seek safety. We need to be in fellowship one to another during this time. There has to be a unity, I saw only one Lighthouse.

2. The Garden

We were in prayer one Wednesday night and the tangible presence of the Lord was in the room and I saw the Holy Ghost. He was watering a garden. In the garden were flowers of the most brilliant hues, colors that don't even exist in this realm they were so bright, so beautiful. I asked the Lord what are you doing. He said I am tending my garden. He showed me that the garden was the church and it was in bloom. The blooms were all different heights and the smell was beautiful. He told me that the colors and fragrances of His church in these last days were going to be irresistible to the world and they would come to see the beauty and smell the fragrance. He was watering the garden with a hose and from the hose came multi-colored sparkling silver water. It was so beautiful, there are really not the right words to describe it. But the water is like us, multi-colored and sparkling.

3. The Desert

Then the Holy Ghost turned with the hose in His hand and as He did the water flowed onto the ground. The ground was cracked and dry. There had been no rain in so long that the soil was discolored. It was truly a desert but as soon as the water from the hose hit the ground, life sprang forth. It looked like time elapsed photography. Flowers and life sprang up in an instant. The water sparkled and made this desert like an oasis. A few days after this vision my Pastor's wife had a dream from the Lord and in the dream He gave her the number 35 which represented Isaiah 35. Please read that.

4. The Circus

The last one that I want to share is what I call the Circus. During prayer the Lord showed me animal cages, they were the old fashioned ones with the big round wheels. It was dark and the people were coming to see the animals. The were looking at them thinking how cute, nice animals. The people were nonchalant, they felt that the animals were tamed and harmless. But the cages swung open and the animals changed. They went from tame circus animals into ravenous beasts and what had seem like just fun soon turned deadly. I feel that this is a warning not only to the world but to the church. We are going to services seeking to be entertained but judgement is coming and it will devour us. What had seemed like tame innocent pleasure seeking will in truth cause many to die.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Mark

Doug Fortune

Our recent studies have focused on two NATURES... the Adam/ beast nature and the nature of Christ. We saw how Adam was originally clothed with the glory of God (Ps.8:5) befitting his NATURE as he was made in the image and likeness of God, and how after his rebellion he was clothed with the skins of a beast, befitting his new beast-nature, the lower nature. We also Biblically defined sin as 'missing the MARK' of manifesting the glory or NATURE of God (Rom.3:23). Speaking of MARKS, there are many today who are fearful of a certain mark mentioned in Rev. 13:16... the MARK of the beast. Remember that in Rev.1:1, it says this Revelation was SIGNified to John; communicated in SIGNS, symbols and metaphors... it is symbolic in nature, and prophetic in interpretation.

There is a spiritual principle that you will find all through Scripture; first the NATURAL, then the SPIRITUAL (1Cor.15:46). A quick example would be in 1Cor.10:2 where it equates the Red Sea experience with baptism... first the natural, then the spiritual.

I believe that we will find the natural fulfillment of Rev.13:16 in the following: the MARK is the name of the beast, the name of the beast is the name of a man, and the numerical value is 666; the word 'earth' used in the book of Revelation is ghay, it means a REGION... the 'earth' envisioned by John was the Roman Earth or Empire, not the whole world; the Roman papal empire used Latin as it's language and in the year A.D.666 Pope Vitallian decreed the exclusive use of Latin so that every person in Western Europe, as a member of the Catholic Church used Latin... thus the mark in the forehead (mind, thoughts) and the hand (written language); the Greek word (remember, the book of Revelation was written in Greek) for Latin is Lateinos, and it has the numeric value of 666; the word 'Latin' in the Latin language (Latinus) is a proper noun meaning 'the Latin man', hence the name of the Roman papal empire, the Latin empire is also the name of a man; this Latin empire in A.D.1178 by Pope Alexander III forbid trading with heretics (Protestants), and Pope Martin V after the Council of Constance commanded that the heretics (Protestants) could not have houses in their districts or enter into contracts, or carry on commerce. (My intention here is NOT to heap condemnation on any individual who is Catholic, but rather just to present the facts.) *

First the NATURAL, then the SPIRITUAL... Friends, I believe the natural has already been fulfilled, I personally am not fretting too much about bar-coding or chip implants, our concern needs to be the SPIRITUAL. Are we living our lives, buying and selling, trafficking in the ways of the world with the MARK of the beast/ the Adam NATURE in our foreheads (our mind, will, emotions) and our right hands (the strength of the flesh)? You see, the word MARK used in that Scripture in Greek is charagma, meaning a scratch or etching, a stamp as a badge of servitude; its root word is charax... charax is also the root word for character. I believe this MARK to be an outward manifestation of the inward character of the Adam/ beast nature. I propose to you that there are already many today who bear the 'mark of the beast' / Adam nature in their foreheads and right hands.

We are to be MARKED with a different name or NATURE on our foreheads (our mind, will, emotions)... we can read of this in Ex.28:36-38 "...you shall make a plate of pure gold and engrave on it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS to the LORD... It shall be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may take upon himself and bear any iniquity... it shall always be upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before the Lord...". We are priests of the Most High; the pure gold of the plate is symbolic of divine NATURE; the engraving of a SIGNET refers to ownership and authority; and the Word engraved upon our minds- HOLINESS or set apart for God.

I believe we see another picture of this in Rev.7:3 with the sealing of the 144,000. Notice first that verse 4 says 144,000 "...of ALL the tribes of the children of Israel.". Judah is named first, even though he was not the firstborn, Dan is left out and Manasseh is added... now didn't the text say ALL the tribes of Israel? If literal Israel is meant here, then we seem to have a logistical problem! I believe this is SPIRITUAL Israel being implied, after all Rev.2:9 and 3:9 speak of those who say they are Jews but are NOT, and Rom.2:28-29 defines a true Jew, "...he is a Jew which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the Spirit and NOT in the letter..."; let the Scripture interpret itself!

Consider Rev.3:12, "He who overcomes... I will write on him the NAME of My God, and the name of the city of My God, the new Jerusalem..."; Rev.21:2,9-10 "...I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem descending out of heaven from God (remember, ye must be born from above!), all arrayed like a BRIDE... I will show you the Bride, the Lambs wife. Then in the Spirit He carried me away to a great high mountain, and showed me that great city the holy Jerusalem descending out of heaven from God..." (I thought we were going to see the Bride... why are we looking at the new Jerusalem?); Rev.14:1 "...and with Him a hundred forty and four thousand, having His Fathers NAME written in their foreheads.". Twelve is the number of divine government or apostolic order, and the new Jerusalem has 12 gates which are 12 pearls, 12 angels (messengers), 12 tribes on the gates, 12 foundation stones with the names of 12 apostles, its length and width are 12,000 furlongs, the walls are 144 (12X12) cubits high... are we beginning to get the idea this might be symbolic?

This 144,000 is a SYMBOLIC number representing the CHURCH (not necessarily the Christian religious system), the ecclesia (called out ones) in divine order, marked or sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, the Perfect Man of Eph.4:13, the new Jerusalem descending out of heaven from God, the corporate Man with Jesus as the Head and US as the Body... manifesting the NATURE of God, the image and the likeness of God fully restored, operating in the FULLNESS of the Spirit!!

THIS is the MARK to be concerned with! Let us lift up our heads, for our redemption draweth nigh! You see, our SPIRIT was saved instantly when we came to Christ, and our SOUL is being saved as we receive the MARK or SEAL, the NATURE of God in our foreheads- our mind, will, emotions. As we receive this SEAL in our SOUL, I believe we will also be receiving the MARK in our right hand... the right hand is symbolic of strength or power... and didn't Jesus say that we would do GREATER WORKS? This is the MARK I am concerned with! "When Christ Who IS OUR LIFE appears, then YOU ALSO will APPEAR with Him in the splendor of His glory."(Col.3:4).

* (Historical facts taken from the book 'The Present Reign of Jesus Christ' by Robert Caringola.)

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Nazirites Are Coming!

Lou Engle

Read Judges 13:1-6

My 13 year old son Jesse went on a 40 day juice fast in the beginning of the year 2000. Two weeks before the end of the fast he came to me and said, "Dad, I don't want to cut my hair until the CalIDC. I want to be a Nazirite." He said, "I don't want to play baseball this summer, I want to run with you and pray for revival in America.

I was stunned. That night at 4:00AM I was awakened through a dream by the most penetratingly clear voice of the Lord. Four times in my life that voice has come to me and it couldn't have been clearer. "America is receiving her Apostles, Prophets and Evangelists, but she has not yet seen her Nazirites!"

I was jolted from my sleep with these thoughts, "The Nazirites are coming and they will begin to deliver Samuel's supernatural prophecy, Samson's supernatural power and John the Baptist's supernatural passion and preaching. A new breed of youth is appearing in America and they will be the hinge of history on which the door of America's future hangs." The Nazirite Countercultural Dreamers are upon us.

For 8 months Jesse grew his hair, did not eat meats or sweets, denied himself the pleasure of baseball and prayed for revival. When he stood praying on the stage at TheCalIDC on September 2nd, burning with passion, with up to 500,000 other burning men and women I knew the Nazirites are not only coming -- they are here.

Join with me for 40 days of Nazirite devotion during the national 40 day fast today September 20 through October 29.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Paths

Bob Neumann

The Ancient Paths

Last night I had a strange dream, all along it felt like I had "been there, done that". Yet it had aspects both surreal and real.... very hard to explain.

I was walking a 'path' in the dark. The moon was either just before or just after full moon. There was no other "light" but the path was fairly clear and the trees and brush on the sides were not too thick and progress was simple and easy. After a while I began to move slowly and more quietly with the awareness that I had "entered enemy territory". At the same time I began to actively search for something, only I was not sure what. Eventually I saw on a very large and old tree an old mark. Evidence that someone long ago had marked or "blazed the trail". I immediately "re-cut" the original blaze without any thinking, as if I had done it before. Every twenty or so paces I would find another "old marker". The fact that I recognized them for what they were made it both surreal and intriguing. Every so often on an obviously older tree the "mark" was there and I re-blazed each quickly. It was not long till I came to a fork in the path. Here the path was both broad and clearly well traveled. I hesitated wondering whether to turn left or to turn right. For a second or two I thought, why not cut through straight ahead. Then and only then did I hear that "still small voice" quote Jeremiah's warning to follow the ancient paths. So I stopped and waited hoping for something about "guiding my steps"...only it did not come. After a while the "awareness" that night would end and the "job" had to get done. So I turned and followed the right fork. Because the path was both wider and easier to follow I was making fast and quiet time. The only problem was the nagging thought about wide and narrow paths. This path was "wider" and sort of straight.... but was not. My line of sight was never more than 20-30 paces. I felt both relief and a sense of "peace" when the only large tree among the thickets and brush had a "mark" waiting to be re-blazed. So I moved more quickly. Like I said there was a surreal feel to this. Every "half hour" or so I would come to an intersection where a smaller, fainter path joined from my right hand. Only I did not see any paths no matter how old or un-traveled moving to the left. I kept watching for ambushes and old trail markers. I found several places where possible ambushes could of been and stayed cautious. Likewise I kept finding markers where I expected to find them. All old and "overgrown". All along I had two feelings that were interesting...first was I "knew" what I was doing...knew both what to look for and where to look. Second the Path was always turning to the left. I was wondering after what seemed like hours where and what was my destination. As the night sky began to fill with "false dawn" light over the horizon to my left I passed another path only to find a tree with a fresh "blaze" and I knew I had "completed the circle". I had spent almost all the time traveling in a circle. And now as day approached the enemy was again having the advantage. So I backed down the wide path to where a good place of concealment was. It was a place which would be in shadow with only one way in that could be defended. A place I felt safe in and stopped to rest and wait.

THIS IS WHERE IT ENDED.

Outside of the fact that I have PEACE about all this very little can be said. It was something I "had" to do.... but I am unsure what was accomplished. But the idea that it is not important to know the "little details" is something I can live with. I learned with THE THUNDERS things must progress in HIS TIME and at HIS PACE.

IN MY SPIRIT there are three things clear.... I was on enemy territory.... only at night and in shadow was it safe to move.... I was looking for places of ambush.... that I could use in the future.... boy was that clear.

In spite of "popular thinking".... I think I am on solid scripture.... selah dog

A Walk On The 'Wild' Side
Bob Neumann

THE WEAPONS OF WARFARE

Three days ago I had a different "stroll" through the second heaven. Until today I had chalked it up as a personal FYI type thing but now realize I had better share it with the people I usually send to. That is because a strange wind has blown and I'm not sure where it is going. When I say "strange" I could say new or unfamiliar, but would be no more accurate. What follows is the first of three "images". This one was a straight vision...I was wide-awake. Maybe a week earlier I had a personal word that went."YOU WERE TRAINED.... YOU WERE SENT...." "SKILLS OR STRATEGY? WHAT MAKES A SOLDIER?".

Maybe that is the beginning.... I'll let you decide....

The vision started as I found myself walking in that place between "worlds" and there before me was THE KING OF GLORY.... strangely attired. Instead of the brown "traveling robe" I had seen in previous visions HE was dressed in "black leather". OR should I say HE wore a full-length black leather duster over black slacks, shirt, and shoes. By itself the apparel is a major departure from my norm. But the "shades" HE WORE did establish a certain tone. All HE said to start the ball rolling was..."GOTCHA DOG!". As "strong" an image HE PRESENTED me in HIS COMMENT and LAUGHTER and the only "retort" I could fire back was.... "I got this feeling we will not be picnicking on the beach today, BOSS". "YOU'RE RIGHT TOTO.... THIS SURE IS NOT KANSAS WHERE WE ARE GOING". With that line and a solid slap on my shoulder HE handed me a pair of sunglasses and I put them on.... went well with the "uniform" I wore...same as HIS with a full "battle harness" under the duster and a definitely MOVIE THEME seemed to be established. THAT TOO IS NEW.

As I put the "shades" "on" I asked..."couldn't you have done THE BLUES BROTHERS instead?".... "WELL DOG, WE ARE.... WE ARE ON A MISSION FROM GOD, ELWOOD. WE ARE OUT TO SAVE THE WORLD." with that come back everything made sense...I guess. And I wondered where my "harmonica" was as HE PULLED me in a direction and we began to walk. I began to sing in a bad falsetto "follow the yellow brick road" just like in the movie. As HE LAUGHED I suddenly had a awesome thought and had to ask..."So BOSS.... who are you going to be.... JAKE or DOROTHY?" "WELL DOG...UNTIL YOU GET THE SONG RIGHT.... I'LL KEEP YOU GUESSING." IMMEDIATELY HE BEGAN TO SING IN A RESONATING BASSO PROFOUNDO... YO-HE-YO...DE---O---DO" AND STARTED TO MARCH WITH VIGOROUS strides... and I had the realization we were going right into "the witch's castle".

Instead of a dark castle we were in a bright place where many people were moving back and forth in white outfits. It was a large building and in it were several large rooms. The first room we entered had a large class spread across a large "open room" in set intervals. Each was in a white "fencing" uniform doing exercises. A woman walked around the students calling "commands" and the students "moved". It was slow...repetitive...very basic.

I walked up to the woman and asked, "What are you teaching?". Her answer was both surly and unexpected. "I am teaching these Generals how to use THE SWORD OF GOD with precision and skill. As you see we are in unity, each identical with the others in complete agreement with my commands." with that she turned her back to me. In the brief time she spoke there was no movement in the room. As soon as she resumed her commands the people moved.

Adjoining this room was another and THE KING gestured for me to follow. Again we were in a large training room. Here a man was shouting commands to a group in karate gi's.... again all in white. All the class like the last were adults, and again the commands were simple and repetitive. I again approached and asked "What are you teaching?".... The guy looked at me and sort of sneered..."I am teaching the Mighty Warriors technique and discipline so they may have great exploits in the coming battle. As you see they are focused and fired up." he also turned his back and resumed the training.

The third room was filled with people moving in silence doing Tai Chi-like movements. Again all were dressed in white clothing.... sort of like dance leotards. On a dais alone at the front of the room sat an older woman sitting in lotus position moaning softly a short repeating mantra. I squatted beside her and asked "What are you teaching?".... And thought I had scared her to death. The look on her face was of immense shock. "I am teaching the People of GOD how to move in "the spirit". I looked out at the class who were still moving in rhythmic and flowing positions. This one I asked as I grabbed hold of the hilt of my short sword, "How are you instructing them?".... "My light speaks to their collective light and they obey. We are a myriad of light that will fill the world and free it forever from fear and pain in the next paradigm." As I began to draw steel I felt HIS HAND on my shoulder as HE PULLED me to a standing position. "NOT NOW DOG...AND NOT HERE", HE SPOKE CLEARLY AS HE DRAGGED ME OUT OF THE ROOM. As we left her eyes never left me.... nor the fear in them diminished. As I write this I now realize she never saw THE KING.selah....

The fourth room was more a "practice field" than a room. Here an older man, very skinny was shouting orders. He was dressed like a dance master and carried a long baton (?) with which he beat time as he shouted...."1.... 2...3...4". And I watched in stunned amazement as people dressed in white plate armor slowly go through simple ballet moves. I looked at THE KING who stood silently, face grimly set. Again the moves were few and repeated over and over. I am not sure the look I had on my face but in my head I was shouting...."ya gatta be kidding me".... the simple move of HIS HEAD from side to side was a loud "NO" in my spirit.... so I walked up to the man and asked "What are you teaching?".... Now this time the man beamed a smile at me and said "I am THE MASTER OF THE SWORD.... and I am teaching the SONS OF GOD how to wear the WHOLE ARMOR and to UTILIZE THE WEAPONS OF WAR in harmony and beauty?" I looked out at this group and saw no weapons. So I asked. His reply was unexpected. "Please do not be silly. Our weapons are not carnal. Our weapons are within the mind, soul, and spirit of the very elect. To understand the "weapons" we use please go to the Classroom." With that he gestured toward where THE KING STOOD. I said "thank you" and he returned to his class. I joined THE KING and we walked to a door and walked in.

People in white tee shirts and slacks sat on the floor. Most were in a simple "lotus position" and some were "speaking in tongues".... in other words repeating sounds over and over...and others were "ohming" away. There was no teacher in the room I could see. I looked at THE KING and shrugged. HIS RESPONSE was a DRY CHUCKLE AND A SMILE and suddenly I had a long heavy rod of iron in my hand. "THEY ARE LEARNING HOW TO USE THE WEAPONS OF WARFARE, DOG, BUT NOT MY WEAPONS. THEY ARE TRYING TO ALTER THE SHAPE AND STRUCTURE OF THEIR REALITY THROUGH THEIR OWN MINDS AND WILLS. RIGHT NOW THEY ARE BEING INSTRUCTED BY AN "ANGEL OF LIGHT". As I heard HIS LAUGH ring through my spirit I stepped through their MATRIX and found their "teacher".... big and ugly are sound descriptions.... scared and cornered also applied to this "prince".... it must have heard the LAUGH...it was shaking everything around us.... now I grabbed my sword and went to work. It did not take long.

After the ABYSS closed I once again stood with THE KING. We stood on a HIGH PLACE.... the WIND BLEW STRONG AND COLD as we looked out around us. HE was quiet for a while. And when HE WAS READY HE SAID. "TELL ME DOG.... WHAT ARE MY WEAPONS OF WAR?"

I had to think a moment.... in Jeremiah HE SAID...."you are...".... so I answered..."Your Servants, LORD". HE SMILED GENTLY and put HIS HAND ON MY SHOULDER...."SO TELL MY DEAR FRIEND WHAT ARE THE WEAPONS OF YOUR WARFARE?".... Immediately 2 Corinthians came to mind.... and the memory that the actual weapons are not mentioned. But it was not the question HE ASKED.... what are my weapons.... "Prayer, fasting, and giving as you taught LORD." "SO, OLD DOG, WHERE DID YOU LEARN THIS?" "At your feet, as you taught me obedience is what you desire". "SO WHY DOES THE CHURCH TEACH WHAT CAN ONLY BE LEARNED IN THE FATHER'S HOUSE?" I stood quiet for the answer was mute. I had "walked" through the ARMIES OF GOD and THE THUNDERS. The TRUTH was in HIS WORD.... SCRIPTURE SAYS IT CLEARLY.... if anyone would seek.

"MANY DOG, WILL BE TALKING ABOUT SKILLS AND STRATEGIES. MANY WILL HAVE WORDS OF THE ENEMY'S PLANS AND TACTICS. ONLY YOU AND OTHERS SAID IT LONG AGO. THE ENEMY HAS NEVER CHANGED AND I WARNED OF DECEPTIONS. WHAT MORE DO MY PEOPLE NEED?".

"IT IS NOT BY MIGHT OR POWER.... TRAINING OR SKILLS...TECHNIQUES OR ILLUSIONS.... IT IS BY MY SPIRIT WHOM YOU HEAR AND OBEY THAT YOU CONQUER AND OVERCOME. YOU MUST CONQUER YOUR SELF...YOUR BODY AND MIND SO YOUR SPIRIT CAN BE RESTORED AND MADE FULL IN ME. ONLY THEN CAN YOU OVERCOME THE ENEMY BY MY BLOOD.BY MY WORDS OF TESTIMONY YOU WALK OUT DAILY.... AND THEN YOU SHALL LAY DOWN YOUR LIFE FOR ME".

HE LOOKED ME IN THE EYES WITH THAT CALMING PEACE IN HIS EYES AND SMILED AT ME SAYING, "THAT MY FRIEND IS WHY SO MANY STRONGHOLDS ARE STILL STANDING IN THE LIVES OF SO MANY WHO YEARN TO BE SET FREE AND HEALED. THEY SIT IN BONDAGE AWAITING THOSE WHO WILL ENFORCE MY PEACE UPON A DEFILED AND PERVERTED WORLD. THE CHURCH AS IT SEES ITSELF HAS FAILED TO LEARN...TO UNDERSTAND MY WORD AND MY WILL. VAIN IMAGINATIONS ARE RAMPANTLY RUNNING ROUGHSHOD THROUGH THE SHEPHERDS AND THE RULERS WHO DO NOT EVEN KNOW ME BUT CLAIM MY NAME. THEY EXALT THEMSELVES AND REFUSE TO FALL IN OBEDIENCE TO ME."

"I AM SENDING YOU TO MY MOUNTAIN. FEW WILL ASK YOU TO TEACH THEM FOR FEW WILL HEAR MY WORDS THROUGH YOU. TAKE BACK THE ANCIENT PATH AND RETURN MY HIGH PLACE TO ME. DEFILE THOSE THAT DEFILED MY SANCTUARY. DESTROY THOSE THAT DESTROYED MY VINEYARD AND MY PLEASANT PASTURES. YOU SURVIVED THE FOOTMEN, NOW COMES THE HORSEMEN."

And then I was back.... with the memory of previous visions of the HORSEMEN in the Valley of the SHADOW. And I wondered what would happen to those I saw diligently training and listening to men and demons. Not a pretty thought...

I went back and reread ... 2 Corinthians 10:1-7 interesting stuff.....

1 Now I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:

2 But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)

5 Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

6 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.

To be full of obedience.... we must be ready to revenge disobedience. I have never heard that preached.... anywhere at anytime.... so we need to live it. It's now time... dog

The Path Un-traveled

Bob Neumann

THE PATH UN-TRAVELED

Several days ago I had a "dream" about a path that ran in circles. Since then I have had three strange encounters. This second such was also a "dream" unlike anything I could have expected and am not eager to repeat. I don't think I will...THANKS LORD....

The dream began once again as night was falling and I had the "need" to find the "ancient path" to THE MOUNTAIN. This is neither a new quest nor a new revelation. Only now I have the "feeling" that time is short and I am far from my destination. But this time THE KING said HE was sending me so there is now ABBA'S PURPOSE behind all this. So I was not surprised by the "dream" restarting where the last had ended.

As before I came to the wider trail and felt the need to be cautious. I was looking for something I had failed to see the first time around. So I waited a moment and turned left and not to the right. I had gone "with the flow" and failed now I had to "repent" and turn the other way. Once again I looked for a path but this time I knew it would be hard to spot so I moved slower down the path.

I do not know why but shortly after re-beginning my search I "felt" the need to "take cover" and got into the largest and deepest shadow in sight and began to pray...real hard. In moments a squad of "big uglies" crept by. They were not quite human...but close enough it seemed. But in the dark they seemed unable to see me and passed on. It seems tonight someone was looking for me and might not want me to find what I was looking for. Several times I had that "feeling" hit fast and hard. And each time there was a place to hide, a "shadow" that covered me.

It seemed like hours, probably was, of looking and hiding when I came to a place of thick growth along the path. Why it caught my attention I do not know, but I thought of cutting through the heavy brush and grass. As I was about to start hewing away I got my first and only check in my spirit. In the first dream I had re-blazed the trail and now I was being hunted. I had to blaze that trail, but now I hesitated. Anything I did now just pointed to where I was. So instead of hacking I tried to crawl through the scrub and overgrowth without leaving a trail. It was neither easy nor pleasant. The only thing I could see beyond the vegetation that crowded the side of the path was the top of a large tree. So I tried to crawl in that direction. Getting past the first ten feet or so was the worst and then got a little room and a better sighting on the tree. But there was no path to the tree so I continued a slow crawl through "the briar patch" as I began to think about it. When I got close to the tree I had to rest. I wondered how could I get so tired in a dream. Likewise sore hands and knees. There was room at the base of the tree to sit and rest. As I rested I realized I could not see more than a few feet in front of me. The only way I would find the "ancient path" is if I tripped over it. Unless I gave myself a better of field of vision.... So I climbed the tree. The farther up I went, the farther I could see. I kept looking down and was getting frustrated when I "heard" in my SPIRIT...."I WAS GLAD WHEN THEY SAID UNTO ME, LET US GO UP INTO THE HOUSE OF THE LORD" so I looked up. AND SAW THE MOUNTAIN..... Now the first thing I thought was how could I not have seen it from the path...anywhere on the path?

And I thought....path. find the path....and I looked and saw nothing below me. Again I heard the psalm and looked up, and there it was. But it started at the mountain and I followed it down toward the CIRCLE PATH. It was almost a perfectly straight thin line to the heavy growth that lined the CIRCLE PATH. And it was not too far away. Along the "ancient path" was a fairly large tree and I "knew" if I headed to the tree I would cross my "ancient path". Slowly I worked toward the tree in a staggered shuffle, and I did exactly what I had feared, I "tripped" over it and landed on it, face first. Hard packed earth and rock.

Now it was faster and easier travel and I could walk upright ducking occasional branches. I had the thought that no one had been on this "road" for a very long time. The path started to go upward and begin to clear at the same time. I noticed the "false dawn" fill the sky behind me and felt the need to move faster. As I reached the top day was breaking and this time I felt no need to find a place to hide.

In fact once I reached the top I did not like the "feel" of the place. Around me were ancient ruins. Fallen columns and stones sticking out among the now thinned overgrowth. I "felt" a lot of things...none were pleasant. Out of nowhere I "remembered" the feeling that was prevalent but could not place it. I had come to THE MOUNTAIN but did not feel glad. "NOW YOU KNOW HOW I FEEL, DOG", came the quiet voice of MY MASTER. I turned and saw HIM robed in the brown traveling robe I had seen so often. "WELCOME TO SHILOH OLD FRIEND, I KNOW THAT THIS IS NOT WHAT YOU EXPECTED. WELCOME TO RAMAH, THE HIGH PLACE I HAVE SENT YOU TO."

I was taken aback and looked around me and my mind fogged. This can not be right I thought.

"NO SHEMUEL, THIS IS WHAT WAS, THE PLACE HOLY AND SET APART FOR MY HABITATION. IT WAS DESECRATED AND DEFILED LONG AGO. BUT NOW I WILL RESTORE WHAT WAS. IS IT NOT WRITTEN THAT THE LATTER HOUSE WILL BE GREATER THAN THE FORMER? THAT I WILL FILL IT WITH MY GLORY AND ALL NATIONS WILL COME UNTO IT?" "THIS IS THE PLACE WHERE MY BELOVED WILL FLEE AND YOU WILL STAND. I SAID I WILL REBUILD THE TABERNACLE OF DAVID. SOLOMON BUILT MY TEMPLE AND IT WAS MADE A DEN OF THIEVES. HE ALSO BUILT ALTERS TO OTHER GODS AND WORSHIPED THEM. IT IS TIME TO TEAR DOWN THE GROVES AND DESTROY THE HIGH PLACES THAT EXALT THEMSELVES ABOVE ME. DIG DOWN TO THE FOUNDATION I LAID AND I WILL RAISE UP THE WALLS OF DAVID'S TABERNACLE AND ONCE AGAIN MY GLORY AND PEACE WILL BE BEFORE ALL MEN."

"Where do I start, LORD?", I asked looking around me. "I'M SORRY, OLD FRIEND, BUT THERE IS NO PLACE TO START. YOU FINISHED ONCE YOU GOT HERE." Now that was unexpected. HE LOOKED GENTLY AT ME AND SMILED. I do not know how long I stood crying in front of my GOD and KING. But like all dreams I awoke. And had almost as many questions as before I got to THE MOUNTAIN. But I will wait and trust....the answers will come in their time....so will more questions..... that seems to be the pattern.

selah
old dog

The Place Defiled
Bob Neumann

Now this is the third and final image that has been placed before me to "take and eat". Maybe it is the last of the "unleavened bread" that we ate for the seven days after the DEATH ANGEL passed over those whose homes were marked by THE BLOOD OF THE LAMB. Maybe it is the last of "the manna" as we cross the JORDAN. As different as both events were in HIS WORD, so were the people involved. All who ate the matzo died except Joshua and Caleb, and never "entered the land".

AS IT WAS BEFORE SO SHALL IT BE AGAIN.

Those that THE I AM freed by HIS MIGHTY RIGHT HAND murmured and tempted HIM. They paid for their "lack of faith" and "disobedience".

THE WORD SAYS...THEY OVERCAME BY THE BLOOD OF THE LAMB.... RIGHT....WRONG.... read the WORD....they overcame "him" Yes we do "overcome by THE BLOOD"....it is in HIS BLOOD we are "in covenant"... "cleansed of sin and defilement"....separated from the world....dead to "our flesh".... and have access to ABBA who desires us to come to HIM in intimacy.

But what "sets us free" and "heals and restores" is to be placed "in yoke" with THE LAMB" walking with HIM..."abiding" with and in HIM.

THE BLOOD is real....but it is not magic. It is an image of complete and innocent obedience to THE WILL AND DESIRES OF THE FATHER.

When Y'SHUA asked poor old Peter....do ya LOVE me, more than these other guys? Pete waffled. So do I...we all have. But THE LAMB would not be denied. HE pressed the issue three times. Why did THE LAMB tell Pete to "FEED MY LAMBS"? Sure...to set up organized religion and rule by an elate clergy. That is what we have inherited....like it or not.

But just maybe Y'SHUA was painting a "PICTURE" of the people to whom THE GOSPEL would be sent. Little lambs "orphaned" by a perverse world who would be forsaken and left to die by "the flock" whose only chance to survive was in the hands and hearts of "shepherds" who would coat them in the "coat" of THE LAMB THAT WAS SLAIN. AND COVER THEM IN HIS BLOOD.

Just maybe .....just maybe HE HAS GIVEN US a last chance to be "upright" and "obedient" before HIM. I leave it to whomsoever reads and discerns.

It was Thursday morning and I was tired and in need of sleep. "Aches and pains" come with age and pushing the mind and body too far for too long. Just like the previous "vision" in this pattern it came unexpected....and began where the "dream" had ended. That was different...and I am thankful I did not have to climb the MOUNTAIN again. But the "bad feelings" were there again.... for a profound reason.

I stood at the top of the MOUNTAIN and looked around. I knew I was there to "learn" of it/from it. All around me was ruin. Overgrown...neglected...forgotten. Sticking up here and there was "cut stone". It was old and long weathered yet it was placed by man sometime in the long ago. For what reason and purpose the only clue was this "feeling" of "yuckiness". It was stuff I really did not want to get close to let alone touch. The "top" of this "MOUNTAIN" was not so large. As I walked around and over what HAD BEEN I saw that it could have not been just one building. As I walked I pondered and searched my spirit and mind for something that could "fit" all I was seeing. But nothing came. It took awhile until I realized, here I am...standing on the top of a high place. It was not real as I think upon it. But it was. And slowly I took my eyes off the "ground"... and looked "up".

The sky was bright, not a cloud in a brilliantly blue sky. Not unusual, until I realized there was no "sun". Now that was interesting and I seemed to "recall" some scripture verse where there was no need for a "sun". That is when it hit me. Way up here looking down at everything there was no "wind"...not even a "hint" of a breeze. From there everything seemed to fit into a nice downhill pattern.

The scrub and brush had little "green" in it. Likewise the grasses were mostly yellow and brown. No signs of flowers or the like....all was a dull, drab, dry looking stuff. No color and no "smell". As I slowly walked across and around the "top" I noticed stones covered with soot. Blackened by the residue of a nice fire. What was interesting was it was not universal. Some areas had no evidence at all of "fire", while others were the obvious relics of a major inferno. Definitely not the remains of a campfire or tailgate BBQ.

It seemed like I had walked for hours alone on this "MOUNTAIN" till I came to a place that seemed just off the center of the "peak" and sat on a stone that was fairly flat. I began to wonder about HIS WORDS when I finally got here. The dream was only a day ago and in my mind seemed like almost ancient history. I had come to this "PLACE" I had been searching for almost all my life it seems. The incongruence just was overpowering. I began to think....what are you missing? what is it that I am unable to see? So I tried to recall HIS WORDS and I could not. This was weird....it was down right scary. All I could think of was an old familiar prayer...OUT OF THE DEPTHS I HAVE CRIED UNTO YOU, MY LORD... and I remembered that moment I first called out from the pit and again I began to cry....

because I began to remember....everything.... UNLESS THE LORD BUILDS THE HOUSE....it is all vain..... and I just began to sing to my spirit.... I was not alone...I was never alone...had never been alone....was never...will never be forgotten or forsaken. I would sing HIS NEW SONG no matter what....all I was to do was rest...to wait...to be still. IN HIS TIME...IN HIS WILL...all things revolved. and HIS WORDS came gently to mind..... "NO SHEMUEL, THIS IS WHAT WAS, THE PLACE HOLY AND SET APART FOR MY HABITATION. IT WAS DESECRATED AND DEFILED LONG AGO. BUT NOW I WILL RESTORE WHAT WAS. IS IT NOT WRITTEN THAT THE LATTER HOUSE WILL BE GREATER THAN THE FORMER? THAT I WILL FILL IT WITH MY GLORY AND ALL NATIONS WILL COME UNTO IT?" "THIS IS THE PLACE WHERE MY BELOVED WILL FLEE AND YOU WILL STAND. I SAID I WILL REBUILD THE TABERNACLE OF DAVID. SOLOMON BUILT MY TEMPLE AND IT WAS MADE A DEN OF THIEVES. HE ALSO BUILT ALTERS TO OTHER GODS AND WORSHIPED THEM. IT IS TIME TO TEAR DOWN THE GROVES AND DESTROY THE HIGH PLACES THAT EXALT THEMSELVES ABOVE ME. DIG DOWN TO THE FOUNDATION I LAID AND I WILL RAISE UP THE WALLS OF DAVID'S TABERNACLE AND ONCE AGAIN MY GLORY AND PEACE WILL BE BEFORE ALL MEN."

and I thought again about that moment I watched as HIS GLORY filled the UNIVERSE. I remembered the SWEET VOICE OF THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT sing of HIM whom I serve. HE IS THE MOUNTAIN. yet here I am on THE MOUNTAIN thinking of a time yet to come where TRUE PRAISE AND WORSHIP will flow upward once again. and I had this thought of THE ARC of HIS COVENANT being carried and placed in "THE PLACE PREPARED". Would I be able to dance like DAVID with utmost joy? Or would I just sing alone like I was now. O GIVE THANKS TO THE LORD, CALL UPON HIS NAME....

"IT'S BEEN A LONG TIME SINCE YOU SANG THAT ONE, DOG". I turned and saw HIM standing and watching me. Dressed once again in plain brown outer robe HE just stood and listened. "There are a lot of songs I have not sung for a while, LORD." "THERE ARE DIFFERENT SONGS FOR DIFFERENT JOURNEYS. YOU KNOW WHICH ONE IS THE RIGHT ONE WHEN YOU NEED IT". "you are my hiding place, oh LORD, you will preserve me in the day of trouble, you surround me with songs of deliverance", I sang softly. HE sat down on the stone with me and was quiet a moment. We both sort of stared out at the mountaintop that lay in front of us. "YOU EVER WONDER WHY CERTAIN SONGS STAY WITH YOU AND OTHERS FADE AWAY FORGOTTEN AND NEVER REMEMBERED?" " I thought it was you LORD?"...I replied puzzled. "WELL SOMETIMES IT IS, DOG. BUT WITH YOU IT IS YOU CALLING FROM DEEP IN YOUR SPIRIT. YOUR SPIRIT SEEKS AND YEARNS EVEN WHEN YOUR MIND AND FLESH ARE OFF IN LEFT FIELD CHASING RABBIT TRAILS." "I'm sorry LORD..." "WHY DO YOU LIKE SONGS BASED ON THE PSALMS DOG?" I welcomed the change of subject, but was lost in the direction HE SEEMED to be going. "YOU EVER WONDER WHY YOU CAN SING A MESSIANIC PSALM AND JUMP TO A CHARISMATIC TUNE.?" HE had me...and I laughed. "LORD, I just let it loose...whatever seems right just comes out." the HE laughed. "it's the words. does not matter if it is to a HEBREW or CATHOLIC tune. it is the WORDS." "YES, IT IS THE WORDS, OLD DOG. BUT WHY THE PSALMS?" again I had to think. why? I never thought about it. or had I? "LORD, I'm not sure where you are going here." "..." "WE" MY DEAR DOG ARE NOT GOING ANYWHERE." boy did that inflection cut sharp. I turned and looked at HIM relaxed and in good humor. "I hope you remember that I am not omniscient, BOSS. I've been walking around here banging my head and not getting anywhere." "I KNOW"...HIS VOICE HAD THAT TWINKLE IN IT and I knew I had set HIM up for a wild punch line. and I cringed when HE LAUGHED. "OH DOG, YOU POOR PUPPY. I SAID YOU ARE NOT GOING ANYWHERE. JUST SIT BACK AND ENJOY THE SHOW. YOU ARE ONE OF THE FEW THAT WILL ENJOY WHAT NOW IS TAKING PLACE." "somehow I am missing something..." "NOT REALLY, IN FACT YOU GOT IT ALL BEFORE YOU. YOU JUST DON'T KNOW IT YET." "Bill alluded to that, so I know he got it from YOU. my problem is I ....." "RIGHT DOG, YOUR PROBLEM IS YOU....TRYING TO FIGURE IT OUT. YOU CAN'T SO STOP TRYING. TELL 'THE BRETHREN' TO STOP TRYING". and suddenly HE was silent and grinning from ear to ear. HE turned HIS FACE to me and mouthed the words..."GOTCHA DOG"... HE just told me to do what I thought I had been doing. so I just shook my head and laughed till the tears began to flow. "will they listen, LORD?" I had to ask. "SOME WILL DOG, BUT NOT MANY. BUT THERE ARE THOSE WHO WAIT THE CALL TO LEAVE. THEY STILL NEED A PLACE TO RUN TO. THAT IS WHERE YOU COME IN. MY WORD AND MY WILL SHALL COME TO PASS. I HAVE WAITED AND HELD MY WRATH ALL TO LONG NOW". I don't know why I did it but I said "AMEN!!" loudly followed by a quiet "LORD..." when HE gave me a funny look. I had never "interrupted" HIM before. squirm is not a strong enough term for how I felt like doing. "IT'S OKAY, DOG. IT WAS THE PERFECT PLACE TO "JUMP" IN. ONLY NO ONE ELSE WAS HERE TO DO SO. THAT WILL SOON CHANGE." "DO YOU REMEMBER WHAT I SAID ABOUT 'SKILLS AND STRATEGIES' THOSE WILL BE HOT TOPICS OF DISCUSSION IN THE WEEKS AHEAD. MOST WILL BE ABOUT AND CENTER AROUND THE ENEMY. WHAT LITTLE WILL BE ABOUT "THE GLORIOUS ARMY OF GOD" WILL BE PRETTY STALE. BUT YOU ARE USED TO THAT". "yes, LORD"...I replied with the not fond memories of cardboard steak and Styrofoam ribs and chops. "makes me eager to get table scraps again", I replied quietly. "SO THEN LET ME GIVE YOU A CHUNK OF SIRLOIN", HE LAUGHED AND GRABBED MY ARM.

Suddenly we were in another place and another time. It was bright and glorious and HE STOOD IN WHITE AND GOLD. The quiet carpenter I sat in the MALL with was now the ALPHA/OMEGA seen by John, the ONE who stood on the water for Daniel. The air was filled with incense and flowers. All around us were voices raised in praise and thanksgiving. HE walked over to a golden chair in the middle of the chamber. As HE walked I noticed the walls were where white linen as was the overhead. As HE sat upon THE MERCY SEAT all was quiet. The stillness was indeed deafening and in my spirit a song 'popped' up.

"AT ALL TIMES I WILL BLESS MY LORD HIS PRAISE SHALL ALWAYS BE IN MY MOUTH MY SOUL WILL BOAST IN YOU MY LORD LET HUMBLE HEARTS HEAR AND BE GLAD..... OH TASTE AND SEE THE GOODNESS OF THE LORD"....

it was a miracle...I was clear and on key....and everyone else knew the words. like that was a surprise?

HE SMILED at me as I approached. "I know why it is the psalms LORD....", HE NODDED HIS HEAD and I continued..."Because it is all there. ALL THE WORDS...." "AND..." HE COAXED... "DAVID HAD LIVED IT AND SANG ABOUT IT!" I wanted to scream....and did. "All the psalms talk about going through and walking out. Not all are upbeat...but they are all real and I have walked it too." and I stopped dead in my tracks....that is what HE had meant. I just had not seen it. I turned around and looked about THE TABERNACLE. was this it?...I thought. was this what DAVID had built?

"YES SHEMUEL, MY FRIEND", THE LAMB SPOKE IN THAT GENTLE VOICE, "THIS IS WHAT MELEK DAOUD ERECTED ON MOUNT ZION NOT QUITE 3000 YEARS AGO. SIMPLE AND TASTEFUL DON'T YOU THINK?"

"yes, LORD, but I liked the wedding chamber better."

"YOU WOULD, BUT THIS IS WHAT WAS PROPHESED TO THE WORLD. THE CHAMBER IS THE PROMISE I MADE TO MY BRIDE WHEN THE CUP OF CONTRACT WAS DRUNK. THAT PLACE IS IN MY FATHER'S HOUSE. THIS WILL BE AMONG MAN AND WILL BE WHERE MY BELOVED WILL FLEE TO WHEN SAUL AGAIN RISES UP TO KILL THE ANOINTED ONE".

That last line sent cold chills up and down my spine, and HIS FACE TURNED GRIM. All humor that might have been vanished with my next breath. When HE SAID QUIETLY... "I TOLD YOU THE WHOLE RATIONALE OF YOUR MINISTRY, MY FRIEND...."....."YOU WERE TRAINED ....YOU WERE SENT...." THAT IS ALL THERE IS TO IT. SO IF ANYONE QUESTIONS, ASKS, OR MAKES ALLEGATIONS, THAT IS YOUR ANSWER. BUT I ALSO ASKED A QUESTION, DIDN'T I?

I remembered the question... "SKILLS OR STRATEGY? WHAT MAKES A SOLDIER?"..... but the answer was weird. the answer was neither. what makes a soldier was obedience to authority.

"WELL DONE, SAM! THERE IS YOUR ANSWER TO ALL THOSE WHO HAVE A WORD ABOUT THE STORM AND BATTLE THAT APPROACHES. WHAT PLAN CAN PREVAIL IN THE CENTER OF A WHIRLWIND? WHAT MOVE WILL PREVAIL WHEN THE GROUND SPLITS UNDER YOUR FEET?"

With that HE stood and stepped toward me and once again we stood on THE MOUNTAIN TOP.

"BEHOLD MY HOLY GROUND NOW DEFILED AND BARREN. SO IS MY PEOPLE, DOG. THEY HAVE RETURNED TO THE LAND I PROMISED TO ABRAHAM MY FRIEND AND I HAVE PROTECTED THEM. MORE SHALL RETURN AND ALL THE TRIBES SHALL RETURN IN THEIR SEASON. IT HAPPENS NOW AS I SPOKE IT THROUGH MY SERVANTS THE PROPHETS."

"BUT EVEN IN ISRAEL WITH MY PEOPLE THERE IS A REMNANT UNDEFILED THAT YEARNS FOR ME TO COME AND REBUILD MY TEMPLE. IT SHALL HAPPEN AS IT IS WRITTEN, AND THEY SHALL MORN FOR ME AND I SHALL SAVE THEM AND HAVE MERCY ON THEM."

"THEY HAVE WEPT AND MOURNED FOR ZION....AND I AM ZION. I AM THE PLACE THEY HAVE WEPT FOR, YEARNED FOR, AND ONCE AGAIN WILL BE MY PEOPLE AND I WILL BE THEIR GOD".

"YOU MY FRIEND SOUGHT THE MOUNTAIN BECAUSE I TOLD YOU TO. YOU STUDIED AND SOUGHT LONG AND HARD TO FIND ME IN THE MIDST OF MANY LIES. YOU SOUGHT FOR HOREB AND FOUND THE TRUTH. I AM THE TRUTH AND YOU HAVE STOOD BEFORE ME AND WENT WHEN I SAID 'GO', YOU HAVE DONE WHEN I SAID 'DO'."

"THERE ARE MANY WHO SEEK PEACE AND LOOK FOR SALEM. HERE IS THE MOUNTAIN CALLED MORIAH THE PLACE WHERE I THE KING OF RIGHTEOUSNESS REIGNS. I AM SALEM AND I AM PEACE. ABRAHAM BROUGHT HIS SON IN OBEDIENCE AND THROUGH HIS OBEDIENCE THE COVENANT WAS EXPANDED AND CONFIRMED. TODAY I REMIND YOU THAT MY COVENANT IS ETERNAL. THOSE WHO OBEY ME AND FOLLOW WHERE I LEAD SHALL BE BLESSED. THOSE THAT BLESS MY INHERITANCE SHALL BE BLESSED. AND THOSE THAT CURSE YOU I WILL CURSE. LIKE ABRAHAM YOUR FATHER I GIVE TO YOU THE GATES OF YOUR ENEMIES."

"THERE ARE THOSE WHO SEEK SHILOH TO BRING THEIR OFFERINGS TO THE TABERNACLE. HERE IS SHILOH THE PLACE OF TRUE WORSHIP WHERE THE LION OF JUDAH REIGNS ETERNAL. I AM SHILOH, THE MIGHTY LION OF JUDAH TO WHOM ALL TRIBUTE IS DUE. THE RULE OF A WEAK AND DISOBEDIENT PRIESTHOOD HAS ENDED AND I WILL BE SERVED BY THOSE WHO HEAR MY VOICE AND OBEY MY WORDS."

"THERE ARE THOSE WHO WILL SEEK RAMAH, THE HIGH PLACE OF A HOLY GOD. THEY FLEE THE MINIONS OF THE ENEMY AND SHALL SEEK SANCTUARY. I AM RAMAH AND I AM HIGH AND LIFTED UP. I AM THE ROCK OF SALVATION WHO IS A KING. I AM THE FOUNTAIN IN THE WILDERNESS FROM WHICH LIVING WATER FLOWS. I AM HEALER, PROVIDER, PROTECTOR, AND FATHER. I AM. THERE IS NO OTHER GOD BEFORE ME. THOSE THAT HUNGER AND THIRST YOU WILL SERVE IN MY NAME."

"DAVID BUILT A TABERNACLE AND ALL COULD COME. WHERE MY TABERNACLE HAD STOOD MAN AND KINGS PLANTED GROVES AND BUILT ALTERS WITHIN SIGHT OF THE TEMPLE SOLOMON BUILT AND I FILLED WITH MY GLORY. THEY PROVOKED MY WRATH BY THEIR FLAGRANT DISOBEDIENCE. WHEN IN MY LOVE AND MERCY I SENT MY SERVANTS TO THEM THEY KILLED MY SERVANTS AND REFUSED TO REPENT AND RETURN. YOUR PEOPLE, OLD DOG, ARE NO DIFFERENT. YET HAVE TAKEN THE PROVOCATION EVEN FARTHER".

"THEY PROPHECY TO A NATION THAT IF SOME MIGHT REPENT MY WRATH WOULD BE NEGATED. THEY SAY I HAVE SPOKEN SUCH WHO CLAIM TO SERVE ME BUT SERVE THEMSELVES. LOOK AROUND YOU....." I looked and all I saw were the ruins and the overgrown mountainside. "DOG, MY WORD AND MY COMMANDMENTS ARE CLEAR. WHEN I BROUGHT MY PEOPLE INTO THE LAND THAT WAS PROMISED I GAVE THE MY COMMANDMENTS...MY TORAH. IF THEY OBEYED ME I WOULD BLESS THEM. IF THEY WOULD NOT, I WOULD CURSE AS STRONGLY AS I BLESSED. TODAY THEY CHANGE MY WORDS AND FORGET MY COMMANDMENTS. ONCE AGAIN THEY IGNORED MY WARNINGS THAT I SENT IN FAITHFULNESS. NOW I SEND A DIFFERENT WARNING, LET THOSE WITH EARS TO HEAR LISTEN AND OBEY."

I stood quietly as the light faded slowly and utter silence fell. Once again stood the LORD OF HOSTS, MY CAPTAIN in brilliant armor...and I too was in armor. We stood together and watched. It seemed we were "above the mountain" looking down when sounds and light were noticed on the mountaintop. I saw what looked like torches being carried. There were large numbers of people running around in apparent panic. This was confirmed my the shouts and screams that started to be heard. I watched fires break out in several places. It was only because of the fires did I notice that there were buildings. I watched as hundreds of people were slaughtered and bodies covered the ground. It was ruthless and I wondered why the KING looked pleased. weird ...scary...and I wondered.

Eventually the slaughter ended and the fires went out.... it was apparently over.

Once again the sky became gloriously bright and I saw the LAMB smile and shake HIS HEAD sadly.

"GO AND TELL THEM WHAT YOU SAW. THEN TELL THEM THIS. OBEDIENCE IS BETTER THAN SACRIFICE. THE MINIMUM I EXPECT IS OBEDIENCE.

TELL THOSE WHO PROPHECY LIES IN MY NAME THAT I WILL NOT BE MOCKED ANY LONGER. THEY TELL THE DECEIVED THAT I WILL NEITHER JUDGE OR PUNISH THOSE WHO HAVE WRONGED ME. WHO HAVE BROKEN MY COMMANDMENTS. THEY SAY MY WORD CAN BE NEGATED AND MY WILL MANIPULATED.

TELL THOSE WHO CLAIM TO BE INTERCESSORS, FROM THE LOWEST TO THE HIGHEST, YOUR WITCHCRAFTS WILL BE EXPOSED. THOSE WHO FOLLOW MEN AND WOMEN AND NOT MY SPIRIT WILL BE INDICTED AND EXECUTED. THOSE WHO LEAD MY SHEEP TO PRAY AGAINST MY WILL BE ERADICATED. FOR I NOW PLACE BEFORE YOU THE SIGN OF JOSIAH.

EVEN IF YOU TURN FROM ALL YOUR WICKED WAYS, RENOUNCE THE SINS OF YOUR FATHERS, DESTROY THE HIGH PLACES AND BURN THE GROVES, EXPEL THE SODOMITES, BREAK ALL THE ALTERS TO BAAL AND TO MOLECH, PUT TO SWORD ALL THE PRIESTS AND PROPHETS OF THE ENEMY I WOULD NOT CHANGE MY WORD.

I HAVE CALLED ALL TO FOLLOW ME AND TO LEARN OF ME. THIS YOU HAVE NOT DONE.

THOSE WHO WALK WITH ME AND ABIDE IN ME SHALL FIND REFUGE IN THE CLEFT OF THE ROCK.

THOSE WHO HANG ONTO THE TEACHINGS OF MEN, WHO SOW INTO THE WIND, SHALL BE REAPED AND CONSUMED IN THE WHIRLWIND.

Then all again was quiet. HE smiled at me and squeezed my shoulder.

"I TOLD YA DOG, YOU KNEW IT. YOU MIGHT NOT APPRECIATE THAT FACT EVEN NOW. BUT YOU WILL GET USED TO IT."

So I had to ask, "What am I to do now that I am "here"?"

HE smiled, "DO WHATEVER I TELL YOU TO DO, DOG. DON'T MAKE IT ANY MORE THAN WHAT YOU HAVE BEEN DOING. I'LL KEEP YOU BUSY. I WILL SEND MORE TO THE MOUNTAIN. YOU JUST HAVE TO WAIT AND KEEP THINGS IN PROPER ORDER." With that HE LAUGHED and we just talked about it. HE did most of the laughing.

So in obedience I put it all in words and send it out. let those with ears to hear and eyes to see... old dog

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Pressure

Chuck Elliott

Hello, Bill, My name is, Chuck Elliott I am the pastor of Eagle's Rest Christian Center, in Key West, Florida. I have pastored for 27 years and my wife and I moved to Key West in August of 1998, from Lothian, Maryland, where the following revelation occurred.

I was on the tin roof of our Christian Education building fixing some rust spots in 100 degree temperatures, when I suffered a heat stroke. After several days of feeling very drained and constantly exhausted, though I was only sitting in the house trying to recuperate. I decided, upon the insistence of my sons, to get checked out at the hospital. They began tests for a heart attack and gave me a C.A.T. scan. I was placed on a very narrow board and told not to move for some 20 minutes or more. As I lay there thinking how long that would seem in that position, I decided the time would be best spent just worshipping and thanking the Lord for His goodness.

I had no sooner entered in to worship, when the Lord appeared to me, standing just at my feet.

His head was covered in brilliant light and His hands were tightly clasped together as though putting great pressure on something. As I watched, His hands opened to reveal a beautiful crystal or diamond prism. He said, " You have wondered why I have allowed so much pressure to come into your life. The pressure is to purify and prepare you. I have many who I am preparing for this final hour. They have been willing to forsake everything for my touch on their lives. They live in obscure places and are unknown to most, they have given up their own ambitions and are content to find their identity in Me." As I watched, the prism rose and as the Lord leaned over, it went down and it seemed to rest among a crowd of people who were standing about in groups. The light which was about the head of Jesus became even more intense and I watched the light of His countenance go into the prism and as it did, a laser beam of beautiful blue light went out into a group of people and they were immediately healed. Again it went out into another group ( this time it was yellow ) and they were delivered and their faces began to glow. Again and again this light went out and each was a different color and folks were filled with the Holy Spirit and others were saved. And the Lord said " these are the end time army which shall go forth and find their identity and their meaning in the face of my countenance and as they stay before my face, nothing shall be impossible and nothing shall be able to stand before them." I just lay there weeping and overwhelmed by what I had seen.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Proven

Mary Koons

There are many that have been “proven” and placed to “assay, examine, watch,” and seek MY WILL in regards to what they see. Most have come through severe trials that has burned off the “flesh” that kept them from MY FULLNESS – but these I AM NOW RESTORING in full and abundant life – these are rich in praise TO THEIR KING – their High Tower, for they know WHO has sustained and upheld them through the fires they endured. These see many who believe themselves to be “proven vessels,” and yet they have mined ore – and have NOT brass, the FIRE of MY SPIRIT within themselves. They are alien – foreign to ME – to MY NATURE. They are like the “Pharisee” who observed the repentant tax collector and gave thanks for HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS, instead of coming before me as the tax collector, naked and unashamed – crying “MERCY!” – aware that NOTHING WITHIN THEMSELVES was worthy in My sight!

Search yourselves DAILY... be PROVEN as refined gold – stoked through the fire of adversity, allowing MY LIGHT to shine and radiate MY GLORY within and through you! Could I NOT choose to send My Spirit through “ore,” though it is dull, lifeless and unrefined? But I WILL NOT! For those who seek “their rewards HERE” will FIND IT HERE... but because they have chosen NOT to store up treasures for themselves in heaven, they shall be poor and without recourse in the days ahead. For their “ideas,” their “plans” THEIR MINISTRIES – WILL NOT SAVE THEM!!!! For they have looked to “man” for their reward, their sustenance and position – and so My Spirit is unable to bring them forward, through the rest of the journey, for they have chosen to “feed” upon their own WORTH, instead of MY WORTHINESS! They seek justification in “appearances,” forgetting that I was marred beyond human recognition to purchase their salvation and liberty. They claim the liberty of My Spirit, but then effectively renounce, spurn and reject My Spirit. For though they “appear” righteous, inside they are full of dead-man’s bones and all manner of unrighteousness and uncleanness. These are QUICK! – to “find fault” with others, puffed up by their own self-righteousness, eager to show others their “union” with Me by words and actions that ALL but they recognize as carnal and non-edifying. When confronted, they remain blind to their own faults – instead pointing out the “speck” within their brother’s eye. They move NOT in My love, compassion or truly seek to be united with My Body, for within MY BODY – there is NO PART that can usurp ME as the HEAD...and through the suffering that My Body endured AND endures ALL is being conformed into MY GLORIOUS IMAGE – so that in ALL THINGS I – and I ALONE will have pre-eminence!

To the pure in heart – ALL THINGS ARE PURE...but to those who are “defiled” in heart – NOTHING IS PURE...unless it bears THEIR brand upon it! I would take out their heart of stone and replace it with a heart of “flesh,” tender and responsive to MY TOUCH; but their heart is “dull and lifeless as a slab or stone – as ORE WITHIN THEM.” They have pitched their tents and by their own self-efforts have enlarged the stakes, but the “violent” coming wind of MY SPIRIT will blow everything from its path – especially those with tent pegs that have been sunk deep into the useless foundation of their own “pride” – My earthquake, WILL shake ANYTHING that can be shaken, and the “turbulent” wave I send will tear down and destroy those things that can be pulled down and reclaimed into the sea! What remains will be as “dust” in their mouths for they will THEN SEE – that though they “heard,” their ears were dull – that though they “saw,” their eyes were “blinded.”

Those who are MY SHEEP – know MY VOICE – and My Watchmen – MY “assayers” have been PROVEN and REFINED...and will help My lambs find their way. These TEND MY SHEEP – with My tender touch. Like their Master, they lift up My lambs, and carry them upon their own shoulders -until they are able to stand with their feet upon the Rock! My compassion flows from them along with My tears for those who have turned to the right and left and begun their OWN KINGDOMS, and have filled their tents with their own burdens – which they ALSO lay upon My lambs... These seek to “bind” the tender ones, MY LAMBS to themselves – just as they themselves are bound. Rejected themselves - they reject others; unrepentant themselves – they seek to justify themselves through the eyes of others.... Seeking to find “peace,” they stir up strife, endeavoring to bring light, they move only further into the own darkness of their soulish endeavors. Those who have listened to the UNPROVEN – will themselves, remain unproven – for you WILL know them by their fruits....and if the “tree” is producing bad fruit – cut it down and throw it INTO THE FIRE! Seek not to continue to “eat” from this tree For in doing so – you have chosen to partake of “death” instead of eating from the TREE OF LIFE!

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Rams And The Titans

Bob Neumann

.....a commentary

It is now the third day and I wondered if anyone saw beyond the surface.....
The score was "too close for comfort" and if you had bet's riding the winning RAMS failed to make the "spread". So it makes one wonder.....

Now if you were seeing it from a BABYLONIAN/Pagan point of view the best thing about the whole exhibition was the ONE WORLD half time show. But even in old Babylon there was a man who saw.....his name was Daniel....or "Judge of GOD". So weigh these thoughts.....

The RAMS were "THE GOOD GUYS" ....expected to win. They had the Cinderella QB and the long denied coach....all nice guys. From a "christian" imagery situation all Rams are simply mature male sheep. Common members of any flock. So if we be HIS SHEEP, then THE RAMS WERE GOD'S TEAM.

Especially when you remember what TITANS were/are.

In Greek mythology they were the Demi-Gods that existed before mankind. They were immortal and were vanquished by the Olympians. In their group where such illustrious characters as "Prometheus", "Atlas", "Triton", "Helios", "Typhon", "Python", and others.... They were the Greek "Giants" ....performers of exploits....sources of legend and myth. In the Hebrew they were called "giants" also....Nephelim. But they were the offspring of Fallen angels and mortal women. The Greeks called these half immortal hybrids HEROES.

In scripture giants opposed GOD'S people and were destroyed....at a cost.

So what really happened Sunday? Well.....THE GOOD GUYS WON.....or so it seemed. In the first half the RAMS gave a dazzling performance of offensive yardage..... But could not cross the goal line. The Rams QB played a record book game..... and squeaked out a win on the last play of the game...one yard short of tragedy....

Repeatedly the Christian Church has made many great strides over the last 2000 years. But no matter when, how, where, and why every "great move of GOD" fell somewhat short.

In the second half the awesome air attack of the RAMS gave way to the pounding ground attack of the TITANS. Momentum, that fickle thing, fell out of the hands of the "anointed" heroes and we watched as the courageous Rams defense were worn down and beaten back. On the last drive of the game the RAMS started giving away yardage due to penalties. Several times on critical plays the "penalties" did more damage than the TITAN OFFENSE gained.

For 60 minutes the battles raged head to head and the only break in the deadlock was the last drive of the Rams where a miracle took place. A long "pass and run" that took no more than 30 seconds on the clock. It turned out to be the Margin of VICTORY in this bizarre morality play.

The game should never have been this close. All the analysts agreed that THE RAMS were the best "RED ZONE" offense in the NFL this year. The score could have/should have been a 21-28 point victory for THE RAMS.

But it did not happen.....

For 2000 years THE SAINTS of GOD have had all THE GIFTS and Promises we have today. ALL AUTHORITY.... ALL POWER.... ALL OPPORTUNITY.... to take the GOSPEL to a world that awaited our "WITNESS"....

We should have blown the devil and his minions off the field..... we had the weapons and THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT..... so what's wrong?

You tell me....I can not figure it....

And then we have Daniel's account of the BIG GAME....

Daniel 7:21-28

*21 I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;
22 Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.
23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.
24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.
25 And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.
26 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end.
27 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.
28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart. (KJV)*

Well, guy, I know how you felt....if it was not for the ANCIENT OF DAYS sending in the last minute play....

Daniel 7:13-14

*13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.
14 And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. (KJV)*

Seems like there was another play by play account of the BIG GAME...

Revelation 13:1-18

*1 And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.
2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.
3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.
4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?
5 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months.
6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.
7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.
8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.
9 If any man have an ear, let him hear.
10 He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.
11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.
12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them* which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,
14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.
15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.
16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:
17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.
18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six. (KJV)

I guess the "key" sound bytes here are...""made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;"" ....""and shall wear out the saints of the most High"" , ""7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.""

Now where the heck is that RAH RAH RAH from the Pep Squad.....

Revelation 12:10-12
10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.
11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.
12 Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time. (KJV)

Now that is not what we were expecting....not even close to "beam me up Scotty" .... but it is THE WORD....it is THE TRUTH....and probably not the way you expected it. Get used to it...
I doubt that anyone is expecting what is about to come....in spite of all the warnings.

Selah
old dog

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Remnant Seed

Mary Koons

Dear Ones,

I just finished this (a long study) and the entire article is out on the Spokane Outpouring site if you would like to read all of it. Due to the length of it however, I am only forwarding the WORD itself - along with the page link if you would like to read the article also.

May God richly bless you all!

Love in Christ, Mary

<http://www.jps.net/ilbcnu/remnant.htm>

Tuesday, April 4, 7:44 a.m.

The Remnant Seed

Who IS the remnant seed? The remnant seed are those who have forsaken ALL to follow where I AM has led them. The remnant seed are those who are "LOOKING UP! For THEIR redemption is drawing nigh."

Most follow the path that I have set before them but stop short of their goal, for they look and think about spiritual things as those who are "carnal-minded," setting objects (idols) or even themselves above My Word and above knowing me in an intimate relationship. They are ripe for the enemy to steal what I have planted in them. ....to "loose" the goal I have set before them - AND then "fail" because they tried to move forward in "their OWN power!" Does My Word NOT tell you that "YOUR righteousness is as filthy rags?" That YOU overcome ONLY because I have already done so? Where do My people look for their deliverance? For their prosperity? For their consolation? For their peace? Many will look into things and go into places which are "worldly," and are FAR removed from where I would have them be.

The remnant seed is that seed that has fallen "upon the good soil," and WILL bring up a harvest of 30, 60 even a 100 fold! They choose NOT to "move or go," until I have given them the word to do so. These have learned the perfect obedience of My Father through suffering - and they have suffered much. They "march to the beat of a different drummer," and the world despises them for it! But those of the "remnant send," won't fail to reach the goal I have set before them since before the foundation of the world - for they seek to "RUN THE GOOD RACE OF FAITH," and to "FINISH!!!!!" and not to falter at the "Finish-line." The remnant seed are those who "PLANT SEEDS..." and have "put their hand to the plow and NOT LOOKED BACK." These are loved by My Father in Heaven for their devotion to the things and treasure ABOVE, and not on this earth. These worship IN Spirit and IN My Truth! These are called on to greater things - for though I am NOT a respecter of persons, I will "reward and bring forth" in these the ONENESS that My Father and I have share, and in that ONENESS is the "FULLNESS OF MY MANIFEST PRESENCE," rich in the things of My Spirit, awash in the totality of the "River of Life." These do not speak out "DEATH," but speak unto the dry bones "LIFE!" Their sinews have been knit together in My love - and I send them forth with My peace. These have learned humility and meekness and are "lost," as faceless in a crowd - but are covered by the hand of My Father and surrounded by His angels who protect them from being crushed by the "press" around them. They have suffered much for the Kingdom's sake - but count it all as "dung," compared to the GREATER JOY of KNOWING ME - and in gaining the "GOAL" I AM has set before them.

The "remnant" are given to knowing ME and obeying ONLY ME. Though the ground upon which they have trod in the past has lain fallow, NOW will I RISE UP and pour OUT My "supernatural dew," and "heavenly rain" upon this ground. For I AM coming forth to reap a bountiful harvest and that "remnant seed," which I have chosen to plant, NOW will I choose to reap! I hold in My Hand, the "Sword of Truth," MY WORD IS TRUTH - and no falsehood shall escape their lips, for they speak MY WORD ONLY. These will "build up," and "NOT" tear down, nor will they "plant" and the world NOT see a "field of My Righteousness," sprout up from the dust! Nor will these attempt to glean* - until what they have labored to bring forth is fully ripe, rich and abundant with the "FRUIT OF MY SPIRIT!"

These I SEND FORTH in this day - IN THIS HOUR! These will begin to move with a boldness that is "new" to them; but filled with My Power and obediently speaking forth the WORD I have given them to speak. They will no longer be lost "faceless" in the crowd - but will draw many by the WORDS OF LIFE I give them to speak. These are called "blessed" by My Father who is in Heaven - and Heaven, this day REJOICES for their "coming forth!"

Therefore, then, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses [who have borne testimony of the Truth], let us strip off and throw aside every encumbrance - unnecessary weight - and that sin which so readily (deftly and cleverly) clings to and entangles us, and let us run with patient endurance and steady and active persistence the appointed course of the race that is set before us.

Looking away [ from all that will distract] to Jesus, Who is the Leader and the Source of our faith [giving the first incentive for our belief] and is also its Finisher, [bringing it to maturity and perfection]. He, for the joy [of obtaining the prize] that was set before Him, endured the cross, despising and ignoring the shame, and is now seated at the right hand of the throne of God.

Hebrews 12: 1-2

*glean - v.t., to gather after a reaper, as grain; to collect with patient labor; to cull the fairest portion of; to gather.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Sword And Spear

Bobby Conner

THE SWORD AND SPEAR

THE ZADOK PRIESTHOOD:

Preparation for the Coming Confrontation With Carnality

<http://bobbyconner.org/Article15.htm>

While I was quietly waiting before the Lord, the Spirit of God suddenly and without warning transported me into a very vivid trance. I heard the sound of something being whirled just above my head! Quickly I opened my eyes and the Lord Himself was standing over me with a glistening razor-sharp sword in His hand.

As the Lord whirled the sword, extremely fast, mere inches above my head, the swishing sound was extremely loud. I could feel the wind generated by the sword's blade, and understood that I must not attempt to raise my head. The Lord said, "Yes! You must remain in a posture of humility. That is the only way to keep your head in what is coming."

Then the Lord in a swift motion hurled the whirling sword into the floor near my feet. However, to my utter astonishment, the moment it stuck into the floor the sword became a long, sharp spear. The force had driven the spear into the floor, and it was vibrating from the impact. The sound of the vibration was very peculiar. God said, "Take notice of what angle the spear stuck into the floor." It had impaled at a 45-degree angle. At the time, I knew it had to do with judgment and inheritance. Then the Lord said, "The commissioning of the "Sword and Spear has come!"

I pleaded, "Oh, Lord, what does this mean? Please grant me understanding." He replied, "I am calling forth the ZADOK PRIESTHOOD. They are being appointed and anointed to confront carnality in the modern- day church."

I knew that Zadok speaks of those who are "righteous," and was reminded of the warning stated in 1 Peter 4:17: "For the time has come for judgment to begin at the house of God. If it begins with us first, what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God?" In a similar way, God says in Jeremiah 25:29, "'For behold, I begin to bring calamity on the city which is called by My name, and should you be utterly unpunished? You shall not be unpunished, for I will call for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth,' says the LORD of hosts."

It Is Time to Take a Stand

The Lord directed me to Numbers 25:1-15: Then Israel remained in the Acacia Grove, and the people began to commit harlotry with the women of Moab. They invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods, and the people ate and bowed down to their gods. So Israel was joined to Baal of Peor, and the anger of the LORD was aroused against Israel.

Then the LORD said to Moses, "Take all the leaders of the people and hang the offenders before the LORD, out in the sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from Israel." So Moses said to the judges of Israel, "Every one of you kill his men who were joined to Baal of Peor."

And indeed, one of the children of Israel came and presented to his brethren a Midianite woman in the sight of Moses and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, who were weeping at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. Now when Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose from among the congregation and took a javelin in his hand; and he went after the man of Israel into the tent and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her body. So the plague was stopped among the children of Israel. And those who died in the plague were twenty-four thousand.

Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: "Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned back My wrath from the children of Israel, because he was zealous with My zeal among them, so that I did not consume the children of Israel in My zeal. "Therefore say, 'Behold, I give to him My covenant of peace; and it shall be to him and his descendants after him a covenant of an everlasting priesthood, because he was zealous for his God, and made atonement for the children of Israel.'" Now the name of the Israelite who was killed, who was killed with the Midianite woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, a leader of a father's house among the Simeonites. And the name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Cozbi the daughter of Zur; he was head of the people of a father's house in Midian.

In this passage of Scripture we discover the judgment of God against the wicked whoredom of His people. In the New Testament we are warned not to make the same mistakes. Paraphrasing Paul in 1 Corinthians 10:6-12:

From this lesson we are warned that we must not desire evil things as they did, nor worship idols as they did. The Scripture warns us, "The people sat down to eat and drink and then got up to dance" in worship of the golden calf. Another lesson for us is what happened when some of them sinned with other men's wives, and 23,000 fell dead in one day. And don't try the Lord's patience—they did and died from snake bites. And don't murmur against God and his dealings with you as some of them did, for that is why God sent his Angel to destroy them. All these things happened to them as examples—as object lessons to us—to warn us against doing the same things; they were written down so that we could read about them and learn from them in these last days as the world nears its end. So be careful. If you are thinking, "Oh, I would never behave like that"—let this be a warning to you. For you too may fall into sin.

The Reward

In Psalm 106:28-31 it is recorded: "They joined themselves also to Baal of Peor, and ate sacrifices made to the dead, Thus they provoked Him to anger with their deeds, and the plague broke out among them. Then Phinehas stood up and intervened, and the plague was stopped. And that was accounted to him for righteousness to all generations forevermore."

So, who or what is "Baal of Peor"? Baal-peor means "lord of the gap" or "lord of the hole." This is the name given the false god worshiped at Peor with extremely immoral and debauched rites. Baal of Peor represents a very wicked form of sexual idolatry. This is one of the most potent forms of delusion and deception, combining sexual perversion and idolatry. It is an extremely devastating combination: a religious spirit joined with a perverted sexual spirit, both of which appeal to the carnal appetites of fallen man.

The word "Peor" signifies an "opening" or "hole." Baal of Peor speaks of sexual perversion during one of the most grievous moments in Israel's history. We see the seriousness of becoming involved in idolatry and perversion.

Names and Places

The Spirit of Truth will release much-needed revelation for us as we look into the meaning of the names and places involved in this chilling episode.

First, we will look at "PHINEHAS," the son of Eleazar and the grandson of Aaron. His name means "mouth of brass," which speaks of straightforwardness and earnestness to speak out for the things of God. His father's name, "Eleazar," means "God has helped," and his grandfather's name, "Aaron," means "Light-bearer." God is raising up those who will boldly speak out and stand against wickedness. He will stand with them and be their Helper, and they will be known as the "Light-Bearers." Remember, Jesus exhorted us to let our light shine before men (Matt. 5:48).

The Place

"Shittim" means "the acacia groves." Many times in Israel's history it was at this place that God called on them to make decisions. Acacia wood seems to be a type of the nature of man. The acacia or shittim tree was used to build many of the furnishings of the Tabernacle. We are told that this wood is very difficult to work with. It is extremely hard and gnarly. Nevertheless, this is also one of the most indestructible and durable types of wood.

Moses instructed the master craftsmen to overlay this wood with pure gold. To me this speaks of the transforming grace of God coming into one's life. It was at this place of Shittim, "the acacia groves," that the Israelites made many of their decisions. It is the same today: God calls us to make many decisions in the hard, twisted, difficult places in our lives.

The People

"Moab" speaks of incest. The literal meaning of Moab is "of his father." The nation began with the drunken incest between Lot and his oldest daughter. The Moab nation descended from the son of Lot.

Notice in Numbers 25:6 that the woman was identified as a Midianite woman. The word Midianite speaks of "strife" and "contention." The man who was responsible for bringing this woman of strife and contention into the camp of God's people was named "Zimri," which means "my music." This speaks of a person doing their own thing, one who will not walk in unity. The name of the Midianite woman was "Cozbi," which means "My Lie." You can clearly see that this deals with rebellion and deception.

It is extremely important that we understand the timing of Zimri and Cozbi's defiant, rebellious act. At this very moment real repentance was taking place. All of the leaders were in a time of true brokenheartedness and genuine, heartfelt repentance. In Numbers 25:6 we read that they acted "in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, who were weeping before the door of the tabernacle of the congregation." This is when the devil will fight the hardest, just as God's leaders are beginning to cry out in humble repentance.

This is an extremely crucial lesson for us, because the next great move of the Spirit across the body of Christ will be that of true repentance and a brokenhearted turning back to God. There is about to be released a corporate prayer of repentance similar to David's prayer in Psalm 51. The weeping of repentant hearts will be heard across the land. As we sow in tears, we will reap in joy (Ps. 126:5-6).

During Israel's time of repentance, this rebel made his move. However, notice how swift and sure the judgment of God falls (Num. 25:7). Also notice the result of this act of zealotry by Phinehas (Num. 25:9-13). He was a peace maker, not a trouble maker.

The Confrontation of Carnality

The Lord is a refining fire, and He has turned up the burner. He is not trying to punish us but purify us. In Malachi 3:1-7, the Lord warns of this coming judgment:

"Behold, I send My messenger, and he will prepare the way before Me. And the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple, even the Messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight. Behold, He is coming," says the LORD of hosts.

"But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire and like launderer's soap. He will sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver; he will purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer to the LORD an offering in righteousness.

"Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasant to the LORD, as in the days of old, as in former years. And I will come near you for judgment; I will be a swift witness against sorcerers, against adulterers, against perjurers, against those who exploit wage earners and widows and orphans, and against those who turn away an alien—because they do not fear Me," says the LORD of hosts. "For I am the LORD, I do not change; therefore you are not consumed, O sons of Jacob. Yet from the days of your fathers you have gone away from My ordinances and have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you," says the LORD of hosts.

This Judgment Must Commence at the House of God

Deuteronomy 4:23-24 says, "Take heed to yourselves, lest you forget the covenant of the LORD your God which He made with you, and make for yourselves a carved image in the form of anything which the LORD your God has forbidden you. For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God."

The writer of the book of Hebrews brings this verse to our attention, reminding us that it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of a living God (Heb. 10:31). Our God is a jealous God. He is worthy of our love and loyalty.

Playacting in the church is over! It is time to get all our pretense out of the way. We are about to understand that "holiness" is a real demand by God, and not something we can take or leave! Isaiah 33:14 says, "The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness has seized the hypocrites: 'Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? Who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?'"

Get ready to see a time of transition and transformation. The Word of God will come like a fire to purify and like a hammer to destroy and construct. "Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?" (Jer. 23:29) The Word of God will destruct what we have constructed, in order to construct what God desires to build. The Scriptures warn us that unless the Lord builds the house, we work in vain (Ps. 127:1). We shouldn't attempt to hold up what God wants to pull down.

Many say, "Oh, that is just the Old Testament concept of God." However, we must never forget the similar warnings of the New Testament: "I came to send fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled!" (Lk. 12:49) Remember: Our God is a consuming fire. This fire will remove the dull dross from our lives in order for us to better reflect the glory of God.

It Is Time to Deal With Deception

No one desires to hear a warning concerning God's judgment, but it is time to awake out of sleep, and awake to righteousness. We are in a state of serious delusion and deception to think we can continue to walk in rebellion to the Word of God. It is a real mistake to think we can live that way and still escape the judgment of God. However, the correction of God will be very fruitful in our lives. In Proverbs 3:11-12 we read: "My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD, nor detest His correction; for whom the LORD loves He corrects, just as a father the son in whom he delights." The correcting hand of Father God upon our lives is one of the greatest confirmations that we do in fact belong to Him. If one is without the correction of God, they are illegitimate and not a son. The writer of the book of Hebrews calls our attention to this same passage in Hebrews 12:5-16:

And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to sons: "My son, do not despise the chastening of the Lord, nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him; for whom the Lord loves He chastens, and scourges every son whom He receives." If you endure chastening, God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom a father does not chasten? But if you are without chastening, of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate and not sons.

Furthermore, we have had human fathers who corrected us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much more readily be in subjection to the Father of spirits and live? For they indeed for a few days chastened us as seemed best to them, but He for our profit, that we may be partakers of His holiness.

Now no chastening seems to be joyful for the present, but painful; nevertheless, afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it. Therefore strengthen the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees, and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed.

Pursue peace with all people, and holiness, without which no one will see the Lord: looking diligently lest anyone fall short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up cause trouble, and by this many become defiled; lest there be any fornicator or profane person like Esau, who for one morsel of food sold his birthright.

Grace Does Not Release Us From Responsibility

A further warning is found in Hebrews 10:26-39: For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and fiery indignation which will devour the adversaries. Anyone who has rejected Moses' law dies without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. Of how much worse punishment, do you suppose, will he be thought worthy who has trampled the Son of God underfoot, counted the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified a common thing, and insulted the Spirit of grace? For we know Him who said, "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay," says the Lord. And again, "The Lord will judge His people." It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

But recall the former days in which, after you were illuminated, you endured a great struggle with sufferings: partly while you were made a spectacle both by reproaches and tribulations, and partly while you became companions of those who were so treated; for you had compassion on me in my chains, and joyfully accepted the plundering of your goods, knowing that you have a better and an enduring possession for yourselves in heaven.

Therefore do not cast away your confidence, which has great reward. For you have need of endurance, so that after you have done the will of God, you may receive the promise: "For yet a little while, and He who is coming will come and will not tarry. Now the just shall live by faith; but if anyone draws back, my soul has no pleasure in him." But we are not of those who draw back to perdition, but of those who believe to the saving of the soul. We will do well to ponder the events spoken of by the prophet in Ezekiel 9:1-7:

Then He called out in my hearing with a loud voice, saying, "Let those who have charge over the city draw near, each with a deadly weapon in his hand." And suddenly six men came from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each with his battle-ax in his hand. One man among them was clothed with linen and had a writer's inkhorn at his side. They went in and stood beside the bronze altar.

Now the glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the cherub, where it had been, to the threshold of the temple. And He called to the man clothed with linen, who had the writer's inkhorn at his side; and the LORD said to him, "Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and put a mark on the foreheads of the men who sigh and cry over all the abominations that are done within it." To the others He said in my hearing, "Go after him through the city and kill; do not let your eye spare, nor have any pity. Utterly slay old and young men, maidens and little children and women; but do not come near anyone on whom is the mark; and begin at My sanctuary." So they began with the elders who were before the temple. Then He said to them, "Defile the temple, and fill the courts with the slain. Go out!" And they went out and killed in the city.

Consider these other sobering verses: And I will come near you for judgment; I will be a swift witness against sorcerers, against adulterers, against perjurers, against those who exploit wage earners and widows and orphans, and against those who turn away an alien—because they do not fear Me," says the LORD of hosts (Mal. 3:5).

And that servant who knew his master's will, and did not prepare himself or do according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. But he who did not know, yet committed things deserving of stripes, shall be beaten with few. For everyone to whom much is given, from him much will be required; and to whom much has been committed, of him they will ask the more. I came to send fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! (Lk. 12:47-49).

It is time to attack everything in our life that stands in opposition to the Word of God!

We must put on the full armor of God, for things are about to heat up in the spiritual realm. We must learn how to stand in the power of the Word of God: For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, and being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled (2 Cor. 10:4-6).

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having girded your waist with truth, having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; above all, taking the shield of faith with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God (Eph. 6:10-17).

Now is the time to awake and walk in the light of the Word of God. It is time to deal with all the darkness and deception in our lives: The night is far spent, the day is at hand. Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. Let us walk properly, as in the day, not in revelry and drunkenness, not in lewdness and lust, not in strife and envy. But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to fulfill its lusts (Rom. 13:12-14).

May God grant us the grace to seek HIM until HE comes and rains righteousness upon us. It is comforting to know that God's judgments always guides us to the truth.

Bobby Conner
Box 1028
Moravian Falls, NC 28654

---

Copyright (c) 2000 Bobby Conner Ministry. All rights reserved. For forwarding do not change, or add to, or delete anything. Complete copyright must be included with every article. <http://www.BobbyConner.Org/>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Seedy Backstreets of Corinth

Robert I Holmes

"If an unbeliever or someone who does not understand comes in while everybody is prophesying, he will be convinced by all that he is a sinner and will be judged by all, and the secrets of his heart will be laid bare. So he will fall down and worship God, claiming, "God is really among you!" What then shall we say, brothers? When you come together, everyone has a hymn, or a word of instruction, a revelation, a tongue or an interpretation. All of these must be done for the strengthening of the church." (1 Cor 14:24-26)

A church where everybody prophesies can be a very exciting place. It is often a place of miracles, of signs and wonders, of angelic visitations and exciting times of the anointing of God. The church of Corinth was like this - the heady days of the people of God getting into ministry - no longer a distinction between lay and priest.

But as with everything, the upside has a downside - the dazzling city lights have seedy back alleys. Corinth ran into some major problems, like prophetic dueling, fighting for supremacy, arrogance, pride, rejection and issues of accountability to leadership.

Addiction to spiritual experiences

John Paul Jackson has said that, "Having spiritual experiences does not make you a spiritual person". That is the same as saying just because you have revelation, does not mean you have God. Having revelation does not mean you have love. Having words of knowledge does not equate to knowing God.

Your 'level' or quantity of revelation does not equate to your acceptability with God, your anointing, your holiness, your righteousness or any other measure or standard. Nor are gifts or revelations a badge of God's approval.

Those who just have 'experiences' are in danger of becoming prophetic junkies, they get hooked on the buzz of having revelation, or hearing from God and change very little. James said it this way, "Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like a man who looks at his face in a mirror and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like" (Jas 1:23).

James uses 'word'. Remember they did not have the bible in those days, and he uses a specific greek phrase 'logos' meaning "something said, something thought, a communication, speech, talk, utterance or a word".

It would seem that James is very much saying "If you just hear and do not obey, if you listen to God's voice and do not change, if you have spiritual experiences but do not become more like Christ you are deceiving yourself".

Lying under the anointing

Everything that 'can' come from God through the human vessel 'can' also be tainted. That is why Paul told the Thessalonians to test EVERY utterance - including those of leaders and prophets! (1 Thess 5:21-25).

We have numerous examples of strong biblical leaders making mistakes or leading others astray. A classic but little quoted example is the esteemed and often copied ministry of Elisha. Consider the aging Elisha willfully lying to those coming to him for advice? "Elisha answered, "Go and say to him [king Ben Hadad of Aram], 'You will certainly recover'; but the LORD has revealed to me that he will in fact die." (2 Kings 8:10).

Consider Micaiah lying under the anointing to the king in 1 Kings 22:14-15. Consider Nathan's godless advise to David to build the temple in 1 Chr 17:2,3. Consider the old prophet deceiving the younger prophet then hearing a message from an angel about the young man's destruction in 1 Kings 13:18-22. Consider the error Agabus added in his interpretation of prophecy for Paul in Acts 21:11,12.

Because you can get it wrong, and sometimes you can get it SO wrong, there arises the strong need for accountability, submission and safety nets in the Body of Christ.

Becoming a law unto yourself

It is easy when you get 'tapped into God' to begin to value your relationship with Him over others. The tendency, when receiving dreams, visions or other spiritual phenomena, is that we begin to drift away from healthy human relationships. You begin to hear people say things like "I hear from God and that's enough for me", and "I am accountable to God not men".

Most often these statements are driven from arrogance, pride or self delusion. If you begin to walk down this road it will not be very long before your gift becomes polluted, and you open yourself up to deceiving spirits. How can I justify this? Scripture says, "A man who isolates himself seeks his own desires, he rages against all wise judgement" (NKJV).

Your desire to become a law unto yourself begins to display your basic level of maturity in the things of God. Remember, having spiritual experiences does not make you a spiritual man, anymore than going to McDonalds makes you a hamburger. God spoke through trees, stones and a donkey. He can even use you! But that does not make you better, higher or more valid than others.

The New Testament is clear, we are to "Submit to one another out of reverence for Christ" (Eph 5:21). No we are not referring to legalism, nor adopting a religious stance, nor harking back to the bad old days of the shepherding movement in the '70's.

Contradiction in Corinth.

People in Corinth began to hear God for themselves and the result would sometimes be contradictory prophecies. Paul had to bring them to account over this and remind them that no one is above being corrected, and no one is above being tested. He advised submission to one another as the best defense against such proud ambition:

"Two or three prophets should speak, and the others should weigh carefully what is said." (1 Cor 14:29).

There is debate as to who the 'others' should be: other prophets, the elders or the wider body. But nevertheless Paul counseled against isolationism and competition by insisting that they submit their words to one another. That did not mean they 'delivered' the words to one another, and if they are not received walking out! It meant accepting the judgement of others and living in love.

Mike Bickle, tells an almost humour story of 'duelling prophets Sunday' a classic part of the history of his now famous church in Kansas City (taken from his excellent book "Growing in the prophetic").

Mike has pastored literally hundreds of mature prophetic people. Here is the crux of that conflict as told by him:

"On one Sunday morning, two of the main prophetic people got into a 'prophetic duel' right in front of the church. One stood up and proclaimed something to this effect: 'Thus saith the Lord, "A great thing is going to happen."' Then the second man stood up and said, 'Thus saith the Lord, "Better things are going to happen."' Then the first prophetic guy topped him.

Not to be out-prophesied, the second man answered back by giving something even better. They went about three rounds each. These two guys were yielding to a common temptation among prophetic people and were competing against each other to be the top prophet of the church. ...

I was provoked and offended, so I rose up and told them both to leave. I essentially informed them, 'I am finished with you two!' Both of the prophetic ministers told me that they were finished with this church, and they assured me that God was cancelling all the tremendous prophetic words spoken over the church. They assumed that God was going to leave with them. But God doesn't abandon you because a prophetic minister feels offended."

The lesson learned is that manifestation of God's power, and the ability to hear God's voice is not the defining criteria of the New Testament life in Christ. That is why Paul said "If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing" (1 Cor 13:2). John backs him up, making clear the basic tenants of the gospel of Christ - "Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love" (1 John 4:8).

The Shape of Things to Come

Bill Somers

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. (Matthew 6:10)

That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him: (Ephesians 1:10)

Let me spell it out right at the beginning. The shape of things to come is triangular.

OK, what things are we talking about? Really only one thing, but one depicted and described in many ways; the church. I have long seen that several of the metaphors used in scripture for the church have a triangle shape. The most obvious one is 'the mountain of the lord'. Others are less clear.

Lately the Lord has been showing me that practically all of the ways he uses to describe the church have a triangular aspect of some sort, depending on your point of view. In this article we will briefly touch on most of them. First, we will cite some pertinent verses. Then we'll see how they are triangular in shape. Then lastly we will look at their relation to the kingdom.

The Mountain

... Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; ... (Isaiah 2:3)

Now this one should be pretty obvious, mountain has a peak in the center and sloping sides all around. From the side it is clearly a triangle.

The Holy Hill Mount Zion

Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion. (Psalms 2:6)

Thus saith the LORD; I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the holy mountain. (Zechariah 8:3)

And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads. (Revelation 14:1)

A Song of degrees of David. Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments;

As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore. (Psalms 133:1-3)

Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it. (Zechariah 4:7)

These are key scriptures relating the Mountain of the Lord and the Holy Hill, Mount Zion

The Body of the High Priest

It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments; (Psalms 133:2)

Here we see the High Priest described as having skirted garments. These correspond to the sloping mountain sides. Psalm 133 compares the image of the mountain with the image of the High Priest. Both are triangular images.

The Body of Christ

So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. (Romans 12:5)

For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. (Ephesians 5:30)

Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus; (Hebrews 3:1)

In this case, we see that the image of the body of Christ takes on a triangular shape, since Christ Jesus is spoken of as our High Priest. [In Psalm 133, Aaron acts as a type of Christ.]

The Stone becoming a Great Mountain

Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth. (Daniel 2:35)

Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this. Isa 9:7

Here the stone is the Lord. He breaks the nations and scatters the pieces. Then they are replaced by his ever expanding mountain.

The Bride

*For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.
This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church. (Ephesians 5:31-32)*

Here we ask you to visualize a bride dressed in her long flowing gown and compare the picture to that of the High Priest in his skirted robes.

The Ship

And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. (Matthew 8:20)

And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him

And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep. (Matthew 8:23-24)

The ship is the church, his place of rest. The place he can lay his head. Here we can see that a ship has a high mast in the center with sails and ropes sloping down from the top. Another triangle.

A place to lay the head, a resting place.

For the LORD hath chosen Zion; he hath desired it for his habitation

This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it. (Psalms 132:13-14)

Here the resting place is the triangular Mount Zion.

The Army of God

Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. (2 Timothy 2:3)

No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier. (2 Timothy 2:4)

Now how does an army resemble a triangle? Not in any physical view that I can think of. However in the abstract it does because the chain of command and the table of organization depict a flow of authority starting at the top with the commander in chief and down thru the general staff, the generals, colonels and so on to the rank and file foot soldiers.

The Flock of Sheep

I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. (John 10:14)

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: (John 10:27)

For this image we ask you to take a short helicopter ride and observe a shepherd leading his flock out into the pasture. As we look down on the we see that He is at the head, followed by the lead sheep and the rest of them fan out behind him, like the wake behind a ship at sea. Triangular once more.

The Family of God

*According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love
Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,
To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved. (Ephesians 1:4-6)*

Guess what shape you find in a diagram of a family tree?

The Eagles Wings

As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings: (Deuteronomy 32:11)

He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. (Psalms 91:4)

Here the image is of the Lord protecting his people as an eagle shelters her young. The wings spread out to either side give this a triangular shape.

The Fig Tree, The Olive Tree etc.

He spake also this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none. (Luke 13:6)

Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless you. (Haggai 2:19)

For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? (Romans 11:24)

To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified. (Isaiah 61:3)

Quite often, the Lord speaks of his people in terms of trees. [I see men as trees, walking.] The figure of the fig tree and to a lesser extent the olive tree are very important. We can see some triangularity in the shape of a tree as well.

Metaphor of the vineyard

*Now will I sing to my wellbeloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill:
And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, . . . (Isaiah 5:1-2)*

This description of a vineyard resembles that of a city. There is a high point, the tower in the center, and walls, fences and hedges on either side. It could resemble a triangle seen from a short ways away.

Metaphor of the land of Israel

Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel, (he is the God,) which is in Jerusalem. (Ezra 1:3)

Whenever you go to Jerusalem, according to biblical prose, you go up to Jerusalem. From there you can go east and down to Jordan, or west and go down to the sea [Joppa]. So here we find another triangular image.

The City

Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off. (Genesis 22:4)

*For he [Abraham] looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.
Heb 11:10*

Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King. (Psalms 48:2)

When you view a city from a distance you notice the tallest buildings in the center and shorter and shorter ones trailing off to either side. This forms a triangle.

New Jerusalem

And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. (Revelation 21:2)

And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will show thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, (Revelation 21:9-10)

In this passage the bride is seen as synonymous with the Holy City.

The Tabernacle

*A Psalm of David. LORD, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?
(Psalms 15:1)*

For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock. (Psalms 27:5)

In Salem also is his tabernacle, and his dwelling place in Zion. (Psalms 76:2)

We will go into his tabernacles: we will worship at his footstool. (Psalms 132:7)

And in mercy shall the throne be established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness. (Isaiah 16:5)

And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. (Revelation 21:3)

So what is a tabernacle? It's a tent. And tents have tent poles sticking up in the middle and shorter poles on the sides and ropes going down to the earth tied to tent pegs driven into the ground. Once again we see a triangular shape.

The Dwelling Place, House or Temple

*Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God
And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone*

*In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord
In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit. (Ephesians 2:19-22)*

Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded. (1 Peter 2:5-6)

Houses and temples commonly have pointed roofs giving them a triangular aspect. The only way you can get a chief cornerstone is by having one corner at the top. Hence you have a pyramid, which is also triangular in shape.

The Pyramid

And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. (Matthew 16:18)

As the church is a spiritual building, it is built from the top down instead of from the bottom up. At the top we find the Cap Stone, Head Stone or Chief Corner Stone, Jesus. The church must be built on the Lordship of Jesus.

The Action

We see the triangle shape in all these examples of the Church. In certain ones we see some action too. We see an image of something being placed at the top of the triangle.

In Psalm 2 we see the King set upon the Holy Hill

In Zechariah 4, we see the headstone brought forth on the Mountain

In Revelation 14 we see the Lamb standing on the Mountain

In Psalm 133 we see the anointing ointment on the head and the dew on the mountain, both flowing downwards.

In Matthew 8 we see mention of a place to lay the head; and the Lord sleeping in the ship.

All of these instances speak of the same thing. Laying the headstone on the temple is laying the head on the body. The temple is the resting place of the Lord; and the body is the place of rest for the Head. The Lord is the head!

In Psalm 132, David speaking [as a type of Christ] says he will have no rest till he builds a dwelling place for God.

*Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, nor go up into my bed
I will not give sleep to mine eyes, or slumber to mine eyelids
Until I find out a place for the LORD, an habitation for the mighty God of Jacob. (Psalms 132:3-5)*

And then the Lord responds to his servant identifying the resting place as Mount Zion [a type of the Church].

*For the LORD hath chosen Zion; he hath desired it for his habitation
This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it. (Psalms 132:13-14)*

We often speak of the church as the body of Christ or as the House of God. According to these examples the construction of the House [temple] doesn't begin till the foundation is laid. Likewise, the assembly and following growth of the body doesn't begin till the head comes to its resting place. Ephesians 2:21 speaks of the building fitly framed together growing into a holy temple

David never actually built the temple. All he could do is gather the materials. The actual construction didn't begin till after his death, that is after he [a type of Messiah] went to his resting place.

The Timing

So when does all this take place? In the End times at the beginning of the third day.
Psalm 2 indicates it will be a time when all the world turns against God's people.

Revelation 14 shows it taking place during events foretold in the book of Revelation, especially when his followers will go wherever he leads.

Zechariah 4 speaks of the mountain becoming a plain [humbled], making a place for the headstone to rest.

Psalm 133 shows it's when brothers come to dwell together in unity.

Matthew 8 tells us it's when The Lord enters his place of rest, his disciples follow him and great storms arise outside.

. . . and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. (Matthew 16:18)

Summary

How can we claim that the church is not yet built or the body not assembled? Well clearly the members or parts are not yet in their proper place doing their intended functions. Now this is seen just by observing the state of the church. All we have today is a collection of building materials or body parts waiting to be put in place.

But some may say that we are not to trust in what we see but in what the bible says about the church. This is a common place approach. Many preach and teach things that are seen in the Word but not seen in practice. To the outsider this will look like foolishness, hypocrisy or just plain stupidity.

In general we have lots of scripture that describe how we in the church are supposed to be, yet [except once in a while] we are not that way. This body of scripture is usually present in tense, but only occasionally present in our experience.

For example: If the Holy Spirit is supposed to lead us into all truth, how is it that all these people who claim to have the Holy Ghost can never agree among themselves? Because the scripture is not yet fulfilled.

So when will it be fulfilled? When all the rest of this happens.

Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion. (Isaiah 52:8)

But what I'm suggesting is our problem lies in the literal approach to biblical interpretation. We think we're supposed to have it all, when all we really have is the down payment. The steak is on the grill but all we have so far is a whiff of the aroma.

What we really have is a body of scripture that is prophetic. It is present tense but really points to the future. It is describing how the church is supposed to be and how Christians are supposed to act.

But that's not how we are, it's how we will become when all this takes place; when we are revived or redeemed. It is unfulfilled prophetic scripture, but we normally don't realize that. It has been sealed till the time of the end.

Here is an example of one of those scriptures that are present tense but are actually unfulfilled prophecy.

*But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels
To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,
And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. (Hebrews 12:22-24)*

And another example:

But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light: (1 Peter 2:9)

The Kingdom of God

Here's a very brief definition: The Kingdom of God is wherever God is King.
Guess what shape you will find in a diagram of the Kingdom? The triangle. The Kingdom of God is just another name for the Church!

The building of the church is the beginning of the kingdom of God, on earth. And the growth of the church is the spread of the kingdom. [As in the Stone becoming a Great Mountain.]

And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:

Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you. (Luke 17:21)

If the body is not assembled till the head comes to its resting place, and if the temple construction doesn't start till the foundation is laid, when do you think the kingdom comes? When the King is set in place on the Holy Hill [Psalm 2]

And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: . . . (Revelation 12:10)

So now how would you define the Kingdom of God?

Righteousness, Peace and Joy in the Holy Ghost, that's another triangle.

*Arise, O LORD, into thy rest; thou, and the ark of thy strength.
Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy saints shout for joy. (Psalms 132:8-9)*

For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. (Romans 14:17)

As I write this, in the summer of 2000, we are in the beginning of the third day. We read reports and prophecies that the manchild has come forth and the apostles are being gathered and that judgment is imminent. Get ready to look up for our redemption is coming. God has started to fulfill this word and confirm his covenant.

The Kingdom comes when the King comes The Kingdom comes where the King comes. That is when the King comes to his resting place in the midst of his people.

In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear thou not: and to Zion, Let not thine hands be slack.

*The LORD thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing.
I will gather them that are sorrowful for the solemn assembly, who are of thee, to whom the reproach of it was a burden.
Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee: and I will save her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out; and I will get them praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame.
At that time will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name and a* *praise among all people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the LORD.

(Zephaniah 3:16-20)*

Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. (John 3:5-8)

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Tree

Bill Burns

August 30, 2000:

We live in the high country of Colorado, and our house is surrounded by aspen groves with some pine mixed in. Yesterday afternoon we were sitting on our front porch reflecting upon the events of our Where Eagles Gather 2000 prophetic conference.

We were discussing the different aspects of the glorious outpouring of the Spirit of the Lord on the events that had transpired during those three wonderful days. I kept noticing a tree that was in an aspen grove across the road from our house. This tree stood in the middle of the grove, and it was the only tree that was adorned with fall colors. In fact, it was the only aspen that I could see anywhere around our house whose leaves had changed to yellow and gold. All of the other trees in the grove still had green leaves, but this one tree had totally changed from green to fall colors. This tree obviously stood out from the others.

This morning the Spirit of the Lord began to speak to me about this tree: "The season is about to change; the spiritual environment is changing. I am bringing a spiritual atmosphere upon My people that will cause them to change and be adorned with My golden glory."

Isaiah 60:1 "Arise, shine; For your light has come! And the glory of the LORD is risen upon you." Isaiah 55:12 "For you shall go out with joy, And be led out with peace; The mountains and the hills Shall break forth into singing before you, And all the trees of the field shall clap their hands." Isaiah 61:3 "To console those who mourn in Zion, To give them beauty for ashes, The oil of joy for mourning, The garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; That they may be called trees of righteousness, The planting of the LORD, that He may be glorified."

"And the splendor of these trees of righteousness shall be visible in the land. They will stand out in brilliance even as the tree you saw when the Sonshine illuminated every golden leaf. Not everyone will be changed by the spiritual atmosphere that I am bringing forth. Many will choose to stay as they are. There will even be many that are in the same grove that will scorn My precious ones who have been changed by My new season of glory that will now come forth. My trees will have the oil of joy and the garment of praise. No sorrow will be found among them, for they will be sent forth with joy, and they will be led by My Spirit into a possession of peace. My trees of righteousness will be for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off. Rejoice, you trees of My field, and the King of glory shall come in and adorn you with His golden splendor." Amen.

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

August 21, 2000:

I speak to those of you who have an issue of blood. Your spirit has been poured out like water in anguish for these with whom you have "blood" relationship. You have spent all you had trying to bring healing to these situations, but the conditions persist. You feel like you are being poured out day by day as you persist in extreme mental and emotional pain, distress and anxiety. You need healing. And, I am passing by you even now. Touch the hem of My garment so that you can be restored. Let Me take this burden from you today. Release it in faith, and allow Me to make you completely whole.

August 22, 2000:

Wondering why all you see today is thick darkness in the spirit realm? It's because the future has been obscured. If you could see what is ahead of you, you would not live in the awareness and fullness of what I have for you today. I say, you have projected out and are only hitting the high spots of the now in your life. Yesterday is gone and done, never to be relived, but only to be left behind. And, tomorrow has not yet arrived; you cannot live those moments until they come. But, today, I have great things to show you, to speak to your heart. Don't exchange the richness of today for a foolish fantasy of tomorrow.

August 23, 2000:

I speak to My remnant people and tell you that the seed will sprout and grow, and the vine will give her increase, and the heavens will drip with dew, for I will cause you to prosper and take possession of all that I have assigned to you. For, you shall surely receive your inheritance and bring great glory to My kingdom. Though you have been a curse and without honor in your own country, yet I will make you a great blessing among the nations. Even today, I shall restore double to you what has been stolen. Strengthen your hands and do the work that I have set before you, for I have placed you in My stronghold, My place of refuge, and I will protect you there. Do not be afraid.

August 24, 2000:

I say to you, this is a day of reckoning. It is time to settle accounts and pay what you owe. For this is a day of justice, and what is left of your balance must be paid. I speak not only in financial terms, but I speak in terms of moral and spiritual integrity. Those things that you have hidden and swept under the rug will be exposed. Those things that you have not repented of and turned from will demand settlement. Matthew 3:8 "Therefore bear fruits worthy of repentance."

August 28, 2000:

Your greatest heart's desire was to fit and belong, but you have never seemed to fit in anything. You've always been the odd man out, the black sheep of the family. You've come a long way. You've learned it's okay to be different, even desirable. You have had the courage to go against the flow and survive. Because of your willingness to be unique, I am about to open unique doors of opportunity that no one can walk through but you. I have called you for such a time as this, and you fit the bill completely. I am able to use you to fulfill My plans because you have given up your fear of man and desire only to do My will.

I have brought you into order. I am ordering and will continue to order every phase of your existence--leading you, holding you by the hand. You can trust Me. You are not alone. You don't have to do this alone. You don't have to earn My approval or acceptance. I know everything about you, and there is nothing that will cause Me to turn My back on you. I will never forsake you. Relax. Let's be done with formalities and have intimate fellowship together. You are My beloved!

I call you Mary! You have been like a placid pool, not because of lack of opportunity to be in turmoil, confusion or fear. Your circumstances have challenged you in the same way as others, yet you have chosen the best part--to sit at My feet with utter devotion, for you are My devoted one! I have used you and will continue to use you to bring peace and calm the storms of those around you, for they sense the serenity in your spiritual walk. They sense the sweetness of your spirit and the childlike trust in your heart, and their fears are calmed. Today, I pronounce a special blessing on you, My devoted one.

Some of you may be saying (regarding that last word), "That must be nice, but that's not where I'm at." The Lord says to you that you have been put aboard an Adramyttium ship, for it is a ship of destiny. You have felt like you've been on the high seas, driven and tossed. Even though you have diligently searched, you have not found a safe harbor. Do not be afraid. This ship will run aground, but you will only lose those things not worth saving. Take courage and lighten your load. You are in unfamiliar territory, but I am preparing a place for you where you will be welcomed. Even though that old viper will fasten on your hand to keep you from doing the work I have called you to do, you will shake it off in the fire and bring healing and strength to those around you. You have been in the Valley of Weeping, but your well of experience from these recent storms will bring life and wisdom to those who seek to find refreshment. I say to you again, the keyword here is destiny. I have a destination in mind for you, and you have an appointment with destiny.

August 29, 2000:

I am leading you, My people, out of that place you have been wandering in that has seemed so dry and aimless. I am releasing you into your greater destiny and the great wealth of My kingdom. For, I have certainly chosen you and called you. I am anointing you and bringing you into the position of fulfilling your purpose in these times. Some of you have even felt a sense of boredom in Christian work. You've been "in the ministry," but you are still unfulfilled and dissatisfied. That is because I have allowed divine discontentment. I have greater things for you to do. Watch and be amazed at the opportunities I am now releasing into your lives. These will be opportunities to do things and bring glory to My kingdom in ways you have never thought possible or even thought of before this. Can you sense the anticipation and excitement of what is about to be poured forth? Get ready, for those I choose and call, I equip and supply. Do not fear, for I will direct your every step. Rise above all self interest and selfish desire, for I am calling you to stand in your place on the wall that will require more self-sacrifice than you have ever considered. I am bringing a corporate vision to My body that will bring order and common purpose.

August 30, 2000:

I am preparing you to do mighty exploits in My name. I am sending you forth to do the work that I have set before you. And, I have gone before you and made the crooked places straight. This work is not beyond you, nor will it be burden to you. Rather, it will be a delight as I move through you to establish My purposes on the earth. No more struggle to perform. Rise up out of that place of condemnation, unworthiness and failure, for you are My vessels of honor and the work that I have given you is honorable. Rejoice that you are in a great company.

September 1, 2000:

I had a vision of a pitcher of milk, and as I watched I saw the cream rise to the top. And, the Lord says that many have filled themselves on the richness of My word and have become enriched in My anointing. Just as the separation of cream from milk is a natural process, I tell you that you will go through a further separation process by which you will supernaturally be separated from that which is ordinary to rise up spiritually into greater glory. You are moving into "third-day" anointing, which is My rest. Just as the process of cream rising to the top has nothing to do with anyone's personal effort, so this process will take no effort on your part except to yield to My process. This is indeed the Sabbath rest.

September 2, 2000:

I am calling you higher and moving you forward, positioning you for greater effectiveness in My kingdom. I am commissioning you and assigning you tasks that will release My glory. Do not shrink back from what I am about to loose in your midst. Be done with fear of failure and limitations of the past. For, indeed, I am opening great and effective doors of opportunity that you never dreamed possible. In fact, you've never even considered what I am about to make available to you. And, I will pour out My Spirit in unprecedented ways in the days ahead. Remember that you will move forward shoulder to shoulder with others as one unit, in one company, with the vision of My purposes clear. You will no longer be face to face with others, for your focus will be on Me, and your mission will be clear. Nor will you be in each other's faces as a result of insult or injury or in an effort to vindicate your flesh. Rise up out of self interest and selfish ambition; it is time to strike camp and move ahead.

Faith Tabernacle
111 North Fourth
P. O. Box 1148
Kremmling, CO 80459
<http://ft111.com>
ft111@uswest.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Watch Of The Lord

Joni Ames

I bought a watch while I was on a layover during a ministry trip a couple weeks ago. It was a quick purchase and I didn't pay attention to the brand name...but I needed it because it had large numbers and I was headed off to a meeting. The pastor of the church I grew up in used to tell us, "Remember, people's heads and hearts can only secure what their seats can endure!"

As I sat back down to wait for the duration of the layover, the Lord told me to look down at the watch and He asked me, "What time is it?"

Instead of looking at the time, my eyes lit on the words in the center of the watch - like where it would say "TIMEX" or some other brand name - and it said, "NOW"

In other words, in answer to "What time is it?" it was, "The time is NOW!"

I felt an amazing excitement and asked, "Time for what Lord?"

He said, "For all that My Church has been waiting and believing me for. The time is NOW for the empowering of My Church and the bringing forth of My Friends. I'm tired of the enslavement of those who are called Mine. As it says in Isaiah 60:1 & 2 - gross darkness will cover the earth but My light will be upon those who are called Mine. To those who have been faithful and to whom I have given 'the watch of the Lord' - to pray and be at My feet...it is NOW time to 'watch' My Glory fall."

Joni Ames

P.O. Box 853

Grandview, MO 64030

E-mail: JoniAmes@aol.com

Website: <http://members.aol.com/joniames>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

This Present Spiritual Atmosphere

Bill Burns

June 9, 2000

The subtitle for this message could be the "Uncomfortable Zone." For several weeks now, I have been spiritually uncomfortable. I have felt somewhat disconnected from my normal spiritual environment. God is still present, but it is as though the spiritual landscape is changing. I am a creature of habit, and I like being spiritually comfortable. There is a flow in normal spiritual life that is reassuring, safe, comfortable. That normal spiritual flow has been disrupted, and I have been discontent and even somewhat discouraged, but without any real reasons, except that I am NOT comfortable!

Today is Pentecost, and I am wondering if the early church experienced this divinely ordained discontentment before they heard the "sound from heaven." There they were in the Upper Room waiting for "the promise of the Father," and most likely had no idea of how the promise would look or feel. Jesus had just left them, and their comfort zone was changed. The one who had comforted them had ascended, and they were waiting for a new Comforter.

Suddenly, the Most Holy Spirit spoke to me and said, "This spiritual atmosphere that is troubling you is that of the Third Day. Have I not spoken to you that the Third Day of My power is about to begin? Just as it was on that Day (Pentecost), My church is about to experience the power and glory of the resurrection. This is a new day, and each day contains its own atmosphere."

With this word, I began to ponder what the atmosphere of the Third Day would be like, and this is what I came to: The third day of Christ is the seventh day of God. A prophetic day is like a thousand literal years (2 Peter 3:8). God created the earth and man in six days, and on the seventh day He rested from His works. The third day of Christ (from His birth) can be likened to the pattern of Moses' Tabernacle (outer court, Holy place, Holy of Holies). As we enter into the third day of Christ, we will enter into the third dimension of grace, which means we will enter into the Holy of Holies.

As we enter into the Holy of Holies, God's power and presence (His glory) will create a different spiritual atmosphere. Our spirits are already sensing this new atmosphere, and our old environment is being disrupted. The reason that we are uncomfortable is because we are used to the religious activity that we are involved in. In the outer court, we work with man as we, in our service to God, minister to man. We then enter into the Holy place and are busy as we minister to God. This activity (work) keeps us comfortable because we feel productive.

When we enter into the Holy of Holies (third dimension of grace), we cease from our own works and enter into His presence, and then we will be sent forth to do only that which the Father has shown us. We have been given a promise of this rest within the Holy of Holies, and we must cease from our own labors and strive to enter into God's rest.

Hebrews 4:1-11, "Therefore, since a promise remains of entering His rest, let us fear lest any of you seem to have come short of it. For indeed the gospel was preached to us as well as to them; but the word which they heard did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it. For we who have believed do enter that rest, as He has said: So I swore in My wrath, 'They shall not enter My rest, although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. For He has spoken in a certain place of the seventh day in this way: 'And God rested on the seventh day from all His works'; and again in this place: 'They shall not enter My rest.' Since therefore it remains that some must enter it, and those to whom it was first preached did not enter because of disobedience, again He designates a certain day, saying in David, 'Today,' after such a long time, as it has been said: 'Today, if you will hear His voice, Do not harden your hearts.' For if Joshua had given them rest, then He would not afterward have spoken of another day. There remains therefore a rest for the people of God. For he who has entered His rest has himself also ceased from his works as God did from His. Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest anyone fall according to the same example of disobedience."

The rebuilding of the Tabernacle of David is related to the Third Day; this is that "certain day" (third day of Christ; seventh day of God). David's Tabernacle did not have the religious activity (of works) that Moses' Tabernacle did. David's Tabernacle was a place of worship before the presence of God (ark of the covenant).

Hebrews 4:1 tells us to "fear lest any" fail to enter this rest of God, and verse 2 tells us that we must exercise faith or this revelation will not profit us. The danger that we now face, as the spiritual climate changes, is a lack of familiarity. Our comfort zone is disrupted, and we feel out of place, disconnected, out of touch.

We may become discontent and even discouraged, and may try to create our own sense of comfort. Our insecurity will cause us to seek fleshly comfort, and this mind-set will open the door for temptation to overtake us. We may be tempted to go back into old mind-sets and old patterns of behavior that brought comfort in the past. Insecurity can cause our faith to be misplaced, and comfort will be sought through fleshly desires.

We must strive to enter into the Father's presence, rest from our own works, and become worshipers who abide in His glory as we worship in Spirit and in truth. In this third day, the sovereignty of God's glory and power will rest upon His people, and the works will be His (through us) and not by our might or power.

"But, it will be by My Spirit, says the Lord. The manifestation of the sons of glory will only come as My sons abide in My glory, and they will only abide in My glory if they have ceased from their own works. Be silent, all flesh. Come into My presence with thanksgiving and praise. Have I not invited you into this place to receive the glory of My grace?" Hebrews 4:16, "Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need." Hear Me, My children! The secret to becoming acclimatized to this new spiritual environment is this: You must move from discomfort and discontentment to anticipation and expectation of the glorious work that I am about to do. Lean not on your own understanding, and do not try to create your own level of comfort. Come boldly in faith into the secret place of the Most High; abide in the glory, for I am creating a new comfort zone for My people.

Amen.

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

June 6, 2000:

Enter into the realm of worship. Release yourself in glorious praise, for you will surely be able to rise above all that keeps you earthbound to see with greater clarity what I have for you. I say to you, the doors are not yet open to you, but you will see possibilities which will give you a taste for what is ahead and lead you out. I tell you, the days are just ahead when the doors will open wide, but you must be ready to move on opportunities when they present themselves. This, therefore, is a time of preparation when your vision will be expanded and your heart is filled with hope. For, haven't I said that faith is the substance of things HOPED for?

June 7, 2000:

There is much work to do, and I am calling forth laborers now just as surely as I would put an ad in the paper. No experience is necessary, but I am looking for hearts that are willing to work unselfishly, those who will be completely dedicated to My cause and not their own, who will relinquish their own goals and agendas for Mine. I want those who are willing to submit to My authority without question, who will work in humility without quarreling with other laborers, those who will work in unity of spirit in the bond of peace and not be drawn into envy, jealousy and strife. I will supply all you needs in the way of equipment and tools to do the work and will reward you handsomely for your efforts. I need people who will commit to work until the job is done. I am seeking those who are faithful.

June 9, 2000:

I have called you in your uniqueness, for I can use you in ways and in places in which no other could serve. You have entered a time when your sense of security is shaken, for you are moving into new spiritual territory which is unfamiliar to you. So, I say to you, do not give in to the temptation to find a place of comfort by going back to what is familiar and comfortable. In doing so, you would move out of your place of anointing. Also, you must resist the temptation to get settled with the next new thing that comes along. You must seek to stay in My presence and to walk in the Spirit, for I will surely lead and guide you, and your peace will come from Me. Otherwise, you will seek fulfillment in the flesh. "Be still and know that I am God."

June 10, 2000:

Stop where you are! Open your eyes wide and look around you. I have set signs in your midst to confirm the things of the Spirit. For, I speak to you in a variety of ways. I speak to your heart in a still small voice. I speak guidance and direction through your circumstances. I use the mouths of My prophets to keep you on course. I will even use a little child to lead you. My word to you today is to stop moving through life as though you were a blind man with no hearing. For, even a blind man can hear and a deaf man can see. But, I say, that some of you neither see nor hear. You have become dull spiritually because you have yielded to the desires of the flesh and have lost your awareness to the things of the Spirit. Be quiet all flesh!

Prophetic Utterance through Bill Burns:

June 10, 2000:

The Spirit of the Lord says, some of you are embarking on a new journey. You are right now in a place of discomfort. Things have become new; the journey is not clear. But, you must come to the realization and understanding that all that is required is that you trust in Me fully. Trust not in the world or the things of the world, but trust in Me wholly. When I move you, and you answer the call to come out, even as Abram came out, I will lead you into a new and glorious land. If you will trust Me, I will provide for you, I will deliver you, I will heal you, I will be your strength, and My power shall be found to be alive within you. I will give you good gifts, and the manifestation of those gifts shall come forth, for I say it is time! It is time that you step into the due season of your labors. The labors that I speak of are only those acts of obedience as you have ceased from your own desires to wholly follow Me, with a pure heart and absolute love and an intensity of desire that will move you along this new path that is set before you. Again, I say, trust in Me. Hope in Me. Believe in Me. For, I have spoken that I would never leave you, and I would never, never forsake you. I will be on this journey with you unto the end of the earth. Come with Me, child, and experience a freshness of My kingdom. Come with Me, dear child, and experience a new level of love and mercy. Surely those who are obedient to move with Me shall inherit all things.

Faith Tabernacle 111 North Fourth P. O. Box 1148 Kremmling, CO 80459 <http://ft111.com> ft111@uswest.net

Send us your full name and e-mail address to receive our prophetic bulletin

If you wish to unsubscribe, put unsubscribe in the subject line and send to Iamoverwhelmed@ft111.com

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

This River

Steve Correll

In December 1994, in my hotel room in Toronto (attending some meetings at TACF, formerly Airport Vineyard) ... GOD met me.

Waves and waves of HIMSELF rolled over me...washing...changing...conforming me as my mind lost control and my spirit took over. With pillow over my face to muffle my cries, screams, and laughter (yes, laughter) all I could do was be FLATTENED on the floor in a fetal position and hang on!

Wow! I remember the thoughts coming that I had really lost it (come to find out that I really did lose it!) and hadn't really a clue as to WHAT the heck was going on.

From about 1 AM till 5:30 that morning, God crushed me. I went through such a range of emotions so abruptly and powerfully that it was surely supernatural and divine. Oh, what I was feeling! One moment weeping...one moment laughing hilariously. My spirit was bearing down and involuntarily I felt birthpangs of the spirit overtaking me. Finally, in one great "push" I felt as if I'd given birth (to a baby elephant!) and literally collapsed in a totally exhausted, drunken stupor.

Around 1 PM the following afternoon I, and my friends who witnessed this encounter, awakened. I found that I was in a total state of drunkenness; saturated with GOD...and...really, for the first time in my whole life I was completely and utterly...SATISFIED. For the next month of my life, I was so completely inebriated and filled with God that I could hardly function. It was AWESOME!

He took all my heady concerns and silly worries and this great burden of responsibility that I didn't realize I was carrying and brought me to such a condition of mind and emotions that I honestly couldn't care if you ran over me with a truck!

I found I was clothed with HIS Glory. It was like a was surrounded by this cocoon...this invisible force shield...and nothing could penetrate it.

And oh...the cry of my heart ... "Jesus, let every man and woman, let every little child that hungers for You taste this."

I will NEVER be the same. I can NEVER go back. I REFUSE to go back. I have been ruined for life. My ministry was ruined. My dreams; shipwrecked. My little church; dead and buried. My life? Hahaa! HIS LIFE!

I tapped into "The River." Or, IT tapped into me!

Has THIS River gone underground? Is THIS Revival over? Has THIS Renewal ceased?

NO...a thousand times, NO! IT FLOWS! IT IS HERE!

No, this River runs strong. My desires and motives for Him have intensified and I find myself forever longing, looking, and reaching for that place...that place of continual saturation in God. Nothing else satisfies.

When Jesus came walking on the water towards the disciples as they were straining at the oars...fighting in their natural man the natural elements against them, they didn't recognize Him. The Bible says He intended to pass them by (Mark 6:48).

"It's a ghost!" they cried. But Peter ... "Lord, if this is really you, tell me to come on the water with you!"

Let me tell you, Saints, very few recognize Jesus as He comes to them and offers them a way that is "too easy" and against the natural man and natural mind. His ways are offensive to the Pride of man. They'd rather strain at the oars of life and pat themselves on the back for their hard work and efforts.

NO! This River has not run underground! Many have refused to recognize and receive THIS LIFE because its very essence was against their carnal mindset and to embrace it would require them to get OUT of THEIR boat and walk in a realm that is IMPOSSIBLE!

It's easier to be busy with a flurry of activity that puffs up human pride and reassures us of our goodness than to humble oneself and walk in a realm that requires active faith, and THAT alone.

NO! This River is running strong!

Someone from the outside looking in would suggest I've gone mad. :o)

Actually, I have indeed lost my mind and can't find it anywhere. It really is a mess. Hahaaa!

I humbly submit to you precious Saints of God that we've only just begun to see and taste of His Presence. Surely, all the earth SHALL be FILLED with THE GLORY OF THE LORD!

When I read Larry Asplund's [New Wine post: Refreshing or Revival] comments about his class' response of "loud weeping" as they watched the Toronto and Brownsville videos, my heart could hardly stand it. Oh Saints...the whole world is crying out for a God they can experience!

Who is willing to get out of that which is comfortable and familiar...though laborious, sinking and primitive, and walk in a realm of Life, Joy and Power?

And...EASY!!! Hallelujah!

I can tell you this by the Holy Ghost: The Realm of God that is coming will pass those by who are unwilling to get out of their boat and walk! That old boat isn't going to make it. It can't!

Joyfully,

Steve Correll

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Thunder

Brad Brittsan

May 5, 2000

We make mistakes, but we want to learn. In the process of learning, sometimes we make mistakes. It would be foolish not to learn by our mistakes. One of the things we have sometimes made mistakes in is the prophetic. We don't pray into, or speak into the prophetic word. We just hear it, and then that's all. During the Montana Shepherds Conference recently in Great Falls was a prophetic word came forth that a mighty wind was blowing across the state of Montana a move of His spirit and the stalks of wheat were leaning into the wind rather than being blown by the wind. The word was given and then Joseph Garlington got up and said, "Listen, next time there's a word that comes like that, you need to pray into it. You need to pray into the prophetic. You need to say, 'Yes, God! We receive it. Holy Spirit come and blow across this land. Oh, the harvest. Oh lean into the move of the Spirit. Be drawn towards the move of God.' Speak that sort of thing into the prophetic."

Recently, I had a dream about a member of our church. I dreamt the Lord was giving her a pile of these brand new, never been thrown, right out of the box baseballs, all white and shiny. And the Lord was saying, "Here!" And I knew that it was a prophetic word. That God was going to use her to deliver these prophetic words. Well, what do we need? We need a batter. We need someone to step up to the bat and say, "Yes. We will respond to this word that is given." Now what about the pitch? There would be no point in throwing the pitch unless there was a batter. There would be no point in throwing the pitch unless there was a catcher to catch it, to receive it, receive the word. Could it be that God has more words, more prophetic, that He wants to release but He needs someone to step up to the bat and say, "I will receive; I will respond to the word of God, respond to the prophetic? I'll take a hit at that! I'll swing at that. I'll swing at that in faith. I'll trust God, I will respond to that." We need someone to throw the pitch but we need someone to step up to the plate in faith.

The night before a recent service one of the intercessors in this valley (I consider her to be one of the strategic intercessors of this valley) was praying for our church and the Lord gave her the word 'thunder'. And she called me up right before the service and gave me what God had been telling her. I asked her to write down what God her. She sent it to me in an e-mail.

"Saturday 4/1/Y2K I meet with several intercessors on Saturday nights to pray for our valley and local churches. This was not an open vision and I did not actually "feel" the shaking, but I "knew" it in the spirit. We started to pray for CLF and suddenly I began hearing the word "thunder" but I was not hearing the thunder but rather feeling a powerful shaking or a rumble. More like an earthquake but I knew the proper word was "thunder". I was getting words like: strong, powerful and breaking. I knew this was a powerful thing taking place and that something was breaking. I did not know what. Then I saw horses hooves and knew they were the cause of the thunder. I could see them (just the hooves and they were white) as if they were about to trample me and just frozen in front of my face. I knew this represented a good thing. There was a fear of God but no other kind of fear. If anyone knows what this is referring to for CLF or our valley I would really like to hear. Thank you, God bless and give you revelation."

I e-mailed it to a few prophetic people that I know wanting to get some insight into what God could possibly be saying through this. Here is one response.

This is what I saw/received after reading the forwarded spiritual vision. I humbly submit it to you: Thunder! Represents God speaking. John 12:28 says that "There came a voice out of heaven, verse 29 states that the people were saying that it had thundered. Revelation 14:2 says "I heard a voice from heaven, like the sound of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder, Rev. 19:6 'And I heard, as it were, the voice of a great multitude and as the sound of many waters and as the sound of mighty peals of thunder, saying, "Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns".'. ..... (these are just a few scriptures ). The horses hooves (white) represents the horse that The Lord is riding. Rev. 19:11 And I saw heaven opened; and behold, a white horse, and He who sat upon it is called Faithful and True; and in righteousness He judges and wages war. verse 14; And the armies which are in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, were following Him on white horses. Horses are also spoken of in Jeremiah 46. This was a word of the Lord to Jeremiah the prophet. 3 Line up the shield and buckler, And draw near for the battle! 4 Harness the horses, And mount the steeds, And take your stand with helmets on; Polish the spears, Put on the scale-armor. 9 Go up, you horses, and drive madly, you chariots, That the mighty men may march forward..... The words "strong, powerful and breaking". I believe that this speaks of "mighty men" that God is raising up (training). These are men who are either already in the fellowship or who He is "calling" from far away places to come to the fellowship. These men will be strong and powerful in the Lord, Surrendered to Him, ready to His will. They will be non-compromising, establishing spiritual boundaries according to scripture. They will stand against the enemy and tear down the high places. They will break the strong hold of the enemy. They also will be compassionate and merciful. Giving freely what God has given them. I feel compelled to say "Get ready! The Lord is raising up an army. He has provided you with His armor and he is sending you steeds so that you may move swiftly and with force. The battle is the Lord's, He will provide breakthrough".

I once saw a map that had to do with areas in the world where there was the highest concentration of thunder and lightening. We are living in one of these places in this area. The Bible says first the natural and then the spiritual. That often times the natural will point towards the spiritual. As that is pointing towards the spiritual, I believe that God is saying that out of this area He wants to raise up Prophets. He wants to raise up those that will speak God's voice. I believe that also, the enemy is aware of this and there has been great opposition that has come against the prophetic. There has been opposition of, as we know, the spirit of Jezebel has come to destroy the prophets and the prophetic anointing. There is a resistance because God wants to bring forth the prophetic. He wants to bring forth a prophetic people. There are thunderings as God is speaking. There's the voice of the Lord that God is speaking and He wants to raise up a people that will say what God is saying. Next time you do a word study try this. Try looking in the Bible the first time the Word mentioned and the last place its mentioned. Because Jesus is the first and the last. He is the beginning and the end, the Alpha and the Omega, the promise given and the promise fulfilled. As I was seeking the Lord about this thunder thing the Lord had me look in the first time it was mentioned and the last place it was mentioned. Often times the first and the last will reveal everything that's in the middle. In Exodus, chapter 9 is the first place that thunder is mentioned in the Bible. God is having a showdown with Pharaoh. He's using His servants Moses and Aaron to bring about plagues to ultimately end in the deliverance of Israel bondage in Egypt. He's setting them free from captivity and He uses these things to set them free. And so one of the plagues that came upon Egypt was directed at Pharaoh, and that was thunder, hail, and fire. (Ex. 9:23) And Moses stretched out his rod toward heaven; and the Lord sent thunder and hail, and fire (lightening) darted to the ground. And the Lord rained hail on the land of Egypt.

Now we know that that fire is like lightening, its lightening, its hail coming down, and there's thunder going on. I mean, its shaking the place up. Its letting Egypt know and Pharaoh know that God is speaking.

Down in verse 28 we've got Pharaoh's response. (Ex. 9:28) "Entreat the Lord, that there may be no more mighty thundering and hail, for it is enough. I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer." Pharaoh's response was, "Stop, stop the mighty thunderings." The word mighty means 'Eloahim'. The word thunderings is the word 'to call aloud, a voice, a sound'. You put them together and Pharaoh is saying, " Stop the voice of the of God. Its driving me nuts. Stop this voice of God." First and last. The first days of the children of Israel coming out of bondage and the last days of the church. You know what I think is going on? I believe what is going on is Pharaoh is saying, "Stop the voice of God. Its driving me nuts. Its driving me crazy."

We want to hear more than just thunder, we want to hear what God is saying. I believe what God does is that He ordains His people. That's right, He ordains His people, He ordains you. Because, you know what, Pharaoh (the world) is realizing that God is saying something, but they don't understand what the Lord is saying. That's why He wants His people to understand His voice. Because the world is hearing thunderings. They know it means something but they don't know what it means. Its causing a restlessness and its causing an irritation inside. This is the precursor to revival.

Rev. 6:1-2 1Now I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals; and I heard one of the four living creatures saying with a voice like thunder, "Come and see." 2And I looked, and behold, a white horse. He who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer.

Rev. 14:2 2And I heard a voice from heaven, like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of loud thunder. And I heard the sound of harpists playing their harps.

Rev. 16:18 18And there were noises and thunderings and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such a mighty and great earthquake as had not occurred since men were on the earth.

Of all of the places in the Bible where it mentions thunderings, there's more thunderings in the book of Revelations than in any other place in the Bible. Today the thunderings of God are increasing. This winter, in the middle of a snow storm, it thundered. What was so weird about it was that the people on one side of the valley heard it. It sounded as though it came from outside of their window. At the same time people 20 miles away heard it; the thundering just as close. It seemed like the lightening came right inside the house. You ain't seen nothing yet. We're going to have more thunderings, God is saying something, "Come and see! Come and see!" The Lord is speaking. When that happened, I was sitting in my living room and I thought, this is more than a natural phenomenon, this is God saying something. This is God on the move here. This is the Lord speaking.

John 12:27-29 27"Now My soul is troubled, and what shall I say? 'Father, save Me from this hour'? But for this purpose I came to this hour. 28"Father, glorify Your name." Then a voice came from heaven, saying, "I have both glorified it and will glorify it again." 29Therefore the people who stood by and heard it said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to Him."

"Then a voice came from heaven, saying, 'I have both glorified it and will glorify it again.'" (Verse 28.) God is glorifying His name. Some heard it as a thunder and some thought it was something else. Just as this situation happened here, its going to happen again in our midst, and there is going to be those that around this world, unsaved people, that say, "I think it thundered." And you, you, are going to say, "No, that was God and this is what He said. I'm telling you that this is coming. This is coming. It happened there and He said it will happen again. There are words that are coming from heaven that the world is not discerning from thunder. God is moving among the Arab nations today. Most of these nations are closed to the gospel. You will be locked in jail if you carry a Bible or hold a Bible study. That doesn't stop God. He's showing up in the cloud formations. He's showing up. The Lord, Jesus Christ, is showing up in their meetings when they're there to try to worship Allah, Jesus Christ is showing up, declaring His Lordship. There are more people coming to Christ in Iran than there is converting to Muslim. Today in a nation that is closed to Christianity. So God's got to be doing something. He's showing up. A voice from heaven. Thunderings.

In Revelation chapter 10:1-4 1I saw still another mighty angel coming down from heaven, clothed with a cloud. And a rainbow was on his head, his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire. 2He had a little book open in his hand. And he set his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land, 3and cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roars. When he cried out, seven thunders uttered their voices. 4Now when the seven thunders uttered their voices, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, "Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and do not write them."

First: 'he was clothed with a cloud' (Verse 1). The cloud speaks of the glory of God. Why a cloud? Because you can't handle the glory. God has to clothe His glory in a cloud so that you can handle it.

Second: He had a rainbow on his head meaning that God is mindful of His covenant with you. He is mindful of His eternal covenant that He will not break with you.

Third: He had a face like the sun meaning that his countenance was light. Moses beheld the countenance of God because he saw God face-to-face. His countenance was like the sun. People today that seek God and seek Him face-to-face are going to reflect that countenance.

Forth: '... And his feet were like pillars of fire'. Those pillars represent on one side grace, on the other side the providence of God. Declaring that He is pure and He is steady.

Fifth: "He had a little book open in his hand. And he set his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land, . . ." (Verse 2). This speaks of God's absolute power and dominion.

Sixth: (verse 3) " . . . and he cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roars. When he cried out, seven thunders uttered their voices." Like the Lion of the tribe of Judah, right?

Seventh: (verse 4) "Now when the seven thunders uttered their voices, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, "Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and do not write them." There's another place in the Bible that this happened. That was when Daniel was given revelation. He said that these things were sealed up for a certain time, for a certain time when they will be able to be spoken and they will be able to be revealed. I believe that we are approaching the time when God is revealing the things that the seven thunders of God are saying.

They are listed in Psalm 29:

- 1 Give unto the Lord, O you mighty ones, Give unto the Lord glory and strength.
- 2 Give unto the Lord the glory due to His name; Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.
- 3 The voice of the Lord is over the waters; The God of glory thunders; The Lord is over many waters.
- 4 The voice of the Lord is powerful; The voice of the Lord is full of majesty.
- 5 The voice of the Lord breaks the cedars, Yes, the Lord splinters the cedars of Lebanon.
- 6 He makes them also skip like a calf, Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild ox.
- 7 The voice of the Lord divides the flames of fire.
- 8 The voice of the Lord shakes the wilderness; The Lord shakes the Wilderness of Kadesh.
- 9 The voice of the Lord makes the deer give birth, And strips the forests bare; And in His temple everyone says, "Glory!"
- 10 The Lord sat enthroned at the Flood, And the Lord sits as King forever.
- 11 The Lord will give strength to His people; The Lord will bless His people with peace.

Seven times this scripture states, "the voice of the Lord". This Voice is God thundering. The first one is revealed in verse 3 and that is glory, the second is power or authority, the third is majesty which reveals His awesomeness and the fear of the Lord, the fourth is breaking, the fifth is fire, the sixth is shaking, and the seventh is birthing.

Isn't it interesting that lately we have been hearing a lot about the glory of God? We've had the prophetic speak about God revealing the fear of the Lord. The breaking, yeah the breaking. Oh, the fire, oh the shaking and the birthing. Can you hear it? Can you hear the sound of the distant thunder? Can you hear the thunder? Can you hear it getting louder? Can you hear it getting clearer? Are the peals of thunder starting to happen in your spirit? And they're saying "yes" to the glory, they're saying "yes" to the power and the majesty of God? There is something witnessing to you about the breaking, the breaking of the Lord. The fire, the shaking, and the birthing. These are things that the seven thunderings of God are saying and the thunderings of God are getting louder and louder.

1. The glory: Hab. 2:14 "For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, As the waters cover the sea."

2. The power or the authority of God: We want His power, His anointing, His authority. Listen to the songs that you are singing today. Listen to the songs that God has been birthing by His spirit. There are songs about the authority of God, about the sovereignty of God, about yielding to the power of God.

3. The majesty, the awesomeness of God which brings forth the fear of the Lord: "Come, you children, listen to me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord. (Ps. 34:11) Would we dare ask for the fear of the Lord? Because we know that there is only thing that actually can permanently convict us and change us and that is the fear of the Lord, of the holy Lord, our God. And Pharaoh is saying, "Oh, stop that Eloahim thunderings. And we're going to go, "Well, we know what it is. It's the fear of the Lord. Come to Jesus." See, the Bible tells us that on that day there will be many that will come and they will have their hands up in the air and they will say, "Come. Lord." We want to be with You. Come and rapture us into Your eternal presence." At that same time, because of the same exact same presence there will be others that say, "Oh, that this mountain will fall on me and bury me. Oh, I want to hide and run from that light." The same glory will cause two different reactions.

4. The breaking: Have you ever wished that you could cry before God and not be able to? Have you ever felt that there was something inside of you, a hardness, a scale, a shell that has built up and you wish that it could be broken off of you. You know its there. "He that throws himself upon the Rock will be broken, but he who refuses to be broken will be crushed to powder." (Matthew 21:44) It's the time that the thunderings of God are saying, "Come on church. Its time to be broken." Why? Because in Ps. 51:17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit, a broken and a contrite heart- these, O God, You will not despise. Here's the danger of not being broken. Not being broken, you would inevitably operate out of your own strength rather than the strength of God. Only by being broken by the spirit of God can you function and operate by the spirit of God. We need to be hiding our face and saying, "Lord, its You, its You, its You, its You, not us."

5. Holy Spirit fire: The word in the NKJ translation says uses the word 'divides the fire'. The word is "stirs up". Stir up, stir up the fire. There's a passion, a fire for God. He's blowing upon the coals. Anybody go camping? All you've got to do is take a stick and poke at that fire, get those coals stirred up, get some air on that fire, blowing on it, blowing on that fire, and all of a sudden it starts to lick up flames, its starting to give life again. Haven't you been noticing that God has been stirring up His people? More love, more fire, more of You in my life. Stir up those coals. Let the flame come forth. Lord, let the fire of God, the passion for Jesus.

6. The shaking: "The Lord shakes the wilderness of Kadesh." (Psalm 29:8b) Shakes the wilderness. Kadesh was the place that when they came around the mountain, they always came to the same place. The place was Kadesh. The place where they sent out twelve spies and two agreed with God. The Lord says, "I will shake the heavens and I will shake the earth, and I will shake the sea, and I will shake the dry land. And the desired of nations will come forth." That's right. Out of twelve representatives of God that were sent into the promise land, two came back and said, "Yes, we agree with God." The rest of them, they were ruined with their own unbelief. God's shaking the church. And two out of twelve are going into the promise land. You see this revival that's coming. Its going to be revival of Joshuas and Calebs. Its going to be a revival of people that are willing to go into the promise land. Not a bunch of religious, whining about having their needs met, "I'm not getting fed" Christians. They're going to be the kind that are going to go in there and take what the Devil stole and bring it back into the kingdom of God. So let it shake, God. If that's what it takes, if You've got to eliminate ten to get two, then get the two and go for it. Shaking Kadesh.

7. The birthing: "Makes the deer give birth." (Psalm 29:9a) Intercession. We're learning that unless something is birthed, it doesn't come into being. ". . . for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children." (Is. 66:8b) The reason that we have not had birthing of revival in North America like we could is because there's not many people who are willing to birth things in the Spirit. They've been able to carry them. They've been pregnant with a vision. Weren't you pregnant with a vision ten years ago? Come on! Let's birth this thing. When Cal Pierce was here, he gave instructions on how to bring about a Healing Rooms ministry. You know what the instructions were? You've got to birth it. You've got to birth it in intercession. When that thing is birthed in the spirit, then you can do it from then on. Joseph Garlington said, "You know, I don't know what they call men midwives." He said, "I feel like I'm a midwife." And he prophesied that "there are going to be people in the body of Christ that are going to be like spiritual midwives that will help in the birthing process". It helps a whole lot to be a spiritual midwife if you've birthed things in the spirit yourself. We're not praying these little prayers that we recite anymore. Its got to be something that comes from God, from the thundering, that thunders down inside of you and just has to come forth. Its this moanings and groanings and sobs that you cannot utter, but, yet, by the Holy Spirit that these would be birthed into being. Oh, God, bring forth the birthing. Bring forth the intercessors, bring them forth, bring them forth.

In Matthew 13: 14-15 "And in them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says: 'Hearing you will hear and shall not understand, And seeing you will see and not perceive; 15 For the hearts of this people have grown dull. Their ears are hard of hearing, And their eyes they have closed, Lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears, Lest they should understand with their hearts and turn, so that I should heal them.'"

Well, you see, the prophet Isaiah that Jesus quoted was speaking of the world, that is, their hearts have grown dull. They're hearing something, but they don't know what it is. The thunder, the thunder is getting louder. You know how you can tell that the world is hearing thunder? Look at the movies that are coming out today. They're hearing something. We watch these movies and we say, "Well, that was close, but that ain't it. That's entertaining and somewhat alarming, but that ain't it." They're hearing thunder, not the voice.

Like on the road to Ammaeus. Doesn't something burn inside of us when He speaks? God is saying something today. The seven thunderings of God are getting louder. And you are hearing the voice of God. But the world, they're hearing thunder.

Lord, we want to pray right now that You would give us the interpretation of the revelation of the thunderings of God. Lord, there are people in our community, our relatives, there's people in this nation, Lord that are hearing thundering, they're hearing thundering, but they're not hearing the voice. Lord, bring the sound of the voice of the thunderings of God through the prophetic people, through the church, Lord God. Let the world look to the church for the answer of what it is that this thundering that they're hearing. Because they are louder today than they were last year. And they are louder tomorrow than they were today. Lord, You're shaking, You're thundering, You're saying something to us. Lord, let us speak the oracles of God. We want to be the interpretation of the thunderings of God. We want to be the ones that carry the fire.

Brad Brittsan
Pastor of Christian Life Fellowship
Whitefish, MT

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Horsemen

Open Doors

Bill Burns

The Horsemen

Bill Burns

October 15, 2000: Scott Wilke had a dream of driving with his step-father through an area with sheer cliffs containing rock formations that were taller than a house. Carved out of the rocks were horses with riders. There were people walking on top of them, and they began to topple over. In the dream he heard a voice, "The horsemen have fallen; the horsemen have fallen."

Interpretation by Bill Burns: The step-father represents God the Father who has adopted us and translated us into the Kingdom of His Son. When He is with us, we have vision (through the windshield) to see into the spirit world.

The horses and horsemen carved out of the rock are like unto statues which cannot stand against the army of God. The horses and horsemen represent the rulers of darkness as revealed in Ephesians 6:12. These are not the power demons (such as unclean spirits, lying spirits, etc.), but they are those rulers who have established thrones (in heavenly places) over geographical areas.

Jeremiah 12:5 "If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, then how can you contend with horses? And if in the land of peace, in which you trusted, they wearied you, then how will you do in the floodplain of the Jordan?"

Jeremiah is asking the question: If the footmen (power demons) have wearied you, then how can you contend with horses (rulers)? How can we have victory over the rulers if we are not victorious over the power demons who trouble our walk with the Lord?

The Lord is now commissioning gatekeepers for the Tabernacle of David.

Isaiah 22:22, "The key of the house of David I will lay on his shoulder; so he shall open, and no one shall shut; and he shall shut, and no one shall open."

Isaiah tells us (in chapter 22) that the Lord is going to replace the unfaithful stewards in His house, and is going to appoint true servants and give them the key of David to open and close spiritual gates for His people. Verse 7 tells us that the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate! The horsemen shall oppose this appointment (of gatekeepers), but in the dream the horses and horsemen were toppled over and the saints were walking over them in victory.

In Joshua's conquest of the Promised Land the scripture in Joshua 11:9 says that Joshua hamstringed the horses. This is what the dream revealed: The horses (hamstrung--made ineffective and powerless) will topple over even though it appears that they can't be moved, as they are made of rock.

The Lord is saying that even though you have been wearied by the footmen, do not be troubled. Even though the horses and horsemen look immovable, do not give up, for the rulers of darkness shall also fall before His great army (see Joel 2:1-11).

Open Doors

Bill Burns:

October 19, 2000: This morning as I awakened I heard the sound of doors opening and closing. The sound was audible, and for a moment I thought someone was in our house. I knew that I was the only one in the house as Marsha had already left for prayer meeting.

The voice of the Lord was then revealed to me, and He said, "Tell My people that I am going to open doors of blessings for them. Tell them that the things that they have been praying for and have almost given up on will now come to My faithful ones."

Revelation 3:8 "I know your works. See, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it; for you have a little strength, have kept My word, and have not denied My name."

"Tell them that the Holy Spirit in the type of Eliezer is now going forth to give gifts to My bride."
Genesis 24 records the story of Abraham's oldest servant, Eliezer, being sent to find a wife for Isaac. Eliezer takes gifts for Isaac's future bride.

Genesis 24:53 "Then the servant brought out jewelry of silver, jewelry of gold, and clothing, and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave precious things to her brother and to her mother."

The Lord said, "In like manner I am sending gifts to make My bride aware of the soon coming of the Bridegroom. The gifts that I am sending to you will be both physical and spiritual. Enjoy them, My beloved! They are for signs of My love for you, for it is My good pleasure to give you kingdom blessings."

"I will now open up My treasures and send them forth as gifts for My bride. These gifts are to put your heart in remembrance of Me. When these gifts arrive, remember that they are but tokens of My love for you, and they are NOT meant to replace Me."

Let us lift up our eyes and see Jesus. Genesis 24:64-65, "Then Rebekah lifted her eyes, and when she saw Isaac she dismounted from her camel; for she had said to the servant, 'Who is this man walking in the field to meet us?' The servant said, 'It is my master.' So she took a veil and covered herself. And the servant told Isaac all the things that he had done. Then Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent; and he took Rebekah and she became his wife, and he loved her."

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

October 16, 2000: In a dream I saw three things that seemed unrelated and disjointed, but I think they have spiritual meaning for us. First, I saw a man with a pet boa constrictor. The snake wrapped itself around the man in what first appeared to be an act of affection, but then as the man began to try to loosen the snake's hold, it squeezed him to death. Second, I saw a woman in her home in complete disarray. There were obvious things that needed to be done in the house, but she was busy with doing things for other people for the sake of acceptance and approval. Third, I saw the face of a large rodent.

What I believe these three things all represent is a spirit of religion which will bring death, disorder and destruction to those who entertain it. In the first scenario, religion will confine and constrict you by seeming to give you a sense of personal boundaries, but in the end will kill you spiritually. In the second scene, religion will keep you from doing what the Lord has prepared and put before you, and will cause you to do those things which are unnatural and out of order for the sake of feeling good about yourself. Finally, the rodent (rat) always speaks to me of destruction. I've been told that they can gnaw through a lead pipe, and the spirit of religion will continue to eat at you, always keeping you in a state of agitation because you can never satisfy its demands to be good enough.

The Lord wants us to be done with this spirit and just come to Him with a whole heart. He offers us personal, intimate relationship with Him, which produces life and peace and joy. It is God who changes us into His image from glory to glory. Let us come into His rest!

October 17, 2000: I woke up with the word "Bozrah" going through my mind; it means sheepfold, fortress, enclosure. And, the Lord says: even though you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be afraid. For, I will gather My remnant like the sheep of Bozrah into a fold and surround you with walls of protection. I will hide you in secret places and cities of refuge until this indignation is past. And then, you shall go out with joy and be led forth with peace. I Myself shall lead you out of exile and bring you to your inheritance.

Isaiah 34:5-8, "For My sword shall be bathed in heaven; indeed it shall come down on Edom, and on the people of My curse, for judgment. The sword of the LORD is filled with blood, it is made overflowing with fatness, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams. For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Edom. The wild oxen shall come down with them, and the young bulls with the mighty bulls; their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust saturated with fatness. For it is the day of the Lord's vengeance, the year of recompense for the cause of Zion."

October 18, 2000: In a vision I kept seeing people with bowls...some full and some empty, and I saw the empty ones being filled. And, the Lord said, I am releasing a new anointing and discernment in My Body for ministry. The days of "shotgun" ministry will no longer be adequate...of shooting from the hip and hoping you hit something. It is imperative that you discern the empty bowls, the hungry and open hearts, for I will fill them. You must discern where there is desire, for My words are food and life and will only go where there is a hunger, just like answered prayer goes where there is faith and desire. I tell you the truth that many have brought a reproach on the Kingdom of God through their disobedience because they went without being sent, and they spoke, but not according to My leading or direction. And, they have shrugged it off by saying they planted seeds, but I tell you that seeds that fall on rock are not planted. I urge you, My people, be sensitive to the moving of My Spirit, and go only when and where I lead, and speak only by My Spirit. Anything other than that is religious exercise.

October 20, 2000: Quiet your soul and allow your spirit to be strengthened. Hush the clamor of your thoughts and emotions that cause inner turmoil. Cast out the fear that causes this agitation and unrest. For truly I am your place of rest, your safe haven, your shelter in the storm. Come to Me and calm yourself so that you can hear even My most gentle whisper. Come, for I am the comforter, and I will fortify you with tranquil boldness that will pull down strongholds and scatter the enemy with a word. Be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might!

October 21, 2000: The enemy has brought thoughts of doubt and fear along with a sense of inadequacy and failure to many of you. His prime weapon against you to disarm and disable you is discouragement. But, I say that you are MORE than conquerors. When I call you to My service, I also equip, supply and direct. You are not alone, and I do not give you instructions and leave you alone. Haven't I said that My yoke is easy and My burden is light? Come along side Me and yoke with Me, for I would not ask you to do anything that you are not well able by My Spirit to accomplish. Refuse to be overwhelmed. Rise up out of the darkness and oppression that the enemy has encompassed you with and be released in the joy and expectation of victory.

Faith Tabernacle
111 North Fourth
P. O. Box 1148
Kremmling, CO 80459
<http://ft111.com>
ft111@uswest.net

The Heart of God

Mary Koons

Many months ago the Lord gave me a "clear" revelation as I was praying. It was this: "the heart of God is His Glory..."

Last night the Lord referred to this again and asked me a simple question, "Who is God?" He asked.

"GOD IS LOVE!" I answered, and suddenly the full revelation exploded in my spirit!

"The heart of God is His Glory..."

AND GOD "IS" LOVE....

Therefore, the HEART OF LOVE IS HIS GLORY!

DEEP CALLS UNTO DEEP!! ONLY the "LOVE" that our LORD gives will usher in HIS GLORY, - on this earth - AS IT IS IN HEAVEN! I was also told that more and more will His Body begin to "reflect" HIS GLORY - for HE IS LOVE.... "IF" HIS LOVE is moving, flowing by and through the Power of the Holy Spirit outwardly from us to other, HOW COULD IT BE OTHERWISE?

I was also shown how many of the brethren - don't understand this. I realized how heavy His heart is when HIS CHILDREN allow the enemy to "take their eyes OFF OF THE PRIZE," which is - CHRIST JESUS, OUR HOPE OF GLORY!

LOVE BECAME FLESH THAT DWELT AMONG US, and how we - HIS BODY - can be partakers of the same - HIS GLORIOUS DIVINE NATURE!

"OH GOD - what IS MAN that THOU art mindful of him?"

GOD SO LOVE THAT HE GAVE... Did He NOT give of Himself?

"What will YOU give?" He asked me.

"Lord," I answered - "I have nothing, I am nothing - but I give you myself.... only YOU could make something useable out of this vessel!"

In the Spirit He then showed me - myself; crawling, dragging myself inch by bloodied inch - struggling, fighting to "enter" into the Holy of Holies. In one hand I held a cup and asked the Lord to "fill it to the brim," and He did, for HE IS FAITHFUL!!! Then He said:

To truly KNOW ME... is to "love," unselfishly, and to expect nothing in return. To truly LOVE ME... is to "go" and "do," as I instruct. Perfected obedience is not easy, My daughter, but MY LOVE flowing through a "readied" vessel will bring "MY PEACE," into ANY situation! This is NOT something that natural man can understand - UNLESS he has experienced it - and not many have. Why not? you ask? Because the enemy would blind your eyes from seeing it. Even the unbeliever can IMMEDIATELY discern and feel My Love, and KNOW IT TO BE REAL! Flowing, filling - pouring down from above. They know it to be something that "no earthly vessel," - by itself - could possibly engineer - and you CAN'T! But you CAN experience it - and be CHANGED by it. .

CHANGED, yeah BE TRANSFORMED INTO MY IMAGE!

Why must My Children cling to their "idols," of self and flesh - even those who DO know Me? Because they seek to bring My presence forth with their gifts - but WHO GAVE THE GIFTS? I LOVED.... therefore I FREELY GAVE. Others seek to bring Me forth by "enraptured prayers" that they offer up as a sacrifice of praise, but TRUE PRAISE to Me is not "hampered," by words of man - but flows from the SPIRIT - THROUGH you and is released, not by eloquent words, but in LOVE! MY LOVE can not be "purchased," FOR I AM has "ALREADY"! purchased it for you. My great LOVE can not be "bartered," for no TRADE is of comparable value. MY LOVE "IS" the "PEARL" of great price, the "true gem" among the fake, the "true treasure," of the field. My LOVE does not harbor resentment - does not "seek its OWN way," and does not try to justify itself. MY LOVE brings forth the "wealth" and the "true treasure" of Heaven! See - before you, the storehouse door is open - why then are not more of My Children seeking to enter in? It is because they STILL prefer to do it "their way," not - even YET - having learned that their way leads to "death," instead of the RESURRECTED LIFE that I have for them!! These are not yet fully matured. For "their way," will bring forth only "thorns and thistles," while MY LOVE brings forth the "TRUE" fruit! Do you seek this day MY resurrection power? THEN LOVE.... Love unstintingly, love unselfishly, LOVE - LOVE ONE ANOTHER!!!! Even as I HAVE LOVED YOU. Let this LOVE - MY LOVE flow STRAIGHT from the THRONE ROOM of Heaven to you. Release MY LOVE - let it flow outward to your brothers, your sisters, the lost - the hurting, the dying! Give a drink to those who thirst in MY NAME - give "MY MANNA," the BREAD OF LIFE to those who "hunger and thirst for righteousness!"

For to TRULY KNOW ME - you MUST have experiential understanding, "personal knowledge," of MY GREAT LOVE. Nothing ELSE will satisfy; for there is nothing else that even a "carnal" mind will recognize as being from above, EXCEPT MY LOVE. For the carnal man attempts to put forth a "fruit," that is corrupted by his own desires; while those who walk in My Love - seek after NOTHING but MY DESIRE. Prophecy will cease - but MY LOVE will not. Tongues will come to an end - but MY LOVE ENDURETH FOREVER! Even the unbeliever can perform "signs and wonders," in MY NAME - but they can not partake of MY LOVE - MY VERY NATURE - for I DO NOT reside in them - and they have NO place in Me! I do not seek to make Myself known to those who would USE My Name for their OWN purposes - NO! I seek to bring forth MY LOVE in MY VESSELS FOR MY GLORY! THE HEART OF THE FATHER IS HIS GLORY... For you to truly walk in "MY GLORY," will REQUIRE - that you allow MY LOVE to FREELY FLOW THROUGH YOU - and it will not be to those whom the "religious," seek after. It will be to the lost, the downtrodden, those kept back by the hand of man from reaching full maturity - IN ME! It will be for the brokenhearted, who have been shattered - but who I AM can and will mend by knitting that person's heart with a knitting needle that no human hands OR heart can manufacture. The "needles," I use are My Spirit - flowing forth in MY GREAT LOVE AND COMPASSION - which brings to that heart, the SAME DESIRE to reach OUT and touch others with that SAME love and compassion. Man will ALWAYS seek to knit together those around him by SOMETHING... be in a "supposed" position, a perceived "purpose" for their existence, or an "idle thought" that ensnares them and holds them captive to their own desires. But MY LOVE - freely offered - BRINGS MY GLORY... For when you walk in MY LOVE - you ARE at peace... The enemy cannot touch you; for against MY LOVE - he has NO DEFENSE and can mount NO OFFENSE! Nothing brings forth the demons of hell faster than beginning to see someone experiencing and enveloped in MY LOVE, for once experienced NOTHING ELSE SATISFIES, and the enemy of your soul KNOWS THIS. For what he sees in the Spirit realm is "MANY" little Jesus' and this causes the host of hell to TREMBLE! FOR MY PERFECTED LOVE CASTETH OUT ALL FEAR! Isn't "FEAR" - THE GREATEST WEAPON THE ENEMY HAS AGAINST YOU? Are you moving, walking in fear this day? Then you have not LOVE. For My WORD says - that "NO" weapon the enemy forms, or can bring against you - will prosper. Are you seeking to bask in My presence by something "YOU" called forth, instead of waiting until I make Myself known to you? Then the enemy has successfully ensnared you and kept you from reaching the FULLNESS I AM HAS FOR YOU!

SEEK MY FACE.... AND BECOME COVERED, EMBRACED BY MY LOVE.... and MY GLORY will follow. MY LOVE does "NOT" suffer a wrong, but freely forgives and forgets. MY LOVE does "NOT" harbor grudges, but offers up prayers - sincere heart-felt prayers for the one who has "injured," you, or has "injured" others.

MY LOVE is NEVER "offered," up IN VAIN. For My WORD and the LOVE I AM has for you - is EXACT, TRUE and can not be DUPLICATED by man's efforts When man attempts to do so, what IS offered is "false-love," or a "mans gospel," that changes nothing - injures many by its own "self," desire - and brings chaos instead of calm. A PURIFIED VESSEL will choose ONLY to move in this "GODLIKE LOVE," having gone through everything else and found that NONE of it satisfies the "inner" hunger of the soul. My True Church WILL abide and FLOW in MY LOVE FLOWING.... bringing a UNITY and HARMONY that cancels out "self," and leaves it harbor less - unable to "tie itself," back to its own "self endeavors." This is the BRIDE that I AM ANXIOUSLY AWAIT and LONG FOR, FOR this is MY BRIDE! Pure and sanctified by MY BLOOD, bathed in MY SPIRIT - and DAILY - moment by moment - becoming more fully clothed in MY RADIANCE!

ABOVE ALL - MY BRIDE WILL SHOW "MY LOVE," to a lost and dying world.

- And this WILL BE HER GOAL - for anything else hinders MY PURE LOVE as man contaminates it by wanting to "pull this love" inward - for himself, INSTEAD OF for others. Yet I - your Master, came as a SERVANT. You - My Children - MUST ALSO be a "servant" to others. He who would be the GREATEST AMONG YOU - MUST BE! A SERVANT TO ALL. For at the HEART OF MY LOVE is "SERVANT HOOD." THIS IS PERFECTED OBEDIENCE - THIS IS PERFECTED LOVE... MY LOVE. Anything else will fail. Any other "agenda," will fall - but MY LOVE GOES ON FOREVER, unceasing.... and will "NEVER" be undermined or misinterpreted by the "natural man," or be returned to Me unfruitful!

A "PERFECTED VESSEL," will bring forth the TRUE FRUITS of repentance AND the TRUE FRUITS OF MY SPIRIT - WITH JOY, IN A HEART FELT PEACE THAT PASSETH ALL UNDERSTANDING, and in the STRENGTH AND POWER OF MY LOVE. A "PERFECTED VESSEL," will gather in as I INSTRUCT - and not go "its own way." A "PERFECTED VESSEL," will endure MUCH and suffer MUCH - but will reap an abundant harvest through WHAT it has endured and suffered for MY NAMESAKE. If you COME IN LOVE - IN "MY LOVE," then you can NOT fail~! And you WILL NOT FAIL... For the "hosts of heaven," are cheering you on, having BEEN PERFECTED THEMSELVES in that "same LOVE." Seek this LOVE My Children - for I AM "anxiously" awaits you - to draw you into Myself. When MY LOVE IS PERFECTED IN YOU - then, and ONLY THEN will I bring you - MY BRIDE - HOME - HOME!!!! To the mansion I have been preparing for you since before time began.

I eagerly await you - MY CHOSEN ONE... MY BRIDE!

Your Bridegroom, Jesus

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Hope of The World

Ron McGatlin

Spiritual awakening of the kingdom of God through revival is the hope of the world.

The tide is finally turning. Revival is beginning to have an impact on our world. The degradation of the past is being healed by the outpouring of God's Spirit upon a new people. A people seeking God and his ways of kingdom living. The toll has been great. We have experienced the break down of families and personal morals and values eroding the fiber of society and bringing forth a costly flood of self indulgence and pleasure seeking. Sudden destruction is historically the end of the nation that turns its back on God's ways and has its strength eroded by self indulgence and carnal pleasure instead of seeking God's ways and leadership.

The systems of the world cannot long continue to bear the burden of man's living apart from the ways of God. Nations have crumbled and will continue to do so under the weight of the cost of sinful pleasure and self indulgence. As the children of each generation without revival grow less able to make decisions that lead toward life and more unwilling to take responsibility for their own actions and lives, the cost increases. As the generations become more dependent, less productive, and unable to provide for themselves the cost becomes unbearable to governments and a strain on all the systems of the planet.

Thank God for spiritual awakening -- for with it comes awakening of reality thinking by God's people. Men's minds are being freed and the flow of godly wisdom is returning to cause mankind to find his way to real life and away from the seducing trickery of self indulgence and carnal pleasure seeking. People set free by the power of God in revival become God seekers who seek to know Him and to walk in obedience to His ways. Once freed from carnal pleasure seeking and self indulgence, the people begin to loose their bent toward violence. Without their appetites for violence and carnal pleasure, people become free to love and serve one another as they love and serve God with their whole hearts.

Revival is not optional.

And compared to the alternative it is not too costly. The alternative to not having revival in our world is unthinkable. The cost is beyond compare. To count the stars of heaven would be easier than counting the total cost of not having revival in our world. No amount of cost we pay for revival, either individually, or collectively world wide is too much. Any amount of cost of our lives and effort is worth paying for world revival.

God is pouring out His Spirit in this time and the potential for world wide revival is a reality in this day and the days just ahead. The time for religious debate and walls of separation between real life and God's people is past. Revival is destroying separations and will eventually destroy the separation of God and governments of many nations of the world.

National governments and ungodly ruling institutions are now feeling threatened by the reality of the kingdom of God coming forth in the World. They will be changed or brought down by the power and presence of God as revival and reformation sweeps the land. As God continues to pour out His Spirit and His people respond with unrestrained praise and worship and gather themselves unto Him in intimate prayer, revival is changing our world. No price is too great in response to the One who gave His life on the cross to become the resurrected Christ indwelling His people bringing revival to the world.

Ron McGatlin
basileia@advi.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Hour Has Come

Sherry Mackey

March 26, 2000: As I looked out my window this morning, the Spirit prompted me to notice the trails that were crisscrossing each other in the snow. Some of the trails went as far as I could see, some were in circles, and some originated at my front door. Trails all have origins and endings. The scriptures spoke of making a way in the wilderness and desert places. Our Lord promised us if we would seek His face, He would light our way and make it straight. His word is a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our pathway. We can determine to go our way and go in circles or be led down fox and rabbit trails resulting in losses of time and energy or, we can choose to wait for the sound of the Master as He speaks in the quiet places. The Lord's still small voice rumbled through the prophet Elijah as the prophet had taken up residence in the cave wanting to die while in the depths of depression and self pity. The Lord came to Elijah and asked him a question....."What are you doing here, Elijah?" The God of Israel asked a question, and as Elijah rambled on about what zeal he had at one time, and the death warrant out from Jezebel, that his life was better dead than alive. It is interesting what thing the Lord spoke to the old battered prophet.....

"GO!!!! Return on your way to the wilderness....." 1 Kings 19

Not only was there a command to go, but God gave him orders. Through all the failure that old prophet experienced, God yet dared to use him again and gave him a sidekick called Elisha to minister to him.

As we GO, we will cross many paths the Lord has established, "and the enemy has established." People who you meet for awhile and are gone, as they follow the path they have chosen. Some will bring benefit into your lives and sharpening and bless you for a season, but they move on with the mandate of the Lord to others. Then there are those who will come and dare to follow the path you walk, some I have chosen to follow you as you follow Christ and to minister, and others who will attempt to follow as deceivers. Everything that is hidden shall be brought to light, the day will declare it. Just the pressure of the walk will cause many to fall away. "Those who I choose to follow you, will be graced to walk in the measure of the calling."

As I was praying, I saw myself in a dark place holding a lamp that illuminated the path in front of me. On closer examination, I found myself in a cave and gross darkness was all around me. I could hear water coming out of some of the sides of the cave. I reached the end of the cave and to my amazement there was a large box of dynamite. The Lord impressed upon me to take some of the TNT and blast through the wall. I did as the Lord spoke, and took some of the fire of my lamp and lit the fuse. As I hurried back far enough from the blast, the shear force of the blast knocked me down. As I got up and moved into the blasting zone, to my amazement a way was made open into the light of the outdoors! As I rejoiced to see the green grass and blue sky again, I remembered how long the cave was and how long I had been surrounded by gross darkness. For months it seemed so dark, and even my eyes had to adjust to the brightness of the sun. Then I heard the Lord speak to my heart....."Good Morning!"

"You have learned to climb the mountains in full view, now a way is made through the mountain! Through darkness! You have made a way that others will follow. For I AM the true architect and I am making a way that soon even the railroads shall travel through with many people, many through the darkness on that Glory Train."

As I sat there and pondered the words of my Master, He spoke a declaration and I prophesied it. The meaning was nailed to the exit of the mountain, it proclaimed "upon this rock I will build MY church and the very gates of hell will not prevail against it." The next thing I saw was a beautiful faceted diamond next to me. The Lord spoke to me "Hope in Me and not in ill fortune." As the Lord instructed me to pick it up, I knew gold, silver and precious stones were the reward of the faithful through the fire and blasting comes stones for our crowns. As I sat overwhelmed from the beauty of the stone, Jesus spoke and said, "This reward is very hard and will not be broken but, will be used to cut through obstacles in your future."

"This sickness is not unto death but for the Glory of the Lord, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby." John 11:4

"Though you have been in darkness for such a long time, and did not turn back, even in the solitude of silence, I provided a way out when there was no way. My dunamis power shall be where you need it for the hour. You thought you were dead and sealed into the tomb, but I the Lord brought resurrection power through your death in that hour, says the Lord. I brought you out of this place for My purpose says the Lord."

I saw a clock ticking and I understood that the Lords timing is always right. I saw soap called dial and I understood that it was crucial to wash because of the timing of the day. I then saw a athlete preparing to throw the discus. He wore Greek attire, then I saw metals of awards of Gold and Silver. "Run! as to win says your God!" Then I heard, "Special olympics."

Micah4:6-7 "In that day, declares the Lord, I will assemble the lame, and gather the outcasts, even those whom I have afflicted, and I will make the lame a remnant and the outcasts a strong nation, and the Lord will reign over them in Mount Zion from now on and forever."

I saw many ceramic molds, and then I saw one of the Lamb. "I AM molding you into the nature of the Lamb." I then saw a road map unfolding, and a way being charted on it. "In your Union with the Son, you shall know the way to go, says the Lord."

"Are you still sleeping? and taking your rest? It is enough.....THE HOUR HAS COME, SAYS THE LORD!....."Mark 14:41

"COME OUT OF THE CAVES, ALL THOSE WHO ARE LAME AND CRIPPLED AND HATED, THEY WILL KNOW THAT I LOVE YOU AS I MANIFEST MY POWER THROUGH YOUR BROKEN FLESH SAYS THE LORD!"

1 Cor.2:1-11 Haggai 2:17-23 Hosea 10:11-13 Ps. 41 Ps. 57:4 Job 28 Job 29

sis Sherry Mackey

<//////////><

<http://www.alaska.net/~nbegin>

New Beginning Christian Ministries

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The House Of God

Bob Jones and Keith Davis

From: www.bobjones.org

A few days prior to the end of 1999 and the beginning of the New Millennium (on the Gregorian Calendar), the Lord gave Bob a significant prophetic experience with profound implications. In it, He illustrated our need for continued preparatory refinement by the Holy Spirit.

THE VISION

In the vision, Bob was taken in the Spirit to a very appealing house. The Lord, standing to Bob's left, allowed him to examine the exterior of this multi level structure. Bob could easily recognize the superior construction and exceptional quality of this beautiful dwelling that had been prepared by its designer.

As Bob was making these observations, the Lord said, "Yes, this is a very beautiful house, unfortunately, it has no lights". With this statement, Bob inquired how this could occur in a house so beautifully built. Immediately upon making this statement, Bob found himself under the house in a "crawl-space" allowing him to easily see the wiring of the house and the circuits built to provide electrical power to it. He readily ascertained that the wiring in this house was of the highest caliber allowing immense amounts of power to flow into the house in its original blueprint. Unfortunately, a "reducer" had been placed on the circuits diminishing the amount of power allowed to flow into these circuits thus preventing the house from being properly lighted. A reducer is a piece of equipment that inhibits the total amount of power allowed in wiring. For instance, if the wiring of a house is 220 volts and you desire to use an appliance that only requires 110, a reducer is placed on the outlet limiting the amount of power through the circuit. This is done so that the excessive power does not destroy the appliance you are desiring to use. That was the situation Bob observed in this house. The reducer restricted the flow of power because the wiring and circuits in the house were not suitably functioning to handle the amount of power the house was designed to facilitate.

Upon even closer examination, Bob looked behind the reducer and observed the wires had actually been severed. His first reaction concluded the enemy had cut the wires to this house so God's power could not flow to it. However, the Lord quickly corrected this presumption. It wasn't the enemy who had cut the wiring, but the inhabitants of the house.

Bob was instructed that part of his job was to help "rewire" the "house" so an uninhibited flow of power could come to this habitation, to God's glory. The "House" is the church and we are the channels through which God's power is to flow. This is the house the Lord is building for His habitation. The wiring of the house represented Christian leaders and the purity of our spirit and soul to accommodate the flow of divine power to the earth. The "wiring" further symbolizes the level of our maturity and character. Thus says the LORD, "Heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool. Where then is a house you could build for me? And where is a place that I may rest? "For My hand made all these things, thus all these things came into being," declares the LORD. "But to this one I will look, to him who is humble and contrite of spirit, and who trembles at My word. ( Isaiah 66;1-2)

We are not yet equipped to safely accommodate the great release of Divine power the Lord is desiring to unleash that would illumine the "House of Faith". On the night before the Lord was glorified through the sacrificial offering of His life, He concluded His teachings saying, "I have many more things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. (John 16:12) The Lord has many things to unveil to us in this generation, only we cannot bear them all now. However, He is desiring to do a quick work in us allowing full disclosure of Kingdom purposes through His people, provided we are willing to adhere to the leading of His Spirit with total abandonment.

THE APPROPRIATE GROUNDING

Upon further observation Bob noticed the "ground" wire was completely severed. As a result the "Hot Wire" had burned itself out because it did not have adequate grounding. In electricity, the "ground wire" is a connection in an electrical circuit that leads to the earth or to a large conducting object. If this precaution is not observed, a failure of insulation or accident may occur leading to "shock" or "burn out". The "hot-wire" is the circuit through which the power flows.

The Lord graciously explained to Bob the "ground-wire" was the "Logos" word of God and the "Hot Wire" was the "Rhema". If the inhabitants of the house had allowed the "Rhema" of God to come without proper grounding in the "Logos", burn-out or short circuiting would be the sure result. All "Rhema" must have its grounding in the "Logos" Word of God. A fully activated "Hot Wire" is very dangerous when not grounded. So is it with spiritual reality. If someone experiences a tremendous release of revelation and power that is not grounded in the "Logos" Word of God, the propensity for error and calamity is significant.

The "logos" and "Rhema" serve as two witnesses in this illustration. If either of these two is not functioning properly, the tendency for disaster is great. That is why the reducer was placed upon the wiring so the great flow of power from heaven would not destroy the house and its occupants.

LOGOS & RHEMA

A word is a thought given expression. God's attributes, nature and thoughts are addressed to us in the Word (Logos) of God. The Logos is identified with the will of God, or with the Ideas that are in the mind of God. Christ's incarnation is accordingly understood as the incarnation of these divine attributes. The Bible is the divinely inspired, inerrant Word (Logos) of God. However, it takes the Rhema of God to properly appropriate the written Word. But know this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture is {a matter} of one's own interpretation, for no prophecy was ever made by an act of human will, but men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God. (2 Peter 1:20-21)

Rhema is a "Word" considered or given articulation. It is the divine appropriation of the written "word". Simply, it is the inspired insight with understanding and application expressed to us. It is the power of inspiration in understanding the written "word" in perfect order. But what does it say? "THE WORD (RHEMA) IS NEAR YOU, in your mouth and in your heart"-- that is, the word (Rhema) of faith which we are preaching, (Romans 10:8)

One of the most important aspects of the vision is to understand we are "grounded" in the revelation of the Word as given by the Holy Spirit. The scriptures declare the written Word is not a matter of private interpretation; rather, men of old anointed with the Holy Spirit spoke from God. Very often, customary understanding of the scriptures derives its foundation in the doctrines and precepts of men taught as truth. For not knowing about God's righteousness and seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God. (Rom 10:3)

This serves only as a false grounding and will result in ship wreck just as much so as if the grounding were not prepared at all. It is the Holy Spirit that is the Spirit of Truth guiding us into all truth. If we harbor traditional concepts of scripture that cannot be supported by the entirety of God's Word, then we must be willing to open our hearts to the revelation of the Word as taught by the Spirit of Truth.

THE NOBILITY OF THE BEREANS

The brethren immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea, and when they arrived, they went into the synagogue of the Jews. Now these were more noble-minded than those in Thessalonica, for they received the word with great eagerness, examining the Scriptures daily {to see} whether these things were so. (Acts 17:10-11)

The Bereans were described as a noble group inasmuch as they readily received the Spirit of Truth working through

Paul and Silas AND they searched the scriptures to affirm their message in the written Word. Paul delivered "cutting-edge" Truth that was contradictory to the previous understanding of the scriptures taught by the leaders of that day. Nonetheless, Paul's message was securely established in the written Word, giving the true application of the scriptures concerning the Promised Messiah and the Kingdom of God. This is the virtuous example we should likewise follow. Be diligent to present yourself approved to God as a workman who does not need to be ashamed, accurately handling the word (LOGOS) of truth. (2 Tim 2:15) Charles Spurgeon once spoke of the "Logos" saying, " So, brethren, especially is it with the Incarnate Word. We are in the habit of calling the Bible "the Word of God." I suppose that is accurate enough...of this incarnate Word, this everlasting Logos, we may say that he standeth for ever. Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today and forever." The Bible is not simply the Word of God; it is the revelation of Jesus Christ.

LITTLE CHILDREN, YOUNG MEN & FATHERS

Bob was then told to observe a worship service. In the service, the "Rhema" or "hot-wire" was going to be allowed to flow through the Praise and Worship. During the time of worship, the Holy Spirit imparted revelation to the people expressing the Lord's desire to manifest healing to the people in their spirit, soul, and body.

Unfortunately, following this release of revelation, the people initially continued in the service without giving proper attention to the revelation or "Rhema" of the Word. The spiritual "children" in the service responded like a child receiving a piece of candy. They thought the release was certainly sweet and good giving a nice spiritual experience, however did not grasp the full purpose of its meaning. The "young men" recognized this as a revelation from heaven, yet lacked the maturity to establish understanding with application for the revelation. The "fathers" then spoke up acknowledging this was a revelation from heaven and the service could not continue until its full application found its place in the service and God was allowed to do all that He desired. The "fathers" responded to the "Rhema" by grounding it in the Logos and resting in its Truth until the Holy Spirit was allowed full liberty to accomplish every purpose He desired.

I am writing to you, LITTLE CHILDREN, because your sins have been forgiven you for His name's sake. I am writing to you, FATHERS, because you know Him who has been from the beginning. I am writing to you, , because YOUNG MEN have overcome the evil one. I have written to you, children, because you know the Father. I have written to you, fathers, because you know Him who has been from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one. (1 John 2:12-14)

In this illustration, the "Rhema" word of God disclosed the Lord's desire to impart healing to the saints in the worship service. The grounding for this Word is derived in the written promises that healing is the "children's bread." The "Logos" clearly supported the "Rhema" manifesting the Lord's expression for the people. The Holy Spirit will never sponsor something that is contrary to the Written Word.

Furthermore, He is wishing to manifest in His church all the many good and precious promises in the Written Word that we have not yet fully experienced.

It requires the maturity of "fathers" to thoroughly recognize the release of "Rhema" and ground it in the "Logos" Word Of God so nothing is lost in a service. Maturity and character established in the hearts of the "fathers" allows the full manifestation of freedom for the Holy Spirit to do His bidding. These three categories of believers have less to do with biological age, but more with spiritual maturity and close encounters with the Lord in the "prayer closet". It is in being consumed with the Lord and devouring His Word- His Word is the revelation of His Heart. Your words were found and I ate them, and your words became for me a joy and the delight of my heart; for I have been called by your name, O LORD God of hosts. (Jer 15:16) The Lord is insisting the lights be fully engaged in the house so all divine purposes are accomplished without one being lost. Without the maturity of the "fathers", great spiritual opportunities are squandered because they are not recognized when released by the Holy Spirit. All revelation from heaven is more precious than fine gold. The admonition here is to develop the discernment and spiritual sensitivity to perceive these expressions of the Spirit and adhere to them, allowing full liberty in their accomplishment. "It is written, MAN SHALL NOT LIVE ON BREAD ALONE, BUT ON EVERY WORD (Rhema) THAT PROCEEDS OUT OF THE MOUTH OF GOD." (Matt 4:4)

If we hunger for the anointing of God in our lives, and even more importantly, if we thirst for intimate fellowship with the Lord, we must become totally absorbed in His Word. He will never do anything contrary to His written Word and His Word is His prescribed WAY into the Presence of the Father. Let the word of Christ richly dwell within you, with all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms {and} hymns {and} spiritual songs, singing with thankfulness in your hearts to God. (Col 3:16)

As the vision continued the Lord instructed Bob to begin the process of adequately "wiring" His church for the release of great power. The Lord acknowledged we are not yet properly "wired" and equipped to handle the great source of power to be dispersed in this generation. This symbolic expression emphasized the great need for continued preparatory refinement. It is imperative we are properly "grounded" and empowered with both the "Logos" and "Rhema" revelation of the Lord's plans, purposes and will. It is the development of Godly character and maturity essential for the release of this magnitude of power. We must experientially know what it means to literally tremble with reverential fear at the sanctity of God's Word. The Lord is desiring a spiritual Habitation- IN US. The Spirit is expressing Himself continuously, unfortunately, there is presently a famine in the "HEARING OF THE WORD".

OUR SPIRITUAL UMBILICAL CORD

In many respects we are like a child in the womb of its mother connected to the mother through the umbilical cord. The "umbilical cord" portrays the Holy Spirit bonding us to heaven. It functions as a channel through which the grace and mercy of God flows to us perpetually, even as life flows from mother to child in the womb providing the issues of life.

Not only does the umbilical cord provide the source of life for the infant, it most importantly promotes growth and maturity to the point of birth. The love of the Father flows through our spiritual "umbilical cord" to cleanse us of all unrighteousness extending His grace, allowing the maturation and development in us to become sons and daughters of God. It is vital that the umbilical cord provide the uninhibited flow of blood, nourishment and life to the maturing child. If anything should block this flow, the life of the child would be in jeopardy. Our unbelief and precepts of man function as a block that inhibits the flow of divine life to us, prohibiting proper cleansing and nourishment creating a critical situation in the maturity of the believer.

For instance, many who enter into sin feel as though they need to do penance for the remission of their wrong act. Instead, the believer should simply do faithful repentance and believe the Word of God promising His blood is adequate to cleanse us of all unrighteousness. (1 John 1:9) The flow of life through the spiritual "umbilical" cord is then dispensed to cleanse us and prepare us for birth into our calling and commission.

It is the religious spirit that deceives us into entering legalism and nullifying the grace of God with works. It is the power Grace we must understand the Lord is desiring to release into His church that will illumine her and prepare her in maturity for the greater measure of the Holy Spirit. Our works are an outward expression of and inward conviction done as a labor of love and appreciation for His work of Grace. We cease from ministering FOR God and begin to minister WITH Him.

If we continue perpetually in rebellious sin, it functions like the umbilical cord wrapped around the neck of the infant, suppressing the very flow of life from it until the child is aborted. Many spiritual purposes and movements are aborted in this manner. An examination of history will also reveal many great movements of God that were being prepared to be released in the earth that were lost in this manner.

It is imperative in this generation that we allow the Holy Spirit to prepare us according to His directives so we are equipped to handle the kind of power that it will take to become the generation of the righteous. Great and awesome exploits are prophesied for this generation. We must be conditioned and equipped for them. The performance of works to promote the remittance of sin, signifies we have lost faith in the cross and the grace of God. Works should be an outward expression of an inward appreciation for the grace of God and the love of God extended to us. It cannot be a substitute for the blood of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins. It is likewise mandatory in this hour, that we ground ourselves in His revelation of the Word through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit so we can easily discern the deceptions of the enemy that would inhibit the flow of life to us from the Father. If we find ourselves unknowingly agreeing with the enemy, it results in our abiding in the domain of Satan rather than the Father. It is through the Rhema revelation of the written Logos that we recognize the schemes of the enemy allowing the full release of power to us to escape and defeat the strongholds of the devil.

When we make our habitation in the Word of God...He will make His habitation in us. Grounding in the Word of God will actually have us rooted and grounded in Love, Faith and Truth (Eph. 3:17; Col. 1:23; 1 Tim 3:15; KJV) There are presently some individual believers who have tasted this reality. However, the Lord is desiring His corporate body to have their grounding in Him so He can lavish upon them the Presence of God allowing His Glory to fill the earth.

Copyright (c) 2000 Bob Jones Ministry. All rights reserved. For forwarding do not change, add to, or delete anything. Complete copyright must be included with every article. www.bobjones.org

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Throne Of Glory

Bill Burns

September 8, 2000:

Some have said that the fires in the western states this summer are a sign of the revival fires that are about to spring up.

I do not wish to disagree, but I believe that it is more likely that they are a sign of the judgment which is to come.

Revelation 8:7, "The first angel sounded: And hail and fire followed, mingled with blood, and they were thrown to the earth. And a third of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up."

To be sure some revivals will be birthed as a result of judgment. In fact, I believe that the end-time harvest will take place in the midst of God's judgment upon the nations.

The last few days I have been seeing an unusual sign in the heavenlies. The clouds in the western sky have been a brilliant gold with a red glow around them. In the very middle of the expanse (in each case) was an open area of absolutely beautiful blue sky with a golden glow to it. That is the best I can describe what I saw, and in this case words cannot do justice to the picture that was painted by God's own hand.

Each time I saw this picture in the sky, I was inclined to think of the throne of His glory. The Spirit then led me to this scripture:

Revelation 14:14, "Then I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and on the cloud sat One like the Son of Man, having on His head a golden crown, and in His hand a sharp sickle."

And then Revelation 15:2 brought completeness to what I saw, "And I saw something like a sea of glass mingled with fire."

Is this the sign of judgment? What of the signs of fires in the earth? Revelation 14:18-19, "And another angel came out from the altar, who had power over fire, and he cried with a loud cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, 'Thrust in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe.' So the angel thrust his sickle into the earth and gathered the vine of the earth, and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God."

So, I am dealing with two images--fires in the earth and the throne of the Master's glory in the heavenlies. Revelation 15:5, "After these things I looked, and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened."

And the Spirit of the Lord says: "Behold the signs that you have seen give testimony to that which is to come. The heavenly gates are about to open, and My temple shall display the glory of My throne. (Revelation 15:8, "The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power.") My glory shall be seen in the heavens, but the manifestation will take place in My earthly temples. The tabernacle of God shall now be with those faithful servants whose hearts are wholly given to My purposes. To some the signs declare that judgment is coming, but to My own they are signs of the glory that shall come upon them. Fire will come from My altar (in the heavenly temple). To some it will become a sweet incense, but to those who have offered strange fire, it will become the flames of judgment. Rise up, My people, for it is time to sing the songs of victory!

Revelation 15:3-4, "They sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying: "Great and marvelous are Your works, Lord God Almighty! Just and true are Your ways, O King of the saints! Who shall not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy. For all nations shall come and worship before You, For Your judgments have been manifested."

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

September 4, 2000:

I speak to those of you who have gotten off course and lost direction and perspective. I am bringing a course correction to you. I am revealing the places where you have departed from the path that I have chosen for you. I say to you, the reason you have gotten off course is because your vision strayed from beholding Me, and you began to behold yourself. You considered your circumstances and feelings and held them in greater esteem than you did the truth of My word and the weight of My purposes. Stop where you are and drop your false concepts and fantasies. Let Me infuse you with divine direction, for I truly am your spiritual compass.

September 5, 2000:

There is an evil in the land; it is the curse of the jackals. Do you hear the howling? It has been sent against My people to tear at them and to rip with their teeth, for their teeth are as swords and their words are as knives. But, I have not given you as prey. Come into My refuge and find safety within My gates, for outside are the dogs and sorcerers, murderers and idolaters, and those that those practice lawlessness and speak lies. Come into My safe haven, and refuse to allow this curse to bring discouragement. For I say that the enemy will do what he can to steal your joy and cause you to retreat to the shadows. His mission is to cause you to believe that you are also a jackal with no honor in My kingdom. He lies.

September 6, 2000:

I have brought you to higher ground and given you a wide place to stand. You have had a greater glimpse of Me and seen aspects of My character and nature that you have not known before. You have come to greater knowledge of Me and had experience of walking in the Spirit. Don't lose what you've gained. Refuse to return to the comfort and familiarity of walking in the flesh again. I say to you, rise up! Soar above the distractions and confusion. Don't go back to bickering and fighting and having to be right. There is only one place that is right; that is the place where your heart is wholly given to Me with no thought of yourselves. Be done with low living and selfish motivations. Again, I say, rise up and walk in the Spirit.

September 8, 2000:

To many who have felt displaced and unable to fulfill what I have called you to do, I have turned the hearts of the fathers to you to equip and prepare you for greater ministry. I will not leave you where you are. I am bringing order to My church and positioning you in places of increased effectiveness and freedom. I have gone before you to make the crooked places straight, and I am calling you forth to blow the trumpet in Zion. I am calling you forth to awaken those who slumber. Refuse to give heed to the lies of the enemy that would keep you from moving ahead. You cannot change those around you who stifle and quench the Spirit and keep you from fulfilling your mission, so you must come out from under this dampening influence to answer the call. I have given you vision and placed a desire in your heart. It is time to allow this vision to take form and manifest.

Faith Tabernacle
111 North Fourth
P. O. Box 1148
Kremmling, CO 80459
<http://ft111.com>
ft111@uswest.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

Threads for a Tapestry

Becky McLendon

Much discussion and dialoguing is going on in the Christian arena. And many different ideas, theologies, and thoughts are included in this huge information exchange. A common buzzword used for such exchange is "thread". A topic is thrown out for discussion and a "thread" develops from it. Many discussion threads are available for believers to sort through and add to.

A few days ago I saw the Lord holding a double handful of multicolored threads. His purpose was to take each individual thread and test it. The thread would be proven suitable for His use or discarded. You see, He is weaving a beautiful tapestry from multicolored thread. The name of the tapestry is "New Jerusalem".

So MANY threads, and all lovely in appearance. I thought to myself, my the vastness of His truth must be so awesome, look at the NUMBER of "discussion threads" He holds in His hand. But then the test began. The Lord selected one thread, stretched it full length, looked at it then with both hands he yanked it violently. The thread snapped in two, leaving two pieces with frayed ends. He discarded it into a pile on the floor, kicking it aside.

He selected another, just as lovely as the previous one. He did the same thing, SNAP!!!! Again, two frayed pieces fell to the floor and were kicked aside. A third was selected. Again, he yanked the thread sharply. It went completely taut, emitting a musical tone as it did. He smiled and carefully added it to His tapestry. This process went on for a long time and is STILL going on.

We are running to and fro with information, and creating "threads" of discussion, but know this. These threads will all be put to the test. If they are of HIM, demonstrating JESUS they will stand the pulling and the eventual SNAP of tautness that Jesus as the Way, the Truth and the Life will put them through. If they break under the strong pull of the Way, the Truth and the Life, they will be discarded and kicked aside.

Jesus is showing us an example, and He wants us following Him here. How do we judge "threads"? Simple. Look at the "stuff" they are made of.

1. Does the thread produce FRUIT? Or does it just feed upon itself?
2. Is Christ CENTRAL to the thread,? or does the thread fail to point others to Christ?
3. Does the thread bring conviction? Or does it bring condemnation?

4. Does the thread exalt Jesus Christ? Or does it elevate man?

5. Is it life giving RHEMA that produces growth? Or is it vain babblings and protracted wrangling that create dissention and death?

This is how our LORD judges our conversation. In this mass media age keen discernment as to what is pure and holy and what is not is most urgent! The strong threads make up the beautiful tapestry called the "New Jerusalem"

The frayed weak threads that did NOT survive the strong yank of the truth became entangled with all the other frayed ends of discarded threads. Together they formed the great web of deception that will take many so called knowledgeable Christians right into outer darkness eternally, the agony of the missed reward. The agony of NOT being part of New Jerusalem, the spotless bride.

To quote a little childrens song:

Be careful little eyes what you see. Be careful little ears what you hear. Be careful little hands what you do. Be careful little mouth what you speak.

Weigh everything with Christ, the Word of God, on one side of the scales. Do not let "bad thread" cause you to be "weighed in the balance and found lacking"! Judge fruit. Your own, and that of the "thread".

Becky (wayfarer)

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Hurricane Of My Glory

The Call #2

Debbie Cossu

The Hurricane Of My Glory

Debbie Cossu

As the winds of My love blow through you, the Hurricane of My glory shall go forth.

Hurricane- a cyclone of winds accompanied by rain, thunder and lightening.

Scripture: Mark 5:25-34; Luke 7:13

Jesus still searches out the ones who have touched Him. Immediately He is aware and perceives when the power proceeding from Him goes forth. He still asks this day, "Who touched Me?" And as He looks to see, He is moved with compassion.

Vision:

I saw the Lord sitting at the right hand of the Father. His eyes were piercing and searching through the vast expanse between heaven and earth.

He had told His Father He must find the one who had just touched Him again. Again and again His presence was being sought out, and touched.

As He looked to see, the blush of love and devotion radiating from tear stained faces immediately captured His heart, and caused Him to stand.

Word:

A hurricane of glory is about to sweep down upon you. I am drawn by the beauty of your love as you call out My name and beckon Me to come.

My heart has been pierced again and ravished with your tears of devotion. As these tears anoint your countenance, they shall mingle with My own as the joy of our passion is poured out upon the earth.

These waters of love shall become a flood gate of life and renewal. Surely as My compassion is roused in your behalf, so you shall be in behalf of those I send to you.

As we have locked gazes, as the rains of this new love pour down unceasingly, so the hurricane glory shall blow. Refreshment and joy shall be the residue of what shall be left when all else has been blown away.

Come and dance with Me in the rain, come and run and splash and frolic as you used to do. Do not fear the showers coming upon you, for you are safe in My arms.

The coming judgment some have proclaimed and others have denied, shall indeed also sweep across the face of the earth. This judgment of the Hurricane of My glory and love will not be for destruction, but for deliverance. Not to harm, but to help you along the way. Not for loss, but to grant fullness of life you have longed for.

The winds now blowing shall sweep away all that has held you down, all that has held you back, all that has held you from Me. Your love has indeed ravished My heart, and as My loves revives your own, the rains and mighty wind shall breathe a love song that will free multitudes.

Can you hear the music? Listen through the wind and rain and thunder and lightnings, and come dance with Me in the rain.

Debbie Cossu debbcossu@juno.com

The Call#2

Debbie Cossu

As I was praying earlier this morning I had a thought about the people who were still on their way to the CALL. As the day is progressing, the anticipation and joy in the Fathers eyes, as people are still on their way, caused a tear of joy to fall down His cheek due to the heart of His people beating like His.

Matthew 20 talks of the Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard. All who would come are still welcome this day.

Word of the Lord:

"I have sought in every generation, in every people group, in every place on the face of the earth for those who would respond to Me in this hour.....

Some have been watching and waiting with Me for a long time, and what we have longed for has come. Your faithfulness has given joy to My heart. Enter into My joy this day.

Some have not been around as long, yet are full of courage, and due to the help of others, and self discipline embraced, helped call this day into being. Your fruitfulness has brought joy to the church, rejoice as one this day.

Some are still yet to come, and I am watching with love each step. You must welcome them as I have done you. Their freshness will grant joy to the world, and release more joy each day.

I long to lavish My love on all. Do not begrudge the quick work that must be accomplished in their lives. Do not question My wisdom in timing, or gifting, or growth. Do not withhold position, or placement, or freedom. They shall walk in My power and anointing that took you many years and much experience to arrive at. Rejoice and be glad. Again I say rejoice. I am doing a new thing and a marvelous work before your eyes. Look with My eyes of love, and you will do the same!

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Tides And Seasons

Graham Cooke

grahamcooke@clara.co.uk

<http://www.grahamcooke.co.uk>

June 2000

There are many currents at work around our lives, involving relationships, work, love, finances, creativity, hormones, as well as spiritual, general, emotional and mental currents. When the tide goes out in one area, it may come in at another. Where we are experiencing a flood tide in one part of our life, another may be at low ebb. Some people think that real blessing is when everything is at the same good level. Balance to them is everything in its place of maximum benefit and good. This, for the most part, is hopelessly unrealistic. Our lives are like the earth; tidal, with lots of influences in and around us.

Some of the things we are drawn into come to us because of people we are connected to in life. We have no way of knowing what influences will be exerted upon us externally in the next few weeks.

Living with different tides can be difficult unless we live in a place of internal rest.

THE SEA IS NOT DIMINISHED

The sea is not diminished. When it decreases in one area, it increases somewhere else. The end of one thing in this place may herald the beginning of another in a different area. Just like our lives, nothing is lost, only changed. Within the scope of our lives we may experience many different tides at work, either individually or simultaneously.

The INCOMING TIDE occurs through new experiences, fresh opportunities for change and renewal. Fresh encounters with new people, new situations. God is always coming to us and we must rejoice in His appearing, however disguised it may be. He is the God of the tempest, living in the earthquake, present in the fire, as well as the stillness, the beauty and the sunshine. There is always an inflow with God, however small. Indeed, if you will allow the training of your spiritual perceptions, you will discover an enormous inflow of small blessings and cameo Presence's of His Nature in and around your life.

Present always, hidden mostly, visible occasionally, is God's preferred methodology.

New beginnings abound in the Lord. Incoming tides keep us fresh, alive to Him, living in newness of life. Like the incoming tide, we may only notice the small movement of God in retrospect. It is vital that we make time for (Selah = pause and think calmly of that psalm-speak for time out!) reflection. Look back to find God and then you will discover His present closeness.

FULL TIDE IS ALWAYS ABOUT EXPANSION

FULL TIDE is always about expansion. Future promise of blessing and anointing breathed upon us at low tide are now made outrageously real. We grow at depth. There is an ease of life, momentum. A stretching and journeying. People see us differently. They believe in us and want us around. Don't just enjoy the obvious opportunities that present themselves! Continue seeking God, and never stop. Scripture is clear. When you are living in total blessing "beware, lest you forget God" (Deut.6:12). When you are in full flow, make space and time to continue your experience of the keep things of God; they are always on offer.

God remains the same to us, no matter the tide!

Launch out, go for it, take risks, live by faith, and lose timidity. This is a time of fulfillment and enrichment. Take care to keep filling the bank account in the Spirit with real worship, adoration and intimate conversation (prayer). When the EBB TIDE comes, peripheral things like gifting and ministry may diminish. Your talents may fall away in power, or just not grow in further anointing for a season. Every gift and ministry is pruned ruthlessly by the master gardener.

If we have not continued to work on our relationship with the Lord, we will be assailed by emptiness in ministry. Trying to fill that void with more study to produce more messages will turn our ministry into idolatry.

THE PRUNING OF THE LORD

When the Lord prunes my prophetic gift, it is always because He wants me to see something else. It is a time to go deeper into His perspective; to see people differently. He closes my mouth to open my heart to Him so that I can see with new spiritual eyes. It is a time, therefore, to ask questions and seek God on a different level.

Each pruning has a promise attached that will materialize as we stop striving after ministry and allow ourselves to come to close to God.

INTERCESSORS MAY HAVE TO COME OFF THE WALL

Previous activities may lose their meaning. Intercessors have to come off the wall and spend more time in the throne room in worship and thanksgiving. Time spent watching must now give way to time spent waiting in the Presence of the Lord. It is a season away from the public ministry of warfare and into the private and personal season of ministering to the Lord. The secondary way must always give place to the prime directive. "Love the Lord your God with all your .!!!"

We cannot appreciate the flow without the ebb and vice versa. Many churches going through renewal failed miserably to understand the importance of the ebb tide. In manufacturing the flow, they moved from spirit to flesh who had bewitched them?

NEW, NOT MERELY UPGRADED

The point is that we are in preparation for being filled in a new way with a new thing. New means new, not the old merely upgraded! The ebb is about displacement; the re-surrendering of our lives to the Lord. Unfortunately Christians only seem willing to surrender the bad stuff. We maintain a choke-hold on our blessings until God has to pry our fingers loose with a crow bar.

Displacement is about making room for God, not just for more of the same. Maintain a practice of holding all things lightly before the Lord, especially the good. God lives in the ebb and the flow. Gains made in the flood must be consolidated in the ebb. Go deeper or you will just go wider. We don't need millions of Christians with an experience of God that is a mile wide and an inch deep.

IN THE EBB, BE AWARE OF WHAT GOD IS DOING IN YOU

In the ebb, be aware of what God is doing in you, just as the flood made you conscious of what He was doing through you. The LOW TIDE is always a time of purity and beauty. The trash in the sea is washed up on the shore; we are exposed. God strips us of everything so that we can see Him as He really is. When the Holy Spirit exposes our ugliness, He always reveals the beauty of the Lord. "Beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness" (Is.61:3). In flood tide, many things are covered by the grace of God. In low tide we discover ourselves as we really are and see God as He really is, all at the same time! His grace uncovers us so that we can be radically changed.

We are learning how to walk in the places of our own heart to discover God at work. God has not left us comfortless. Just as the sea leaves rock pools of varying shapes and sizes as it recedes from the land, so we have pockets of anointing and blessing where God remains ever true, though in miniature. Do not downgrade your life and ministry to a rock pool of anointing. Simply allow those to sustain you as you do clean up before the Lord. This is a time of comfort, consolation and contemplation. The Comforter is present, leading us into a deeper embrace of the life and power of God.

HE WILL NEVER LEAVE YOU

The less that is happening externally (in ministry), the more is occurring internally in your heart. We know that the tide will turn. Samson's hair will grow back. We must discover where our real strength comes from. God encompasses His people; He always surrounds us. Tune in to how God is enfolding you in His everlasting arms. He will never leave you, but He does walk with us differently at certain times. The roots of trust must grow in times of quiet desperation.

"I would have despaired unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living" (Ps.27:13).

When we are in despair, it is because deep is calling to deep within us (Ps.42:6-8). The breakers and waves of life have rolled over us. We are now waiting for His commanded loving-kindness to come to us. God works differently in all the tides. His Presence is with us in sure, certain, but different ways.

EXPLORATION, EXPANSION, AND REDISCOVERY

The incoming tide is about EXPLORATION, the discovering of new things. The full tide is about the EXPANSION of our experience in His Majesty and power. The ebb tide is concerned with our REDISCOVERY of the sovereignty and depth of His love for us, so that in the low tide we may learn to APPRECIATE as we contemplate His all-sufficiency. His Presence sustains us as He purifies us.

Wherever you are in the tides and seasons, there is a provision set aside for you in this situation. Ask the Holy Spirit, wait patiently, be drawn into thanksgiving and praise, and you will access the truth of His Presence and taste the joy that is set before you. That deep internal happiness in His love and favour will strengthen you on this next leg of your journey.

Graham Cooke's Office,
PO Box 91,
Southampton, SO15 5ZE,
United Kingdom
Tel/Fax: +44 (0)2380 399133
email: grahamcooke@clara.co.uk
<http://www.grahamcooke.co.uk>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Icon of Spiritual Fathers

Jim Rinker

Exodus 20:4 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness [of any thing] that [is] in heaven above, or that [is] in the earth beneath, or that [is] in the water under the earth

We live in a society which is extremely image based. We are constantly bombarded with images so that our way of thinking can be molded and shaped. As we RECEIVE these images that we are bombarded with, they become GRAVEN or ENGRAVED in our minds to such an extent that TRUTH or REALITY is more associated with the IMAGE than with the authentic.

In sales it is an "image" which is presented to us to try and persuade us to buy a particular product. Now the image is presented in order to "appeal" the graven image in our mind. That image presented to us is either accepted or rejected based upon the graven images that are set up in our minds. When we think of for example, luxury, certain "images" come to mind along with that thought. Now we reject those things presented to us that do not align with the image we have of luxury while we readily receive those that do align with our graven images.

In this hour it is vital that we do not allow any graven image to be set up in our minds. If we do, we will be positioned to fall into deception and reject the Lord when He stands right before us. This is exactly what happened to the Pharisees of Jesus day. Because of the vanity of their own imagination they allowed a false image of the Messiah to invade their minds. When presented with the authentic, He was immediately rejected by them. They truly failed to prepare their hearts to seek the Lord and thus allow the Holy spirit to tear down the high places that were built in their hearts through mental accent towards the Lord.

With this background I want to shift gears to the topic at hand which is spiritual fathers. Paul stated that a major need in the body of Christ to the Corinthians was the restoration of spiritual fathers:

1 Corinthians 4:15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet [have ye] not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

We read in Malachi 4 that it is the Lord's full intention in this last hour to restore spiritual fathers to the body.

Malachi 4: 5 Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD: 6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

Before we continue we need to state that nowhere in this passage does it state what the spiritual fathers would look like once restored, rather only that they would be restored.

Now, this generation in many respects is a "fatherless" generation spiritually. We are desperately in need of spiritual fathers that will add to us as a body God's wisdom to help us to enter into the kingdom of God and the fulness of our inheritance in Christ Jesus. Many have a divine "inner longing" for the restoration of spiritual fathers and seek "to and fro" to find them. One of the reasons why many in the body are running from place to place to find spiritual fathers is because of the graven image or FATHER FIGURE SYNDROME we have.

The father figure syndrome is a SUBSTITUTE for authentic spiritual fathers. The father figure is an image in our mind that we then seek out AS THE AUTHENTIC. Often it is an image we have created in our mind because of a defect in our natural father. Or perhaps it is an image of all the "good" qualities in our natural father. In either case the image is molded and shaped into a "father figure. Only those resembling the graven image are thus accepted by us, all others are rejected.

Due to the father figure image, and our need for spiritual fathers, this generation has a major problem in relating to one another. We are constantly looking to someone who can be a father to us. The problem is not the need for fathers but the graven image that causes us to reject our peers. As for our peers who do not reflect the image, we simply toss them aside in our quest to fill that inner void which we have been robbed of.

Matthew 5:8 Blessed [are] the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

We need to prepare our hearts in order to seek the Lord and see the Lord. Only a pure heart is capable of even seeing the Lord. If not, we too could stand as the Pharisees did right in front of Jesus and reject Him.

What does a spiritual father look like? Are they male or female? Are they young or old? Are they polished or rough? Are they well learned or educationally illiterate? Will they have a position of "leadership" within the body or not? See, all of these images we have allowed to be set up in our heart prevent us (and will prevent us) from seeing THE FATHER within another person. They will prevent us from even getting close enough to each other to even find out if another person has any godly wisdom deposited in them.

I contend that God the Father who wishes to be our spiritual father THROUGH EACH OTHER. When the father figure images are cast down and ground to dust then and only then will we see the spiritual father in one another. Can you hear the wisdom of the Father when He speaks through another peer? Or do we need the "father figure" to speak authoritatively to us and OVER us as a father?

Remember Jesus words....

Matthew 20: 25 But Jesus called them [unto him], and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them. 26 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister; 27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant:

In addition, Peter exhorts us to:

1 Peter 5:5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all [of you] be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

As we humble ourselves and come together and seek the Lord on EQUAL GROUND, humbling ourselves and esteeming others as being higher than ourselves, then the Lord will truly meet this generation and will speak to us as OUR FATHER THROUGH one another. It is the Lord's full intention of fulfilling His word to restore spiritual fathers to the body. It is up to us to cast down our graven images that prevent the spiritual fathers from being restored to the body.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Issue of Judging

Joseph Herrin

(6-20-2000)

The issue of judging, exercising discernment about the appropriateness of the behavior of a brother or sister and offering correction or warning, is a much misunderstood topic. The Bible contains both clear admonitions to judge, as well as warnings against judging. On the surface these admonitions seem to be in contradiction to one another. However, we know that God is not the author of confusion, so there has to be a proper way to view all of these scriptures in harmony with one another.

This has long been a troubling issue for me because as a minister with a prophetic gifting, God often has spoken words of correction, instruction and warning through me. On many occasions these words have not only been rejected, but they have elicited a very vitriolic response from brothers or sisters. Often my character and motives have been attacked because a member of the body did not want to hear truth or allow the Spirit of God to delve into areas of their life that they had walled off from His inspection.

Because I grew up under the influence of the strong men of guilt, condemnation, and shame I have been quick to believe that I must have been in error when the words God had me share with others were rejected. I would look for the tiniest indication that the message of God was influenced and corrupted as it passed through the vessel of my flesh. Did I err in not speaking in love? Did I not have the person's welfare in mind when I spoke to them? Did I let my own feelings of rejection add a harshness to the delivery of the word because I anticipated the message and messenger being rejected and criticized?

I am certain that at times there was some substance to these questions that arose in my mind. However, I am fully convinced that the rejection of correction and warning is most often due to the fact that in the Western world the mass of Christian believers simply do not receive these things well. There is little true discipleship in churches. Members are courted and catered to. Offending a brother is looked upon as the most grievous of offenses. There are too many competing churches to risk offending a brother or sister. It is too easy for them to pack up and go somewhere else where no one will interfere with the way they choose to live their life.

In many ways, the mass of church goers are like spoiled children. They are given everything they want with little required of them in return. As a spoiled child pitches a fit or throws a temper tantrum when told they cannot do something, or when they are corrected, so do many of the saints of God. It is largely because such an atmosphere of tolerance and appeasement has been adopted in the church that the issue of judging has come to be out of vogue and is looked down upon as unkind and uncharitable.

In my confusion, due to the harsh rejection and actual fits that some have thrown when I have spoken correction, instruction, or warning to them, I have often gone back to brothers and sisters and apologized to them for offending them. I felt that certainly I must have been in error in some way, though I could not put a finger on my error even when I sought the Lord diligently to reveal it to me. Over time, as I have seen this pattern repeated, I have come to discern that it was not due to some error on my part that caused the bitter rejection of the words I spoke, rather it was due to immaturity and an ingrained fleshliness that is rampant among the body of Christ.

I might have gone on for a considerable amount of time without resolving this issue had not the Spirit of God prompted me to look further at the issue of judging prompted by an article I read by a prophetess who spoke against judging, and the earnest query of a brother who was also trying to resolve the issue and wanted to know my opinion. When I thought of answering this brother I found that my own opinion was quite unclear and I sensed the witness of the Spirit that He would have me resolve this unsettledness at this time. This study has arisen out of this prompting of the Spirit and I hope that it will also bring clarity to other believers who are struggling with the same issue.

In beginning to look at this issue I would like to begin by mentioning some principles that I believe are scriptural in seeking to interpret scripture. Watchman Nee was a man who was peculiarly gifted in the area of teaching and whose writings have been used of the Lord in my life to bring insight on many occasions. He said the following concerning scripture interpretation: we must never allow what seems to be implied in one scripture to violate or nullify what we know is clearly taught and revealed in another passage.

In saying this, Watchman Nee was stating that scripture must be interpreted in the light of other scripture. “No scripture is of private interpretation” (II Peter 1:20). Scripture is God breathed and must be interpreted in the context of all else that God has revealed to us. Some have taken a particular scripture, that on the surface seems to espouse something, and they have built doctrines around it when there are other scriptures that are much more to the point that reveal that their interpretation could not possibly be correct.

In some ways proper scripture interpretation resembles the game called “Mastermind.” In Mastermind a row of 5 or 6 colored pegs is hidden from the sight of the one trying to solve the puzzle. The player has 10 rows in which he attempts to place pegs of the right colors in the same order as that which is hidden from him. After each attempt he is told how many of the pegs he used were the right color and how many were in the right location in the row. Through a process of elimination he is able to get closer and closer to the right answer until he gets the pegs lined up as an exact match of that which was hidden from him.

In a similar manner, as we look at what one scripture is actually telling us, we must look at the clues given to us in other scriptures to tell us if we are erring in trying to interpret that which is before us. We start with a thought, “Is this scripture saying this?” We then compare it to what we know is told plainly in other scriptures. As we progress we may have to modify our original supposition, and sometimes we may have to wholly abandon it. Through the process we can hopefully come to discern the truth.

In Proverbs we are told “It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, but the glory of kings is to search out a matter” (Proverbs 25:2). In all of this searching we must be sensitive to the leading and prompting of the Holy Spirit.

II Corinthians 3:5-6

5 Not that we are adequate in ourselves to consider anything as coming from ourselves, but our adequacy is from God,
6 who also made us adequate as servants of a new covenant, not of the letter, but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

In looking at the issue of judging I have compared scripture with scripture to arrive at some conclusions. There are so many different admonitions to not judge, as well as those that say we are to judge, that they have to be carefully weighed against one another to determine what God is speaking to us.

In looking at the issue of judging I wanted to answer the question, “What is meant by the admonitions in scripture to not judge our brother?” I will start out by looking at scriptures that tell us to judge, for an understanding of what it means to not judge cannot violate or negate clear examples of when we are to judge.

This study has been a tremendous boon to me personally and has resolved some lingering doubts I have had. I feel like the Father has clarified much as I looked at these scriptures. I pray the same will be true for you.

Admonishments to judge:

In my ‘puzzling’ out this issue of judging I began by looking at scriptures that give instructions to judge. I did this because I wanted to understand the scriptures that say not to judge and I knew they could not violate these admonitions to judge. This is therefore a good starting point. The first scripture comes from our Lord and is found in the book of John.

John 7:24 "Do not judge according to appearance, but judge with righteous judgment."

The words rendered as ‘judge’ in this verse are the Greek word ‘krino’ which accordings to Strongs’ Dictionary is interpreted “to distinguish or decide, and by implication, to try, condemn, or punish.”

The context of this verse is not specifically a command to make judgments. Rather, it is a rebuke to those who make judgments according to appearance, condemning that which God has not condemned. The Jewish leaders were condemning Jesus because He healed on the Sabbath. These are told to not judge by appearance but to judge righteously. This principle of not judging by appearance is reflected in the following prophetic passage of scripture that foretells the coming of Christ.

Isaiah 11:3-4

3 And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and he shall not judge [8199] after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove [3198] after the hearing of his ears:

4 But with righteousness shall he judge [8199] the poor, and reprove [3198] with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked. (KJV)

In this passage the word ‘judge’ is Strong’s number 8199, shaphat (shaw-fat’); meaning to judge or pronounce sentence for or against. By implication, it means to vindicate or punish, and extended out it carries the meaning to govern.

Likewise, the word ‘reprove’ is Strong’s number 3198, yakach (yaw-kahh’); meaning to be right or correct. In application, it means to argue, to decide, justify or convict, appoint, argue, chasten, convince, correct, dispute, judge, maintain, plead, reason (together), rebuke, and reprove.

This scripture is a prophecy of Christ, but as God’s stated purpose for us is to be conformed to the image of His Son, we can by implication draw application to ourselves from this passage. Judging, pronouncing sentence, determining a person’s right standing or wrong standing, or governing is not to be done by what our eyes see, according to appearance. Additionally, reproving, determining what is right or correct, putting forth an argument, making decisions, justifying, or convicting is not to be based upon what we have heard with our ears. In other words, right and wrong is not to be decided through what our physical senses report as it is weighed by our mind.

It is with righteousness that judging and reproving is to be done. What is the source of this righteousness if it does not arise from our reasoning as we evaluate that which is seen and heard?

Psalms 7:11 God is a righteous judge...

Psalms 11:7 For the LORD is righteous; He loves righteousness; the upright will behold His face.

God alone is the source of righteous judgment. As we behold Him we learn of His righteous judgments and we cast off our own judgments formed from what we see and hear. If we are to walk in righteousness, all of our judgments must originate with God lest we find ourselves condemning what God has not condemned and approving what God has not approved. The only acceptable judgment is that which finds its source in God. This is further revealed in the following verse.

John 5:30 "I can do nothing on My own initiative. As I hear, I judge; and My judgment is just, because I do not seek My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me."

Jesus is not referring here to hearing with His physical ears, He is speaking of hearing from God. Jesus’ judgment is in harmony with the Father’s judgment. They are one and the same. Jesus merely speaks that which He hears the Father saying. This is to be our pattern as well.

A further admonishment to judge is found in Paul’s instructions to Timothy.

II Timothy 4:1-2

1 I solemnly charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge [krino] the living and the dead, and by His appearing and His kingdom:

2 preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove [1651], rebuke [2008], exhort, with great patience and instruction.

Timothy, an elder in the body of Christ, is told to refute those in error. ‘Refute’ is Strong’s number 1651, elegcho (el-eng'-kho); meaning “to confute, or admonish.” The word ‘confute’ is defined as: to prove to be false or invalid; convict of error. Timothy is also told to rebuke. The word ‘rebuke’ is Strong’s word 2008, epitimaō (ep-ee-tee-mah'-o); meaning “to tax upon, i.e. censure or admonish; by implication, forbid.”

In this passage we see that Paul is telling Timothy that as an elder and leader in the body of Christ he is to admonish, he is to prove that which is error to be false or invalid, he is to convict of error, he is to censure those who hold to error, and he is to forbid continuing in error.

All of these things required that Timothy had to discern the mind of the Father to know what was false and what was true. As he did so he was to apply himself diligently to keeping the body free from error and clinging to that which was right. In similar manner, Paul exhorted Titus, another elder:

Titus 2:15 These things speak and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no one disregard you.

Paul further elaborated to Titus:

Titus 1:12-13

12 One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons."

13 This testimony is true. For this cause reprove them severely that they may be sound in the faith,

The word ‘reprove’ here is the same word spoken to Timothy. The word ‘severely’ comes from a Greek word meaning “to cut abruptly or peremptorily.” ‘Peremptorily’ is defined as: final, decisive, precluding discussion or hesitation. It should be noted that reproof and rebuke was not always to be given with such sharpness. This instruction was given to Titus due to the nature of the people he was ministering to. However, Paul gave Timothy this qualification on how to address those in the body he ministered to.

I Timothy 5:1-2

1 Do not sharply rebuke an older man, but rather appeal to him as a father, to the younger men as brothers,

2 the older women as mothers, and the younger women as sisters, in all purity.

Through the clear message of these passages we can clearly determine that the admonition to “not judge” found in some scriptures does not preclude an elder from his clear responsibility of correcting, refuting, reproving, rebuking, censuring, etc..

Some further scriptures indicating that there is a proper place for judgment are found in Paul’s instructions to the Corinthian church. These hold a somewhat different application in that these letters were not sent just to those who were elders, but to the body in general.

I Corinthians 5:9-13

9 I wrote you in my letter not to associate with immoral people;

10 I did not at all mean with the immoral people of this world, or with the covetous and swindlers, or with idolaters; for then you would have to go out of the world.

11 But actually, I wrote to you not to associate with any so-called brother if he should be an immoral person, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or a swindler-- not even to eat with such a one.

12 For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Do you not judge those who are within the church

13 But those who are outside, God judges. Remove the wicked man from among yourselves.

This passage indicates that the church is to discern who among the body are immoral, covetous, idolaters, revilers, drunkards, or swindlers. This discernment was to be followed with action. If the person would not repent they were to be shunned and the believer was not to even share a meal with such a one. In the same passage Paul corrected any misconception that this judging was to apply to those outside of the church. It is not the responsibility of the church to judge those outside of the church. Paul states that God will judge these.

In verse 12 Paul asks a rhetorical question, “Do you not judge those who are within the church?” Again, the word ‘judge’ here is the Greek word Krino which is interpreted “to distinguish or decide, and by implication, to try, condemn, or punish.”

That which precipitated this message to the Corinthian believers was the presence of sin in the body that was being tolerated, rather than exposed, confronted and dealt with. Paul speaks of those who were coming to partake of the Lord’s supper who were getting drunk and behaving gluttonously. Additionally, he addresses the issue of a man who was partaking of all of the rights of fellowship among the body when he was in gross immorality having taken his father's wife for himself.

Paul clearly states that such sins are not to be ignored or glanced over. The members of the body are to discern those who are walking in gross disobedience and to reprove them for their error. If they will not repent they are to be ostracized, excluded from the privileges of fellowship.

By this we can deduce that any scripture speaking against judging does not forbid the actions that Paul states here are the clear responsibility of the body of Christ; to discern that which is blatant sin and to reprove those who are in sin, refusing to associate with them if they will not repent. Paul gives further instructions to the Corinthian believers regarding judging.

I Corinthians 6:2-3, 5

2 Or do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you not competent to constitute the smallest law courts?

3 Do you not know that we shall judge angels? How much more, matters of this life?

5 I say this to your shame. Is it so, that there is not among you one wise man who will be able to decide [diakrino] between his brethren...

The word 'decide' found in verse 5 is Strongs' number 1252, diakrino (dee-ak-ree'-no); meaning "to separate thoroughly, that is to withdraw from, or by implication to oppose. It also means to discriminate.

Again, this passage is prompted by the disobedience of the members of the body who were suing one another in civil courts. This body was very divisive, having different factions who claimed loyalty to different men. Some claimed they were of Paul, some of Apollos, some of Cephas, and some of Jesus Christ. This divisiveness extended even into the arena of legal disputes and many were taking one another to court to their own shame.

Paul rebukes them for this and chides them for not being able to resolve their issues among themselves. He tells them they will judge the world and even angels. How much more should they be able to make simple judgments among themselves. In verse 5 Paul is asking them, "Can no wise man be found among you who can divide a matter and resolve it to its root issue, discriminating between right and wrong?" This was something the church should certainly handle themselves.

In this we can further deduce that any word against judging cannot be interpreted as infringing upon this obvious responsibility of the body to settle disputes among itself, even disputes that would be considered of a civil nature. The body is to police itself. They are to discern right and wrong from God's righteous perspective and conduct their daily lives according to the dictates of what they have discerned.

Besides these clear admonitions to judge, we are also given examples of judgments being rendered.

Examples of judging in the church:

I Timothy 1:19-20

19 keeping faith and a good conscience, which some have rejected and suffered shipwreck in regard to their faith.

20 Among these are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have delivered over to Satan, so that they may be taught not to blaspheme.

We previously looked at a scripture where Paul said that it was none of his business to judge those outside of the church, so these two, Hymanaeus and Alexander, were obviously within the church. These two are accused of violating both their faith and their conscience and they have entered into blasphemy. Paul, an apostle, has therefore delivered them over to Satan. This he similarly did to the man we mentioned before who took his father's wife to himself. It is described that turning one over to Satan is "for the destruction of his flesh that his spirit might be preserved in the day of judgment" (I Corinthians 5:5).

This then is not a judgment unto eternal damnation. The intent of the judgment is actually with the well being of the person's eternal spirit in mind. It is significant here that it is an apostle who is the instrument of this judgment. Paul was given authority over the churches who were influenced by these men. He was thereby exercising the authority granted to him. This issue of authority will be looked at later.

Gal 5:12 Would that those who are troubling you would even mutilate themselves.

These strong words of Paul were elicited due to the presence of Judaisers coming into the Galatian church and putting them back under bondage to the law and causing them to abandon the teaching they had received of salvation through faith in Christ. Again, although we are not told that Paul turned such ones over to Satan or instituted any other type of discipline, he has clearly made a judgment concerning their activities and the severe nature of the punishment they deserved.

In all of these scriptures we see that Christians are taught to be discerning. Other scriptures exhort believers to examine the fruit of people's lives to know whether their teaching is of God or not. Elders, apostles and the other ministers that God gave to the body to bring her to maturity are especially given command to discern error and take steps to correct those in opposition to the truth and to the will of God. Any admonition against judging, therefore, cannot negate the validity of these activities that Christians are charged with.

One qualification upon these responsibilities is that they should be done within the scope of the authority given to a person. It would be inappropriate for a minister of one body to tend to the life of another body over which he has no authority, responsibility, or relationship. Paul makes this clear in his letter to the church at Corinth.

II Corinthians 10:8, 13-15

8 For even if I should boast somewhat further about our authority, which the Lord gave for building you up and not for destroying you, I shall not be put to shame...

13 But we will not boast beyond our measure, but within the measure [metron] of the sphere which God apportioned to us as a measure [metron], to reach even as far as you.

14 For we are not overextending ourselves, as if we did not reach to you, for we were the first to come even as far as you in the gospel of Christ;

15 not boasting beyond our measure, that is, in other men's labors, but with the hope that as your faith grows, we shall be, within our sphere [kanon], enlarged even more by you...

Paul in this passage is speaking of the authority given to Him by Christ. This authority was for the purpose of building them up, of bringing them to maturity. Paul states here that the thing he is forced to boast in is in the authority given to him. He says he will not boast beyond his measure, that is the measure of the authority granted him. He testifies that his authority extends to the Corinthian believers.

The word 'measure' here is Strong's' number 3358, metron (met'-ron); meaning "a measure ("metre"), literally or figuratively; by implication a limited portion." Paul is saying that his authority was assigned to him by Christ. He received a measure of authority that had certain limits as to its scope. The Corinthian believers fell within the scope of authority allotted to him.

Paul states that this authority correlated to the scope of his own labors. He said that he would not boast beyond his measure, in other men's labors. We know that the Corinthian church was one Paul labored in. He testified that he "planted, Apollos watered, but God brought the increase" (I Corinthians 3:6).

In verse 15 Paul uses another Greek word which is rendered 'sphere' This word is Strong's' number 2583, kanon (kan-ohn'), which has the implied meaning of a boundary, or a sphere of activity. Paul was very active in making judgments, exercising discipline, refuting, correcting, reproving, etc., in the Corinthian church. This was in keeping with the authority entrusted to him. It would have been inappropriate for him to exercise this same authority outside the sphere of responsibility entrusted to him.

Similarly, it is inappropriate for saints today to meddle in affairs outside of the scope of the authority entrusted to them. No saint is given a license to go around making judgments about things that he has not been granted authority in. A believer should always make certain that he remains within the measure [metron] and the sphere [kanon] entrusted to him by Christ.

This leads us to look at another realm of judging that is off limits. Paul spoke in Romans 14, of the error of one saint judging another over issues that the scriptures do not give clear directions in.

Romans 14:3-4, 10-13

- 3 Let not him who eats regard with contempt him who does not eat, and let not him who does not eat judge him who eats, for God has accepted him.
- 4 Who are you to judge the servant of another? To his own master he stands or falls; and stand he will, for the Lord is able to make him stand...
- 10 But you, why do you judge your brother? Or you again, why do you regard your brother with contempt? For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of God.
- 11 For it is written, "As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to Me, and every tongue shall give praise to God."
- 12 So then each one of us shall give account of himself to God.
- 13 Therefore let us not judge one another anymore, but rather determine this-- not to put an obstacle or a stumbling block in a brother's way.

This type of judging is nothing short of meddling. There are certain issues that are described as issues of conscience in the Bible. They are not necessarily evil in themselves, but to the one who believes it is wrong, it becomes wrong to him. Those who try to enforce the dictates of their conscience upon others are becoming false judges of their brethren. It may not violate one brother's conscience to do something that another considers inappropriate Christian behavior. These are not to judge one another. They are responsible for their own lives before God. Again, this epistle is not aimed at leadership, but to the body in general. Those who are mature should not need such an admonition.

Passages that speak against judging:

Having looked at scriptures that instruct us to judge, we can now look at scriptures that speak against judging. We must keep in mind in trying to understand these latter scriptures that they cannot violate what we have already looked at, that is, admonitions to judge. A harmony must be found in our interpretation.

Romans 1:32-2:4

- 32 and, although they know the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, they not only do the same, but also give hearty approval to those who practice them.
- 1 Therefore you are without excuse, every man of you who passes judgment, for in that you judge another, you condemn yourself; for you who judge practice the same things.
- 2 And we know that the judgment of God rightly falls upon those who practice such things.
- 3 And do you suppose this, O man, when you pass judgment upon those who practice such things and do the same yourself, that you will escape the judgment of God?
- 4 Or do you think lightly of the riches of His kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance?

On the surface it appears that Paul is saying that all who pass judgment are condemning themselves. This is not the case, however. Paul is teaching that one brings condemnation on himself when he judges another to be in sin if he practices the same sin. The principle is again similar to the one just mentioned about sins of conscience, if you know that something is wrong then you are condemned if you do it. This is reflected in the scripture, "by the judgment you judge others, you shall be judged."

God demonstrated this principle when the prophet Nathan confronted David with his sin with Bathsheba, the wife of Uriah the Hittite. Nathan told David a story of a rich man who by force took away the single lamb of a poor man and served it to his guest. David discerned that this man had acted wickedly and he condemned him and said he should be punished. God, having thus proved that David did discern between right and wrong, then told David through Nathan, "You are the man." David's sin was all the more reprehensible because he knew clearly that it was evil that he was doing.

Matthew 7:1-5

- 1 "Do not judge lest you be judged.
- 2 "For in the way you judge, you will be judged; and by your standard of measure, it will be measured to you.
- 3 "And why do you look at the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye?
- 4 "Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' and behold, the log is in your own eye?

5 "You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye.

Again, on the surface this scripture seems to be speaking against all judgment. However, we know from the scriptures we have previously looked at that many types of judgment are not only permissible, they are mandated, and disobedience is ascribed to those who fail to exercise the types of discernment and correction spoken of. Therefore, our Lord cannot be teaching that all judgment is in error.

A closer look at the passage reveals that what is being spoken against is hypocrisy, focusing on the sins of your brother while ignoring your own sins of a greater magnitude. A warning is also given that we will receive from God the same measure that we dispense to others. If we are harsh and critical, condemning without mercy those in error, we will receive the same. If we are gentle and merciful, we will also receive mercy. Paul spoke a similar message to the Galatian believers.

Galatians 6:1 Brethren, even if a man is caught in any trespass, you who are spiritual, restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; each one looking to yourself, lest you too be tempted.

As Jesus did, Paul exhorts the saints to consider that they too can be tempted and for this reason, since none of us are perfect before God, we need to exhibit an attitude of compassion and gentleness toward one another. Our goal in reproving a brother should not be condemnation, but rather restoration. This is the focus of the following verse.

II Corinthians 7:3 I do not speak to condemn you; for I have said before that you are in our hearts to die together and to live together.

This final passage that I will examine is perhaps a little tougher to understand than the others.

James 4:11-12

11 Do not speak against one another, brethren. He who speaks against a brother, or judges his brother, speaks against the law, and judges the law; but if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge of it.

12 There is only one Lawgiver and Judge, the One who is able to save and to destroy; but who are you who judge your neighbor?

The phrase "He who speaks against a brother, or judges his brother, speaks against the law, and judges the law" is somewhat difficult to comprehend. The International Standard Bible Encyclopedia gives the following understanding of what James is actually referring to, describing it as the sin of detraction.

"The wrong thing condemned as evil-speaking seems to be essentially detraction, what is hurtful to the reputation, and it is often too lightly regarded even among Christians." (from International Standard Bible Encyclopedia, Electronic Database Copyright (C) 1996 by Biblesoft)

The Treasury of Scripture Knowledge correlates this passage to the following found in I Peter.

I Peter 2:1 Therefore, putting aside all malice and all guile and hypocrisy and envy and all slander...

These sources indicate that it is not correcting a brother that is being spoken against, nor is being discerning and opposing evil forbidden. What James is referring to is slandering a brother, or acting in a malicious manner toward him through bringing unjust judgments against him.

The following comments from Matthew Henry's Commentary sheds even greater light on this difficult passage and make its contents intelligible.

I. We are cautioned against the sin of evil-speaking: Speak not evil one of another, brethren, v. 11. The Greek word, katalaleite, signifies speaking any thing that may hurt or injure another; we must not speak evil things of others, though they be true, unless we be called to it, and there be some necessary occasion for them; much less must we report evil things when they are false, or, for aught we know, may be so. Our lips must be guided by the law of kindness, as well as truth and justice. This, which Solomon makes a necessary part of the character of his virtuous woman, that she openeth her mouth with wisdom, and in her tongue is the law of kindness <Prov. 31:26>, must needs be a part of the character of every true Christian. Speak not evil one of another, 2. Because this is to judge the law: He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law. The law of Moses says, Thou shalt not go up and down as a tale-bearer among thy people, <Lev. 19:16>. The law of Christ is, Judge not, that you be not judged, <Mt. 7:1>. The sum and substance of both is that men should love one another. A detracting tongue therefore condemns the law of God, and the commandment of Christ, when it is defaming its neighbour. To break God's commandments is in effect to speak evil of them, and to judge them, as if they were too strict, and laid too great a restraint upon us. The Christians to whom James wrote were apt to speak very hard things of one another, because of their differences about indifferent things (such as the observance of meats and days, as appears from Rom. 14): "Now," says the apostle, "he who censures and condemns his brother for not agreeing with him in those things which the law of God has left indifferent thereby censures and condemns the law, as if it had done ill in leaving them indifferent. He who quarrels with his brother, and condemns him for the sake of any thing not determined in the word of God, does thereby reflect on that word of God, as if it were not a perfect rule..." (from Matthew Henry's Commentary)

The report of all of these references is that what James is discussing is not discernment and judgment, but rather slander and detraction that arises out of malice and a lack of kindness towards a brother. Such a brother becomes a judge of the law because he attempts to add things to the law, not being content with what God chose to include there. For example, such a brother may try to condemn another who observes certain days, when the scriptures do not include an injunction against doing so.

That James is referring to brothers that are treating one another maliciously is further borne out in the verses that precede this passage.

James 4:1, 2 (Amplified Bible)

- 1 What leads to strife (discord and feuds) and how do conflicts (quarrels and fighting) originate among you? Do they not arise from your sensual desires that are ever warring in your bodily members?
- 2 You are jealous and covet [what others have] and your desires go unfulfilled; [so] you become murderers. [ To hate is to murder as far as your hearts are concerned]. You burn with envy and anger and are not able to obtain [the gratification, the contentment, and the happiness that you seek], so you fight and war...

It is clear that James is not speaking of the discernment and judgment that Paul admonished the church to pursue and exercise. James was addressing those who were maligning and condemning one another falsely; those who were destroying one another's reputations without a just cause. They were self-seeking and consumed with lust and envy toward one another. This is a far cry from the brother who desires to walk in humble obedience before God, and from the elder and minister who is charged with correcting those who have embraced error.

In conclusion, it is apparent that the injunctions against judging can only be understood in the light of all the scriptures taken together. Righteous judgment is never condemned, the judgment that originates with God and is made known as we observe Him. Judgment is to be exercised with the end result of restoration in mind and with a spirit of gentleness, except in extreme cases as in Paul's instructions to Titus, remembering that we too can stumble. Additionally, judgment is to be practiced within the sphere of one's own measure of authority as granted by Jesus Christ. Furthermore, we are not to judge brothers over issues of conscience of which the scriptures remain indifferent.

It should be always held in mind that "by the measure we measure to others, it will be measured to us." If we desire mercy, we should be merciful to one another. We are not to wink at sin, but neither are we to attack a brother unmercifully. As we move into greater intimacy with the Father and observe His heart and His ways, and as we allow Him to produce holiness in our own lives, we will be better able to instruct one another in the way of holiness.

The fleshly church today does not practice the injunctions of scripture to police itself. Many believers are pandered to by the leadership of the church. Correction and warning often involve confrontation and many shy away from things that are difficult. However, it is erroneous to teach that judgment should not be practiced within the body of Christ. We are to judge, discern, reprove, rebuke, etc., within the sphere of our individual authority, but it must be done with the mind of Christ.

There are many other scriptures that have bearing upon the issue of judging. I have tried to choose ones that are representative of the whole. In looking at other Bible passages keep in mind that the interpretation of one scripture cannot violate what is clearly taught in another.

This article and others can be found at web site: heart4god.8k.com bherrin@hotmail.com

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Invasion of the Locust

Jim Johnson

This dream/vision was given to me on 4-28-00.

I fell asleep in my chair and started to dream. There were people as far as I could see everywhere milling around. Some of them were putting out fires. The landscape was barren. People started moving to the east walking. There was a train moving slowly. Some were riding the train. Lots of confusion everywhere.

I woke up then and went to bed but not to sleep. As I kept my eyes shut the vision kept on going. Once I opened them and looked out the window and the vision stopped. As soon as I shut my eyes the vision started again.

Suddenly everyone was going west in heavy coats and carrying everything they could. It was harsh. There were thousands and thousands of people. The train had disappeared. The people kept on moving west. I was then told this is about the invasion of the cutting locust of the book of Joel. I was told that this was the year 06.

Next the people were carrying empty boxes as they had consumed what was in the boxes. Things were very grim although I did not see any specific deaths. The people were throwing their money away in the streets as it was no good and heavy to carry. Some of the time during this I was telling people to repent. Nobody was saying anything much. Some people were helping others.

I was then standing in the middle of the United States near my home, handing out morsels of bread with my wife to my right handing out other food. I see that the Lord is multiplying the food as I don't seem to run out of bread. The vast amount of people is starting to slow down and thin out. Then the people stopped coming and the weather is getting warmer. At a time later, things are starting to green up and settle down.

One thing that was noticed was that there were no small children. All were adults or older people.

Other significant dreams and events I have had that I know came from the Lord.

In the first dream I had many years ago about the subject of little food, I walked into a clearing and the people came out of the trees and their faces were so thin I could see their bones of their faces. I don't know if this was in the United States or Vietnam.

In 98 The Lord told me in a dream to get ready to feed people.

I had asked for of layoff/retirement from my company. I was notified on the holiday of Purim. My first day in retirement was Passover. I knew that this was from the Lord as He was getting me ready for something in the future.

In 98 in a dream the Lord told me to get ready to live without electricity.

The Lord gave me some extra money and told me it was not for me to spend on my family but to help others that are hungry.

The Lord told me in 99 to get ready to use high sulfur fuel. This is an area that the Lord caused me to be knowledgeable in, but I still need to make preparations.

The Lord told me in 99 that much of the book of Ezekiel was about the United States. When one studies history and Ezekiel this becomes very obvious. He gave us a clue that was so obvious that it is hard to miss. I never saw it for years until I had help.

In the middle of April 00, the Lord showed me in a dream a fine dining room with tables chairs and lights on and no one in there, except for a thing that had no head, arms or legs showing, covered in black cloth coming through a door from the back of the building.

There is no doubt from what the Lord showed me in the dream/vision "The Invasion of the Locust" and what the Lord has told others, part of the book of Joel are about to be fulfilled in the United States. Joel 2:3-9 seems to be describing a tank invasion which has been prophesied by others against the U.S. In the first chapter there is also described a famine along with the invasion of the locust.

A very interesting side note. Two days after the Lord gave me this dream/vision about the locust, I received an E-Mail from a friend that told me of the problems with the locust in Australia. Here are three links with the news story. I am not endorsing the news story but using it to help explain what the Lord is warning me about.

Australian Plague Locust Commission <http://www.affa.gov.au/aplc/>

Australia Faces Plague of Locusts (BBC) http://news.bbc.co.uk/1/hi/english/world/asia-pacific/newsid\_727000/727673.stm

God's own country fights off biblical swarms of locusts (Guardian)
<http://www.guardianunlimited.co.uk/international/story/0,3604,214923,00.html>

May the Lord bless you,

Jim Johnson

My E-mail address is jimj@ptsi.net

My web site is The Perfect Word of the Lord at <http://www.gruver.net/jimj/>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Time of Attack

Glenn Jackson

June 3, 2000:

ONLY THOSE WHO HAVE AN "ACTIVE OVERCOMING FAITH" ABIDING IN THEIR :
HEARTS....SHALL COME THROUGH THIS TIME OF ATTACK AND CONFRONTATION BY THE ENEMY

"This is a time wherein My bondservants and handmaidens who have been faithful to Me through these years of turmoil and strife and division in the midst of the congregations, shall be exalted; for the time wherein the "sinner" seems to have "prospered" has come to an end!

For truly I say to you there shall be such a great "influx" of demonic activity in every place among My children, where there is "ground" given and the "destroyer" shall come forth to destroy, the "thief" shall come forth to steal and the "murderer" shall come forth to kill.

Only those who have an "active overcoming faith" abiding in their hearts - these things being a product of godly diligence and obedience to My command to separate themselves unto My Word and enter that place of "abiding", apart from the world - shall come through this time of attack and confrontation by the Enemy.

THIS IS AN HOUR OF "CONFRONTATION"

As I look out upon the hearts of My children, I still see many who are "content" to some degree to hold the reigns of their life and truly I say to you, this is a most dangerous thing!

For Satan will surely take that ground given and turn that one's heart against My true purposes and plans and in "allowing" themselves to be deceived, they shall SURELY - as they continue on their "misguided path" - run directly into the "point" of the sword of My Spirit in the form of My beloved handmaidens and bondservants speaking the Word which I give them to speak in that hour of "confrontation".

And many shall be "grievously" convicted of their sin and their rebellion and many others shall perish because in their heart they cannot conceive that they "in themselves" could ever be wrong. Such is the danger of the darkness which pervades the nature of the flesh and such is the seriousness of the call to close and intimate fellowship with Me.

For indeed, without the "required" time in My presence, that is, "all of the time" (abiding) My children will surely be deceived and be overcome by a "spirit of self-exaltation".

"BLESSED IS THE ONE THAT TRUSTS ONLY IN ME"

Have I not spoken before of this "absolute judgement" upon My household? - a time wherein each man's work shall become evident so that even the deepest thoughts and intentions and motivations of all who have "taken" My Name shall become evident?

Blessed is the one who trusts ONLY in Me, for there is nothing that can stop that one from accomplishing all that I have created them for, and in knowing this in their hearts they shall go on to a most glorious path and they shall be bright lights in the midst of this crooked and perverse generation - a generation that causes My wrath and My fury to rise up upon every remembrance of their existence!

Fear not My beloved ones! For I am with you always - even to the end of the age. And this is the end of the age.

Hold fast!

Continue faithfully in the "small things" that I might bring forth the "large things" that I have prepared for you.

Take no pre-conceived notions or thoughts, only abide, knowing that I shall surely reveal to you the deepest thoughts and intentions of My heart - purposes which shall astound and confound the peoples of the earth, for they shall indeed see My presence abiding in - and resting upon - all those of My children who truly love Me.

And this shall happen to such a great degree that they will have no comparison from any of their past experiences - "spiritual" or otherwise - and they shall clearly see that Jesus is Lord of Lords and King of kings - whether they "choose" to believe it or not!

"I SHALL EXALT THE NAME OF MY BELOVED SON ABOVE "ALL ELSE"

For I shall exalt the name of My beloved Son above "all else" in this last hour and the foolish plans of Satan, and all those who choose to believe his lies above My truth (Word) shall crumble and "evaporate" regardless of how "omnipotent" they may have appeared to be. I have sat back and waited for My perfect time to "unleash" the fullness of My Spirit upon the earth, and truly I say to you, I have prepared a selected and chosen" few to lead all those who "truly" love Me, home.

Take heed of these Words for as the manifestation of My glorious Church comes forth boldly and triumphantly, it shall be "non-stop" supernaturally until the catching away of My true Church.

Go forth to where I lead you and proclaim boldly My absoluteness and the need for My children to abide in My absolute Provision; for even now My mighty and glorious angels stand ready, rank upon rank, to devastate all the forces of darkness, and My holy apostles and prophets stand ready in "perfect position" to carry out My every Word of My command!

For indeed Satan's "day" is over and he has exhausted every plan and scheme to divide, and thus defeat, My children and now I shall build My true Church through the "supernatural" power of My Spirit and indeed that same Spirit, the Spirit of love, shall abound in the hearts of My elect and they shall be tremendous signs and wonders - both in word and deed - and the fullness of My power shall "inundate" their every word and all the nations shall see My sons and daughters as they are in the fullness of Christ and many, in seeing the "true heritage" of My children, shall drop ALL to take their place with Me"....

GLENN H. JACKSON

JTL MINISTRIES

<http://www.easynet.ca/~jtlmin>

jtlmin@easynet.ca

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The In-Coming President

Joni Ames

In this dream, Roberts Liardon had been elected president. I knew that it was a good thing. My thought was, "I know him personally and he is a God-fearing spirit filled man with a prophetic nature." In the dream, we were good friends. (In the natural I don't know RL personally.)

He had just taken office, and I was at the White House with him and a handful of other Christian friends. Something very disturbing had just been discovered by one of them while praying in an upper room of the White House. We walked up the stairway, into an attic type of room, while the secret service men stayed at the bottom.

Although an "attic" room, it was very clean and light. At the top of the stairs, you could see out a window all across Washington, DC. It was an amazing, detailed view.

There was an end table just around the corner at the top of the stairs, with a large lamp, and a stack of papers. This is what we were there to look at.

Although I don't recall all of the details now, in the dream I saw every detail - small print - signatures of the heads of many countries - and could read what the directives each paper was for. As we all looked at these papers, we were shocked.

Roberts spoke first, "My God. No wonder it was so easy to be elected. This has all been planned for the past four years....to happen during the next president's term. They WANTED me in office so that when these things happen, this administration will be blamed. They've sold us out. All of us. They've literally sold off the United States. Look..." (suddenly there is a map of the USA, and the entire eastern half is darkened) "Once this all happens, he'll still be in charge of the other half."

The papers were decrees to start wars with other countries; to sell off large portions of our land to other countries; to place sanctions on certain countries; to give certain rights away; to impose controlling laws, etc.

I said, "Roberts, there is still hope. God is greater. There is always prayer."

He said, "We all better pray real hard, because as it stands, this is a done deal - signed, sealed and delivered by the heads of all these countries. We really need God's help now more than ever."

As we continued to review the documents, there were severe taxes, economic sanctions, martial law, etc., that were going to have to be implemented as a result of whatever had been done to make things look so good during the past administration. - It was like the future administration was the dumping grounds for past mistakes.

INTREPRETATION: Roberts Liardon is known for his book and tape series, "GOD'S GENERALS," so I believe he stood for George Bush, who I believe is possibly one of God's Generals in the political realm today. I believe I was representative of the Church (always referred to as a she). I believe we as the Church really need to lift the future president up and pray for him, and that this dream just shows that there is much in line that whoever is elected will have to deal with that is already in motion as a result of past administrations' doings. - The end table with the lamp around the corner I believe stood for the fact that, "the end is just around the corner and we as the Church MUST dedicate ourselves to pray at HIS lampstand and remain in HIS upper room so that light may be shed where it is needed and that we may receive proper instruction and direction from the Lord."

Joni Ames

P.O. Box 427

Moravian Falls, NC 28654

E-mail: JoniAmes@aol.com

Website: <http://members.aol.com/joniames>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Joy of the Lord

Paul Baylis

One man's prophetic experience.

"Then I was in a different place, beholding a worship service in a little Church. As sometimes happens in a prophetic experience, I just seemed to know everything about everyone in the battered little room. All were experiencing severe trials in their lives, but they were not even thinking of them here. They were not praying about their needs. They were all trying to compose songs of thanksgiving to the Lord. They were happy, and their joy was sincere."

"I saw heaven, and all of heaven was weeping. I then saw the Father again and knew why heaven was weeping. They were weeping because of the tears in the eyes of the Father. This little group of seemingly beaten down, struggling people had moved God so deeply that He wept. They were not tears of pain, but of joy. When I saw the love that He felt for these few worshipers, I could not contain my own tears."

"Nothing I had experienced gripped me more than this scene. Worshiping the Lord on earth was now more desirable to me than dwelling in all of the glory of heaven. Genuine adoration expressed by even the most humble believer on earth could cause all of heaven to rejoice, but even more than that, it touches the Father."

"I saw Jesus standing next to the Father. Beholding the joy of the Father as He watched the little prayer meeting, He turned to me and said," "Your worship can cause Him joy every day. Your worship when you are in the midst of your difficulties touches Him even more than all of the worship of heaven. Here, where His glory is seen, the angels cannot help but to worship. When you worship without seeing His glory in the midst of your trials, that is worship in Spirit and truth. Worship the Father, not for what you will receive, but to bring Him joy. You will never be stronger that when you bring Him joy, for the joy of the Lord is your strength."

Bow down Your ear, O LORD, hear me; for I am poor and needy. Preserve my life, for I am holy; you are my God; save Your servant who trusts in You! Be merciful to me, O Lord, for I cry to You all day long. Rejoice the soul of Your servant, for to You, O Lord, I lift up my soul. For You, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive, and abundant in mercy to all those who call upon You. Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer; and attend to the voice of my supplications. In the day of my trouble I will call upon You, for You will answer me. Among the gods there is none like You, O Lord; nor are there any works like Your works. All nations whom You have made shall come and worship before You, O Lord, and shall glorify Your name. For You are great, and do wondrous things; you alone are God. Teach me Your way, O LORD; I will walk in Your truth; Unite my heart to fear Your name. I will praise You, O Lord my God, with all my heart, and I will glorify Your name forevermore. (Ps 86:1-12 NKJ)

Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, To God our Savior, who alone is wise, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen. (Jude 1:24-25 NKJ)

Paul & Debbie Baylis

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Joseph Mantle

Doug Patterson

July 24, 2000

My Spirit is moving across the land. It is a time of reunion. It is a time of standing with brother and sister hand in hand praying and believing for the breakthrough. Get ready to taste the victory of the Lord. I have called you by name, now I assemble you as a mighty army ready to move from house to house caring for the needs of others, praying one for another and all together gathering and seeking My face.

This is a year of intercession. This is a year of the Father calling you to the Throne Room. I have prepared the coat of many colors. I have mixed in the nations, the ministries, the churches, the warriors. They have been woven into a garment of praise. It is like Joseph's coat. It will be My mantle that I will put upon My apostolic church. Each thread is as important as the other, for without one portion of the garment, one expression of praise of a certain color or pattern, it will not be complete. It is here at this time and season to wear. It shall be worn by My people as they humble themselves and pray, for they shall not be cold but shall be comforted. For the Father shall even come and wrap the garment, the cloak around the shoulders of His people. The children are gathering at the footstool of the Lord. For He has a declaration that shall be whispered into the ears of His people, a word of comfort, a word of hope, a word of covenant. For this is His family, the family of God.

Intercessors For Jesus Ministries

P.O. Box 172

Fergus, Ontario N1M 1N0

Now He who searches the heart knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God. Romans 8:27

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Kingdom Coming in Power

Edwin Stube

The time is fast approaching when we will experience a full manifestation of the glory of God and the fullness of His reign in power. Jesus told His disciples, in the hearing of a larger group of people: There are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God come with power. This amazing statement is quoted in all three of the synoptic Gospels (Matthew 16:28, Mark 9:1, and Luke 9:27) and is immediately followed by the account of Jesus' transfiguration on the mountain; and then, upon the descent from the mountain, the healing of the epileptic boy. This series of events presents a two-fold promise: the promise of entering into the glory of God and that of knowing the power of the Kingdom in its fullness.

The transfiguration of Jesus represents a partial fulfillment of the first part of this promise: the manifestation of God's glory. Jesus here is presented as Who He really is, the King of glory, dazzlingly bright and radiant with the glory of the Father. On His descent from the mountain, Jesus was confronted with an epileptic boy who had been brought to the disciples for healing. Jesus' ability to set him free, when the disciples could not, was a manifestation of the power and authority of the Kingdom. This represented a partial fulfillment of the second part of the promise.

Both the transfiguration of Jesus on the mountain and the manifestation of the power of His Kingship were linked with the death and resurrection of Jesus. As Jesus prepared to go to His death in Jerusalem, He said, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified" (John 12:23). The sacrifice of Christ as well as His resurrection are manifestations of the Kingdom. Jesus also said, "I have authority to lay down My life, and authority to take it up again" (John 10:18).

Although the promise was made publicly, only three of Jesus' closest disciples were chosen for the ascent of the mountain. Even they were not able fully to look upon the transfigured Jesus because they were cowering in fear. The sight was more than they could take. In fact, Jesus knew that no one then living would be able to comprehend the momentous revelation given on the mountain, because He told the disciples not to speak of what they had experienced until after His resurrection.

The glory and the manifestation of the Kingdom in power are the inheritance of those who know the death and the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. They have died with Christ and have risen with Him. They know the suffering of His Cross that they may know the joy of His resurrection. The death and the resurrection of Jesus are the key to seeing His glory. For those who have entered into the resurrection life of Jesus, not only is it possible to look on the glory, but to share in that glory. In Jesus' High Priestly prayer recorded in John 17, Jesus prayed for us that we would be one with Him in His glorification. In 2 Corinthians 3, Paul affirms that: The Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being changed into His likeness from one degree of glory to another. 2 Corinthians 3:17, 18 RSV. The Greek word metamorphoometha, which is here translated "changed," is from the same root as that used in the Matthew and Mark account of Jesus' transfiguration which is translated "transfigured."

Now, as then, the Lord chooses those who are living in the closest possible relationship with Him to receive the manifestation of His glory. These are allowed to enter with Jesus into the most intimate fellowship with His heavenly Father. What could not be fully grasped by those three disciples on the mountain is available to those who know experientially His resurrection life. The time is here for the Lord to bring us fully into His presence on His Holy Mountain to behold the King in His glory and to be transformed into His likeness.

Experiencing the Kingdom in power is contingent upon prayer and faith. When the disciples asked Jesus why they could not deliver the epileptic boy, He stressed the need for prayer. He no doubt referred to the kind of prayer that the disciples had just seen Him do on the mountain. Entrance into the presence of the glory of God on the Mountain is a prerequisite for the manifestation of His power in the valley. Jesus chided the disciples for their inadequate faith. Faith to minister in the power of the Spirit requires a close enough relationship with Him so that we can hear His specific instructions in every situation and then say and do exactly what He tells us. John quoted Jesus as saying that, if we ask anything according to His will, He will do it. Hearing instructions is the prerequisite. Obedience is faith in action.

Clearly, Jesus' promises of seeing the glory and the manifestation of the Kingdom in power are available for us now and not just for the time when they were given nor are they for some remote time in the future. This is the hour for which the whole creation groans as in travail, awaiting the manifestation of the sons of God (Romans 8:18,23). Who are the sons of God? Jesus, the pattern Son, was made perfect through suffering that He might bring many sons to glory (Hebrews 2:10). All who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God (Romans 8:14).

The Lord is calling us to go up His Holy Mountain with Jesus to gaze with unveiled face upon His glory, to enter into His glorious presence, to be clothed with glory as Jesus was. From there, we will descend into the valleys and deserts of the world to manifest His glory, and to minister the love and the power of Jesus for the restoration and fulfillment of His purposes in this earth. How will we respond to God's call in this hour?

Rev. Edwin Stube <Ebstube@aol.com>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Kindred Nation

Russell Walden

The vision expressed in the term "Kindred Nation" is that of an emerging economy of God in our day that will eclipse any historical movement or dispensation in recorded history.

Around the world there are believers who have found themselves outside the camp of the Christian Religious System. They love God, but they have no use for the religious death men so brazenly have called the "Church of the Living God".

These are the discontented, the distressed and indebted misfits who have been invited to leave "respectable" churches and groups because they did not fit, they would not be "gathered by men" and cast into the fires of their own burning (John 15:6).

My heart's cry to these disenfranchised brothers and sisters is that a day is dawning in which God is validating you, my brother and sister, not as members of the prevailing religious system but as citizens of a nation of kings and priests.

To those of the last day Elijah company I remind you with all due respect to your suffering and isolation for His name:

1 Kin 19:18 Yet I have left [me] seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed him. You are not alone, my friend. I extend to you the Kinship of fellow vagabonds, from across America, from the coasts of both the Pacific and the Atlantic, reaching even to South Africa and beyond. Out of the Ashes of the failed religious systems of our day, there is emerging a new Economy, a Kindred Nation that will fulfill God's call, by his grace and in His Mercy. To that end I join my brothers and sisters in sharing with you this vision.

IT'S A NEW DAY A new day has dawned in God's timeline. His purposes are progressing inexorably to the culmination of his destiny for mankind. Since man began reckoning times and seasons, hundreds of years have marched on in nauseating repetition. On God's calendar, however, only a single week has passed since the creation of the world. Peter gives us a sense of the Father's reckoning of time: 2 Pet 3:8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day [is] with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

According to biblical chronology, six thousand years have passed since man was expelled from the garden of Eden. With the turn of the millennium we have entered into the prophetic significance of God's seventh day (Heb. 4:4-7).

To affirm the prophetic significance of this time period, we will triangulate the Seventh Day with a prophesy found in Hosea: Hosea 6:1 Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. 2 After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight. 3 Then shall we know, [if] we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter [and] former rain unto the earth.

A PROMISED OUTPOURING

This passage speaks of a three day time period, or in God's timetable, three thousand years. Since the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ, two of God's days have passed. After two days the Lord has promised to revive us (orig. quicken). Examining contemporary church history we see great revivals beginning at the turn of the last century and reoccurring right through the 1990's. Revival was the watchword of the last hundred years. Now we are crossing the threshold of time into a great change and transition. Having been quickened at the close of the "second day", God's promise in the "third day" is that we will "live in his sight". Then shall we know, IF we follow on to KNOW THE LORD that his going forth is prepared as the morning, and that HE SHALL COME TO US as the RAIN, and the FORMER AND THE LATTER RAIN on the earth. The word "know" here is not speaking of academic knowledge, rather of intimate experience. There is before us, in our generation an unprecedented opportunity to know him, to enter into an intimacy with the Father that all other testimonies pale beside.

1 Cor 13:12 For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. Up until now, at best we have only seen through a glass darkly. But the hour is near that "they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest ..... Jer. 31:34. Who shall know him? Those who have followed on to know him, to no longer be satisfied with mere "visiting hours" with the Father through a streaked and smeared glass. To those who will no longer settle for dark speech, or dreams or visions, but they seek what God gave Moses, a FACE TO FACE intimacy with the Father (Ex. 33:11).

HOW SHALL HE COME?

So here in 1 Peter 3:8 and in Hosea 6:1-3 we have vectored in on a time period in which we can expect great change and transition for the world and God's people. What will this change be like? How will it be experienced at a grass roots level? An indication is in the phrase "HE SHALL COME TO US as the RAIN, and the FORMER AND THE LATTER RAIN on the earth." Joel 2:23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first [month]. Who is this promise for? It is for the "children of Zion". Zion means "a parched place". This outpouring is not for those who have contented themselves with the religious opulence and dainties of the Christian Religious System. This promise is for those who have climbed, scratched and bleeding, to gain purchase on the rarified heights of the unadulterated presence of God.

O.T. POWER & N.T. GLORY IN THE SAME OUTPOURING

The former rain speaks of the economy of God under the Old Covenant. The latter rain speaks of the economy of God in the New Covenant, or what some call the "dispensation of grace" or the Church age. The Old Testament time was marked by great demonstrations of power as God shook the nations in his dealings with Israel. The New Testament period was typified by a magnitude of GLORY greater than any seen by any old testament saint. Now in this THIRD DAY the promise of God is "IF WE FOLLOW ON TO KNOW", we shall see the FORMER and LATTER rain together. This describes an emerging economy of God in the morning of the third day, typified by OLD TESTAMENT POWER and NEW TESTAMENT GLORY poured out simultaneously in an unprecedented visitation of God's presence on the earth.

MAKE HIS PRESENCE YOUR PRIORITY You may say, "Wonderful! I believe! How may I participate in this visitation? I don't want to miss out." Those who participate in this end time visitation will "FOLLOW ON" to know the Lord. They aren't seeking manifestations, they aren't building religious kingdoms, they aren't pursuing some new doctrine, they are following AFTER HIM, HIS PERSON. These are they who MAKE HIS PRESENCE their PRIORITY at the sacrifice of all else.

THE PASSING AWAY OF THE CHRISTIAN RELIGIOUS SYSTEM

Veiled in Hosea 6:3 is a great challenge to the believer. "Then shall we know, [if] we follow on to know the LORD." The phrase "follow on" means to "pursue ardently". By implication we may conclude that God is on the move. As in the days of Israel in the wilderness, the CLOUD of his presence is moving and we must follow and pursue if we are to be partakers of this outpouring. Now when the children of Israel moved with the cloud of God's glory, there was great activity in their midst. They broke camp the EXISTING STRUCTURE CAME DOWN. This deconstruction of the existing structure was necessary because the Lord purposed to use those resources to construct an expression of his nation and his purpose at another location, in our example another spiritual geography. This is what took place when the CLOUD of God's presence moved from the economy of God under Judaism to the early church. 70 years after the veil of the temple was rent in two (Mark 15:38) Judaism came to an ignominious end. When the early church burst into bloom on the day of Pentecost, the new wine called for new wineskins. The apostles and early church fathers didn't seek to reform or revive Judaism. They understood that God was restoring his people to his purpose but was not necessarily reviving the existing religious structure. Today's revivalists, prophets and so-called apostles are calling for revival, reform, and restoration. They have a vision for change but they aren't going far enough. They cannot perceive the purpose of God requiring them to make a quantum leap out of their comfort zone, out of Christianity as we have known it, into a NEW EXPRESSION OF THE ECCLESIA for the Third Millennium. The ax of accountability has been laid at the root of the Christian Religious System and a new corporeality, or "ecclesia" is emerging from the ashes of the old. The shame of the Laodicean church of Rev. 3:14,15 is giving way to the glory of Sun-Clothed woman of Rev. ch. 12:1.

FROM JUDAISM to CHRISTIANITY to THE MILLENNIAL ECONOMY OF GOD

To what shall we compare this transition we are now entering into? Not even a comparison with the protestant reformation is an adequate description. A modern day Martin Luther would not go far enough. The boldness of God's men today will be no less than that of Elijah or John the Baptist. For decades, renewal has been the hue and cry of God's men, but no renewal movement, not even the protestant reformation was able to reach sufficient escape velocity to break free of the gravity well of Mystery Babylon, the Great Whore of Rev. 17:1. Spiritual renewal is a concern of every Christian. We use different terms for it depending on our background: Charismatic Renewal; Revival; the next move of God; Restoration; Third Wave; etc., etc. The manner in which Christians supposedly may assure their participation in renewal is as diverse as the terminologies coined to describe the hoped-for outpouring of the Spirit of God on the Church. One viewpoint is that renewal will come as believers come into a structural unity, operating in some form of loose association or fellowship. All denominations and sects are formed along this premise. Another opinion is that unity will come through doctrinal agreement. Still others believe that all doctrinal issues must be placed as a secondary concern in order to achieve and attain unity. Each of these schools of thought and others, are supported with various scriptural pretexts and logical arguments. But none of these scenarios for renewal reflect the precedents already established in the scriptures. WHAT GOD WILL, AND WILL NOT RESTORE

It is certain that God wants to restore his people, but does that mean he will restore what we call Christianity, i.e.; the religious subculture the church of the first century has evolved into? Therefore, in speaking of renewal, let us suggest that while the Lord may not restore the structures and forms of Christian religion, he is most definitely coming to restore his people to his purpose. "Biblical Spirituality" is a term we will choose to define that purpose to which God would bring us as individuals and as the Ecclesia of God. Evangelist Billy Graham was asked once, "Do you believe in the Christ of Christianity?" His answer: "No. I believe in the Christ of the Bible." What an indictment of our religious culture! The preeminent spokesman for the cause of Christ of necessity pointing away from Christianity to the economy of God as revealed in the life of Christ and the early church! Can we just accept this state of affairs? Do we really think that the Father who judged his own people Israel for the same unbelief, overlook the Phariseism and spiritual decadence of our day? When we speak of renewal, we first must determine what it is that God might wish to renew. To get his viewpoint on this we can look back at the time of Jesus. Did Messiah come to renew or restore the prevailing religious system? No, but HE DID

COME TO RESTORE HIS PEOPLE TO HIS PURPOSE.

Where did the Father find those people who he called to populate his new economy in the first century? He found them within the flawed religious system present in Israel at that time. The Jews who successfully transitioned from Judaism to Christianity are the examples for those of us seeking to navigate the transition from Christianity to the Emerging Millennial Economy of God in our day.

THE COMING OF CHRIST IS THE ONLY CURE FOR THE ILLS OF CHRISTIANITY

It is evident that the religious system of Jesus' day was not going to reform itself. The ultimate answer to the ills of religion in the first century was the coming of Messiah. Likewise in this century the Second Coming of Messiah is the ultimate answer to the ills of the Christian Religious System. The Jewish leaders in the first century knew that the coming of the Messiah was their only hope. However, when Messiah came and didn't endorse or seek to reform the religious culture that defined them and gave them their identity, they rose up and crucified him.

Even so today, theologians are assured in themselves they understand the coming of the Lord. But even as the Jews were blind to the true nature and purpose of God in Christ's first coming as Suffering Savior, even so Christianity is blind to the true nature and purpose of God in his second coming as Reigning King. The Jews in their ignorance crucified the personification of their hope. Likewise Christianity on the whole will reject the second coming of Christ and will actually work against God's purpose as he brings mankind into the fulfillment of his purpose.

LET US COMPARE CHRISTIANITY TODAY WITH JUDAISM OF JESUS' DAY

There are amazing parallels between the Jewish Religious System of Jesus' day and the Christian Religious System of this day. The Jewish Religious System was birthed in the glory of Solomon's temple. The first century Hebrew looked back to Solomon's temple just as the modern day Christian looks back to the first century church. Likewise over the centuries, both Judaism and Christianity have denigrated from their glorious beginnings to corrupt caricatures of their former wonder. Even by the most liberal standard the similarities between the Jewish Religious System that crucified Jesus, and the Christian Religious System today are frightening. Both the Jewish Religious System of Jesus' day and Christianity today were rife with sects, splinter groups and were possessed with a life and vitality fully separate from the life of God.

THE AX IS LAID AT THE ROOT OF THE TREE

In Romans chapters ten and eleven Paul draws comparisons gives strong warning to the Gentile church that they should learn by the example set before them in first century Judaism. Romans chapter ten contains some of the most often AND least often quoted verses in the Bible. In fact, verse. 9 is the very foundation of the sinners prayer that almost every new convert in the 20th century prays in the act of accepting Jesus as personal savior: Romans 10:9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. What is the context of these well known verses? The context of this passage includes this entire chapter (chapter 10) and also chapter eleven. It is a part of an entire passage where the main theme is not only saving faith, but predominately the Apostle Paul's yearning toward his kinsman. Romans 10:1 Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. Paul's burning desire is to see his people, the Jews come to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. In expressing that desire he is making his readers aware that he is a member of a nation of men, who at one time lived in the very center of God's blessing but had strayed so far afield that but for the grace of God they would be irrevocably lost. Out of this heartbreak he addresses the Gentile church with a word of solemn warning. Romans 11:21 For if God spared not the natural branches, [take heed] lest he also spare not thee. John the Baptist laid the ax of accountability at the root of the JRS (Jewish Religious System). But it was their unbelief that cut them off. And the prophetic warning of Paul is unmistakable: Romans 11:22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in [his] goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

THE CHRISTIAN RELIGIOUS SYSTEM HAS LEFT ITS FIRST ESTATE

Has Christianity continued in the goodness of God? Or have we as a culture, left our first estate (the first century economy of God)? At every point where you find any disparity between the first century church and modern Christianity, there is an indictment of our religious culture. As we come closer to the outpouring of the Spirit afresh and in full force, the CRS (Christian Religious System) is being brought to judgment. In this day as in Jesus' day he is bringing a remnant out of the prevailing, flawed religious system. This remnant will continue in his purpose, partaking of a new economy in God for the third millennium.

The Laodicean church is at an end. The lukewarm, politicized monstrosity we have brazenly called the "Church of the Living God" is being spewed out of the mouth of Christ. Our unbelief has cut us off as a religious culture. It is imperative that modern day believers learn from the example of first century Judaism. If God did not withhold judgement from the natural branches of the nation of Israel, it is religious arrogance to assume Christianity will evade judgement.

THE BREACH BETWEEN THE CHURCH AGE AND THE MILLENNIUM

When God's purposes move from one dynamic to another, there is always a time of transition. Between the economy of God under Abraham and the Law we have the transitional time that Moses presided over. Between the time of Moses and King David was the transitional period under Joshua and the Judges. Between the purpose of God under David and Solomon, and the Prophets was the ministry of Elijah. Between the economy of God under the Prophets and the Ministry of Jesus was the transitional time under the oversight of John the Baptist. Likewise between the Church Age and the millennium will come a time of transition referred to prophetically by Malachi, speaking both of John the Baptist and the End of the Age. Mal. 4:5 Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD:

Even the most orthodox scholars agree that the great and dreadful day of the Lord is the end of the age when time shall be no more. This is that point which God draws the curtain on this human drama that began with Adam and ended with Armageddon.

John fulfilled this verse individually, as the forerunner of the singular Son of God, our savior Jesus Christ. But in the last days as the corporate Christ is brought to perfection, there is a corporate body, or "John the Baptist" company that will arise in the Spirit of Elijah and "turn the hearts of the Fathers to the children and the hearts of the children to the Fathers. " (Mal. 4:6)

THE ELIJAH TASK

The Elijah task, as some have put it, is in our day the same as it was in John's day. John the Baptist came baptizing and proclaiming the Kingdom of God was at hand. His message was twofold then: The Messiah is at Hand; and, Prepare yourself. John the Baptist was the only voice that spoke to point out the fact that the Messiah wasn't coming as a Military Conqueror, but as a Suffering Messiah. When he saw Jesus coming to be baptized, he cried out, "Behold the Lamb". The Jews were expecting a military genius who would come and overthrow the Romans and establish Israel supernaturally as a world government. Because of this lack of insight, when God sent a Lamb instead of a Lion, they crucified the Lord of Glory.

Even so today, Christianity is expecting a redeeming conqueror to whisk them away to some Christianized "Valhalla", where there will be feasting and rejoicing for endless ages. But what we must see, beloved is that there are aspects of his coming that Christianity has skewed and overlooked and misunderstood to no less a degree than the Jews did. Because of this, Christianity as we know it will resist the true coming of the Lord, because they will see it as a threat to their culture, their power and position. Their resistance will be such that if it were possible they would crucify the Lord himself. Only this time he is not coming as suffering savior but as reigning King. So the message today is: "Prepare!", and "The Kingdom of Heaven is at Hand". We are in a time of transition only to be compared in magnitude to that transition witnessed from Judaism to 1st century Christianity. And the challenge to us is are we willing to relinquish our Christianity to embrace Christ and his onward moving purpose? Are we willing to make the same sacrifices the Jews who followed Jesus did, who gave up their Judaism and 3000 years of religious tradition to follow Christ into the new economy of that 1st millennia after Christ?

WHAT SHALL BE THE MANNER OF HIS APPEARING?

We are in a new day. A new corporeality is being birthed. A new Ecclessia, or church is being birthed from the ashes of the old. This is what the Jews didn't see. They could only accept the Messiah to come as a single man and wreak revenge on all their enemies and satisfy all their lusts for power and position and vindication against their enemies. They did not see that between the rule and reign of Messiah and their day was the birth of a new corporeality known to us as Christianity, or the Church. This same blindness is on the church today. We are looking for a Messiah to come and punish the enemies of the faith, and whisk the faithful to some harbor of safety while the terrors of divine judgement are poured out upon the luckless heathen. What we have not seen is that there is a NEW ECONOMY of GOD, a NEW ECCLESSIA altogether, that is emerging in the transition between the Laodicean church age and the Millennial reign of Christ.

A NEW ECONOMY, A NEW DYNAMIC, A NEW BAPTISM

When the children of Israel entered into the promises of God, they were baptized in the cloud of God's presence and in the Red sea crossing (1 Cor. 10:2). With the advent of the purpose of God in Christ came the baptism of water. When the church was birthed was the baptism of the Holy Ghost. With each transition came a new baptism. With each baptism experience came the formation of a corporate body representative of the new day God was ushering in. Likewise this millennial economy of God, prefigured as the Sun-clothed Woman of Revelation 12 will be attended by a mighty baptism, not of water, or Spirit, but of Fire.

Luke 3:16 John answered, saying unto [them] all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire: Evangelical, fundamentalist believers hold the doctrine that when they are baptized in water, they are in a figure, likewise baptized in the Holy Ghost and Fire. Pentecostal, Charismatic believers smile at that viewpoint and rightly point out that there is a further baptism, the Baptism of the Holy Ghost. However they then make the same error by saying when they receive the baptism of the Holy Ghost, they likewise in a figure receive the Baptism of Fire. Others commonly teach that the baptism of Fire is simply, persecution. Whether they be fundamentalist or Pentecostal or nominal Christians, all believe that they have all of God that is available through water baptism or Spirit baptism respectively. Consider the following brief treatment of this matter. The baptism of the Holy Ghost that fell on the day of Pentecost was the fulfillment of one of the feasts of Israel by the same name. The feast of Passover, all theologians agree represents the salvation which will rightly be attended with a baptism of water. So these two, of the three feasts of Israel are types that are fulfilled as personal experiences for the believer. What about the third feast? Surely the conclusion can rightly be made that the third feast, as the second and the first must also represent and be fulfilled in a third experience available at some point in God's timetable to the believer. John spoke of the baptism of water, the baptism of the Spirit and the Baptism of Fire. We have seen the first two baptisms but not the third. We celebrate the fulfillment of Passover in our salvation and water baptism. We partake of the fulfillment of Pentecost in the baptism of the Holy Ghost. There will come a day and is now at hand that the Baptism of Fire will be made available to the saints at the appointed hour, the time of the fulfillment of the feast of Tabernacles.

What is this baptism of Fire? Water baptism represents the rebirth of the Spirit of Man into the family of God. The baptism of the Holy Ghost acts in renewing power upon the mind, will and emotions, filling the Soul of Man with the fulness of God's ethereal nature. The baptism of Fire will act upon the physical man setting in to redeem him from the last enemy which is death. This baptism is pre-figured for us in the life of Moses and in the transfiguration of Jesus.

Deut. 4:24, and Heb. 12:29 tell us that "our God is a consuming fire". The baptism of Fire is a baptism into His Person. Some may call this rapture, or translation, or body felt salvation. But the imperative for us to understand that it is not a sweeping away to some "planet" called heaven, but the initiation into a company of saints that will comprise the eighth church mentioned in Revelation, the Sun-clothed woman of Rev. 12. After the Laodicean Church is spewed out of the mouth of the Son, there "appears a wonder in heaven", a Woman clothed with "the Sun", clothed with Fire.

In Matthew 17: 1-7 we find the transfiguration of Jesus, when he was "his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light." This gives us a glimpse of the nature of the baptism of Fire. You may object, "That was Jesus! We cannot expect that type of glorification to come upon a mortal man." Is that so? Then consider Moses, the agent of what Paul called the "ministration of death": Exod 34:34 But when Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he took the vail off, until he came out. And he came out, and spake unto the children of Israel [that] which he was commanded. 35 And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone: and Moses put the vail upon his face again, until he went in to speak with him. In the presence of God, who is a consuming fire a unique and peculiar phenomena is affected. Paul, speaking of this side effect of Moses' "face to face" relationship with the Father said this:

2Cor 3:7 But if the ministration of death, written [and] engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which [glory] was to be done away: 8 How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious? 9 For if the ministration of condemnation [be] glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory. 10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth. 11 For if that which is done away [was] glorious, much more that which remaineth [is] glorious. 12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech: If Moses under the Old Covenant economy of God could experience such a manifestation as a result of his intimacy with God, how much more might the believer, look forward to such an intimacy and experience with God as his ultimate portion. The manifestation is not that which we want to apprehend, but rather the intimacy of which that manifestation is the result of. This is the end of "following on to know, the Lord".

Please understand that this baptism is not some alien experience. On the day of Pentecost there appeared "tongues of fire" upon the believers. They receive in a portion the earnest of that fulness promised in the Baptism of Fire. The Baptism of Fire, or of Glory is a full immersion into that fire that only lighted briefly upon the 120 on the day of Pentecost. As at the Mount of Transfiguration, Jesus returned to his followers and appeared normal as before. But those who went with him witnessed his glorification. Likewise on the day of Pentecost there were physical manifestations that didn't linger with permanence but nonetheless were a testimony to the uniqueness of the experience. The baptism of fire will come in full blown sensory perception to the believer, yet afterward leave him to return to his affairs, seemingly none changed to the outward eye, but there will be a fullness of inward effulgence that will flow out of this fire-baptized company that will electrify the world around them.

This baptism is not some new teaching or strange revelation. This baptism is what the prophets have inquired into, what theologians have misapprehended as the "rapture", or the "translation of the saints". They see a "rapture" of the Lord coming "for" his saints. But the scriptures clearly teach that his is "coming in us" in glory before he come "for us" to glory: 2The 1:10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

What day does Paul speak of? That day when 1 Thess. 4:16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: 17 Then we which are alive [and] remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. So we clearly see, that the Lord is coming to be glorified "in us" before he comes "for us". He is coming in us in fulfillment of Eph. 4:13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: and Eph 5:27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. This is NOT the Christian Religious System. This is a "glorious" or "glorified" church that has come out of the Babylon of the Christian Religious System and prepared as a righteous remnant to be God's instrument of power in the closing days of time. This is the portion of the end time saint. This is not a secret experience only for a few. This is for "whosoever will" who will walk with God as Enoch walked with God, who "was not" for God took him.

HOW DOES ONE POSTURE HIMSELF TO BE AVAILABLE FOR THIS BAPTISM?

The keys to spiritual survival in the end times can be seen in the lives of those in first century Judaism who successfully negotiated the transition from Judaism to Christianity. For that is the challenge to every believer: to successfully negotiate the transition from Christianity to the Emerging Economy of God, the Glorified Ecclesia, founded in the outpouring of the Baptism of Fire, proliferated in the midst of the death throes of the domain of darkness, and vindicated in the bed chamber of the Bridegroom when she brings forth the Manchild of Rev. 12:5.

The greatest examples of those who "waited on the consolation of Israel" were Anna (Luke 2:36), the prophetess, Simeon (Luke 2:25), and John the Baptist. Each of these figures lived to fulfill God's purpose in both the JRS and the first century church. Anna was in the temple daily, no doubt a thorn in the side of the Pharisees and Sadducee, a daily repudiation to their hypocrisy. Simeon on the other hand is said to have "come by the Spirit into the Temple". He was a man unphased by the exacting legalism of the day, choosing rather to live his life according to the dynamic of the Spirit's leading, and ultimately gaining thereby the honor of presiding over the circumcision of the Word made flesh!

Even as Anna and Simeon each had a connection to the prevailing religious system, so John himself was connection to Judaism through confrontation in the Spirit and Power of Elijah. John confronted Herod (a type of modern day church leaders) and told him is was unlawful for him to have his brother's wife. Who is the brother of the modern day pastor, or church leader? Is it not Jesus? And does not the leadership of the CRS today take prerogatives with God's people, the Bride of Christ that belong only to the Bridegroom? The warning to pastors and leaders in the CRS today is beware your fate in the coming of Christ. As Samson returning from the Slaughter of the Philistines he will declare "Someone has been ploughing with my heifer!" And will visit judgement upon those who have defiled his chosen bride.

BAPTIZED IN THE CLOUD

The hand of God's blessing and protection in this hour of the apostasy of Christianity as we know it is found in Mal. 3:16 Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard [it], and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name. 17 And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him. There is a blessed communion when believers who fear the Lord come together. The grace of God poured out on this fellowship and intimacy is spoken of by some as "getting in the cloud", when the rarified presence of God joins with two or three who have come together in simple fellowship without a set structure or religious context, just to commune together in the depths of His glory. Jesus spoke of this in John 17:20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; 21 That they all may be one...

Jesus is praying that the 12 disciples and those who would follow after them would be one. He even stated the degree to which he wanted us to be one. " as thou, Father, [art] in me, and I in thee"

Jesus wants us to be one to the magnitude that our oneness is as much a mystery as the mystery of the Godhead, and you cannot hardly discuss the mystery of the Godhead without blaspheming because of the inscrutable one-ness of the Father and the Son. Now why does Jesus want us to have this oneness? "that they also may be one in us: "

You would think that Jesus got it backwards. Surely we need to be one with the Father before we can be one with each other. But Jesus plainly prays that we would be one first with each other. THAT (in order that) "they may also be one in "US" in the Father and the Son. This is undeniably the language of this verse. The path of becoming one with the Father is becoming one with each other. Look at these verses in your bible and tell me this is NOT the wording. This oneness is the means by which we are baptized into HIS GLORY, INTO THE CLOUD. Now, if we are going to be ONE (laterally) in order to be ONE WITH THE FATHER (vertically) we can't do it in ourselves. What has he given us to be one? Well it must be LOVE, right? No, love has NOTHING TO DO WITH THIS ONENESS. Agreement? No, agreement, mental assent, common doctrine, etc., have less than nothing to do with this ONENESS. What Has he given us to facilitate the oneness he is praying to the Father that we have and enter into?

v. 22 And the glory which thou gamest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:

He didn't give us love, agreement, common labor or vision - he gave us His Glory. As the instrument of entering into ONENESS with one another and with the Father. How does that work? You seek out those as yourself who are yearning for the glory as you are and you come together and talk, pray, WHATEVER ACTIVITY INVOKES THE COMING OF THE CLOUD, the discernment and awareness of his nearness. Matt 18:20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

You see Jesus GAVE US HIS GLORY in order that our pursuit of the GLORY would bring us together IN ONE and then IN THAT GLORY we become ONE not only with one another, but ONE WITH HIM. Where you enter in to the manifestation of Christ in us, the HOPE of GLORY.

v. 23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

This IS what is emerging in the earth today: a forging of ONENESS that has nothing to do with EGO, Doctrine, ministry work, etc., in fact it will cost you your ministry, your ego, your independence. You will have to lay down your opinions and choose to sit IN THE CLOUD THAT COMES and be TAUGHT TOGETHER OF HIM, to be brought into UNION first with your yoke fellow, your fellow bond servant, who ever he might be. Your fellow sojourners won't be likely who you would choose in the natural. And you will in all likelihood lose ALL YOUR FRIENDS, and ALL YOUR CREDIBILITY , no matter how preciously you have garnered and preserved it. But you will gain THE GLORY! You will gain a lateral "Oneness" with your yoke fellow and at last the ONENESS of CHRIST IN YOU beyond what you could ever ask or hope. Then you will go from personal blessing, to common vision, to mutual work and ministry but the only thing you will have any thought for is the cloud of God's presence, the satisfaction of that hunger, getting back to the cloud, staying under the cloud wherever it may lead.

This writing may be used in any way seen fit so long as it remains in its entirety and the contact information of the author is included. Direct your inquiries to the person who shared this information with you, or to:

Russell Walden
rwalden492@hotmail.com
<http://go.to/kindrednation>
209 N. Holly Street
Bunkie, Louisiana 71322 USA
337-346-1425

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Kingdom of God: Heaven within Us

Brett Hofstee

1st Corinthians 3:16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and the Spirit of God dwelleth in you.

John 15:4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

Manifest sons of God, O daughters of Zion, the kingdom of God (heaven) is within us. Our Lord has come into us and now He is wooing us to come into Him, but we must come out of Egypt (the world) and allow the fire of God (His love) to expose the Egypt in us. This will allow the archangel Michael and his angels to prevail in Heaven against the great dragon and his angels, who stand before the throne of God (our heart), accusing us day and night.

Revelation 12:7-10

7-And there was a war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8-And prevailed not; neither was their place found anymore in heaven.

9-And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10-And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation(Jesus), and strength(Elijah/John the Baptist), and the kingdom of our God(Moses), and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

Our God's temple (we His children), have suffered much violence and injury.

Matthew 11:12-15

12-And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence and the violent take it by force.

13-For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

14-And if ye will receive it this is Elias (Elijah), which was for to come.

15-He that has ears to hear, let him hear.

But our Lord has come to restore the hearts of men (the throne of God), first in heaven (us) then establish His throne on earth.

Matthew 6:10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Matthew 17:11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias (Elijah) truly shall come and restore all things.

Elijah is the strength of God, for he is the heart of the Father and will restore the throne of God, the heart of man. All our Father's power comes from His love.

We must also allow the fire of God to expose the dragon in the sea (our mind), which is around the throne of God (our heart), so the sea (our mind) can be calm and crystal clear before the throne of God. In order for us to do this, we must allow the islands (mindsets) to be removed out of the sea (our minds). This will allow the sword of the Spirit (truth/the word of God) and the revealer of all truth, the Holy Spirit to have His way. This will be painful because we are all about to find out, how little we knew and how the devil has kept our eyes blinded. We must swallow our pride, for our Father will have mercy on the repentant and spit the proud out of His mouth. The truth (hidden manna/mysteries of God) is going to shake heaven (His children), and after He is done shaking heaven, then His children (His army) will shake the world with that truth. And the world's faces shall be much pained and all faces shall gather blackness before the army of God. (Joel 2:6)

Revelation 2:17 He that hath an ear, let him heareth what the Spirit sayeth unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna (the mysteries of God) and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that revealeth.

We must come into the promised land (deliverance) in the spiritual before we can take the promised land on the earth. Spiritual deliverance (restoration of heaven, the throne of God, our heart) will usher in Zion, that is within us all. A place of worship that we as our Father's children have been made for. A place of joy, repentance and thankfulness that we can not even imagine. But it will spring forth, when our Father cuts our chains of captivity with His sword (the truth). For our Lord comes with a sharp sword out of His mouth.

Revelations 19:15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he shall smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of almighty God.

Jesus will rule all nations with a manifestation of Himself through His brothers and sisters.

Zephaniah 3:8-9

8-Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the Lord, until the day that I (the lion) rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms to pour upon them mine indignation, and even all my fierce anger: for all the earth will be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.

9-For then will I turn to the people a pure language that they may call upon the name of the Lord, to serve him with one consent.

Lord have mercy on us for our preconceived notions and arrogance. Thinking we knew you more than we really did. When we have been so blinded by the devil and our foolishness. Thank you Father, for your mercy and your desire to become one with us.

May the Lord be with us as we journey up Mount Zion, our home.
Your brother, Brett

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Kings of the Earth

Ron Cantor

Dear Friends,

On Sunday morning Pastor Kilpatrick preached an excellent sermon concerning the end times and the connection between Joseph and Yeshua. He said that the day before he was in tears on and off all day over the Palestinian desecration of Joseph's tomb. At the end of the service there was extended prayer for Israel. Thank God that this church, which is respected internationally has taken such a bold stand for Israel.

Yesterday, I led a Yom Kippur prayer meeting at BRSM for Israel. We had over 100 people come. While reading Ps. 2, the Spirit of God came upon me in the form of Holy anger. I was thinking about the UN resolution condemning Israel.

Ps 2:1-2 1 Why do the nations conspire and the peoples plot in vain? 2 The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers gather together against the LORD and against his Anointed One.

What a picture of the U.N. Security Council on Saturday. The kings and rulers gathered to condemn God's people. This hypocritical body, who refuses to condemn China for murdering hundreds of students, seeks to reprove Israel for defending herself. In standing against Israel, they stand against "Yahweh and His Anointed One" Yeshua. In context, Psalm two is referring to who has authority over the Land of Israel and who rules the Nations. For God says:

6 "I have installed my King on Zion, my holy hill." and

8 ...I will make the nations your inheritance, the ends of the earth your possession. 9 You will rule them with an iron scepter;

GOD'S RESPONSE

How does God respond to those who misuse the authority He gave them? Is he concerned? Is He Intimidated by the kings of this earth? Does He get nervous in the presence of Kofi Anam or President Clinton? Does he bow in the presence of "Chairman" Arafat?

Ps 2:4-5 4 The One enthroned in heaven laughs; the Lord scoffs at them. 5 Then he rebukes them in his anger and terrifies them in his wrath...

If God is laughing and mocking the Clintons, Putins (Russia) and Zemins (China) of this world, then Israel should be at peace. The truth is that Israel could respond to the Palestinian rage in any way she desires and the Kings of this earth can do nothing without God's permission. These men walk about arrogantly as if they will not have to answer to God.

In the days of Hezekiah, there was another King who was sure he could do as he willed to the daughter of Zion. King Sennacherib tried to intimidate Hezekiah even as the Islamic nations have threatened Israel with a Holy War:

Isa 37:10-11 10 "Say to Hezekiah king of Judah: Do not let the god you depend on deceive you when he says, 'Jerusalem will not be handed over to the king of Assyria.' [or Palestinians] 11 Surely you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the countries, destroying them completely. And will you be delivered? (emphasis mine) What was God's response?

Isa 37:22-35 22 this is the word the LORD has spoken against him: "The Virgin Daughter of Zion despises and mocks you. The Daughter of Jerusalem tosses her head as you flee. 23 Who is it you have insulted and blasphemed? Against whom have you raised your voice and lifted your eyes in pride? Against the Holy One of Israel! 24 By your messengers you have heaped insults on the Lord. And you have said, 'With my many chariots I have ascended the heights of the mountains, the utmost heights of Lebanon. I have cut down its tallest cedars, the choicest of its pines. I have reached its remotest heights, the finest of its forests. 28 "But I know where you stay and when you come and go and how you rage against me. 29 Because you rage against me and because your insolence has reached my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth, and I will make you return by the way you came...

(Interesting use of the word RAGE here, as the Palestinians recently called for a DAY OF RAGE against Israel, which of course includes the God of Israel.)

32 For out of Jerusalem will come a remnant, and out of Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this. ... 35 "I will defend this city [Jerusalem] and save it, for my sake and for the sake of David my servant!" And what happened?

Isa 37:36 36 Then the angel of the LORD went out and put to death a hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the Assyrian camp. When the people got up the next morning-- there were all the dead bodies!

OH GOD, ONCE AGAIN SEND YOUR ANGEL TO PROTECT YOUR PEOPLE ISRAEL! AND YOUR HOLY CITY JERUSALEM! Mt. ZION

Going back to verse 6 in Psalm 2, the Lord says that He has installed His king on Zion. This is the same area that the Lord referred to in verse 32 and 35 above. It is quite amazing--this entire battle is over a hill. A hill over which both God and satan are fighting. The entire world is in an uproar over a small mountain in the Old City of Jerusalem. Mt. Moriah, where Abraham nearly sacrificed Isaac and where the ancient Temple stood, has brought the world and its leaders into a furor.

It is a real proof that the God of the Bible IS God. For it was He who said, "I am going to make Jerusalem a cup that sends all the surrounding peoples reeling." (Zech 12:2) There are many cities of more significance in the natural: Moscow, New York, Tokyo--but it is little Jerusalem that has the Kings of the World up in arms (literally).

PRAY that Israel does not go down to Egypt (man) for help. Pray that she stands strong and take orders from above. President Clinton, who humiliated Israel by not vetoing the UN Resolution (EVEN HIS WIFE PUBLICLY CRITICIZED HIM FOR THIS DECISION.) is trying to get Barak to come to Egypt for a summit. Long ago God warned Israel: 1 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help, who rely on horses, who trust in the multitude of their chariots and in the great strength of their horsemen, but do not look to the Holy One of Israel, or seek help from the LORD. (Isa 31:1)

This whole "peace process" has been a human effort to solve something that only God can solve. I realize now that my whole view of the peace process has been HUMANISTIC. Even though I know better, I would battle feelings like "Israel has to make concessions or the Arabs will attack." The fact is that the Arabs will attack either way! The way of man has not borne the fruit that was promised. Only in following God's plan will Israel have peace. Pray that Israel not give in to the humanistic, even demonic, plans of the Kings of this world.

The God of Israel shall prevail!

For the Salvation of Israel and the Nations, Ron Cantor

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Kingdom People

Ron McGatlin

Who are the people of God that are crossing over into the promised land of the kingdom of heaven on earth? What are they like and what is their church and lifestyle like? Who are these people who are actively waiting upon the kingdom of God and listening for the sound of His voice -- these who will not move without the direction of the voice of their God?

They are those who move in unison together as a mighty army -- an army that remains in rank and file and never oversteps or sidesteps the will of their God. A mighty army of "ordinary" believers filled with an extraordinary obsession for God -- those obsessed beyond all reason with the very love of their God. Those in whom there remains no place for the devil to lay his hand or attach his hooks. A people without the religious bondages and prideful self righteousness of the past church age. A people who do not care any more about things that were once important but cares with their whole heart and life about the things of their God. A people who are dangerous because of their simple and real love that flows into and through them to the world. A people who forever will cling to the promises of their God and gladly give their lives to be in His presence and to serve Him with all their heart and strength.

These are the people of God coming forth into our world. They are the rulers, the workers, the teachers, the moms and dads, the soldiers from five star generals to buck privates who are one and the same unto their God. They will not rule as lord over one another but will serve one another as Lord. They are the scientist, the plumbers, the builders, and the farmers, they are the worshipers of God doing the work of God on earth. Anointed by His Spirit and filled with undeniable power and strength to do all the will of God.

The sons of the kingdom are with us now and shall continue to grow in numbers as the mighty revival of God planted by the fathers of our past and bathed in the blood of martyrs to our Lord shall cover the earth. >From ocean to ocean and from mountain to mountain there shall be none who do not know of the glory of our Lord. The beginning is past and the work lies ahead of us and anyone having put their hand to this plow shall not turn back. The plowing must continue but the planting has already begun. The mighty revival of the presence and power of God shall sweep the whole earth and the planet and all of its people shall never be the same again. The harvest is upon us and shall not be stopped. At the same time the plower is plowing and the sower is sowing and the harvester is harvesting. (Amos 9:13)

What are these people like? They are like Christ Jesus. They are in fact those in whom Christ dwells bringing forth different aspects of His very life in different individuals - the possessors of differing parts of Christ who all coming together to form the whole body of Christ covering the earth. They are the risen Christ dwelling on earth to rule and reign as priest and kings. They are the physical embodiment of the glory of God. The "Christ in you the hope of glory” has become Christ living in many by the Spirit of Christ the manifest presence of the glory of God.

No earthly government or institution shall rule over the glory of God. The kingdom people will be led by Spirit appointed elders in local groups. The elders will be the loving authority to govern the local people of God. No longer will the church be a building made with hands. The local church will meet from day to day in houses or business places or great outdoor stadiums or wherever. Some elders will be gifted pastors tending the sheep. Others will be gifted teachers teaching the children young and old. And others will be evangelist reaching out to the local community harvesting their part of the world.

The apostolic government of God will be fluid and mobile. The powerfully gifted apostles and prophets will move from place to place bringing the wisdom and specific word of God for every need and in every situation. There will no longer be a “headquarters”. The “quarters of the head” are in heaven and not on earth. God’s chosen servant leaders will look toward the true headquarters in heaven and receive their direction for governing from the Spirit of Christ.

The apostles will receive direction for the over all body and the governing of the overall church will be in them. The prophet will receive the word for more specific an personal direction and correction.

The local elders will receive direction for the local group of believers and will know how to pastor, teach, and evangelize their areas. The elders will know which apostles to call for and when to call for them to come and bring light and government to their group. The apostles will have direction from God in agreement to go where the elders call them. If the elders should falter and need help, an apostle and/or prophet will be sent by God to bring authority and recovery to the situation.

Ron McGatlin

basileia@advi.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Lord Is Calling

Thomas S. Gibson

The Lord is calling His apostles, prophets and pastors.

Thomas S. Gibson

The prophecy number refers to year/month/date/number.

20000719.1

For the Glory of the Lord has gone forth into the earth to call the apostle, to call the prophet, to call the pastor; and to bring them again into the commands of the New Testament church as He once commanded them to be. So that the prophet will submit humbly to the apostle, and the apostle to the Lord Jesus, and the pastor to them both.

Hear Me, says the Lord, hear Me. I am calling a church that is built upon the Rock of Christ Jesus. I am calling a church that is built upon the foundation of the apostle and prophet. I am calling a church that is built not upon the organizations of this world, but on the power of the Lord Jesus Christ.

I am calling a church, and am now building it in this earth. And I am calling pastors out so that they may go where I say they go, and build where I say they build, and there shall be churches.

These churches shall be here, and they shall be there. They shall be on the street corners. They shall be in buildings. They shall be wherever I plant them, says the Lord.

And nobody will write down an organization for them to follow. For they will humbly and totally and completely submit to the Spirit of the Living God. And everyone will submit to that Spirit. And the power of the Lord will flow through. There will be unity like there has never been unity. And there will be persecution against them like never before.

For this is what I am calling into the earth in this day. This is what I am calling into the earth in this day. This is what I am calling into the earth in this day.

And I cry out unto My prophets and My prophets shall hear, for I have called them in this hour and in this day to heed the word of God and to go forth and to prepare a mighty work for the end times, says the Lord.

The prophecy number refers to year/month/date/number.

20000720.1

For the Glory of the Lord has gone forth to call those whom I wish to call into the offices of the apostle and the prophet. Therefore listen and obey to the voice of your God. I am going to call forth My people to this obedient church of the Most High. I am going to call forth My people to serve Me in the streets. I am going to call forth My people to serve Me inside the churches and inside the organizations that will not obey Me. For I am calling all of My people to be witnesses throughout the whole earth.

Thomas S. Gibson

The Prophetic Word Web Page: <http://www.telusplanet.net/public/tsgibson/propheticword.html>

Prophetic Word Mailing List: send email to: PropheticWord-subscribe@egroups.com

tsgibson@telusplanet.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Long Awaited Harvest

My Bride And Her Gown

Prepare For War

Stephen Hanson

June 10, 00

7. Be patient, then, brothers, until the Lord's coming. See how the farmer waits for the land to yield its valuable crop and how patient he is for the autumn and spring rains. 8. You too, be patient and stand firm, because the Lord's coming is near. James 5:7-8

18. Still another angel, who had charge of the fire, came from the altar and called in a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, "Take your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of grapes from the earth's vine, because its grapes are ripe." Rev. 14

4. Remain in me, and I will remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me. 5. "I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. 6. If anyone does not remain in me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burned. 7. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be given you. 8. This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples. John 15

(During my prayer time this morning the Lord showed me several stacks of wheat and straw which were set into bundles. There were various people working around each of these bundles, adding to each, as they bent down and helped gather the straw for each of these bundles. Others were mowing the grass and straw around these bundles, getting it ready.)

I asked the Lord about all of this and He said: "It is harvest time...It is time to harvest."

"The long wait that many of you have had is now going to pay off. The farmer patiently waits for his crop to yield a fine harvest. You have planted and grown the seed, and waited for its growth."

(This time the Lord showed me a large area of grapes. They were very dark purple in color, and they yielded many choice grapes on the vine. They spread out over a large area, and were very lush in appearance, as they wound their way with their vines and fruit.)

The Lord said: "I have waited for you to yield the grapes of my kingdom. A rich harvest is coming and it will produce choice fruit. This fruit has gone through many seasons of time. It has stood the test of the many years that have produced it. I have longed to see these grapes.

(Now the Lord showed me rows of corn, and I was looking at the ground in which this corn was being produced. He showed me a single ear of corn. The Lord unraveled the husks and leaves around it. I watched as He pulled back the layers, and showed me the very end of this ear of corn. Most of it looked good and healthy, but at the end, it was moldy and had bugs in it.)

"This represents much of the state of my body. For your fruit has become moldy and ineffective. The ground in which this corn has been cultivated is unhealthy. You must study to show yourselves approved. If you remain in the vine you will produce like the vine. If you remain in Me and my words remain in you, you will produce much fruit. If you do not remain in Me then your fruit will become moldy. So consider where you are planted and what your fruit is like. "

Stephen Hanson

My Bride And Her Gown

Stephen Hanson

May 30, 00

"....just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her 26. to make her holy, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word, 27. and to present her to himself as a radiant church, without stain or wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless. 32. This is a profound mystery--but I am talking about Christ and the church. Eph. 5

"I AM coming back for a church without spot or blemish; but look at her wedding garments, they are soiled and dirty, would say the Lord. Look in the crevices and in the fabric; it is ripped and torn.

"My bride is not ready for Me....she dresses herself in the clothes of this world."

(The Lord showed me one of the bride's shoes, and although it seemed at first to be beautiful, it proved to be otherwise. It was of a creme color and had high heels, but upon looking at it closer, it was tattered and worn, and would not have proved to be very useful in walking with.)

and then He said: "She has not shod her feet with the gospel of peace."

"Her veil which should be of the most beautiful fabric, has become worn and tattered, but I will give her clothes which are most beautiful to dress herself in."

(Here the Lord was holding in his hand a most beautiful brocade of gold fabric in his hands, just waiting to give it to his bride to wear.)

"But the wife walked away and said, "I have no need of these clothes." For I can array myself in the clothes of my own choosing."

(Here the Lord showed me a door and He was slowly opening it up to see what was behind it, as if to show me something. Here I saw all kinds of clothes strewn around a closet on the floor. There were various types of fabrics, perhaps of a cotton blend, all wrinkled and disheveled. a handkerchief, work gloves, all messed-up in a pile, scattered throughout this closet on the floor.)

"But these clothes are not the ones that I've chosen for you. From since before the world began I longed to give the fruits of my making. Why would my children want to dress themselves in their own fruits?

(The Lord showed me the most beautiful gold ring that had an incredible gem on it.)

"Behold I have a beautiful ring to give unto my bride. This is the ring that I long to give to complete my marriage with her. For she has been chosen to wear it with Me as her husband. Oh my beautiful bride do not look at a stranger, or long for her embraces. Buy from Me gold and silver which has been tried in the furnace. As the wedding day advances, gather your groomsmen and bridesmaids. Gather together for the feast of the ages. Gather together for the marriage supper of the Lamb. Invite all who would come to this marriage feast. "

(The Lord showed me a lady who was leafing through an address book, looking at the various names that were there within this book.)

"Do not just invite your friends, but invite the poor as well."

"Come my bride."

(Here at the last, I saw the most beautiful bride, and exquisite face, looking upwards as if to her husband, the Lord. Her hair was adorned as a garland, with flowers of a pale yellow. Her veil was crepe-like and sheer, and flowed from her head unto her back; and light radiated from her.)

Stephen Hanson

Prepare For War Stephen Hanson

June 3, 00

9. Raise the war cry, you nations, and be shattered! Listen, all you distant lands. Prepare for battle, and be shattered! Prepare for battle, and be shattered! Is. 8

6. "Tell this to the nations, proclaim it to Jerusalem: `A besieging army is coming from a distant land, raising a war cry against the cities of Judah. Jer. 4

3. While people are saying, "Peace and safety," destruction will come on them suddenly, as labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. I Thess.

(This word below is one of judgment, and ones like this have perhaps been decreed before. We are told in I Thess. 3 to not trust in "peace and safety," because sudden destruction will come upon us. God is long-suffering and patient with us, and longs that all would be saved. However, there is a time when all of this will run out, and our actions as a nation and as a people, must be scrutinized and evaluated. We need to be forewarned and pray that we would be ready for these things. Words of comfort and blessings will continue, and it is perhaps much easier to receive them from the Lord. We must remember though, that He is coming back with a sword, and that sword will pierce many of our hearts.)

(The Lord showed me a strange scene....There were snipers on a hillside laying down shooting through the rocks. It was evening time and they were dressed in fatigues and helmets, as if in a war. Then I saw a huge hand, (the Lord's) come from off the left side of the scene, and in the palm of His hand came a wind. I saw the Lord himself blow and this wind caused a fire to engulf these snipers. A wall of protection then came up which prevented those shooting from seeing behind it, and that was the end.)

The Lord then said:

"There is a war which is coming upon this land of America. There are those who would come upon the walls and the outskirts of this land. Sound the alarm and raise the trumpets. "

(Then the scene changed to seeing our planet from a great distance. Behind this scene of the earth, as scene as a ball in the distance, was the King of the Ages, and He was discussing what was to happen.)

"Those of you who are left, flee to the mountains and the surrounding hillsides. Find a place of safety. Be found in safe habitations for what is about to come. This land and this country, which was once called the land of the free and the home of the brave, has now become a den of robbers. For your polluted hearts and your violence has reached my throne. I have continually warned you about the outcome of your actions. There are some of you though, who have prayed for this country. You have stood in the gap for her; and because of this I have stayed my hand."

(Then I saw a line of military tanks coming across the landscape, with various flags. There were men dressed for battle, walking beside these, and all were moving forward. I saw a man get into the cockpit of a plane, or jet, and there were several of these in the sky. I saw an underwater vessel, a submarine, moving through the waters...

(Lastly, and this troubled me, I saw buildings burning in a large city, and smoke coming up from these fires. There also seemed to be rain coming down at the same time. In the midst of this, there were people and children running through the streets, to get away. In the midst of this scene, as if transposed on top of it, were several newspapers, and the title of the front page(s), was "WAR BREAKS OUT IN OUR COUNTRY." These newspapers were those in Chicago and "The New York Times.")

The Lord then said again:

"For those of you who are involved in these strategies, plan together what you might do. Even though your sins are many and they are like scarlet, I can forgive you. You were once a holy nation and founded on my word, but you have drifted far from that. You have followed after the sins of this world and found your hope in your own strength and arm. Violence has been seen in your streets and in your land as well. Your children have not had good teachers or instructors about Me for them. They have been left to their own devices without hope for many of them. I say return, return to Me, says the Lord. Woe to those who proclaim peace and safety when there is none. Woe to you who say we are rich and in need of nothing. You will learn and see that your trust in your own selves will lead to nothing. The time is short, and these days will not be long in coming. Those who are wise will heed these words, and will prepare for them. "

Stephen Hanson

*(Any donations or support may be sent to the below address, either in a monthly or one-time gift. Please feel free to pass these messages onto friends or others in the faith. Let me know if in anyway it has blessed, or brought forth "new life" in Him. Any questions may be directed to me. Thank you.)

Thank you,

Stephen Hanson
673 Trumbull Ln.
Monument, Colorado 80132

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Lion Is About To Roar

Laura Healy

Note From Laura Healy

This word has to do with God releasing finances into the Body of Christ, not with anything we ourselves control. This is something which many prophets (such as Ruth Heflin, Rick Joyner, Paul Cain, Bob Jones, Bill Hamon, etc.) have also been seeing coming. In fact, God will transfer this wealth into the hands of many who will be quite surprised. He will do it simply because He can trust these individuals. This includes some who right now are financially poor! This is all about God doing miraculous things and not about our own strength or actions.

In fact, God has really had to help me with this whole prosperity teaching over the past few years. I and my husband (who has been in prophetic ministry 17 years) have seen the destructive excesses when people misunderstand biblical finances and start believing for BMW's, new Mercedes, bigger houses, etc., and fail to recognize the source of every good and perfect gift. Simultaneously, people are dying and going to hell because the gospel has not been preached to them. We live in a world in which finances are critical to accomplishing the great commission. In fact, our own pastor and mentor, Mahesh Chavda, is leaving for two weeks in Japan and Korea for crusades. How could he get there without funds? How would he rent facilities? It takes money to get the gospel preached. My husband has first hand knowledge of what it has cost over the years for the revival at Brownsville Assembly here in Pensacola. It takes money to reach people and touch them where they have a need in their lives. Many scriptures speak clearly that in the last days money will be poured in to the hands of the people of God. The wealth of the wicked will be transferred to the righteous in order to glorify Jesus and spread the message of salvation. It will go to reach those who are hurting and dying, and to once again raise up His house.

Dear Stuart,

I read "Listen for the Roar" by Cheryl McGrath <http://www.rivermail.org/1561.html> and my heart bore witness to the word she had. I thought I would send this in, since it is along the same lines as the word she sent in.

THE LION IS ABOUT TO ROAR (ARE YOU READY?)

Laura Healy

On Saturday, June 17th and again on Sunday, June 18th I awoke at about four in the morning with the same song playing within me. Then, on Monday, June 19th, I was going to spend some time in prayer. As Brian took our son out and I kissed them goodbye, I started thinking about the song I had heard in the middle of the night. It was the song "Are You Ready" off Morningstar "Generations" and I figured why not play the song to start out my prayer time. So I started playing it and the anointing that fell was just awesome! I started flailing about and singing at the top of my voice. I was singing, "Are you ready (here He comes) the Lion of Judah roaring," when suddenly I was aware that I was prophesying and the Lord was actually getting ready to stand up and roar, and when He did all His enemies would be scattered! Then when I sang, "Are you ready (watch Him now) He's coming in the clouds; get your life in line," I realized that I was prophesying about each of us and where we were in our lives. I continued to sing, dance and prophesy. The presence of angels was really strong.

Brian's Track Picture

When Brian came home I told him about the awesome time I had just spent in the Lord's presence. Brian immediately got a picture of track athletes. This had to do with last-days revival. God was going to shoot the gun (same as the Lion's roar), and start the race. Brian saw that there were those who had not gotten into the starting blocks yet. There were those who previously tried to start running but the gun hadn't gone off yet, so they had false started. The Lord had to reposition those so that when the gun finally did sound, they would run in the right time. Then there were others who were in the starting blocks and ready to go, just waiting in eager anticipation for the gun to go off. They were in the right place at the right time and they would go forth with an awesome anointing and the glory of the Lord. It was almost time for the gun to go off and these athlete's to start running. It will be a time when the anointing and glory of the Lord will be poured out as never before. We will fully enter into the time that Paul Cain talks about as these last days when a new breed will come forth. It will truly be a time of revival.

[Please note: Though we are talking about a definite time and season for all of this, it is just one marker in the Lord's unfolding plan. Paul Cain's word was relevant in the 1980's and 90's, and there are already those who are part of the new breed. At this marker the ones who have this calling but haven't walked in it yet, will be released. Others who have had this calling and have walked in it will receive a new and greater glory.]

Amos 3:8 - When the Lion Has Roared

Later, as I wrote down what the Lord had spoken so far, I received even more about the Lion and His roar. Amos 3:8 says, "A lion has roared! Who will not fear? The Lord God has spoken! Who can but prophesy?" Immediately I understood that with this roar a new level of the prophetic was going to be released to His end-time Body. The church as a whole will become much more prophetic. Prophetic words will get stronger and more directive. They will carry greater weight and authority. This comes from God releasing more of His weight and authority behind what is spoken. There will be those words that are spoken and immediately it will come to pass. It will be as the Bible says in Amos 9:13, "'Behold, the days are coming,' says the Lord, 'When the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him who sows seed; the mountains shall drip with sweet wine.'" Until now there has been a time of sowing seed and a time of reaping the harvest. Now we will see the time shortened, so that a word is sown and it will immediately reap a return. A believer will be doing both sowing and reaping at the same time. This is an awesome thing which we are coming into, yet for some it is also a scary time. A church, for example, may receive a directive word of prophecy. They will not have much time to think about the word and decide if they like it. No, they must act immediately or else they have missed God and will suffer the consequences.

There are those who have understood the prophetic. How to get and give a prophetic word, as well as personally applying it to their lives and walking it out. They will now become as the sons of Issachar (1 Chronicles 12:32). They will understand the timing of the prophetic, both overall (what time it is in the body of Christ), and specific (how long it will take for the prophetic word to come about). They will be extremely valuable to the body of Christ because of this and many will seek them out.

End-time Finances

With this roar will come a release of finances into the body of Christ. Large amounts of money will begin changing hands. Isaiah 60:5 says, "The abundance of the sea shall be turned to you, the wealth of the Gentiles shall come to you." Deuteronomy 15:6 says, "For the Lord God will bless you just as He promised you: you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow; you shall reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over you." The charismatic movement over the past twenty years has taught a lot on finances and prosperity, yet I have only heard of a very small percentage of Christians actually coming into true prosperity as a result of this. And I have only heard of one person, Australian businessman Peter J. Daniels, who has the anointing for end-time finances. Banks come to him to borrow money! Mr. Daniels was a poor brick-layer when he was saved at a crusade, and he promised God he would be faithful and obedient. God promised Mr. Daniels that He would give him finances. For ten years he tithed and gave offerings and was worse off at the end of that time than he was when he had started. But then God began to move. Today, Mr. Daniels only works 10 to 12 hours per week. There are many people today who need their time freed up like that to put it into God's work.

This explosion in finances comes with a greater glory of the Lord which will be poured out. Philippians 4:19 says, "And my God shall supply all your riches in glory by Christ Jesus." The phrase "in glory" is extremely significant here. With the coming of a greater level of glory, we will see a much greater measure of finances being poured out. That is why Ruth Ward Heflin in her book Golden Glory tells of numerous people who have had "gold dust" come specifically on their hands during services, and then within a short period of time come into large amounts of money from unexpected sources. With this roar comes a much greater release in finances.

Laura Healy

Tentpeg Ministries

<http://www.tentpegmin.org/>

tentpeg@bellsouth.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Lion and the Bear

Chad Taylor

I saw a great struggle in the Spirit. A bear and a lion as they wrestled for supremacy over the land. Both of these animals were very territorial. One would not give way to the other. Back and forth this warfare went. Neither seeming to tire in their efforts.

As this epic battle transpired I saw a storm forming overhead. Tumultuous clouds billowed and stacked one upon another. Lightning could be seen from the distance. Thunder began to clap and roar. As this storm increased in its strength, it seemed the lion increased in its strength as well. He became more ferocious in his tactics and the battle began to sway his way.

The bear began to tire as the storm grew closer. Suddenly lightning began to rain down upon the bear. Throwing him to the ground and rendering him helpless. The Lion now began to prevail and conquer in this struggle for life and land. Blow after deadly blow the lion delivered. Lightning from above came down insistently down upon the bears head and torso. Until finally the bear lay motionless and silent.

Then I heard the Lord say,

'The lion is the prayers of the saints. The bear is the spirit of the anti-christ. Without the concerted prayers of many this battle will be lost over much land and people. Only prayer can push back the bears attack. My people must humble themselves and pray like they have never done before. They can not rely upon prayers and efforts of the past, they must renew their intercessions with a greater resolve than they have even done before.

Many lands and peoples depend on this kind of prayer. My people must not be like the pharisee in the temple who looks at his own strengths and works. But they must be like the widow woman who persevered in her prayer until the battle was won. Only this kind of attitude will take territory and set the captives free. Only this kind of prayer will open the gates that the King of Glory can come in. Many of My people must learn all over what it means to pray.

Many in My camp have forgotten their first love. They no longer go to their closets and shut the door. They like to be seen in public places praying. But they have forgotten that what I see in secret I will reward openly. My people must relearn again the secret and power of prayer. They must relearn what it means to seek first the Kingdom of God.'

ARCHERS BENT THEIR BOWS

As this took place I then saw archers set up on the walls, taking their ranks by tens and twenties. Archers gleaming in armor and bow one after the other took their places on the walls. Arrow after arrow was strung and pointed toward the darkness outside the walls. Each archer had a flask of oil, as he dipped his arrow in this oil the arrow tip sprung aflame with fire. Their arms were pulled back ready to unleash this awesome arsenal.

Then I heard the Lord say,

'The archers are My prayer warriors. They have kept their flasks full of oil, and they have not forgotten their first love. Their flaming arrows of prayer will illuminate the darkness for the footsoldiers and evangelists. A great invasion is about to take place in the earth. I am amassing a great army of apostles, prophets, and evangelist to invade the land. These very prayers and arrows will be a lamp to their feet and a light to their path. Like Jonathan and David, the arrows will show the way and help the army avoid certain death and danger. The arrows must be on target says the Lord. The arrows must be on target'

THE SENT ONES...

A great roar came from the camp of the Lord. As the mighty warriors readied themselves to take the land. An innumerable host of prophets, apostles, and evangelists were preparing themselves to invade. They were the "sent ones." The ones chosen before time and space to make a way in the wilderness for their King. Mighty men and women of valor. Great and terrible in their countenance to the enemy. Hearts ablaze with the fire of Passion and Glory. Each carried a sling and five stones and the great grace of the Lord was upon them to do signs and wonders. As one stone was flung another was added in its place. Never would their stones be depleted. They were shod with the readiness of the gospel.

Then I heard the Lord say,

'These are the days of harvest, the days prophesied by all the prophets. These are the days of Elijah and Moses. The days of the apostles and prophets. These are the days when kingdoms shall falter and governments crumble in a twinkling of an eye. These are the days that whole nations will bow and be saved. The hour of the uncomely parts, those with no honor but Mine. No reputation but Heaven, no glory but eternity. These are the ones that will wear the crowns. These are the ones that will see Heaven on earth. They will wrest the thrones in heavenly places and bring forth the Kingdom of God. They wrestle not with flesh and blood.'

GREAT FIELDS OF HARVEST

Then I saw great fields white and ready. As far as the eye could see these fields swayed under the wind. Great fields made ready by tribulations and trial. Great fields of harvest and revival. Reserved for such a time as this. Billions of hearts and souls poised for eternity. Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision. The day of the Lord was nigh in the valley of decision. The day of the Lord had come upon the whole earth.

Then I saw the army begin to take up their tents and move. A great tabernacling had come to the Body of Christ. A great shifting, a great shaking. Every man made ready his tent. The sound of movement could be heard from every direction as the army began to move.

Then I heard the voice of the Lord say,

'A great shaking and change is upon the Church. What you see today is not what you will see tomorrow. Those that have lived from the visions and words of yesterday will not be satisfied with these any longer. They must have new manna. They must have new revelation. They cannot live off another mans revelation any longer. They must be able to say with Peter, "You are Christ, the Son of God." They must know Me for themselves, not another man's dream, not another man's vision. Now is the time for every one to have his own. To know Me in the secret place. To see Me transfigured and glorified. I will ask this generation like I asked the one before, "Who do you say that I am?"

THE LION WAS VICTORIOUS

Again I saw the bear. He lay motionless and dead. His body ceased to move, his breathing no longer labored. Life had drained from his body. The great lion filled the air with his victory roar. All the land trembled when he roared. His frame began to heal supernaturally from the wounds and blows. Only the scars remained. A great eagle came to rest on the lions shoulder. Lifting him, carrying him to higher places out of danger. As he prepared himself for another battle, another land, another place to possess. In the high place the lion dwelled. From that place he viewed the land.

And I heard the voice of the Lord say,

'Beware of the bear's cubs. The bear is not dead, he lives in his offspring. As winter comes upon you, know that he only slumbers and sleeps. Waiting for another moment, another time to attack. The archers must prepare their bows, they must take their places on the walls. The apostles and prophets and evangelist must prepare themselves to go. They must ready themselves for invasion. A window of opportunity is about to open upon the whole earth. A great harvest is dawning upon the Church. It must make herself ready with prayers and supplications. She must make herself ready in her closet. Only their will she receive the revelation to prevail. Only their will she receive the glory to overcome.

Prepare yourself O Bride of the Morning Star! Prepare yourself O Church of the first born! You will see Me high and lifted up! You will see Me as I really am! Glorified and transfigured. For these are the days of harvest and revival. Now you will do the greater works. Now you will see the heavens opened and the angels descending and ascending upon the Son of Man.'

Chad Taylor

Webpage: www.consumingfire.com

Email: lionheart@gci.net

Join Consumingfire email list:

consumingfire-subscribe@egroups.com

Lamentations 2:19

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Lord's Battle

Sharon Marks

During renewal prayer the Lord showed me a mighty white stallion magnificently arrayed in battle regalia. The Lord then spoke and said, "The horse is saddled and made ready for battle: It is the Lord who shall bring deliverance!!"
October 5,1999

Progression: January 18,2000:

The Lord showed me a horse and rider leading the battle in the front lines and pushing the enemy back. He told me that the enemy was now on the defensive and the body of Christ was, as they should always be, on the offensive. That we were driving the enemy back with our prayers, our fasting and our praises. He said "Your Lord God has gone before you and prepared the land - go in, take the land, for I am with you."

Progression: March 12,2000:

He then showed me another horse and rider- this time in full parade dressing of purple and gold and they were leading a grand procession of victory into His sanctuary. He said the enemy is defeated but press in and on. I have commanded you strength and I will strengthen what I have commanded to be done in you.

He said "I have heard you cry; How long Lord? We have prayed, fasted, bowed down and worshipped You--how long before you bring Your power? Says the Lord, soon I will show many signs and wonders of my power to and through you. I have stretched out my hand to a people whose heart is for their God and I shall not withdraw it.

You have been faithful My children in times of adversity. In times of stretching of your faith you have remained faithful. In times when un-righteousness would try to divide you, you have remained righteous and true. When for a moment I withdrew from your midst to test your heart, you My precious children pressed in and on and sought after Me.

My heart has been filled with joy and compassion for you and you have found favor in My eyes for you do not easily turn aside but you seek the heart and the will of Your God. In this, know that I will purpose in you a mighty work. I WILL BRING MY MANIFEST POWER into your midst, for you have shown that you can handle My presence with respect, with reverence, with holiness.

You are a holy people and through you I will bring this nation out of its turmoil, out of its sinful ways and back to its first Love. Think not on your size for in My eyes you are as the sands of the ocean's shore. I will multiply you as the stars in the sky, if you do not stray from the path I have set before.

Be careful My children, for many would try to lead you astray with false words and writings. Hold fast to My word and to My way and will. Give Satan no place. He is a defeated foe! I will command my angels to do battle for you in the heavenly's and on the earth.

I will set around you warring angels to protect you. Know that there will be times of testing and trials. In these shall you be made strong. Pray for those who fall along the way, but DO NOT stop-go forth-press on and in! Have I not told you that not one - no not one - shall be snatched from My hand?

Believe! Trust! I am not man that I should lie! Be careful My children that you do not become puffed up; that you begin to think these things I shall bring in your midst is of any of your own doing. I will not share My glory with any other-I am a jealous God.

Unite together, knit yourselves one to the other, let no-one stand alone lest he fall away. Be responsible to give to one another love not hate, compassion not indifference, if your brother or sister is hungry take of what I have given you and share it with them, if they thirst give them water.

Love one another as is commanded you and as My Son has loved even you. In these ways, are the ways of your Lord God. You have been made in Our image, not as in the outward image but as in the spiritual image.

Be holy, for this is the desire of your Father for you. Take into your heart no bitterness for your neighbor for it will surely destroy you. Let forgiveness and love consume and permeate in and from you. Open wide your doors and I will send forth the tired, the hungry, the oppressed, the depressed, the suicidal, the lost, the bound, the forgotten, the hopeless, the un-loved. Wrap your arms around them, in spite of their sin and un-cleanness. Let not their "stink" offend you, for I will wash them clean, as I did even YOU!

Now concerning those I have placed as shepherds over you: Do not touch my anointed! Test all things to be of Me but do not judge.

Lift up in prayer what is not of your understanding of Me - to Me. I will build up that which is of Me and I will tear down that which is not! My children, do not let the enemy bring division between you and the shepherd over you. Take away the pointing of the finger, instead trust what I have purposed for you through them.

If it is not of Me, then I will change that which needs changing, in My way - not yours. Remember that they go through the same as you and they sometimes err, but in their willingness to repent and to press on in Me is where - in the fruit of their servitude is made manifest.

Look for the fruit, children, not the immediate circumstances. If the fruit is ripe and bountiful; not sour and without growth then it is as it should be. If there is a building up of the people and not a tearing down. If there is love, guidance, compassion and servanthood then these things are of Me.

Respect whom I have chosen that serve ME well, without compromise, and who do not turn to every whim of man to please but seek only to please their God. Who do not withhold correction; for those that love and are loved are corrected that they might grow in the way that has been established since their beginning and before.

Now concerning My prophets:

I shall raise up Elisha's and Isaiah's in your midst and I will place within them My oracles to speak forth. Heed what they say and do not quickly judge their words, for they are of Me. I shall bring strong direction and correction to My people in the time to come that they may grow and be made strong in Me and in MY WAYS, not man's.

Too many have turned to doctrines that are of man and not of their God. Too many are concerned with what man thinks of what they say or do. I say "concern yourselves with the heart of your God, for it is He you shall answer to and not man!"

Know that in correction, My children, I love you. Just as in correcting your children you still love them. You correct out of a desire to teach them to grow properly and strongly; you correct them because you love them. How much more do I who created you Love you?!

My prophets are sent by Me and I speak to you through them. I have purposed in them a revelation of Me, to reveal to you, My will. Let the prophet be subject to the prophets.

If it is not of Me then it will not come to pass and I shall bring correction and judgment. If it is of Me and you do not listen then the fault is yours and you shall surely be called to correction and judgment.

Know the will of Your Father, My children, as is in My word and has been made known through My Son. For this is My will for all My children that they should first love Me and search My heart and that they love one another even as I have loved them.

1 John 5:14-15 "And this is the confidence that we have in Him; That if we ask anything according to HIS will, He heareth us: And if we know that He hear us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of Him."

Romans 12:2 "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God."

Proverbs 1:7 "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; but fools despise wisdom and instruction."

Isaiah 30:21 "And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand and when ye turn to the left."

Isaiah 48: 17 "...I am the Lord thy God which teacheth thee to profit; which leadeth thee by the way that thou should go."

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Little Foxes

Bill Burns

January 26, 2000:

Last night as Marsha and I were coming home from church, we were surprised to see two foxes in our drive way. The two foxes were also surprised as their activity was revealed by the headlights of our car. They were somewhat confused and blinded by the light, and they went together in a little circle, almost as if their tails were tied together. They then broke apart and moved away from the headlights, leaping over a snow bank into deep snow, and disappearing into the darkness.

When the foxes hit the deep snow, they caused a cloud of spray to erupt from the white powder which reminded me of fields which are white for harvest with the wind blowing upon them.

We went to bed, and several times in the night the Spirit of the Lord said, "Beware of the little foxes that spoil the vine." So, this morning I sat before the Lord to see what He would show me about these foxes and what they represent.

The Lord said, "These two foxes which I have shown you were revealed by the light. Now, I will reveal to you the two-fold meaning of the little foxes. Tell this to My church that they might be forewarned, for the evil one comes to steal the harvest from My vineyard."

The first scripture that I thought of was Song of Solomon 2:15 "Catch us the foxes, the little foxes that spoil the vines, for our vines have tender grapes." The Lord would have us to catch these little foxes before they spoil the vine and the tender grapes, which represent the fruit of our labor as we have worked to bring the harvest into the storehouse.

The first fox represents that which has been sent by Satan to steal our individual fruit (of the Spirit). The second fox represents that which has been sent by Satan to steal the harvest of souls from the church.

When these two foxes (Satan's purposes) are tied together, their destruction can produce unholy fire that will consume our personal and corporate harvests. We have a picture of this in the book of Judges when Samson tied the foxes together and put a torch between each pair of tails.

Judges 15:4-5, "Then Samson went and caught three hundred foxes; and he took torches, turned the foxes tail to tail, and put a torch between each pair of tails. When he had set the torches on fire, he let the foxes go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burned up both the shocks and the standing grain, as well as the vineyards and olive groves."

I am not equating Samson's action to that of the devil, but rather using this scripture to paint a picture of the destruction that the foxes produced to destroy the harvest.

In Luke 13:31 some Pharisees came to Jesus and told Him that Herod wanted to kill Him. In verse 32 Jesus refers to Herod as a fox. Herod wanted to kill Jesus before His time. Of course, this was Satan's plan for Herod--to kill Jesus before the harvest of souls could be reaped. It is interesting to me that Jesus called Herod a "fox" and was most likely referring to the cunning and destructive traits of Herod which were like unto those who would try to destroy the Master's vineyard (the church).

The First Fox: As I said, the first fox represents Satan's plan to steal our individual fruitfulness, fruit of the Spirit. I also believe that Satan will now try to steal the blessings that the Lord is about to pour out on His people. Satan is after your joy and crown. The joy of the Lord is your strength, and the crown represents your position in the kingdom of God as His sons. As sons, you have been promised many blessings by your Father, among which is financial blessings.

Lamentations 5:15-18, "The joy of our heart has ceased; our dance has turned into mourning. The crown has fallen from our head. Woe to us, for we have sinned! Because of this our heart is faint; because of these things our eyes grow dim; because of Mount Zion which is desolate, with foxes walking about on it."

What is this sin that the little foxes represent? This is not gross sin; it is the little sin (foxes), the subtle sins that overtake us such as wrong attitudes, judgmentalism, criticism of others, gossip, jealousy, contention, etc. (Read Colossians chapter 3).

These are the sins of the mind, wrong thinking. These are the issues of life that flow out of wrong heart attitudes. We must catch these little foxes before they spoil our harvest of God's blessings.

Proverbs 4:23, "Keep your heart with all diligence, For out of it spring the issues of life."

Romans 12:1-2, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God."

2 Corinthians 10:4-6, "For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, and being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled."

The Second Fox: The second represents the voice of the prophets who are speaking out of their own spirits and those who have jealous spirits who are accusing God's true prophets of being false prophets.

Ezekiel 13:1-4, "And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to those who prophesy out of their own heart, 'Hear the word of the LORD!' Thus says the Lord GOD: Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing! O Israel, your prophets are like foxes in the deserts."

The prophet, Ezekiel, goes on to rebuke those who have spoken nonsense and lies which could include nonsense and lies spoken about the prophets of God.

Ezekiel 13:8-9, "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have spoken nonsense and envisioned lies, therefore I am indeed against you, says the Lord GOD. My hand will be against the prophets who envision futility and who divine lies; they shall not be in the assembly of My people, nor be written in the record of the house of Israel, nor shall they enter into the land of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the Lord GOD."

And, what about the smooth lips of those who are now saying peace and safety?

Ezekiel 13:10-16, "Because, indeed, because they have seduced My people, saying, 'Peace!' when there is no peace; and one builds a wall, and they plaster it with untempered mortar; say to those who plaster it with untempered mortar, that it will fall. There will be flooding rain, and you, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall tear it down. Surely, when the wall has fallen, will it not be said to you, Where is the mortar with which you plastered it? Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I will cause a stormy wind to break forth in My fury; and there shall be a flooding rain in My anger, and great hailstones in fury to consume it. So I will break down the wall you have plastered with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation will be uncovered; it will fall, and you shall be consumed in the midst of it. Then you shall know that I am the LORD. Thus will I accomplish My wrath on the wall and on those who have plastered it with untempered mortar; and I will say to you, The wall is no more, nor those who plastered it, that is, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her when there is no peace, says the Lord GOD."

The voices of the false prophets who do these things will become little foxes (verse 4) that will spoil the vine and steal the harvest by leading many astray and ushering them into the kingdom of Babylon. The walls of Babylon will not stand, for they are plastered with untempered mortar, and they will fall before the Lord of Glory.

What shall we do to catch these foxes, brethren?

Ezekiel 13:17, "Likewise, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart; prophesy against them."

The fox is a master thief, and the thief has come to steal, kill and destroy the harvest. May we be awakened from our slumber and set our own traps for these little foxes that have come to spoil the vine.

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

January 31, 2000:

I am preparing you for a new season, but there is still work to do before you can press on. There are things that need to be finished and put away before you can enter into what is ahead of you. I call you to a place of integrity and diligence in those things that require your attention. For, I am establishing faithfulness in your character. The test is to see if you will be honorable in secret, not as a man-pleaser only doing what others can see and appreciate, but being obedient to do My will from your heart whether anyone sees or not. I want you to learn to abide in the secret place so that you are not always clamoring for approval and acceptance from others, for that is truly a place of rest. So, I say, stop striving in the flesh, and come into that secret place where no one sees but Me. Let us commune together, face to face, heart to heart.

February 1, 2000:

Check your seed. What kind of seeds are you sowing? Are you sowing strife and contention among the brethren? Are you sowing the seeds of discord? I have called you to sow the word of God into your own hearts and into the lives of others. Have I not said that death and life are in the power of the tongue? I am calling you today to check your seed, for you will be accountable for every unproductive word you speak. I have called you to encourage one another concerning the faith. Speak words that will bring life. Matthew 12:36-37, "But I say to you that for every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment. For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

February 2, 2000:

I caution you to stay in your places of safety. Many of you will be tempted out of boredom and discontentment to leave the places where I have planted you and protected you. The enemy is trying to lure you by your curiosity into places where you will become unproductive, where you will be mocked and scorned. The torment will be greater than you are willing to endure, and getting back to safe habitations will be at least difficult, if not impossible. Some of you are playing with things which are ungodly. Some of you have formed ungodly relationships. These are leading you away from your place of safety in Me, and you are in great danger. Do not touch what is unclean. Revelation 22:15, "But outside are dogs and sorcerers and sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and whoever loves and practices a lie."

February 4, 2000:

Do not be shaken in your mind or troubled. The enemy has come with a whirlwind of lies and trouble to get you off balance and distracted. But, I say, calm down; come into the eye of the storm where there is peace. The storm will continue to rage around you, and you will see the effects of this violent commotion and be aware of its destructive nature, but you must come and take refuge in Me. For, I will protect you and lead you safely out. Quiet your soul; refuse to be drawn into the turmoil through fear. Stand still and see your salvation, for I will certainly rescue you and hide you in My secret place. (Psalm 91)

February 5, 2000:

I had a vision of a man walking down a road carrying an extremely large backpack; it was so big that at times he was only able to drag it along. As he encountered others on the road, he tried to enlist their help in carrying his burden, but one by one they would look inside the backpack only to shake their heads and continue on their way. After watching this man struggle for what seemed a very long time, he sat down and began to go through his backpack to evaluate the contents of his load. I realized as the items in his pack were revealed that they had to do with the past and that the articles were imbedded in some kind of gray matter that made them very heavy. I was immediately made aware that all of these things had to do with the man's past and the gray matter was his memories. One by one he reviewed these articles, and as soon as he decided they were not worth carrying, they disappeared. Soon, the entire backpack was empty and the man continued on his journey unburdened. As the vision faded, he was dancing and skipping down the road as though he had just been released from prison, completely free. Philippians 3:13-14, "Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus."

Utterance through Bill Burns:

February 4, 2000:

Children, listen again to My voice, for it must be that you stop this self-focus. You must stop self-seeking. You must stop self-gratification. Stop seeking to please yourself, and look only to please Me. I say, look unto Me, for I am the Author and Finisher of your faith. Look unto Me, for I can lift you out of the dreariness in which you dwell. Look unto Me, and I will come and save you from the cesspool of the life that you create around yourself when you continue in self-seeking, self-glory, self-justification, and self-exaltation. I am the righteous Judge, and I do come to judge My people first before people of the world. It is written, first to the Jew (first to those who are saved, first to those who are grafted in) and then to the Greek (to the world) My judgment must come. For the day of My wrath does come, and who can stand it? Who can bear it? Only those who have turned to Me with all of their hearts; only those that serve Me with a whole heart; only those that reach out to Me with nothing held back. Indeed, I say, only those that come to the light and expose all darkness can walk in the kingdom of light.

FAITH TABERNACLE

111 North Fourth Street

P. O. Box 1148

Kremmling, CO 80459

<http://ft111.com>

ft111@ft111.com

Send us your full name and e-mail address to receive our prophetic bulletin.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Lion, the Bear, and Goliath

Joseph Herrin

Joseph Herrin (10-23-2000)

bherrin@hotmail.com

This teaching could actually have several names. It has much to do with God's requirement for His children to walk in faith before Him. It has to do with His children entering into their inheritance. It has much to do with the character of the sons and daughters that God will grant unprecedented kingdom authority to in this day. It is my hope that some who struggle with fear will be encouraged as they read of my own experience, to walk worthily before the Father. I have never been what I would consider to be a bold person. I have been beset by many fears, but I have found God to be greater than my fears time and time again. Joyce Myers has a teaching called "Do it Afraid" and I will admit that this is often how I have followed God's leading, with fear and trembling entrusting myself to a faithful and loving God.

We sometimes have a view of certain Biblical personalities as being cut from a different mold than us. We think they were not beset with our petty weaknesses of the flesh, with doubts, fears, and uncertainty. In thinking this we actually make things more difficult for ourselves because when we find these weaknesses resident in our frame we become convinced that we are not cut from the same cloth as the saints of God whom we read about as overcomers. But let me assure you, they all experienced these same fleshly battles.

Abraham, the father of faith was afraid that he would be killed by foreigners when he sojourned in their land because of the beauty of his wife. He therefore had her passed off as his sister and she was even taken to be another man's wife, but God protected her from any sexual involvement.

Jacob ran for his life from the anger of his brother who vowed to kill him. He later deceived his father-in-law and snuck away from his household to avoid a confrontation with him. Later, as he approached his homeland, he was gripped with fear at the prospect of meeting his brother again and he was afraid that he and his wives and children would be killed. He took steps to at least spare some of them, even when God had told him to return to his homeland and God vowed to be with him.

David, who is often thought to be as fearless of an individual as there ever was wrote so many Psalms that expressed how his soul was being overwhelmed by his trials and adversaries that it is impossible to think that he didn't struggle with these same human feelings of weakness. He cried out over and over for God to come to him quickly lest he should perish and his soul should be swallowed up in despair.

But how about the New Testament? Wasn't Paul a man who endured so many things and who did so courageously without any fear at all? Listen to his own words.

I Corinthians 2:1_4

1 And when I came to you, brethren, I did not come with superiority of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the testimony of God.

2 For I determined to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified.

3 And I was with you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling.

4 And my message and my preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power,

(NAS)

It seems somehow incongruent that Paul could preach "in demonstration of the Spirit and of power", yet he was physically "in weakness and in fear and in much trembling." Yet Paul understood that God's power is not shown through our natural strength, but through our weakness. It is in our weakness that we deem ourselves incapable of performing anything of eternal value so that we throw ourselves unreservedly over onto the Father and say "God, if anything of worth or value is to come forth it must come from You, for I am unable to accomplish it." This acknowledgment of our weakness opens the door for the power of God to be manifest.

This has often been my petition and prayer before the Father as I was faced with an opportunity to teach or preach to a gathering of believers. I would cry out, "Father, this message You have placed on my heart cannot be given in my strength or by convincing words of man's wisdom. Father, only if You move by Your spirit will life come forth. Only if You prevail by Your Spirit can eyes see and ears hear and lives be changed. Father, I am totally dependent upon You. Father, may You move and accomplish all that is upon Your heart in this place this day."

It is from our weakness that we release God to move in power. If we feel sufficient, then we will try to accomplish that which can only be performed by the Spirit through our own efforts. This is folly, but it is done thousands of times a day throughout this nation and around the world among the saints of God.

What I would like to speak to you through all of this is that if you feel unable to accomplish the things that God asks you to do then you are right on track. If you feel weak, if you tremble at the prospect of going where God sends you and doing what He asks you to do, then you are a perfect candidate to see the power of God and of His Spirit released through you.

This has been my experience as a minister of God and as a son of His as I have sought to respond to His requests upon my life. I would like to share a few of my experiences so that you might be encouraged and built up and know that you too have what it takes to see God's power manifested in your life.

From my youth I have been beset with feelings of inadequacy and insecurity. I felt that I was somehow inferior to other people and that I was lacking in certain vital areas that I really couldn't define, but which I felt nonetheless. I rarely looked people in the eyes when I spoke to them because of my insecurity. I was placed in a public speaking class once when I was in High School and the first day we had to introduce ourselves and say one short fact about ourselves. I was mortified. I turned red and stammered and sweated and I went immediately afterward and dropped that class.

I became so frightened about being in the public eye and put on the spot that I would avoid every situation that held fear for me. I was consumed with a fear of other people and their opinions of me thinking that people would see my lack and failings and I would somehow be rejected. One of the most trying episodes for me was getting a haircut. I was afraid that I would get nervous while getting a haircut and that it would be noticed. I would begin to sweat profusely and this was impossible for the barber to not notice since my hair would be glistening with sweat while he was trying to cut it. Haircuts for me became miserable times for me as I tried to do everything to not think about getting nervous, only to fail time after time and to have my head dripping with sweat while the barber cut my hair. I even had a barber hand me a towel to dry my hair and wipe my brow as he noticed my discomfort.

I share these things with you to show you that I have not been a bold or self confident person. You can then understand that when I tell you how I have seen the power of God manifested in my life that God has done these things through a weak and insignificant vessel that He has chosen to display His power through. We are told that He has chosen the weak and the foolish things of this world to confound the wise.

First I will tell you that God has taken someone who could not even say his name in public and He has called me to publicly proclaim the word of God. This I have done now from my early twenties and God has used my own insecurity to cause me to cast myself upon Him for His strength, His enabling, and His ability to have His word proclaimed. I have often stood upon God's own words to Moses, "Did I not create man's lips? I will be with your mouth and give you the words to speak." In our weakness we look to the promises of God and we press into them and rely heavily upon them. It is then that we see His power manifested.

I want to share three specific occasions that the Father has challenged me to step forth in faith and how He has been there to support and sustain me each time. I share these because in this day such steps of faith are being mandated by the Father for all of those who will go forth with Him into the land of their inheritance. The Father has specifically shown me that these three trials equate to David's trials with the lion, the bear, and Goliath.

I have two children, Kristin who is 12 and Josiah who is 10. Both of my children were born with a hereditary bone disease called Osteogenesis Imperfecta, which is also called Brittle Bone disease. By the time my son was born my daughter had already broken four bones. Soon after my son was born he broke his first bone as well. At this time some people told my wife and I about government SSI disability benefits that were available to children with disabilities. Without praying about whether we should apply for these benefits that provided complete medical coverage and a monthly stipend that amounted to between $300 - $400, we went ahead and applied.

Remarkably, my daughter who had broken four bones was turned down while my son who had only broken one was accepted. This I now know to be of God for He wanted to demonstrate something to us. From this date forward my daughter never broke another bone while my son proceeded to break twelve bones, one of which required surgery and another required anesthesia while the bone was set in place. He did all this by the age of seven.

I was very distraught about my son's condition. He was not able to play normally with other kids. Other parents were even afraid to have him over for fear that he might become injured. I began to pray to God about his situation and to seek God for healing. During this time God spoke to me and He told me that He could heal my son, but that I would have to rely totally upon God and not upon government disability insurance. If I asked God to heal him yet continued to keep the SSI coverage then I was being double-minded and God required a step of faith and obedience on my behalf in order to heal my son. I considered that since my daughter was turned down for the coverage she had not broken another bone, but my son had broken eleven more.

When it came down to it there wasn't much of a choice. I could either keep the insurance coverage and they would pay for the medical expenses every time my son broke another bone, or I could cancel the coverage and trust God to heal him. In the end my wife and I made the right decision. We canceled his SSI coverage and committed our son to the care of God. My son had broken two bones in the year leading up to this decision and was freshly out of a cast at the time so this went against everything we could see. But we are called to walk by faith, not by sight.

It has now been over three years since we followed God in this decision and our son has not broken another bone. God told us not to baby him, but to allow him to do all the things that boys do. My son skateboards, rides bikes, plays on trampolines, etc., and God has preserved him in perfect health. This was facing the lion for us.

During the next year God began speaking to me about trusting Him for the health of our entire family. I was working as a computer professional at a hospital and I had excellent health insurance at very reasonable rates. God spoke to me that I was to cancel this insurance and trust Him for the health of our whole family. This also coincided with God dealing with the same issues of faith and trusting God at the church among which I was an elder and a pastor. This led to a tremendous struggle and a lot of emotional heat generated by the fears inherent in our fallen flesh.

At the hospital I worked at you could only make changes to insurance coverage one time during the year, this being in December. After struggling greatly with the issue, my wife and I finally came to a verbal agreement that we were going to cancel coverage when the window of opportunity arrived. However, a test came just prior to this date.

Several weeks before the date that I could drop my insurance I began to manifest symptoms of diabetes. I began experiencing dry cottony mouth and constant thirst. I had extremely frequent urination, even having to get up 5 or 6 times a night to use the bathroom and get another drink of water. I experienced blurred vision and occasional dizziness. One day while at work I became dizzy and being right there in the emergency room, I asked them to check me out and they checked my blood sugar and it was about 370 when it should be no higher than 120. The attending doctor told me I was diabetic and that I needed to go see my family physician and get started on a diabetic regimen for treatment.

Well, I knew what God had spoken to me about trusting Him for our health and His instructions to cancel my health insurance. The timing of this physical attack, just weeks before I could cancel this insurance seemed more than coincidental. I knew it was a test. The pressure was poured on even more. Some nurses I knew at the hospital had heard about my case and they dealt with diabetic education and treatment. They began telling me regularly that I needed to see a doctor quickly. They gave me brochures about diabetes and they told me horror stories of amputated limbs, blindness, organ failure, and other effects of leaving diabetes untreated. They told me that they had patients in the hospital at that moment whose blood sugar was no worse than mine and these patients were on intravenous insulin drips.

I struggled greatly during the next weeks and my symptoms persisted. I became nervous and distracted by all that was coming against me and I even was so distracted that I pulled right out in front of an incoming van while driving and only avoided a collision because my wife screamed and I slammed on the brakes. I had great pressure from family to not cancel insurance, but again my choices seemed pretty plain.

As I considered it, I could go to a doctor and begin treatment for diabetes, a treatment I would be on for the rest of my life, or I could cast myself wholly over onto the Lord and trust Him to bring complete healing. The prospects of being healed when compared to lifelong diabetic management, knowing that there was no medical cure for diabetes and the condition usually worsened with age, caused me to prefer going for complete healing.

I need to mention that God had brought the issue of walking in faith with Him to the forefront of the ministers among which I was a part and I knew that my decision had implications that went beyond my life to the body of Christ. God showed me that our promised land was defined by His names and that one of His names is Jehovah Rapha, the God that heals. In order to go in and possess the land we have to do battle and fear is one of the enemies in the land that has to be conquered. I knew that God's challenge and the assault I was facing were not coincidental, but related.

Once again, in fear and trembling, I chose obedience and I cast myself over onto God wholly. I canceled health coverage on our whole family and I never went to see a physician for treatment of diabetes. Right after I took this step of faith I began miraculously to lose weight. I was not on a diet. I had tried to lose weight for years without success, but now the pounds seemed to melt away without effort. All the symptoms of diabetes disappeared completely and to this date they have not returned. God brought complete healing to my body. This was facing the bear.

I must say that looking back on these steps of faith and obedience, even if they were done in fear and trembling, is a great faith booster. To see that God challenged us to step out in faith and to see how He has perfectly rewarded those steps of faith is a real source of courage and strength. It has allowed us to face even greater trials. It has also been a tremendous testimony to our children. My son Josiah has a plaque on his wall and it has his name on it with this meaning, "Jehovah Heals." It is no coincidence that my son has manifested the reality that God does indeed heal. God took a boy who had a hereditary bone disease that has no cure and no proven treatment, a boy that had been breaking multiple bones every year, and He has healed him. I am thrilled when my son asks me if he can go play ball with the neighbor kids and without hesitation I can say "Yes son. Run along and play."

During this time the other ministers of the body I was a part of were not doing too well in facing the challenges that God was bringing to them. God had shown me that two particular areas were set before us as a body of believers to go in and possess the land. The first was the part of our inheritance defined by God's name Jehovah Rapha. The second was also defined by a name of God. This one was Jehovah Jireh, God our provider.

Over and over God brought the ministers and members of this body to tests in the area of health and finances and unfortunately the tests were failed more often than not. As a group, the ministers could not agree with what God was doing in our midst. Personal fears for individual health and financial issues led to missed opportunities to take a step of faith and obedience and faith over and over again. The results were seen in the body as health and financial troubles became more and more pronounced.

Finances became an even more troubling area than health among the body. God began in some extraordinary ways to bring the issue of trusting Him for finances to the forefront. He even brought the head pastor of this body into contact with a couple who had been living totally by faith in the area of their finances for several decades and who had written a book of their experiences. A copy of this book was given to each minister including myself and I knew God was speaking to us through this encounter.

God began giving us challenges individually and corporately to step out in faith in this area. My biggest challenge occurred when God spoke to me and told me it was time to leave my job at the hospital where I had worked for fourteen years. He told me that He would bring me into a greater realm of ministry and through many prophetic words and other confirmations He made His will known.

One such confirmation was when I walked through our kitchen and I glanced at our calendar for the day and it had Exodus 14:14 as the scripture. This issue of leaving my employer was at the forefront of my mind at the time and when I saw this scripture I was struck by it. Exodus means to go out from a place. The double occurrence of the number fourteen also was significant in that I had been with my employer 14 years. I was mindful that Joseph revealed to Pharaoh that when God repeats something it means it is settled and it will quickly come to pass.

This was a very big step and it engendered tremendous opposition within my family. I asked God to further confirm His word and He told me to go look up the number 14 in scripture. On my computer study Bible I typed in the word "fourteen" and the very first occurrence in the Old Testament immediately came up. It was Genesis 31:41 and this fragment of the verse was shown on my screen: "I have worked for you for fourteen years." This of course was where Jacob was leaving Laban's household, which was another exodus.

The first occurrence of the word "fourteen" in the New Testament was equally significant. This is in the first chapter of Matthew where the genealogies are listed and three groups of fourteen generations are given. Each group of fourteen represents a transition and God was speaking to me that a transition was coming forth in my life.

I did end up leaving my employer after 14 years of service with them and I have not been employed for 12 and ½ months now. During this time we have never lacked for food or shelter or any necessary thing. We have also been able to do more than we ever did while I was employed. However, my step out to follow God has met with tremendous resistance.

At the time the ministers of the body I was in were refusing to step out in faith, God told me to step out. This brought a tremendous negative response from the other ministers resulting in my being labeled as proud and arrogant. God showed me that David was accused of the same thing when he went to face Goliath and no one else wanted to do so. It was David's brother Eliab (symbolic of Christian brothers) who accused him of insolence and pride and unfaithfulness when Eliab was merely afraid himself to face the giant, and David's willingness to do so made Eliab look bad.

In the end the ministers of this body ended up casting me out from their midst saying they could no longer walk with me in ministry. I then came under fire from family as well and the attacks and accusations and denouncements have been terrible as I have been accused of being deluded, of being an abuser of my family, of being an infidel, having my very salvation questioned, and every manner of attack has been lobbied against my character.

I mention this to simply say that in a time when God has brought me to a place of testing in the area of trusting Him for my families provision, that the test has been even greater because there has been such vehement opposition to where I am walking. I have been able to stand not because of my own abilities, but because God has sustained me. In my own weakness He has supported and strengthened me and He has shown that His provision is always present.

Time after time during the past year when we have had a need the provision would come in just at the right moment from an unlooked for source. I believe this time of severe testing is coming to a conclusion for in a couple days we will be debt free and we will be free to be sent anywhere God desires us to go. One significant provision we needed was last month. We knew when our finances would be settled and we needed a place to stay for the next month and a half and we didn't have the money to rent a place to stay. As I was praying for God's provision the phone rang and a lady I had not spoken to in months and months was on the phone and she wanted to offer us her second house for us to stay in and she offered for us to stay for the next month and a half absolutely free. To top this off the electricity was already turned on in the house saving us the expense of having it connected.

A week or so later I needed some money and I asked God if He wouldn't provide for us and I had a sum of several hundred dollars in mind. That evening a brother came up to us and put an envelope in our hands. When I got home and counted it, it was $300 dollars in twenty dollar bills. This has been the nature of God's provision for us.

I have been in many perils, in abandonment, in exile, in many fears and terrors during this past year, but God has delivered my family and I through them all. This past year has been my encounter with Goliath. More than facing a fear of financial failure, my Goliath has been having to face fear in general and to overcome it. There has been the fear of rejection, the fear of the opinions of men, the fear of violence, the fear of losing my family, and many other fears. I have not been able to shake all of these fears, but I have found that in Christ I can go forward with God despite the fear. When we respond in obedience to His call to faith then He is able to do tremendous things in our behalf.

God is raising up a people who will go in and possess the land before them. It is okay to have doubts and fears, but we cannot be ruled by them. We must press forward despite our fears and we will see the mighty provision of our Lord. If you are being pressed forward and you feel inadequate to the task before you, know that you truly are inadequate, but your God is quite adequate. When we are weak He is strong. He delights to show forth His might through vessels of clay. Be encouraged!

II Chronicles 16:9

"For the eyes of the LORD move to and fro throughout the earth that He may strongly support those whose heart is completely His.

(NAS)

website: heart4god.8k.com

The Lord is in the Stable

John and Alta Ludlam

8/14/00

The Spirit of God has been speaking to us for a few days about the process and timing of the long anticipated move of God in our land.

The Holy Spirit has given us and many others prophetic words regarding the Spirit of God reviving our churches, and then a flood of His Spirit flowing out of the church into the streets. The Lord is releasing an apostolic church to move in the harvest fields.

THE RIVER SEEKS THE LOWEST PLACE

An apostolic church is a 'sent' church. It is an outgoing missionary body. When a river flows, it always seeks the lowest place. Recently the Holy Spirit gave Alta a vision of a ship that was aground on some rocks. The water had receded from around the ship. She heard that the only thing to do was to find out where the water - or God's Spirit - went, and go there.

At the same time, I had a vision during a time of worship at a large gathering, I saw the glory of God flowing like a river. It was flowing outside of the place we were meeting in and going into dark and low places in the city.

WHILE WE PRAY HERE, HE MAY GO THERE

The Holy Spirit spoke to me that God always responds to worship, but the church cannot determine where He will release His glory. We may be calling for Him to fill the house we are in, and He may decide to fill a barroom across town! During a time where the Holy Spirit is moving apostolically, the presence of the Lord will be found in the prodigal son's pigpen.

Jesus will be found where the one lost sheep is caught in the brambles. The anointing of God will be moving in the highways and byways. The harvesters must go into the fields, the crops will not bring themselves into the barns. Quite to our surprise, God has opened up places of ministry in prisons for us in the past few years.

REVIVAL IS ALREADY HERE

We are seeing His grace and power flow in these places bringing salvation, healing and deliverance to many inmates. Alta and I were in a church service very recently in which a song crying out for revival was being sung. The Holy Spirit really surprised me by saying to me that "the revival is already here."

THE STABLE PRINCIPLE

I had a revelation of what we are seeing Him do in the prisons as that revival. This is what we have been praying for, but it hasn't come where we thought it would come. This is the stable principle.' The messiah that all of Israel was praying for did not show up where he was expected. He came in THE most lowly place imaginable.

Many continued to pray for him to come while Jesus was walking down their streets. The revival has come. It is being found in small and lowly places. Young people are being released to lead with authority, but few know about it.

INMATES WITH APOSTOLIC ANOINTING

Right now inmates are being released with apostolic anointings, but it is still hidden. This move of God will grow and mature, but it will not look like past moves looked. We have experience with prisons and youth, but I know that this same thing is happening with the poor and other places where there is great need.

A few years ago the Holy Spirit was preparing to move in great power in one of the prisons I minister in. At that time He said to me something I have not forgotten:

THEY'VE LOST EVERYTHING -- SO THEY QUALIFY FOR THE BEST

He said, "These men have lost everything. They have no money. They have lost their reputations and standing in society. Many have lost marriages and family. Therefore, they qualify for My very best."

I believe that this is His heart for every person in great need. If our expectation is for stadiums to be filled before we get to work and partner with the Holy Spirit's apostolic work, we may miss it. If we are waiting for a transfer of wealth to the church before we minister to the poor, we have missed the point. Find out where He wants you to serve, and go with what you have. Head for the stable. He is there now.

John & Alta Ludlam

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Locusts Are Coming

Stephen Hanson

May 7, 00

4. What the locust swarm has left the great locusts have eaten; what the great locusts have left the young locusts have eaten; what the young locusts have left other locusts have eaten. Joel 1

9. "Many times I struck your gardens and vineyards, I struck them with blight and mildew. Locusts devoured your fig and olive trees, yet you have not returned to me," declares the LORD. Amos 4

34. "Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. Matt. 10

3. When the Lamb opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, "Come!" 4. Then another horse came out, a fiery red one. Its rider was given power to take peace from the earth and to make men slay each other. To him was given a large sword. Rev. 6

I was sitting and not thinking about anything particular with my eyes closed, when the Lord showed me a locust. This locust was in mid-air flying. Its wings were in motion, and it was hideous to look at. It was of a greenish-brown with areas of gold and black in it. As I continued to watch this, it seemed to open-up in the middle, and things were being dropped to the land below. I couldn't quite distinguish what it was, and asked, "Lord what was that that was dropped below"? He then replied, "Those are the seeds of the locust being dropped on the land."

He then said:

"The locusts are coming, locusts are coming. There are locusts that are coming into the land. They are being dispersed throughout it. They bring with them devastation. These are things which I have spoken about, and they are coming. In the days that follow, you will see these things manifested in different ways. They come to defile the land, and their seed will follow. "

They will manifest themselves in these ways:

1. A rise in domestic violence
2. A rise in all forms of pornography
3. A rise in political upheaval

4. A rise in cultic activity
5. A rise in denominational control
6. A rise in teenage shootings
7. A rise in many forms of witchcraft
8. A rise in homosexuality and lesbianism

"The sword will come upon the land, it is the sword of the red horse and war. The rider who sits upon this horse will bring war with him. These things have been in my plan for some time now. I have said that you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. I have also mentioned to you about fortifying the walls. "

"My people will be safe within the walls. Outside the walls of my grace there are all kinds of defilement. You must be prepared ahead of time for these things. The dove of my Holy Spirit will rest upon you, and he will battle against the wings of the locust. "

"I have said that I AM coming back with a sword, and that sword is to show who your true allegiance is with. But after the sword and the reign of the red horse, then many will come to Me and an understanding of my salvation. My desire is that not one would perish, but that all would come to know Me. Be not afraid of the wings of the locust. The swarms will not hurt or destroy those who are under my wings. "

Stephen Hanson

*(If you would like to consider a regular donation to this ministry, it would be greatly appreciated, but not necessary. Please feel free to pass these messages onto friends or others in the faith. Let me know if in anyway it has blessed, or brought forth "new life" in Him. Any questions may be directed to me. Thank you.)

Thank you,

Stephen Hanson 673 Trumbull Ln. Monument, Colorado 80132 (719) 481-5998

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Love of the Bride

Mark MacPhail

I dreamed I was sitting at a table outside a cafe that was located in a nice indoor mall. The place was well lit and people were coming and going the way you would expect in a busy mall. Across the table from me sat a woman about 30 years of age. Her appearance was perfect in every way. Her clothes were perfect, her hair was perfect, her teeth were perfect, her skin was perfect and her smile was perfect. Although her physical appearance was perfect, it was not plastic and untouchable like a barbie doll, but very welcoming and human. She looked like you might imagine an angel to look in human form.

This person sitting across from me was doing one thing and one thing only, loving me. She was absolutely focused on me. I felt like I was the only person in this person's life. She wanted no other, only me. All of her love, all of her attention, and all of her desire were set on me. She was experiencing joy at being able to talk with me and express her singleness of heart to me.

As for me, I found myself enjoying this greatly. Being the object of love of someone so perfect was a wonderful experience. My mind was spinning, though. Why me? Who am I to this person? She should have someone better than me. How could I possibly satisfy this person? I was looking at myself and inadequacies instead of just receiving what was being given to me. I did not reject the love, but I did not reciprocate because I didn't think I measured up.

APPLICATION

This will probably seem strange, but I believe God was using the woman to represent Himself and His love for me and His Bride. If a man was sitting there expressing love for me, I'm sure I wouldn't have been as open to it as I was. Someday we'll all love each other intensely regardless, but for now we're still pretty earthbound.

Jesus is loving us intensely and He is totally focused on us with His love. Somehow, to Him, each of us is loved as if there is no one else. Only God can do this. He is expressing wonderful and even romantic love to us. He's got stars in His eyes over you! If you doubt that you need to read the Song of Songs.

Now for the most amazing part. He wants to bring our love for Him to a level of maturity where two things can happen. First, so we can receive His love without looking at ourselves and feeling inadequate and second, so our love for Him will affect Him the way His love affects us. Let me repeat that, He wants to bring us to the point where we can affect Him the way He affects us.

The marriage is a type of Jesus and His Bride. The man being Jesus and the woman being the church. In the beginning it is written of the man, "it is not good for man to be alone". Apply the typology and read it, "it is not good for God to be alone". God wanted a companion, a helpmate, a counterpart, someone to be with and to love and be loved. If you had power to create a companion for yourself, would you make a dog, a slug, a table or giraffe? No! You would create someone like yourself. Someone with emotions, feelings, the ability to make decisions and on and on. God has done the same thing in us. We are made in His image and He is making us after His likeness. We have the capacity to love Him and have it be satisfying to His soul. Let's let Him develop it and bring it to maturity. The end-time remnant church will be marked by its marriage relationship with Jesus more than anything else. He doesn't use the word "Bride" lightly. It signifies something real.

"We shall know, even as we are known" I Cor. 13:12

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Lord's Rose

Catherine Brown

A WORD OF TENDERNESS FOR ENGLAND, THE LORD'S ROSE

In a time of prayer for the nation of England recently, I received a deep impression from the Lord that England is without an identity, and that she is searching for who she truly is in the Lord's eyes. In a vision, I saw the Lord and a brother whom I recognized as a respected leader in England. The brother approached the Lord, and he lay prostrate before Him, and he reached out and held on to the Lord's ankles as the most beautiful liquid prayers cascaded down his cheeks.

With all tenderness, the Lord lifted the brother to His feet, and He held out His hands and spoke "See, I have engraved you on the palms of My hands". The Lord took the man by the hand, holding him in His loving embrace, and then lifted his chin and with deep affection looked into the man's eyes and said:

YOU, ENGLAND, HAVE WEPT MANY TEARS

"My son, search no longer for who you [England] are in Me, for it is time to rise up into your destiny. You have wept many tears and walked in the place of brokenness and contrition for the sins of your forefathers. In humility you have hidden your face from Me, respectful of My Holiness. But see, it is time to seek My face, to permit Me to take you by the hand and to lead you out and to lead you on to greater Glory. It is time to enter into a new experiential level of My Grace, My Grace that is for now, for I am about to bestow My great favor upon your land and I shall raise a standard of Righteousness within you and upon you.

A FOSTER FATHER TO THE NATIONS

Where once your ancestors revealed only a father of fear, you [England] will now receive My impartation to be foster fathers to the nations - to Israel and to all the nations of the earth. I will endue you with a deep revelation of My Father's heart and with this, you will impart My great Love to the lost and you will see many sons come to Glory. I am raising up a generation of spiritual mothers and fathers in you [England] and you will reveal Me as Father to the fatherless in many lands. You will no longer demonstrate tyranny, for all eyes will be drawn by My tenderness displayed in you [England] and the Father's compassion will be poured out in great measure on you. No longer will you be remembered for murder, but lips shall lift praises to Me for the Mercy you will release in My name. The rose has been crushed and in the crushing the fragrance of brokenness rises to heaven as a sweet sacrifice.

Take My hand, seek My Face, swathe yourself in My Grace and together we will win and love the lost.

Amen

"I will not forget you! See, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands;" Is 49:16

"See, I will beckon to the Gentiles, I will lift up my banner to the peoples; they will bring your sons in their arms and carry your daughters on their shoulders. Kings will be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers." Is 49:22,23

7.1.2000

Catherine Brown

CBrownds1@aol.com

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Lull Before The Storm

Don Hawley

May 28, 2000

I was raised on the northern edge of our nation's "tornado alley," and one of my vivid childhood recollections is of an ugly twister bearing down on our home. It veered before striking, but I still recall the havoc it wrought on the property of those not so fortunate.

As a young pastor in Nebraska I still remember the awesome electrical storms lighting up the summer skies. If one could be sure of not becoming a lightning rod, few things are as exhilarating as standing right in the midst of such fury. Once or twice a year we get a bit of lightning here in Oregon, and when it happens I almost long for a big display once again.

THE LULL I also remember the strange lull just before a big storm breaks out. There is an eerie calm, as if all nature were holding its breath. Animals and humans alike sense impending danger. The sky becomes strangely dark at midday, and often exhibits a sickly green or purplish hue. The quiet is unnatural and foreboding.

Right now the world is experiencing a pre-storm lull. Relentlessly we were hammered with Y2K hype about a worldwide storm of unimaginable magnitude. And then, nothing. Only weeks ago, within the span of a few hours the entire stock market threatened collapse. Great paper fortunes were wiped out, but in a day or two the general public was once again at ease. Lullaby.

The party goes on, but this lull will suddenly erupt into the greatest social, political, economical, and religious storm the world has ever seen. It will climax with the fall of all worldly powers, and the establishment of the Kingdom of Glory. This lull allows those who are spiritually minded to make final preparations for the coming of the King.

HARVEST One of my early pastorates was right in the heart of the Nebraska wheat country. As the harvest turned from green to gold, tension in the community was palpable. Months of hard labor, along with a significant financial investment, hung in the balance. A fierce hailstorm could wipe everything out in a few moments, leaving nothing behind but a battered and worthless field. Even as the storm clouds hung heavy in the sky, many farmers could be seen in the field frantically gathering in as much of the harvest as possible before the winds hit.

It's nearly harvest time for the human race, and those who aren't too deep into partying can sense the imminent storm. God is about to garner his eternal harvest. Popular theories about the harvest have a tendency to push this critical event along into the future. However, as I relate in the last chapter of my new book "THE FINAL TEST-For the Final Generation," I believe God's plan for the harvest is something much different from what most expect. Especially in regards to the time involved.

While we appreciate the spiritual gifts the Lord has given for ministry, let's keep in mind that what matters most is the ripening of the fruit of the Spirit in our individual lives. It's time to gather in that fruit, the harvest is at hand. This is no time for the family of God to be nodding off to a lullaby.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Love Walk

Glenn H. Jackson

Let us hear the words of the Father:

...."Uniformity in the love walk is of the utmost importance. I expect each and every one of My children to love one another with My love. It is because many of My children continue to rely on their carnal feelings, that the Evil One is able to deceive them and lead them into areas away from Me. For the desire of their hearts is to avoid My Word - and His ability to convict them of their sin - and seek instead to flee to an area where they appear safe from the consuming fire of My Holy Spirit. I say to you this day My beloved ones, that the hour of My Judgment upon My house has arrived and the Spirit of Judgment and the Spirit of burning shall purge My Church of her sin and My glory shall be manifested in the earth through Her to a degree which has never before been seen in the earth, and the peoples shall come to the great and glorious light which will appear upon My children. And the power and glory which I have longed to bless My people with shall manifest in the midst of the congregation"....

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Lord Will Have A Church

Hollie L. Moody

I have watched and listened with interest and concern all that is being said and predicted and prophesied about the Lord's Church.

Last week, as I was in prayer and fasting about many things, and also about the Lord's Church, I had the following short vision. I submit it for the discernment of the Body of Christ. Not all words, dreams or visions, or prophesies are for all Believers. If this vision and possible interpretation does not agree with your spirit, just disregard it. I feel, however, that there are some who this vision and possible interpretation will touch and speak to.

I simply saw Jesus hanging on the Cross. He was bleeding from the many wounds inflicted upon Him during His Calvary experience. This blood was flowing freely upon a Bride standing beneath Him at the foot of the Cross. The Bride was adorned in a beautiful white wedding dress. The train of her dress was long; as was her veil.

As I looked closer at the Bride, I began to see multitudes of people contained within her body.

I then saw others standing in front of the Bride. Their voices were harsh, condemning, and accusatory. These people were pointing their fingers at the Bride, and proclaiming her faults, flaws, and shortcomings to the Lord as He hung upon the Cross.

As the accusations continued, I saw the Bride begin to lower her head in shame, embarrassment, and confusion. Each accusation and each word of judgment and condemnation against the Bride was heaped upon her. I saw as she began to stagger under the weight of these accusations.

I looked at the Lord's face as these accusations flowed as freely as did His Blood. I saw that He was grieved and also angry with the accusations. I then noticed that as the accusations became more numerous and flowed more and more quickly from the lips of the accusers, that the Blood of Jesus increased in direct proportion to these accusations. Then the Blood flowed more quickly than the accusations did, and completely covered the Bride and erased from my sight the accusations heaped upon the Bride. The accusations could not "stick" to the Bride because of the Blood, and the accusations began to fall from the Bride.

When this happened, the Bride began to change. The change began from within, and then proceeded to change the outward appearance of the Bride also.

The Lord gazed at me from the Cross, and said, "I sacrificed all for My Bride because of My great love for her. I will have a Church."

As I pondered this vision, three portions of Scripture came to mind.

Romans 8:33-34 ~ "Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? it is God that justifieth. Who is he that condemneth? it is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us."

Ephesians 5:25-27 ~ "Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish."

Colossians 1:20-22 ~ "And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven. And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreprouable in his sight."

While many are judging the Church, and condemning the Church, we need to remember that we, each one of us, are the Church. The Body of Christ is made up of individuals fitly framed together.

There may indeed be problems and troubles within the Church. As the Lord said to me, since He sacrificed His all for the Church because He loves her so very much, we can trust the Church into His very capable hands.

The Lord will have a Church.

In Him,
Hollie L. Moody

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

This Must Be It!

Tom Young

Recently, I went through one of the local (and very popular) Christian bookstores. I was amazed and taken aback at the overabundance of materials available, to aid us in our walks with God.

Later when I returned home, in my mailbox was a catalogue from a nationally-known ministry, which was promoting an overabundance of materials to aid me in my walk with God.

It had only been that morning when the Lord had been speaking silently to my spirit, to stand before Him without any overabundance of materials to aid me in my walk with God.

In other words, He had some things to say.

And these things would not be found in overabundance.

The flickering flame was beginning to glow once again, as I sat, face-down, taking in the convicting and liquid love of the Father. The price to keep it going, I noted, would be evident in how many of the overabundant materials would be shelved, in order to get to the Source of those materials.

Perhaps that is not true for everyone. But I suspect that, in the course of our hectic fast-paced society, many Christians have bitten the apple of deception which is apparent in collecting and reading many Christian materials, and then calling that: 'knowing God.'

Ec 12:12 And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

Do this. Shelf all your books, magazines, TV programs, videos, CDs, cassettes, 8-Tracks, and even the computer. Then drop down on your knees and offer it all up to Him. If you are sincere in your heart in this, God will show you which of the overabundance of materials available to you will really and truly aid your particular walk with God at this time.

But then, don't stop praying. He may even want to show you which to give away, which to dispose of, which ones to read only portions of, which ones to shelf for a future time.

And which ones to say "This Must Be It!" to others.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Master Builder is Ready.

Martin Sayers

Marty@spiritofprophecy.com

September 20, 2000

Isaiah 54:10 For the mountains shall depart and the hills be removed, but My kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of My peace be removed," saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee.

My covenant of peace with thee is forever. This peace that passes all understanding must be established for on it will be laid the foundation stones. For in this unshakable, unmovable everlasting covenant of peace shall the house be built; all other ground is like sinking sand. My covenant is with thee, come it is time, the Master builder is ready.

Isaiah 54:11 ¶ "O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colors and lay thy foundations with sapphires. 12 And I will make thy windows of agates and thy gates of rubies, and all thy borders of pleasant stones. 13 And all thy children shall be taught of the LORD, and great shall be the peace of thy children.

Again I say behold I the Lord will lay thy stones and I the Lord will build the house. Let the cry of thy heart be "Let the house be built O Lord, I am willing. Let thy will be done and thy Kingdom come. Then stand in faith nothing wavering and watch from there you will see not only the house, the temple being built but you shall see the Holy City of God coming together.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Master Call / The Joy of Harvest

Doug and Linda Patterson

The Master Call

Doug Patterson

May 2, 2000

I have redeemed you from a place of apathy, a place of discontentment. You've come through the desert of double mindedness and chosen a good path. Faith works by taking each and every step with the confidence that I am with you. Do not let decision making discourage you and cause you to stop walking. Old mindsets fire up thoughts challenging the new work and the new call.

You have heard the trumpet; you have heard the word. March to the beat of My drummer. Victory will belong to you as you go through the process of war. Now we will celebrate, we have broken through for together we fight for your destiny. Yes, there is a battle. Stand in the presence of almighty God as I surround you with My warrior angels.

There is a time and there is a season for all things. Apostolic works are springing forth like new shoots in the springtime. Some are beginning to flower; some are just breaking ground; others are gathering and mixing their aroma. There is a garden, the planting of the Lord like a bouquet of wild flowers.

The book of Acts is springing forth. Yes, you were called to be a part of this. It is a new work; it is a new fragrance; it is a new arrangement. It is different from what you are used to. But be comfortable in knowing that the uniqueness of your vision has been set in place. I am the Master Gardener and you have received the master call.

Intercessors For Jesus Ministries

Fergus, Ontario

Now He who searches the heart knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God. Romans 8:27

The Joy of Harvest

Linda Patterson

May 2, 2000

Shoot forth My beloved to a glorious new day.
I lift you up on wings of love, come now My love - obey!
I am waiting at the door to usher you through.
For you are my fiery messengers sent forth to bring My word of life, hope and truth.

Tell them I came as a living sacrifice.
My blood was shed to redeem them from the curse.
An eternal destiny is secured for them if they will only trust in Me.
A glorious home is awaiting them -unfailing love.
For the fire of My word shall penetrate their heart.

Packages are prepared and waiting with wonderful treasures for the redeemed.
I extend a gift of love, hope and desire.
For filthy rags I give garments of righteousness.
I exchange despair for unspeakable joy
Yes, night is turned to day.
Old things become new.
Rejoice! Rejoice! It's harvest time.

Isaiah 9:3 ... They rejoice before you, according to the joy of harvest.

Intercessors For Jesus Ministries
Fergus, Ontario

Now He who searches the heart knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God. Romans 8:27

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Ministry of Deborah

Willie Jefferson

The Ministry of Deborah

<http://elijah.ministries.com/>

willie@elijah.ministries.com

The Old Testament of the Bible gives an account of various stories of real men and women that were mightily used of God for His purposes. However, the Old Testament is far more than an collection of books with nice stories, it is also a mirror image, a shadow, a type and teacher of spiritual truth often overlooked in the New Testament.

Through the lives and experiences of the characters of the Old Testament, we see ourselves within the real-life situations in which they found themselves. It is only with the illumination of the Holy Spirit that we see their experiences for what they really were, an example of how God works in the lives of everyday people and an insiders view of His character, methods and mind. It is with this as a backdrop that we analyze the story of Deborah.

"Then Joshua, the son of Nun, the servant of the Lord, died at the age of one hundred and ten. Then the sons of Israel did evil in the sight of the Lord, and served the Baals, and they forsook the Lord, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods from among the gods of the peoples who were around them, and bowed themselves down to them; thus they provoked the Lord to anger.

So they forsook the Lord and served Baal and the Ashtaroath. And the anger of the Lord burned against Israel, and He gave them into the hands of plunderers who plundered them; and He sold them into the hands of their enemies around them, so that they could no longer stand before their enemies.

Wherever they went, the hand of the Lord was against them for evil, as the Lord had spoken and as the Lord had sworn to them, so that they were severely distressed. Then the Lord raised up judges who delivered them from the hands of those who plundered them. And yet they did not listen to their judges, for they played the harlot after other gods and bowed themselves down to them. They turned aside quickly from the way in which their fathers had walked in obeying the commandments of the Lord; they did not do as their fathers." Judges 2:8,11-17 NASB

The Cycle of Frustration

After the death of Joshua, the nation of Israel drifted away from the commandments of the Lord and turned to serving others gods. In His mercy, God raised up judges to lead them back to serving Him, however, after each judge died, the children of Israel returned to serving other gods, until they were oppressed again, then the cycle started over again. It was within this period of time that the Lord raised up a godly woman by the name of Deborah to lead His people back to Himself. Israel had entered a pattern of apostasy, then oppression, then repentance, then deliverance, only to be followed by apostasy as the judge died and there was no one lead them. As the end of the book of Judges says, "In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes" (21:25).

The "type" or "shadow" here reveals the perplexity in the soul of mankind when there is no king to lead. The king here is obviously the Lord God, with the nation of Israel representing God's church, the bride of Christ in the New Testament. The cycle of apostasy, oppression, repentance and deliverance is the pattern we follow when we "turn aside quickly from, ... the commandments of the Lord". Think of examples in our own lives. As we allow other things to control and dominate us (play the harlot after other gods - money, status, greed, lust, envy, etc. - and bow down to them), we drift away from God (apostasy). The further we move away from Him, the more the false gods oppress us until we cry out for deliverance (repentance). He sends us a "judge" (His Word, minister, friend, etc.) to deliver us from the "plunderers" and "oppressors" and set us on the right course again (deliverance). The only problem is that no real change takes place in our hearts and the cycle starts all over again.

Now, chapter 4 of the Book of Judges tells us that Deborah was a prophetess, the wife of a man named Lappidoth and was "judging Israel at that time, and she used to sit under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim; and the sons of Israel came up to her for judgment." (vs. 4-5) I've come to realize that when scripture goes into detail like this, there is something here in the symbolism. This is where this story gets interesting.

The Role of Intercession

Deborah's name is translated as "bee", taken from the Hebrew root word "dabar", also meaning "to arrange, speak, subdue". She was married to a man whose name meant "to shine like a lamp". She sat under the "palm tree of Deborah" as the place of judgment. The exact imagery of the palm tree can't be determined, but Psalms 92:12 may give a clue, "The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree, ...". Perhaps it was a symbol of her standing with God, or that "righteous" judgments were given from that place of position and standing. Regardless of the exact meaning, the location held great significance as demonstrated below.

"She used to sit, ... between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim". Now, Ramah actually means "high place" as in the "seat of idolatry". Idol worship then, as it does now, is done in the "high places" of the earth. Some people from the mountains of California and Washington can probably tell you what goes on there and give you a good idea of the spiritual warfare and activity that takes place. Bethel means "house of God", with Ephraim translated as "double fruit" or "fruitfulness". Now, to remove the imagery here and put this in every day language, this passage could be translated as follows:

"Now Deborah, a prophetess, one who "speaks, arranges and subdues" by the power of God, the wife of Lappidoth, the one who "shines like a lamp", was judging Israel at that time and she used to sit under the palm tree of Deborah, the place of "righteousness", between the "high place and seat of idolatry" and the "house of God", in the hill country of "fruitfulness", and the sons of Israel came up to her for judgment". (vs. 4-5; my words added).

Now, the imagery becomes a little clearer. Deborah was raised up by God to judge the ways of Israel from the place or position of righteousness (palm tree of Deborah) and to intercede for His people, to stand in the gap and speak against the idolatry (Ramah) in the hearts of the children of Israel and get them to turn to the house of God (Bethel) and to inherit Godly fruit (Ephraim) instead of the fruit of the enemy. Deborah's job was to declare the will of the Lord and to keep his people from eating the fruit of their ways.

Types and Symbols

As the story continues, Deborah called for Barak, the son of Abinoam from Kedesh-naphtali to tell him that God had called him to fight against Sisera, the commander of army of king Jabin of Canaan, who at this time was oppressing the Israelites. Barak expressed reluctance in doing this without the involvement Deborah. She agreed to go with him and under her leadership, Jabin and Sisera were defeated. The army was gathered at Mount Tabor, with Jabin's army destroyed at the river Kishon. These individuals and places also represent imagery which is worth a closer look.

Barak's name is translated as "lightning" and "flashing sword", with his father's name translated as the "father of pleasantness". Barak came from Kedesh-naphtali. Kedesh means "to be clean, consecrate" and Naphtali means "my wrestling". The picture scripture draws here is fascinating. The "flashing sword" (Barak) is the son of the "father of pleasantness" (Abinoam), and they dwell in a place that has a compound meaning of "consecrate-wrestling". This could be a type of symbolism that points to the involvement of the Word of God (Jesus), the son of the Father (God), "cleaning" and "consecrating" us as we "wrestle" with the Word in our lives. Didn't Jacob "wrestle" with God before he was delivered and changed?

The Old Testament is full of "types" and "shadows", which are meant to reveal a truth regarding the ways and methods of God. David was a "type" of Christ, as was Ezekiel, Moses, Jonah and many others. They did not always display the complete character and ways of the Lord, but some part of their life was a demonstration of a part of Christ, to help us understand Him better. Abinoam and Barak could be "types" of God the Father and God the Son in this passage of scripture.

War of the Flesh

Jabin, king of Canaan also has an interesting meaning as well. Jabin is translated "intelligent" and Canaan is translated "humiliated", taken from the root "to bend the knee, humiliate, vanquish". I think he represents the human mind, the part of us that would like to "humiliate" the Spirit of the Lord in us. He represents the flesh that would seek to dominate the spirit. He is what is in all of us, the man of flesh that wants complete control, that uses human logic and "intellect" to filter out the mind of Christ.

Now, the Lord told Deborah to march to Mount Tabor with men from the tribes of Naphtali and Zebulun and that He would "draw out to you Sisera, the commander of Jabin's Army, with his chariots and his many troops to the river Kishon; and I will give him into your hand" (vs. 6-7). Now, you should have figured out by now that there is significance here as well.

The Place of Brokenness

Mount Tabor is translated "to be broken". Naphtali, as already stated means "my wrestling", and Zebulun means "habitation", or "reside". If you're really sharp, you can see this coming a mile away. The Lord was telling the Israelites to attain a position of "brokenness" (Mount Tabor) by "wrestling" (Naphtali) and "residing" (Zebulun) in the place to where He had called them to. Surely we cannot be "broken" and "reside" in the "secret place of the Most High" unless we wrestle with our own sinfulness. Yet this is exactly the place where we can defeat the flesh, the old man and our mind and will (intellect) that the Word says is "enmity against God".

Verse 2 of this chapter says Jabin "reigned in Hazor", which is translated "fenced in, surrounded, a village, town or yard". This imagery suggests that Jabin (our intellect) reigns over a "fenced in village" or better yet, a habitation, a dwelling place. Doesn't this speak to our mind reigning over the habitation of God, our bodies. Paul spoke to this in Romans 12:1-2:

"I urge you therefore brethen, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service of worship. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect." NASB

The key to our "spiritual service of worship" is through the renewing of our minds. The defeat of the power of the mind and the flesh which Jabin represents.

Finally, as the Israelites move against Sisera and Jabin's army, their victory comes near the river Kishon, which is translated "bend; to set a trap and lay a snare". Sisera had placed his army near the river Kishon when he heard that Barak had gone up to Mount Tabor. The Lord sent a flood (5:20-21) to wash away Sisera's forces and make their iron chariots (4:3) useless in the now muddy banks of the river. "... Barak pursued the chariots ... and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; not even one was left". The flood of the Lord defeated their enemies, as He "set a trap and laid a snare" at Kishon.

Influence of a Godly Woman

The Lord God used a woman named Deborah to speak a word, encourage and lead the warriors of Israel against the enemies of their day. I believe Deborah represents women with a prophetic voice that God has sent out in this day and time to speak a word of encouragement and lead their brothers in the final assault against the prince of this world and the devices he uses to enslave us. There has been numerous "words" from various organizations regarding the raising up of women to stir up, lead and walk along side men in the coming days. I think this brief passage is a great illustration to that affect.

Deborah was a prophetess and intercessor that judged the things of God and was used mightily to free her people from their enemies. Our enemies today are more internal than external. We are enslaved by our hearts and minds that are unwilling to follow the commandments of the Lord, but would rather "play the harlot after other gods". How the Body of Christ needs more Deborahs to lead us away from the circle of apostasy and oppression.

Some of you reading this may be "Deborahs" in the making. Perhaps it's time for you to be revealed and you will say as she did:

"...I will surely go with you; nevertheless, the honor shall not be yours on the journey that you are about to take, for the Lord will sell Sisera into the hands of a woman, ..." (Judges 4:9 NASB)

Willie Jefferson 1/8/97

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Church Needs Mentors

Bill Smith

<http://www.ChristAsLife.net>

I am happy to see what the Lord is doing these days. We see many who are called to be Prophets and or Apostles. Now more than ever the church needs mentors. We need people who have been there and done that. God is calling for apostolic parties to go into the world today.

With an Apostle that has the experience he can take a party of young prophets, evangelists and teachers and train them on the mission field. We have been doing that for several years. Seeking God and reading what others have done is not enough. The ministry needs experience on the Mission field.

My wife and I have taught a School of the Spirit since 1964. We have seen people come forth knowing their gifts of the Spirit, moving freely in them. Having the opportunity to minister the word over the pulpit. Then going to Africa with us and seeing God move in signs, wonders, and miracles. People ask why do we see so many miracles in Africa and the answer are simple. They are hungry for the Lord Jesus. Once they have ministered in Africa, which is a very good training ground, they are able to minister any place. So far not one person has come back from a ministry trip unchanged.

We have been to Africa 25 times taking with us others and those in the ministry of helps. God has blessed, seeing thousands saved, filled with the Holy Spirit and many healed and delivered. The Lord has also opened the doors for us where we teach the five-fold ministry where ever we go. We teach hundreds of pastors, we bring many into the gifts of Prophecy and the revelation gifts of Wisdom, Knowledge and Discernment. When the local ministry sees us moving in the gifts of the Spirit they want to be trained. The Lord told me back in the 1950s that he had given many gifts and the ministry refused to teach others how they operated so they would not have competition. Gods plan is for the ministry to teach the Body of Christ. That day is passed. The Lord has us set up crash courses in gifts and ministry. Do you remember that the Lord had schools of prophets in the Old Testament? Do you remember Paul had several schools? This school must be hands on schools. Teaching is one thing, Training is another!

In Mark 16:20 we read in the Amplified Bible: And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lords kept working with them and confirming the message by the attesting signs and miracles that closely accompanied it. Matthew 28:19-20: Go then and make disciples (mentor them, my words) of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Teaching them to observe everything that I have commanded you, and behold, I am with you all the days perpetually, uniformly, and on every occasion). To the very close and consummation of the age.

The Lord has shown us the coming world wide reaping of the nations. I know the Tabernacle of David is being restored. We understand that James said the Tabernacle was the New Testament Church. Can you see with this great worldwide revival that God needs ministries that can see, hear, and move in the Spirit. Who else can take care of these people? Otherwise, it would be the same old thing over again. Build larger warehouses to store the Body of Christ. Do we really believe this is God's Plan? Could it be that He wants to send you as Christ was sent? Could it be that the works Christ did you can do? Do you believe that God can use you to raise the dead, heal the leper and find that you have power over all the power of the enemy and nothing can hurt you? All of the above we have seen in our own ministry. So far my wife and I have been ministering in 20 nations. We are booked to go to many other nations. Now we see God rising up a new crop of Apostles and Prophets. They are not seasoned, not sure who they are. At the same time God is raising up mentors. Watch Paul train Timothy, Titus and others. Think on these things..

Dr. Bill Smith Christ as Life International

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Team Ministry

Sandy Warner

TEAM MINISTRY

1 dream, 1 vision and 1 example

Compiled by Sandy Warner SWauthor@aol.com

Website: www.thequickenword.com

Basketball and Team Ministry

Dream given to Wayne Warner

April 25, 2000

I was talking to a 5 member basketball team who had become world champions. All of them had reddish brown skin that seemed to glow. For some reason, they all seemed to appear identical. They began to tell me their story of how they became world champions.

They had each been individual star basketball players and were chosen from among all the other players to form a team that would win. They said that in the first years they were together, they could never win even at the lowest levels of competition - because they each were trying to be the main star of the team and believed their teammates should support them to win the game for them.

Finally after many years of defeat they tried to exert sheer willpower to become a unified team. That year they went all the way to the finals. But when they had to play the best teams, their willpower failed them and they each began to do things their own way once again and so they lost once again.

Even though they were the best basketball players of their time, they realized that unless they became a real team they would never win. So each of them gave up their stardom and concentrated on becoming a unified team that played as a team of equal parts.

Each one served the others of the team and did what was best for the team and was no longer concerned with what was best for themselves. In the process they became unified and that is why they appeared to look like each other. Of course they went on to become the world champions, not because they were great individually, (even though they were great individually) but because they had become a GREAT TEAM of great individuals working together to accomplish the goal of winning. ~~~~~

Bobsledding and Team Ministry

Vision given to Mary (Koons) Wattenford

mkoons15@hotmail.com

April 25, 2000 Last night in the Spirit the Lord showed me a "bobsled," with a "team" of individuals riding in it. Although in international competition a regular bobsled team will comprise four individuals, I saw five individuals on the sled I was shown, as it careened downhill at a tremendous speed. The Lord impressed upon me how important it was in these races for each team member to be "working in complete unison," as they traversed the steep, slick sides of the track. Any fluctuations" by any member of the team in their reaction to the track will result in either the sled losing precious split seconds of speed, or can even result in the sled overcompensating and leaving the track. The bobsled I was shown was going around one curve that had an extremely sharp embankment and as I watched, the Lord impressed upon me the "UNISON" of the motions of the team. Each member of a bobsledding team MUST function as a "faceless" member of the team - NOT as an individual. ~~~~~

Example of Team Ministry

by Sandy Warner

April 23, 2000

Our church is a real hands-on, team-praying church. Whoever needs prayer gets prayed for by whoever is near by and usually a small group forms around that person. Sunday the Holy Spirit used "faceless unity" to minister. A visitor came and asked prayer for his hurting back. A group of those around him gathered and after praying for his back, someone asked him if he felt the Lord or anything going on. He felt the Lord but did not feel better in his back.

Since he was feeling the Lord's Presence, I asked him if we could just pray in tongues quietly around him and let him soak in the Lord's Presence and we would stay there laying hands upon him as long as the Lord was working. I then heard the word "abandonment" and silently rebuked a spirit of abandonment then told the man that the Lord had not abandoned him and had heard his prayers and He was sending help. Tears filled his eyes. Another who did not hear me say this came up and asked how his relationship with his mother was, or if anything was going on with his mother. The man confessed that he was deeply concerned that his mother would have another nervous breakdown. Then another person saw a picture of a small stone being given to the man and wanted to know if that meant anything. Two of us realized at the same time that it was the stone of David against Goliath. His prayer for his mother was the small stone against the giant threat of a nervous breakdown, and the Lord had heard his prayer, and it was going to make a difference in her life. In the end, the man felt like a relaxed noodle under the Lord's Presence and his back was better. He went away touched by the Lord by a group of people whom he would not remember who said what.

We each think we have such a small gift, but when combined in a team, it is power packed with exactly what is needed to get the job done!

Lovingly, Sandy

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Great Morocco Revival

Chad Taylor

For in a vision in a small prayer room that used to be a horses tack room on a friends ranch, I experienced the following. I knelt on an old Muslim prayer rug that my friend had placed on the floor to remind him to pray for the Muslim people, and I prayed there to Jesus Christ. Above my head was a map of the world. I knelt on the floor as a wave of His Spirit and a vision brought me to my knees. The Lord then said,

“I shall move in a mighty way through Morocco. It will shake like a great earthquake, it will sweep the surrounding country like a great wind. Millions will be swept into My kingdom from this revival.”

At this point I had no idea where Morocco was in relation to the continents of the world. I looked up to the map above me and the Lord then said,

“This revival shall find its center in Morocco, Africa. It will sweep up into Spain like a fire. It will consume the wall of division that has stood fortified between the two countries for generations. I will break down these walls tempered with untempered mortar, and the fire will sweep the land. A fire of revival will sweep the land.”

I saw in a three hundred-mile radius around Morocco this great earthquake of revival impacting. After shocks could be felt through the entire continent of Africa. Then the Lord said,

“The head of the Dragon Islam shall be cut off. I will crush its resistance under My right hand. I will dismember it and its power will be no more. The masses that stumble in the darkness shall finally go free.”

I saw an army raised from the dry bones of Islam. A great and mighty army that shook the earth with their message of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Then the Lord said,

“The dead shall be raised, the widow’s son will live though in a grave. The leper shall offer up the sacrifices of praise for what the Lord has done for them. The blind shall declare that he can see, and the captive will sing of his liberty.

For in this hour a great revival will shake the earth from Morocco, Africa. The borders to the North will be swept up into its intensity. From Morocco to Portugal these fires of revival will burn. Morocco and Portugal shall sustain the flames until all the land is filled with the smoke of its burning. To the Canary Islands this explosion of My power will be felt. The Canary Islands will shake and tremble, They will declare the wonders of the Lord!

Algeria will rumble with the shaking in these days. A great reaping shall occur here in Algeria. A great harvest of revival will sweep Algeria. A whirlwind will come from Tunisia, it will come in with great velocity and power. It will lift and carry the fire into Egypt, Libya, Chad, and Sudan. Watch and see what I do in these days says the Lord.”

I saw in this vision of the great revival in Morocco, having a profound impact in Spain, France, and Italy. Literally bridges being built between these countries. Bridges of revival as it was in Acts 1:8. ‘First in Jerusalem, Judea, and Samaria and to the uttermost parts of the earth...’ I saw a vast expanse of faces that had received Christ in Africa, a great army marching to the beat of the Lord’s heart and will. Africa was the ‘wheel within the wheel’ that ignited revival to all points of the globe as in Acts 1:8. From its ground sprung the seeds of a reformation and revival that would be recorded in the annals of time and eternity.

In this vision I also saw Zaire as a capitol of restoration, a place of God’s government and law. A place where the church was trained and raised up, an “Antioch”, ‘where they were first called Christians...’ It was an apostolic headquarters where from all points of the earth they would come and go to bring the gospel of Jesus Christ. Churches were springing up literally overnight in the Congo, and Ethiopia, in the jungle and village. A great army had been stirred from a land of obscurity to cause the people of the earth to tremble at the sound of their feet.

Africa had become a Christian country ruled by the arm of Righteousness and Truth. A capitol of world affairs where the Word of the Lord was declared. Kings and Presidents came to her shores to receive counsel in these last days, to lead and govern their own lands and kingdoms. The hand of the Lord could be seen as fire by night and cloud by day in your midst O Africa. An ensign to the whole earth of the coming King in His splendor and glory. Africa, you are a John the Baptist crying in the desert, “Prepare the way of the Lord! Make straight His paths! A highway for our God! ”

From South Africa, and Madagascar, to Morocco, a great light had risen,

“To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our way in the way of peace.” (Luke 1:79).

Chad Taylor

Email: destiny@telvar.com

Consuming Fire WebPages: www.televar.com/~destiny

The Next 60 Days

Doug Fortune

Oct. 21, 2000

As we come to the completion of the yearly Feast of Tabernacles for 2000, the Lord is impressing upon me that we are in an important KAIROS time for the next 60 days. We can expect increased warfare and spiritual attacks, but the wise warrior will seize this as an opportunity for an aggressive offensive. I sense that this is something that will be felt primarily in the spiritual realm, not as much in the natural realm (at least for now).

The Father is allowing this increased attack to:

1. bring an increased separation for the lukewarm
2. to stir to action some who are becoming comfortable
3. to hone and bring forth through pressure the character of Christ in the ecclesia called-out ones.

This is no time to be 'drunk in the Spirit' or consumed in the busyness of the holidays... it is a time to be sober and vigilant and on the offensive. December 21st will be a pivotal breakthrough day for many. For those who will take initiative in strategic proclamation (at the Lord's leading) there will be great grace and favor upon their words and result in much fruit.

I sense that this is an important time to evaluate relationships also... a time to break any unhealthy soul-ties, as the Lord needs us unencumbered from emotional bondages, to devote ourselves unhindered, to His purpose and strategic plans. (If you are in an unsatisfactory marriage, do NOT misconstrue my words as saying it is God's will for you to leave, that is the lie of the enemy!) Let us look at our relationships... are they edifying, producing life, equipping and mutually building Christ in each other?... if not, break that tie and move forward in purpose.

The next 60 days will have great impact on the next 2 years; in retrospect, this will be clearly recognizable. Lay aside any encumbrance, for the encumbrance that you choose to cling to will be exposed and removed within the next 2 years anyway.

Don't allow the current focus on the middle-East to distract you from the real battle at hand, rather let it serve as a reminder to be sober, be vigilant, and be on the offensive!

The Name Above Every Other

Lisa Stevens

via RiverMail

I work in a hospital as a Respiratory Therapist. One of my jobs is to respond to the call overhead of Code Blue. This means someone's heart is stopped and I, being a member of the Code team, need to respond to that patient's room right away.

Just such an incident occurred when I heard the call, Code Blue, ICU. Upon arriving in ICU I saw everyone running into Room 613. My heart fell when I realized it was Ray, a little 9 year old boy. Several days earlier he and his brother had been playing with a gun. The gun went off and hit Ray in the chest. Now he was lying there, hooked up to life support, and his heart had stopped.

The team of doctors, nurses and other personnel assembled and started to work on Ray. My job is to ventilate the patient and as I did this I started to pray. The monitor read flat line. CPR was started. Many procedures were attempted. Many drugs were given. Nothing that anyone could do would help Ray's heart to start. Close to an hour later, the doctor in charge of the code, reluctant to give up, looked to everyone in the room and asked if anyone could think of anything else we had not tried. I knew that was a question that was asked immediately before they stopped the code and pronounced the patient dead. All the education and knowledge of everyone in that room could not save this little boy. He would be pronounced dead momentarily.

At that point, another respiratory therapist stepped in and relieved me. I stepped to the side of the room and cried out silently to God. Lord, I have prayed. I have said every word I could think of and nothing is helping. Lord, this little boy is going to die. He won't get to climb any more trees. In my spirit the Lord said to me, you have not prayed every word you know. He reminded me of a lady by the name of Betty Malz. I had read her book years earlier and in it her father, as she was on the brink of death, prayed a one word prayer that brought her back to life. That one word was the name of Jesus.

I remember my back being turned to Ray, standing at the side of the room looking out the window. In seconds the doctor would stop the code and pronounce him dead. Silently, I cried out Jesus, Jesus, Jesus. I said His name three times. I turned around and started walking towards the door to leave the room. Almost immediately the heart monitor started to beep. Beep, beep as the green line went from flat to spiked. Doctors and nurses scrambled as orders were shouted, see if you can get a blood pressure on him. See if you can feel a pulse. Within three days Ray was off the ventilator and out of the Intensive Care Unit. When he left the hospital to go to rehab, he could not talk, walk or feed himself. Keep Ray in prayer as he will have to learn these skills all over again. I have not had any news of him. My prayer is that God would cross my path with his, that I could see him climb a tree. Give God all the glory and praise for the miracle of life for this little 9 year old boy.

(Lisa Stevens,
Johnstown, PA USA)

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Nature - Adam Or Christ

Doug Fortune

“For the real function of the Law is to make men recognize and be conscious of sin, not mere perception, but an acquaintance with sin which works toward REPENTANCE, faith and holy character. But now the righteousness of God has been revealed independently and altogether APART from law... since all have sinned and FALLEN SHORT of the GLORY of God. All are justified and made upright and in right standing with God, freely and gratuitously by His GRACE, through the redemption which is provided in Christ Jesus...”(Rom.3:20-24). I love the way that the written Word of God interprets itself as we lay aside our preconceptions and just read it. If we back up to verse 9 it states clearly that ALL men are UNDER sin and verse 23 says ALL HAVE sinned. As each one of my four children were born it was difficult to see those beautiful little babies as being under sin... after all, they were in perfect innocence. The issue was not their innocence however, the issue was their NATURE... the sin nature of Adam.

I believe it would be helpful to define sin at this point; it's commonly known that to sin means to 'miss the mark' (often used as an archery term). That's good, but we must also know what the 'mark' is to understand what we are missing; it is defined in verse 23 as 'falling short of the GLORY of God'. Now then, we read in Ps. 8:5 that Adam was crowned (clothed or enveloped) with the GLORY of God; Adam was created in the image and likeness or NATURE of God... his clothing fit his NATURE. After his rebellion (remember, he wasn't deceived, he KNEW what he was doing), the Lord clothed him with the skins of a BEAST... his new clothing fit his new BEAST nature. So if we allow the written Word to define sin, we find that sin is ANYTHING that does not manifest the glory or NATURE of God! Sin is manifesting the BEAST nature, the psuche, the lower nature where 'self', the SOUL (mind, will, emotions) sits enthroned... thus ALL men are UNDER sin. A person is not a sinner because they s! in, rather they sin because it is their NATURE... we will manifest according to our nature! (Why are we shocked when people of the world sin?... that's a no-brainer, it's their nature!)

Now, having defined sin as anything that misses the mark of manifesting the nature of God, we read back in Rom.3:20 that the real function of the Law is to make men sin-conscious to bring them to repentance. You see, the Law requires men to manifest Godly behavior that is foreign to their Adam/ beast nature and guarantees them the wages of death if they don't. At first glance, it seems an impossible predicament, however GRACE is then introduced in that through Christ, God Himself will live His LIFE, His NATURE through the individual who is willing to die to the Adam/ beast nature. This GRACE is something that can only be understood spiritually, it is folly to the natural man.

The problem is that for the most part, modern Christianity has preached GRACE to the WORLD, and sin-consciousness to the SAINTS!... this is totally backwards! Is it any wonder that we have so many spiritually premature births, spiritual still-borns, and spiritual infants that never grow or mature? We should be preaching sin-consciousness (the basic message of John the Baptist and Jesus- REPENT!) to the WORLD, and the Holy Spirit “...will convict and convince the WORLD... about sin and about righteousness and about judgment...” and to the SAINTS, “...when He, the Spirit of Truth comes, He will guide YOU into all the truth... He will take of what is Mine and will REVEAL it to you...”(John 16:8,13,15). Can you see the difference there, the Holy Spirit deals differently with the world and the saints, and SO SHOULD WE! Am I saying that as Christians it’s all right to allow sin in our lives, to just ignore it, after all we don’t want to get into sin-consciousness?... ABSOLUTELY NOT!! ! EVERY area of our life, our thoughts, words and actions are to be Godlike in true righteousness and holiness, manifesting Christ in the earth!

Enough with ‘greasy grace’ that lulls unregenerate men into a false sense of security because they simply repeated a ‘sinners prayer’, and enough with imposing the Law and sin-consciousness upon the saints... let’s get this thing in order! “God has done (past tense!) what the Law could not do... God condemned sin in the flesh, subdued, overcame, deprived it of its power. So that the righteous and just requirement of the Law might be FULLY MET in US, who live not in the ways of the flesh but in the ways of the Spirit.”(Rom.8:3-4). You see, if we define SIN simply and only as individual occurrences of lawbreakings (i.e.- I told a lie, or I was gossiping), then we are like the children of Israel in Numbers chapter 21, trying to kill off individual snakes before we get bitten... the problem is, the snakes/ sin keep coming, there’s always more! We must define sin as a NATURE or anything that does not manifest Christ, and understand that it is embedded in the Adam/ beast nature. The! cure does not lie in a constant As Christians, if we are caught up in sin-consciousness, we will not manifest the righteousness, the NATURE of God... we will miss the mark. If we preach only GRACE to unregenerate men, we miss the mark. The Adam/ beast nature must have the Law (sin-consciousness) to bring them to Christ, but sin-consciousness cannot produce the NATURE of God manifesting in the life of a Christian. “Therefore, let us go on and get past the elementary stage in the teachings and doctrine of Christ, advancing steadily toward the completeness and perfection that belongs to spiritual maturity.”(Heb.6:1)

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Nations Before You

Marsha Allred

Doug Fortune along with others has been hearing the Lord speak of calling out to the nations. The Lord spoke similarly to me but in a slightly different perspective.

On a recent Friday morning I awoke to an awful burden - a really terrible, heavy sense of something being in the balance. It was terrible, horrible and I was unable to leave it. Mid morning the Lord spoke, "Choose you this day whom you will serve." As I told my pastor, I almost threw up - literally. I couldn't understand why He was saying this - surely He knows I have chosen His service again and again. I double checked scripture to be sure my understanding of the exact situation was accurate. It is written in Joshua 24:14-15. "Now therefore, fear the Lord and serve Him in sincerity and truth; and put away the gods which your fathers served beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve the Lord. And if it is disagreeable in your sight to serve the Lord, choose for yourselves today whom you will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served which were beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living; but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." The people insisted they would serve only God and in verse 28 "then Joshua dismissed the people, each to his inheritance." I stayed sick and in turmoil all day and by Friday night I was pleading with the Lord to help me understand. Saturday morning I walked into our chapel building for prayer meeting and the Holy Spirit began explaining.

"Just as I set a promise before the children of Israel so I set before you a promise - that I will give you the nations for an inheritance. You will take back that which I created for My pleasure and you will bless it and give it liberal redemption in My Name. The nations that are before you are different in name from those that went before but the same spirits abide within them. Fear, loneliness, insecurity, poverty, hatred, deception, and every other spirit of darkness. The nations before you are: the old, and the infirm, those with no one to care for them. They are the young, filled with anger and disillusionment; they are the lost - wandering about with no shepherd to care for them - feed them and keep them safe. They are the alien - new families in a strange new land; and those possessed by the spirit of the world and this age. I want them freed - I want what was stolen from them to be replaced and desperation replaced with hope and confident trust in Me, their joy and freedom is your inheritance - abounding a thousand fold in your own hearts. This is why I say to you, "Choose you this day whom you will serve." No longer will I allow you to bow to idols of clay, of wood, hay and stubble. What are these idols - those idols your fathers served? - you must answer that. I say, do not bow to idols of fear - no longer give your time and devotion to idols of insecurity, or to pride, lust, manipulation and discouragement. Do not be a man pleaser and forget My Name. Those idols have sapped the strength and power of my people and left them impotent. No longer linger at the idols of Egypt, your work, as opposed to the work I have for you to do -not even "good works" of your own making, your status, your prominence in the community - not even the community of My people; but humble yourselves and be servants one to another and give preference to each other in My Name - did I not wash My disciples feet? Whose feet have you washed today? What of the gods of the Amorites - those gods of the culture in which you are living? Come out from among them and be separate - be IN the world and not of the world. The people I have created are looking for something besides that which the world offers - they must find it in you."

The Lord also spoke these words several days before, " Faith without works is dead." The faith He speaks of in this instance is faith that proves God is faithful in impossible situations. One only has to look at the lives of men and women of faith such as George Muellor, Rees Howell, Amy Carmicheal and many others to see that God is up to much more of a challenge then we of this generation offer Him. He is faithful - He is faithful - He is faithful! We will need to press into those unchallenged areas of God's faithfulness in order to minister truth and life to the nations among us - He has said it and He will do it - He is faithful!

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

They Have Not Conquered

Laura Harrison

As I watched an interview of some of the mothers of Columbine students who were killed, I just began to cry and pray for them and their families, for healing and comfort. I began repenting for our nation and myself personally. Soon after, the Lord began speaking to me and it follows.

"This day I begin a new thing. Within your hearts you have cried out for restoration. You have said, "How long Lord? How long will the wicked conquer the righteous?"

And I say, "NO, they have not conquered. It may appear so, but I have always been in control. I do a new thing this day. I have heard your cries, I have seen your fears, and I say, behold, it is all in My hands. There are NONE hidden from My sight, and I see their hearts as well. I know the end from the beginning, I AM in control. Do not be afraid. My heart has been moved as you have cried unto Me, and this day I do a new thing.

I am moving upon the mothers who cry out for their children. I say "Come unto Me, all you who are heavy laden, and I will refresh you". I say, this day I begin anew. Do not fret and say "How Lord?" Do I not hold the storms? The wind blows where I direct, not on it's own. The forces of all the universe are in My Hands, and I AM able!

I Am moving upon My people this day, to cry out to Me. I Am here and I have heard! Will you listen? As you ask, will you listen? I will root out that which is not of Me. As you see this one and that one removed-it is Me. For I Am clearing the path before you. You are My army, and I do a new thing. You have been in training. I have tested you to see whose heart is perfect toward Me. Just as Gideon, just as Joshua, I have pulled My troops to prepare. Now wait for My battle plans, My directives. You do not go alone, I go before you. Be attentive to My heart, and I will show you the way. Do not be fearful. Have I not said, "The battle is Mine!""? Yes, you are My chosen warriors. As you are attentive to My voice, your steps are directed by Me, and I will lead the way. Be not afraid, the battle is Mine, I have victory at hand. Declare My Word, it is your sword. Speak forth in My Name, and it shall be done. For "greater is He who is in you, than he who is in the world!"

Have I not done a new thing? Have you not seen the changes around you as even the nature of this universe, My creation, prepares for My shaking. But you, My children, are on My foundation. I have NOT left you alone. I Am your fortress, your strong-hold, and I Am able. I cover you, I support you, I lay My hand upon you. You are My Dear One". My name is Holy, speak it forth, for judgment is at hand."

As I submitted this Word to the Lord in question of it, He said,

"Yes, it has been like a boil that is ready to burst. But this bursting will bring healing to the hearts of My children. Once the infection is removed, healing can begin from the inside to the out."

I submit this word to the Lord and to you, if you do not receive a witness to it I ask that you will let it fall to the ground. If it is of Him, it will still take root.

In Jesus name I pray and ask that God would bless you and your household this day.

Laura Stovall Harrison
Kennebunk, Maine
laura62@gwi.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The New Ceation - and Ongoing Salvation

Kluane Spake

As we consider the reality of becoming the NEW CREATION, we begin to comprehend that Jesus shed His untainted BLOOD (the life of the flesh, Lev. 17:11) to ATONE for our sins. And He gave His LIFE (psuche, sinless soul-life) for our salvation (sozo, wholeness, Rom. 5:21). We could think of it this way: The blood accomplishes our initial (or positional) atonement from sin. But... it is His LIFE that accomplishes our ongoing progressive sozo which provides wholeness of mind and character.

Somehow, much of the church world stops with the POSITIONAL salvation. Bless God, we went forward down the aisle and confessed our sins; now our duty is over! But we never quite figured out how to "put on the New Man" - or live successfully as a Christian. Well, we might have tried in our excited days of being a new convert and first finding God, but as time went on, we forgot and re-incorporated many of our old ways. Somewhere along the way, "I'm a new creation" became a great song that we now heartily sing without giving much consideration to it's meaning. Funny how the whole church world wants to "go to heaven" without bothering to DO what the Bible says.

Worldly ways still have strong entrance into the heart of the modern church. Many aloof, arrogant, and proud Christians exemplify the fallen self-pleasing nature of self determination. Others are passively yielding and compliant. Compromise rules the masses of once-committed believers who have now lost their holy boundaries. Much of our "religion" has become extremely worldly. Yet, Paul cautioned us to find another way.

Gal 2:20 "I m crucified with Christ: nevertheless I LIVE; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved (agapao) me, and gave himself for me"(KJV). This means we lose our soulish identity and become a class of people on earth who migrate to the next dimension of LIVING.

"I am crucified with Christ," Paul explains how this act of being crucified was already accomplished by the blood of the Savior in the initial salvation experience. Through the cross, we become partakers of this promise -- we have already been crucified (impaled in company with Christ). It's already done! We don't have to keep dying again and again. We're not like the hero in the old western movies who keeps rising up with "just a flesh wound." Reckon it done (Rom. 6:11) The problem is that we need to stay dead.

But God forbid that I should boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. (NKJ) IT is already done... I am crucified to the world. "They that are Christ's have crucified (already finished) the flesh (Gal. 5:24)." Now, all we have to do is not nurture that OLD MAN nature. It remains dead and buried far away from our present day actions.

"Nevertheless, I LIVE." Because I understand the necessity of maintaining death to the old nature, it doesn't haunt me. I become partner in His life! Death is swallowed up in LIFE> My work is not to repeatedly crucify myself, live in a convent, or be separated from all monetary influence. My position (as a NEW CREATION) is to maintain the flesh in a crucified state. My evil nature becomes totally separated from my renewed thoughts, my controlled actions, and my disciplined desires. I'm crucified from mySELF." That's how I'm free to inherit God's zoe LIFE. I live (I am quickened by the same spirit that raised Jesus from the dead.)

Just like the angry crowd taunted Jesus on the cross, all my carnal nature and affections continue to cry out, "come down from the cross." (Mark 15:30) But, it's my duty to maintain absolute control over the sinful old nature.

So "I LIVE." Living happens by allowing the Holy Spirit to conduct His specific job of revealing the NEW CREATION nature in me. He unveils "Christ living in me" - the anointed power to obtain my destiny.

"Christ LIVETH in me." No longer will I be satisfied with just knowing the power of the cross to ATONE. Jesus now LIVES (abides) in resurrection power within to cause me to exhibit LIFE -- to be like Him in character and nature -- to understand the full power of ongoing salvation. Heb 7:25 tells us, "Therefore he is able to SAVE COMPLETELY those who come to God through him, because he ALWAYS LIVES to INTERCEDE for them" NIV. That's how we can LIVE...

"I LIVE by faith in the Son of God." Yes, I LIVE the quickened life - the God-kind of LIFE that comes by faith. That NEW CREATION life comes and DWELLS (abides) in me - right now -- here in this lifetime.

Jesus explained it often. John 17:11 says, "Now I am no longer in the world, but these are IN THE WORLD...." (NKJ) Believers remain here living above this (cosmos) worldly system.

John 17:14 "...and the world has hated them because they are NOT OF THE WORLD (world systems), just as I am NOT OF THE WORLD."(NKJ) We are "not of the world. "Just as" or "even as" (Strong's # 2531 kathos) Christ is "not of the world." It is out of this likeness to Christ, that we obtain this quality to resist the worldly nature.

Jesus did not pray that we be taken "OUT of the world" (vs.15), or suddenly "raptured" away, but that we be "kept from the evil one." There's no escapism clause here. Believers are to be separated OUT of the old way and that separation is what causes them to be "kept from the evil one." But that's not all. We not just separated OUT, but then are separated INTO the New LIFE. The NEW CREATION human lives IN THIS WORLD while not being OF THE WORLD. That means we no longer endlessly contend with our worldly nature, or are tempted by the carnality of the worldly systems.

John 17:16 They are NOT OF THE WORLD, just as I am NOT OF THE WORLD. (NKJ) Not of the world. The NEW CREATION manifests the God kind of LIFE that is in Jesus, not that of the world. We demonstrate, as much as possible, a life without sin. Not of the world. We walk in the same realm as Jesus ("just as" He was NOT OF THIS WORLD), hence we are just as He is, in His presence. Not of the world. We establish God's kingdom on earth as it is in heaven (Matt. 6:10). We belong to a kingdom that is NOT OF THIS WORLD (Jn. 8:23, 18:36). We live independently from this worlds systems, with new eternal standards and principles that govern. Not of the world. We live in the world, in order to "redeem" (salvage) the world, but we are not "of" the world.

Jesus became the firstfruit example of living in the world, but not of it. Jesus gave "himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and to purify for himself a people that are his very own, eager to do what is good." )Titus 2:14 NIV).

Jesus prayed, "As You sent Me INTO THE WORLD, I also have sent them INTO THE WORLD" (John 17:18 NKJ). The NEW CREATION is sent INTO THE WORLD (systems), exhibiting a new nature and the image of Christ. They walk in covenantal fellowship with God and covenantal fellowship with humankind. They no longer loose the battle against the flesh, they have dominion and rule. 1 John 4:17 "Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we IN THIS WORLD. (KJV) As He is, we are. His love matures (perfects) us into the new character of Christ that we PUT ON.

When we SEPARATE ourselves from worldly ways, God will "receive us." (2 Cor 6:16-17) The phenomenal promise remains for those that maintain a NEW CREATION lifestyle... for ye are the temple of the living God; ... I will dwell in them, and walk in them; ... (KJV) Let us make a fresh declaration in accordance with the will of God -- from every corner of the earth the "now" purposes of God must be released. We have come to the "set time" (Ps. 102), a time for complete and radical renovation of our current mindset. This new experience will position us into the dynamic new experience of being the demonstration of the power of God (1 Cor. 2:4).

Pastor Kluane Spake Ph.D.

SWORD Ministries

Internet: spake@mindspring.com

web page: www.spake.org/spake

8425 RiverWalk

Suwanee, GA

Telephone: 678-584-0711

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The “Needs Based” Gospel

Doug Fortune

“God is here to meet YOUR needs!”... NOT!!! How many times have I heard that basic message, that God is here to meet MY needs... and in years past, I have said the same thing (you probably have also!). I read and hear it everywhere, even prophetic words with this premise as the primary objective (keep in mind, I live in the USA where this thought is very prevalent). Am I saying that God has no compassion and doesn’t care for you?...certainly NOT!... However, His purpose is not to meet YOUR needs, His purpose is to BE GOD and His purpose for you is to be conformed to the likeness of His Son! This ‘needs based’ gospel appeals to the SOUL (mind, will and emotions), and much of the Church is eating from the ‘Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil’ which feeds the SOUL, so it is very popular. May I suggest that if my actual physical martyrdom, let alone a martyrdom of the self-life, serves the purpose of God then it is GOOD and I willingly embrace it? You see, the ‘Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil’ deems martyrdom, suffering and most things that don’t ‘feel good’ to be evil... in fact, many who are in the ‘crucible’ of God’s refining process, going through very difficult circumstances are told that it is a result of sin in their life... not necessarily true.

In one sense, God IS here to meet our needs, as our greatest need is to die to self and He will certainly provide every opportunity for that! Don’t take me wrong, I’m not saying God is out to get you... He is good and kind and gracious and He DOES meet our needs... that is a by-product of seeking FIRST His Kingdom, though.

God is raising up a people who are concerned with God’s NEED... yes, that’s right, God has a NEED. That NEED is to manifest Himself in a people to fulfill His eternal PURPOSE in the earth. As we focus on His need we will find that our physical, emotional, spiritual needs are either met OR we find out that they really weren’t needs after all. I used to have some emotional needs that I’ve found out were really just selfish wants of a SOULISH Adam nature... Christ did not come and fill those supposed ‘needs’, rather He delivered me from the bondage of soulish wants (not that I’ve necessarily ‘arrived’!). Of course there will always be unbelievers and spiritual babes and we must minister to their needs, however, we must be careful NOT to strengthen the spiritual stronghold of selfishness in the process. Paul spoke of this in 1 Cor.3:2 as he said, “I fed you with milk, not solid food, for you were not yet strong enough to be ready for it; but EVEN YET you are not strong enough, for you are still unspiritual, having the nature of the flesh - under the control of ordinary impulses...” Yes, meet the needs of the unsaved and babes, give them milk... but don’t let them STAY there!

I see a major thrust of the Apostolic is to instill a ‘martyr mentality’ in the people. Rather than begging folks to make a hasty decision for Christ so He can fix all their problems (I’m exaggerating here to make a point), the message should be, “If you are willing to give up everything and die to self, then you are fit for the Kingdom!”... hey, the cults are pulling people in right and left with this mentality, but we are afraid of offending someone by asking too much of them. The truth be known though, most of the time when we give something up, He either gives it back to us or gives us something better... He really IS good! I believe that God meets our needs, NOT just so that our needs are met, but rather so that His PURPOSE may be fulfilled in us. Once we are engrafted and consumed in the PURPOSES of God, we will never have a true ‘need’ unmet. So if you really want your needs met, make his NEEDS your needs.

I must admit that when I hear and read things that are so focused on man’s needs and God’s blessing with little content of God’s PURPOSE, warning signs go up. That doesn’t necessarily mean that it is a false teaching or false prophecy, just perhaps immature or not yet complete. I firmly believe that God is calling forth maturity in this day like never before... the sons of God are poised to manifest. This will not happen within a ‘needs based’ gospel though... our mentalities have to change. Our ministry focus must move beyond meeting the ‘needs’ of the people, to building the PURPOSE of Christ in the people. We must start with ourselves though... if my primary concern is how the ‘needs’ of my ministry will be met (sorry to hit so close to home, guys!), then I won’t have much success breaking that stronghold in the people I minister to. It is God’s NEED (His purpose) that must take priority... let us be consumed in His NEED and see His ultimate PURPOSE fulfilled.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The New Oil To Come

Stephen Hanson

March 8, 00

Say to the Israelites, `This is to be my sacred anointing oil for the generations to come. Ex. 30:31

He poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him to consecrate him. Lev. 8:12

I have found David my servant; with my sacred oil I have anointed him. Ps. 89:20

It is like precious oil poured on the head, running down on the beard, running down on Aaron's beard, down upon the collar of his robes. Ps. 133:2

"These are the days of birthing and these are the days of travailing. As there are things brought forth from the womb, so there are things brought forth from those who have entered into Me. But a child is brought forth from safety into the world around them. As a child is brought forth then, there is pain. But I say, that it is a time of growth and delivery. For I have been birthing things in my Spirit. It is time for delivery for those who have entered into my plans. I say, "bring forth the child which has been in there." There have been things which have been hidden, but it is time for them to be brought forth. What are those things, you might say? There is a new level of anointing which is coming. It is an anointing which not only breaks the yoke, for my anointing ALWAYS breaks the yoke. But this anointing which is being birthed, will drive away the demons so that they will flee. It will not only loose the captives, but it will strengthen them and give them power. New life is being breathed upon this anointing. "

"And then, when the child is brought forth, it will grow in wisdom and stature. In the days ahead you will need this anointing. For the enemy has plans and schemes of his own. His plans have been to dispense his darkness, but my anointing will triumph over him. As the days of evil have grown in intensity, so the days of my anointing will grow immeasurably more. As my anointing is poured forth like fine oil, let it fall upon each and every part of you. Let it seep into every crevice and part of you. This is the golden oil--every drop of it is precious. It fell upon the beard of Aaron, let it fall upon you as well. You can do nothing apart from Me, and without this oil you are acting upon your own strength. Enter into my holy of holies, and there you will find my oil. Take it, and let it be poured forth upon you. "

"Take it, for you will need it in the days ahead."

Stephen Hanson

*(If you would like to consider a monthly donation to this ministry, it would be greatly appreciated, but not necessary. Please feel free to pass these messages onto friends or others in the faith. Let me know if in anyway it has blessed, or brought forth "new life" in Him. Any questions may be directed to me. Thank you.)

Thank you,

Stephen Hanson

1095 Western Dr. 560 J.

Colorado Springs, Colorado 80915

(719) 591-5690

(719) 591-5690 (fax)

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Next Move Of God!

Matt Reams

Look man Billy Graham was the one God used to bring in the converts and salvation. Rodney, the Holy Spirit used him to bring the joy. So look man what's gonna happen next is...the power comes. Like I'm talking about blind seeing, lame people walking and dead folks raised.

Cuz like when my ol' lady was reading in Acts to me I noticed that she read something (ACTS 13:52) ....and their converts (and their con's were) were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit. First came the converts (salvation) thus Billy. Then came the joy (thus Rodney Browne) and then came the Holy Spirit.... man, that's when the power comes. I think that's what you all are gonna see next. The power, man!

Acts 1:8 ...But when the Holy Spirit is upon you, you will receive power... We have seen the salvation, or the converts. We have now seen the joy and like we are waiting for the power. I don't know about you but I ain't seen too much of the power yet. Man, I want to see it!

I look for it to come to America cuz this is my country but I know God don't do for just one group of folks alone. If you look back at Acts 13:48 It says when a 'Gentile has heard this they were very glad and rejoiced.' Man he was preaching this to Gentiles and Jews at the same time...so it ain't just gonna happen to America. It's gonna happen to the whole world...

Matt & Wanda Reams

E-mail Address(es):

panhead@ideafamilies.org

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Nature Of The Godhead

The Great Feast That Is God's Word

J. Solomon Kostelnik

The Nature Of The Godhead

J. Solomon Kostelnik

8/18/2000 -- Prophetic dream

Although this dream is personal to me and has much to say to me personally, I feel that it could be helpful to others, to reveal part of God's nature and His love and care for us.

I began to walk up a hill, which was very difficult. There were cars to my side and I knew I could explore them and their drivers, but I was determined to make it to the top of the hill. At this point I knew I was dreaming and everything in the dream became clearer to my eyes. I made my way up the hill walking under and around many trees, saying, "Lord, please help me find the top." I shortly did, came through a wall of greenery and saw a house. It was very pretty and on lots of land. I was amazed at the detail and beauty (I still knew it was a dream). But, I decided to walk back around through the forest to another clearing. I peered through and saw an even bigger house, even more beautiful, on even more land! I realized I was inside the trunk of a tree and could only see out through a few holes in the bark. I tried to back up and out of the trunk but there was a large cobweb in the way. As I sat there trying to figure it out I heard the voice of an older woman, and she began to guide me out under the webs. Though the voice came from outside my body it was as though it was inside as well. When I got out of the tree I was facing the back yard of the house. There was a family playing on a swing set.

I said into the air, "Holy Spirit? Holy Spirit!!" wanting to speak with Him, for I knew it was He Who had gotten me out of the tree.

A reply came in a man's voice around 30-35 years of age or so, saying, "Yes."

I replied from my very spirit, "I love you. I love you, Holy Spirit."

To that He immediately said, "I know and I love you too. Listen to me."

At this I knew He was done speaking.

I immediately yelled out "Jesus!! Yahushua?"

From around the corner came an even younger man's voice, saying, "Yes, I am here."

As I came around the corner I saw the young man, maybe 20 at most, sitting down talking to someone at the end of a sidewalk. He had short, blonde, spikey hair! When I came up to Him, I noticed His shirt had some writing with the word "Jesus" on it!

I laughingly said, "You're wearing one of your own shirts!!"

He smiled smugly at me, as if to say "you know Me, and you know that I'm here and everything is ok," and then turned back to who He was talking to.

I walked down the sidewalk in the opposite direction and came to a house. When I entered, it was beautiful—Dark wood, a peaceful atmosphere, and the feeling I was the only other person there.

After hesitating out of deep reverence, thinking that this was the great "House of Yahueh," I finally exclaimed, "Father? Father!!"

The answer came in the full and rich voice of an older, distinguished man, from high above my head, as though it came from the sky (yet I heard it reverberate in the room I was standing): "Yes, I am God the Father. We am one and we are doing fine."

At this I was completely shocked! "We am one"! I immediately knew He was speaking of Jesus and the Holy Spirit. But instead of "we are one" He said "we am one." Yet in the next sentence He says, "We are doing fine." I got the impression, do not worry about us, everything is under control, but thank you for being concerned.

When He spoke, it was the most inviting voice. It was though this was where I was supposed to be--the end of my journey. Though the house felt familiar, it was as though there were countless hours to be spent exploring it. And all the while, the Father would be with me, since it was His house. Not to disrespect or belittle them, but it was as though the Holy Spirit and Jesus were simply pointing me to, and preparing me for, meeting the Father. He was the reason for the journey and He was my destination. He was "God the Father" and it was His house that I belonged in.

This is where the dream ended.

The Holy Spirit had guided me out of a hollow tree, so that I could actually go where I was looking. He encouraged me to listen to Him, just as I did when He led me out of the tree (perhaps my flesh?), and reminded me that He loved me just as I loved Him.

Jesus encouraged me by letting me know He was here, and that He was already speaking to someone else shows me that He is always open to talk to us. He gives witness of Himself by "wearing one of His own shirts"! If we have anything on our mind, He is open to speak to us.

And the Father is the One they both prepared me for. The reason for me being and for my journey!

Truly, "they is one" in a way we can never fully comprehend! Glory to the Godhead for this beautiful revelation! His love is amazing!

The Great Feast That Is God's Word
J. Solomon Kostelnik

8/2/2000

Tonight I simply sought the Holy Spirit, and asked Him to manifest Himself through me--I asked for a word of exhortation for His children. And behold, my Lover granted my wish for you.

"Come to the dinner table and dine. I have spread before you a great feast. Look upon the different courses you are free to eat. Look at the beauty of each dish. Will you take from each? Will you taste of each and every dish I have prepared for you? I ask you as a Father, do not fill yourself up on only one, but let moderation prompt you to take your fill from each and every plate before you. My Word has facets beyond your comprehension. Look at the table--can you see its end? Look to the end of the room! Can you see its end? You will see that as you walk from dish to dish, taking from each, you will not be filled. No, you will continue to walk down this hallway of delights, amidst your brothers and sisters, feasting upon the diversity of My Word. And as you continue to walk and eat, your strength will not fail. The steady intake of My Word, in all of its splendor, both hearty and sweet, will keep your legs strong and your eyes clear. Do not stop at one dish, but continue to partake of each and every one which I have prepared for you. It is my pleasure to see you delight, and lo, your delight awaits you at the table. Come and dine!"

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Touch Not My Anointed

Ching Co

Dear People of God,

The Lord quickened these messages in my heart today, and I am submitting these for your prayer and discernment.

WHAT'S ABOUT TO TAKE PLACE:

God is about to effect a great turnover that will involve leaders and ministries.

The Moses', Aaron's and Miriam's of this generations are slowly being recalled by the Lord. And He is instructing them to get ready to pass over the leadership to the Joshua's and the Caleb's from their camp. For the latter ones are the people that God has chosen to led His Church to cross over our present Jordan and to claim the promised land.

Along with this process, there will have to be a letting go of ministries and a stepping back that will occur coming from the ranks of our present day Moses', Aaron's and Miriam's. These turnovers can take place voluntarily or through various outward circumstances beyond the control of people.

WARNING TO BE VIGILANT:

Outwardly ministries will fall and rise up. Some will be retired and others will be promoted. And this is where we need great vigilance. The enemy will not waste time using these changes and turning them into personal issues focusing on the negative things and stirring up speculations, questions and presumptions.

GOD'S COMMAND TO US:

We the people of God as we see these things unveiling before us must always seek to guard our mouth. We must not commit the sin of Noah's son Ham who told his two brothers about his father's nakedness, but we must seek to act as Shem and Japheth who took a garment and laid it across their shoulders; then they walked in backward and covered their father's nakedness. (Genesis 9:22-23) We must be careful not to touch God's anointed. David's understood God's heart about this and he maintained his respect for Saul despite the personal failures of the king. Let us leave our leaders into the hands of God for His ways and His thoughts are higher than our ways.

GOD'S REMINDER TO US

The Lord places these verses in my heart as reminder of how we need to respond as His children during these times.

JAMES 1:9-10, 2:12-13 ( AMPLIFIED BIBLE)

Let the brother in humble circumstances glory in his elevation [as a Christian, called to the true riches and to be an heir of God]. And the rich [person ought to glory] in being humbled [by being shown his human frailty], because like the flower of the grass he will pass away.

So speak and so act as [people should] who are to be judged under the law of liberty [the moral instruction given by Christ, specially about love]. For to him who has shown no mercy, the judgment [will be] merciless, but mercy [full of glad confidence] exults victoriously over judgment.

May the Lord bless His word and confirm this in your hearts.

Blessings,

Sis. Ching Co

Cebu City

Philippines

The Night Is Nearly Over!

Chimezie Onyebilanma

Romans 13:12 "the night is nearly over, the day is almost here"

There are many things God has promised you that you are yet to see. Maybe you have waited for so long for those dreams he has planted in our heart to come to pass. Perhaps for some of us it has been like we have been going through the night of life - when everything seems to have come to a standstill. A time of darkness, and of unfulfilled expectations. Perhaps you have even been feeling like giving up lately.

We'll listen now to what God is saying. He said "the night is nearly over". What a message of hope! Think about it. He is telling us that it is not the right time to give up if we have come this far because "the night is nearly over". I don't know how long you've been going through what you are going through but God says "the night is nearly over". We must persevere to the end because "the night is nearly over". We must pray on and not throw up our hands now because the night is almost over. Now, it doesn't matter if all you can see for now is still the darkness. God's word says the night will soon be over. Someone once said that the darkest hour of the night is only one hour before dawn. So don't be moved by the fact that things are getting darker, because God's word cannot be broken. HE NIGHT IS NEARLY OVER! Hallelujah!

But he also says, "the day is almost here". Then we not just to sit down and wait for the night to be over. There is work to be done. We must get ready for the day. We must use the night to prepare for the day. As missionaries in remote villages, we often had to do long treks for which we had to wait for the first break of daylight before setting out into the dangerous bush. What we learnt then was to wake up while it was still dark and do all our preparations and dressing ups so that we would be fully ready to move when the dawn comes.

In the same way, beloved, though it may still be dark all around you, yet it is time to wake up from discouragement, self-pity, fear, guilt and that sin that easily besets us. It's time to get ready for the day. We must dress up our inner man and have him "clothed ...with the Lord Jesus Christ...not think about how to gratify the desires of the sinful nature". We must do away with every form of spiritual childishness in our life and begin to position ourselves to enter into the promises of God for our life and ministry. Because "the night is nearly over and the day is almost here". It is coming.

Beloved, God is about to do something in your life. He wants you to prepare. Come on, get ready, get ready!

That all the nations may praise him,
Chimezie Onyebilanma,
CAPRO Togo, Lome

PS:If this message has been helpful, it would be encouraging to me to hear from you.

To learn more about the cross-cultural missionary work of CAPRO in Togo, West Africa send any email to caprotogo@bibway.com.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Overcoming Life

Mike Forest

"And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the Word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death." (Rev.12:11).

From the very beginning of the Christian life, it should be made plain to the babe in Christ that overcoming is not the exception but it is the normal Christian life. The main reason why this is not taught is because this has not been our experience. But this is not what the bible teaches. I remember going to a Christian concert as a young Christian and hearing one of the Christian musicians say, "I sin everyday, but God forgives me, you are going to sin everyday." With this kind of teaching, is it any wonder that the experience for most Christians is a up and down experience of falling and repenting, especially for the young Christian.

The word overcome is the Greek word (nikao). This meaning of this word as defined in Strong's concordance is CONQUER, OVERCOME, PREVAIL, GET THE VICTORY. The word nikao comes from the Greek word (nike) which means THE MEANS OF SUCCESS, CONQUEST, VICTORY.

The normal Christian life should be a life of sustained victory over the world, the flesh, and the devil. Jesus Christ has already overcome the world, the flesh, and the devil. Jesus Christ is living on the inside of the born again child of God, and if Christ is allowed to rule and reign in the life of the Christian, then overcoming will become a normal way of life. "Greater is He that is in you, than he that is in the world." (1 John 4:4). The greater One is living His life within the believer.

Jesus Christ is to be the very life of the believer. "When Christ who is our life shall appear" (Col. 3:4). The life of Christ is a conquering life, it is a overcoming life, it is a victorious life. As long as Christ is on the throne of the believers life there is victory.

What is the secret to living in victory? We all know what failure is like. Most of us have lived much of our lives in Romans 7. Trying and failing, and then trying again. What is the great lesson of Romans 7? it is simply this, that "in my flesh dwells no good thing. There is no way for me to overcome through making new resolutions are exercising more self effort. The way of victory is in seeing that it is only through faith in Jesus Christ that we are made able to overcome in any area of our lives. The Lord has come to live His overcoming life in us. The way that we overcome is by seeing "that it is no longer I that lives, but Christ lives in me." The way of overcoming is by looking to Christ in the time of need. Failure will always be the result when we are striving and struggling within ourselves to overcome some weakness. We see weakness as our enemy, but we are to embrace weakness. The apostle Paul said that "I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong." Has the apostle Paul lost it? Why would anyone take pleasure in infirmities, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses? Because the apostle Paul knew the secret to victory. The Lord had revealed to Paul that "my grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness."

"For sin shall not lord it over you, for you are not under the law, but under grace." What does this verse mean? As long as I am trying to overcome sin by obeying rules and regulations, or through self effort, there will be failure, because I have put myself under the law. When I see the weakness in my flesh, then I will no longer attempt to overcome through self effort. We are no longer under the law, but we are under grace. Grace is the divine enablement of God in the life of the believer. Grace is God's power in my life giving me the ability to be more than a conqueror in every aspect of life. "God's grace is sufficient for me." Why is this? Because the strength of the Lord is manifested in our weakness. The strength of the Lord is manifested in our inability to do anything about the bad situation that we are finding ourselves in. This is what God's grace is all about. It is God working in and for man to give him the victory. Our many failures have taught us a very valuable lesson, and that is that we are not to trust in ourselves, but in Him that gives to us His own resurrection life.

"But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raises the dead." (2 Corinthians 1:9).

Victory is in found in Christ and in Christ alone.

"Now thanks be unto God, which always causes us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of His knowledge by us in every place." (2 Corinthians 2:14).

"nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors, THROUGH HIM THAT LOVED US." (Romans 8: 37).

"For me to live is Christ." (Philippians 1:21).

"I am crucified with Christ, nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ lives in me." (Galatians 2:20).

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

To Offend Many

Bob Neumann

TO OFFEND MANY....

Last night I had a wondrous night. Sort of sets me free....sort of... Sort of explains one heck of a lot that just didn't want to fit into place. Call it a time of remembrance, a time of instruction. Then again it was "my time" to simply come into agreement with what MY LORD AND MASTER is doing. In HIS WORD HE SAYS that is exactly what HE WANTS to do with everyone. Personally I was more than content to sit at HIS FEET and get what FELL FROM ABBA'S TABLE. But then again, HE WAS RIGHT, as USUAL. I will enjoy watching what will now begin to take place. I will still grieve a bit when it happens, but HE ASSURED ME AGAIN... "EVERYTHING WILL BE ALL RIGHT". Great promise. SO....if anyone is interested HE'S STILL THE SAME... Jeremiah 33:1-5 1 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the prison, saying, 2 Thus saith the LORD the maker thereof, the LORD that formed it, to establish it; the LORD is his name; 3 Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not. 4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by the mounts, and by the sword; 5 They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city. (KJV)

If you really believe HE IS MAKER, FORMER, AND LORD HE WILL TELL YOU. Now we all hear verses 1-2-3 quoted and requoted, but never with what follows. Maybe that is why the "stuff" HE TELLS me offends so many. It certainly is not corroborated by the shepherds and scribes of the AMERICAN CHURCH. What happened last night brings me PEACE. That is all I really need.

Like most "encounters" with MY GOD it began as a simple vision. Actually it was the "vision" I first saw.... that was of GOD. It was a pleasant place where HIS SHEEP grazed safely. Straight out of Bach. HE once again was THE GOOD SHEPHERD. But for the first time I was not on all fours. I walked with HIM...EYE TO EYE. And it unnerved me. HE BEING ALL-KNOWING knew my feeling of uncertainty and simply smiled. Looking at HIS FACE I HEARD ABBA again, "IT'S GOING TO BE ALL RIGHT, SON." And it was. PEACE BEYOND UNDERSTANDING just filled me. I noticed myself take a long deep breath and look at HIM SMILING PLACIDLY.

"FOR WHAT WE ARE ABOUT TO RECEIVE, EH CALEB"?, HE KIDDED. I remembered the old saying both my grandfathers joked about. Out of the blue I thought of a song and wondered if once again the "band play Waltzing Matilda", one more time. And would anyone understand the price that was paid...for nothing. Maybe someone from "down under" might catch it....but I really don't care any more. That is what is funny about when THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT BRINGS REMEMBRANCE to you of images and stuff that makes no sense to anyone else. As I pondered this THE GOOD SHEPHERD leaned on HIS STAFF and just waited for me. Out of the blue I thought HE HAS ALWAYS BEEN LONG SUFFERING with me.

"I THINK A BETTER WORD CALEB IS 'PATIENCE'. IN SPITE OF YOURSELF YOU HAVE NOT MADE ME SUFFER OVER YOU. GREATLY CONCERNED AT TIMES, BUT ETERNAL OMNISCIENCE HAS IT'S PERKS." With that HE walked to a little rise where some trees stood and we sat in the shade, looking down at HIS SHEEP. They were of all sizes and shapes. In fact there was no uniformity of "breed". That was something real new and I pondered as we sat and just watched as the SHEEP munched good thick grass. I had to think that this was the way it was supposed to be. All in "one flock" with only ONE SHEPHERD, ONE LORD.

"IT'S NOT LIKE YOU IMAGINED IT, IS IT CALEB?" HE ASKED leaning against a tree. I looked at HIM and looked back at HIS SHEEP. The feeling of "being right" was all over me and I wondered why my mind still could not filter out all the garbage that was running through it. "MAYBE IT IS NOT ALL GARBAGE CALEB. REMEMBER YOU ARE THE WORK OF MY HANDS. SOMETIMES WHAT THE WORLD SEES AS FLAWS AND IMPERFECTIONS ARE NOT. ALL WORKS OF TRUE ART ARE SPECIALLY MADE TO SHOW MY SKILL AND THE UNIQUENESS OF MY TALENTS."

Now I just had to absorb this chunk of wisdom and I just stared at HIM and watched HIM STARE BACK at me. Is it proper to say HE had a smug look on HIS FACE....SMILE AND ALL?

"OR IS IT THAT I LIKE TO JERK YOUR CHAIN CALEB?" HE LAUGHED. "WHY DO YOU HAVE TROUBLE WITH THESE FLAIRS OF PERSONALITY WE HAVE?"

HE WAITED for a response and I had to be honest with HIM....and myself. For so long I have wondered why no one else seemed to "see" and "hear" HIM as I was now doing. More to the point why would HE WANT me to try and put it to "paper" and send it out on the WWW? For so long I have pondered and wrestled with this and I stared back at HIM. Now part of the problem is I know HE KNOWS every thought I think before I think it. HAS ALWAYS KNOWN....and there is the conundrum. I just looked down at HIS FEET and stayed silent.

"MAYBE MY FRIEND YOU CAN NOT SEE THAT I ENJOY YOU MORE THAN YOU CAN FATHOM. LIKEWISE FEW HAVE I EVER FOUND WHO WILL OBEY ME IN SPITE OF 'THE COST'. THE ISSUE OF 'THE COST' OF FOLLOWING ME HAS ALWAYS COME INTO PLAY. IT IS WRITTEN, MANY ARE CALLED CALEB. IN FACT THE CALL HAS GONE OUT TO THE WHOLE WORLD. THE ISSUE IS THAT FEW CHOOSE TO OBEY. FEW CHOOSE TO FOLLOW. FEW CHOOSE TO GIVE THEIR ALL."

I listened and thought and HE BEGAN..."IS IT NOT WRITTEN.."(and HE SPOKE in everyday language....)

For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect. 18 For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. 19 For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. 20 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? 21 For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. 22 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom: 23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; 24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. 25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. 26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: 27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; 28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: 29 That no flesh should glory in his presence. 30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: 31 That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

Now HE HAD done this in the past to me, but not to this degree. And I sat quiet. It was way to much at one time, and I said so to HIM. I watched HIS FACE change from merriment to concern and I had this heaviness just slowly tap me on the shoulder and say "yo".

I watched THE GOOD SHEPHERD slowly stand and reach down to help me to my feet. HE USED HIS RIGHT HAND. HE HELD HIS RIGHT HAND BEFORE MY FACE AND SAID "THIS IS MY HAND OF MERCY. AND I CHOSE TO REACH DOWN AND BRING YOU TO ME, FOR MY REASONS SO MY WORDS WILL BE FULFILLED. YOU WERE NOT THE FIRST BUT YOU ARE INDEED ONE OF THE LAST." With that being said HE moved the STAFF to HIS RIGHT HAND and reached out HIS LEFT HAND AND TOOK MY RIGHT ARM. "THIS IS MY HAND OF GRACE. NO, CALEB, YOU NEVER DESERVED EITHER MY GRACE OR MY MERCY. NO MAN EVER HAS, EVER WILL. I CHOSE YOU LIKE I CHOSE ALL WHO CALLED OUT TO ME AND GAVE THEIR ALL UPON MY ALTER. THAT IS WHY YOU WERE GIVEN THE IMAGE OF LIVING SACRIFICE AND 'REASONABLE SERVICE'."

"I KNOW YOU ARE TROUBLED BY THE VISIONS OF THE GATE AND THE BREACH. DO YOU WONDER WHY YOU DID NOT QUOTE ALL FROM THAT VERSE ABOUT THE "GAP"?"

"Yes, LORD, I wondered. it seemed you were more focused on the image of "breach"."

"SOMEONE WILL BRING IT UP, SOMEONE YOU DO NOT EXPECT. BUT THEN AGAIN, NO ONE READS THAT WORD, THEY JUST QUOTE THEIR OWN INTENTIONS." Once again HE stopped and quoted....

And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none. 31 Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord GOD.

"HAVE YOU EVER WONDERED WHY NO ONE PICKS UP THE IDEA THAT TO 'STAND' IN THE PROVERBIAL GAP MEANS THAT THEY ARE STANDING AGAINST ME? IS IT JUST ONE OF THOSE THINGS CALEB? OR JUST MAYBE THERE IS A DEEPER DECEPTION IN THE MIDST OF MY FLOCK?"

Now I had always thought that this was because we are called out to stand on the walls and to call out till ZION is restored. Moses stood before GOD and HIS WRATH was 'put aside'. I had no real answer because I "knew" HE was talking about HIMSELF. THE MAN who would stand in the "GAP" was THE LAMB. It was HIS BLOOD that enabled us to OVERCOME the enemy...to speak THE WORDS of our testimony.....to "forget about our lives and not worry about "death" because we are just that....DEAD. Living sacrifices....

And I remembered the song "FOR ZION'S SAKE I WILL NOT BE SILENT, FOR JERUSALEM'S SAKE I WILL NOT BE STILL...." .....Isaiah 62...and John Michael Talbot.... and suddenly I was on my knees crying at HIS FEET. The grief I felt was tremendous. But I did not know why. THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT was weeping..... ABBA was weeping.

"ON YOUR WALLS JERUSALEM, I HAVE SET MY WATCHMEN. I HAVE ALWAYS PLACED MY WATCHMEN, ROBERT SON OF ROBERT SON OF JOSEPH SON OF LEO...."

and HE kept on and on.....AND HE STOPPED...."THE REASON I PUT MY WATCHMEN ON THE WALLS WAS NOT TO WARN MY PEOPLE BUT TO SEEK MY MERCY AND GRACE FOR A PEOPLE THAT DENIED MY NAME AND ABUSED MY WORD. NOW THE TIME OF MY WATCHMEN IS OVER."

One again I stood over the city and watched the ARMY OF DARKNESS enter the city....

"WHY DID YOU NOT STAND AND FIGHT HERE, OLD DOG?"

It was like a jolt of electricity running through me and my grief was gone. Instead I felt a cold churning in my belly and I looked up. No longer was THE GOOD SHEPHERD standing before me, BUT THE LAMB OF GOD. Bright and Glorious. No humor in HIS EYES. With neither permission nor a 'helping hand' I stood before my LORD and KING and realized the TRUTH.

"I wanted that city destroyed, MASTER. I did not want to push the enemy back. I wanted Joel's Army to destroy what was evil and perverse." I almost spat the words out the raw anger bubbling up. I almost missed the change of reference. THE SHEPHERD had always called me "caleb"...or "boy" and I always enjoyed it. BUT.... MY CAPTAIN...THE LORD OF HOSTS...TE LAMB WHO ALONE IS WORTHY TO TRAMPLE THE WINEPRESS OF THE WRATH OF A HOLY GOD always calls me "OLD DOG". Something has happened and I look at HIM wondering what has happened.

HE SMILED AND LAUGHED.

and I felt the universe shake and all creation tremble before HIM. suddenly I understood why the heathens rage and plot vain things. they refused HIS WILL AND PURPOSE and have earned HIS HATRED AND HIS WRATH. and suddenly I was in the BREACH standing among the fallen. the pain and weariness flooded me. all around the corpses were piled. among the multitudes of the enemy were the few who went to the BREACH. my fellow soldiers...my brothers...none whose names I had known...whose faces I could recognize. I stood there wondering...waiting for the last attack as the ARMY OF DARKNESS massed to my front and my rear. one on my left and one on my right all of three of us remained. and suddenly we were pulled up and out. but this time I "heard" THE TRUMPET and THE SHOUT....and we were snatched away from the destruction.

"YOU WERE SO FOCUSED ON THE BATTLE AT HAND YOU DID NOT HEAR THE ORDER TO EVACUATE, THE BUGLE CALL TO FALL BACK AND REGROUP."

I know I must have looked stupid....how could I have missed it...it was so loud....so long.

"IT IS EASY TO GET A LITTLE DISTRACTED AMONG THE DEAD AND IN THE HEAT OF BATTLE. THAT IS AN EXCUSE I WANT TO HEAR. MY SERVANTS COMPLETELY GIVEN OVER TO ME. FOCUSED ON THE ISSUES THEY WERE TOLD TO BE CONCERNED ABOUT. BUT TELL ME WHERE WAS THE GREAT ARMY THAT CARRIES MY BANNER IN SONG AND DANCE TO CRUSH THE ENEMY?"

I looked at HIS GRIN and had to shake my head. I thought of Caleb and Joshua....Shamgar....David and his wilderness army....Gideon and the 300....Abram and the 318 born in HIS HOUSE and TRAINED with the sword. and I remembered the preachings and teachings and prophecies of THE GLORIOUS ARMY marching into hell for a heavenly cause....

"SORRY DOG, BUT YOU KNOW THAT "HEAVENLY CAUSE" SONG IS FROM BROADWAY".

I had to laugh....HE WAS RIGHT...

OF COURSE I AM RIGHT!"

I looked at HIM and HIS SMILE and HIS EYES WERE FILLED WITH LAUGHTER. and I heard that SWEET GENTLE VOICE WHISPER in my spirit. "BEHOLD THE LAMB OF GOD WHO TAKES AWAY THE SINS OF THE WORLD. BEHOLD THE LAMB WHO IS WORTHY TO OPEN THE SEALS. BEHOLD THE LAMB WHO TREADS THE WINEPRESS".

it was a no brainer I slowly knelt down and placed my forehead to the ground at HIS FEET. The ELECTRICITY I felt before was nothing compared to this. I heard music and singing unlike anything I had ever heard. I could hear words. HOLY....KADOSH....and what was probably every language ever spoken....

HOLY....HOLY....HOLY....IS THE LORD GOD ALMIGHTY ....WHO WAS ....WHO IS....WO WILL ALWAYS BE....

I felt a familiar touch on my head and a GENTLY LOVING VOICE....speak my name....

"SHEMUEL"

I looked up and saw ABBA'S FACE. once again the tears ran down my face as I looked upon HIM. they say you can not look at GOD and live. I wondered of all the times HE TOOK MY HAND and WALKED WITH ME. maybe I should say I WALKED WITH HIM. once again paradox....one again I realized I did not care. thoughts were useless in HIS PRESENCE. HE REACHED OUT AND TOUCHED MY TEARS.

"WHY DO YOU WEEP SON?", HE ASKED GENTLY.

"I'm sorry ABBA, I just do not understand."

"I KNOW, THAT IS WHY YOU ARE HERE. FOR YOU SEE SON THE TIME OF MY WATCHMEN IS OVER. YOU HAVE FOUGHT THE GOOD FIGHT. NOW YOU JUST HAVE TO FINISH THE COURSE. YOU HAVE DONE WELL. DO NOT JUDGE YOURSELF. DO NOT ATTEMPT TO EVALUATE ANYTHING BECAUSE YOU WERE NEVER GIVEN ALL THE PIECES. JUST THE ONES WE WANTED YOU TO HAVE TO DO YOUR SERVICE. BECAUSE YOU LEARNED OF HIM YOU LEARNED TO LOVE AS MY SON YOUR LAMB LOVES. WITHOUT ANY STRINGS ATTACHED. MAN LIKES STRINGS. MAN LIKES HIS GAMES. ALL I EVER ASKED WAS FOR MAN TO OBEY. YOU OBEYED BECAUSE YOU LOVED. BECAUSE YOU WERE LOVED THE COST OF OBEDIENCE WAS NEVER CONSIDERED TO HIGH".

I stood there in HIS THRONE ROOM. Much like Isaiah and John must have and like them I felt out of place. I thought about HIS WORDS. I wondered why THE LAMB had not spoken this. the time of HIS WATCHMEN being over was not expected. but then I remembered HIS WORDS from before. the warnings from JEREMIAH. From the PSALMS about seeking THE LORD while HE may be found.

"OPEN UP THE ANCIENT GATES" I heard from behind me as two strong HANDS grabbed my shoulders as HE SHOOK ME AND LAUGHED...

"DON'T YOU REMEMBER THE VISION OF THE THREE CITIES?" ,HE ASKED WITHOUT WAITING FOR AN ANSWER CONTINUED, "THAT WAS THE FIRST VISION OUTSIDE OF ME AND MY SHEEP THAT YOU WERE GIVEN. HAS ANYTHING CHANGED FROM THE FIRST TIME YOU WATCHED IN THE VALLEY OF VISION?"

"TELL ME OLD FRIEND WHAT TROUBLES YOU?"

I watched as SON took HIS PLACE at ABBA'S RIGHT HAND. HE GRINNED and ABBA SMILED GENTLY. what could I say. all along I had wondered if I had failed over and over. did I get HIS MESSAGE out? did I sound the warning....warnings? I felt like a failure in my own eyes. and as I thought these thoughts ABBA just shook HIS HEAD "NO" ....HE was right I can not judge....then I heard again THE SWEET AND GENTLE VOICE OF HIS MOST HOLY SPIRIT quoting the GOSPEL....

1 And he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him. 2 And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands? 3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him.

FIRST ABBA SPOKE...."SHEMUEL, MANY HAVE TAKEN OFFENSE AT YOU BECAUSE OF MY WORD I HAVE PLACED IN YOU. MANY STUMBLE AND FALL CURSING YOU WITH BOTH WORDS AND THOUGHTS NOT KNOWING YOU WERE MEANT TO BE A SOLID STONE IN MY HOUSE. YOU WERE MEANT TO CAUSE OFFENSE. BECAUSE I OFFEND MANY WHO DO NOT KNOW ME".

once again I sensed HIS GRIEF. it had nothing to do with me....I now understand. it has everything to do with whom I serve. WHOM I LOVE.

THEN THE LAMB SPOKE..."PERSONALLY I HAVE ENJOYED WHEN THE WISE AND THE MIGHTY GAG AND RETCH BECAUSE I CHOSE TO USE YOU AND THOSE WHO FAIL TO "FIT" IN. IN THEIR EYES YOU ARE INDEED FOOLISH AND WEAK. YOU HAVE NO WEALTH, NO POWER BASE, NO CONNECTIONS IN THE WORLD AS THEY SEE THEMSELVES. YOU ARE COMMON CLAY AND THEY ARE "GOLD" AND "SILVER". LITTLE DO THEY UNDERSTAND THAT CLAY, GOLD AND SILVER ARE ALL "EARTHEN" MATERIAL WHICH I SHAPE ACCORDING TO MY PLEASURE. ALL IT TAKES IS OBEDIENCE STEMMING FROM A BROKEN HEART AND A CONTRITE SPIRIT."

"I PLAN TO TRAMPLE THE ARROGANT AND DESTROY THOSE WHO DEEM THEMSELVES WISE AND MIGHTY IN THEIR OWN EYES. IT WILL PLEASE ME TO USE YOU AND THOSE WHOM I HAVE CHOSEN IN MY PLEASURE".

I stood and listened as THE LAMB SPOKE. THINGS HAD INDEED CHANGED. A "NEW THING" has begun if you look with man's eyes. ONLY it is all there in HIS WORD.

interesting stuff

selah

dog

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Ocean of My Love

Linda Patterson

May 29, 2000

Submerge yourself in the ocean of My love. I am calling you to explore the depths. A treasure chest of blessing awaits you. Everything you have need of is there for you.

Dive deeper My beloved, for the water is crystal clear. All doubts, fears and insecurities fall away as this cool, refreshing water embraces you. I take you to a place of life, hope and promise. Entangle yourself in the glory of My presence. Rest at the lowest level in My sea of provision and allow the pressure of the water to seal My promises into your heart.

Rise up now from the ocean's depths. Come surf with Me, My beloved on this ocean of love. The waves are high; abandon yourself to Me. There is freedom, liberty and joy as you are kissed by the Son.

Many are shipwrecked on the ocean of life. Reach out My beloved and take their hand. A refreshing spray of glory and grace shall awaken them to new life.

A wave of fire, a wave of power shall thunder across the ocean of life. Yes, a wave of provision, a wave of abundance shall soon follow for those who are faithful and true.

Intercessors For Jesus Ministries Fergus, Ontario

Now He who searches the heart knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God. Romans 8:27

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

To Possess or Not

Meri Burlingame

TO POSSESS OR NOT TO POSSESS IS THE CHOICE

by Meri Burlingame

A few weeks ago as I left the building after morning services, I "saw" a principle that explained some of the things God was doing in that congregation. While the context of what I saw was related to the local congregation, it has become clear to me that it also has much broader application for us as Christians in this period of "transition."

I have been a part of this congregation for about 2 years and have watched God bless it in a number of ways, and have seen the increase of the power and flow of His Spirit both as it moves through pastoral leadership and as it moves through the congregation on a Sunday morning. God has richly blessed them financially and after four years of focusing on "building the people" the land they bought is now paid for and they are confident that God is directing them to begin to build something on the land that will facilitate the life of the body of Christ.

As I left the building, I could see the hand of God upon the congregation and a measure of the great blessings that lay ahead for them. But with that I saw something very striking to my consciousness. This congregation was at a place where they had to make a choice. If they continue to go in the direction that they have been going, they will build a very solid, well grounded church, which the Lord would bless. It would be a "fortress church in the wilderness" isolated in the world, a place of refuge and security. However, they would not possess the land.

If they want to possess the land and get the victory over the five areas that have been declared by the church and its leadership as the areas that God is most interested in affecting the lives of the people in the community, then a different direction would have to be taken.

Under the fortress church mentality, leadership truly can trust that God will step by step show them what He wants them to do. They are basically "self-contained." On the other hand, the "kingdom church" cannot function on its own. It requires assistance from "apostolic leadership" in the "larger body of Christ." Those in a given locality may never receive the "revelation" of the answers to the way to get victory over the local principalities and powers. The local leadership may not have the "empowerment" and/or gifting to facilitate the equipping of the local body to do the work of the advancing the kingdom.

When dealing with a given locality, community, area, region, there are certain "forces" at work that can inhibit the release of knowledge and understanding within that area. However, when leadership is called in from other areas, they are free to minister and release the power of God that no one in the local area was either free to do....or called to operate in.

In this time of transition from the wilderness church to the Kingdom Church that occupies the land, there is the need to be equipped for ministry, and even the "equippers" need equipping and need "equippers" to come in and release to the people gifts and calling that might not be present otherwise within a given area. Similarly, there may be areas of healing and restoration to which the people in the local church don't have access. As with healing, so with teaching, deliverance, even evangelism.

The old mentality of the "church" was that we have everything within us that we need. As we move into the awareness of the Kingdom, we become more aware that the body of Christ is "broken" and is spread all over the globe, each with its own gifts and calling. God is working with a "corporate body" today full of living stones and His goal and purpose is to bring all the stones into their appropriate places. At this point, there are stones scattered in places that are beyond the understanding and knowledge of local leadership to even know what to do with and in some places local "leadership" doesn't even know where some stones are hidden.

Some of these will only be found and responded to with the gifts and callings of those who are invited in from other areas to minister. It is kind of like a parent needing assistance in dealing with the various needs of their own children. In the natural, we don't hesitate to allow teachers to teach our children, doctors to tend to physical ails, dentists to their teeth, ophthalmologists their eyes.....etc. When the needs get even more specific, we go to greater specialists trained in more precise areas.

So with the Body. God has specialists that will minister the many facets of His power and presence to His people. Some who minister in the area of healing might be only used by God to heal certain types of diseases. Why? I don't know except that He has planned His body in such a way that IT NEEDS EACH OTHER. The foot needs the eye, the ear needs the baby finger nail. Rip a fingernail off and the whole body hurts. Let an ear suffer and the whole body will be in agony. So in the Body of Christ we need each other to build up the body, to put the right pieces in the right place at the right time.

There is much talk about times and seasons, and this is a season of transition from the "independent congregation" to the "corporate Body of Christ". Many individual congregations have been greatly used of God. They often utilized leadership from around the world and may have sent people out to other congregations unlike anything in the years past. And yet, even that is different from what God is calling us to today. It is the identity that we are going to have that constitutes the corporate Body of Christ which is able to possess the land rather than any specific form of church order or structure.

It is the corporate identity as members of the body of Christ which in part means recognizing that we are all parts of a Body that was "broken" that will bring forth the humility that gives us freedom and access to all the gifts and callings that God has put within His Body. Only such a "church" will be able to drive out the demons that the Lord drives into their hands as they seek to occupy the land of their inheritance and do so as a corporate entity.

The warriors that had possessed the land of their inheritance before crossing Jordan were to remain with the rest of the nation until all had possessed their own inheritance. Not only that, these 40,000 warriors went AHEAD of the priests who bore on their own shoulders the Ark of the Covenant.

Today there are those that "go ahead of the Ark of the Covenant" who have possessed some measure of their inheritance who are sent ahead to assist the rest of the body to possess theirs. When they marched around Jericho, what group of 40,000 was out there in front? Was it the warriors or the priests? The warriors who had already inherited their land were out in front. The priests didn't have any land to inherit; they were only given cities to live in. And they were responsible for "carrying the presence."

These are all types of leadership God has placed in the body in this hour that the church might be able to bring forth out of the land the fruit that belongs to the Lord! That fruit, of course, is a multifaceted body which glorifies Himself, that is adorned with Righteousness, that shines forth with Joy, and that speaks forth Truth, and that walks along the highway of holiness.

Many leaders as well as individuals in this hour need to ask themselves, "What do I desire? Do I just want the blessing and approval of God or do I long to be a intimate, integral part of His Work upon the earth?"

In 1993 I was driving onto the freeway when I saw a choice that lay before me. While I knew clearly what that choice was, it only has been within the context of what I have seen these last three weeks that those choices are now clearly understood. That day on the freeway I saw that I could be permanently separated from my estranged husband and continue to live with my mother, raise my two girls, and be richly blessed of the Lord, never having to look back. OR I could return to the family home with the two girls and finish what the Lord told me He had begun. When this last "option" was put before me, tears flowed in my eyes as I thought of the many within that family who had no knowledge of Jesus Christ, who were locked in the bondage of sin and the price I had already paid in 10 years of marriage. The choice was a simple one.

Today I understand more clearly. To have gone on and made a new life for myself would not have been wrong. It would have been a way that God would have blessed. But it wasn't the fullness of what God had planned for my life. The call and destiny of God to possess the land had been planted deep within my heart. I knew that "the heathen were my inheritance," that the family that I was a part of was "my inheritance" along with the islands of the sea. 10 years ago I had little or no idea what the price of this journey would be nor did I understand that it was a totally impossible thing for me to accomplish until the coming of the apostolic.

Over those years I kept looking for apostles. Some of the prophets around me told me I had to go out and seek apostles to team up with, but I didn't know where to look. As I sought the Lord I had the confidence that what He was asking of me was just to keep looking to Him and in due time I would be hooked up with whatever people He purposed. Here and there I saw someone with what I recognized as an apostolic call and vision. But no one seemed to understand what it meant.

In each of the lives of these apostolic people I saw, the apostolic vision ultimately fell by the wayside as other trials and tribulations came into those men's lives. Little did I understand that what I had seen was just a glimpse of what was yet ahead, whose Kairos had not yet come. And it is a good thing I didn't: for I would surely have lost hope if I had thought it was going to be yet another 8-10-15 years in coming to fulfillment.

It has been 7 years since that choice was made as I pulled onto the freeway in 93. Today much more is in place for the accomplishment of the purposes which I saw that day. Have I possessed the land? No.....it can't be possessed alone. It is a corporate work. Over the past years various areas of my own heart have been possessed, and even in the last few weeks, victory has been won over ground that the enemy through his access to had the ability to twist and turn me as he worked through people and circumstances in my life.

What will it take to possess the land? In order to get the victory over the five areas that the local congregation has seen that God says is the local "church's to inherit, it is going to cost everyone who chooses to go that way everything in their lives both personally and corporately. It isn't something that the local congregation or even the local "community" can accomplish by itself. It will take the resources of the larger body to be released to it and received by it for the local body/community to even know how to deal with the issues and forces that presently possess the land. If they don't choose to go on in and possess the land, the vision will fall to the ground until the Lord raises up other apostolic people whose desire to possess the land of their inheritance and are willing to pay the price.

To possess this land will mean needing those represented by the 40,000 warriors to go ahead of the ark; it will mean having priests who are prepared to carry the Ark of His Presence itself and the other items of His presence that must be borne on the shoulders of priests who have sanctified themselves and have put on the garments of righteousness. It will mean that those who are called to blow the trumpets will know how to call for the Body to rise up and attend to a given work in a given time and given battle/location and many other aspects of "ministry.

God is still allowing us to make the choice. He gave the children of Israel the choice to go in and possess the land or to yield to their fears and stay where they were. God continued to give them shoes that never wore out, He provided manna from heaven and water from the Rock. The fire by night and the cloud by day did not depart from them even though they liked the way things were better than to risk all to possess the land. And that generation passed away except for two before the younger ones were directed to go in and possess the land.

Even Moses was not allowed to enter the promised land because of his attitude concerning his role before the people. When he struck the Rock when he was told to speak to it, he violated the foundational principle upon which leadership in the promised land is built..... fellowship/intimacy with God and with his people. When the Rock was first smitten, Moses and the leadership went out from the camp, but the second time when they needed water from the Rock, it took place in the midst of the congregation. The church that will possess the land will have no separation of leadership and people: they will be one, in fellowship with the Rock of their Salvation, their total provision. Leadership will call forth the provision that is needed and teach people how to release all that is provided for them and for others in Christ. Since the Rock has been smitten, all provision in the Cross now only needs to be called forth and released, another major operating principles of the church that will possess the land of its inheritance.

Meri Burlingame

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Throw Out The Old Wine Skin

Jeanne Robinson

Recently the LORD gave me a prophetic song about His Church. All though I cannot share the tune with you, I wanted to share the Words. And for all that read this, if the Holy Ghost inspires you to sing it, the tune is up to HIM.

It's going to be different.
It's going to changed.
It's going to give glory to God's Name.

Throw out the old wine skins.
They're not going to hold,
What God's Giving,
Or how it flows.

Commentary: Please don't have a mind set that you know what His Church is supposed to be like. I don't care if you are a part of what some call the institutional church, or whether you are part of a home church. The temptation is to think that we have the plan. God is the one who has the plan, and let's not ever depart from any of the guidelines of the 5 fold ministry that He has laid out. A very dear friend of mine recently told me something that God spoke to her heart, "If you are convinced of your own wisdom, you will not be able to hear me(meaning God) speak to you." Let us always have ears to hear what the Spirit is saying to the church!

Jeanne Robinson

firestarters@one-eleven.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Party Syndrome & Fires

Judy Curmi

8-30-00

Everything is in my capable hands. Right now appearances are leading many astray. Some think they have been abandoned. Others have been "partying" for years now. They think the party will go on forever. It will not. The "party" is about to END in a most dramatic and frightening manner. All the wealth will flow away like water running out of a hole in the bottom of a water skin.

It will be sudden and it will be rapid. There will be no time and no way to protect those "investments". As I have said before, all that is not of me will FALL with a mighty crash.

As the TV tower, (a high place set against me), * just burned in Russia, as FIRES are burning all over the Western USA, things will BURN. The FIRES will be unquenchable, leaving nothing but smoldering ruins in their wake.

The hour is very late and the time is very NEAR for these events to occur. It will be like no other time in the history of the world. Neither amulets nor money nor "space aliens" will save you. You must be hidden in me. I will show myself strong for my own.

The Most High God

*Authors note: At over 1,770 feet, the TV tower in Moscow was the second tallest freestanding structure in the world. It broadcast to the Russian people.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Phallic Church

Brad Herrin

The following submission contains content that some would certainly find offensive. As the article states, the body must become as repulsed as God is about her sins in order for her to embrace the radical measures God would use to effect her transformation from a harlot church to a radiant bride. There is therefore content in this word of an offensive nature, but it is no more offensive than many of the words delivered to Israel and Judah for their harlotries. God was very frank in His descriptions of their sins and in the metaphors and similes He employed, and He is no different today. I ask for your patient consideration of this word.

The Phallic Church
By Joseph Herrin

It has often been said that the church mirrors society and I have at times stated this myself. It is true that we see the same foibles and failings of the culture we live in crop up within the church. Because we normally recognize the rotten fruit in society first, we have assumed that it begins there and spreads to the church. For example, homosexuality first became open and accepted in our society before it was allowed to become open and accepted in the church. The rational deduction that society leads the church, based upon observations such as this, is erroneous. The spiritual seeds, and the spiritual conditions that mirror the physical sins, are less readily observable, yet they are usually prevalent in the church long before the natural manifestation of evil appears in society. The spiritual hedge must be lowered first in order for the physical manifestation of evil to come forth.

As I listened to the Lord speak to me recently, I realized that the church actually proceeds society into evil and even the root of scandals such as the recent one involving President Clinton and White House intern Monica Lewinsky can be found to be but physical reflections of the spiritual state of the church. It seems that every media source has latched onto this scandal and has employed all manner of "experts" to explain the reason for the excessive compulsive sexual behavior of these two fallen government employees. I believe, however, that the real source has not been touched upon.

In the book of Judges chapters 19 through 21 we read the story of a national scandal that took place in Israel. It should be observed that when so many seemingly tremendous events in scripture are described in such brevity, we should take note when the Lord goes to such lengths to insure we are given as detailed of an accounting of an event as we find here. Three whole chapters of scripture are devoted to the telling of this story. In it, I believe we will find great application to our society and the church.

In this passage in Judges we are told of a Levite whose concubine ran away from him and went back to her father's house. The Levite went to bring her back to his home and as he was on the way back he stopped to spend the night in Gibeah which was a city of Israel belonging to the tribe of Benjamin. Certain worthless men of the city came to the house he was lodging in that night and demanded that he be given to them so that they could have homosexual relations with him. When they could not be turned away, the Levite's concubine was given to them instead. These men raped and abused her all night, and in the morning the Levite found her lying dead at the doorway of the house in which he was lodging.

The Levite, being incensed at what had happened, cut his concubine up into twelve pieces and sent her throughout the territory of Israel. All Israel came together to take counsel about what to do about this atrocity and they were told of how the men of Benjamin had "committed a lewd and disgraceful act. . ." (Judges 20:6). The people, being self-righteously inflamed against Benjamin, decided to go to war against them to "punish them for all the disgraceful acts they [had] committed in Israel" (Judges 20:10).

Israel's warriors outnumbered Benjamin's 400,000 to 26,000, yet in the first two days of battle Israel lost 40,000 men while Benjamin was unscathed. Only after this stunning defeat is it recorded that "all the sons of Israel and all the people went up and came to Bethel and wept; thus they remained there before the Lord and fasted that day until evening. And they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the Lord." The next day Israel prevailed against Benjamin, killing all but 600 from this tribe.

It was only when Israel repented of its own sins that they were able to bring judgment on Benjamin for its sin. This is a lesson to heed today when so many from the church are bringing condemning judgments against a President and calling for his removal from office. Is the President wrong? No doubt he is. Has he sinned? Without question. Can a sin-filled church bring judgment against him? It is doubtful. The church must first repent of her own sins; she must first remove the log from her own eye.

Without a doubt Benjamin was not the only tribe from Israel that was guilty of sin. There were idolatries, fornications, immoralities, etc. in the rest of Israel. However, Israel overlooked its own sin in its zealous outrage at the sin of Benjamin. Rather than repenting at the low state of the nation as a whole, she went to punish the singled-out evildoer. As a result Israel's army was decimated; a full tenth of her warriors fell to sinful Benjamin.

After Israel repented and judgment was brought to Benjamin we find that Israel's heart had changed in regard to the remnant of Benjamin. Sorrow had replaced judgment and mercy had replaced the rash vows that were spoken at the first. Israel is now moved to provide wives for the remnant of Benjamin when they had previously spoken a curse on any that should do so.

Why will the Lord not allow the church in America to bring judgment to a fallen President? It is because the church itself is full of sin and it must repent and be cleansed first. "For it is time for judgment to begin with the household of God . . ." (I Peter 4:17).

Now some might immediately think that the sin in the church that I am speaking of is of the same ilk as that of the President, i.e. sexual immorality. Though it is true that there is much sexual immorality in the church and it needs to be repented of and the church needs to be cleansed of it, it is the church's spiritual trespasses that need special attention. The church has been the forerunner into every kind of spiritual perversion. It is these spiritual perversions that we find mirrored as physical perversions in our society.

In these last days the Father is preparing a bride for His Son. He will not present a harlot to His Son at the marriage feast of the Lamb. He will present to Christ a bride; a pure, chaste virgin bride without spot or blemish. He will present to Jesus a bride that has eyes only for Him and whose heart is enamored of Him. Zeal for the Lord will consume her and the love of Christ will constrain her to make herself ready and to wait expectantly for His appearing.

This bride is already being made ready, but you will not find her in the traditional settings that people think of when they hear the word "church." The church (ekklesia, "called out ones") that are being prepared are being literally "called out" of the traditional church structure that is a perversion of what the Lord intends for His bride. The traditional church is a grotesque, self-serving, abomination that cannot simply be patched up or revived to conform to Christ's desire, it must be totally abandoned and left behind. We must not try to conform it by degrees to God's wishes, but we must come out of her and become what we are called out to be. The saints of God will not come out from among the perversion that the church has become until they see the utter repugnance of it. It must become as unsavory to them as it is to God.

How has the church been the forerunner of the sexual perversions we are seeing in our society and that have recently been played out in the impeachment proceedings for our President? The church has exhibited spiritually a tendency toward excessive compulsive sexual behavior for generations. It is built into its present forms and traditions and it is played out week after week.

It is abundantly clear to those within our society, as well as the international observer, that our nation is one that is consumed with issues of sexuality. America is the leading producer of every type of pornography, including magazines, movies, television, videos, the Internet, etc. America not only consumes a steady diet of every lust-satisfying commodity, but it is the chief exporter of the same to the rest of the world. The young girls and women of this nation are taught how to dress and act in sexually provocative ways and whole industries have grown rich in serving the pursuit of an alluring look. Magazines are devoted to it. Clothing manufacturers spur it on. The cosmetics and hair care industries are grown fat on it. Gyms, health spas, fitness resorts, diet plans, etc., all are fulfilling the demands of people who want to appear sexually alluring.

America is a nation that is focused on the sexual organs. It is common to hear the complaint in our society that a man thinks with his pants. The satisfying of sexual urges has become paramount above all else. Men would risk losing even the honor and responsibility of the nation's highest government position to have their impulsive sexual desires met. The tragic fruit of this phallic fixation is seen everywhere from teenage pregnancies, to rampant abortion, to an altered understanding of the value of human life. It causes people to fail to see themselves as spiritual creatures, rather lowering themselves to physical and animal levels from which they seldom rise.

It is not the normal sexual desires within us that are wrong. God, our Creator, gave them to us. It is the abnormal elevation of this one feature of our humanity above all else that has created the problem. We are a race of people that are out of balance; we let so many other areas of our being lie dormant while we unwisely pursue excessive sexuality.

It is easy to see this in society, but how does the church share this warped fixation on a single part of our makeup, so intently focused on one body part? It should come quickly to the reader's mind that there are certain parts of the body of Christ that have risen to ascendancy and which dominate the landscape of the body. There is a perverted prominence given to ministers that comes at the expense of the remainder of the body lying dormant, undeveloped, and underutilized.

In I Corinthians 11 we read that the body is made up of many members all working in harmony and God has determined that no one part should rise to ascendancy over the other parts.

And those [parts] of the body which we consider rather ignoble are [the very parts] which we invest with additional honor; and our unseemly parts and those unsuitable for exposure are treated with seemliness (modesty and decorum), which our more presentable parts do not require. But God has so adjusted (mingled, harmonized, and subtly proportioned the parts of the whole) body, giving the greater honor and richer endowment to the inferior parts which lack [apparent importance], so that there is no division or discord or lack of adaptation (of the parts of the body to each other), but the members all alike have a mutual interest in and care for one another. I Corinthians 11:23 - 25 Amplified

God's desire is that the body should truly be a whole body. It is not to be an organism with a fixation on one part. Such a fixation on one aspect or part has the same effect in the church as it does in society as a whole. It produces perversions and lowers one's view of himself from what God intended.

What body part represents ministers? I believe it is the penis. The penis functions during the reproductive act as well as being used as a channel to eliminate toxins and waste from the body. Both of these functions are representative of a minister. Paul spoke to Timothy, "And the things you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses, these entrust to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also" (II Timothy 2:2). This is a pattern of reproduction.

The role of the penis in reproduction is to stimulate the woman so that she is ready to receive the seed and then to deliver the seed where it needs to be. In the same way ministers are called to be stimulants in the body, to prepare it to receive from God, and to place the seed where it needs to be. Paul delivered to Timothy the seed and Timothy in turn was instructed to deliver to faithful men who could in their turn do likewise.

The penis is also a channel for waste elimination. If this vital body part did not function in this capacity the body would soon find itself full of toxins and vital body processes would quickly shut down. In the same way ministers are called to channel toxins away from the body. Paul again commanded Timothy to "reprove, rebuke, exhort." These are functions that serve to remove that which is harmful to the body.

A further analogy between ministers and this body part is the way it is viewed. Paul described his apostleship in I Corinthians 4:10, 13 as follows:

We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are prudent in Christ; we are weak, but you are strong; you are distinguished, but we are without honor . . . we have become as the scum of the world, the dregs of all things, even until now.

Paul is describing a minister's life as one without honor, a life of shame before mankind. In the same way we hide away our private parts due to shame of our nakedness. We will proudly display our face, our arms, hands, legs, feet, etc., but our private parts are to remain private. It would be shameful for us to expose this part of ourselves in an unseemly manner.

You may be thinking, "Wait a minute. Ministers are exposed today. They are the most exposed parts of the body." This is true and it should be to our shame. This body part that is not to be exposed and flashed around is the most openly flaunted part of the church body today.

To really understand the error of this we must cast off what we have been indoctrinated to believe about ministers and look to God's word for the truth about their calling. Jesus never flaunted Himself or sought to draw attention to Himself in an unseemly way. On the contrary, we read repeatedly of how He fled from the crowds, how He commanded people to keep quiet about what He had done for them. When his family and followers chastised Him for His reclusiveness and told Him it was no way to create a following, He refused to give in to their notions of how He ought to fulfill His calling. Jesus demonstrated that the greatest minister is the foot-washer. Ministry is a humble and low calling. Jesus said;

The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those who have authority over them are called "Benefactors." But not so with you, but let him who is the greatest among you become as the youngest, and the leader as the servant.

To help us grasp this we must understand that "the body" is the focus of what God is bringing forth. He is transforming "the body" into a beautiful bride for His Son. "The body" is the focus; it is the important thing. Ministers are servants of God to prepare the body. Ministers are not God's focus.

Ministers are like the eunuchs of old who were given charge of the king's harem to prepare those chosen of the king to meet him. The king wasn't enthralled with the eunuch; he was intent on the bride that the eunuch was preparing. The king didn't want to see the eunuch paraded around in finery, he wanted to see a beautiful bride adorned and arrayed. The eunuch's position was a background position. He was to stay in the shadows out of sight. The king's only concern for the eunuch was that he do his job well, that he should prepare and bring forth the beauty of those betrothed to the king.

How foreign this is from where we are today. Today the ministers are the important thing. The body is largely hidden and out of sight. It is the ministers whose names appear on the church buildings, church signs, church stationery, etc. The ministers have their own ministries that bear their names. They are enriched by these ministries in reputation and substance. They are eunuchs that have forgotten their calling. Rather than preparing and beautifying a bride from behind the scenes, they have adopted forms and traditions that keep the body perpetually immature (unprepared) and themselves perpetually in the limelight.

To be fair it must be acknowledged that most ministers did not create this situation themselves. The structure was already in place and they just stepped into the forms that existed. However, much of what attracts ministers to positions of ministry is the perversion that it has become. Men like to be in the front. They like to be honored. They like to be treated with deference. They also like the knowledge that they are special servants of the king.

There is no way that present forms within the prevailing religious system can be preserved and the church become what God intends it to be. Ministers must immediately adopt the mindset of John the Baptist, saying "I must decrease that the body might increase." A total upheaval must take place and ministers must assume their rightful positions at the bottom of the heap. They must lay aside their cloak and with towel in hand begin to wash the feet of all those they are called of God to minister unto.

Like society, the church has focused in on one body part and one body function. All the rest lies dormant and immature. Even as the penis is only exposed when necessity demands it, the minister must cover himself and not expose himself unduly. Even as the physical body cannot sustain a constant erection of this one member, the minister is not called to always be standing erect before the congregation; he must bend to serve. When the penis is erect it is the focus of the whole body. Likewise, our church bodies today are remaining focused constantly on this one part.

Our perversions within the church can be seen in some subtle and some not so subtle ways. It has been postulated that the church steeple is a phallic symbol. It would seem appropriate that this be true since most of the preoccupation with the single part of the body of Christ mentioned occurs within the building upon which the steeple sits. Also the competition among churches and the pride of each local congregation is often focused upon the building, the steeple, the parishioners, the offering, etc. The situation is similar to young boys in a school locker room boasting about which one has the biggest male member. Churches get caught up in this same foolish competition to gain bragging rights as having the biggest church with the highest steeple, having the best programs or doctrine, having the largest offering or contribution to missions boards and denominational associations, having the best educated minister with the most degrees and awards after his name, or having some other distinction that excels all others with which they are in competition.

This phallic preoccupation has caused whole industries to arise out of the church similar to that seen in our society. Instead of clothing and cosmetics, we have buildings and steeples. This is what the local church adorns itself with. To appear alluring to the community it modifies its behavior to offer something for everyone. It has programs for every conceivable category of people. It even uses the same methods as the world to attract suitors. The media is employed, the lawn is manicured, the education of the ministers is referred to, the exterior of the buildings and fixtures is polished, the church's uniqueness is advertised, its prosperity is published abroad. In all ways possible, by whatever allure, people are enticed into its embrace.

What do they get when they arrive? The supposed person courted, the Monica Lewinsky, gets to come face to penis with the phallic symbol that the church has erected. The minister in all of his glory is uncovered and displayed before the people. The people are stimulated, or rather titillated, and are satisfied until their next weekly encounter. Paul told Timothy that a time would come when men would not endure sound doctrine, but would gather to themselves teachers who would tickle their ears. It is titillation that the congregation wants and it is what the minister gives to them.

Through all this, week after week, the people come back and they are no closer to being readied for that great encounter with Christ than they were the week before. They are not being readied. They are being entertained. They are being stimulated. The minister exposes himself week after week to no avail for no true fruit comes forth. He is like Onan of Genesis 38 who intentionally spilled his seed on the ground so that he would not produce offspring that was not his.

Many ministers realize that the traditional church structure, of which he is the predominant member, does not produce the fruit that the Lord desires. The fixation with one member, his member, causes the rest of the body to fail to be developed and come to maturity. It is stimulating, however, to be in such a position and to have the whole body fixated upon oneself. For this reason, many ministers are loath to alter this arrangement. They keep the church immature and dependent upon them, thereby insuring their continued prominence.

In Ephesians 4:11-13 we read of the true purpose of the minister's calling.

And He gave some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of service, to the building up of the body of Christ; until we all attain to . . . a mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ.

In this we can deduce that ministers are only needed as long as the body is immature. When the body reaches maturity, ministers will become unnecessary. This is reason enough for many ministers to not work very hard to bring forth this maturity. They like their positions of pre-eminence and therefore are satisfied that the body remain immature and in need of their ministry. Therefore, the single-minded focus upon one member of the body, this phallic preoccupation, is perpetuated.

Even if a minister realizes that the structure he is a part of fosters immaturity and he has a desire to bring maturity to the body, he is hobbled by the structure itself. How does the minister de-emphasize his own calling? How does he remove himself from the limelight and promote the arousal from dormancy of the rest of the body? It is an extremely difficult thing to do. The body is accustomed to receiving its weekly stimulation and it does not know how to function as it ought to. The body has grown comfortable with being titillated and its own muscles are weak from long disuse. Radical means are needed to bring this sick, perverted creature "to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ."

Churches that try to encourage body participation within their traditional settings soon find that it is hard to get spontaneous signs of life to appear. The church has not been worshipping Christ so much as it has been worshipping between the legs of the church body itself. In Monica Lewinsky fashion, the church has stooped on bended knee to embrace the organ in front of it in hopes of receiving a spiritual benediction from the one who is the recipient of this perverse love-making. The church as a whole has very little real relationship with Christ. They are used to having everything delivered to them from God's ministers. Their emotional happiness is dependent upon the amount of favor shown them by God's ministers.

It is these very same ministers, if they be true, who must right this perversion, as pleasurable as it may be to them. Even as we would not use gradual means to right such a moral wrong in the natural, physical world, we must not seek gradual means to righting this spiritual perversion. The remedy must come suddenly. If we are to metamorphose from a body with a fixation on one part to a body that is in balance, with no ascendancy by any part other than the Head, which is Christ, it has to be done by abrupt and sudden measures. Anything less will insure some sort of quasi-perversion that falls short of the goal.

It is for this reason that the ekklesia, the called out ones, are being called out from the Christian Religious System today. Radical measures are needed. The bondage to old patterns must be broken completely. A mature body must learn how to have relationship with Christ now that she might be prepared for relationship later when the wedding feast is set.

Discipleship is a much better model for the body than churchianity. Discipleship is only for a season. There comes a time when the disciple must come to maturity and be released to make disciples himself. There is no perpetual discipleship among men. Discipleship requires responsibility and action on the part of the disciple. It requires modeling maturity on behalf of the discipler. Yet, there are many in the church who do not want responsibility. What should be done with them? There will always be plenty of ministers who enjoy the dependency of the eternally immature. Leave these irresponsible ones to them.

In closing, I would forward the hypothesis that what we are seeing in our society is merely a reflection of what has been going on in the church for years. The church is the trendsetter. If society is impacted by revival in the church, error and perverse fixations in the church must also impact it. Yes, William Jefferson Clinton and Monica Lewinsky are in error, but their behavior is modeled weekly in the traditional church. To effect true revival in our society, let us precede it with true repentance in the church lest we be like the nation of Israel pointing the finger at Benjamin. Israel was decimated due to their lack of discerning the sin in their own camp. Let us pray that the body of Christ will not suffer the same fate.

Epilogue

A couple of years ago, when I had been functioning as an ordained elder and pastor for a mere 9 months, I had already had to deal with the misplaced affections of women on multiple occasions. One lady left the church after being confronted by my wife and some other godly ladies with the question of whether she was attracted to me. I was totally oblivious to the situation, but it was confirmed by her words toward me, and her response whenever I would enter a room, that such feelings were present. Her response to the question posed to her by my wife and the wives of fellow ministers was also confirmation. Rather than deal with the issue and experience deliverance, she chose avoidance and left.

Another instance occurred on the very day of my ordination. One woman in the body came up to me and told me how pleased she was that I was her pastor. She basically told me that God used me to meet her needs, a comment that I shrank back from. Subsequently this same woman mentioned to me more than once that she had told her son I was an example of a godly man and she wanted her son to emulate my character and to follow my example. Such words are flattering (flattery being a negative thing that feeds the flesh) and they reveal a problem of relationship.

Also within my first 9 months of ministry, another troubling event occurred. The ministry team was asked to come up front and pray for any that came up to them. After I prayed for a few people, I went to pray for a particular lady who has been undergoing certain trials and God revealed that my being drawn to pray for this woman was an immoral action. This was a woman whom I sincerely admired for her godly character and who I would have a difficult time envisioning as being enticed or involved in any immoral relationship.

This woman, however, had repeatedly made flattering statements about me and in this instance I must say I had enjoyed the flattery. What God revealed to me was that even if the relationship never manifested as an immoral physical relationship, it had already become immoral in an emotional sense. This woman, besides being joined to a husband, was a part of the bride of Christ. She was being prepared for Jesus and it was immoral and sinful for me as a minister to receive the affection or praise that should be reserved for Christ alone. Since God's name is Jealous, these are certainly dangerous grounds to be treading on and I thank God for His early revelation of the pitfalls of our current system.

Since all of these encounters had transpired in a body as small as ours (under 100 members) and I had only been a minister for 9 months, it boggles the mind to consider how this is being played out on a larger scale in the mass of Christendom. How common it is to hear of a minister that runs off with a member of the congregation or who has illicit affairs with multiple women from the local church body. I have to consider that it is our structure itself that feeds this. Ministers are raised up on a pedestal as being a special class of Christian and are admired by the common laity. How easy it is for a member of the congregation to let admiration evolve into affection, and how easy it is for the minister to let the emotional fulfillment that comes of peoples' admiration evolve into immoral physical relationship. Even if it never goes this far, the emotional dependency is immoral in itself.

When the minister stands before the people week after week as some sort of super saint and the body experiences the lowliness of being relegated to the sub-category of laity, the environment is ripe for detrimental symbiotic relationships to form. It is my thought that if the body truly understood the high calling to which they are called, if they comprehended that intimate relationship with Christ is their portion, they would not be so easily enticed by the inferior relationships afforded by ministers.

It seems more and more evident to me that there was specific purpose for those who were given charge over the king's harem to be eunuchs. It is for our example. Christ said,

For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother's womb; and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men; and there are also eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. Matthew 19:12

It is this latter category to which ministers are called. We are to make ourselves eunuchs in regard to the bride of Christ. The bride does not need virile males to attend to it. The bride is not to be attracted to the ministers, they are to be reserved for the Bridegroom. Likewise the ministers are not to be attracted to the bride or to receive the affections that are to be given only to Christ.

It must be mentioned that men are as apt to misdirect their affections upon ministers as women are. It may be manifested in other means than words of praise and affection, but the tendency is there. How few men there are who don't seek some acknowledgment or recognition from a minister. How many love the minister to mention them from the pulpit or for their name to come up in conversation along with the minister's? How many secretly enjoy the minister asking their advice or even giving them an opportunity to be of personal service to them? How many long to be a part of the inner circle or to be chosen for a part on some special committee? This is all misdirected affinity, affinity which should be reserved for Christ.

Such actions among men are perilous for the minister. How hard it is to resist prideful thoughts and to walk in humility when all around are clamoring to touch the hem of one's garment. The structure must be radically abandoned. Death will be the only result of prolonging it. The bride must come forth with eyes only for Jesus Christ.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Pilot of My Life

Sharon Marks

March 24, 2000

Father showed me a sail boat (very large). The sails were torn and battered, the rudder and compass broken. The only means to propel the boat was 2 oars. He then showed me many, many people out in the sea, a far distance away. Their only hope was this broken down sail boat.

I began to repair the sails and the mast. I put in a new compass and repaired the rudder. I looked at the boat and it looked like new. I climbed in and made ready to set sail and Father stopped me.

He spoke and said "You have done well for as far as you have gone, but are you fully prepared for what lies ahead once you head out?"

I thought a moment and said, "Father, what have I forgotten?" He pointed to the sails and said, "ASK Me for a fresh wind to give You haste in Your journey."

He pointed to the compass. "Keep your eyes on Me, do not rely on things that you can read falsely or can misinform you."

He pointed to the rudder and said "Whose hand rests upon that rudder? Yours--or the Father's??!?"

Then He pointed to the ship's wheel. "Who will steer this ship in rough seas? Who is in control of the ship of your life? You or I? Will you rely on My wind to fill your sails or are those oars there because your faith isn't as it should be in me?

"When navigating through the sea to find the lost and bring them in, are you skilled enough in Me and the way you should go, not to make them casualties instead? I have supplied you with all you need and you have done well as far as you have gone.

"Now trust in me to lead you, to guide you, to steer you through all the seas and storms ahead. Take away all the crutches of the world--SET SAIL!--My hand is on the wheel, My Spirit brings the wind to Your sails, and My father's hand rest upon the rudder.

"I have never left you. I will never leave nor forsake you. You have been prepared for this time; keep your heart and eyes steadfast on me My child. Get ready !! For soon I will send My Wind. When I call You to 'come forth in Me' will you? WILL you?!?"

"How strong IS your faith? Can I bend you? -how far? Will you stop Me when it begins to hurt or will you trust Me to mend what needs mending and bend what needs bending? Remember child--I will not give you what you cannot handle.

Do not go before Me but do not stay when I call. Obey My every command and you WILL prosper in what I have ordained for you and sent you to do.

Do you HEAR it? Can you FEEL it? My WIND comes!"

Sharon Marks jcjob2310@yahoo.com

The Plans Of Men Vs The Plans Of God

Bill Hernandez

January 17, 2000

I saw a vision of 4 animals as the Lord spoke to me - a lion, a mother bear, a mother eagle and a dog. He showed me that He was coming like a lion with teeth like swords to shred and mutilate the plans of men. I saw this very decisively executed. I then saw a ferocious mother bear charging to protect her cubs and that the Lord was coming like that bear. He was coming like an eagle with sharp talons to protect her young and to cover them with her wings. I then saw a picture of the dog tenaciously tearing and shaking in its head paper. There were chunks of wet paper all over the ground and teeth marks in the paper. The dog is faithful to tear to absolute ruin the plans. This tearing up of men's plans would be complete and without let up. I then saw a piece of paper with the word PLAN on it. I then saw the Lord walk over to it and X out the word PLAN and He said, "This is not My plan."

I then asked the Lord what it was that would please Him, or what was it then that He wanted us to do. I could see a "No" to various plans, but where was the "Yes" to what He wants? What would please Him and what would He bless? I got no answer except the continued strong feeling that He was going to tear apart the plans that we have devised and that it was going to happen in an absolute way.

While pondering this vision, I recalled that in 1998 our church was making a 5 year plan. We spent a lot of time on it and then the Lord showed me a vision. I saw Him walk up to those plans and rip them in half. After that I saw Him write on a piece of paper 3 questions which would unfold His plan. They are as follows:

What does it mean to be led by My Spirit?

What does it mean to walk in My power?

What does it mean to be emboldened by My Spirit?

"Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit...."

"Unless the Lord builds the house, they labor in vain who build it..."

Bill Hernandez

billh@pacbell.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Power Of Curses

Bill Burns

March 21, 2000 It seems that the body of Christ has come under an intense attack from demonic powers. In fact, we have been warned by the prophetic words of late of these impending attacks.

This morning the Lord began to prompt me to address this situation so His people will be fully equipped to have victory over the enemy. Confirmation came when I looked at my calendar and found that Purim began today.

Purim is a Jewish holiday observed in commemoration of the deliverance of the Jews by Esther and Mordecai from a massacre plotted by Haman. This story is found in the book of Esther. It seems as though wicked Haman was able to get King Ahasuerus to sign an irrevocable decree that would legalize the extermination of the Jews. Queen Esther exposed Haman's wickedness, but the decree could not be changed or made void. However, King Ahasuerus issued another decree which legally allowed the Jews to protect themselves and to destroy those who would assault them. (Esther 8:11)

This Old Testament narrative gives us insight into the spiritual war that rages against God's people today. Because Satan is the ruler of this present age (Ephesians 6:11) the world systems (John 12:31), he has written a decree of destruction against God's people.

Because of this decree of destruction, the Apostle Peter warns us in 1 Peter 5:8, "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour."

The good news is that even though Satan comes to devour us, the Lord Jesus Christ has also issued a decree which is found in Luke 10:19 "Behold, I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you."

Authority must be exercised by faith if the victory is to be attained. Authority is not exercised by a passive faith. Again, the Apostle Peter gives wisdom in 1 Peter 5:9 "Resist him, steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same sufferings are experienced by your brotherhood in the world."

The resistance Peter is referring to here is not passive; it is active, aggressive resistance charged with faith and persistence (steadfastness).

We are attacked by demonic forces with which we must wrestle (Ephesians 6:10-17). Wrestling is hand to hand combat; the enemy touches you and you touch him. The object is to disable him so that you are able to put your foot on his neck (Romans 16:20).

In Hosea 4:6 the Lord said, "My people are destroyed for a lack of knowledge." I believe that there is a lack of knowledge in the Christian community regarding how to deal with and break curses. Many people suffer afflictions because they don't exercise their God-given authority over curses. The church is being cursed by witches, Satanists, and even so-called Christians who are bitter and angry and hold other Christians in the bondage of unforgiveness. A curse is an unholy thought which may then be spoken forth against someone. This becomes a decree that Satan uses to afflict God's people. This works like an unholy prayer of agreement, which sends demons against you.

It would take a book to scripturally substantiate and expound this subject of curses, but I have neither the time nor the space to do that, so I will just give you a bottom line here.

When affliction comes suddenly as weariness, heaviness, sickness, depression, or pain in your body, and there is nothing to relate this to, you could be cursed by the enemy.

This is the process of breaking curses: 1. You must first forgive anyone that may be cursing you and then bless those who curse you by praying for God's mercy, forgiveness, justice and deliverance.

2. Verbally break the curse against you using the name of Jesus. The promise of victory is given in Isaiah 54:17, "No weapon formed against you shall prosper, And every tongue which rises against you in judgment You shall condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, And their righteousness is from Me," Says the LORD."

Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and so we see that the tongue that rises up against you (words spoken) you shall verbally condemn or speak against. This proclamation can be as simple as a statement like this: Satan, I break this curse that you are using against me in Jesus' mighty name, and I command the demons of death, destruction and infirmity to loose me. This must be done in faith.

3. Then, ask for healing to come to your body in the name of Jesus. If you need help, get others to pray with you.

I have personally witnessed amazing results from this kind of spiritual warfare and have seen many people immediately set free and healed as a result of breaking curses of affliction.

Brethren, it is the spring of the year when the kings go out to war. 2 Samuel chapter 11 gives us the account of David's sin with Bathsheba. If David had gone to war against the kings of Ammon, he would not have become prey to the kings (rulers of darkness) in heavenly places, the spirit world. But, David chose to stay home and not to fight. The kings of Satan's kingdom are now attacking the church. The church must now rise up in it's God-given authority and bind these demonic attacks.

Psalms 149:5-9, "Let the saints be joyful in glory; let them sing aloud on their beds. Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand. To execute vengeance on the nations, and punishments on the peoples; to bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron; to execute on them the written judgment; this honor have all His saints. Praise the LORD!"

The kings and nobles spoken of in verse 8 represent Satan's rulers of darkness who send demon spirits to work against you through curses of people in verse 7.

Victory belongs to the saints, but the victory must be taken. Verse 9 tells us that the judgment against demon powers has already been written.

Revelation 12:10-11, "Then I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren, who accused them before our God day and night, has been cast down. And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death."

It is written that we are to overcome him, have victory over Satan, by the blood of Christ and by the spoken word of our testimony--warfare by binding and loosing. If you are skeptical of that which I have spoken, there is an easy way to test what I have said...try it! You will be astounded at the results. God has cast Satan down, but so must we.

If we will do our part in faith, then the victory is assured for HE always causes us to triumph in Christ. Amen!

Prophetic Utterance through Bill Burns:

March 19, 2000:

And the Lord says, do you think that you have seen mighty works? I say, you have not seen anything yet, for these are the days of the rebuilding of the tabernacle of David, and it shall be so that by the power of My Spirit, I will come like a flood upon My people, and they will raise up their banners and march under the anointing and purposes that I shall loose within them. There shall come forth from the company of those who walk after the order of David a mighty, glorious outpouring of victory that will cause the world itself to look and say, "Who are these people?" You will say, "We are the children of the Most High! We are those who follow the Lamb. We are those who ride on white horses with the Lord Jesus Christ out of whose mouth comes a sharp two-edged sword to smite the nations and release the judgment that must come forth into this world. This honor have all the saints." Amen.

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

March 20, 2000:

I have gone before you to make the crooked places straight, to make a highway in the desert, and I say to you that the way is opening up for you to fulfill My purposes where I have placed you. For, I have called you, planted you, and prepared you for such a time as this. Know this, however, that the enemy will do his utmost to distract you with petty issues of life in an effort to render you completely ineffective and neutralize your efforts in the kingdom. Refuse to get distracted by your own personal desires and need for approval, affection, and recognition. Your eye must become single if I am to accomplish through you what I have set before you. Your heart cannot be divided to include selfish interests. And, I say, fear not. There is no need to fear any attack from the enemy, for I am with you to strengthen and establish you, and I will not allow My plans to fail. Romans 8:31 "What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?"

March 21, 2000:

I had a short vision of a man walking on the top of a fence. He was beginning to lose his balance and was about to fall. And the Lord says, some of you have had opportunities to become offended. You have put up your fence as a safety barrier. You are still trying to have relationship with those on the other side of your offense without taking this barrier down. In so doing, you have engaged in a dangerous balancing act that has brought you into compromising your spiritual integrity. And the Lord says, if I have brought separation between you and another, why do you still try to maintain unity? But, if I have not brought this separation, why do you continue in division, strife and contention? You must discern My purposes, but you cannot function in spiritual discernment when you are operating in the flesh. Have I not said, walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh? Rise up then, out of carnality and leave your indignation behind, for I cannot accomplish My purposes in you and through you while you are in this compromised position.

March 22, 2000:

The enemy has come to put a spiritual sack over your head so that you cannot see clearly or discern correctly. He has sent confusion into your camp and tried to blind your eyes to the reality of his work against you. He has brought deception so that even when you discern the truth of a situation, he will cast a shadow of doubt over your mind like a net, and will mock you, scorn you and cause you to look like a fool. I say to you, arise and shake yourself awake. Rise up against this attack and let My mind be in you, for I will bring clarity and re-establish purpose. Quiet your soul and come into My rest. March 24, 2000: Have I not come to open blind eyes, to bring out prisoners from the prison, those who sit in darkness from the prison house.? My desire is to open your eyes so that your spiritual vision becomes clear. I want you to catch a vision of My plans and purposes for your life. But, as long as you can only see your problems and the limitations in your circumstances, you do sit in darkness. I say to you, lift up your eyes; lift your vision higher. Where there is no vision the people perish. Where there is no vision, you will be restrained and prevented from moving ahead. I say to you, rise up and cast off the garments of a blind beggar and come that I might give you sight. Rise up out of the darkness, despair and depravity of your own prison and limitations that result from lack of vision. You cannot build without a plan, and you cannot plan without a vision, and you cannot see without faith.

March 25, 2000:

Watch and be amazed as I place you, My people, in positions of greater effectiveness in My kingdom. Many of you have wondered where you belong. I say to you, now is the time that I am bringing clarity to your purpose and placement. Many of you have known your calling and placement, but it has seemed impotent. That is because you have been in a time of preparation and training, the importance of which you have not recognized. The earth yields crops by itself: first the blade, then the head, after that the full grain in the head. You have desired the full grain, without acknowledging that the blade must come first. Have I not also spoken to you not to despise the days of small beginnings? For, I declare to you that I will bring you to completion and maturity in due season, but not without process.

FAITH TABERNACLE

111 North Fourth Street

P. O. Box 1148

Kremmling, CO 80459

<http://ft111.com>

ft111@uswest.net

Send us your full name and e-mail address to receive our prophetic bulletin.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Potency of Prophecy

Jane Clark

The Power of Prophecy

Those with power and authority are often impotent when it comes to reaching the heart!; the prophetic word, on the other hand can reach places in hearts that power can't, even hearts that are darkened by lies. There is even no need for the prophetic word to be spoken by someone who has so called human authorization; words from God are blown by the winds of the Spirit, and the seeds come to rest in hearts and bear fruit long after the messenger is forgotten. If the messenger thinks himself anyone, he is quickly disqualified from bearing the Living Word. We decrease and He increases! and He alone is responsible for the increase!

The Potency of Prophecy

This living seed has a life of its own; and we who receive one are impregnated... become pregnant; and will bear the fruit of it sooner or later. No need to do anything about it apart from seeking to live a Godly life so the seed is not choked. A good sign is that we forget the bearer of the seed, i.e., the prophet, and are concentrated on the Giver.

Personal Prophetic Seeds

can be of varying types; seed to plant vision; seed to give general direction, or to correct or to encourage and confirm; all designed to keep us on "The Way". When I get a prophecy I test and value it according to scripture, according to the Spirit's witness in me, and, if it is more than a general word of encouragement, according to who gave it. It is better if important prophecies come from within your church, through a trusted prophet. I am also aware that there is danger in coming into agreement with a seemingly wonderful prophecy, and subconsciously letting it lead my life. This specially refers to direction about future marriage partners and changes of location or job. God tells you first hand!!!! Test all things is my motto!!!!

The Purpose of the Prophetic

I write the ones that really quicken me down in a notebook and leave them there for a while, and then from time to time bring the notebook out and see if the words are still quickened to me when I read them. Then they go in my journeying prophecies book as signposts to help keep me in the way, and I look up the book when I feel disoriented or restless, or tempted. A bit like one would consult a map. But I DO NOT live by them, they are only signposts, not horoscopes! I have had directional prophecies but these have been far and few between , and then only as confirmation. Often prophecies can be interpreted through the scriptures! Prophecies vary in importance and function, and I often give them marks out of 10 for relevance to my life, to help me weigh them.

Personal Examples

1) Vision/encouragement prophecy; I was at a good prophetic school; a word came from the platform asking for anyone born in 1942 to stand up; I was the only one. I was given a number. "your number is 1"; this is your year of jubilee. I look up 1 and it is to do with unity; of the body, of the bride of Christ; there are scriptures. This fits with my hearts wish, so really helps my vision. Jubilee, in the scriptures means restoration of all that has been lost; this equates with the healing and relationship restoration that is going on in me and encourages me to go for it, and ask God for more restoration to His image, more "He restores my soul" Ps 23. .. the next example is pure encouragement 2) A reliable friend has a prophetic dream; sees us driving up a mountain, leaving presents behind in the lay-bys. She comes up the mountain after us, and does not stop to open the presents in the laybys, she is keen to get on. Up the mountain means we are seeking God, and God is giving us gifts of wisdom and direction etc for those on the same road; ONLY those on the same road. This encourages us that we are on the right way and we should just keep on! (2 Cor 12:14 For the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. )

Jane Clark
jane.clark5290@virgin.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Pope and Purim

Ephraim Frank

Dear Messianic Israelite,

This past week, as we celebrated, the “Feast of Esther” or “Purim”, a historic event took place. The world watched and listened intently, as the head of the Catholic Church, Pope John Paul II came to Israel and Jerusalem. Many are inquiring about the spiritual significance of the visit and its timing, coinciding, as it did, with Purim. The story of Esther, Mordecai the Jew, and Haman the Agagite is read in schools and synagogues in Israel, as well as abroad, in growing communities of believers who are returning to their roots. There are varied thoughts and opinions as to the story’s relevance for today. Its primary theme serves as a reminder of the historic role this nation plays in YHVH’s eternal design.

The Pope’s planned (spiritual) pilgrimage to the Holy Land, on this particular Jewish holiday of “Purim” is quite significant, therefore. It was announced that the visit was to be of a religious nature, and not a political one. But of course Purim is the one festival in the course of which everyone can dress up, put on masks and pretend to be whatever one wants to be, as long as true identity is concealed. On this particular day, it is even permitted for a man to dress up in woman’s clothing, in spite of a Torah prohibition. Not that I’m suggesting that the Pope would be attired differently had it been a different time of year, and by the same token, neither is the queen of heaven clothed in anything other than her all-year- round garments! Those, whose eyes are open, can see through the masks, Purim or not. Yes, it was a lovely gesture on the part of the Catholic Church to take the lead in holding out a hand of reconciliation to the Jewish people, despite the fact that with the same breath the Pope offered condolences to the Palestinians for their suffering in these past decades, declaring that they have the rights, under international law, to their homeland. This declaration won him a standing ovation from the crowds at the Islamic Palestinian refugee camp that had already been handed over to the P.A.

The day “His Holiness” met with the Chief Rabbis, as well as with many others of prominence in Judaism, the contrast was quite remarkable. The Pontiff was dressed in white; while the Rabbis were in black. This color difference spoke for itself. But again, adhering to the non-political (although politically correct) nature of the visit, John Paul read (prepared) goodwill texts, calling his listeners the “older brother”. Since this term is rather ambivalent, what exactly did he mean by it? One expert’s interpretation suggests that the official Catholic stand is taken from Romans 9, where the older brother is Esau.

In a mass at the Church of the Annunciation in Nazareth, where everything was being read and said in Arabic or Latin, suddenly a scripture was read in English. The audience, made up of Israeli-Arab Christians heard the following: “He (G-d) has given us a new covenant, and made the first obsolete” (Heb. 8:13). What would this little fill-in mean to a Jew who strongly holds to the scepter of Torah and onto the first covenant? Of all the plethora of New Testament scriptures, why was this particular one chosen? Fortunately, that service was held on a Shabbat, far from the listening ears of those Jews who could have been offended. In between the lines, other little comments were made, such as: “The Jews are a mixture of different peoples”, “the Church is against all forms of racism”. Thus Zionism, which has been officially declared by the U.N. to be a racist organization, was given its final and appropriate epitaph by the “right” religious leader.

Nevertheless, many words and expressions, pleasant and appeasing, were articulated and preformed, to Israel’s officials’ full satisfaction. According to one of our more liberal yet orthodox Government ministers: “When the Pope touched the Western Wall not only did he touch it, but the wall touched him as well”. The Pontiff’s prayer note, that he supposedly was going to put into the cracks between the stones of the Wall, was shown and read by all. It reads as follows: “G-d of our fathers, you chose Abraham and his descendants to bring Your Name to the nations; we are deeply saddened by the behavior of those who in the course of history have caused those children of yours to suffer. And asking your forgiveness we wish to commit ourselves to genuine brotherhood with the People of the Covenant.” But since the "old covenant has been replaced by the new", and the "old is fading away", so must, by necessity, the Covenant People. The Vicar of Christ and Pontiff of the Most Holy Roman Church set out to satisfy every ear that had been listening to him, and had no small amount of success in achieving that goal. This approach of his was particularly noteworthy in comparison to words spewed out by the Muslim Imam in charge of the Arab religious courts, at the trilateral interfaith meeting which was attempted in Jerusalem, and also compared to recent words spoken by the so-called Mufti (head of the Muslim supreme court) of Jerusalem (who was one of the Muslim leaders greeting the Pope on the Temple Mount). John Paul II in the ultimate of all Purim schpills (traditional Purim play), as an expert magician was able to make his cake and eat it too.

A glance back at the Oslo peace accords reveals an interesting fact, which may not be known by many. The Vatican formulated full diplomatic relationship with Israel (something Israel was after for many years) upon the late Prime Minister's Yitzchak Rabin's declaration, that the Bible is not the title deed to the land of Israel. As a matter of fact, a few weeks before his assassination, he reiterated that statement. This de-legitimization of the Abrahamic covenant by Israel's leader rendered Israel "kosher" in the eyes of the Catholic Church, making way for their open support of a Palestinian homeland in the heart of Israel. They now were also prepared to represent the Christian world in a reconciliation act with the Jewish religion and welcome them to the inter-faith dialog with Islam, whom they have been courting for years. In order to make this inter-faith threesome possible, Israel had to compromise its borders to all-Arab-backed United Nations resolutions. Now that the Government of Israel has made it possible, the Church was able to come to terms with a small portion of Palestine, as a refuge place for individual Jews, but no longer a historic entity fulfilling the Word of God, (since the "old has passed away"). Thus, the Catholic Church still reserves for itself (and for Christendom) the place of fulfilling the promises to the Hebrew race. Coincidentally, President Clinton was also, at the same time, on a pilgrimage of his own. He had been talking to south eastern Asian nations about democracy, and to Syria's President (who under that "Purimic" title is actually a full fledged dictator), giving him guaranties of a stronger army and other financial aid, if he would only be willing to sign a 'land for peace' agreement, in which Israel will give up the Golan Heights to him. International law will prevail! The summit supposedly failed, but remember its Purim...

But as we are looking at the festival of Purim, let's continue to view some more interesting parallels to the present. Not unlike today, there were 127 provinces, or states, in the united nations of the Persian Empire, and Jews were said to have been scattered and living in all of them. In addition, a small remnant had returned to the land of Israel (see Ezra and Nehemiah as to what was happening then in the land). However, this story does not begin during the reign of Ahasuerus, but has its beginnings about 1600 years earlier. The Purim story is only one of the many results of the family feud in Yitachak's house. As we recall from the Genesis narrative, Esav had intense hatred for his brother, who took away from him the most coveted position in the family, the "birthright". This resentment, jealousy, hatred and murderous disposition was passed down to the firstborn in the family of Esav. It is therefore not surprising that his firstborn grandson, of his firstborn son Eliphaz, was called Amalek (Gen. 36:10, 12).

When our forefathers came out of Egypt, it was only a matter of weeks in the desert, before the Amalekites came up against this unarmed, untrained, unskilled-in-warfare people, who knew only slavery. The Amalekites, on the other hand, knew only warfare. Centuries later, during the times of Shmu'el the judge-prophet, YHVH had sent him to anoint Sha'ul as king. Shmu'el had very explicit instructions to deliver to the young would-be king, concerning Amalek. In his battle with them he was to do away with each and every one of them, to the last one, including their king, Agag. Even their possessions were to be destroyed. Instead, Shaul had mercy on King Agag, and also took the spoils. His disobedience had disastrous effects on him and on his royal house; he was killed, by an Amalekite, while the monarchy was handed over to David's house (although, this was not the only reason for the change over). But more than that, Israel's Elohim said that He would have war with the Amalekites in every generation, until He would blot them out (see Exodus 17:14,17).

Haman, the chief villain in the Purim story, was an Agagite of the royal family of Amalek. In the Story of Esther, Haman's chief rival is Mordecai, a Benjamite from the family of Kish, Sha'ul's father, whom Haman wanted to kill, along with all the other Jews in the kingdom. Thus, many generations later, the same two families were facing off once more. This time, the descendent of Sha'ul was more sensitive to YHVH's spirit, recognizing that an all-knowing Elohim had determined the turn of events, and that he and his niece were just there "for such a time as this." Mordecai's words to Esther are quite revealing: "If you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place...". YHVH's plan for His kingdom, to be made manifest in the earth, will not fail; His Divine word on this matter is etched in the Torah and the Prophets, and has gone out and will not return to Him void. The political and religious systems of this world will have their counterfeit day, but then their end will come, when the little stone in the book of Daniel will strike the feet of that glorious image of man's best effort. Let us not be fooled by the good of the tree of knowledge of good and evil. It all must go!!! But YHVH's chosen RACE, His Royal Priesthood will prevail.

I would like to encourage you, who are from Zion's race, who have been redeemed and are returning to Zion, with these words from the prophet Yishayahu (Isaiah): "But you, Israel, are My servant, Ya'acov whom I have chosen, the descendants of Avraham My friend. You whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called from its farthest regions, and said to you, 'You are My servant, I have chosen you and have not cast you away: Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your Elohim. I will strengthen you, yes, I will help you, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.' "Behold, all those who were incensed against you shall be ashamed and disgraced; they shall be as nothing, and those who strive with you shall perish. You shall seek them and not find them, those who contended with you. Those who war against you shall be as nothing, as a nonexistent thing. For I, YHVH your Elohim, will hold your right hand, saying to you, 'Fear not, I will help you.' "Fear not, you worm Ya'acov, you men of Israel! I will help you," says YHVH, and your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel. Behold, I will make you into a new threshing sledge with sharp teeth; you shall thresh the mountains and beat them small, and make the hills like chaff. You shall winnow them, the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them; you shall rejoice in YHVH, and glory in the Holy One of Israel. (Isa. 41:8-16).

Shabbat Shalom ve'Shavuah Tov,

Shevet Achim

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Price of Unity

Reuben Seevaratnam

The Deception of False Unity or The Price of Unity

The Deception of the Counterfeit

There can be no counterfeit without the genuine. To every truth in God’s Word, there is it’s counterfeit. By nature, the counterfeit contains some aspect of truth, by which distorted perception, or deception comes.

Counterfeit truth may be truth taken out of context, partial truth, or truth taken to extreme, and most deceptively, the letter of the law minus the Spirit (2 Cor. 3:6).

The fall of man was achieved by the master deceiver, who used the letter of God’s Word to deceive Eve, through her weaknesses and vulnerabilities. The same strategy was attempted against Jesus in the wilderness, with Scripture as a weapon of destruction!

Yes, the devil is a master theologian, who knows the vulnerabilities and weaknesses of man more than man himself, cunningly trying to control and manipulate the elect through the letter minus the Spirit!

Paul, was not deceived by the free advertisement proclaimed by the slave girl:

Acts 16:17-18

17 This girl followed Paul and us, and cried out, saying, "These men are the servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to us the way of salvation."
18 And this she did for many days. But Paul, greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And he came out that very hour. (NKJ)

Words of truth, but from a spirit of divination! Paul discerned the spirit behind the letter.

To protect itself, the church cannot afford to be any less discerning; not suspicious, critical, or judgmental, but discerning, from a broken & contrite spirit, free from unforgiveness, bitterness, and strife.

The Truth of Unity

How can the lost be won to Christ, if the saved are not one with each other ? To date, there has been far more renewal than revival. Yes, revival is happening in pockets, here and there, but with the possible exception of South America and Korea, still remain far behind the impact of the revivals gone by, where cities and nations were impacted,

I believe that to a large extent, revival is limited to the extent of unity within leadership. As John Maxwell says, everything rises and falls on leadership. When there is unity between husband and wife, the family is blessed. When leaders within a church are united, the church will be blessed; when leaders of churches within the city are united, the city will be blessed. The Lord has already commanded a blessing on a particular place: the place of unity (Ps. 133)

2 Chron. 7:14 tells us that the forgiveness and healing of the land, depends on the church, and not the lost!

Until the church repents, God will not hear, forgive, and heal the land.

Hence we see the magnitude of attack against marriages and leadership within and between churches. Like Adam, most refuse to acknowledge sin and take responsibility, instead we look for the closest scapegoat whom we can blame-shift, instead of repenting.

Adam & Eve were not rejected from Eden because they ate the fruit, but because they failed to acknowledge sin, take responsibility, and repent. For the same reason was King Saul rejected, and King David forgiven through his repentance.

Counterfeit Unity

The concept of coming together as the basis of unity, has in many places come to the extreme where churches accept anybody and everybody who call themselves a “brother”, as long as they agree to having the common purpose of revival and unity. This has given rise to combined meetings, combined marches, combined programs and activities, all without paying the price of unity: no compromise!

Sad to say, much of unity today within and between churches, is a unity of compromise; a unity at any price, at any cost, a unity of purpose without:

Eph 4:3 endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. (NKJ)

I Jn 1:6-7

6 If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth.
7 But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin. (NKJ)

There can only be true unity, when those in unity are walking in the light, with nothing hidden, but with exposed, open, honest, and transparent hearts. Hearts cleansed by the blood, through repentance. Without repentance, there can be no unity of Spirit. Without unity of Spirit, two cannot walk together in the light.

2 Cor 6:14-17

14 Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For what fellowship has righteousness with lawlessness? And what communion has light with darkness?
15 And what accord has Christ with Belial? Or what part has a believer with an unbeliever?
16 And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For you are the temple of the living God. As God has said: "I will dwell in them and walk among them. I will be their God, and they shall be My people."
17 Therefore "Come out from among them and be separate, says the Lord. Do not touch what is unclean, and I will receive you." (NKJ)

This passage above has far too long been restricted to the context of marriage. It goes far beyond that! How many churches are full of unbelieving ‘Christians’ ? Did not Christ call many lawless in Matt. 7 & Luke 13; who did many miracles in His name & received His Word ? Isn’t stubbornness equivalent to idolatry in I Sam. 15 ?

We often preach: Mark 10:9 "Therefore what God has joined together, let not man separate."(NKJ)

How many sermons do we hear about :

What God requires separate, let only repentance join together!

Like the crew of Jonah’s ship, many have believed that providing food and shelter to the Jonahs in the church, is the love and unity that God is looking for; failing to realise that as long as Jonah is in our boat, our boat is headed for disaster, and Jonah will never repent. Don’t expect revival, by uniting with the Jonahs!

The Jonahs will never repent, until they are thrown overboard! Beware that our association and fellowship does not confirm and condone their stubbornness and rebellion!

The only difference between the Jonahs and the others, is the willingness to search our hearts, and be open before God and man, acknowledging, taking responsibility and repenting of sin, instead of covering up, blame-shifting, and justifying self.

Love vs. Unity

God loved us while we were yet sinners, yet we received none of the blessings of relationship, until we came to him in repentance and faith! God’s love for the world will not make a scrap of difference, if that love is not received through salvation.

Though the prodigal son was deeply loved by His father, the son would have remained feeding the pigs, if he had not returned to his father, through repentance.

Like the lukewarm church in Rev. 3:20, there is a door between our Lord and many of us, and He is waiting for us, to open it. Many can’t hear, and some others who hear, don’t open the door. May we hear His voice, and open that door.

The Jonahs To Avoid:

Rom 16:17 Now I urge you, brethren, note those who cause divisions and offenses, contrary to the doctrine which you learned, and avoid them. (NKJ)

2 Cor 6:17

Therefore "Come out from among them and be separate, says the Lord. Do not touch what is unclean, and I will receive you." (NKJ)

II Th 3:6 But we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw from every brother who walks disorderly and not according to the tradition which he received from us. (NKJ)

1 Tim 6:3-5

3 If anyone teaches otherwise and does not consent to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which accords with godliness,
4 he is proud, knowing nothing, but is obsessed with disputes and arguments over words, from which come envy, strife, reviling, evil suspicions,
5 useless wranglings of men of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain. From such withdraw yourself. (NKJ)

May we never cease from praying for them, but may we cease from associating with them, lest the yeast destroy the dough, until and unless there are fruits of repentance!

The Deception of False Unity

The church is deceived, when it considers amputating a gangrenous leg as unloving, instead of considering the life of the body.

May we first pray for healing through repentance, but may we not fail to remove yeast that fails to repent, destroying the body while we wait!

The church is deceived, when it fails to remove the yeast, for fear the dough will take offence!

Many are in unholy alliances, for every reason other than unity of spirit. Many unite for business contracts, for social networking, for positional promotions, for reputation by associating with those we think are of ‘high’ status, to conform to the pressure of the ‘majority’, the fear of man instead of the fear of God, and choosing to please man and offend God, rather than please God and offend man.

Prov 16:2 All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes, but the LORD weighs the spirits. (NKJ)

Prov 21:2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes, but the LORD weighs the hearts. (NKJ)

Unity vs. Numbers

The outpouring of the Spirit on the day of Pentecost, was facilitated by only 120 in an upper room. Far less than the thousands who had heard the voice of Christ. From this, the first church was born.

The outpouring of the Spirit upon the Gentiles, was facilitated by only 2 men: Cornelius, and Peter. Because of the generosity and prayers of Cornelius, God ordained a divine appointment with Peter, preceded by a vision, which led to the outpouring of the Spirit upon the Gentiles gathered in a home.

There was no combined city-march, no large scale events, just the coming together of a few united in spirit, bearing fruits of repentance, that facilitated revival.

Before Gideon could take the land, his army had to whittle down to 300, before major impact.

Conclusion:

The price of unity is a broken & contrite spirit, a willingness to expose our heart under the light of the Spirit through repentance. Unity without repentance is a unity of compromise that will only lead to shipwreck, instead of revival.

May we guard our hearts, and judge ourselves, if we are either the Jonahs ourselves, or the crew of the ship, who are preventing the Jonahs from repentance through a unity of compromise.

May we focus more on repentance, the spirit of unity, than on the numbers who come together, and perhaps, something will happen that will facilitate the move that God is waiting to perform.

Matt 11:12 "And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force. (NKJ)

The days of John the Baptist, were the days that repentance was preached, by which the violent took, and still take, the Kingdom by force.

What is gained through compromise, will eventually be lost!

With every blessing,

Reuben Seevaratnam
Living Water Ministries,
Penang, Malaysia

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Power of Compassion

Doug Patterson

June 10, 2000

This is a day of offering a sacrifice of praise to your God. A day of breakthrough, a day of provision belongs to you. Jubilee is in your possession. You need to know that My promises are true. The things that I have declared will happen in your life will surely come to pass as you are obedient and faithful. I ask you to walk in righteousness before me. Lift up prayers of hope, desire and passion for the lost. Seek first My kingdom and allow Me to add these things unto you. I am here to take care of your every need.

Know that I am in this time and season giving you the power of compassion. Move out in grace and humility tempered with an aggressive boldness allowing anger to arise but not sin. Release a righteous anger, an anger that will stand against the evil days that twist and distort My word.

Plant your feet firmly, Oh family of God. It is a covenant time with the power of compassion to let mercy flow from your heart. Forgive when you are falsely accused. Know that I am with you. Stand for My righteousness, My peace and My joy. You are entering into the very promises that I have provided. It is a time to take courage and go forward, not to hold back. Your destiny awaits you; it is in the palm of My hand. Seek Me only and you shall find Me. I am the God of compassion for I have sent My son, My dear one as a ransom for you.

Intercessors For Jesus Ministries
P.O. Box 172
Fergus, Ontario
N1M 1N0

Now He who searches the heart knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God. Romans 8:27

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Power of Innocence

Ron McGatlin

Jesus said, I am sending you out like sheep among wolves. Therefore be as shrewd as snakes and as innocent as doves. Mat 10:16 NIV

In this first century of the new millennium the Body of Christ is awakening to the reality of innocence. It seems we may have sought to be as wise as a serpent or shrewd as a snake and missed the Lord's instruction to be innocent, harmless, and pure.

Pastor Steve Gray of the Smithton Outpouring / World Revival Church said something that touched me deeply. He said, "Jesus is more real to me today than ever. As He has come nearer and nearer and I have had an even better glimpse of Him. I have been shocked — not by His fire and power but by His innocence — a pure and innocent lamb that has never sinned — completely pure and innocent."

At the core of our Lord's matchless glory, His fire, and His power, is His heart of innocence -- completely and totally pure -- not even a hint of uncleanness nor a speck of disobedience to the Father. He is the completely blameless and harmless innocent lamb of God. In this time of outpouring, as the His presence is more known to us and we become more intimate with Him, we are glimpsing more of His true character.

Heb 7:26 NIV: Such a high priest meets our need--one who is holy, blameless, pure, set apart from sinners, exalted above the heavens.

We are only beginning to grasp an understanding of the relationship between utter innocence and unlimited power.

The very center of His matchless glory, power, and authority is His absolute perfect innocence and purity. As only a perfect gem without inner impurity or flaw can perfectly flow the pure undistorted light, only perfect absolute innocence can flow the pure light and power of God. Any impurity or flaw will produce distortion and become harmful when the light and power of God is increased.

We desire to be like Him to be in the presence of His glory and to flow His unlimited wisdom and power bringing healing, restoration, renewal, reformation and revival to the world. But we cannot be like Him and cannot do these things because we are not innocent like him. Our self focused preaching and lukewarm lifestyles mixed with cares of this life and desire for things of the world are not innocent like him. Our zealousness to protect and defend our very small and narrow view of the very limited doctrines and religious forms we cherish with great grandeur, causes us to become harmful and not innocent. Doctrinal wars and debate over form do not flow from a heart of utter innocence. Striving against brothers, back biting and gossip are not from a heart of innocence and are not harmless and pure. Even our best is not really innocent like Him.

Phil 2:14-15 NIV: Do everything without complaining or arguing, so that you may become blameless and pure, children of God without fault in a crooked and depraved generation, in which you shine like stars in the universe.

While church people debate and actually get into fist fights in the church over whether to use hymn books or an overhead projector, and while churches split over selecting the color of the new carpet and other such foolish strife, the world waits for the reality of God to show forth through the pure and innocent heart of Christ.

While political church leadership attempts to cover its impurities and defend itself and friends and accuses or attacks others to protect a position of power over people, the prisoners of the pew starve and die for lack of real food and water from God. They are given only fake food. That plastic stuff that looks so real in the restaurant window but has no nutritional value and cannot really be eaten.

As we experience His innocence, our pride and self strength melts and our hearts are broken by the impurity and defilement of our lives contaminated by self living and religious training. His glorious presence comes down as we give ourselves to Him is corporate praise and the deep adoration of worship and focused prayer. Entering intimacy of His presence begins to reveal His innocence and our hearts are broken by the depth of his purity and innocence. Our lives are exposed to us as we feel like we have walked into the perfect palace of purity in our dirty work clothes. We begin to understand the parable of the guest entering the wedding feast without a proper wedding garment.

Our hearts weep and tears flow as we see the innocence of our husband and recognize the uncleanness and unfitness of our lives to become the Bride and enter into further intimacy with the innocence of God Himself. Our bodies crumple to the floor and we cannot even open our eyes as our inner parts convulse with sorrow at our inability to enter into the fullness of intimacy with Him. In this deep repentance we feel great change occurring as things are ripped out of our innermost being leaving gaping holes to be filled with only His love and innocent purity.

Eventually we arise from the floor to lift our hands and hearts to Him in wonderful adoration from renewed hearts. Joy burst into our souls as we realize we are more like Him now than we were moments ago. The process continues as we are becoming the prepared Bride for the innocent Lamb the roaring Lion of God.

We have no pride and will no longer remain in the pew as prisoners of religion. Revolution is inevitable as all tolerance for religions traditions of bondage and foolish man centered doctrines has left us in the glorious reality of the presence of God Himself. There is great love for God and His people, especially those remaining in the bondage of religious political systems. But there is no loyalty to the systems which may have retained a facsimile of the truth but have brought great perversion and distortion to the truth of the pure innocent Christ and His potential Bride.

Power and wisdom are directly and proportionately related to innocence and purity.

We may have read many times Mat 10:16 NIV, I am sending you out like sheep among wolves. Therefore be as shrewd as snakes and as innocent as doves. Or in the KJV, Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. I have always noticed the contrast of being as wise or shrewd as a snake and as innocent or harmless as a dove and never before understood the relationship of these things. Wisdom of God comes to the innocent. The harmless and innocent ones will hear and receive wisdom and revelation to function powerfully (shrewdly) in this perverse world. Only the innocent and harmless can be trusted with the great secrets of power and strategy from God. Only the innocent sheep can have the shrewd wisdom to deal with the wolves of this world and not become contaminated by the ways of the wicked.

The Body of Christ is now beginning to awaken to the potential power of purity. Our innocence will become the source of the power to fuel the great revolution bringing an end to man centered and devil enhanced religious systems of the world. Now is the time to seek Him with our whole heart and to lay down quickly those things He brings to our attention. We must enter collectively in the power of all in unity corporately to experience the glorious presence of God that changes us from glory to glory. We are becoming more like Him and He shall roar out of Zion in the unlimited power of innocence. The world is waiting and groaning for you and me and multitudes of young people to become innocent and harmless that we may be wise and shrewd -- the innocent army of God bringing a revolution of reformation.

Ron McGatlin
basileia@iland.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Presence Of God.

Becky McLendon

I am closer than I have ever been before to my people, says God, for they are a company ever increasing that is looking up to Me rather than the things of this earth... Yes they are allowing the weights that so easily beset them to fall off as chains snap and they leave the "stuff" by the wayside....My people are coming together in a gathering place where they will think speak and seek my face as ONE PEOPLE ...they are beginning to experience My presence in their lives on a more and more frequent basis...Yes they will feel the splendor and weightiness of my glory come down upon them and they will be suspended in eternity for short amounts of time,... gradually they will become accustomed to this walk...the walk of Enoch, where their feet do not walk in the midst of the things of this world, but their feet will walk above them...for the things of this world will be UNDER THEIR FEET just as all things are called unto subjection under the feet of My Son!

Do you feel My breath...???Breathe it in, children...Do you feel My hand upon you like never before when you pray, read My word..? Hold that hand, for that is the hand that leads you to the land of promise.

Do you feel My breath...? Yes I draw nigh to breathe you into Me, for it is that breath that brought man to life in the beginning. Did you not know that as I am a sweet savor in your nostrils, the times you took in the essence of the fragrance of Who I AM, that YOU are a sweet savor unto Me? Yea, because You have danced and praised before Me so shall I rejoice over you with singing in the night...I am excited about you, for this is the Bride promised My Son, and as you look up to Me in your worship, I will change that worship. I will cause you to sing My song...then you will be adorned in your wedding garments pure and spotless before me. It is then that I will instruct the Bridegroom to come and get you...!

Yea I am close...very close to My people...You are in My every heart beat as I am in yours! You are abiding in Me as I in you.. You are the vine and I AM the Branch...My word is coursing through your veins as life blood...yes I say...life blood!!! The Word of Life courses through your veins...There is health in that blood...There is deliverance in that blood...There is salvation in that blood...There is Eternity in that Blood!!! You are abiding in My shadow.. The place of My overshadowing...when I said I come with a shout a voice of the archangel.....I come as an overshadowing to SUDDENLY take you in, take you over...and change you to eternity!!!! I AM has spoken these things long before the foundation of the earth and I AM will bring it to pass! Amen, amen and AMEN.

Rebecca McLendon, September 21, 1998

The Preserved Seed Within

Jim Rinker

The Preserved Seed Within

Over the past few days the Lord has been showing me what has happened to me over the past six months though a walnut. I run at lunch everyday and there are walnut trees everywhere thus at this time of year there are walnuts laying all over the ground. The walnut consists of an outer "fleshy" coat and the "nut" itself within that fleshy coat. When the walnut hangs on the tree they have this light green color. The green signifies LIFE. Once they fall off the tree in a matter of a week they begin to rot. The first thing I noticed about these walnuts is that they look like a disgusting pile of rotting decay. They are black and hardly look like there is anything of value to them.

Back in April the Lord was leading me to the cross. Any misconception about what "dying to self" is should be thrown out the window for I write in RETROSPECT and not PROPHETICALLY. I did have my misconception. Cute phrases like "more of Jesus and less of me". How I was "trying" to die to self". How little I understood the dying process. We can NEVER die to self in our own strength. For this we need DIVINE INTERVENTION. We are truly DEPENDANT on Him for everything even though at the time I had no understanding of what He was doing.

The first part of this process was for the Lord to cut off the spiritual gifts the Lord had given me. I could no longer give any prophetic words for I had no revelation. I could not write any teachings for the Lord gave me nothing to write. The Lord cut off my zeal for the word and I could barely struggle to read even a chapter of the bible when up until that time I would read daily for an hour. I had no "strength" to pray. This was a far cry from the expectation of the great fruit I had expected to see as I was "dying to self". The "love" and "humility" I expected to see as I was "cut off" from the tree were nowhere to be found (I write in retrospect). Quite the opposite would be more the description.

One thing I have learned is that as that walnut, once removed from the tree you are DEAD. You may look alive for a short period of time but in reality there is no life in you apart from abiding in the vine. This truth can only be imparted experientially. We must be lead by the Spirit the cross because we would never choose the cross on our own.

Rotting things really STINK and they really look DISGUSTING. These are the two main characteristics that IN THE NATURAL describe this bunch of walnuts laying all over the ground. Over this summer the Lord led me the the cross. Now that sounds SO SPIRITUAL but at the time it look NOTHING like my EXPECTATION of the cross. I became increasingly SELF CENTERED. I became increasingly SHORT TEMPERED. I would swear REGULARLY and REGULARLY take Jesus precious name in vain in a fit of anger. This does not sound ANYTHING like dying to self. In fact it sounds the OPPOSITE of dying to self. But as with that rotting bunch of walnuts that look disgusting, likewise the flesh is a heap of rotting disgusting filth. My life (and tongue) testified to that fact.

We, like Job, need to have truth imparted to us. This can only come BY EXPERIENCE. Then we will confess as Job did " I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth thee. Wherefore I abhor [myself], and repent in dust and ashes". We have LITTLE knowledge of who we are or what we are APART from God.

I did not appear HOLY or RIGHTEOUS during this period of time. In fact, and as described above, I looked quite the opposite. The MOST VILE of sinners capable of cursing my Lord's name, often without remorse. When Jesus was lead to the cross He was LAID BARE for the whole world to see. He hung high on a hill and experienced the SHAME of the cross taking all our sins upon Himself. Let me say something here, when dying it does not appear HOLY or RIGHTEOUS but rather it is SHAMEFUL and you are laid BARE NAKED for the whole world to see. Your very core nature is EXPOSED. What lies beneath my thin outer shell of "self righteousness? The most vile stink of flesh imaginable, exposed as He lead me to that place of death.

Jesus was BEATEN by those who were to crucify Him. The enemy, whose job it is to manipulate your flesh, will put as much pressure as allowed by the Father on you to break you. You will be beaten and afflicted. A sack will be placed over your head (lack of vision) and you will not know were the next punch is coming from. All of this is to get you to STOP and QUIT. All you have to hang onto is the promise that He will never leave you nor forsake you. It is that BELIEF and TRUST in the Father and who He is that will give us the RESURRECTION POWER.

One last thing about the walnut. Once the FLESH has rotted away there is this SEED. It is PRESERVED inside this hard core. That seed is CHRIST IN YOU. It cannot be made manifest until the flesh rots away. For a time the walnut looks like NOTHING of value but once that season is over the true FRUIT is then exposed.

Many are going through this place of DEATH right now. There is little comfort in were you are. But thank God ALL things work out for good to those who love Him. As God allowed satan to afflict Job likewise the Lord is allowing the enemy to afflict OUR FLESH. But through this all, as with the walnut, the SEED IS PRESERVED. Job, once He experientially saw who he was apart from the Lord and His divine intervention was given a DOUBLE PORTION. The seed is preserved and once that seed germinates it grows and bears fruit. There is RESURRECTION LIFE awaiting those who are willing to go to the cross and be made conformable unto His death. So be encouraged, the Lord will preserve that SEED which has value within you, which is Christ in You. But unless the seed falls into the ground and dies it ABIDES ALONE. It can only bear fruit if it falls off of the tree and dies.

Bob Neumann's "The dredge" (attached) is an excellent vision that goes along with this.

THE DREDGE

July 2, 2000:

This is a strange vision that I still am looking at to learn all THE LORD is trying to reveal. I find myself on a large barge in the middle of a wide river. I am working on the barge with ten or twelve others. All are men, older men. All are dressed in heavy, well worn work clothes. The Barge is slowly running up river. At the stern of the Barge is a large double boom with a powerful winch system and heavy cables. I watch as the winch engages and a large Dredging Sled is pulled out of the water. Once clear of the water it is "muscle" by a crew of the men I saw earlier over the open cargo space of the Barge. Over and over the Dredge is dropped and dragged behind the Barge and lifted up and dumped. It took no major "interpretation" to figure out we were dredging out the RIVER'S CHANNEL.

Each time the Dredge was dropped we had time to rest and look out at the RIVER. It was a beautiful river. As we continued our slow passage up stream many sail boats and powerboats blew by us. Occasionally we passed boats that were anchored and people were fishing. Our passage was marked by nasty comments and gestures provocative. Most of the recreational boaters seemed to have similar negative thoughts about us. At first I was puzzled by the negativity. But after awhile the continuous strain of the labor diverted my thoughts about the behavior I was seeing.

As the Barge Dredged we followed the slow and gentle meanderings of THE RIVER. After a while it was my turn to take a break and I walked to the bow of the Barge. There I could see the turns of THE RIVER. I had sat only a short time when I heard a loud steam whistle behind and above me. I looked up and saw a Pilot House. In the window I saw an arm beckon me to come up. So I went up the ladder and saw a man at the wheel. He was focused on the RIVER ahead of him and I knew it was not his arm that had signaled me. Behind him was a chart table filled with navigational charts. Not being able to read a chart I again looked out at the RIVER. "GIVE ME TWO DEGREES TO PORT", came a familiar VOICE. I looked behind 'us' and saw THE MASTER sitting comfortably in a swivel chair bolted to the deck. With HIS instructions the "helmsman" moved the wheel and the Barge kept moving. I did not notice any change of direction but I did notice we were not directly in the middle of the RIVER. I know that "the channel" like the RIVER itself meanders between the two banks. The thought came to mind....most people would say we were dredging the RIVER. In reality we were "dredging the channel" within the RIVER. Sort of makes sense....but I am not sure what the difference of perception tells me.

We just kept going for awhile and then THE CAPTAIN got up and walked to the window facing the stern of the barge. I went over and stood by HIM. When I got to the window I could look down into the "hold" of the barge where the dredgings were dropped. I was surprised to see people moving through the silt and trash and scattered debris. And I wondered, what are they doing. The next thing I knew I was standing in the hold with the "scavengers". It was very weird. The stench alone was overpowering. What was dragged up by the DREDGE had been accumulating for some time from the channel. The stench of decomposition and simple plain rot was undeniable. I watched as many people were on their hands and knees digging through the muck and the mud, the garbage and the trash people had "dumped into the river". I watched as bits and pieces of "stuff" was dug up and even fought over. I was wondering exactly what was so valuable to these "people". I looked closer and what I saw was nearly as disgusting as the smell. Bits of "cloth", "bones", and old "trash" ....cans, bottles, odds and ends. Pitiful was not the word for it. As each time the Dredge dumped the accumulated silt and garbage of centuries the scavengers raced each other and fought for what I was already labeling as "their treasures".

The IMAGE of my heart being where my TREASURE was suddenly took immediate and intense clarity. Where was I "storing" up my TREASURES?.....or was I digging through the rot and filth....for what. With these "thoughts running though my mind I was back at the BOOM and THE DREDGE as THE LORD'S WORK continued. Once again my attention went to the "pleasure boaters" who shook their fists and yelled curses and accusations as they went by. Now I could hear their complaints clearly. It seems we "were in the way"...."occupied their river"...."was stirring up the silt"...."mucking up the water".... and more. It seemed the water was muddy ahead of us...and behind us. It seemed we were not there to provide clarity. You dredge the channel for navigation....so you can travel without hitting something under the water or going aground. The obvious was that THE MASTER was in charge and was "piloting" the BARGE. HE HAD WORK GOING ON....THERE WAS A PURPOSE. It was then THE RIVER itself caught my attention. Granted as THE RIVER OF LIFE....OF LIVING WATERS this was not what I expected. Suddenly my mind was on a commercial about "pure waters from the mountains" and I thought of fast clear rushing waters....ice cold and pristine. I thought about the hundreds of rivers I had seen, crossed, fished where the width of the river was measured in steps to get across. Then I realized that all those rivers when they finally flowed together you had THE RIVER....broad and long....but only as deep as the channel we were now clearing. As I sat and pondered THE RIVER FLOWED and we kept moving up stream meandering with the waters. After awhile THE MASTER stood alongside me and I looked at HIM. Wearing work clothes and a black wool watchcap.

I suddenly realized it was more than nippy, it was cold. On THE RIVER....in the there and now it was "either" late fall or early winter. Did not make sense, but I "knew" it. So I just watched HIM as HE WATCHED THE RIVER. Eventually HE spoke and asked, "DO YOU UNDERSTAND WHAT YOU ARE SEEING?" I replied that I did not. HIS REPLY WAS..."YOU WILL"..... and suddenly I was in the air...maybe in low orbit. But I could see THE RIVER as a wide line below me. I could not have distinguished the BARGE from all the other dots on THE RIVER even if I knew where to look. Eventually I came down and saw where streams and tributaries joined THE RIVER all along it's length. THE RIVER started and ran straight briefly. As it lengthened and widened it meandered more and more back and forth across the land. The more it meandered, the more land it touched, the more lives were influenced, touched. It was then my focus got centered on smaller areas running parallel to THE RIVER. As my field of vision narrowed I saw a great construction site. Huge numbers of men and machines were moving tons of earth, digging what looked like a canal. It was wide...deep...and dry as a bone. The funny thing is it ran parallel to THE RIVER for 20-30 miles. They must have been working for years I thought. Suddenly I was 50-100 miles farther up stream and there was another company digging. A few men were standing around as a couple bulldozers were working. It was nothing like the scale of the first group, but the results were the same. Over time I saw more and more "ditches" up and down both sides of THE RIVER. Some where just a man or two with shovels and wheelbarrows. Some were huge projects wasting huge amounts of money, manpower and time. FOR NOTHING..... They were not digging to THE RIVER....which would make sense...they all were trying to bypass THE RIVER. And that reality bothers me. A whole lot about it bothers me. Especially because it is TRUE....and I will know all it means in "DUE SEASON".

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Prisoner

Becky McLendon

There once was a prisoner who was confined to a very dark cell. The only light she had came through a tiny window high above the damp floor. The prisoner watched as shadows passed by the window. Life passed and passed, and the prisoner grew resentful. She shook her manacled, clinched fists at the light and cried bitterly, "Why am I still in here?"

You see the prisoner had been pardoned years before, but here she sat, chained and hobbled to a heavy iron ball in the dark in this dark, damp smelly place.

"WHY AM I STILL IN HERE???" she demanded.

"WHERE IS MY JAILER? I WANT TO SEE MY JAILER! I am cold in here... I am wet in here.. I am alone and miserable in here. I DEMAND TO SEE MY JAILER.

I thought I was pardoned and set free."

The prisoner heard footsteps approaching her cell. The door rattled as a white robed figure approached. The prisoner saw through the gray shadows that the figure was the Pardoner, the one who had set her free.

"What is wrong my daughter?" He asked, kindness glowing in His eyes.

"You pardoned me years ago, but my jailer has not set me free," she explained. "See this filthy cell, these chains? Why am I still in here? I want to see my jailer!!!"

"Yes, Daughter, I feel you are now ready to meet your jailer," He replied.

The prisoner was puzzled. "Ready??" she thought. "What does He mean: READY?"

"Yes I am ready," she insisted.

The kind pardoner reached inside the folds of his glowing white robe and pulled out a mirror.

"Look into this glass and see your jailer!"

The prisoner looked and drew in a shocked breath. There, staring back at her was her own reflection.

"How can this be?" she asked incredulously.

"Your unwillingness or inability to BE set free has kept you bound in this place," the Pardoner answered.

"I have always held the key to unlock your shackles and the iron doors to this prison cell. I offered them to you repeatedly, but you refused to take them. Are you ready now to be set free?"

"Yes!!!" the prisoner cried, and she reached out, and took the keys. She noticed a word inscribed on each key. One said PRAISE, another said TRUST, and the third one said OBEY. She rejoiced as the shackles clanked to the floor, the manacles fell from her hands, and the heavy iron door scrape open. She threw the door aside and stepped into the sunshine.

WHOM THE SON SETS FREE IS FREE INDEED!!!! How many years do we waste being locked inside our self imposed prisons, while the Saviour is standing there all along with the KEY to our freedom. Let us realize today that WE are our own jailer and turn our eyes to HIM, our pardoner...and walk to freedom.

Love you all today in Christ's Name

Becky (wayfarer)

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Prophet and the Cave

Steve Snow

I am not sure if many of the readers of this would have this experience but being a prophet or prophetic is not easy and often, at least I, want to bundle up the package and return to sender. That of course is impossible because I have tried. It simply won't go! So, it looks like I am stuck with the gift.

Actually I enjoy the "package" most of the time but it is a hard life to live at times, made harder by a personality that matches the complexity of the gift :).

Often, those trying to console a wounded prophet or simply a prophet having a tantrum (yes I have them frequently!), the concept of go into the cave comes up. I decided to look into this cave concept because it simply doesn't sit with me. The last thing I need is yet more isolation, since I live in an extremely remote location with no roads out, a place with no other prophetic people and a decreasing list of online friends because, yes, they get sick of the wounded prophet, the complaining prophet and the prophet who can not nor will not be consoled. Ever been like that? I have a feeling it is common among those so close to seeing a break-through in their God appointed destiny yet so far because the wait has been just so long.

Here again, try as I might, I cannot quit. I have tried many times but even when I do throw in the towel, some how the towel sticks to my hands so to speak and, at heart, I am still hanging on. I really believe it is God hanging on it my place, more so than me hanging on. He simply will not let me go nor let me let go of my destiny that is from Him. So, like it or not, I have to wait, until the right time and will function as He sees fit at that time. Where is free will? In God, really we do not have free will, yet neither are we slaves to do as we are told like it or lump it. Somehow, we choose yet that choice always ends up being His will, not ours, even if it takes many days or months or even years of torture and agony getting there.

The Cave.

There are 31 scriptures in the Bible that refer to the cave, 30 are Old Testament and 1 in the New. The majority meaning involves such concepts as: a burial place, a place of prison, a place to hide because of fear, and a hiding place (a place to live).

The references to burial are not those you can use as a "die to self" concept but a place where the dead were buried, often those who were killed or judged and then killed. The use of the cave (or cleft in the side of a mountain) as a prison is used once that way and the concept of the cave being a hiding place out of running away in fear used often.

The other concept, the cave symbolizing God as a dwelling place, place of refuge is seen in David as he hid from Saul and recalls that concept in the Psalms. Elijah also saw the cave as a place of refuge from the enemy but Elijah was never meant to stay in the cave. When he was there, God asked him what he was doing there and then told him to get out.

If we view the cave as a place where we dwell in God, and snuggle in close to our Lord to come aside from the stress of life in general, then, yes the prophet needs the odd time in the cave. It is true the prophet needs closeness with God owing to the very stress and tension the gift can and does cause. One minute, you have an intense revelation and within a few minutes, you can feel almost suicidal (no I am not suicidal :)). All the positive reinforcement in the world often does not prevent the wild emotional or spiritual swings a prophet can and does experience. Fellowship with others can help but many prophets are in situations even worse than my own where fellowship is impossible. Fellowship with non-prophets can actually make things worse because the other person has no idea of the pressures, stresses and intense feelings you can be under, at any given time. Much of that is learning to adjust to the mantle you bear, learning to cope with the spiritual atmosphere and the spiritual realm where you dwell, and the very lack of equipment to actually make you tough. You see the prophet needs to be fragile so as to be intimate with God, to hear intently the Spirit of God and those strengths are also weaknesses. Those who give their lives for their sheep are already hardened with a certain toughness to fight the bear, the lion and all else with his or her bear hand if needed. Not the prophet. An eagle without feathers, beaks, claws, and who is high upon the nest, bleeding and awaiting the new growth is totally vulnerable.

Thus God does provide a cave to the prophet, His very presence. Yet what do you do when you already spend time in the Word, time in prayer and things are dead as a tombstone? You have persevered as far as you can (or think you can), you have drawn as close as you can while God seems to play hide and go seek games? What can you do?

Now we move into theory. I am sorry but this prophet is at that point. The obvious answer is that we must trust our way through the walls, through the times of darkness and see to the end, our God. I have a feeling that many other prophets, like me, are poor in the realm of trust, or at least the concept of trust taught in many churches

One pressure we do seem to bear is the success syndrome. God seems to delight in giving tidbits of revelation to His prophets only to then drop the prophet into an apparently deep well of defeat. I am making God sound really macabre and nasty here (He certainly is not that), but the prophet flows at his or her peak when he or she is reliant upon God, totally dependent (in reality not just in confession) upon God and stripped of all independence, yet still independent in many ways.

The cave is the place of trust. Yet it is not the task of you or I to run away to escape into the cave. We must never run away in fear, of man, of situations or of the future, yet we do, at times, need to go and seek God, in a cave-like situation, the prophet alone with his God for no other reason than to seek God.

Men or women will try to put you in a cave to kill you (to bury you). They will try to restrict you by causing that cave to force you to escape that which you need to face. No, you, the prophet must seek out the cave and, like David, dwell there, seeing God as your refuge, God as your strength and deliverer. No David never feared Saul, he actually withdrew to prevent Saul from being killed and thus, David was not to be an instrument of judgment. David withdrew to allow God to bring to full maturity, the judgment and completion of Saul's life and ministry.

So it is with me. The person suggesting the cave was right although maybe not from the right motive. Many prophets may well need some short time in the cave, not to hide, not to fear and certainly not to die but to seek God. There may be no great flashes of revelation that comes out of this time, there may be no great time of revival come forth as a result of the cave experience, but God is drawing aside His prophets for a time, not all of them, but some, not because these are special or to be specially used in the days ahead (we all will see that in our lives) but merely to bind up, to heal, to restore, and to love these, His prophets.

S. J Snow

Prophetic Ministry - Ordained with SHEM Ministries Eagle Watchman Prophetic Resources
<http://www.eaglewatchman.net> Ph (Australia) 0419 821492 Overseas 61 419 821492

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Power and the Glory

Priscilla Van Sutphin

8-15-00

In 1989 I attended the Holiness Conference at the Vineyard Anaheim, then on Cerritos, and Leonard Ravenhill and Rick Joyner were among the speakers....I remember vividly the power of God's conviction falling on the mass of people gathered when Leonard Ravenhill spoke....There I met a man from New Zealand, who was a pastor there, and suddenly the conversation in a waiting line had turned to talking about the glory and Ananias and Sapphira...to which he explained how his church for one full year had prayed for the glory to come down. Then one Sunday it did....and 8 people dropped dead instantly.... just like Ananias and Sapphira ! I'll never forget this man's admonition to be careful what you pray for ! There is a deception we have in taking too lightly God's presence, and His standard of holiness.

Last year at a conference during worship, the Lord told me to get on my face...I was in the back of the church, another friend was on his knees huddled over as the power of the Lord was in our midst...and I remember the Lord saying to me...almost like a quip..." My people know how to sing about my glory,

But they do not know how to dwell in it !"

I sat down to go over scriptures on the Glory ...in preparation for my trip to Belize...something I've been wanting to do for some time. Now was the time. So I'm going through them...and in the old testament in scriptures about the rebellion of Israel...some things stood out, and I felt the Lord about to show me something. There is one that caught my eye....

Numbers 16:48

"And he stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was stayed !"

I began to think about what I had just read...the Holy Spirit prompting me, of course, and I thought about all the prophetic warnings, and hissing and bickering that has gone on...all the accusations against false prophets and true.

Did ANY of God's major prophets give a word of judgement without laying down before the Lord and praying through till the end....? Jeremiah for example lamented and pleaded for the daughter of his people and continued till the end for them. Isaiah...need not be said even....look at all his scriptures.... judgement and hope, judgement and hope, judgement and hope....

But long before these was MOSES...a man called the MOST HUMBLE by God Himself ! Now that is something I would want to be remembered as...however I fall way too short for that...but I see over and over and over, where Moses, and Aaron later,...fell on their faces in the presence of the glory , when judgement has been spoken by God...."Oh no, God....what shall they say,...that you brought us out to slay us?" (paraphrasing) First there is the 40 days up on Mt Moriah before he came down with the stone tablets....fasting and just being with the Lord. And the Lord informs him they have corrupted themselves...and He's going to bring swift judgement....

Exodus 32: 10 NKJV Now therefore, let Me alone, that My wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them. And I will make of you a great nation . "

{ at this point the idea would probably be appealing to most of us today..."yeah God...that sounds like a good plan"...but was God testing the heart of Moses ? Or does He really listen to the prayers of His people? Remember how the sons of thunder wanted to call down fire from heaven ? Remember what Jesus said to them?...You know not which spirit you are of ? } Exodus 32:11) Then Moses pleaded with the Lord his God, and said: “Lord, why does Your wrath burn hot against Your people whom You have brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand?

12)“Why should the Egyptians speak and say, ‘he brought them out to harm them, to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth’? Turn from Your fierce wrath, and relent from this harm to Your people.

13)Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, Your servants, to whom You swore by Your own self, and said to them, “ I will multiply your descendants as the stars of heaven; and all this land that I have spoken of I give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.”

14)SO THE LORD RELENTED FROM THE HARM WHICH HE SAID HE WOULD DO TO HIS PEOPLE.

So then Moses goes down and sees them for himself and HE gets angry and makes them drink the burned up gold....having scattered it on the water. When he found out what happened and that the people were unrestrained...he had given them a chance to choose sides...but 3000 were slain that day, as they chose to stay in rebellion !

Then Moses goes up the mountain hoping to persuade the Lord...again...to forgive their idolatry....Ex 33:32 says...“Yet now if You will forgive their sin – but if not, I pray blot me out of Your book which You have written.”

How many of us are willing to lay down our lives for our brethren?

I’m not asking because I don’t know...I know. I am as weak as any....I would not have had his strength and conviction. I don’t love my brothers and sisters enough as I want to. But Moses was a HUMBLE man...He put the good of others before himself . Moses goes back down and has amazing grace with the Lord and experience with Him...then goes up again for another 40 days...Ex. 35:28 says So he was there with the Lord forty days and forty nights; he neither ate bread nor drank water, and He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments.

Many of God’s people have been praying and fasting...I’ve never seen so many doing 40 day fasts....to plead with the Lord for this nation....So does God hear ? Does God relent from some of His wrath ? Do not the scriptures reflect that there is a time coming of great glory ? ( Isaiah 60 for example and Is 66 ) .

So why are we so eager to condemn and judge one another ? Is it not for all the sibling rivalry and bitterness in our hearts ? We are insecure in His love....and that is why the glory needs to come....to sanctify His temples...to pour out His love....so that we WILL walk in all that He wants us to....but he has taken us to the point of desperation that we would cry out like MOSES....GOD save this rebellious nation! ...Give us another chance ! It is certainly a test of our hearts in these times. Many people have said “get out of California!” and I know the day will come for that. Terrible earthquakes have been seen by friends of mine for LA...one friend had an open vision on a turn off the overpass of a freeway while driving through LA...angels had to be driving...The earthquake was so devastating...probably 8.0 or higher...

But Californians have been praying and fasting and the things prophesied have not come yet...God has stayed His hand....We’ve seen it in visions.

Where is your heart? When you look at your neighbors do you see children of God or are you too busy judging their sins ? Are you praying for their salvation ? For God is NOT WILLING THAT ANY SHOULD PERISH . If you are not praying, then you do not walk according to the Spirit of God whose heart is broken for them.

He has been seeking for those who would stand in the gap for our nations and the nations of the world...He also said through Paul in Romans. . . .”How will they know without a preacher ?” We preach whether we open our mouths or not. . . .through what we do and how we live.

In Numbers it says

Numbers 16:19-22 AMP says Then Korah assembled all the congregation against Moses and Aaron before the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of the Lord appeared to all the congregation. And the Lord said to Moses and Aaron, “Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment . “ AND THEY FELL ON THEIR FACES, and said, “O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin and will You be angry with all the congregation?”

All the time you see Moses and Aaron falling on their faces in supplication to the Lord at the sound of impending judgement.

Our vision gets distorted often because of issues of unforgiveness in our own lives. God is love the scriptures say, so let’s look at Old Testament and New Testament glory and what it is, what it does, and what were people’s reactions to it ?

Psalm 19:1a ... The heavens declare the glory of God.

Glory here is kabowd...Strong’s 3519 from 3513 properly : weight but only figuratively in a good sense; splendor, or copiousness(which means from Webster...presenting in large quantity, profuse, abounding, plenty, richness, fullness) glorious (-ly), glory, honor (able).

Psalm 24:7-10 NIV

Lift up your heads, O you gates; be lifted up, you ancient doors, that the king of glory may come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O you gates; lift them up, you ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in. Who is He, this King of glory ? The LORD Almighty – He is the King of glory . [Selah]

Again this is kabowd (3519)

Exodus 24:17 NIV ...To the Israelites the glory of God looked like a consuming fire on top of the mountain.

Exodus 29:43 AMP... There I will meet with the Israelites, and the Tent of Meeting shall be sanctified by My glory. [the Shekinah, God’s visible presence].

Both of these two examples are also the kabowd 3519 Strong’s.

At Azusa street people thought the building was on fire as they saw flames emerging from the ceiling. . . .but when the firemen came it was not consuming the building. . . .it was the fire of GOD!

Now if we are God’s temples made of flesh – not of stone, are we not also sanctified by His glory ? Every time we spend time in His presence – we are receiving more as we give to Him praise, honor and glory, seeking His face, not just His hand – He pours out His glory. The more our hearts are united in worship and praise, the more it seems He comes. The Bible teaches us that the Spirit was given to Jesus WITHOUT measure...but to us in measure...there is measure of faith spoken of and going from glory to glory....God is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. Unity seems to be key.

Psalm 133 Amp

Behold how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity ! It is like the precious ointment poured on the head, that ran down on the beard, even the beard of Aaron [the first high priest], that came down upon the collar and skirts of his garments [consecrating the whole body]. [Ex 30:25,30]

So if we worship in spirit and in truth, in unity...WOW...what a picture ! He consecrates the whole body there !

There are 5 words for consecrate in the Old Testament:

- 1) 4390 (phonetically maw-law) – to fill or to be full of lit. & fig.: - accomplish, confirm, +consecrate, be at an end, be expired, be fenced, fill, fulfill, become fully, overflow, fullness, furnish, gather (selves, together), presume, replenish, satisfy, set, space, take a handful & have wholly.
- 2) 3027 (yawd) – prim. Word: a hand (the open one [indicating power, means, direction, etc] in distinction from 3709, the closed one); used in a variety of applications, both fig. And lit., a few being, + consecrate, + creditor, custody, debt, dominion, + fellowship, force from hand, ministry, order, power, service, wait on, + yield, power.
- 3) 2763 ( khaw-ram); a prim root; to seclude; spec.(by a ban) to devote to religious uses (esp. destruction); physical and reflex. To be blunt as to the nose; - make accursed, consecrate, (utterly ) destroy, devote, forfeit, have a flat nose, utterly (slay, make away)
- 4) 5144 (nazar)-a prim root; to hold aloof; abstain (from food, drink, from impurity, and even from divine worship * [ ie: apostasize ] ) spec. to set apart (to sacred purposes), ie; devote: - consecrate, separate (-ing, self).
- 5) 6942 (Kaw-dash); a prim. root; to be clean (cause. To make, pronounce, or observe as clean, ceremonially or morally:-appoint, bid, consecrate, dedicate, defile, hallow, (be, keep) holy (-er, place), keep, prepare, proclaim, purify, sanctify (ied one, self), x wholly.

In Exodus 33 NIV Moses asks to see the glory of the Lord & in verse 22

The Lord says, “When My glory passes by, I will put you in the cleft in the rock and cover you with My hand until I have passed by.

Several months ago, at least 8, a younger woman prophesied that over as a group at my church ministered to me and she said “ I see the Lord taking you and hiding you in the cleft of the rock and as He passes by, He stops, just for a moment and gazes at you !” As she spoke it out in the natural...the supernatural happened and I felt such a touch of His glory, that for just a few moments – caused me to feel His pleasure in me and I involuntarily began what is recognized in renewal churches as a manifestation of worship, with my arms reaching up to Him in worship and I was saying “ You’re so beautiful! You’re so beautiful!” over and over out of my spirit man, and weeping at the magnificent taste of the expression of His love which since has created a deep hunger in my soul for more of the same...due to the absence of it. I long for that taste of heaven – It’s like the greatest high more than anything. The LOVE you feel is so overpowering !

I read an article in Mike Bickles’ newsletter years ago about Jonathon Edwards’ wife experiencing a visitation of the LORD for a week’s time. The Lord kept coming sporadically pouring out His love on her whenever in His presence and prayer in church or at home and she would swoon, or faint, or her knees would buckle, and she would have to be carried to bed, or a place of rest. In her description, she describes how His love so encompassed her – all she could think of was HIM and all criticism or fault finding was laid waste in His presence. All she felt for others was His love. Not a thought was given to what was wrong with them. I remember praying. ...Oh Lord, THAT is what I want. I was raised with such criticism and judgementalism, and perfectionism, that it has been difficult to get free from. Since, a frequent prayer has been for the outpouring of His River of Honey, which He has spoken of in prophecies, for the church, for me, for the lost. He has spoken that it will consume all jealousy, competition, insecurity, discouragement and defeatism and fear. I have become SO hungry for this at , and other times overcome by the cares of this world , or defeatism, then at a moment – some prophet would speak encouragement to the body, and again my heart would leap at the hope of His coming again. When I’d read about the experiences of others with My Lord, I would long and weep for more, yet seem incapable of doing anything more to draw near, and I would feel frustrated with myself...as if all grace had departed...and I have felt like the solomoness in Songs...”Have you seen my Lover? I can’t find Him...” My heart at times has been so tormented by thoughts of rejection or worthlessness...it has taken all I have in me to resist the devil. And again it would abate, as I’d cling to His promises. I’m sharing this because I know if others are honest, many have experienced the same.

I found encouragement in reading of other saints like David Brainard who endured TB and much mental depression/suffering while ministering among Native Americans back east during revival. He had to ride horseback to different camps suffering from these things. Off and on he would have bouts of depression. Then again...he prayed so much he sweat like drops of blood like our Lord...and had miraculous conversions among the Natives.

I have had to remind myself among the many prophecies filled with religion that say you have to be perfect to “make it” or to get to be among the privileged few, that God doesn’t choose perfect vessels. He makes them perfect through His blood. He IS our righteousness ! I totally agree with holiness. But I also know I can do nothing in my flesh to make myself holy. IF we could make ourselves holy...we wouldn’t need a Saviour. We would be our own saviours. The key to holiness, is a contrite heart that knows to run into the presence of God in worship and praise. Later in Ezekial 47...I’ll point out how it exemplifies this. Getting into His glory is key to sanctification.

The Israelites saw the glory in the cloud of His presence and as a consuming fire.

Exodus 40:34-35 Amp

34)then the cloud [the Shekinah,God’s visible presence] covered the Tent of Meeting and the glory of the Lord filled the Tabernacle . [Rev 15:8]

35)Moses could not enter the Tent of Meeting because the cloud remained Upon it, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle.

I Kings 8:11 NIV And the priests could not perform their service because of the Cloud, for the glory of the Lord filled the temple.

2 Chronicles 5:14 And the priests could not perform their service because of the cloud, for the glory of the Lord filled the temple of God.

2 Chronicles 7:1-3 NIV When Solomon finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the Lord filled the temple. The priests could not enter the temple of the Lord because the glory of the Lord filled it. When all the Israelites saw the fire coming down and the glory of the LORD above the temple, they knelt on the pavement with their faces to the ground, and they worshiped and gave thanks to the LORD, saying, He is good; his love endures forever.

Isaiah 4:2-5 Amplified

In that day the Branch of the Lord shall be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land shall be excellent and lovely to those of Israel who have escaped. [Jeremiah 23:5; 33:15; Zech.3:8;6:12]

And he who is left in Zion and remains in Jerusalem will be called holy, everyone who is recorded for life in Jerusalem and for eternal life, [Joel

3:17; Phil. 4:3]

After the Lord has washed away the [moral] filth of the daughters of Zion [pride, vanity, haughtiness] and has purged the bloodstains of Jerusalem from the midst of it by the spirit and blast of judgement and by the spirit and blast of burning and sifting.

And the Lord will create over the whole site, over every dwelling place of Mount Zion and over her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory shall be a canopy ( a defense of divine love and protection ).

This scripture of Isaiah is yet unfulfilled, but I think will be soon.

In Leviticus 9:6 Moses tells Aaron what is required in order for consecration and it involves the sacrifice of animals. Hebrews 10 tells us in verses 9-14 Amplified

9) He went on to say, Behold, [here] I am, coming to do Your will. Thus He does away with and annuls the first (former) order [as a means of expiating sin] so that He might inaugurate and establish the second (latter) order. [Psalm 40:6-8]

- 10) And in accordance with this will [of God], we have been made holy (consecrated and sanctified) through the offering made once for all of the body of Jesus Christ (the Anointed One).
- 11) Furthermore, every [human] priest stands [at his altar of service] ministering daily, offering the same sacrifices over and over again, which never are able to strip [from every side of us] the sins [that envelop us] and take them away –
- 12) Whereas this One [Christ], after He had offered a single sacrifice for our sins [that shall avail] for all time, sat down at the right hand of God,
- 13) Then to wait until His enemies should be made a stool beneath His feet. [Psalm 110:1]
- 14) For by a single offering He has forever completely cleansed and perfected those who are consecrated and made holy.

And then in verses 18-26:

- 18)Now there is absolute remission (forgiveness and cancellation of the penalty) of these [sins and lawbreaking], there is no longer any offering made to atone for sin.
- 19)Therefore ,brethren, since we have full freedom and confidence to enter into the [Holy of] Holies [by the power and virtue] in the blood of Jesus,
- 20)By this fresh (new) and living way which He initiated and dedicated and opened for us through the separating curtain (veil of the Holy of Holies), that is, through His flesh,
- 21)And since we have [such] a great and wonderful and noble Priest [Who rules] over the house of God,
- 22)Let us all come forward and draw near with true (honest and sincere) hearts in unqualified assurance and absolute conviction engendered by faith ( by that leaning of the entire human personality on God in absolute trust and confidence in His power, wisdom, and goodness), having our hearts sprinkled and purified from a guilty (evil) conscience and our bodies cleansed with pure water.
- 23)So let us seize and hold fast and retain without wavering the hope we cherish and confess and our acknowledgement of it, for He Who promised is reliable (sure) and faithful to His word.
- 24)And let us consider and give attentive, continuous car to watching over one another, studying how we may stir up (stimulate and incite) to love and helpful deeds and noble activities.
- 25)Not forsaking or neglecting to assemble together [as believers], as is the habit of some people, but admonishing (warning, urging, and encouraging) one another, and all the more faithfully as you see the day approaching.
- 26)For if we go on deliberately and willingly sinning after once acquiring the knowledge of the Truth, there is no longer any sacrifice left to atone for (our) sins [no further offering to which to look forward}.
- 27)[There is nothing left for us then ] but a kind of awful and fearful prospect and expectation of divine judgment and the fury of burning wrath and indignation which will consume those who put themselves in opposition [to God]. [ Isaiah 26:11]

Notice that it says, “Once acquiring the knowledge of the Truth” Truth is a person, the Lord Jesus, but also truth of His word...His Word is Truth.

Truth must be acquired. We don’t instantly, when even reading the word attain to truth or Him Who is Truth. We have blindness in areas where we have strongholds. And we are not instantly sanctified completely. We go from glory to glory scripture teaches us, through His grace, mercy, and through diligently seeking Him.

This is perhaps why we go from glory to glory, as truth is gradually revealed through the washing of the Word, and through intimacy with Him...we change. That is why the word is so important to renewing our minds. The mind is the place of the battlefield with the enemy. In order to renew our minds ( and hearts) we must be in the Word, studying and MEDITATING on it. This is why the enemy makes himself busy trying to get us to DOUBT the Word or discredit it with our Thinking.

Remember the words to Eve in Genesis? “Did God say?” the serpent said to her. If he can lure you with deception into believing his lies, then a stronghold against God’s truth is established and sin prevails in our lives. The more we are consumed by strongholds like this...the further away from God and our destiny in Him we will stray. That is why we are to take every thought captive to the Lord Jesus Christ ! Once the Holy Spirit reveals TRUTH – opening our eyes to things in the word, and ways

In which we fall short of His glory, we can change. But in order to change we also need His glory (kawbawd), His love to heal us. Once you discover Truth – then asking Him to change you with His glory is next. Grace in the new testament is also His power to make you do and be what He wants you to do and be. So we are changed by beholding Him, in comparison to ourselves, changed by His manifest love. This sometimes all happens at once, like in revival and under anointed preaching. Eyes are opened, hearts being convicted, and a touch from Him...transforms us...giving us grace to obey. His glory heals us and brings whatever we need at the time.

That’s why in renewal we see a variety of responses in people.

Some are in desperate need of deliverance. Some are in need of emotional healing of all sorts, some physical healing. Some receive the power of the Spirit of might to give them more boldness...so roar. Some receive peace to calm anxieties within...so are comforted and faint. God knows what each person needs. He also knows how much of His glory we can stand. He knows every hair on our head...every thought of our mind.

And He loves us beyond anything we can comprehend. He loves us if we are fat or thin, short or tall, comely or beautiful, rich or poor, Black or White, Oriental or Hispanic, Native American or native to Germany. He is not a respecter of persons. There is no longer any differences between male or female, Scythian or slave, Jew or Greek in His eyes according to Galatians. All are children of God and if children of God, then heirs with Christ as per Ephesians 1. We are seated in heavenly places in Christ Jesus, and earth is no longer our home any longer.

Psalm 89: 5 says... Surely His salvation is near to those who fear Him, that His glory may dwell in the land .

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. The fear of the Lord is a strong tower, the righteous RUN into it, and they are saved.

Romans 3:23 Amplified says....Since all have sinned and are falling short of the honor and glory which God bestows and receives.

Romans 8:17-18 Amplified

And if we are [His] children, then we are [His] heirs also: heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ [sharing His inheritance with Him]; only we must share His suffering if we are to share His glory.

Why should a man complain it says in Lamentations...

2 Corinthians 3:18 Amplified

And all of us, as with unveiled face; [because we] continued to behold [in the Word of God] as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are constantly being transfigured into His very own image in ever increasing splendor and from one degree of glory to another; [ for this comes] from the Lord [Who is] the Spirit.

Note here it says constantly being transfigured...in ever increasing splendor...from one degree of glory to another....We are constantly being sanctified by His glory...

Exodus 29:43 AMP again...to compare... There I will meet with the Israelites, and the Tent of Meeting shall be sanctified by My glory. [the Shekinah, God's visible presence].

In John 11:40 Jesus says to Martha...just before raising Lazarus from the dead....Did I not tell you and promise you that if you would believe and rely on ME, you would see the glory of God ?

We cannot always see or feel the glory, we must in faith believe, that if we seek fellowship with Him...we will receive. Habakkuk 2:14 speaks of a time....

But [the time is coming when] the earth shall be filled with the knowledge Of the glory of the Lord as the waters cover the sea. [ Isaiah 11:9]

This is not yet happened, but is soon upon us.

I think that we can extrapolate from scriptures the effects of the glory of the Lord when it is seen by looking at how people reacted then. And if we are to Experience this as well...we had also better be walking in the fear of the Lord Like the pastor at Azuza.

Ezekial 1:28 Amp

Like the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud on the day of rain, so was the appearance or the brightness round about. This was the appearance of The glory of the Lord. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face and I heard a voice of One speaking. [Rev. 4:3]

Ezekial 10:4 Amp

Then the glory of the Lord mounted up from the cherubim to stand over the threshold of the[Lord's] house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the Lord's glory [1 Kings8:10-11; Ezekial 43:5 ]

Ezekial 39:21 Amp

And I will manifest my honor and glory among the nations, and all the nations shall see My judgment and justice [in the punishment] which I have executed and my hand which I have laid on them.

Haggai 2:7-9 Amp

And I will shake all nations and the desire and the precious things of all nations shall come in and I will fill this house with splendor, says the Lord of Hosts. [ Isaiah 60:5, Matt 2:1-12]***

The silver is Mine and the gold is Mine, says the Lord of hosts. The latter glory of this house [with its successor, to which Jesus came] shall be greater than the former, says the Lord of hosts; and in this place will I give peace and prosperity, says the Lord of hosts.

Zechariah 2:5-13 Amp

For I, says the Lord, will be to her a wall of fire round about and I will be the glory in the midst of her. (speaking of Jerusalem...which speaks of the church)

Ho! Ho! [Hear and] flee from the land of the north, says the Lord, and from the four winds of the heavens, for to them have I scattered you, says the Lord.

Ho!Escape to Zion, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon !

For thus said the Lord of hosts, after [His] glory had sent me [His messenger] to the nations who plundered you – for he who touches you, touches the apple or pupil of His eye:

Behold, I will swing my hand over them and they shall become plunder for those who served them. Then you shall know [recognize and understand] that the Lord of hosts has sent me [His messenger] to you.

[ Isaiah 2:3; Micah 4:2 ] and the Lord shall inherit Judah as His portion in the holy land and shall again choose Jerusalem. Be still , all flesh, before the Lord, for He is aroused and risen from His Holy habitation. [ Hab. 2:20; Zeph 1:7]

Hallelujah ! Glory to the Lord of Hosts for He will come as He has promised though nations perish and the wicked fall, those who love Him will be saved. Be filled with the glory of the Lord...take communion often as it says, when we see the day approaching...communion with Him...and the sacrament !

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Place Of Understanding

Bob Neumann

I Suppose I should SAY ""THIS ONE'S FOR HARLEY""....

THE PLACE OF UNDERSTANDING

As usual I had a 'chat' with HARLEY last night, and he asked if I was planning to "get" something tonight. Sunday Night/Monday Morning is a hard time to sleep so I usually try to "spend" that time wisely. Often with Dr. Strong at my side, and sometimes just in the quiet of the night I will do what Habakkuk did, wait and stand 'my watch'. Often it is just the lack of distractions and irritations that I can 'hear' THE VOICE OF THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT that my "hidden room" provides. But then there are those rare days where I hear ABBA'S VOICE so clearly that I wonder why I could not do so for weeks and months. For a long time I chalked it up to "timing".... as in HIS SET TIME.

The last few weeks I have had several emails I could not answer. One asked why that person didn't hear GOD like "everyone else did". How do I honestly answer that? Especially if I had been complaining to GOD for HIS SILENCE HE had blessed me with. Likewise I had an email from a person who was hurting, who wanted a "word" that GOD LOVED them and that SALVATION had been given them. This one hurt because I had felt that doubt and fear all too often. Likewise I don't do 'words' for people. I know some are out there who would say "WORDS" come from our spirits that bring COMFORT...EDIFICATION...CONFIRMATION. They have no problem writing or saying...."THUS SAITH THE LORD".....when it was them...and not GOD. Even if it was meant for good, if GOD DID NOT SPEAK IT....it is presumptuous sin. Most may disagree, but I have no peace "ministering" to people. But on that occasion I heard and I shared. It had been almost two months since I heard ABBA, and even if it was not for me, I enjoyed just to HEAR HIS VOICE.

Last night I heard it again, and once again it is not for me....at least the part I am about to write down. I think this is when I hear most clearly....when I have a purpose.

"TELL MY CHILDREN TO STEAL THEMSELVES AWAY FROM THE WORLD AROUND THEM. TELL THEM TO FLEE THE DARKNESS AND COME TO ME. I HAVE LONG DESIRED TO GIVE THEM THE KINGDOM. BUT I SO GREATLY DESIRE THAT THEY BE MY KINGDOM. DID NOT MY SON SAY, SEEK FIRST MY KINGDOM AND MY RIGHTEOUSNESS. MANY OF YOU GO LACKING AND HURTING BECAUSE YOU HAVE NOT ADDED TO THE FOUNDATION THAT I GAVE TO YOU OUT OF MY LOVE. SO FEW HAVE BUILT UPON THE FOUNDATION OF MY SON. FEW HAVE HEARD HIS WORDS TO COME AND LEARN OF HIM, SO THEY CONTINUE TO CARRY THEIR OWN BURDENS. UNTIL THEY TAKE UP HIS YOKE THEY AN NOT LEARN OF HIM. AND ONLY THROUGH HIM WILL THEY COME TO ME.

COME AND REASON WITH ME. FEAR NOT YOUR OWN BURDENS. HOW MUCH YOU WANT THE "ALL THINGS" THAT MY WORD PROMISES TO THOSE WHO HAVE FOUND MY KINGDOM AND MY RIGHTEOUSNESS. BUT LITTLE ONES, ONCE YOU FIND MY RIGHTEOUSNESS ALIVE IN YOU, YOU WILL NO LONGER SEEK THE "THINGS" THAT YOU WANT ME TO "ADD" INTO YOUR LIVES. THAT IS WHY I TELL YOU NOW THAT YOU MUST LEAVE YOURSELVES BEHIND. NOT JUST YOUR PAINS AND FEARS AND DOUBTS, BUT YOUR ASPIRATIONS AND PLANS AND GOALS THAT YOU HAVE BUILT UPON.

MY WORD WAS GIVEN TO YOU AND YOU HAVE YET TO LEARN ALL HE HAS TRIED TO TEACH YOU. MANY OF YOU LOOK FOR NUGGETS OF REVELATION AND PEARLS OF WISDOM AS A CHILD PICKS UP PRETTY STONES FROM A STREAM OR FLOWERS FROM A FIELD. IS IT THE SAME AS STUDYING TO SHOW YOURSELVES APPROVED? HAVE I WITHHELD MY HOLY SPIRIT FROM YOU? HAVE I SEPARATED MY TRUTH FROM YOU? AM I AS FAR AWAY FROM YOU AS SOME OF YOU NOW THINK?

OR MAYBE THE CARES OF THIS WORLD HAVE CAUGHT YOU UP. JUST MAYBE YOU FELL INTO DISTRACTION BY THE MANY THINGS THAT STILL BURDEN YOU DAILY. THEN THERE IS THE POSSIBILITY YOU FOCUS ON WHAT YOU HAVE DECIDED IS RIGHT IN YOUR OWN EYES AND WILL NOT SETTLE FOR MORE. AND CHILDREN I DO DESIRE MORE FOR YOU.

BUT I ALSO DESIRE MORE FROM YOU.

MANY CALL ME FATHER WHO I DO NOT KNOW FOR THEY KNOW NOT MY SON. THEY KNOW OF HIM. OF ME MOST CEREBRALLY. THEY ALSO KNOW OF MY MOST HOLY SPIRIT TO SOME DEGREE. BUT WHAT GOOD IS THEIR AMASSED KNOWLEDGE WHEN THEY HAVE NO UNDERSTANDING.

SO CHILDREN IT IS TIME TO LEARN AND TO GROW. TO BECOME ALL THE WONDROUS THINGS MY WORD HAS DECLARED OVER YOU SINCE THE FOUNDATION OF THE WORLD. SO I TELL YOU MY PRECIOUS ONES IT IS TIME TO COME TO THE PLACE OF UNDERSTANDING. THE PLACE WHERE MY WILL AND MY PURPOSE BECOMES PARAMOUNT IN YOUR THOUGHTS, WORDS, AND DEEDS. THEN YOU MIGHT FIND THAT THERE IS NOTHING ELSE WORTH YOUR TIME AND ENERGY EXCEPT MY KINGDOM AND MY PURPOSE. THEN YOU WILL WALK IN MY RIGHTEOUSNESS. THAT CHILDREN IS INDEED MY DESIRE FOR YOU.

THE TIME HAS COME FOR YOU TO FORSAKE THE WORLD AND SEEK MY FACE. IT IS JUST THAT PERSONAL FOR EACH OF YOU. BUT TO FIND ME YOU MUST COME THROUGH THE WAY I GAVE TO YOU AND IT IS UPON HIM YOU MUST TRUST AND LEARN".

now this is where ABBA stopped and I will not add to it. but allow me to share two pieces of THE WORD which seem to "pop" up. the first I have read many times these last few weeks....the second seems to fit the TIMES AND SEASONS....so I'll all it a pearl for any 'sons of Issachar' who wish to understand what we are supposed to be doing.

selah

shemuel

- 20 Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?
- 21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the air.
- 22 Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.
- 23 God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.
- 24 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven;
- 25 To make the weight for the winds; and he weigheth the waters by measure.
- 26 When he made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder:
- 27 Then did he see it, and declare it; he prepared it, yea, and searched it out.
- 28 And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.

- 32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.
- 33 And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days.
- 34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.
- 35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Puzzler

Tom Lawrence

You are each pieces of a puzzle. Each has a vision of beauty that I have created in you. Each vision, each piece a beauty to behold - a picture to be admired and observed in and of itself. When I bring the pieces together the picture formed is also a thing of beauty and the pieces cannot be seen.

I am the Puzzler. Only I can form the puzzle. Only I can shape the pieces. Only I can fit the pieces together to form the thing of beauty.

But before the puzzle can be assembled the pieces must be separated from each other as they have joined themselves together incorrectly as in a newly opened puzzle in a box. Let me take your piece, clean its rough edges, and form you to fit into your proper place in the picture. Only then will your beauty be seen in the finished picture.

As your pieces are interconnected I will give you strength AND beauty. Let me clean your edges that you might fit securely in the picture.

I am the Puzzler. I will assemble the picture that I am forming. And it is a thing of beauty."

The Lord showed me that not only is He the Puzzler in the sense of being the One that constructs the puzzle but He is the Puzzler in the sense of confounding man's wisdom. "Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men." 1 Corinthians 1:25.

If we attempt to build God's puzzle, not knowing His picture, we will not form the beautiful picture He desires and our attempts will be evident in the picture we form.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Path of Wisdom

Rick Joyner

POSTED FROM MORNINGSTAR MINISTRIES - <http://www.morningstarministries.org>

Wisdom is the ability to properly apply knowledge. In Proverbs 24:3:4 we are told, “By wisdom a house is built, and by understanding it is established; And by knowledge the rooms are filled with all precious and pleasant riches.”

It is true that sermons filled with knowledge will tend to draw people. The gift of a word of knowledge will also draw great crowds. This is good, but our purpose in the Lord is not just to draw crowds, but to see them built into the house of the Lord.

To do this we need wisdom. The gift of a word of wisdom may not be as spectacular as the gift of a word of knowledge, but it is every bit as essential for the work of God to be accomplished.

The following are just a few of the Scriptures that exhort us about the value and advantages of wisdom.

For wisdom is better than jewels; and all desirable things can not compare with her (Proverbs 8:11).

How much better it is to get wisdom than gold! And to get understanding is to be chosen above silver (Proverbs 16:16).

Wisdom strengthens a wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city (Ecclesiastes 7:19).

Wisdom is better than strength (Ecclesiastes 9:16).

Wisdom is better than weapons of war (Ecclesiastes 9:18).

How do we get wisdom? First, we ask, just as we are told in James 1:5, “But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all men generously and without reproach, and it will be given to him.” It is wisdom to understand that we need wisdom.

This is a fundamental humility, which is a prerequisite for wisdom, as we read in Proverbs 11:2, “When pride comes, then comes dishonor, but with the humble is wisdom.”

A basic characteristic of humility is teachableness. A terrible pride has gripped our souls when we cannot be taught by others. The depth of our humility might be demonstrated by how open we are to be taught by those who might be considered inferior.

Was this not the great test, and the reason why the Lord, who was Wisdom Himself, came as a humble carpenter? Is this not why He called the “untrained and untaught” to be His apostles? He structured His ministry and His church to filter out the proud, and attract only the humble.

Concerning the Lord, we must understand that this is basic to His nature, as we are told in both James 4:6 and I Peter 5:5, "God is opposed to the proud, but gives grace to the humble."

Knowledge fills, but wisdom builds. Therefore, in the building of our lives, families, churches, and ministries, the seeking of wisdom must be a priority. To do this, we must seek humility.

It is, therefore, wisdom to associate with the lowly, and to learn to patiently listen to those who we may be prone to think they are inferior. As the Lord Jesus Himself rejoiced, saying, "I praise Thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that Thou didst hide these things from the (worldly) wise and intelligent and didst reveal them to babes” (Matthew 11:25).

He also said that we would have to become like little children to enter the kingdom. One of the basic characteristics of children is that they are teachable. This is humility, and this is the way the kingdom will be built.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Training: Tough Love Vs Tender Love

Sandy Warner

1/28/00

Hi Loved Ones, A few weeks ago while I was speaking in tongues the Lord gave me the instant interpretation of 3 of my words in a particular phrase. I immediately said, "Uh oh" I was stunned and He had my attention. Those words were: "Training. Error. Correction."

Right at the turn of the year I had been hearing that we had entered a new year of training. The Lord wanted to train us or teach us. I was excited about being trained in new giftings and at that time He immediately starting teaching me in new gifts so I knew I had understood the season.

However later when I heard those 3 little words, "Training, error and correction" it put a greater perspective to the word "training." In one short week I felt like I had been put through a blender and turned on high for a crash course. During that week, I passed by a sign outside a neighborhood church. It was obvious from the scaffolding and workers that they were in the midst of construction and enlargement. The sign read, "Lord, please turn this mess into a message!" It made me chuckle and I identified with the concept that sometimes when we are in the process of growing into spiritual promotions that it can look like a mess. The next day I was feeling that the blender had been turned up even higher. As I passed the same sign again, the Holy Spirit nudged me to turn around and look at the other side. It said, "Lord please turn this test into a testimony!" I thought about those signs and prayed, "OK Lord, what is Your message through all of this? This is obvious a test from You, so please help me pass it and learn from it so I never have to repeat it again!"

After a lot of prayer, changes in attitude, choices, and mercy from Him, I am feeling as though the blender has stopped and I am coming out the other side a lot smoother. I would like to pass on some of the things He has shown me since the first of the year about this year of "Training."

1] GOD IS SAYING YES TO DISCIPLINE Sometimes we become so immersed in the love of God and His grace, that we forget He is sovereign and actually gives the enemy permission to "pulverize" us. Much of what we consider demonic attack is allowed from God as chastisement. "If troubles come upon them and they are enslaved and afflicted, then He takes the trouble to point out to them the reason, what they have done that is wrong, or how they have behaved proudly. He helps them hear His instruction to turn away from their sin." (Job 36:8-10 TLB)

2] REPAIR YOUR OWN HEDGE: CHANGE We are in the days where the accuser of the brethren is operating a full scale battle against God's own. (Rev 12:10) The first target the enemy uses is our sins, faults, mistakes, rebellions, and our weaknesses. These accusations are hurled against us from all directions, (even when we do not hear of them) and as a result there are demonic assignments sent to torment us. If we are quick to close our broken hedges by true repentance with changes in behavior, attitudes and choices, then this gives the devil less inroad. "But now You have broken down our walls, leaving us without protection." (Ps 80:12 TLB) "Come, and let us return to the LORD; For He has torn, but He will heal us; He has stricken, but He will bind us up." (Hos 6:1 NKJ)

3] RESIST CONDEMNATION The devil wants to brow beat us with our weaknesses. If we have repented and are willing and teachable in whatever area the devil is accusing us, then resist condemnation. "There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit." (Rom 8:1 NKJ)

The Lord will allow us to fall to get our attention, but it is His intent to repair and build us again. "On that day I will raise up the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down, and repair its damages; I will raise up its ruins, and rebuild it as in the days of old." (Amos 9:11) "After this I will return and will rebuild the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down; I will rebuild its ruins, and I will set it up; So that the rest of mankind may seek the LORD, even all the Gentiles who are called by My name, says the LORD who does all these things." (Acts 15:16-17 NKJ)

4] RESIST TURNING INWARD The enemy will do everything he can to divert our focus away from worshipping & intimacy with the Lord. There are many, many pitfalls he uses. One of them is ourselves, such as: naval gazing, soul searching, focusing upon our circumstances, needs & feelings.

Almost 30 years ago I heard a traveling evangelist speak a warning. I was very depressed at the time and he looked straight at me as he spoke about the black hole. He asked the audience if we understood how a black hole was created in the universe. He went on to explain that black holes were once stars whose spiraling gravity was so strong, that the star turned inward and lost its light. He said that if we turn inward and focus upon ourselves then we are in danger of losing our light! This pierced my soul and I never forgot it.

If the Lord is wanting to get our attention through chastisement, it only takes our prayer and His quickening power of the Holy Spirit to spotlight a need for change. We don't have to spend hours of self analysis, miserable thought life and emotions to find answers. We really can learn to pray about it, dump it in His lap and wait upon Him for answers. Until the answers come, we can worship Him and enjoy His Presence. When we are soaking in the Presence of the Lord, every care, every circumstance, every need fades away and only He matters!

5] TOUGH LOVE VS TENDER LOVE The manner in which the Lord teaches us, trains us is totally up to us! If we are unwilling, stubborn, unyielding, unrepentant, resisting His voice by following our own ways, then we give Him no choice to but use tough love.

"I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will guide you with My eye. Do not be like the horse or like the mule, which have no understanding, which must be harnessed with bit and bridle, else they will not come near you." (Ps 32:8-9 NKJ)

That scripture is power-packed. I have read it many times, but happened to turn to it in my "pulverizing blender" week. I thought about it in relation to my circumstances of demonic invasion and I suddenly understood what He was trying to tell me: "Sandy, I love you so much that I want to answer your requests for understanding with just a look in My eye. I don't want to have to put a bit in your mouth and force you to the right or the left and coerce you into making adjustments. Rather I want to merely look your way and your heart be so tuned to Me that you know without My ever saying a Word, that you are in need of some fine tuning."

Many times when I have spoken out of turn (or too long), the Holy Spirit has nudged me to silence and at the same time I have noticed the look in my husband's "eye". After I have mentioned it to him, he nods in agreement that he had been thinking the same thing. My husband does not raise his voice with me and I cannot remember when he has ever condemned me. I know he loves me and wants only God's best for me. But to see that eye... It's the kind of eye that no one else may notice, but I know. It's that look that says, "Sandy you are treading on dangerous ground. Be very careful and watch your words!" That's how the Lord wants to teach us. Would that we all become so sensitive to His heart, that we know without a single rebuke where we need to adjust our course!

6] FINE TUNING If we are yielded - teachable and pliable to the Lord, He has no desire to train us with sludge hammers. It is more a process of fine tuning things that are not quite in harmony with Him.

This year, as you pray about your circumstances and make decisions about what the Lord is doing, consider the possibility that He is wanting to use them to train you in the way you should go. Tough love or tender love, the choice is ours.

"Come now, and let us reason together," says the LORD. "Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall be as wool. If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land; But if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured by the sword"; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken." (Isa 1:18-20 NKJ)

Lovingly,
Sandy
SWauthor@aol.com
Website: <http://member.aol.com/swauthor/webpage/>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Rain Making Prophets

Robert Burgess

"Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months. And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit (James 5:17-18)."

"And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered (Amos 4:7)."

Holy Ghost Revival

Rain is typical of the Holy Spirit poured out; There is a crying need for the rain of the Holy Spirit to be poured out in our midst today. We live in a time when the Charismatic-Pentecostal Church in general is claiming to be in "Revival;" But a good and honest question to ask is "Revival of what?" Is there any more deep and sincere dedication to Jesus in the lives of these believers who claim to be "Revived," or is it just "Business as usual??" Are there any souls really getting saved to speak of?? Are the sick and dying being raised up off of their deathbeds? Do the demon possessed still come to the Church and find an old-fashioned Deliverance there?? Or is it just a lot of "Joyful Noise" and much Money changing hands?? There is so much emphasis on money that one has to ask; "Where does the "Root of all evil" fit in to this picture?" We are told first to "Buy the Truth" and secondly to "Sell it not." Yet there are such exorbitant fees and prices attached to everything from attending their Conferences, buying their tapes and booklets on how to succeed in God's economy, right on down to the little bottles of "Anointing oil" (which are supposedly "Blessed" by some great one, or from some special place in Israel) so that no one living on a small pension is able to afford them. The poor are all but shut out of this so-called "Revival" altogether.

Rain Making Prophets

"Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. After TWO DAYS will he REVIVE US: in the THIRD DAY he will raise us UP, and we shall LIVE in HIS SIGHT. Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the RAIN, as the latter and former RAIN unto the earth (Hosea 6:1-3)."

What we need and desire most of all is the LORD!! His Presence, His Spirit Outpoured.. He promises to come to us (In the Third Day) as the RAIN; As I said, the word "Rain" is used to describe the Holy Spirit Outpoured. What does it take to produce "Rain?" But first of all, let us consider what caused the rain to be withheld in the first place.

In the days of Elijah there was a king in Israel named Ahab, whose wife was Jezebel; Not to get too political here, and get into too many details, but we have some Ahabs and Jezebels in governmental positions as high up as you can go in the USA, and they have been doing the same things as their Biblical predecessors. There are many reasons why God has withheld the outpouring of His Spirit upon this wicked system of Government and this apostate nation of the United States of America. The Churches of this nation are most responsible for the present conditions here, because it is the Church who is called to be the "Salt of the Earth;" When the "Salt" loses it's ability to "Save (keeping power, it's Savor)" it is "fit for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under foot of men" said Jesus (See Mt 5:13). This is what has happened here in the good old USA.. Not only has the Church failed in it's mission to keep this country clean of Drugs, Pornography, Illicit Sex, Alcohol, Abortionists, Gambling Casinos, Strip Joints, Homosexual marriages, and on and on; But the Church and Ministry in general are held in contempt of the people, and kicked around like footballs. Why haven't we had any rain?? First, because God wants to show us His displeasure with our crooked dealings, and the consequences of our passivity; Secondly He wants us to see our need for some "Rain Making Prophets."

Elijah

The Prophet Elijah was a rain maker for sure; What it took for him to become such a one who could, at his Word, break the awful drought over Israel is what we need to find out. Notice how and what God commanded Elijah to do..

"And Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab, As the LORD God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be DEW nor RAIN these years, but according to MY WORD. And the WORD of the LORD came unto him, saying, Get thee hence, and turn thee EASTWARD, and HIDE thyself by the brook CHERITH, that is before JORDAN. And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the RAVENS to feed thee there. So he went and did according unto the word of the LORD: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan. And the ravens brought him BREAD and FLESH in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook (1 Ki 17:1-6)."

A Covenant

The brook "Cherith;" Meaning to "Cut" as in the "Cutting of a Covenant;" An Agreement, or Covenant Principle is in view. The word "Covenant (the 'C' word)" is a most dreaded word today in some circles of believers. Most modern Christians don't want to be too "Obligated" in the things of God; Sometimes it is all you can do just to convince them they need to be faithful in attending services even. But God says, "If you will do this Elijah, then I will do that." God told Elijah exactly what to do, and so long as he strictly obeyed the voice of the Lord, His Covenant would STAND; No matter what! Ahab and Jezebel were infuriated no doubt, and the Church world probably didn't like it much either, but if YOU stand, then God's Covenant will STAND, No matter WHAT. First God commanded Elijah to leave and forsake his comfortable surroundings in old Gilead (the realm of the Anointing - a Type of Pentecost), and move out of Israel altogether into the wilderness side of Jordan (Death). Separation unto the will and purpose of God is the first step of obedience for the End-Time "Rain Maker." The classic call of the believer is revealed in Gen 12:1.. "Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy COUNTRY, and from thy KINDRED, and from thy FATHER'S HOUSE, unto a LAND (Realm) that I will show thee (by Revelation)." But does the Holy Spirit still place it into the hearts of true "Disciples of Jesus Christ" to love Him enough to forsake all, and to follow Him (See Luke 5:11)?? When you start believing and obeying the Word of God as it is revealed by the indwelling Spirit, you will get "Flack" from everyone coming and going, I guarantee. Even some of those who are supposedly in the forefront of the latest "Move of God" will rebuke you openly, and call you "Crazy." You will find that you will be even less and less popular when you refuse to Worship "God" with them in an Unscriptural way. You will find yourself separated, in the desserts, and in the wilderness, separated from the Commonwealth of Israel (the Church World) altogether.

Elijah's worst source of humiliation at this point, probably were those RAVENS! The Raven was an unclean bird in the Jewish mind; It is very NON-KOSHER indeed. It represents an UNCLEAN MINISTRY, the exact OPPOSITE of the DOVE (Holy Spirit). This had to be an act of "Raw Faith" on Elijah's part, an "Acid Test" of his willingness to trust that the LORD would cover him in such seemingly UNSCRIPTURAL circumstances. The "Legal Mind" of the Pharisee would condemn Elijah outright in this; But the mind of Christ revealed to him that there was a LAW and a PURPOSE beyond the LETTER of the WORD that would make him "FREE from the LAW of SIN and DEATH (See Ro 8:2)."

There are true Prophets in this day who have been "Hidden" like Elijah, from the Beast System, and even from the "Organized Church." Some of them don't look very much like what you might think a Prophet of God should look like, but remember they are the "Hidden ones," known only to God and to those to whom God would reveal them. Does this seem incredible?? I will say this; In Jesus' day it was easy to spot a religious figure, you could tell a Pharisee or a Sadducee a block away. But what did John look like?? The Bible describes his appearance this way: "And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey (Mat 3:4)." His appearance was such that no one would easily guess him to be a "Holy Man" such as one of the Scribes or Pharisees; and you must admit that his "Diet" was a little peculiar. I said all that to say this: If you are one who can't take being despised, rejected, even hated by the religious elements, then don't take God up on this Covenant of separation; Because it will make you a peculiar person, and people who are "Different (in God's ways)" aren't going to be accepted by the religious element in general.

The Brook Dries up

The next step in Elijah's schooling was when the brook dried up.

"And it came to pass after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land. And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, Arise, get thee to Zarephath, which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee. So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink. And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thine hand. And she said, As the LORD thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and, behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die. And Elijah said unto her, Fear not; go and do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and after make for thee and for thy son. For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that the LORD sendeth rain upon the earth. And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, did eat many days (1 Ki 17:7-15)."

The Furnace

Zarephath means "Refinement," a "Furnace," or, "To Purge." Now the Lord has another step beyond separation from "Home, family, Church, and State;" It is to dwell for a while in the "Furnace of Affliction.." "Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver; I have CHOSEN THEE in the FURNACE of AFFLICTION. For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for how should MY NAME be POLLUTED? and I will not give my GLORY unto ANOTHER (Isa 48:10-11)."

I have often been asked "How are the many that are called separated from the few that are chosen??" The above passage explains this very plainly.. We are all, of course, called, but the chosen are "CHOSEN" in the "FURNACE of AFFLICTION." How do we qualify then? By being willing for the sake of our Lord's Holy Name, to endure the fiery trials of our faith and to endure unto the "END;" Lest His Holy NAME (or Nature) be POLLUTED. He is looking for a people who will allow His Spirit to Baptize them in more than just a "Real good, feel good" experience; We are looking at a baptism in FIRE here folks. I must say before we get away from this area of thought, that the Fire of Tribulation is not all that is in view here; It is a part of this, but only an "Outward Fire." There is another fire that must be burning even hotter within us than that which is burning on the outside; It is the Fire of God's Divine Nature.. "Our God is a CONSUMING FIRE (See Heb 12:29)." And what is it that He consumes?? Wood (Lust of the FLESH), Hay (Lust of the EYES), Stubble (Pride of LIFE [Soulish Life]- See 1 Cor 3:12-13, 1 Jn 2:16). God is refining us in the Furnace of the widows house. The widow is one who's "OLD MAN is DEAD (See Ro 6:6)."

One last "Stoke of the Furnace"

One last element must be introduced into this formula before the "Rain Maker" is ready to "Open the Heavens." He must be rejected by the very ones he is sent to deliver..

"And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him. And she said unto Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son (1 Ki 17:17-18)?

Can't you just hear old Elijah crying out.. "OH, LORD MY GOD!! What an awful thing to happen at a time like this!! After all the months of enduring famine, eating food brought by an UNCLEAN MINISTRY, and then living under the reproach of this community by dwelling alone in the same house with a WIDOW!! OH LORD, what can possibly happen NEXT??" These are major tests and trials we are looking at folks; Is anyone sure they want to be a "Rain Maker" still?? At this point, Elijah had nothing else to do but to do what he had been doing all along; Continue to trust in the GOODNESS of the LORD in the LAND of the LIVING!!

"And he said unto her, Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a loft, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed. And he cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, hast thou also brought evil upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by slaying her son? And he stretched (or, Measured) himself upon the child three times (30-60-100 Fold), and cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into him again. And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived. And Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother: and Elijah said, SEE (??), thy son liveth. And the woman said to Elijah, Now by this I KNOW that thou art a man of God, and that the WORD of the LORD in thy mouth is TRUTH (1 Ki 17:17-24)."

Even after the daily miracle of the flour and the oil not wasting, or diminishing in quantity, the widow said; "Now by THIS I KNOW that thou art a man of God, and that the WORD of the LORD in thy mouth is TRUTH (vs. 24)." She was ready to throw him out on his ear one minute, but because of the Power of Prayer, and of God's unbroken COVENANT with Elijah, the child was restored back to life as good as new, and she was ready to practically fall down and worship him!! People will never know for sure if you and your God are for real, until their most precious possessions are taken away, and then restored by the Power of GOD working in and through His DIVINE COVENANT.

We are coming now to the bottom line of what I have to say; I believe that God has some Prophets "Waiting in the wings" who are called into the same order, and who are getting prepared to operate in the same anointing (Spirit) as Elijah. This drought MUST be BROKEN; The Word of God will never bear any fruit unto perfection in people's lives without the outpouring of the Spirit of God upon it. Paul said; "I have PLANTED, Apollos WATERED; but God gave the INCREASE. So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but GOD that giveth the INCREASE (1 Cor 3:6-7)." Remember, that Paul was living in a day of one of the Greatest Outpourings of God's Spirit upon the EARLY CHURCH, and He recognized full well the deep need for this WATERING; Without it there could be NO INCREASE .of God in the Church. There is much good seed today rotting in the ground, drying up for lack of Spiritual moisture, and becoming no more than "Spiritual Birdseed!!" Beloved, all the good preaching in the world will not fix the problems we face presently in America and around the world; We need real, GENUINE, HOLY GHOST RAIN..

Now, for lack of time and space (I am a typical Preacher you know) I am going to Boil this all down to what I shared with a Prophetess the other day; "Whenever you see a group of Five-Fold Ministers come together in earnest prayer for God to DO SOMETHING in the West, it won't be long before a "Cloud like a man's HAND" begins to emerge (See 1 Ki 18:44)." I knew I was speaking with the authority of a Prophet of God, I believe this "Drought" will be broken in much the same manner as it was in the days of Elijah. The "Rain Making Prophets" have been, and are even now, being prepared for the task at hand. There are going to be some major showdowns along the way with false teachers and false religious leaders over some things; But do not fear, God will show Himself alive by MANY INFALLIBLE PROOFS and by STANDING for His COVENANT People.

Beloved, the Ravens may feed you, and a widow woman may supply your daily rations of bread and water, but God will always be there, and there will always be flour in the barrel, and oil in the jar.

Robert Burgess 5/2/2000

Robert Burgess
GreatEagle Ministries International
<http://members.tripod.com/greatleagle>
Dimensions of Truth~Kingdom Bible Studies
<http://www.geocities.com/dimensionsoftruth>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The Rains from Heaven

Roseanne G. Harney

I am seeing in a vision, an area of land that looks like farmland with rolling hills. I can see a man on a tractor pulling a flatbed. In the flatbed are bales of hay for livestock.

The land is very dry and there is a worried look on the farmer's face.

He is shaking his head and is very discouraged.

He is looking up towards the sky and muttering words of discontent.

I can hear him saying, How will he be able to produce the next crop without rain? How will he feed his family during the winter months?

I felt the Spirit of God speak to my heart, Many of my people are trusting in the things of this world. Letting their relationship with me go. The land that they are walking on is dry and barren.

In the past they worked seeking a Harvest. They offered up prayers to me and took the time before plowing to seek my revelation to accomplish my will for The Kingdom. During this time they were prosperous and they had my favor upon their lives. Their prayers were heard and their land was rich and their crops were plenty.

But in these last days they have looked to themselves and others to solve their problems. They have piled the hay up high, thinking that if they had enough provision they would be safe from the storms of life.

I tell you that those who walk in their own strength and wisdom the winds are coming. Rain will flood their dry parched land and all that they have acquired will be swept away.

But for those who diligently pray, seeking me, will find me and be given the direction that they need. My will for their lives will be seen in the land that I have given them-for the favor of the Lord is upon their lives and they are blessed.

For the rains from heaven, will not threaten the land and a Harvest will flourish. Their cisterns will overflow giving my people plenty of water to drink. For as they seek me, My Word will prosper unto them. Deut.28:1-14

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

Transition

Teresa M. Daly-Crews

Blessings!

I read a word given to Jim Weiss called "Gods calendar and transition" and it is right on! The Lord highlighted the need to watch the parallels 3 years ago and we have watched the changes with awe. For the past 30 days I have also heard the same word....transition. This year I believe we will see the greatest shifts in the spirit realm. They will manifest in the natural realm with swiftness and intensity.

It will be kind of like when you have a baby and go through transition. When labor begins it is called the latent phase. There is an excitement knowing something is about to change. As the labor progresses contractions become harder and stronger as the mothers body prepares for the passage of the infant. God created this process so that injury to the mother would be at a minimum. Time passes and the mother enters into the active phase. It seems like it will never be over and there is no use to anything. This seem to last forever. At this point the baby is making the most progress moving through the mothers birth canal. Contractions increase steadily and dilation continues in preparation for the birth. The final part of the first stage is known as TRANSITION. Full dilatation occurs at the end of this process. Anxiety tends to increases as the pain becomes more intense. Fear and sense of hopelessness surfaces and there is a decrease in ability to cope. Emotions of abandonment are prevalent and the need for support is vital. It is normal for the mother to vocalize anger and the inability to go any farther. The sensation of pressure is so great at the peak of contractions the mother may feel she will BURST. When transition is complete the baby crowns. At that point the mother becomes VERY SOBER and VIGILANT. She sees the top of her baby's head and knows that the whole painful process will soon be over. Then everything that she has been preparing for begins to come to pass.

This sure sounds like what we all have been going through! Praise God....the birth of HIS will does follow a process!!

In HIS Service,
Teresa M. Daly-Crews
Jahshalom@aol.com
www.jesusministries.com

Joel 2:11-18 "And the Lord shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible; and who can abide it? Therefore also now, saith the Lord, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: ... Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach..."

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

Transformations/Mapping

Karen Snyder

NOTES FROM MEETING ON SPIRITUAL MAPPING WITH GEORGE OTIS JR.

MAY 18, 2000----- Seattle, WA, USA----- BY KAREN SNYDER <jksnyder@worldspy.net> The very first people who came to the virgin lands of the USA were the people we know today as Native Americans. What were their covenants? Who did they worship? What heals hurts? Time? NO! Repentance heals and forgiveness heals. We cannot establish a habitation for the Lord without repentance. So, what happened in the Pacific Northwest 5000 years ago?

After the flood, God gave the people a second chance, a new beginning for the people but it didn't happen. The second judgment was at Babel. When the First Peoples came to America, they found this to be a virgin continent. There were no abortion clinics, no gay pride parades. They had a chance for a new beginning here. But the ambitions of God were not realized in this virgin land. Therefore, our role here today is to re-welcome the presence of God to the Pacific Northwest so God can fulfill His desires for this land. Regional transformations are happening in the Arctic between E. Siberia and the Baffin Islands, including Quebec and Alaska. So prepare for what is about to come! 70% conversion rates are being realized in the last three years. Many are Eskimo and other Native peoples. Baffin Is. (west of Greenland) is one of the first lands in North America that acknowledged Christians set foot, even before Plymouth Rock. Discovered in the 1960's, there were Christian symbols and other artifacts found dating back to 1000 AD. Seventy years ago, there was a prophesy about revival to come. And so about three years ago in Antioch, AK, a revival began.

There are three major and now one more newly discovered groups who came to America before Columbus. 1) Amarin, 2) Athabaskan, 3) Eskimo-Aliut, 4) Kennewick man. New information dates Kennewick man as 9300 years old and dating back to 7300 BC. He may have been here before the flood and was judged with everyone else or he came after the flood. Kennewick man does not seem to be Native American Indian nor is he of European descent. He may have possibly come from N. Japan by boat before others. Most later groups came down the Old Northern Trail which is the Rocky Mountains area. Their first homeland was S. Alberta, CANADA. S. Alberta is very significant. This is where they made covenants with gods and each other. People lingered there. And this has a direct bearing on our area. Salish people in our area were originally from the Blackfoot tribe which originated in S. Alberta. What did they worship? The Old N. Trail was a spiritual journey to them. The petroglyphs show us what happened in their churches thousands of years ago. There were trances, deities and rituals depicted. Some of the first peoples offended God by their covenants with false gods. They violated the first commandment. And so the presence of God was repelled by these people and the areas were replaced by demonic gods.

We must get to the root of the problem. It is not that He hasn't visited us but we want Him to come and stay and habitate with us. If that is to happen then we must get down to the root issues of the indigenous peoples. Ours are Native Americans, not all are in other nations. After the Native Americans came the immigrants from Europe and other nations. So there are layer after layer of civilizations and their sins and covenants we must deal with. We usually only deal with the capstone layer in our spiritual archeological excavations. But we must get down to the bottom layer, which is the Native Peoples. We may be living on an altar of offense here in the Pacific NW.

In the USA, there are three corridors or trails where first peoples came and settled. 1) Pacific NW, 2) Mississippi Valley 3) Atlantic area. In these areas there is more abortion, crime, prostitution, poverty, racists, cults and orphans than in other areas. We need discernment concerning the defiling of the land. Where there were altars of offense, the land has been defiled. The land stops serving the people. Instead the people serve the land. When these altars are torn down, God touches the people and the land and the land begins serving the people. There were also altars of honor where some Native Peoples were true prophets and intercessors. Some were called prophets and NOT Shamans. The Iroquois had some early John the Baptists who defiled the altars of offense and restored the altars of honor.

We each must identify with our own peoples and dismantle our layer, our altars of offense. We must come together and welcome God to come back. This is what has triggered major moves of God in the Arctic regions over the past three years.

We are now establishing "THE ANCIENT PATHWAY PROJECT" by establishing prayer walks through sites and doing the business that needs to be done for God. We are working on gateways, rally points, dealing with our past and welcoming God to come in. We will also be setting up monitoring teams to look for and report results.

You have heard of the floods in Mozambique and Zimbabwe. This is where the greatest amount of witch doctors in all of Africa live. There were recent prayer walks in Africa done by the native peoples. After that, the floods came to cleanse the land. The floods were judgment and also blessing to Africa. There were four shrines on a mountain all hit by lightening and burned up. The head witch doctor was also struck by lightening and killed. Spiritual witchcraft was obliterated. Now the church is growing and they are on the verge of revival.

COMMENTS BY JERRY SNYDER

As I was in the meeting with George Otis, I was impressed by some of the answers I believe I received to some questions I have had. Questions like, "Why is the NW so unchurched, more so than any other region of the US? Why does the NW have such a collection of New Age, White Supremacist, drug culture, neo-paganism .....ad naseum? Why in this region and not so in other areas"?

George Otis brought out the fact that like attracts like, spiritually speaking. Many times the history of a region sets the tone for that region. The sins of the early inhabitants create an environment where demonic activity feels at home. Over time, this turns into a stronghold. Time will not fix the problem. There is no statute of limitations on sin. The only thing that erases sin is repentance and application of the blood Jesus shed at Calvary.

In the Old Testament, we see Daniel repenting for the sins committed by his forefathers. (Daniel 9) It was after this identificational repentance that he received the vision of the 70 weeks and that Israel was allowed to return and rebuild Jerusalem. We also see many of the good kings of Judah who cleansed the temple and tore down the idols, yet in most cases the "High Places" were not torn down and the revival was short-lived.

George's comment was that it was like pulling weeds. If you just pull off the tops the weed grows back, but if you pull up the roots the problem is fixed. Archeologists find that many cities have been built upon the ruins of previous cities. Sometimes as many as 5 or 6 cities have been built in layers on the same spot. So it is with the sins of previous generations. This is borne out by some of the transformations that have happened in other countries and cities...notably Almolongo (sp?) When they really cleaned house, not only did the spiritual atmosphere change, but the land itself became more productive. God actually healed the land (2Chron 7:14)

There is a balance we must find. We can get crazy with this concept and wind up being flaky. Or we can do research and find out what we can about the history of our region AND its indigenous peoples and then stand in the gap and repent for them and ask for God's forgiveness and mercy. There are also some "sacred" sights that may need to be visited and torn down in the spirit (as Gideon did in the natural) or even rebuilt.

An example of this is the recent crusaders walk of reconciliation where Christians walked over the route of the crusades and repented to the local peoples for the sins committed against them by the crusaders. They eventually wound up in Ephesus and did a "Greater is Jesus of Nazareth" to repudiate what was done in the book of Acts.....("great is Diana of the Ephesians").

There is merit in this approach. We see this played out in reconciliation meetings, whites with blacks, whites with reds, whites with Hispanics...

(hmmm seems to be a consistent "white" thread here...) I believe we are being called to stand in the gap as Daniel did in repenting for the sins of his fathers and that if we will do this, then we may see a real spiritual breakthrough in our region.

Some will say...Why us? The answer is quite simple. IF NOT ME, THEN WHO, IF NOT NOW, THEN WHEN?

Somebody has to go first. Why not "Real Life International" (insert your church or ministry) .....thou mighty men of valor?! by Jerry Snyder May 20, 2000.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Real Thing

Cyndee Pillow

<iclight@tcac.net>

Once you have tasted the real thing, no substitute will satisfy your pallet. No one can fool you any longer. You have tasted the real nectar from above, and no longer will you be able to allow anything less than that pure honey to touch the appetite of your heart.

You look around and search with much diligence for the precious and unique that only comes from the master. There are many gems but all are only rhinestones. You pass it all over for the precious jewel called the Son Of God. His light out shines them all and only this jewel is able to reflect the light of the master and send it abroad to all that seek it out. This is the one you search for, and you will no longer settle for less.

You are anxious and fall prostrate, as you battle to wait upon the Lord. Anticipation grips your being, as you desire to spring forth into the glorious. You war with soul and spirit. Your longing turns to groans that come deep from within the belly. Eruptions of tears, and cries of yearning and longing for your lover, seem so inadequate.

You must behold him once again. Seeing Him manifest in the past has only caused you to desire Him like never before. As He tarries, you feel you will burst, but you calm yourself as you purposely choose to obey His voice that speaks softly, "Wait."

Suddenly, without warning, you are standing on a cliff overlooking the deep ocean of the Spirit of the Lord. He is urging you to jump and you behold the vastness, and for a moment the flesh almost wins over you. However, you choose that life, that could mean death in some new way, and you jump!!! Down down you go facing into the winds. The wind of the Spirit brush past you as you have made the leap for the deep. Engulfed in the waves you plunge. Deeper you go until you seem to loose all sense of time. You are buried in the Waves of the Spirit. Your flesh must die.

Your Lord seems to know that He must guide you in this place, so this is where he grabs your hand and gently pulls you to the surface when the flesh has surrendered to the Spirit that surrounds it. The wind of the Spirit will revive you again into a new cause. You have been renewed by the waves and now it is time. Now that you have tasted the real thing, it is time to go with the Lord through the waters of the Spirit to your destiny.

A WORD FROM THE LORD

"My child, I no longer call you a child, but a man. You have dared to jump into the unknown waters of your destiny with me. You have not allowed fear to stop you in that which I have called you to go and do for me. Even though you have looked many times over the cliff and drawn back, you will no longer draw back, as with this word I call you to liberty! You are liberated to do MY WILL. Not only to touch the hearts of man, but to TOUCH MY HEART! I desire you to touch me with your love, and dive deep into me. I will cause you to swim in my Spirit and not drowned. Have I brought you this far to allow that?

NO! I will revive you once again by my Sprit and breathe new life into all that will dare to jump into the unknown as I call them to do. So, go forth with new courage and know that I am the coach, I am the Life Savior, and I will uphold you in times of trouble. Go forth and allow the fire of my Spirit to burn away all debris that stand in your way, for I AM the Lord. The refreshing was not for you to bask but to be refreshed for the battle before you. I have equipped you. You know my love, you have tasted of the sweetness of the Lord. I call you to be a reservoir of my Spirit to refresh all that will open unto me to be filled. The thirsty cry for drink. I will fill their cup by my servants. Take your fill and give to all that are thirsty. I have fed you by the streams and now you must lead others to the nourishment of the Lord. This is my will and those that do this will never run out of oil. Their barrels will be filled. I am with you and my hand of blessing has been pronounce upon you. Go, and know I am with you even unto the ends of the earth."

"AND THEY THAT KNOW THY NAME WILL PUT THEIR TRUST IN THEE: FOR THOU, LORD, HAST NOT FORSAKEN THEM THAT SEEK THEE. SING PRAISE TO THE LORD, WHICH DWELLETH IN ZION: DECLARE AMONG THE PEOPLE HIS DOINGS." Psalms 8:10-11

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Remnant & Seedtime/Harvest time

Teresa Daly-Crews

In this vision I was standing in a very large church. Beside me stood Jesus Christ, my Lord. At first everything looked like a typical church. We stood upon the alter to the side of the preacher. The minister was very personified, and held the congregation by every word that he spoke. By his appearance you could see that he was very prosperous. He had a smile on his face that seemed almost inappropriate, deceptive like. Something was very wrong with his countenance, it was bright on the outside, almost mesmerizing. But on the inside it was very dark.

I looked out towards the congregation. They were joyous and engulfed in his presence. It looked almost like a conference for sales products. Intended to pump up the people to make the leaders more money. It didn't seem to matter what the minister was saying, they would cheer in agreement. They were elated just to be in his presence. It seemed that everyone was under his spell.

Then the Lord told me to look closer. I turned back to view the minister and instead of the glittery preacher in the pulpit, there stood a man-like creature. It was more like a skeleton, but out of every orifice of his body streamed snakes. They were writhing in and out of him. One thing still remained that was recognizable, that smile.

I looked back towards the congregation expecting them to be a horrified as I was. They were not. Instead their cheering had intensified. They had become more engrossed in the smooth words that he spoke. He fed into frenzy, and it increased with power.

I looked around the church and saw that the snakes were not only in this man. They were all over the church. Even wrapping themselves around the cross that was behind the preacher in the pulpit. I then noticed the stench. It was an odor that was putrid. I could barely breathe.

I looked at my Lord and He perceived my thoughts. I felt comfort replace the horror inside me. He assured me that all this must come to pass. He then told me to watch what was to happen next.

A fire came down from heaven. It first consumed the pulpit. I saw this professing man of God consumed by the fire. He melted under the heat. The snakes began to pour out of him looking for an escape. They could find none. The stench increased.

Then the fire came down as Glory upon the congregation. It fell like rain in unending streams, filled with a brightness that is indescribable. It was blinding to all that were present. It began to overflow the sanctuary. Snakes began to rush from every direction. Looking for an escape. There was none.

Then what happened next was the most wonderful thing that I witnessed. As the snakes were in a frantic confusion beneath the Glory cloud, a handful of people began to rise above the cloud. They were wearing white linen, singing praises of God. Tremendous joy filled them as they rejoiced. They knew that the victory had been won.

Then my Lord said unto me. This is my remnant

SEEDTIME/HARVEST TIME

As the vision began I was standing in an open field. The land was barren and bleak. Before me appeared silos. An innumerable amount of them were lined up right to left for as far as I could see. The silos were full to capacity, overflowing with ripened wheat seed. No one seemed interested in planting the seed. More and more seed kept coming into the storehouse. Nothing was being done to prepare crops for harvest. It had past the time for the planting. The amount that was spilling onto the ground was alarming. I could see that much of it had already begun to spoil, and was ridden with mold. It was apparent that the see had long past the planting time. A harvest would not occur without a supernatural occurrence.

Then suddenly the ground began to quake. What was barren fallow ground only moments before, became plowed, fertile soil ready for planting. Brightness was the only thing that could be seen. The silos exploded and the seed was strewn out. It flew as far as the horizon. it was amazing watching the seed fly through the air. It then, with no human help imbedded itself into the ground. Bright clouds came and began to rain a golden iridescent liquid upon the field. Then just as quickly as the seed was planted, it miraculously flew into a fully- harvestable crop.

Then with swiftness the harvest occurred. It was not done by the hand of man, but by the hand of God. No human being could take credit for the glorious manifestation of see-time and harvest-time.

In HIS Service,
Teresa Daly-Crews
www.jesusrministries.com
JahShalom@aol.com

[Joel 2:11-18] And the Lord shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible; and who can abide it? Therefore also now, saith the Lord, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: .....

Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach...."

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Revolving Door

Mary (Koons) Wattenford

While in prayer last night, I saw the Lord standing beside a revolving door that was constantly filling up with people entering in by His side, and then going inside the building, but not stepping OUT of the door...Consequently, they were exiting back out the revolving door after having only been inside it for a few moments. Then, they would wait in line to "enter" the door again, and AGAIN - the same thing would happen: they would exit out - without stepping INSIDE THE BUILDING that the door gave entrance too....

And the Lord said:

My Word said not to grow faint and weary and you will see the Hand of your God! What you are seeing is how My people SAY "they are walking in FAITH!" They weary themselves and grow faint from their constant jostling to "enter into faith," - but rather than "step out" and MOVE IN WHAT THEY DON'T SEE - they choose to "exit" the whole thing! What kind of faith does it take for one to say they have FAITH - in WHAT THEY CAN SEE? How does it honor My Father in Heaven, when My children prefer to "hurry in" to His Presence, and then make a "hasty" retreat rather than STANDING ON MY WORD - which says, "ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE TO THOSE WHO BELIEVE!"

This door swings round and round - and so do the actions of most who consider themselves GIANTS IN THE FAITH. They swing back and forth as their immediate circumstances indicate and if left to see if their faith can be stretched to TRULY see the mighty Hand of their God move - they would rather forget the whole thing. It's not pleasant making a hundred trips a day through a revolving door - but it's even LESS PLEASANT for Me when you don't have the FAITH to "step OUT" of it and believe MY PROMISES! Can My children look upward - when they're so concerned by just "getting through" a doorway! And when they DO attempt to "enter in," most will seek to just "follow the person ahead of them," - and if that one should "exit," - as these all are, they will do the same.

Abraham's faith was counted to him as righteousness! WHY? Because he had faith that the "promised child" would come forth - even when physically he was incapable of it. Although most would say that Abraham was an exception - I say unto you that ANY who "STEP OUT" and "BELIEVE" what GOD has told them - is as he! It takes no "effort" to claim to "walk in faith," if all you have before you is a "revolving door," that can take you right back where you came from without making any difference - or having any battle. But if My children - who are called by My Name, wish to GROW and MATURE in ME - then, they MUST "step out" of those revolving "doors" - where they have become comfortable and at ease, and BOLDLY PLACE THEIR PETITION BEFORE MY FATHER WHO IS IN HEAVEN - and HE WILL HONOR THEIR FAITH. For though the "tests and trials" may come because they have decided to come against the enemy who will try to plant "fear" - I say unto YOU - that NOTHING will be refused those who BELIEVE and are WILLING TO COUNT ANY COST FOR VICTORY! No greater love hath a man than this - that he lay down his life for his brother! Am I NOT your example? Are you not being changed into My likeness, moment by moment? Faith is not a "should have," it's a MUST HAVE! If you do not have "faith" in the little things NOW, how will you stand in the days ahead? For in the coming days - there will be no more "revolving" doors which you can enter and exit as you will, but you will be required to move in FAITH that can "move those mountains" ahead of you to survive! Don't seek to be found - "wandering through aimlessly.....

" PREPARE MY CHILDREN! SEEK MY FACE.....LOOK FOR MY HAND.....and FIGHT THE GOOD FIGHT OF FAITH!

And let us not lose heart and grow weary and faint in acting nobly and doing right, for in due time and at the appointed season we shall reap, if we do not loosen and relax our courage and faint. (Galatians 6:9)

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Right Hope

Jo Spangler

Paul says that there is only the “one hope”, Ephesians 4:” 4There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling.” If we are not fixed on that “one hope” we are building on the wrong foundation and headed in the wrong direction. I believe that one of the wrong teachings of the present church system surrounds the identification of this “one hope”. If we are instilling the wrong hope in Christians then we cannot expect to see growth, diligence, passion for Jesus, faith or any development that results from hoping on the “one hope”. And this indeed is what we see in the church as a whole today.

A dear friend and I traveled recently together to an apostolic gathering where much good teaching and impartation was given. On the plane ride out there we were discussing the effects of having our minds renewed by Christ. We concluded that when the Lord in His mercy brings a stronghold of wrong thinking down it causes a domino effect for every other thought in your head. You have to rethink everything in the light of the truth.

At the conference this very idea was mentioned in one of the sessions. I knew that for the idea to surface twice was significant. On the plane trip back home, having listened and participated for 2 days and 2 nights, I decided to pick up the Bible and see if I could detect, already, any change of thinking. I had packed my bible in my suitcase but my dear friend had brought along a slim line copy of KJV in her purse and offered it to me. It is not the version I usually read.

I started in Romans and was paying close attention to each verse but I really did not run across anything until Chapter 8 verse 24: “..we are saved by hope....” -just that part of the phrase stuck in my head. I knew that it did not read that way in my version. I kept on reading. When I got to Romans 10:9 and Romans 10:13, I read, “For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved”. And my life changed forever. In that moment I saw something so clearly that I grabbed my friend’s arm and said “look at this, look at this!!”. Of course, she saw it as the old standby verses in so many step programs and just asked what in the world was I talking about.

The Lord had shown me what Romans 10:13 really says. It is not stating the method of salvation, i.e., it is not describing how you get saved. It is an assurance from the Lord that if you call upon Him, He will save you. This verse does not tell you how, when, where, etc. you will be saved, that is left to the Lord. It simply assures you that if you call on Him, He will do it. He is asking that we trust Him to do what He says He will do. By interpreting Romans 10:13 to read as a method of salvation many people have been led to believe that they are saved by repeating a few words and being baptized when, in actuality, they are not. If we understand the verse to be an assurance by the Lord, then what is the true process by which we are saved? This is the correct question since the scriptures tell us over and over that salvation must be worked out, the race run, that we go from glory to glory, faith to faith-all of which indicate a process. (I am not disregarding the grace of God here. I believe that everything we receive no matter the way we receive it is a result of the grace of God. Also, I am referring to soul salvation here.)

I was then reminded of the verse in Chapter 8. “...we are saved by hope...” and I realized what the Lord was trying to get me to see. What hope saves us? Christ in us-the hope of glory is the hope that saves. It is the hope of 1John 3.3 which says “everyone who has this hope in him purifies himself, just as He is pure (notice that is a process). It is the hope of 2 Cor 3.12 which states that with such a hope we act with great boldness, in our confidence that when this glory that is promised comes, it will not go away (another process). It is the hope of Hebrews 6.11-12, which states we must be diligent and not become sluggish in order to realize the hope (another process).

Again, what hope is it? Christ in us- the hope of glory- the hope of the glory coming in us just as He promised. The hope that what God said is really true. We will be the image of Christ, we will be like Him. The Christ anointing will rise up in God's people and they will become the sons of God even as Jesus was.

Now, if we must have "the hope" in us in order to be saved where does that leave most self-professing Christians? Most Christians cannot even believe that they will ever resemble Christ, much less do works greater than Him. They have no hope of seeing anything on this side of heaven changing. The church system, by focusing on verses such as Romans 10.13 as a salvation method, has failed to lead people to true salvation through instilling the great hope in them. Paul says he was imprisoned for that hope, and that there is only "the one hope of your calling". And Hebrews adds that we are God's house if we hold firm the confidence and the pride that belong to hope. (Heb 3.6) If you don't have that hope how can you have confidence and pride in God's promise and how can you be God's house?

Without the hope there is little motivation to walk in faith. To walk in faith one must have determination that comes from a real assurance that promises will be kept. To hope means you cannot see, for you cannot hope for that which is already seen. So true Christians must hope in what the Lord has promised and they must act on that hope by conforming their lives to Jesus' role model. They must so totally believe in the hope that Christ is coming in them to glorify them and to be glorified in them that they will stop at nothing to get their lives ready for His coming. They must believe that it could happen soon and they must live in the momentary expectation of it happening. This is how God wants us to live--in the expectation that Jesus could come in His saints at any time. (Notice this hope is for Christ coming in the saints not coming for them.)

What the church system has done even when it manages to convey the right hope (Christ in us) is to put off the coming of Christ until one dies and goes to heaven or is raptured to some unknown place. But what does the scripture say about putting off hope? Proverbs 13.12: "Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life." How many Christians do you know that are sick at heart? Jesus never intended that we teach the people to put off their hope. Jesus is Lord NOW and His promises are for NOW. That is what we must teach. His revelation in the last days is correcting this idea of going to heaven to receive the promises of God. Jesus said the kingdom of heaven is nigh unto us and that means today and every day on this earth. When the people have this "one hope" treasured in their hearts then we will see a great turning to the Lord for He says that this hope produces purification. Only the hope will produce the purification, which explains why the church system has so failed at restoring the people's lives to God's ways.

But what does the end of Proverbs 13.12 say? "When desire comes, it is a tree of life" (KJV) and "a wish come true is a tree of Life" (REB). When our hearts are fixed on the one hope we begin to see our lives transformed from glory to glory, we see the promises of the Lord coming true in our daily lives. This builds our confidence and faith in Jesus and gives us the grace and mercy to continue on our journey without discouragement or murmuring. We are eating from the Tree of Life.

Let us proclaim the "one hope" as we have proclaimed "the One Spirit, the One Lord". Only this hope will lead us to true salvation, Christ in us, the Hope of Glory.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Right Fields

Steve Shultz and John L Moore

Two Words About Harvesting

Note from Steve Shultz, THE ELIJAH LIST <http://www.elijahlist.com>

Here are two words about generally the same thing. I have been wanting to write out this word for weeks, and when John Moore submitted this word, it goes right along with what the Lord has been showing me. So, to be faithful to the Word from the Lord, I am publishing both words--which seem to speak along the same lines.

#1

THE HARVEST YOU ARE CALLED TO MAY NOT BE ON YOUR "OWN" FIELD A Word through Steve Shultz Steve's email: steve@elijahlist.com www.elijahlist.com

We live on a small but beautiful hillside, though we don't own the house or the land. My family and I are surrounded by hundreds of acres of beautiful grass. It's a grass seed farm. In fact, much of the area around this part of Oregon is farmed for grass seed. Many of the farmers are faithful Mennonite farmers who have been here for decades.

TIME TO GATHER THE SEED

As summer arrived a few weeks ago, the harvest was ripe. Time to gather the seed for others to plant. Sounds like the Lord's Harvest, doesn't it?

Rick Joyner, a prophetic voice to the church speaks of a harvest coming which will be so huge, many will think it to be the final harvest, yet this huge harvest will only be the seed of newly saved laborers who will eventually bring in the final harvest.

Since our house is surrounded by these grass fields, which are not our own--- one night, at just the right time-- the combines showed up and began the work of the harvest--suddenly and without notice. Right up to our house they came, passing by close to the midnight hour. Once these farmers start the harvest, they work 12-16 hours a day, often using younger members of the household to drive these huge machines. Spiritual analogies abound here, of course.

When it's time, IT'S TIME!

As we turned in for the night, we could see four to five combines coming close to our back yard with bright headlights showing them the way. Modern equipment allows for work late into the night--and even all night, if necessary.

In the morning, the harvest on all sides of our house was completed. Yet our family of five had a great night of peaceful sleep while this harvest around us had been gathered. With a fan blowing to drown out the sound, we had no disturbance to our rest. And we had no guilty conscience that we should be out working in THAT FIELD--because it wasn't our harvest field, even though it was all around us.

HARVEST YOUR OWN FIELD--NO MATTER WHERE THAT FIELD IS LOCATED

My harvest field, both spiritually and physically, has been recently for the most part, the various ministries of THE ELIJAH LIST. I'm able to minister all around the world from way out here in the middle of nowhere.

Don't misunderstand me though. I have local projects--people I'm "watering" and tending to. But for the most part, my harvest field is often over the phone lines to the "utter parts of the world." That's even how I earn my living as well.

My neighbors earn their living through harvesting what appears to be my field--but it's not my field at all.

The Lord began to speak to me through this "natural" lesson--as He often does.

THOUGH OTHERS ARE CONVENTIONAL, GOD MAY CALL YOU TO A DIFFERENT FIELD

Voices all around you and I can make one feel "guilty" if we are not taking part in the harvest in the "traditional" or "conventional" way. I'm blessed not to be experiencing that kind of guilt in my life right now, but for much of my life, I did experience it, as have many of you have---am I right?

God has assigned each of you a harvest field but it may not be what is right in front of your eyes. It might be over the hills or through the woods, on the internet, the telephone, or simply at work--every day. Or it may in fact be right IN your own home. There are mothers whose harvest field cannot be more important than the field of their children's lives--raising them to follow Jesus. Some mothers with new or large families find themselves devoted to nearly 24-hour care and nurturing of their young "upstarts." Raising children to love the Lord, while interceding for others is as important a harvest field as a harvest field gets.

THE HARDEST PART OF THE HARVEST

Here's what the Lord said was the hardest part of the Harvest. Watch closely:

===== John 4:36-38 Even now the reaper draws his wages, even now he harvests the crop for eternal life, so that the sower AND the reaper may be glad TOGETHER. Thus the saying 'One sows and another reaps' is true. I sent you to reap what you have not worked for. Others have done the HARD WORK, and you have reaped the benefits of their labor." =====

You may have worked all your life and never been able to lead one person to the Lord. But you've sown seeds, ministered to, befriended, and loved the unsaved, the unlovely, and the unlikely. One day, when you least expect it, someone may, or someone has, or someone will-- come along and suddenly "harvest" that person for the Kingdom--and you may not appear to "get credit" for it.

But you know what? Jesus HIMSELF said that the sowing was the HARD WORK (read the Scripture above again if you missed it), and if someone comes along and reaps where YOU have sown, YOU DID THE HARD WORK, and by inference, what they did was easier in comparison to your long-term sacrifice of time, energy, and resources on behalf of "the sowing."

SOWING AND NURTURING IS PART OF THE HARVEST--AND IT'S HARDER

So . . . Look to whatever field the Lord has given you. The HARVEST has two parts--sowing and reaping. Sowing is the harder work. If you are sowing---and if you are doing it faithfully in the field you have been called to--then don't worry if harvesting is happening all around you. Sleep guilt-free and in peace. They are harvesting what they have been called to harvest.

If you are one that harvests wherever you go, God has gifted you immensely. But remember this, you are often reaping where others have sowed. That means you must remain humble in your harvesting, knowing full-well that if others had not spent great amounts of love in the sowing, you would not now be reaping. And after you reap, still others will clean, heal, teach, and restore what you have harvested. So again, harvesters, STAY HUMBLE.

As Jesus said, "...so that the sower AND the reaper may be glad TOGETHER."

Just ask the Lord to have you sow or reap where YOU are called to sow or reap. And then, if others are harvesting their own crops right up to your back door, you can still sleep peacefully and guilt-free while they labor.

FIELD OF STONES

John L. Moore

July 28, 2000

Many are weary for they have labored removing stones from the fields they were never assigned to, and exhausted, they are tempted to fall asleep now during the time of Harvest. The Lord would say, "Arouse yourself and look around. There is a field over the hill that has been rightly prepared for you.

The time of harvest is a time of entering in and redeeming and honoring the times of those who went before you.

LATER ARRIVERS GET PAID THE SAME

The time of harvest is to reap where you have not sown and experience the reward of those who have arrived late to labor but share in the full reward.

BEWARE THE FIELD OF STONES

Beware the field of stones. This is the land of hardened hearts and the Lord Himself will deal with this earth. Cross over into the prepared field, the one staked for you, measured by His hand and allotted as the land of your anointing. Even the rows are measured according to each harvester's pace. There is joy in this field, not burden. Lay down the false burden before it lays you down for it is a rock of stumbling, a stone of offense.

John L. Moore jlmoore@mcn.net
<http://www.johnlmoore.com>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Righteous Judge

Mary (Koons) Wattenford

A cross is made of two pieces of intersecting wood.....it appears almost "innocent" in its simplicity, but what transpired on these crosses was the most barbarous death known to man - reserved for those convicted of "HIGH TREASON." My voice calls out to you this day to meditate on MY CROSS and what was purchased for mankind because of it. Do you not seek to know the sacrifice that I AM made to reconcile My creation to Myself? Cruel nails tore through flesh and tendon - bone and tissue. Splinters tore into already torn and bleeding flesh. Thorns pushed in so deeply that the skull itself was penetrated. All of this - because I CHOOSE to come and regain what the "first Adam" lost. All of this - because I CHOOSE "LOVE," above personal sacrifice and self. All of this - because I CHOOSE "MERCY" upon a creation that looks upon "LOVE AND MERCY" as a weakness instead of recognizing the STRENGTH required to walk in it - even to death, death on a cross.

The "perfect" sacrifice, the "perfect" lamb.....Perfection given to redeem mankind to Myself - perfection walking upon HIS creation, showing LOVE to a lost and hurting world. A cross is two intersecting pieces of wood - "innocent" appearing, but a SIGN to MANY of what I AM accomplished to passover and forget the sins those who CHOOSE to accept My sacrifice and forgiveness. If I - the creator of the Heavens and the Earth - CHOOSE to "forgive" and to remember NO MORE the sins of those who come UNTO ME - who are YOU O MAN - to bring them back to mind? Who are YOU O MAN to condemn others - to judge others by your own yardstick of right and wrong? Have you been so cruelly used - that you feel you are CAPABLE and QUALIFIED to so judge others? I AM THE RIGHTEOUS JUDGE - for I alone walked a sinless life - and gave it up freely in obedience to the FATHER - to redeem those who were unable to redeem themselves. WHO PROMOTES AND WHO TEARS DOWN? WHO IS IT the said unto the Heavens - "LET THERE BE LIGHT!" WHO IS IT that moved upon the dark seas and called forth LIFE from its depths? AND WHO ARE YOU, O MAN - to ignore your own failings - but look in "smugness" at the failings of others? Have you forgotten the "log" that covers your blurred vision? Who are YOU O MAN - to cling to the MY CROSS and MY SACRIFICE - but REFUSE to "let go" of "perceived" sins of your brothers and sisters? Do you not know that such an attitude NULLIFIES MY SACRIFICE? MY DEATH?

I ROSE AGAIN - and those who "forgive" and REMEMBER NOT the trespasses committed against them are THE TRUE SONS OF ABRAHAM, ISSAC AND JACOB.....MY TRUE CHILDREN and co-heirs in MY COMING REIGN. Forgive and you WILL BE FORGIVEN.....

JUDGE AND YOU WILL BE JUDGED

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Rock of Offense

Doug Patterson

Aug. 18/00

Many of My people have walked out on the pathway of life, the road of salvation, the road of peace. Sometimes they are approached by other brothers and sisters in the Lord, who carry a rock of offense. They approach you and suggest that you assist them in handling and managing this rock. As you try to be sensitive, perhaps you touch it yourself. Once engaged in conversation this rock will fall and land at your feet, causing you to stumble and trip you up on the pathway. It takes away your mobility. The benefits of this rock of offense are none. Yet, once you have received it from your friend, it lodges, blocks you and you stumble on your walk.

Others observe from a distance that you have received a rock of offense. Apparently they have some themselves and are eager to share their rocks with you. Suddenly you are approached by many people, all extending their arms forward and holding their rocks asking, "Will you touch this, will you share this burden with me?" Unknowingly perhaps you touch a few more. Suddenly they fall to the ground and begin to build a wall of isolation, a place that limits your movement and certainly stops you from going forward in the Lord. What value do they have? There is none.

Be careful when people come and brings their offense. Guard your heart that you do not touch it nor receive any of your own. Encourage your friends to lift that rock towards heaven and hold it straight up and call on My name. Apply forgiveness, grace and mercy. Be in prayer. A sincere petition will cause me to extend my hand down and I will take that rock of offense and crush it with My fingers. It will turn to dust and blow away allowing you freedom to move. The weight that holds you back will lifted away from you.

Be careful not to be entrapped with any offense. Either climb over those rocks or go around them, but be careful to walk in the freedom and the liberty to which you were called. For as you deal with these areas of offense according to what My word declares, you will maneuver through life in the joy and peace of the Lord.

Intercessors For Jesus Ministries

P.O. Box 172

Fergus, Ontario

N1M 1N0

Now He who searches the heart knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God. Romans 8:27 - NKJ

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Reflection Of Christ

Mark Kaphaem

We all have many mirrors that we look into daily.

There is the mirror of societal norms,
The mirror of expectations,
The mirror of tradition,
The mirror of acceptance,
The mirror of comparison,
The mirror of success

The reflection from these mirrors defines how we see ourselves, how we measure ourselves. The reflections also often determine our actions and makes up our goals and dreams in this life.

Now you see through a mirror dimly. If your desire is to see yourself clearly in the reflection of Christ leave these mirrors behind. Do not look to them for vision. Do not allow them to shape your life.

The Lord is coming to us in this time. He is setting His mirror in front of us. Do not turn away. Allow His reflection to burn the others away. Allow His gaze to break through these other mirrors. For with these mirrors the cruse comes by leaving them stand, not by breaking them.

Do not turn away in this time. To turn away is to be overcome with shame and condemnation. To turn away is blindness and loss of hope. There is time, turn your gaze intently into the eyes of Christ. Come fully into His light. It is only here that you will truly see yourself and receive the hope and vision you need to carry you through this time.

May the Lord grant you courage as you seek Him.

Mark Kaphaem

<http://www.angelfire.com/journal/prophetic/>

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Revelation Of Jesus Christ

Doug Fortune

“This is the REVELATION of Jesus Christ...”(Rev.1:1) The word revelation in Greek is apokalupsis, meaning disclosure, appearing, coming, lighten, manifestation; it is from the word apokalupto which means to take off the cover, to disclose! I believe that it is the very heart of Christ to REVEAL Himself. Consider even His name, the Word of God (Rev.19:13)... a word REVEALS the heart, the intents and purposes of an individual; out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks. Yes, even His name demonstrates His heart to REVEAL Himself.

As one who operates in a prophetic gifting, I used to think that revelation was that thing that happens like a light bulb coming on, suddenly you see or know something you didn't know before. It is being REVEALED to me now however, that the 'light bulb' experience is only the very beginning of revelation. You see, the true REVEALation of Jesus Christ is Christ REVEALing Himself IN us and THROUGH us. This book of the Revelation is not just a series of hidden mysteries wrapped up in symbolism to keep us guessing what to expect... rather, it is the systematic REVEALING of Christ in the earth... the story of that rock of revelation upon which Jesus told Peter He would build His Church, growing into a great mountain that fills the earth with the knowledge or REVEALation of Christ (Dan.2:35). It is the REVELATION of Jesus Christ SIGNified (conveyed in SIGNS and symbols, metaphors) to us concerning the appearing, the coming, the manifestation of Christ in the earth. We are even shown in this very first chapter where to look for His appearing, for it seems that true to His name (the Word of God), He was speaking His purpose, “...I am Alpha and Omega, the First and the Last...” (Rev.1:11). John turned to see where the Voice came from (sometimes we have to turn from our present position to actually see where the Voice is!), “...and ON TURNING, I saw seven golden Lampstands...”(verse 12). Now we know from verse 20 that the Lampstands are the Churches. I believe that the Voice came not only from, “...One like a Son of Man...” in the MIDST of the Lampstands, but rather as a collective voice of the Lampstand as the One like a Son of Man spoke through the Lampstands. Why do I say this?... because verse 15 says “...His voice was like the sound of many waters...”, and waters/ seas are symbolic of people (Rev.17:15). WE are the voice of Christ in the earth as He speaks THROUGH us!

Also we must keep in mind that when John speaks of seven golden Lampstands (this would have been obvious to the readers of his day), his symbolic reference was to the Golden Lampstand of Zech.4 and the Golden Lampstand of the Tabernacle. Exodus 25:31-37 tells us that this Lampstand was actually seven lamps in one Lampstand... I believe this is what John was seeing, not seven separate Lampstands. Ex.25:32 says "...Six branches shall come out of the sides of it..."; keep in mind that six is the symbolic number of MAN and Jesus said "...you are the branches...". There was to be a seventh lamp on the shaft in the midst of the branches... keep in mind that seven is the symbolic number of completeness or perfection and the Son of Man, Christ was in the MIDST of the Lampstands. Eph.4:12-13 speaks of this, "His intention was the PERFECTING and full equipping of the saints.. unto the PERFECT MAN...". Of utmost importance is the fact that, "...its base and its shaft, its cups, its knobs, its flowers (the branches) shall be OF ONE PIECE..."(verse 31); the entire Lampstand was to be of ONE PIECE of gold (gold is symbolic of divine nature). The Branches are of the same divine nature (gold) as the Shaft in the midst... they were ONE with the Shaft. Jesus prayed to the Father in John 17:21-23, "...that they also may be ONE IN US... that they may be ONE even AS WE ARE ONE: I in them and You in Me in order that they may be ONE...". So the picture we have here is NOT a separate Christ in the middle of separate Lampstands, but rather ONE Golden Lampstand expressed in sevenfold completeness; six Branches representing MAN, the seventh SHAFT representing Christ in the midst of the Lampstand, the Branches and Shaft all of the same (gold) divine nature. "And you are IN Him... you too are filled with the Godhead: Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and reach full spiritual stature..."(Col.2:10). I believe this is a picture of the Perfect Man spoken of in Eph.4:13 of which WE are the Body and Christ is the Head "...that in all things HE may have the preeminence...". "When Christ Who IS OUR LIFE appears, then YOU ALSO will APPEAR with Him in the splendor of His glory..."(Col.3:4). Let us earnestly desire His appearing! Let His Voice, speaking words of Light and Life, go forth in the earth through His Lampstand proclaiming that He is indeed "...Alpha and Omega, the First and the Last..."! Didn't Jesus say "...YOU are the Light of the World... A city set on a hill cannot be hid. Nor do men light a lamp and put it under a bushel, but on a LAMPSTAND, and it gives Light to all in the house. Let your Light so shine before men..."(Matt. 5:14-16).

THIS is the REVEALation of Jesus Christ!... Christ APPEARING in the MIDST OF the Lampstand, shining forth His glory, His Light, His Voice speaking words of Light and Life! Let the REVEALation of Christ fill the earth!

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Rose of Sharon

Doug Patterson

July 4, 2000 I have asked you individually to come forward, draw close to seek My face, to know Me and to listen to the sound of My heart beating. For as your ear hears the beat of My heart, it matches the beat of yours. We are to march together, laugh together, and cry together. You are My precious ones.

You have come up the mountain and received instruction, have sought My face and found Me. You have learned and known My ways. Yes, I have asked you to even go back down the mountain to be planted. I have placed you as a seed into the ground. At times you have felt isolated and alone but I have always been there with you. I have brought nutrition, nourishment to you. I have watered you, covered you and protected you. It has been these years that the root system has gone down so deep. Realize that I have planted you and you have grown.

Now you flower and you create and release a fragrance of peace, joy and tranquility in the Holy Spirit. You are resting in me, waiting for new instructions. As you look around you distinctly observe it is a bit of a dry place. My children you see correctly. For some have been planted at the base of the mountain of the Lord. I will keep My eye upon you.

A hothouse, a gardening center will cause you to grow into the potential and the beauty that I the Creator want to see brought forth in you. You are like roses in the desert. Although it has been dry and sandy, you have overcome the conditions and have matured, blossomed into a fresh call, newness of vision. Now My promises will be fulfilled, for I am sending one to pick, uproot you and transplant you into the promised land, the promised soil.

So prepare yourselves for a move, My precious roses in the desert. For the one who will transplant you, will continue to minister to you and cover you in His anointing, His name, the Rose of Sharon.

Intercessors For Jesus Ministries
P.O. Box 172
Fergus, Ontario
N1M 1N0

Now He who searches the heart knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God. Romans 8:27

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of
End Time Prophetic Vision

The River and the Tributaries

Becky McLendon

It appears that the way things are set up in post - Apostolic Christendom is askew. You see, God's agenda is like a mighty river flowing. It has a beginning (Alpha) and an ending (omega). The many "local churches" all over the world are like tributaries on either side of the river. These "local churches," which are the community of believers in a city or region, are divided up by many little streams: The First Church, the Second Church, the 4th Street Church etc. buildings. Now, in the natural, the streams flow into the tributaries which flow into the river itself. When streams dry up and do not flow into the tributaries, the tributaries dry up enough to get "blocked off" from the river and become dead and stagnant. Christendom as it is today is like this.

We hear people talking about the "River of God". We joke about getting drunk in the river, dancing in the river, swimming occasionally in the river. But never REMAINING IN THE RIVER and flowing with it. Invariably the river dancers to back to their tributary and then back into their little stream. Something is amiss and the tributary dries up, stagnating. Something has cut that community of believers off from the RIVER. What is wrong here? THINKING!!!!

You see, we have this mind set: "OH YES LORD we want your river to flow through OUR STREAM. come to our STREAM and flow through it. Then all the other streams in our tributary will see and other tributaries will see that YOUR RIVER flows through US and they will want to come here too!!! The river will be diverted through US." This is what has blocked the streams and then the tributaries off.

Oh some have taken a really good frolic in the River and have drunk deeply of its waters...They have lassoed it and have tried to drag it completely back to their STREAM so they can impact their TRIBUTARY. Singing COME TO THE RIVER won't work in a stream!!! We are in actuality singing come to OUR STREAM and be blessed. Should be " Let's GO JUMP INTO THE RIVER" and stay there.

Many now believe the river is only at certain streams and if only they can get THERE they can get into the River of God. But the Lord says GET IT RIGHT!

The streams must flow WITH THE TRIBUTARY (THE individual congregations of Believers must flow together as the LOCAL COMMUNITY OF BELIEVERS) INTO the RIVER of GOD and STAY THERE...They must flow into MY RIVER and become ONE with me. Until there will be stagnation and fragmentation, EVEN if you appear to be blessed.

So if we are going to truly experience the flow of God, we are going to get into the flow and not ask the flow to take a side trip through us so we can have it to ourselves and expect all other to come to us.

Splash splash!!!! AMEN

Becky (Wayfarer)

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The River is Turning

Chad Taylor

"Behold I will do a new thing, now it shall spring forth, shall you not know it? I will even make a road in the wilderness and rivers in the desert..." (Isaiah 43:19).

I had a vision of a great river. Like the one that was seen in Ezekiel chp. 47. There stood men measuring and judging the depths of the river. Intently measuring the flow and speed of the rushing current. Then I saw many begin to build levees and dams to prevent flooding. Frantically attempting to keep the river in its perimeters and banks. Sand bags and rocks were being used as make shift walls and levees to hold the river back. Then I heard the voice of the Lord say,

'For the time has come says the Lord that the river will turn. It will swell and break her banks, no longer will it be a thing measured and judged by mere depth or width. This river will turn from its present course and flood the land. For many desire to keep this river within the perimeters and boundaries of their own understanding. Building and plotting its length and depth. Measuring and determining its course. Now is the hour that this river will break out on your right hand and on your left. It will defy every human effort to contain it. Every futile plan to plot its course and measure its depths. Now is the time this river must break the banks and flood the land!'

Suddenly in this vision this river swelled beyond the confines of human configurations and swept the rocks and barriers away. A torrent of water began to fill the valleys and canyons, the dry deserted places that the levee builders refused to let the water flow. The dark places, places that seemed like nothing would grow or produce. Unfertile and without any visual quality or abundance. In these very places the river now flooded and flowed. Then the voice of the Lord said,

'In these deserted fields overlooked by human reasoning is a great treasure. A pearl of great price. There in these places will a great harvest occur. In the forgotten places will an army now arise. They will be moved by this great river, they will be carried away into My glory and presence only to emerge from its depths with a revelation. Transfigured from the image of their previous selves. Changed into My image from glory to glory. No human effort to contain or corral this river will succeed. Only the ones that release it and allow it to flow where it must will reap the benefits.'

Then I beheld a wonder. In these deserted and dry places suddenly sprung up gardens of abundance and fruitfulness. I saw millions working these fields of abundance with glory and joy. True harvest had visited the land.

The river was flowing into every valley and crevice, filling the earth with the knowledge of the glory of God. In every place was the fruit of this river. Human lives redeemed and saved from the famine of religion and human reasoning. Unlike former revivals and awakening, this time the Spirit of the Lord refused to allow the river to be regulated and controlled. All manner of human invention and manipulation was spoiled. Any effort to build around the river and contain it was washed away. The river had broke the banks and had flooded the land!

'For this is the hour I will teach My church to flow with the river. To ride the waves of My glory into the land and thus out of their bellies will flow rivers of living water. I will teach My people to move with the river, to go where it desires to go instead of making it go where they desire for it to flow. I will give them My heart and mind. They will be gate keepers that OPEN the gates that the King of Glory can come in. I will change the heart of Jonah in them that refuse to see the land changed and repent. I will dry up the gourd that hangs over the churches head in this hour. They will love the people and the land more than they love a movement or manifestation.'

In this vision I saw the great river of the present move of God turning. No longer was the church building at its headwaters. But rather the desert and the street was the mouth of this great river of revival. It was no longer dictated by human hands but by the hand of God. All restraint and hindrance was gone. The river flowed into every valley and alley and washed away the darkness and filth. A great army emerged from its wake. Alive and full of Light and glory. Still some vainly tried to build and dam up the river, but to no avail. It simply went over every human effort and flooded the land. THE RIVER OF GOD HAD TURNED!

Chad Taylor Webpage:

www.consumingfire.com

Email: lionheart@gci.net

Join Consumingfire email list: consumingfire-subscribe@egroups.com Lamentations 2:19

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

True Foundation

Michele Edwards

Recently, while spending time with the Lord, He showed me a picture of a very beautiful, ornate church building. Inside and out, the church had the appearance of excellence. Nothing but the best had gone into building this house of God. .

The architecture that went into this church was determined by the interests of those who did the building. There were very large ornate doors that graced the entrance. They were placed there by those who felt the most important ministry of the church was to welcome in the lost. To enter through these doors would surely be the key of forgiveness to all those who were seeking love and forgiveness.

There were many windows, and the sanctuary was filled with bright rays of sunlight. They had been placed there by those who felt that the most important ministry of the church was to shine the light and truth of Jesus on every part of their lives.

Toward the front of the sanctuary was a platform on which many instruments were lined up, waiting to be played to the glory of God. The platform was placed there by those who saw praise and worship as the most important part of the church.

Kneeling benches lined the platform, because some thought prayer was the most important thing.

Many smaller rooms had been built to accommodate teaching of the Word. Teaching was the key to those who had built these walls.....and on it went.

In pondering this picture, I saw many good and necessary things that people saw as most important to the church, but I asked the Lord what He saw as most important to the structure. Immediately I was taken to the basement of the church. There I saw what on the surface seemed to be a very sound, and secure foundation. The footings went deep, the cement appeared thick and strong. Then the Lord showed me a cross section of the foundation.

Much to my surprise, I saw many things imbedded in the cement. I saw words that had long ago been spoken, not by God, but by man. I saw sheets of music, and instruments of praise. I saw religious people, and family members, and I saw stacks of money imbedded into the rock hard cement. There were many other things, all placed there by those who felt these things were necessary for a firm, and solid foundation.

Then the ground started to shake. The pressure on the foundation became very great. As the shaking continued, these "good" things that had made their way into the foundation began to cave in under the weight and pressure of the shaking. In the places where the foundation had appeared to be firm and strong only minutes before, now were crumbling and caving in. Many found the very ground on which they were standing began to fall away. As the ground continued to shake, the weak places became traps to all those who were relying on them to hold them firm in a time of trouble. Only those corners that were truly undergirded by true foundation were safe. All those who found themselves standing on places that had anything else added to the foundation were in danger. Then I heard the Lord say "I am coming to test the foundation of My church."

There are many who have placed many good things in their foundation, but none of these things will be able to stand in a time of shaking. Many people were not even aware that what lay under their feet was not solid until the shaking began. God in His mercy is shaking His church to reveal the weak places that need to be repaired. No other foundation except Jesus will stand.

I Cor 3:11

For no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is layed, which is Jesus Christ.

Paul and Michele Edwards

pedwards@emily.net

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

True Rest

Doug Fortune

“There remaineth therefore a REST to the people of God. For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath CEASED from his OWN WORKS...”(Heb.4:9-10).

Rest!... now that's something we could all use more of! We lead such busy and hectic lives and the whole world seems to be speeding up... we dream of sitting back and putting our feet up and doing NOTHING! Or perhaps we're more 'spiritual' about it, and we long for hours just to sit and listen to worship music or just sit and be quiet before God. Now I'm NOT saying there's anything wrong with these things AT ALL!... but I want to challenge our mentality a little here.

I recently heard a message where the speaker was stressing the importance of getting away from everything and spending much time alone with God so we can accurately hear His voice and commune with Him... I personally happen to be one whose schedule allows this, so I'm certainly not against it. Unfortunately this presents a standard of spirituality that very few can enter into. As I listened to the message, my first thought was 'what about my wife?'... how does a homeschooling mother of four children, ranging in age from 13 to 4 have this opportunity? If that really IS what defines spirituality, then we have just eliminated the majority of the population! And is Christianity really intended to produce a mindset that promotes an ESCAPE from the world? I know we make much of it, and I've heard many sermons on Jesus' leaving the crowds and going to be alone in prayer, but in reality it is only mentioned a very FEW times in Scripture. Now, am I saying we should NOT spend time in our prayer closet?... NO, but I AM saying our spirituality must come OUT of the closet also. He has designed us to be able to hear Him and commune with him in the MIDST of the involvements of everyday living. The world needs a Christianity that can change a diaper or fix the plumbing with one hand and heal the sick with the other hand! Our Christianity is not really defined in the prayer closet (although that IS important), it is defined in the involvement of everyday living. True REST does not necessarily equate with inactivity... in fact, I believe it is quite the opposite. REST is ceasing from OUR WORKS and doing the works of the Father. Jesus' prayer life did not consist of the few times we read of Him going off by Himself, it consisted of an EVERYDAY walk of communion and oneness with the Father in the MIDST of a very busy ministry! The word translated REST in verse 9 of Heb. 4 is sabbatismos, it is of Hebrew origin speaking of the Sabbath, the primary idea being a day consecrated and set apart for God. THAT is what we are to be entering into - being totally consecrated and set apart for God; a temple in which He can dwell and manifest Himself continually. This is the dawning of the SEVENTH prophetic millennial DAY, and God is calling us into His Sabbath REST because there is MUCH to be done as the kingdoms of this world are become the Kingdom of the Lord and His Christ.

Our mentalities must change... no longer is it the season of journey up the Mountain like Moses and bring the glory back to the people, only to have it fade. This is what has happened with many revivals... people start to pray, revival breaks out, after awhile it fades. This is what happens with many weekly church services... Sunday we climb the mountain and it's awesome, by midweek we're definitely needing a boost and by the end of the week the glory has all but disappeared... this is really quite backwards.

Heb. 12:18, 22-23 tells us, "...you have NOT come to a material mountain that can be touched (Sinai is the reference here)... rather, you have approached unto Mount Zion, the city of the Living God, the heavenly Jerusalem... to the Church of the First-born...". Now who is the church of the First-born; who is the heavenly Jerusalem (the Bride - Rev.21:9-10); who is Mount Zion?... WE ARE! The mountain is the Rock or Mountain of the revelation knowledge of the Christ that Peter spoke of when he said 'Thou art the Christ'; it is the REVEALation of Jesus Christ IN US. Paul is saying that we no longer must climb the Mountain like Moses, the Mountain is IN US. We are living stones becoming a Mountain that will fill the whole earth (Dan.2:35). Now in Mark 11:22-23 I believe Jesus makes a prophetic proclamation as He says, "...have FAITH in God... whomsoever shall say to this MOUNTAIN, Be thou removed and be thou cast into the SEA, and shall NOT DOUBT in his heart, but shall BELIEVE that those things that he saith shall come to pass, he SHALL have whatsoever he saith.". Now keep in mind that the SEA is symbolic of people and nations; hopefully I haven't lost you in the thought progression here, stick with me. The Mountain which is the REVEALation of Jesus Christ which is IN US and which IS US is being cast into the SEA/ people, and nations... the revelation knowledge of the glory of Christ is filling the earth as the WATERS (rivers of Living waters flowing out of US) cover the SEA (people and nations).

Now remember as we just read Jesus said in Mark 11:23 that in order for the Mountain to be cast into the sea we must BELIEVE and NOT DOUBT... and what is it also that keeps us from entering into His REST according to Heb. 4:11?...UNBELIEF! Heb.4:3 tells us that "...for we who have BELIEVED do enter into the REST... His works had been completed and prepared and waiting for all who would BELIEVE from the foundation of the world....". Did you catch that?... His works have been completed since the foundation of the world! The true sabbath REST of God is ceasing from our OWN WORKS and allowing Him to cast the Mountain into the SEA, to fill the earth with the revelation knowledge of the glory of God through US! This REST is NOT inactivity or a type of escape from the world; it is an ACTIVE invading and occupying in the military sense. Heb.4:11 tells us to "Let us therefore be zealous and exert ourselves and strive diligently to enter into that REST of God, that no one may fall or perish by the same kind of UNBELIEF and disobedience...". As we enter the true Sabbath REST of God we will experience incredible effectiveness in advancing the Kingdom of God in the earth. We cannot continue to have a prayer life that consists ONLY of getting alone with God... we must have a LIFE that is a Sabbath totally consecrated to the Father, a LIFE that is a continual prayer even if we are mowing the lawn or cooking a meal. Although she does not spend countless hours alone with God, my wife is one of the Godliest women I know.... she manifests Christ on a battlefield that I often fail in - the home life of a large family, (not that our home is a battlefield, it is a haven that the enemy would like to destroy). The REVEALation and manifestation of Christ IN US is the Mountain being cast into the SEA/ people and nations, and this must happen in the involvements of everyday living. Your occupation is not intended only to produce income for you, you are there to infiltrate the kingdom of (this world) your workplace, exercise your spiritual authority in that kingdom (remember, we are seated IN Christ, FAR ABOVE principalities and powers) and bring the Kingdom of God to bear upon that place... you change the spiritual atmosphere of your workplace! All this happens by our BELIEF that God will do what He said He will do; this doesn't necessarily mean you will stand up on the middle of the office or the factory and preach (unless God tells you to).

This is the REST that I am zealous to enter into! Let us press forward in this Seventh Day into the Sabbath REST of forcefully advancing the Kingdom of God in the earth!

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

True Unity

Mike Forest

One of the many things that God is doing in His church at this time is the breaking down of everything that is contrary to the unity of the Spirit. One of the purposes of the fivefold ministry is to bring us all into the unity of the faith.

One misconception about unity is that God is not concerned with what men believe as long as they love one another and are in agreement. This concept is not the true unity of the faith. In fact the Word of God warns against this very thing.

"Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that you should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints." (Jude 1:3).

"For the time will come when they shall not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables." ( 2 Timothy 4: 3, 4).

The same Spirit that is bringing believers into the unity of the faith is referred to in the Word as the Spirit of truth. That which is called unity which is not based on truth is really not true unity at all. A unity that is not built upon THE TRUTH is a unity that is built upon a lie, and therefore it is not build upon the true foundation.

The reason that there are divisions within the church is that men are holding tightly to their own opinions. Men are more interested in justifying their own creeds, belief systems, and traditions, than they are in searching out the truth in God's Word under the leadership of the Holy Spirit. We have got to be willing to die to every opinion that is not in line with the Word of God, if we are to come into the true unity of the faith.

There is a general lack of balance in much of the teaching within the Body of Christ. Many Christians are sitting under teachers that are teaching one aspect of the truth, which is what they like to hear, but is not necessarily that which they need in their spiritual growth. Many will not listen to teaching, even though it is truth, and is in the Word, that goes against their pet doctrines. I believe in the prosperity of the believer, and the Word teaches that God blesses His children, but there are many Christians that are caught up in prosperity teaching that want nothing to do with the basic teachings of discipleship which is the "crucified life". So there develops a division between those that are teaching denial of self and taking up the cross, and those that are embracing the teachings of the prosperity of the believer. The truth of the matter is that the Word of God teaches both the denial of self and the prosperity of the believer. The principal is "seek ye first the kingdom of God and all these things shall be added unto you."

We do not have the privilege of picking and choosing what parts of the Word we want to believe if we are to come into full maturity. The enemy has kept us fighting with those that are different from us. The teachers want to hang out with the teachers, and the prophets want to be with other prophets. The pastors are much more comfortable around other pastors than those weird prophets. God has set the Body up in a way that we need those that are different from us. Just like we need the whole Word of God to be a balance Christian, we also need the whole Body of Christ to come into full maturity. All denominations and non-denominations have parts of the truth, but none of them have all of the truth. Other than the Lord Jesus Christ, there is no one person that has all of the truth. It is a marvelous revelation to discover that we really don't know nearly as much as we thought we knew and that we can learn from others that are in different denominations or movements. Some of us that are in "the river" have had a sectarian spirit whether we realize it or not, because many times we have totally closed ourselves to our brothers that are born again, they are in Christ, but they don't shake, rattle, and roll as we do, so we reject them.

Are we lovers of the truth? Jesus is "the truth". Do we really love the truth more than our own opinions? Do we love the truth more than the teachings of our own group or movement? These are questions that we have to answer honestly and deal with if we hope to enter into the true unity of the faith.

Back to: WHATS NEW PAGE or DATED FILELIST of

End Time Prophetic Vision

The Scales

Bob Neumann

THE SCALES

Over three weeks ago I had a series of four somewhat short but intense images. The first I took very personally and had to read into the image a great deal because it seemed to involve my own reality. The second and third I found myself involved with what KING JESUS was doing. A willing assistant to HIS ACTIONS. Not necessarily involved but witnessing the events as they progressed. There was a fourth vision. Shorter but more intense than any of the other three. Again, THE KING OF KINGS SPOKE LITTLE. Nor had I heard the sweet gentle VOICE of THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT in all this time. That in itself has been difficult for in this same time I have been "visited" by many voices none of which were of GOD.

In the last 12 hours I have had a repeat of this fourth vision twice. On top of that a fifth vision has been given. Harder and even more intense than the first four. Now I have had no guidance on how to present this "vision" to "the church" outside of two scriptures. Likewise I feel less than adequate to attempt to pontificate and interpret this set of images.

Proverbs 11:1 1 A false balance is abomination to the LORD: but a just weight is his delight. (KJV)

Leviticus 19:35

35 Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in meteyard, in weight, or in measure.

36 Just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin, shall ye have: I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt.

37 Therefore shall ye observe all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: I am the LORD.

The Vision was plain and simple. I was sitting at a large heavy table. Before me were a huge number of little bags tied with white string. Some were gray in color, soiled in some way. Some were pure and pristine white in color. As I sat and stared at the bags HIS HAND came across my line of vision and placed another bag among the many already there. I turned and looked and I saw THE LAMB OF GLORY sitting with a set of SCALES in front of HIM. It sat in perfect balance.....one tray even with the other.

The SCALES were of gleaming brass....very well polished....very well used I thought.

The LAMB looked at me with a gentle smile and pointed away from HIM. On the opposite side from where I had sat was a round stone work I had seen often before. It was THE FORGE of GOD. THE PLACE OF HOLY FIRE. In the fire was a BRASS instrument. I took the handle and removed it from THE FIRE and took it to the SCALES. The instrument looked like a shallow ladle or serving spoon. And it glowed from the intensity of THE HEAT. But the HEAT had no bother to THE LAMB who calmly and gently took it and transferred the Ladle's contents to one side of the scales. Without hesitation I returned the Ladle to THE FIRE and returned to look at THE LAMB weighing the contents. That is when I noticed what was in the scales. It was a dark powder. With slow and meticulous precision HE took tiny weights and brought the pile to balance. Calmly HE recorded the "figure" in a ledger book and carefully poured the contents into a piece of pristine linen and tied it off with a white string.

